

2013 BASEBALL CHAMPIONSHIP

GAME 6 POSTGAME NOTES

COLUMBIA REGIONAL • CAROLINA STADIUM • MAY 31-JUNE 3

South Carolina 6, Liberty 4

South Carolina Notes

- With the victory, South Carolina improves to 42-18 on the season.
- The win is the Gamecocks' 27th-straight postseason win at home, including a 16-0 mark at Carolina Stadium. South Carolina is 58-8 all-time at home in postseason play.
- South Carolina has secured its fourth-consecutive Super Regional berth. It's the Gamecocks' 11th trip in the last 14 years, which ranks second in the nation behind Florida State during that span.
- Senior pitcher Colby Holmes worked 1 1/3 scoreless innings to earn the win, which is his first since April 7 at Tennessee. He gave up two hits and struck out one in the outing that spanned two days.
- The Gamecocks will play the winner of tonight's Chapel Hill Regional final between North Carolina and Florida Atlantic in the Super Regionals. If North Carolina wins, the Tar Heels will host South Carolina. With a Florida Atlantic win, the Gamecocks would host the Super Regional later this week at Carolina Stadium.

Liberty Notes

- Liberty ends its season with a 36-29 record.
- The Flames are now 3-7 all-time in NCAA Regional play.
- Liberty sophomore Ashton Perritt made his first career start on the mound on Sunday after throwing 34 pitches to earn the save in the Flames' 3-1 victory over Clemson in Game 5 of the regional. Perritt (3-2) took the loss against the Gamecocks, surrendering two runs and six hits and striking out three in four innings of work.
