No. 15 South Carolina will put its unbeaten road streak on the line this weekend when the team travels to the top two teams in the SEC West standings in Alabama and Auburn. The Gamecocks and Tigers will kickoff Friday at 8 p.m. before the team plays Alabama on Sunday at 3 p.m. South Carolina is 4-0-1 in road games this season, two games shy of the longest road unbeaten streak in school history.

MOLLIE PATTON'S COUNTDOWN TO 33

Heading into the weekend, senior goalkeeper Mollie Patton has 30 career solo shutouts at South Carolina. Her 30 shutouts are three shy of tying the SEC record of 33, held by Megan Rivera of Auburn (2001-04). She already holds the SEC records for consecutive shutouts (7) and single-season shutouts (15), and was already the South Carolina all-time record holder before the season began. Patton played 45 minutes in last Sunday's 7-0 win against Mississippi State, a combined shutout that does not count towards the record.

ON THE HORIZON

South Carolina returns to Stone Stadium next weekend with matches against SEC East rivals Georgia and Tennessee. Carolina and Georgia will play next Friday night at 7 p.m. before the Gamecocks take on the Lady Vols Sunday in a game nationally-televised by ESPNU at 3 p.m.

SCOUTING AUBURN

The overwhelming choice to win the SEC West this year, Auburn enters the weekend with a 2-2 SEC record with victories in their Friday night matches (Mississippi State and Arkansas) and losses in their Sunday matches (Ole Miss and LSU). The Gamecocks get the Tigers on a Friday night and will have their hands full with junior midfielder Katy Frierson, a two-time All-SEC performer and MAC Hermann Trophy candidate this year. Frierson leads the SEC in points with seven goals and seven assists (21 points). Amy Howard sports a 1.15 goals against average with four shutouts and a .720 save percentage. Carolina and Auburn have been two evenly matched teams since Coach Shelley Smith took over at SC -- the record is 3-3-2 since 2001.

SCOUTING ALABAMA

Considering the coaches preseason poll projections, Alabama has been the surprise of the SEC and enter the weekend atop the SEC West with 10 points and an unbeaten 3-0-1 record. The Crimson Tide are unbeaten in their last six games with five of those by virtue of shutout with the return of junior keeper Justine Bernier from Canadian national team duty. Bernier leads the SEC with a 0.16 goals against average and a .974 save percentage having given up one goal in 560 minutes. Alabama's offensive attack is led by senior Brooke Rogers's six goals for 12 points.

SENIOR CLASS SETS THE BAR HIGH

The 2009 senior class left Columbia as the winningest senior class in program history, but the 2010 class can claim that distinction with another solid year. The Class of '09 held a 55-23-14 (.674) record, the most wins and best win-percentage for a South Carolina senior class. The Class of '10 currently claims a career record of 53-19-11 (.705) and also has the chance to become the first class to advance to the NCAA Tournament all four years.

IN THE POLLS

South Carolina jumped in all three polls this week, coming in at No. 15 by the NSCAA and Soccer Times as well as No. 14 by Soccer America. The rankings are the highest for the Gamecocks since the first week of the season when Carolina was No. 13 (NSCAA) and No. 15 (Soccer Times).

NEW-LOOK GRIMSLEY

Junior Kayla Grimsley, an All-American candidate at forward, has been called upon to play many roles for the youthful Gamecocks in 2010, Already one of the most prolific scorers in Gamecock history, Grimsley has added to her M.O. as a distributionist as well. With nine assists already on the season - three coming on game-winning goals - Grimsley moves to No. 2 on the South Carolina all-time list with 22 in her career, behind the 24 put up by Mindy Sanders from 1996-99. Already in the Carolina top three in nearly every offensive category (including goals, assists and points), Grimsley now holds the freshman (6), sophomore (7) and junior (9) records for single-season assists.

NATIONAL GAMECOCKS

Three Gamecocks find themselves among the nation's top 25 in various statistics as we pass the mid-point of the season. Junior Kayla Grimsley and sophomore Christine Watts have proven to be two of the top distributionists in the country with Grimsley No. 2 (9 assists) and Watts No. 24 (6 assists) in the NCAA in assists. Senior goalkeeper Mollie Patton remains the nation's shutout leader with 8 despite not earning a solo shutout in last Sunday's 7-0 win that saw three goalkeepers play. Patton is also 14th in the nation in goals against average (0.46) and comes in at 26th with a .870 save percentage.

PATTON AT THE TOP

Senior Mollie Patton currently holds the national lead with eight solo shutouts. A Lowe's Senior CLASS Award nominee, Patton's 30 career shutouts leaves her three shy of tying the all-time SEC record of 33 set by Auburn's Megan Rivera (2002-04). She is tied with Central Michigan's Shay Mannino for No. 2 on the list of active goalkeepers with 30 career shutouts (West Virginia's Kerri Butler is the active leader at 36).

OFFENSIVE OUTPUT

After struggling to put the ball in the net for much of the non-conference season, South Carolina emerged as an offensive threat in SEC play with 15 unanswered goals dating back to the 5-1 victory at Kentucky. Since Kentucky went ahead 1-0 in that match, South Carolina has been on a roll with five straight against the Wildcats, three goals against Ole Miss (3-0) and seven goals against Mississippi State (7-0). The Gamecocks possess the SEC's No. 2 offense and No. 1 defense in all games played.

SUNDAY MADNESS

South Carolina has performed at a perfect level on Sunday afternoon matches, traditionally the toughest day of the week after playing a Friday game. The Gamecocks, 6-0-1 in Sunday matches this year, have outscored opponents 20-2 on Sundays with the lone blemish coming in a 1-1 tie against Arizona State and a 5-1 win at Kentucky. Carolina has scored 12 goals in SEC Sunday matches this year. For the record, that means 20 of Carolina's 27 goals have come on Sundays.

JACOBS HITS THE HAT TRICK

Senior forward Brooke Jacobs notched her first career hat trick with three goals in a 14-minute span against Mississippi State. The hat trick was the sixth in South Carolina history and the first against an SEC opponent. The last hat trick was performed by Erin Sullivan against The Citadel in 2006.

LOVEABLE LOLLY

Junior midfielder Lolly Holland has been on fire for South Carolina with three goals in the last three games. She started against Kentucky due to an injury to starter Kira Campbell and responded by notching her second goal of the year. She followed that up with goals against Ole Miss and Mississippi State last weekend and is currently tied for third on the team with four goals on the year. Her first tally came in the season opener against Boston University, which coincidentally was her first career goal as well.

WATTS ADJUSTS EASILY

Sophomore Christine Watts played as Carolina's first person off the bench last season as a backup midfielder. This season, Watts has been asked to play a new role as the team's starting right back, and the transition has been seamless. She has already earned six assists from her new position with two of those assists coming on game-winning goals. Watts also hit the game-winning goal against Mississippi State.

AU SO GOOD!

Freshman Danielle Au had an impact weekend at the Carolina's Cup with two goals, including the game-winner against Furman in overtime. She became the first Gamecock freshman (and second ever!) to score a golden goal since Lexi Tourtellotte (the only other to achieve the feat) did it against Evansville (Oct. 16, 1995) - a span of 15 seasons and 56 overtime games. For her efforts, Au was named the tournament MVP and picked up SEC Freshman of the Week and CollegeSoccer360.com Primetime Performer of the Week honors.

MORE ON AU

Freshman Danielle Au has scored nine points in South Carolina's last eight games, including hitting the game-winning goals against Furman and Wake Forest. Au's game-winner against Wake Forest continued her record trend as she became just the second Gamecock freshman to ever hit a game-winning goal to defeat a ranked opponent. The only other was Mindy Sanders who score the game-winner in a 3-2 win against No. 9 Clemson (Sept. 18, 1996), the first game against a ranked opponent in South Carolina history.

CAMPBELL'S RETURN

Junior Kira Campbell missed the Kentucky game after suffering a concussion against Vanderbilt two nights before. The Lexington, S.C. native returned in the next game against Ole Miss and responded by knocking in her first career goal in the 15th minute for what proved to be the game-winner.

GAMECOCKS ON TV

South Carolina will appear on a TV a minimum of five times in 2010 with three of those games occurring on national TV, marking the fourth consecutive season that Carolina will play in front of a national audience. Five of Carolina's six SEC home games will be televised, beginning with last week's 3-0 win against Ole Miss (FSC) and 7-0 win against Mississippi State on CSS (7-0). The Florida game will be shown on SUN Sports. The Tennessee and LSU matches will both be broadcast on ESPNU.

SINCLAIR STARTS

Freshman midfielder Elizabeth Sinclair is a Gamecock to keep your eyes on. She immediately impressed with her work ethic and skills, taking her all of two games to crack the starting 11 in the spot vacated by the graduation of All-SEC performer Kim Miller. Sinclair brings the same all-around presence to the field that Miller gave the Gamecocks as a four-year starter.

PASSES BY PETRONI

Junior Maria Petroni had one of her best weekends in the non-conference finale while adjusting to her new role as a starting forward. Petroni scored an assist against both #23 Minnesota and #22 Wake Forest - her first two of the year - to give her a point in two consecutive games.

McGOWAN DEBUTS

Freshman Samantha McGowan scored her first career goal against Kentucky to tie the game at 1-1 in the 40th minute. The Canadian national is a goal-scoring threat up top with her height and strength, and is rebounding from an ACL tear suffered last year in high school.

FAHEY RETURNS

Junior defender Ellen Fahey missed the Gamecock Courtyard Cup after suffering an injury against Northeastern, and the leader at centerback was missed in the team's first game without her - a 1-0 loss to Louisville at home. In fact, in the three games South Carolina has played without Fahey since 2008, the Gamecocks have gone 1-2-0, with losses against the Cardinal this year and LSU last year, and the lone win coming against Ohio this season. Fahey returned to the pitch against Arizona State and will be looked upon as the leader at centerback.

KORTNEY RHOADES IS BACK AS WELL

Junior midfielder Kortney Rhoades sat out the first four games of the season due to pre-season surgery, but the regular starter made her 2010 debut against Arizona State with 17 minutes off the bench. Rhoades will be eased back into the lineup over the next few games after not playing at Wake Forest. Her presence on the field adds another dimension to the Carolina attack as she brings another layer of creativity to go along with that of Kayla Grimsley up top.

HENRY FILLS IN ADMIRABLY

Sophomore defender Dani Henry took upon one of the most high-profile jobs this year when she was called to fill in the centerback spot vacated by the graduation of consensus All-American Blakely Mattern. Henry, a top 150 recruit coming out of high school, has played nearly every minute of the season in the spot beside Ellen Fahey.

PADUA PALS

Three starters for South Carolina played their high school soccer together at Padua Academy in Wilmington, Del. The Rhoades sisters - Brittany and Kortney - have been regular starters since stepping onto campus. In addition, fellow starter Dani Henry also played at Padua with the Rhoades sisters. The 2010 season marks the first year that all three will start for South Carolina.

HOME AT THE STONE

South Carolina has been nearly unstoppable at Stone Stadium the past three seasons, posting a 38-5-6 record at home since 2006. The streak included a 15-game unbeaten streak from Aug. 31, 2006-Oct. 5, 2007 and a 13-game unbeaten streak at "The Graveyard" from Oct. 19, 2007-Oct. 23, 2008. The lone blemishes on the record are a double-overtime loss to Vanderbilt (Oct. 7, 2007), a loss to #7 Florida (Oct. 30, 2008), the NCAA Third Round thriller against #14 Wake Forest (Nov. 20, 2009) and losses to Louisville and Minnesota earlier this season. Carolina went 11-1-0 at Stone Stadium last season.

MOLLIE PATTON: LOWE'S SENIOR CLASS AWARD CANDIDATE

Senior goalkeeper Mollie Patton has been selected as one of 30 candidates for the 2010 Lowe's Senior CLASS Award for women's soccer. Candidates are chosen based on their dedication and achievement in four areas: Classroom, Character, Community and Competition.

KAYLA GRIMSLEY: MAC HERMANN TROPHY AWARD WATCH LIST

Junior forward Kayla Grimsley has been named as one of 45 players selected to the 2010 Watch List for the Missouri Athletic Club's (MAC) Hermann Trophy, the top individual award presented in intercollegiate soccer.

The winner of the award is selected through voting by the members of the National Soccer Coaches Association of America (NSCAA). Voting for the MAC Hermann Trophy is conducted in late November, when a field of 15 semifinalists is reduced to three finalists. Each January, the winners are honored at an annual banquet at the MAC, located in downtown St. Louis.

Grimsley's appearance marks the first time a Gamecock has been selected as a candidate for the prestigious award. The honor comes on the heels of being selected for the Preseason All-SEC team. She is a two-time postseason All-SEC selection, a TopDrawerSoccer Team of the Season selection.

FIRST TIME OPPONENTS

South Carolina faced four opponents for the first time this season in Northeastern, Ohio, Arizona State or Minnesota. The team went 2-1-1 this year against first time opponents after defeating Northeastern (3-0) and Ohio (2-0), drawing Arizona State (1-1) and losing to Minnesota (3-1). In 2009, Carolina went 5-0-0 against first time opponents, defeating Louisville (3-0), Cincinnati (4-0), UCF (1-0), South Alabama (6-1) and Rutgers (1-0).

GILBERT GOES FOR GOLD

Freshman defender Gabrielle Gilbert had a strong opening week for the Gamecocks in her collegiate debut. The Canadian national earned starts against Boston and Northeastern at right back and hit the game-winning goal against the Terriers to become the first true freshman to score a game-winning goal on the season opening weekend since Melinda Carter scored the GWG against Davidson on Sept. 1, 1998.

BREAKING STREAKS IN BOSTON

South Carolina opened the year with back-to-back road shutouts against Boston University and Northeastern, ending long home winning streaks for each team. South Carolina's victory at Boston ended a 20-game winning streak for the Terriers at Nickerson Field, dating back to the 2008 season opener. The victory against Northeastern ended a home unbeaten streak for the Huskies who had not lost a home game since October of 2008 and had not been shutout in 17 games.

RETURNING CATEGORY LEADERS

Carolina returns six starters from last season's NCAA Tournament team. South Carolina will enter 2010 with a new look and new faces, but talent and depth will be available after Coach Shelley Smith signed 11 freshmen and added another standout during preseason training.

COACHES TAB GAMECOCKS FOURTH IN SEC EAST

The Southeastern Conference coaches have selected South Carolina to finish third in the SEC Eastern division this year. The Gamecocks are coming off a 19-4-2 record in 2009 with a second place finish in the SEC East (7-3-1) and a berth in the NCAA Round of 16.

Florida was selected as the favorite to win the SEC title this year with 11 of 12 first-place votes cast for the Gators. South Carolina received the other first-place vote for the East and SEC overall titles, marking the first year that the defending SEC Tournament champions received a vote for the overall title.

EXCEEDING EXPECTATIONS

For the fourth consecutive year Shelley Smith's 2009 squad exceeded preseason expectations by finishing strong in SEC play. Picked by the coaches to finish last in 2006, the Gamecocks earned fifth in the Eastern division. Picked to finish last in the East in the 2007 SEC Preseason poll, the Gamecocks tied a program record for wins en route to a fourth place division finish. Carolina was picked fourth in the 2008 preseason poll and again improved in the standings with a third place finish in the Eastern division. Coach Smith's team was again picked fourth in 2009 and responded with an SEC East runner-up finish that earned her SEC Coach of the Year honors.

GAME 16 - GEORGIA

Shelley Smith
10th Season

Shelley Smith enters her tenth season at the helm of the USC women's soccer program after turning the Gamecocks into conference and national title contenders with three consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances.

Smith moved Carolina into the upper echelon of programs after guiding the Gamecocks in 2009 to the program's first SEC title and a berth in the NCAA Round of 16, earning her SEC Coach of the Year and NSCAA South Region Coach of the Year honors. South Carolina was a No. 2 national seed in the tournament and finished with a 19-4-2 record, the best in school history. The team's 7-3-1 conference record was also a program best, and four players earned All-SEC honors.

The Gamecocks finished as one of the top defensive teams in the nation with a school record 15 shutouts, led by Mattern on the backline who was a consensus first team All-American in her final season. Grimsley finished the year with 33 points and was named an honorable mention All-American by Top Drawer Soccer. The team finished eighth in the nation in average attendance.

Carolina's success in the classroom also continued last season as her squad earned two Academic All-District honors in Mattern and Mollie Patton for the second consecutive year. Mattern was also named to the Academic All-America first team, making South Carolina one of only four teams in the nation - and the only in the SEC - to have an Academic All-American selected each of the past five seasons. Her team was also honored with its eighth NSCAA Team Academic Award. Smith has coached 131 SEC Academic Honor Roll recipients since coming to USC in 2001.

Smith has coached several top student-athletes at Carolina including Ashley Kirk, USC's first four-time All-SEC honoree, Carolina's first All-American in four-time All-SEC selection Blakely Mattern and two-time All-SEC performers Melinda Carter, Jessica Julin, Kayla Grimsley and Sarah Lentz. Julin is currently the captain of the Finland National Team and Carter played in the WUSA. The Gamecocks have earned 24 All-SEC honors in the last nine years.

In her first season as head coach at Carolina (2001), the Gamecocks were the third most improved team in the nation with an 8-7-3 overall record. Carolina also had one of the school's best home records, going 5-3 at Stone Stadium, allowing opponents to score only four goals in eight matches.

The success continued for USC in 2002 with 13 wins in Smith's second season. The year was highlighted with USC's first ever victories against Florida and Kentucky. Smith also led her team to ties against 2002 SEC champion Auburn and Eastern Division champion Tennessee.

Smith led the Gamecocks to another successful season in 2003 with 10 wins including a USC record eight-game unbeaten streak as well as a 6-2-1 record at home in Stone Stadium.

The 2004 season featured a win over No. 7 Clemson, the Gamecocks' first win over a ranked opponent since 1998, as well as a 6-3 mark in non-conference action. Ashley Kirk also became the first freshman soccer player in school history to be named SEC Freshman of the Year. In addition, Carolina set a school record for a home game-winning streak with six consecutive wins.

Following an injury filled 2005 season, the program took a big step forward in 2006 as USC went undefeated at home for the first time in school history with an 8-0-3 mark at Stone Stadium. The season culminated with the Gamecocks advancing to the SEC Tournament semifinals for the first time in Carolina history, as Blakely Mattern became the team's first Freshman All-American selection since 1998.

The 2007 season marked the official turning point of the program, tying the school record with 14 victories and advancing to the NCAA Tournament for only the second time in program history. Carolina posted a 14-6-3 overall record including a 5-4-2 mark in the SEC after beginning the season by becoming the first team ever to knock off defending national champion and top-ranked North Carolina in a season opening game at Fetzer Field in Chapel Hill. The Gamecocks ran to a 7-0-0 start to the season and peaked at No. 7 in the national polls. For the second consecutive season South Carolina advanced to the SEC Tournament semifinals after knocking off Tennessee for the first time in program history and earned the school's first bid to the NCAA Tournament since 1998. Blakely Mattern became the first sophomore to ever earn SEC Defensive Player of the Year honors in addition to becoming the first All-American in South Carolina history.

Smith cemented Carolina's position as a conference title contender and player on the national stage after guiding the Gamecocks in 2008 to their second consecutive NCAA Tournament bid and third consecutive SEC Tournament bid. The Gamecocks went 11-7-4 overall and earned five SEC wins for the third year in a row with only one senior on the roster.
