

UNITED NATIONS ASSOCIATION OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

GRADUATE FELLOWS PROGRAM INFORMATION SESSION

Interested in interning or working with the United Nations?

The UNA-NCA (UN Association of the National Capital Area) offers Washington, DC graduate students studying international affairs, development, and related fields an opportunity to boost professional skills and engagement through a unique 10-seminar series focusing on global issues and the United Nations (seminar begins in Spring 2020).

FOR MORE INFORMATION ON THE GRADUATE FELLOWS PROGRAM SEE:
HTTP://WWW.UNANCA.ORG/GET-INVOLVED/GRADUATE-FELLOWS-PROGRAM

SEPTEMBER 30 | 12-1:50PM
JSAC 1011

Presentation in English with ASL-English Interpretation

Hosted by the MA Program in International Development (IDMA)
For questions and accommodations, contact Dr. Audrey Cooper at:
audrey.cooper@gallaudet.edu