THE SOUTHEASTERN CONFERENCE

The Southeastern Conference, with its storied 80-year history of athletic achievements and academic excellence, has built perhaps the greatest tradition of intercollegiate competition in baseball of any league in the country since its inception in 1933.

The SEC posted another tremendous season in 2013 as the conference had nine teams earn selection to NCAA postseason play with LSU and Mississippi State advancing to the College World Series. A SEC squad has now appeared in the College World Series 28 of the last 29 years. Mississippi State advanced to the National Championship Series, marking the ninth time since 2000 a SEC team played for the national championship in Omaha and sixth in a row. LSU won the SEC tournament title over Vanderbilt. Vanderbilt won the SEC regular-season title with a 26-3 conference record, while LSU won the Western Division with a 23-7 record.

The Southeastern Conference boasts 12 former National Players of the Year (Florida's Mike Zunino won in 2012), 11 Baseball America Coach of the Year and 10 Collegiate Baseball Coach of the Year honors. Also, 161 student-athletes have been named first-team All-American, six of which came in 2013.

Three SEC players were taken in the first round of the 2013 Major League Baseball Amateur Draft, held in June in New York City. Mississippi State's Hunter Renfroe was selected 13th overall by San Diego. Jonathan Crawford of Florida was selected 20th by Detroit, while Arkansas' Ryne Stanek was 27th by Tampa Bay. With those three selections, the SEC has now had a first round selection in each year since 1991 and 96 total in the first round during that time.

The SEC drew a record of over 2.25 million fans to its on-campus ballparks in 2013, the seventh year in a row to draw over 1.6 million. Nine SEC teams drew in excess of 100,000 fans to their parks in 2013. The SEC averaged nearly 5,000 fans per game in 2013, the seventh straight year to exceed the 4,000 mark.

The SEC Baseball Tournament drew a new record-high of 134,496 fans in 2013, 7,912 per game. The event has become the Birmingham metro's highest attended sporting event annually, second in the state only to NASCAR races at Talladega. Birmingham Magazine recently named it the top sporting event in the Birmingham area. The SEC Championship Game was broadcast nationally on ESPN2, with the semifinals airing nationwide on ESPNNews for the first time in 2012.
