GAMECOCKS IN THE SEC TOURNAMENT

South Carolina is in their seventh consecutive SEC Tournament and 11th overall, holding a 3-9-4 record in the event. The team advanced to the semifinals four times in the past six seasons, making the finals in 2009 and 2010.

South Carolina had a draw against Vanderbilt in 2006, leading to a 4-3 Vanderbilt win in penalty kicks. The first Gamecock SEC Tournament victory came in 2007 with a 2-0 win over Tennessee. In 2009, South Carolina defeated Georgia (3-2) and Florida (1-0) before knocking off LSU in penalty kicks (1-1, 8-7 PKs) to win the title. The 2010 tournament saw the Gamecocks advance on penalty kicks against Kentucky (1-1, 3-4 PKs) and LSU (1-1, 4-3 PKs) before falling to Florida, 0-1, on a own goal.

South Carolina has met Florida the most in SEC Tournament play, going 1-4-0 against the Gators. They have also met Georgia (1-2-0), Tennessee (1-1-0), LSU (0-0-2), Vanderbilt (0-1-1), Kentucky (0-0-1) and Alabama (0-1-0). This is the first meeting against Arkansas in the conference fournament.

LAST TIME OUT VS. ARKANSAS

The first meeting between the Gamecocks and the Razorbacks was in Fayetteville, Ark., on Sept. 23. The two teams battled to a 1-1 tie after 110 minutes of action. Junior Danielle Au scored South Carolina's goal in the 70th minute on assists by Ali Whitney and Taylor Leach. Two Gamecock goals were called back due to offsides. Sophomore goalkeeper Sabrina D'Angelo registered six saves in the game.

Arkansas scored in the 55th minute when Jeriann Okoro found the back of the net with a cross from Phyllis George.

The match marked South Carolina's fifth overtime game in the first 10 contest of the season. Since then, the Gamecocks only played one more overtime match in the regular season, recording another 1-1 draw against Vanderbilt.

SCOUTING ARKANSAS

Arkansas brings a 9-9-1 over all record and a 6-6-1 conference record to the SEC Tournament in Orange Beach. The Razorbacks are led by Ashleigh Ellenwood and Allie Chandler. Ellenwood, a freshman forward, has scored a team-high 11 points on five goals, also a team high, and one assist. The senior midfielder Chandler is just behind with 10 points (4g, 2a). Only one Razorback has started every game, sophomore defender Kaylyn Cooper. In the net, sophomore Kelly Roliard has started 17 matches notching three shutouts and 79 saves.

First year head coach Colby Hale has the Razorbacks in the SEC Tournament for the first time since 2000. The six Arkansas league wins are a school record.

AFTER A LOSS

Both South Carolina and Arkansas lost their regular-season finales on Thursday, with South Carolina falling to SEC regular season champions Florida 3-0 and Arkansas dropping their match to LSU 3-2. South Carolina is 4-2-2 after losses this season. Arkansas is 3-5-0 when coming off a defeat.

SENIOR DANI HENRY HONORED

College Sports Madness named Gamecock defender and Dani Henry to its 2012 Madness SEC Women's Soccer All- Conference Team. The team captain has started all 19 matches for South Carolina this season.

CAROLINA VS THE SEC

South Carolina historically has enjoyed greater success against SEC West foes than SEC East foes by the surprising note that the Gamecocks hold the series advantage against all six SEC West schools (not including newly added Texas A&M) but does not have the advantage against any of the SEC East schools. The Gamecocks are 52-23-15 (.661) all-time vs the West with series' against Alabama (11-4-0), Arkansas (9-3-2), Auburn (7-6-3), LSU (9-2-5), Ole Miss (8-4-2) and Mississippi State (7-4-3). In contrast, South Carolina is 22-70-11 (.267) vs SEC East schools.

GAMECOCK BACKLINE LIMIT OPPONENT'S CHANCES

South Carolina has needed to use a rotating group of players on the backline this season due to injuries throughout the lineup, but in typical Shelley Smith fashion, the squad has been strong in limiting opportunities. During a five-game stretch in conference play, the Gamecocks limited Vanderbilt, Georgia, Tennessee, LSU and Ole Miss to only 17 shots on goal in 470 minutes of action. Vanderbilt only had one shot on frame in the match, Tennessee had four, Georgia had five, LSU only tallied two and Ole Miss registered five. The Gamecocks held the Crimson Tide to only three shots on frame in their Oct. 21 match up.

OVERTIME GAMECOCKS

Six of South Carolina's 19 matches in the regular season have gone to overtime, and the Gamecocks are 0-2-4 in those fixtures. The team has tied the program record of six overtime matches set in 2004, 2006, 2007 and 2008 after a 1-1 draw at Vanderbilt last Sunday. Two of Carolina's four losses this season have come in extra time (Minnesota 2-1, Clemson 1-0) while the Gamecocks have yet to notch a golden goal, something that was not a problem in 2011 when South Carolina went 3-1-0 in overtime matches.

GILBERT'S REMAINS FLEXIBLE

Junior Gabrielle Gilbert has been the version of a utility player for South Carolina, starting matches at defender, midfield and forward in her career. The Canadian began her career on the backline, starting her first career match at right back, but earned the starting right wing spot the first eight matches of the 2012 season. With injuries forcing a change in philosophy, Gilbert has once again moved to the backline where she has started three matches at right back before moving to the midfield three weeks ago at Vanderbilt. Gilbert currently has contributed two goals and three assists, second-most on the team.

AU HITS THE BOARD

Junior Danielle Au endured nine matches this season before hitting her first goal of the year in the 70th minute at Arkansas. South Carolina's leading returning scorer from last season, Au has been plugged as the striker and attacking center mid for the Gamecocks this year and has now scored three goals in five matches after a two-goal outing at Auburn.

GILBERT ON TV

Junior Gabrielle Gilbert has proven to be fond of playing on TV with six of her career 15 points coming in televised matches. Gilbert scored a header in the 13th minute at Vanderbilt in a match that was televised by CSS and ESPN3.com. Coincidentally, the last time South Carolina played on CSS, Gilbert hit the game-winning goal via a header from a corner kick.

This season, Gilbert led the Gamecocks with two shots, registering the only South Carolina shot on goal, against No. 11 Florida on Oct. 25 on a Sun Sports broadcast.

YOUTH IN REVOLT

South Carolina lost 70 percent of its scoring from last season, and the natural question coming into 2012 was where would the goals come from. The freshman class has shown no problem taking up that challenge with the quartet of Coryn Bajema, Courtney Angotti-Smith, Stevi Parker and Raina Johnson tallying seven of South Carolina's 14 goals thus far. The other scores have come from a sophomore (Lani Smith) and three juniors (Rae Wilson, Danielle Au & Gabrielle Gilbert).

MAKING DUE

Shelley Smith is dealing with a squad decimated by injuries for the first time since the 2006 team was forced to deal with mass knocks. The 2012 Gamecocks have already lost two players for the season (Emily Bollinger, Bay Daniel) and have had 11 other players - including five of the six returning starters - miss time or leave games this season due to injury. Only 10 dedicated field players have been without injury - four mids, four forwards and two defenders.

SPREADING THE WEALTH

Fifteen of 18 eligible healthy field players have scored a point for the Gamecocks at this point of the season, with 14 of those 15 having contributed at least one of South Carolina's 27 assists. Ten players have combined to score 17 of South Carolina's goals this season.

GAMECOCKS ON TV

South Carolina will appear on a TV a minimum of four times in 2012 with at least one of those games occurring on national TV, marking the sixth-consecutive season that Carolina will play in front of a national audience. Carolina's home matches against Missouri (Sept. 16) and Florida (Oct. 25) will air live on ESPNU and SUN Sports, respectively, and away matches at Vanderbilt (Sept. 30) and Kentucky (Oct. 19) will air on CSS and SportSouth.

The Gamecocks were a perfect 3-0-0 last season in televised games, outscoring opponents 8-2 in those contests. This season, South Carolina has not fared as well going 0-3-1 in televised games.

ALI ALI OXEN FREE

Sophomore Ali Whitney has had a tough go the past 12 months after a promising freshman year ended with a season-ending injury at Ole Miss last fall and a recurring injury keeping her sidelined for all but four matches this season. However, Whitney has made the most of her comeback despite moving from her starting leftback position last season to a left winger role this year. Gifted with the ability to take long throw-ins thanks to her swimming background, Whitney notched her first assist of the season at Arkansas in her most extensive action of the year.

SABRINA D'ANGELO RETURNS FROM FIFA U-20 WORLD CUP

Sophomore Sabrina D'Angelo missed the first four games of the season while competing for Canada at the FIFA Under-20 Women's World Cup in Japan, but the reigning SEC Freshman and Defensive Player of the Year made her return to Columbia in time for the Clemson match. D'Angelo registered two saves in her first game back at South Carolina and shutout East Carolina in her second match of the season.

Canada went 1-2-0 and finished third in Group C behind North Korea and Norway. D'Angelo registered 16 saves, one shutout and stopped a penalty kick against Norway in the tourney.

ANGOTTI-SMITH NAMED SEC FRESHMAN OF THE WEEK

Freshman Courtney Angotti-Smith was named the SEC Freshman of the Week after her two-goal performance against East Carolina. Angotti-Smith came off the bench in the 23rd minute as an attacking midfielder and scored 79 seconds after subbing in for her first career collegiate goal. She also scored the final goal of the day in the 70th minute.

EVEN MAKEUP

The Gamecocks started a lineup even across the board in both matches over the seasonopening weekend with three freshmen, three sophomores, three juniors and two seniors earning spots in the Starting XI. Three Gamecocks earning starting nods as freshmen were Coryn Bajema, Caroline Gray and Stevi Parker.

ANGOTTI-SMITH MAKES HER DEBUT

Freshman Courtney Angotti-Smith missed the season-opening weekend after suffering a niggle in training, but the Goose Creek native made her debut weekend against Mercer and Jacksonville in outstanding fashion. Angotti-Smith earned 43 minutes off the bench vs Mercer and immediately made a spark for the Gamecock offense, setting up the corner kick that led to Rae Wilson's game-winning goal before adding an assist on Coryn Bajema's insurance score. Angotti-Smith then played 52 minutes and added two more assists in the Jacksonville match to give the freshman a team-leading three assists in only two career games played.

PARKER LINKS THE ATTACK

Freshman Stevi Parker has been the link between the back and the front in her midfield position, but she also made her mark on the score sheet with her first career goal against Jacksonville. Parker's 53rd minute blast from the top of the '18 capped a 3-0 Gamecock victory. Parker also registered her first assist in Sunday's win against ECU.

BAJEMA HONOR

Freshman Coryn Bajema earned her spot as South Carolina's starter on the left wing in her first career game, and the forward rewarded the staff's confidence in her with a team-leading three goals in the first four matches. Bajema's three-goal weekend against Mercer and Jackson-ville led to her being named the SEC Freshman of the Week.

RAE OF LIGHT

Redshirt junior Rae Wilson missed all of the 2011 season recovering from hip surgery, but the Greenville native has started 2012 with a bang. Wilson has scored a point in each of South Carolina's last two games, registering an assist at Minnesota and hitting the game-winning goal against Mercer. The goal was the second of Wilson's career - the first coming in a three-point

LANI MAKES HER MARK

Sophomore Lani Smith earned the distinction of scoring the first goal of the 2012 season after her thrilling buzzer-beating goal at the end of the first half against Minnesota. Smith's goal - which was also the first of her career - came at 44:59 to tie the game at 1-1 going into halftime, but the Gamecocks dropped the match in overtime.

THE TOP DRAWER TOP 100

Sophomore Sabrina D'Angelo clocks in at No. 51 on the Top Drawer Soccer list of the Top 100 Upperclassmen in the nation. D'Angelo is the fifth goalkeeper on the list.

BETWEEN THE PIPES

Senior Darien Vercillo opened the season with a shutout of UW-Milwaukee before earning a career-high four saves at Minnesota. Vercillo, who spot-started in goal in 2011, showed her leadership in the net and came up big in both matches to prevent goals on breakaways by both the Panthers and Gophers.

FOUR GAMECOCKS NAMED TO SEC PRESEASON WATCH LIST

Four Gamecocks were named to the SEC's Preseason Watch List, which has taken over from the previous Preseason All-SEC poll. Senior Dani Henry, junior Danielle Au, sophomore goalkeeper Sabrina D'Angelo and freshman Stevi Parker were selected to the list. Au and D'Angelo have both earned postseason All-SEC honors in their careers with D'Angelo entering 2012 as the reigning SEC Freshman, Goalkeeper and Co-Defensive Player of the Year. Henry leads a backline that has been tops in the SEC the past two seasons. Parker enters her career as a player to watch in the midfield.

SENIOR CLASSES SET THE BAR HIGH

The 2011 senior class left Columbia as the winningest and most-accomplished class in program history after accumulating a four-year record of 61-22-10 (.710), ranking 15th in the nation and second in the SEC for total victories from 2008-11. The Class of 2011 advanced to four consecutive NCAA Tournaments and won two SEC titles (2009 Tournament, 2011 Regular Season).

The 2012 senior class of Dani Henry and Darien Vercillo will look to surpass those numbers with a strong year. The 2012 class currently holds a record of 56-25-10 (.670).

RETURNING CATEGORY LEADERS

Carolina returns six starters from last season's NCAA Tournament team. South Carolina will enter 2012 with a new look and new faces, but talent and depth will be available with Coach Shelley Smith welcoming 10 newcomers - nine freshmen and one transfer - including three who started in the season opener.

CANADIAN CONNECTION

Three members of the South Carolina women's soccer team hail from Canada - juniors Gabrielle Gilbert and Samantha McGowan and sophomore Sabrina D'Angelo. The three international students are the most South Carolina has had since 2001 when the team had two players from Finland (Jessica Julin and Miaa-Maria Heinonen) and one player from Nova Scotia (Erica Bowie).

SABRINA D'ANGELO NAMED TO CANADA U20 WORLD CUP TEAM

Sophomore Sabrina D'Angelo (Welland, Ontario) has been named to Canada's 21-player roster for the FIFA U-20 Women's World Cup. The goalkeeper will miss South Carolina's first four matches (at UW-Milwaukee 8/17, at Minnesota 8/19, vs Mercer 8/23, vs Jacksonville 8/26), and may also miss the final two non-conference matches (vs Clemson 9/1, vs ECU 9/9) depending on Canada's run in the tournament. D'Angelo will return to the Gamecocks in time for the SEC opener against Mississippi State at Stone Stadium on Friday, September 14.

Canada earned its spot in the U-20 World Cup after winning the silver medal at the CONCACAF U-20 Women's Championship in March where D'Angelo earned the distinction of being just the second goalkeeper in the 10-year history of the international competition to post shutouts in all three group stage matches.

Shelley Smith 12th Season

If there was ever any question about the program Shelley Smith has built, it was put away at the end of the 2011 season when Smith's South Carolina squad won its second piece of conference hardware in the past three years and advanced to its fifth consecutive NCAA Tournament appearance.

Smith earned both NSCAA South Region and SEC Coach of the Year honors in 2011 for the second time in three years after solidifying South Carolina as an elite conference contender and nationally-acclaimed program. The Gamecocks won the 2011 SEC regular season and eastern division titles with a 9-2-0 record and moved to the NCAA Second Round for the third consecutive year—one of only two SEC programs to do so in that span.

Smith has led the Gamecocks to 75 overall and 34 SEC victories since the NCAA streak began with the 2007 season, marks that both rank second amongst the league's 12 active coaches. She guided her teams to back-to-back SEC Championship Game appearances, winning the title in 2009 and claiming second in 2010, and has seen her team play for the SEC title on the final day of the regular season each of the past three seasons, breaking through in 2011 with a 2-1 victory at No. 18 Florida.

The 2011 team posted a 16-7-0 overall mark and a program-record 9-2-0 finish in conference play en route to the title. Smith's squad finished the season with a program-record eight-match SEC winning streak to win the league despite playing road games at the league's No. 2 (LSU), No. 3 (Tennessee), No. 4 (Florida) and No. 5 (Georgia) seeds. The record-breaking season ended with a loss to eventual national champion Stanford in a year where Smith's Gamecocks played three of the four teams in the 2011 College Cup. The squad swept the SEC postseason awards with Kayla Grimsley winning her second consecutive SEC Offensive Player of the Year award and freshman Sabrina D'Angelo being named SEC Freshman of the Year, SEC Co-Defensive Player of the Year and SEC Goalkeeper of the Year - in the process becoming the first player in conference history to earn two player of the year honors in the same season. Grimsley also was named a second team All-American by the NSCAA and Soccer America, while D'Angelo was named a first team All-Freshman selection by the organization.

Once again, the Gamecocks finished as the top defensive unit in the league in 2011. The Gamecock squad held seven of 11 SEC opponents to four shots on goal or less, and finished the regular season as the SEC's leader in nearly every major defensive category including goals against average, shots on goal allowed and points allowed. The team posted nine shutouts on the year and was led by first team All-SEC selection Ellen Fahey. Offensively, Grimsley became South Carolina's all-time leading scorer at 119 points and finished the season eighth on the NCAA active list for career points.

Carolina's success has also been apparent in the classroom under Smith, who has coached 154 SEC Academic Honor Roll recipients since coming to USC in 2001. South Carolina has earned an Academic All-America selection in six of the past seven seasons, making the Gamecocks one of only three teams in the nation — and the only in the SEC — to achieve that feat since 2005. Even more impressive is that South Carolina is one of only two programs in the country — alongside North Carolina — to have a first team Academic All-America selection in three of the past four seasons. In 2011, the Gamecocks were also honored with their 10th NSCAA Team Academic Award in her tenure.

Smith has coached several top student-athletes at Carolina including Ashley Kirk, USC's first four-time AII-SEC honoree, Carolina's AII-Americans in four-time AII-SEC selection Blakely Mattern and two-time SEC Player of the Year Kayla Grimsley, and two-time AII-SEC performers Melinda Carter, Jessica Julin and Sarah Lenth Sulin is currently the captain of the Finland National Team, and Carter and Mattern played in the WUSA and WPS, respectively. The Gamecocks have earned 32 AII-SEC honors in the last 11 years.

In her first season as head coach at Carolina (2001), the Game-cocks were the third-most improved team in the nation with an 8-7-3 overall record. Carolina also performed well at home with a 5-3 at Stone Stadium while allowing opponents to score only four goals in eight matches.

The success continued for USC in 2002 with 13 wins in Smith's second season. The year was highlighted with USC's first ever victories against Florida and Kentucky. Smith also led her team to ties against 2002 SEC champion Auburn and Eastern Division champion Tennessee.

Smith led the Gamecocks to another successful season in 2003 with 10 wins including a USC record eight-game unbeaten streak as well as a 6-2-1 record at home in Stone Stadium.

The 2004 season featured a win over No. 7 Clemson, the Game-cocks' first win over a ranked opponent since 1998, as well as a 6-3 mark in non-conference action. Ashley Kirk also became the first freshman soccer player in school history to be named SEC Freshman of the Year. In addition, Carolina set a school record for a home game winning streak with six consecutive wins.

Following an injury filled 2005 season, the program took a big step forward in 2006 as USC went undefeated at home for the first time in school history with an 8-0-3 mark at Stone Stadium. The team's cumulative goals against average of 0.69 was the lowest ever tallied at Carolina. The season culminated with the Game-cocks advancing to the SEC Tournament semifinals for the first time in Carolina history, as Blakely Mattern became the team's first Freshman All-America selection since 1998.

Smith directed the 2007 Gamecocks to arguably the best season in school history at that time, tying the school record with 14 victories and advancing to the NCAA Tournament for only the second time in program history. Carolina posted a 14-6-3 overall record including a 5-4-2 mark in the SEC after beginning the season by becoming the first team ever to knock off defending national champion and top-ranked North Carolina in a season opening game at Fetzer Field in Chapel Hill. The Gamecocks ran to a 7-0-0 start to the season - program bests for start to a season and winning streak - and peaked at No. 7 in the national polls. For the second consecutive season South Carolina advanced to the SEC Tournament semifinals after knocking off Tennessee for the first time in program history and earned the school's first bid to the NCAA Tournament since 1998. Blakely Mattern became the first sophomore to ever earn SEC Defensive Player of the Year honors in addition to becoming the first All-American in South Carolina history.

Smith has cemented Carolina's position as a conference title contender and player on the national stage after guiding the Gamecocks in 2008 to their second consecutive NCAA Tournament bid and third consecutive SEC Tournament bid, both program firsts. The Gamecocks went 11-7-4 overall and earned five SEC wins for the third year in a row with only one senior on the roster. Respected as a top defensive team, the Gamecocks finished the regular season second in the SEC with eight shutcuts and ranked in the top two in every major defensive category including goals allowed, points allowed, shots allowed and shots on goal allowed.

Carolina into the upper echelon of programs after Smith guided the Gamecocks in 2009 to the program's first SEC title and a berth in the NCAA Round of 16, earning her SEC Coach of the Year and NSCAA South Region Coach of the Year honors. South Carolina was a No. 2 national seed in the NCAA tournament and finished with a 19-4-2 record, the best in school history. The Gamecocks finished as one of the top defensive teams in the nation with a school record 15 shutouts, led by Mattern on the backline who was a consensus first team All-American and Lowe's Senior CLASS Award finalist in her final season. Grimsley finished the year with 33 points and was named an honorable mention All-American by Top Drawer Soccer. The team finished eighth in the nation in average attendance.

The 2010 team posted a 15-6-4 overall mark and earned the number two seed in the conference with an 8-2-1 record. The team advanced to the NCAA Second Round in a year that saw Grimsley earn SEC Offensive Player of the Year honors in addition to becoming the second All-American in Gamecock history and a MAC Hermann Trophy Award candidate. The Gamecocks finished as one of the top defensive teams in the country with a streak of 11 consecutive games in limiting opponents to four shots on goal or less and 0 shutouts on the year behind the efforts of Brittiny Rhoades on the backline and Patton, a Lowe's Senior CLASS Award candidate.

in goal. Rhoades was named to the first team on Top Drawer Soccer's Team of the Season. Academically the squad tied a program best with three Academic All-District honors in Patton, Christine Watts and Brooke, Jacobs.
