#22 South Carolina Takes On #1 Stanford In NCAA Second Round Action

#22 South Carolina
(16-6-0, 9-2-0 SEC)

Stanford
(20-0-1, 9-0-0 Pac-12)

Laird G. Cagan Stadium
Stanford, Calif.

Nov. 18, 2010 • 10 p.m. (ET)

No. 22 South Carolina travels to top-ranked Stanford in the second round of the NCAA Women's Soccer Tournament, marking the third consecutive year that the Gamecocks have advanced to the Round of 32. The Gamecocks (16-6-0) and Cardinal (20-0-1) will kickoff Friday at 10 p.m. (ET) at Cagan Stadium in the first meeting between the two teams.

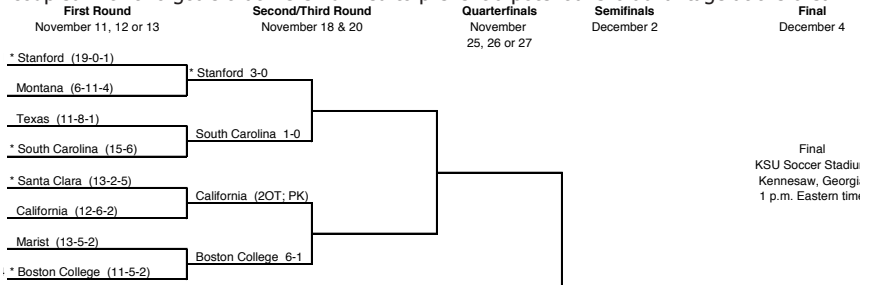

LAST TIME OUT

Senior Lolly Holland scored in the seventh minute to send South Carolina to the NCAA Second Round for the third consecutive season with a 1-0 victory over Texas Friday night at Stone Stadium.

Holland's goal at 6:25 was assisted by a pair of classmates in seniors Kayla Grimsley and Maria Petroni. The assist was the 10th of the season for Grimsley, and gives the SEC Offensive Player of the Year back-to-back seasons with at least 10 goals and 10 assists for 30 points. She is the only Gamecock to accomplish that feat once, let alone twice.

Freshman Sabrina D'Angelo recorded the shutout in goal with four saves in the contest. It is the fourth solo shutout and eighth combined shutout of the season for the SEC Defensive Player of the Year.

The Gamecocks had a first half for the ages with Holland's goal in the seventh minute coupled with two goals that were nullified to prevent a potential 3-0 advantage at the break.

CAROLINA IN THE NCAA TOURNAMENT

South Carolina is playing in its fifth consecutive tournament and sixth overall, holding an all-time record of 4-4-1 in NCAA Tournament games after its 1-0 win over Texas. The first bid came in a 2-0 loss at Charlotte in 1998. The current streak began in 2007 as Carolina earned an at-large bid and played Duke to a 1-1 draw at Athens, Ga. Duke advanced with a 4-1 edge in penalty kicks. In 2008, South Carolina dropped a 3-2 overtime decision to William & Mary at Durham, N.C. South Carolina advanced to the Round of 16 in 2009 with victories against Davidson (4-0) and Rutgers (1-0) before losing to Wake Forest (1-0) on a last-second stunner when the Demon Deacons scored off a corner kick at 89:59. Carolina went 1-1 last season with a 2-1 victory over UNC Greensboro in the first round before falling to host Virginia (3-0).

SCOUTING STANFORD

Stanford enters the match with a 20-0-1 record and the No. 1 ranking in the nation. The Cardinal have lost just two matches since 2009 - both in the NCAA College Cup Final - and are riding a 47-match home unbeaten streak, the last loss being a 2-0 shutout at the hands of Connecticut in the NCAA Third Round on Nov. 23, 2007. Stanford is a seasoned NCAA Tournament team with 13 consecutive home NCAA wins (11 by shutout) while outscoring opponents 33-2.

The Cardinal are led by senior Lindsay Taylor's 18 goals and five assists for 41 points. In total, eight members of the team have reached double-digit points this year, including freshman Chio-ma Ubogagu's 9g/9a/27p and Mexico international Teresa Noyola's 8g/11a/27p line. Sophomore Emily Oliver leads the nation with a 0.24 goals against average with only four goals allowed in 1,488 minutes (18 matches played). She has posted eight clean sheets on the year.

THE SEC vs THE NO. 1's

South Carolina's last attempt at the nation's top-ranked team came in the 2007 season opener when the Gamecocks stunned the defending national champions, 1-0, to hand the Tar Heels the first home-opening loss in the storied UNC history. It was the first time in three years (54 matches) that the Tar Heels were shutout, and the first time in five years (over 90 matches) that North Carolina was shutout at home. Since the 2007 season, the SEC has gone 1-4-1 against top-ranked teams, with South Carolina's victory the only one in that span.

| Date | SEC vs #1 | Score |
|--------------------|---|-------|
| September 1, 2007 | South Carolina defeated #1 North Carolina | 1-0 |
| September 7, 2008 | #1 Southern California defeated Alabama | 7-1 |
| September 18, 2009 | #1 North Carolina defeated LSU | 1-0 |
| September 20, 2009 | Auburn tied #1 North Carolina | 0-0 |
| September 4, 2010 | #1 North Carolina defeated Tennessee | 7-2 |
| September 19, 2010 | #1 North Carolina defeated Florida | 2-0 |

SOUTH CAROLINA SWEEPS ALL-SEC AWARDS

EXCEEDING EXPECTATIONS

For the sixth consecutive year Coach Shelley Smith's 2011 squad exceeded preseason expectations by winning the SEC in 2011. Picked to finish last in the East in the 2007 SEC Preseason poll, the Gamecocks tied a then-program record for wins en route to a fourth place division finish. Carolina was picked fourth in the 2008 preseason poll and again improved in the standings with a third place finish in the Eastern division. Coach Smith's team was again picked fourth in 2009 and responded with an SEC East runner-up finish that earned her SEC Coach of the Year honors. Last season's team was picked third in the East but won a program record eight SEC games to claim second overall in the league.

GRIMSLEY HITS ANOTHER MILESTONE

Senior Kayla Grimsley became South Carolina's all-time points scorer with a goal and assist against Arkansas, surpassing a 12-year old record held by Jennie Ondo (1996-99). Grimsley now has a stat line of 43 goals and 33 assists for 119 points in 94 career games.

Grimsley is one of two active players in the SEC with over 100 career points and is eighth on the NCAA active career points list. She's the only active player in the NCAA with 40 goals and 30 assists.

BLESSING IN DISGUISE?

South Carolina was upset in the SEC Quarterfinals with a 1-0 loss after entering the tournament as the top seed. The Gamecocks believe that the loss was a blessing in disguise, as Coach Shelley Smith's squad was starting to get hit by the injury bug. Without having to play three games in five days, the Gamecocks were able to rest and stick to a normal training session for NCAA's.

Starting left back Ali Whitney has been out of action for four weeks with a hamstring injury suffered at Ole Miss, but she has been upgraded to questionable for the NCAA Tournament. Junior Dani Henry started the year at right back and moved to left back when Whitney went down, but Henry herself fell to a hamstring injury in the first half of the SEC Quarterfinal match last week. The extra days off for her and the potential replacements - Ali Glemser and Lauren Hyden - kept all players fresh and allowed Henry to be game-ready against Texas.

SOUTH CAROLINA STREAKING

Since dropping a 1-0 match to Kentucky on Sept. 30, South Carolina went on a tear with an eight-match winning streak in which they outscored opponents 23-5 en route to the SEC title. All but two of those wins were by multiple goals, and the team scored at least three in the other six.

The eight-match winning streak to conclude conference play was the longest in program history, surpassing the five straight SEC wins the team posted in 2010. It also bests the previous SEC unbeaten streaks done in both 2009 and 2010.

SENIOR CLASS SET THE BAR HIGH

The 2010 senior class left Columbia as the winningest senior class in program history, but the eight-member 2011 class took over that distinction with its historic victory in Gainesville. The Class of '10 held a 59-23-13 (.689) record, the most wins and best win-percentage for a South Carolina senior class and was the first to advance to the NCAA Tournament all four years. The Class of '11 currently claims a career record of 61-23-10 (.702). The class is 15th in the nation and second in the SEC for total victories over the last four seasons.

THE 10-10-30 CLUB

Senior Kayla Grimsley's last season became the first Gamecock to join the 10-10-30 club with 12 goals and 10 assists for 34 points. She got an assist against Texas to earn the honor for the second consecutive season with a stat line of 10 goals and 10 assists for 30 points this year.

WHITNEY FALLS TO INJURY

Freshman defender Ali Whitney went down at the start of the second half against Ole Miss to a leg injury that will have the starting left back out for the remainder of the regular season. She started 14 of her 17 games at left back and was a threat with her deep throw-ins and accurate corner kicks. At LSU, the team reorganized the backline in moving junior Dani Henry from right back to left back, moving freshman Christa Neary from center back to right back, and inserting freshman Andie Romness at center back alongside Ellen Fahey. Senior Ali Glemser and redshirt freshman Lauren Hyden are candidates to earn added minutes in Whitney's place.

SHUTOUT DEFENSE

Defense has been the calling card for Shelley Smith's Gamecocks, and the 2011 season has continued that character trait despite the abundance of youth in the regular rotation. South Carolina has posted shutouts in nine of its 16 wins and leads the SEC with 16 goals against, a 0.71 goals against average and an 83.8 save percentage.

MORE ON THE BACKLINE

Senior Ellen Fahey (left center back), redshirt junior Dani Henry (right back) and freshmen Christa Neary and Andie Romness have all been individually named to separate National Teams of the Week as the leaders of the backline that has limited seven of 11 SEC opponents to four shots on goal or less. In SEC play, the Gamecocks have allowed an SEC-low 24 points, and South Carolina is the only team that did not allow two goals in a game more than once in conference play.

LOLLY'S POP

Senior Lolly Holland has started South Carolina's last 10 matches at forward after previously starting at midfield, and the switch has paid dividends for the Gamecocks. Holland had a career day against Vanderbilt with three points in the win and tallied her fourth and fifth goals of the year in South Carolina's last three night matches (Alabama, LSU and Texas). Not only the scoring was affected as the switch directly coincided with Carolina's eight-match winning streak.

YOUTH IN REVOLT

The freshmen have overtaken the back half of the field for the Gamecocks with one of the youngest defenses in the nation. South Carolina starts three freshmen between the backline and the goalkeeper position with Christa Neary and Andie Romness starting as defenders and Sabrina D'Angelo starting in goal. In addition, Ali Whitney earned 14 starts at defender with before going down to injury.

YOUNG AT HEART

For the first time since the 2003 season, South Carolina has played every freshman on its roster. In most years, the Gamecocks have had an incoming player either redshirt or injured. The closest since 2003 that South Carolina came to playing every freshman on the roster was the 2004 season when every field player played but one goalkeeper did not see action.

South Carolina started five freshmen in its road game at Arizona State, the most freshmen to start a game for the Gamecocks since five regularly started for the team during the 2004 season. Coach Shelley Smith put out a lineup that included goalkeeper Sabrina D'Angelo, defenders Christa Neary and Ali Whitney, midfielder Ariane Lukens and forward Alexa Gainey against the Sun Devils. Andie Romness has earned four starts, and Lani Smith saw her first action at Georgia to round out the 2011 freshmen. Carolina's five regular freshmen average 62.7 minutes a game.

D'ANGELO MAKES AN IMPACT

Freshman goalkeeper Sabrina D'Angelo ranks 36th in the country in goals against average at 0.73 and is 5th among the nation's freshmen in the category, and she is also 8th among the nation's freshmen in save percentage at .831, but it's the intangibles that has the national media paying attention. The Canadian international ranks 1st in the SEC in goals against average and second in save percentage, and she has single-handedly kept South Carolina in games with more than a dozen "how did she do that" saves that had "All White Kit's" blogger Chris Henderson write "(D'Angelo) should be one of the favorites for freshman All-America honors and looks like rounding into one of the SEC's best." Assuredly, D'Angelo was named SEC Co-Defensive Player of the Year and SEC Freshman of the Year for her performance this season.

ROMNESS FILLS IN AS A CATALYST

Freshman Andie Romness was re-inserted into the Starting XI against Vanderbilt and saw Carolina go on an eight-match win streak. After taking over set pieces when classmate Ali Whitney went down to injury, and the Virginia-native responded two assists in her first game.

THE KG-KR CONNECTION

Senior Kayla Grimsley took sole possession of the program record for career assists in Carolina's win at then-No. 11 Tennessee after earning her 25th career assist on Kortney Rhoades's golden goal. Grimsley passes the record of 24 set by Mindy Sanders from 1996-99, a record that has held strong for 12 seasons. The connection with Rhoades is a strong one as Grimsley previously tied the record against UNC Wilmington on a goal scored by Rhoades, her best friend.

The two connected for a third time this season against Alabama to cap a three-assist game for Grimsley, tying the school record for single-game assists with the mark set by Sanders (9/19/99 & 9/26/99) and Happy Payne (9/13/96).

The duo last combined in the 3-1 win against Arkansas on Grimsley's second half goal that gave made her South Carolina's all-time points leader at 116 career points. Rhoades assisted on Grimsley's goal that broke Jennie Ondo's record of 115 career points set from 1996-99, a record that - like the assist record - has held strong for 12 seasons.

SET PIECE SOUTH CAROLINA

The Gamecocks have seen a lot of their success this season come on set pieces off the play of freshman Ali Whitney and senior Kayla Grimsley in addition to freshman Andie Romness. Nine of South Carolina's 23 goals - nearly half of the total - in their season-ending eight-match winning streak were the result of corner kicks, free kicks or throw-ins by the duo with Maria Petroni and Ariane Lukens both benefitting twice.

SPREADING THE WEALTH

Ten players have scored South Carolina's 42 goals this season, with five players scoring at least four on the year. Only three previous teams have at least five players scored four or more goals - the 1998 team that earned the first NCAA berth, the 2002 team that was Shelley Smith's first to advance to the SEC Tournament, and the miraculous 2009 team that won the SEC Tournament and advanced to the NCAA Round of 16.

Kayla Grimsley, Danielle Au, Kortney Rhoades, Lolly Holland and Maria Petroni each have scored at least four goals, and Gabrielle Gilbert is right behind with three scores on the year. The 1998 team was the only team to finish with six players at four goals or more.

A CAREER SEASON

Senior Kortney Rhoades is having a career season in her final year as a Gamecock. A transfer from St. Joseph's (Pa.), Rhoades had her first multi-goal game with two scores in the 2-1 win at #11 Tennessee. Rhoades has seven goals and four assists for 18 points, with her goal line and total points both individual season highs.

GILBERT GOES FOR GOLD

Sophomore Gabrielle Gilbert has proven to be a valuable and flexible player for the Gamecocks this year. After spending the 2010 season as the teams' top backline reserve, Gilbert has expanded that role into one of the top field players in general. The Canadian has seen regular action at forward, midfield and defender this year and will continue to play all three positions. Despite the instability of a set position, she manages to sit sixth on the team with three goals and two assists for eight points.

LUCK NOT NEEDED FOR LUKENS

Freshman Ariane Lukens picked a great night to score her first two career goals with a brace at LSU to propel South Carolina to a come-from-behind 4-1 victory. Lukens scored two straight goals on headers from corner kicks to put in the game-tying and game-winning goals in Carolina's eventual rout of their conference rival. Lukens averaged 38 minutes a game over the final six matches of the year as one of Carolina's top midfield reserves.

CHRISTA ... RHOADES?

Freshman Christa Neary quickly made her presence felt on the pitch as a versatile player that filled in on the backline and the midfield for Carolina, and it was her determined play that may remind fans of graduated senior Brittney Rhoades, a 2007 Freshman All-American and All-SEC player last season for the Gamecocks. Wherever she plays on the field, her accurately timed sliding challenges are sure to frustrate opponents much like Rhoades's did the past four seasons.

D'ANGELO PUTS UP THE SAVES ... AND ASSISTS

Freshman goalkeeper Sabrina D'Angelo recorded a career-high eight saves at Georgia and also became the first South Carolina goalkeeper to ever earn an offensive point with her assist on Kayla Grimsley's goal. D'Angelo's eight saves - included a reflexive kick save that kept the game scoreless early in the first half - were the most for a Gamecock keeper in an SEC match since Elise Matthews posted 18 saves in a scoreless draw against Ole Miss on Oct. 24, 2003.

D'Angelo also earned the assist on Grimsley's first half goal with a booming free kick from the center line the Ariane Lukens headed to Grimsley for the one-touch score.

RHOADES RETURNS

Senior Kortney Rhoades returns healthy in 2011 after missing most of her junior season recovering from ankle surgery. She has earned the starting spot as an attacking midfielder and responded against Northeastern with a goal in the 28th minute, her first goal since scoring the game-winning goal against Georgia in the 2009 SEC Tournament.

GRIMSLEY'S FIRST GOLDEN GOAL IS CAROLINA'S FASTEST

It may be hard to believe for the second-leading scorer in Gamecock history, but senior Kayla Grimsley scored her first career golden goal in the win against Charlotte. Her golden goal just 31 seconds into the first overtime period marks the fastest overtime game-winner in program history with the next closest being Kim Miller's winner 3:38 into overtime against Furman in 2008.

ALI ALI OXEN FREE

Freshman Ali Whitney had her collegiate coming out party at Arizona with a golden goal in the 102nd minute that gave the Gamecocks the victory. Whitney's shot from 30 yards out sailed over the keepers head to make her just the third freshman in Gamecock history to score a golden goal, following in the footsteps of Lexi Tourtellote (Evansville - Oct. 8, 1995) and Danielle Au (Furman - Sept. 13, 2010).

D'ANGELO JOINS RARE COMPANY

True freshman goalkeeper Sabrina D'Angelo earned the start in the 2011 season opener at East Carolina, marking the first time since the 2004 season that a true freshman started in goal for the Gamecocks. D'Angelo is just the fourth freshman to start the season opener in goal in program history, joining Amy Toms - who started the first match in program history in 1995 - and Laura Armstrong (2004) as true freshmen in addition to Elise Matthews (2000) who started as a redshirt freshman.

In addition to this quartet, Lindsay Thorstenson (2004) also started a match as a true freshman, but she did not start the opener.

CANADIAN CONNECTION

Three members of the South Carolina women's soccer team hail from Canada - sophomores Gabrielle Gilbert and Samantha McGowan and freshman Sabrina D'Angelo. The three international students are the most South Carolina has had since 2001 when the team had two players from Finland (Jessica Julin and Miaa-Maria Heinonen) and one player from Nova Scotia (Erica Bowie). At one point in the season opener at ECU, all three were on the field at the same time with D'Angelo in goal when Gilbert and McGowan teamed up for Carolina's second goal and assist.

RETURNING CATEGORY LEADERS

Carolina returns six starters from last season's NCAA Tournament team. South Carolina will enter 2011 with a new look and new faces, but talent and depth will be available after Coach Shelley Smith signed seven freshmen, including two slated to start the season opener.

KAYLA GRIMSLEY: MAC HERMANN TROPHY AWARD WATCH LIST

Senior forward Kayla Grimsley has been named as one of 42 players selected to the 2011 Watch List for the Missouri Athletic Club's (MAC) Hermann Trophy, the top individual award presented in intercollegiate soccer.

The male and female winners of the award are selected through voting by the members of the National Soccer Coaches Association of America (NSCAA). Voting for the MAC Hermann Trophy is conducted in late November, when a field of 15 semifinalists is reduced to three finalists. Each January, the winners are honored at an annual banquet at the MAC in downtown St. Louis.

Grimsley's appearance marks the second straight year that she has been selected as a candidate for the prestigious award. The honor comes on after a record breaking junior campaign that saw her earn NSCAA All-America honors and SEC Offensive Player of the Year honors after setting the South Carolina single season record for points (12 goals, 10 assists, 34 points).

Shelley Smith 11th Season

Shelley Smith enters her 11th season at the helm of the South Carolina women's soccer program in 2011 after turning the Gamecocks into conference and national title contenders with four consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances.

Entering 2011, Smith led the Gamecocks to 59 overall and 25 SEC victories since the NCAA streak began with the 2007 season, marks that both rank second amongst the league's 12 active coaches. She has guided her teams to back-to-back SEC Championship Game appearances, winning the title in 2009 and claiming second in 2010.

The 2010 team posted a 15-6-4 overall mark and a program record 8-2-1 mark in the SEC, earning the team the number two seed in the tournament, another program best. The team advanced to the NCAA Second Round in a year that saw Kayla Grimsley earn SEC Offensive Player of the Year honors in addition to becoming the second All-American in Gamecock history and a MAC Hermann Trophy Award candidate. The team earned four All-SEC selections in Grimsley, Ellen Fahey, Danielle Au and Brittiny Rhoades, who was also selected as a Top Drawer Soccer First Team Team of the Season selection.

Once again, the Gamecocks finished as one of the top defensive teams in the country in 2010. The Gamecock squad had a streak of 11 consecutive games in limiting opponents to four shots on goal or less, and finished the regular season as the SEC's leader in every major defensive category including goals against average, shutouts, shots allowed and points allowed. The team posted 10 shutouts on the year and was led by Rhoades on the backline and Mollie Patton in goal. Offensively, Grimsley led the league in goals, points and game-winning goals with a stat line of 12 goals, 10 assists and 34 points, tying the South Carolina single-season record for points in the process.

Carolina's success in the classroom also continued last season as her squad tied a program best with three Academic All-District honors in Mollie Patton, Christine Watts and Brooke Jacobs. Patton was also named to the Academic All-America first team, making South Carolina one of only two teams in the nation - and the only in the SEC - to have an Academic All-American selected each of the past six seasons. Even more impressive is that South Carolina is the only program in the country to have a first team Academic All-America selection each of the past three seasons. In addition, Patton was an NSCAA Scholar All-Region and Lowe's Senior CLASS Award candidate. Smith's team was also honored with its ninth NSCAA Team Academic Award. Smith has coached 154 SEC Academic Honor Roll recipients since coming to USC in 2001.

Smith has coached several top student-athletes at Carolina including Ashley Kirk, USC's first four-time All-SEC honoree, Carolina's All-Americans in four-time All-SEC selection Blakely Mattern and senior Kayla Grimsley, and two-time All-SEC performers Melinda Carter, Jessica Julin and Sarah Lentz. Julin is currently the captain of the Finland National Team, and Carter and Mattern played in the WUSA and WPS, respectively. The Gamecocks have earned 28 All-SEC honors in the last 10 years.

In her first season as head coach at Carolina (2001), the Gamecocks were the third-most improved team in the nation with an 8-7-3 overall record. Carolina also performed well at home with a 5-3 mark at Stone Stadium while allowing opponents to score only four goals in eight matches. The success continued for USC in 2002 with 13 wins in Smith's second season. The year was highlighted with USC's first ever victories against Florida and Kentucky. Smith also led her team to ties against 2002 SEC champion Auburn and Eastern Division champion Tennessee.

Smith led the Gamecocks to another successful season in 2003 with 10 wins including an eight-game unbeaten streak as well as a 6-2-1 record at home in Stone Stadium. The 2004 season featured a win over No. 7 Clemson, the Gamecocks' first win over a ranked opponent since 1998, as well as a 6-3 mark in non-conference action. Ashley Kirk also became the first freshman soccer player in school history to be named SEC Freshman of the Year. In addition, Carolina set a school record for a home game winning streak with six consecutive wins.

Following an injury filled 2005 season, the program took a big step forward in 2006 as USC went undefeated at home for the first time in school history with an 8-0-3 mark at Stone Stadium. The team's cumulative goals against average of 0.69 was the lowest ever tallied at Carolina. The season culminated with the Gamecocks advancing to the SEC Tournament semifinals for the first time in Carolina history, as Blakely Mattern became the team's first Freshman All-America selection since 1998.

Smith directed the 2007 Gamecocks to arguably the best season in school history at that time, tying the school record with 14 victories and advancing to the NCAA Tournament for only the second time in program history. Carolina posted a 14-6-3 overall record including a 5-4-2 mark in the SEC after beginning the season by becoming the first team ever to knock off defending national champion and top-ranked North Carolina in a season opening game at Fetzer Field in Chapel Hill. The Gamecocks ran to a 7-0-0 start to the season - program bests for start to a season and winning streak - and peaked at No. 7 in the national polls. For the second consecutive season South Carolina advanced to the SEC Tournament semifinals after knocking off Tennessee for the first time in program history and earned the school's first bid to the NCAA Tournament since 1998. Blakely Mattern became the first sophomore to ever earn SEC Defensive Player of the Year honors in addition to becoming the first All-American in South Carolina history.

Smith has cemented Carolina's position as a conference title contender and player on the national stage after guiding the Gamecocks in 2008 to their second consecutive NCAA Tournament bid and third consecutive SEC Tournament bid, both program firsts. The Gamecocks went 11-7-4 overall and earned five SEC wins for the third year in a row with only one senior on the roster. Respected as a top defensive team, the Gamecocks finished the regular season second in the SEC with eight shutouts and ranked in the top two in every major defensive category including goals allowed, points allowed, shots allowed and shots on goal allowed.

Carolina advanced into the upper echelon of programs after Smith guided the Gamecocks in 2009 to the program's first SEC title and a berth in the NCAA Round of 16, earning her SEC Coach of the Year and NSCAA South Region Coach of the Year honors. South Carolina was a No. 2 national seed in the NCAA tournament and finished with a 19-4-2 record, the best in school history. The Gamecocks finished as one of the top defensive teams in the nation with a school record 15 shutouts, led by Mattern on the backline who was a consensus first team All-American and Lowe's Senior CLASS Award finalist in her final season. Grimsley finished the year with 33 points and was named an honorable mention All-American by Top Drawer Soccer. The team finished eighth in the nation in average attendance.

In 14 years as a head coach, Smith has compiled an overall record of 156-106-30. Besides her collegiate coaching, Smith was a member of the Region III ODP staff for the past six years, as well as an assistant for the '90 Regional Team. Smith also was a member of the 2003 U-14 National Camp staff for U.S. Soccer.

Smith is married to USC associate head coach Jamie Smith, a 1994 graduate of Providence College. They are the proud parents of two sons, Braden James, born on Nov. 25, 2003 and Evan Addison born on Jan. 6, 2006. The family resides in Columbia, S.C.
