No. 3 South Carolina women's soccer plays host to High Point this weekend on Sun., Aug. 27. Kickoff from Stone Stadium is set for 7 p.m. ET, and Sunday's contest will mark the second all-time meeting between the two schools. The Gamecocks topped the Panthers 2-0 at home during the 2014 season.

SCOUTING HIGH POINT

The Panthers enter this weekend with a mark of 2-1-0 following a 1-0 victory in their home opener against Ohio on Friday. Senior midfielder Paige Rombach netted the game-winner, converting a first-half penalty kick in the 19th minute. Rombach and sophomore midfielder Maggie Gruber are tied for the team lead with two points through three matches in 2017, while freshman defender Mackenzie Mullens is third with one point on one assist.

High Point has conceded just two goals this season, and its performance against Ohio marked its second clean sheet of the year. The Panthers are 1-1-0 on the road for the year, splitting its matches at Appalachian State (W, 1-0) and Georgia (L, 1-0).

Last year, High Point captured the 2016 Big South Regular Season Championship and finished with a mark of 13-6-2. The Panthers, who were picked to finish second in the Big South in a preseason poll of the league's coaches, have won three conference regular season titles under Marty Beall.

LAST TIME OUT

South Carolina suffered its first loss of the season on Thursday, falling to Wake Forest 3-2 on the road. Senior striker Savannah McCaskill paced the Gamecocks with two first-half tallies that established a 2-1 lead through 45 minutes of action.

The Demon Deacons rallied in the second period, and a header in the box in the 51st minute by midfielder Bayley Feist evened the score at two. Wake Forest went ahead 3-2 just over 10 minutes later when freshman forward Hannah Betfort one-timed a shot that snuck the ball inside the right point.

The Gamecocks outshot the Demon Deacons 9-6 for the match and put five attempts on frame. Each of McCaskill's four attempts were put on target, while Carolina goalkeeper Mikayla Krzczowski tallied one save in the contest. With the loss, the Gamecocks saw their program-record six-match road winning streak snapped. The stretch dated back to last season.

POLLING WELL

South Carolina climbed to the No. 3 spot in the latest United Soccer Coaches Poll, which was released on Monday. The Gamecocks, who spent five weeks ranked inside the top three last season, earned the program's highest preseason ranking ever this fall after opening at No. 4. Carolina has been ranked in the top five in each of the previous 10 installments of the poll dating back to last September.

NEW FACES IN THE LINEUP

Four newcomers have earned the start in each of Carolina's first three matches of the season. Freshmen Sarah Eskew and Jackie Schaefer have started on the Gamecock back line, and the pair of defenders helped South Carolina post a shutout in its season opener against UCF (Aug. 18). Redshirt senior transfer Meaghan Carrigan and freshman Ryan Gareis have also been inserted into the lineup, playing up top in the Gamecock attack. Gareis put three of her four shots on frame over Carolina's opening two matches.

PICKING UP WHERE SHE LEFT OFF

Carolina attacker Savannah McCaskill continues to carry the Gamecock attack in her senior season. The Chapin, S.C., native, who has netted a goal in each of the last two matches, leads the team in points (8), goals (3) and shots (13). She logged her first multi-goal game of the season in Thursday's loss to Wake Forest, and the forward's second-half tally against FGCU (Aug. 20) marked the game-winner. McCaskill, the 2016 SEC Offensive Player of the Year, has recorded a point in each of Carolina's three matches this season.

RAISING THE BAHR

Gamecock striker Elexa Bahr has enjoyed a productive start to her sophomore campaign after netting goals in each of Carolina's first two matches. The Buford, Ga., native's two tallies are one more than she had all of last season, and her goal in the season opener against UCF on Fri., Aug. 18, marked the first career game-winner for the forward. Bahr's two goals, four points and five shots on goal all rank second among Gamecocks this season.

A SPARK OFF THE BENCH

Carolina freshman midfielder Lauren Chang had a hand in a pair of goals over the opening weekend against UCF (Aug. 18) and Florida Gulf Coast (Aug. 20). The Gamecock newcomer, who came off the bench in both contests, tallied her first collegiate goal against the Knights after smashing home a shot from outside the box in the second half. She set up the game-winner against the Eagles, maneuvering around the FGCU defense before drawing a foul near the left side of the box. Chang's two points are good for the most among Carolina newcomers in 2017.

MCCASKILL'S MARCH TOWARDS 100

With a pair of goals against Wake Forest on Thursday, Carolina forward Savannah McCaskill moved three point shy of 100 for her career. Her 97 points, which rank third all-time among Gamecocks, sit 22 away from the all-time school record. McCaskill has led Carolina in points in each of her first three seasons, and her 45 points as a junior in 2016 marked a single-year school record.

HOME FIELD ADVANTAGE

Since 2013, South Carolina boasts a record of 43-6-1 in matches played at "The Graveyard". The Gamecocks recorded the program's first undefeated home season (11-0-0) in 2013, and they notched their 150th victory at Stone Stadium earlier this season following a win over Florida Gulf Coast on Aug. 20. Carolina, which has gone 150-55-12 (.719) overall at the venue, posted the program's third regular-season unbeaten home record last fall and outscored opponents 37-4 at Stone Stadium in 2016.

RECORD BOOK WATCH

Senior striker Savannah McCaskill enters Sunday's match 22 points shy of the all-time program record. The Chapin, S.C., native currently ranks third with 97 career points, and her 35 goals and 27 assists also stand as the third-best mark in program history. McCaskill is 15 goals shy of former Gamecock standout Jennie Ondo's school-record total of 50.

Sophomore goalkeeper Mikayla Krzczowski heads into this week's action with the school's lowest goals against average (0.54). She ranks fifth in shutouts with 12 for her career, and the Douglasville, Ga., native's 23 matches started in net are good for the eighth-highest total in program history.

PRESEASON SEC POLL

The SEC coaches selected South Carolina to finish third in the league with Florida and Texas A&M claiming the top two spots. The Gamecocks defeated the Aggies 1-0 on the road last season behind a late game-winner from forward Savannah McCaskill, and they topped Florida at home on an overtime penalty kick goal from Chelsea Drennan. Seven of the last eight contests between Carolina and Florida have been decided by one goal or less.

Five Gamecocks were named to the SEC Preseason Watch List – seniors Dominique Babbitt, Anna Conklin, Lindsey Lane and Savannah McCaskill along with sophomore goalkeeper Mikayla Krzczowski. This fall marks the third-straight year that McCaskill landed on the list.

TWO GAMECOCKS LAND ON MAC HERMANN TROPHY WATCH LIST

South Carolina soccer standouts Savannah McCaskill and Mikayla Krzczowski were named to the 2017 Women's MAC Hermann Trophy Watch List by the United Soccer Coaches earlier this month. McCaskill, a semifinalist for the award last season, enters this fall with the most game-winners from last year of any returning player. Krzczowski totaled an impressive 11 clean sheets during her freshman campaign, including eight in SEC play. South Carolina is one of four schools with multiple student-athletes on the list for the annual honor that recognizes the top women's soccer player in NCAA Division I.

REWRITING THE RECORD BOOK

The Gamecocks boasted the finest season in school history last fall, setting program records for wins (21), victories over ranked opponents (5), goals (51) and goals against average (0.41). Carolina, which ended the season with the top winning percentage (.896) in NCAA Division I, became the first school in SEC soccer history to post an unbeaten regular-season mark (17-0-1). The Gamecocks trailed for just 85 seconds during the regular season and closed the dominant stretch with a program-record 17-straight wins. The 2016 SEC Regular-Season Champions earned the program's first No. 1 NCAA Tournament seed before reaching the Elite Eight for the second time in three years.

UP NEXT

South Carolina travels to South Bend, Ind., this weekend for a pair of matches against nationally ranked opponents. The Gamecocks face No. 24 Notre Dame on Fri., Sept. 1, before playing No. 23 Michigan in a neutral contest on Sun., Sept. 3.
