2008 SEASON REVIEW AND NOTABLES

GAMECOCKS SHUT OUT ARCHRIVAL CLEMSON

South Carolina collected a 2-0 shutout victory over Clemson in its season opener on Aug. 29 in front of a record crowd of 6,102 at Stone Stadium. The sophomore duo of Sam Arthur and Blake Brettschneider each collected one goal and one assist in the match, while goalkeeper Jimmy Maurer tallied three saves in net to secure the shutout for Carolina. The victory marked South Carolina's second-consecutive win over the Tigers, marking the first back-to-back Gamecock wins over Clemson since the 1994-1995 campaigns.

EIGHT GAMECOCKS EARN ALL-C-USA AWARDS

Conference USA announced its 2008 all-conference first, second and third teams, all-freshman team and postseason award winners for men's soccer prior to the 2008 C-USA Tournament. Eight South Carolina student-athletes garnered awards, as sophomore strikers Sam Arthur and Blake Brettschneider were selected to the first team, while junior midfielder Jeff Scannella earned second-team honors alongside junior defender Tyler Ruthven and sophomore goalkeeper Jimmy Maurer. Junior defender Mark Wiltse earned third-team honors and midfielders David MacVane and Stephen Morrissey were selected to the all-freshman squad.

NSCAA ALL-SOUTH REGION HONORS

Sophomore Jimmy Maurer earned NSCAA All-South Region First Team honors, while sophomore striker Sam Arthur was named to the Second Team. At least one South Carolina player has made the All-South Region team since 1983.

NATIONAL STATISTICS

In the final 2008 NCAA statistics for men's soccer, South Carolina ranked 11th in save percentage (.853) and 28th with an 0.80 goals against average. Individually, Sam Arthur concluded the season ranked 26th with 0.63 goals per contest, while goalkeeper Jimmy Maurer finished the campaign 15th with an 0.85 save percentage.

TYING MACHINE

South Carolina's five ties during the regular season marked the most by any Gamecock squad since the program's inception in 1978. South Carolina has had four ties in a season twice, in 1988 and 1993.

SOLID AS A ROCK

South Carolina's defensive line led by sophomore goalkeeper Jimmy Maurer allowed just 16 goals on the year, the fewest goals allowed by a Gamecock squad since the 1998 team allowed just 14 goals. Only four other South Carolina squads have allowed 16 or fewer goals in a season. The inaugural team in 1978 and the 1987 squads both allowed a record-low 10 goals, while the 1988 Gamecocks allowed 12 goals.

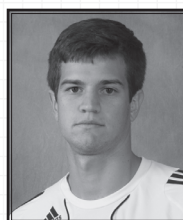

ARTHUR COLLECTS NATIONAL HONORS

Sophomore striker Sam Arthur was named to the CollegeSoccerNews.com, TopDrawerSoccer.com and Soccer America Teams of the Week after leading the Gamecocks to victory over College of Charleston with two goals, including the game winner, on Sept. 19, 2008. The award marked the second-consecutive week that Arthur was selected to the TopDrawerSoccer.com squad. The effort against Charleston marked the third-consecutive game in which Arthur contributed two goals, while he collected all three game winners during the stretch.

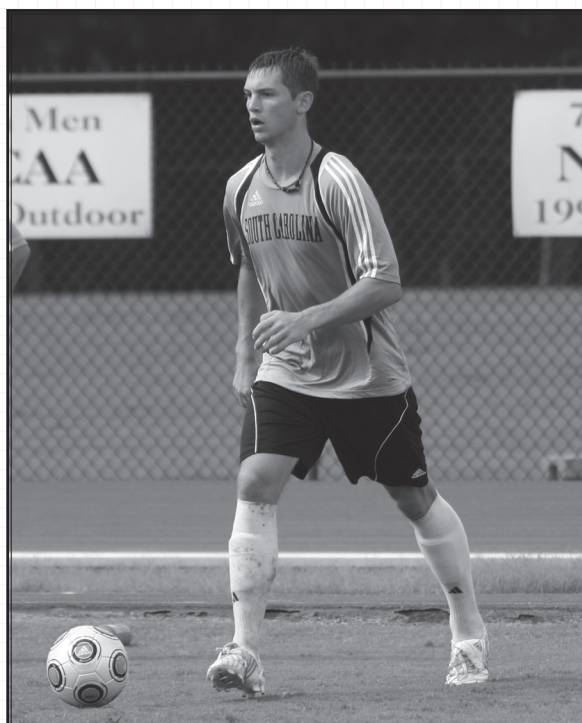

BERSON IMPROVES WIN TOTAL TO 421

Gamecock head coach Mark Berson improved his overall record to 421-165-53 for his career. Berson is one of just three active Division I coaches with 400 or more wins, and the only active coach in Conference USA to have reached the career milestone.

MAURER EARNS FOUR CONFERENCE HONORS

South Carolina goalkeeper Jimmy Maurer was named the Conference USA Defensive Player of the Week four times during his sophomore season in 2008. The four honors tied for the most C-USA weekly men's soccer awards in one season.

Sophomore striker Blake Brettschneider scored six goals and added two assists during his sophomore campaign. He earned First Team All-Conference USA in 2008.

Freshman Stephen Morrissey scored one goal and added one assist during his rookie campaign. He earned Conference USA All-Freshman Team honors.
