South Carolina Travels To LSU For Classic SEC Rivalry Match

South Carolina
 (12-5-0, 6-2-0 SEC)

LSU
 (11-5-1, 6-2-0 SEC)

LSU Soccer Stadium
 Baton Rouge, La.
 Oct. 20, 2011 • 8 p.m.

South Carolina hits the road Thursday night for an SEC derby match against the LSU Tigers in a match between two teams tied for the first in the conference standings with only three fixtures remaining. Kickoff between the Gamecocks and Tigers is scheduled for 8 p.m. in Baton Rouge.

The Gamecocks hold a 7-2-5 series advantage against LSU, but the teams are an even 1-1-4 since the 2007 season. Five of the last seven meetings between the two teams have gone to overtime, and neither team has scored more than one goal in a match since Carolina took a 2-1 overtime victory in 2006.

The rivalry between two of the premier teams in the league reached a climax in the 2009 season when LSU defeated South Carolina for the first time in Baton Rouge, 1-0, before the Gamecocks rebounded to defeat the Tigers in the SEC Tournament Final to lift the hardware. The teams met twice again last season with South Carolina taking the 1-0 win in Columbia before again defeating LSU on penalty kicks in the SEC Tournament, this time in the semifinal round.

LAST TIME OUT

South Carolina held Ole Miss scoreless in a 3-0 victory Sunday afternoon for the team's fifth straight victory and second consecutive shutout.

Kayla Grimsley scored her fifth game-winner of the season with her goal at 29:03 on an assist by Liz Sinclair. Ali Glemser (43:04) and Kortney Rhoades (56:46) added the other two as South Carolina coasted to their fifth straight win against Ole Miss. Grimsley scored both game-winners on the weekend for the Gamecocks who now sit tied for first in the SEC with 18 points.

Freshman Sabrina D'Angelo recorded four saves in 70 minutes of action in goal, and redshirt sophomore Darien Vercillo played the final 20 minutes to combine for the shutout.

ON THE HORIZON

The Gamecocks return home Sunday to take on Arkansas at 1 p.m. for Senior Day. The regular season will then end next Friday night in Gainesville, Fla., with a match against the nationally-ranked Florida Gators.

SCOUTING LSU

LSU enters the weekend with an 11-5-1 record and is in the middle of a four-way tie for first in the SEC overall standings at 18 points (6-2-0). The Tigers are led by senior Taryne Boudreau who has scored nine goals and five assists for 23 points. Fellow Canadian Natalie Martineau has contributed eight assists, and Carlie Banks has seven assists to help pace the attack. In goal, senior Mo Isom has returned to top form with a 0.82 goals against average and six shutouts.

CAROLINA VS THE SEC WEST

South Carolina historically has enjoyed greater success against SEC West foes than SEC East foes by the surprising note that the Gamecocks hold the series advantage against all six SEC West schools but does not have the advantage against any of the SEC East schools. The Gamecocks are 48-20-13 (.673) all-time against the West with series' against Alabama (10-3-0), Arkansas (8-3-1), Auburn (7-5-3), LSU (7-2-5), Ole Miss (8-3-2) and Mississippi State (7-4-2). In contrast, South Carolina is 20-66-10 (.260) against SEC East schools.

GRIMSLEY HITS ANOTHER MILESTONE

Senior Kayla Grimsley became the second Gamecock to hit the 100-point milestone after scoring the first goal of the game at Georgia. Grimsley's goal at 33:22 gave her 101 points in her career, and she now has a stat line of 41 goals and 29 assists for 111 points in 89 career games.

Grimsley is the only active player in the SEC with over 100 career points and is fifth on the NCAA active career points list.

WHITNEY FALLS TO INJURY

Freshman defender Ali Whitney went down at the start of the second half against Ole Miss to a leg injury that will have the starting left back out for the remainder of the regular season. She started 14 of Carolina's 17 games at left back and was a threat with her deep throw-ins and accurate corner kicks. Senior Ali Glemser and redshirt freshman Lauren Hyden are candidates start in her place. The team may also reorganize the central defenders and play either Andie Romness or Christa Neary, both true freshmen, at left back.

SPREADING THE WEALTH

Eight players have scored South Carolina's 29 goals this season, with five players scoring at least four on the year. Only three previous teams have at least five players scored four or more goals - the 1998 team that earned the first NCAA berth, the 2002 team that was Shelley Smith's first to advance to the SEC Tournament, and the miraculous 2009 team that won the SEC Tournament and advanced to the NCAA Round of 16.

Kayla Grimsley, Danielle Au, Kortney Rhoades, Lolly Holland and Maria Petroni each have scored at least four goals, and Gabrielle Gilbert is right behind with three scores on the year. The 1998 team was the only team to finish with six players at four goals or more.

SHUTOUT DEFENSE

Defense has been the calling card for Shelley Smith's Gamecocks, and the 2011 season shows early signs of continuing that character trait despite the abundance of youth in the regular rotation. South Carolina has posted shutouts in eight of its 12 wins and leads the SEC with 12 goals against, a 0.69 goals against average and a 84.0 save percentage.

MORE ON THE BACKLINE

Senior Ellen Fahey (left center back) and redshirt junior Dani Henry (right back) were both named to the Top Drawer Soccer National Team of the Week last week as the leaders of the backline that has limited five of eight SEC opponents to four shots on goal or less. In SEC play, the Gamecocks have allowed an SEC-low 17 points, and South Carolina is the only team that has not allowed two goals in a game more than once in conference play.

D'ANGELO MAKES AN IMPACT

Freshman goalkeeper Sabrina D'Angelo ranks 33rd in the country in goals against average at 0.70 and is 5th among the nation's freshmen in the category, and she is also 38th in the country in save percentage at .841 and is fourth among the nation's freshmen, but it's the intangibles that has the national media paying attention. The Canadian international ranks 1st in the SEC in both goals against average and save percentage in conference games and all games, and she has single-handedly kept South Carolina in games with more than a dozen "how did she do that" saves that had "All White Kit's" blogger Chris Henderson write "(D'Angelo) should be one of the favorites for freshman All-America honors and looks like rounding into one of the SEC's best."

SET PIECE SOUTH CAROLINA

The Gamecocks have seen a lot of their success this season come on set pieces off the play of freshman Ali Whitney and senior Kayla Grimsley. Six of South Carolina's 14 goals in their current five-match winning streak were the result of corner kicks or throw-ins by the duo with Maria Petroni being the benefactor twice with early first half goals against Vanderbilt and Auburn off of Whitney's corners.

GRIMSLEY HITS THE ASSIST RECORD / THE KG-KR CONNECTION

Senior Kayla Grimsley took sole possession of the program record for career assists in Carolina's win at then-No. 11 Tennessee after earning her 25th career assist on Kortney Rhoades's golden goal. Grimsley passes the record of 24 set by Mindy Sanders from 1996-99, a record that has held strong for 12 seasons. The connection with Rhoades is a strong one as Grimsley previously tied the record against UNC Wilmington on a goal scored by Rhoades, her best friend.

The two connected for a third time this season against Alabama to cap a three-assist game for Grimsley, tying the school record for single-game assists with the mark set by Sanders (9/19/99 & 9/26/99) and Happy Payne (9/13/96).

LOLLY'S POP

Senior Lolly Holland has started South Carolina's last five matches at forward after previously starting at midfield, and the switch has paid dividends for the Gamecocks. Holland had a career day against Vanderbilt with three points in the win and tallied her fourth goal of the year in the next game against Alabama last Friday.

A CAREER SEASON

Senior Kortney Rhoades is having a career season in her final year as a Gamecock. A transfer from St. Joseph's (Pa.), Rhoades had her first multi-goal game with two scores in the 2-1 win at #11 Tennessee. Rhoades has six goals and three assists for 15 points, with her goal line and total points both individual season highs.

GILBERT GOES FOR GOLD

Sophomore Gabrielle Gilbert has proven to be a valuable and flexible player for the Gamecocks this year. After spending the 2010 season as the teams' top backline reserve, Gilbert has expanded that role into one of the top field players in general. The Canadian has seen regular action at forward, midfield and defender this year and will continue to play all three positions. Despite the instability of a set position, she manages to sit sixth on the team with three goals and two assists for eight points.

AU SO GOOD

Sophomore Danielle Au was named to the Top Drawer Soccer National Team of the Week after her six-point weekend that saw her score three goals in wins against Alabama and No. 22 Auburn. Au had her first career multi-goal game with two scores the Crimson Tide.

FAHEY NAMED SEC DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Senior Ellen Fahey was named SEC Defensive Player of the Week this week after captaining the Gamecock defense to the team's first six-point weekend of the SEC season. Fahey registered her first two points of the season in addition to spearheading a backline that limited the oppositions opportunities. Both of her assists were on South Carolina's game-winning goals against Alabama and Auburn. Against Alabama, Fahey assisted on Danielle Au's 19th minute goal with a header to the scorer. Fahey then assisted on Gabrielle Gilbert's game-winning goal against nationally-ranked Auburn with a header off a corner kick to the scorer. Carolina's starting center back, Fahey led a defense that limited Alabama to only three shots on goal and kept Auburn - the league's No. 2 ranked offense - to just eight shots on goal.

YOUNG AT HEART

For the first time since the 2003 season, South Carolina has played every freshman on its roster. In most years, the Gamecocks have had an incoming player either redshirt or injured. The closest since 2003 that South Carolina came to playing every freshman on the roster was the 2004 season when every field player played but one goalkeeper did not see action.

South Carolina started five freshmen in its road game at Arizona State, the most freshman to start a game for the Gamecocks since five regularly started for the team during the 2004 season. Coach Shelley Smith put out a lineup that included goalkeeper Sabrina D'Angelo, defenders Christa Neary and Ali Whitney, midfielder Ariane Lukens and forward Alexa Gainey against the Sun Devils. Andie Romness has earned four starts, and Lani Smith saw her first action at Georgia to round out the 2011 freshmen. Carolina's five regular freshmen average 62.7 minutes a game.

D'ANGELO PUTS UP THE SAVES ... AND ASSISTS

Freshman goalkeeper Sabrina D'Angelo recorded a career-high eight saves at Georgia and also became the first South Carolina goalkeeper to ever earn an offensive point with her assist on Kayla Grimsley's goal. D'Angelo's eight saves - included a reflexive kick save that kept the game scoreless early in the first half - were the most for a Gamecock keeper in an SEC match since Elise Matthews posted 18 saves in a scoreless draw against Ole Miss on Oct. 24, 2003.

D'Angelo also earned the assist on Grimsley's first half goal with a booming free kick from the center line the Ariane Lukens headed to Grimsley for the one-touch score.

YOUTH IN REVOLT

The freshmen have overtaken the back half of the field for the Gamecocks with one of the youngest defenses in the nation. South Carolina starts three freshmen between the backline and the goalkeeper position with Christa Neary and Ali Whitney starting as defenders and Sabrina D'Angelo starting in goal. In addition, Andie Romness has earned five starts at defender with her and Neary splitting starts at center back.

SENIOR CLASS SET THE BAR HIGH

The 2010 senior class left Columbia as the winningest senior class in program history, but the eight-member 2011 class can claim that distinction with another solid year. The Class of '10 held a 59-23-13 (.689) record, the most wins and best win-percentage for a South Carolina senior class and was the first to advance to the NCAA Tournament all four years. The Class of '11 currently claims a career record of 57-22-10 (.697) and has a chance to set the new record.

HOME AT THE STONE

South Carolina has been nearly unstoppable at Stone Stadium the past five seasons, posting a 46-9-6 record at home since 2006. The streak included a 15-game unbeaten streak from Aug. 31, 2006-Oct. 5, 2007 and a 13-game unbeaten streak at "The Graveyard" from Oct. 19, 2007-Oct. 23, 2008. The lone blemishes on the record are a double-overtime loss to Vanderbilt (Oct. 7, 2007), a loss to #7 Florida (Oct. 30, 2008), two thrillers against #14/13 Wake Forest (2009 and 2011) and losses to Louisville, Kentucky, #23 Minnesota, #20 Georgia and #8 Florida.

GRIMSLEY'S FIRST GOLDEN GOAL IS CAROLINA'S FASTEST

It may be hard to believe for the second-leading scorer in Gamecock history, but senior Kayla Grimsley scored her first career golden goal in the win against Charlotte. Her golden goal just 31 seconds into the first overtime period marks the fastest overtime game-winner in program history with the next closest being Kim Miller's winner 3:38 into overtime against Furman in 2008.

THE TOP DRAWER TOP 100

Senior Kayla Grimsley clocks in at #6 on the Top Drawer Soccer list of the Top 100 Upper-classmen in the nation, the highest mark of any player in the SEC.

CHRISTA ... RHOADES?

Freshman Christa Neary quickly made her presence felt on the pitch as a versatile player that filled in on the backline and the midfield for Carolina, and it was her determined play that may remind fans of graduated senior Brittany Rhoades, a 2007 Freshman All-American and All-SEC player last season for the Gamecocks. Wherever she plays on the field, her accurately timed sliding challenges are sure to frustrate opponents much like Rhoades's did the past four seasons.

FAHEY EARNS NATIONAL HONOR

Senior defender Ellen Fahey was named to the Our Game Magazine team of the week after captaining the backline to back-to-back shutouts at the Carolina Cup. Fahey was the only Gamecock to play all 180 minutes in South Carolina's 2-0 wins against Clemson and UNC Wilmington and led her team to the Carolina Cup title. The leader at center back was instrumental in limiting the two teams to a combined three shots on goal throughout the weekend, including limiting Clemson to only one shot on frame to lead the Gamecocks to their fourth consecutive win over the in-state rivals.

RHOADES RETURNS

Senior Kortney Rhoades returns healthy in 2011 after missing most of her junior season recovering from ankle surgery. She has earned the starting spot as an attacking midfielder and responded against Northeastern with a goal in the 28th minute, her first goal since scoring the game-winning goal against Georgia in the 2009 SEC Tournament.

ALI ALI OXEN FREE

Freshman Ali Whitney had her collegiate coming out party at Arizona with a golden goal in the 102nd minute that gave the Gamecocks the victory. Whitney's shot from 30 yards out sailed over the keepers head to make her just the third freshman in Gamecock history to score a golden goal, following in the footsteps of Lexi Tourtellote (Evansville - Oct. 8, 1995) and Danielle Au (Furman - Sept. 13, 2010).

D'ANGELO JOINS RARE COMPANY

True freshman goalkeeper Sabrina D'Angelo earned the start in the 2011 season opener at East Carolina, marking the first time since the 2004 season that a true freshman started in goal for the Gamecocks. D'Angelo is just the fourth freshman to start the season opener in goal in program history, joining Amy Toms - who started the first match in program history in 1995 - and Laura Armstrong (2004) as true freshmen in addition to Elise Matthews (2000) who started as a redshirt freshman.

In addition to this quartet, Lindsay Thorstenson (2004) also started a match as a true freshman, but she did not start the opener.

GRIMSLEY PICKS UP WHERE SHE LEFT OFF

It took senior Kayla Grimsley 28:41 to get her first tally of the 2011 season as the MAC Hermann Trophy candidate converted a penalty kick in the season opener. Grimsley, who is 3-for-3 in career penalty kick attempts, is within range of setting the program's all-time points record of 115 that is held by Jennie Ondo (1996-99).

CANADIAN CONNECTION

Three members of the South Carolina women's soccer team hail from Canada - sophomores Gabrielle Gilbert and Samantha McGowan and freshman Sabrina D'Angelo. The three international students are the most South Carolina has had since 2001 when the team had two players from Finland (Jessica Julin and Miaa-Maria Heinonen) and one player from Nova Scotia (Erica Bowie). At one point in the season opener at ECU, all three were on the field at the same time with D'Angelo in goal when Gilbert and McGowan teamed up for Carolina's second goal and assist.

RETURNING CATEGORY LEADERS

Carolina returns six starters from last season's NCAA Tournament team. South Carolina will enter 2011 with a new look and new faces, but talent and depth will be available after Coach Shelley Smith signed seven freshmen, including two slated to start the season opener.

KAYLA GRIMSLEY: MAC HERMANN TROPHY AWARD WATCH LIST

Senior forward Kayla Grimsley has been named as one of 42 players selected to the 2011 Watch List for the Missouri Athletic Club's (MAC) Hermann Trophy, the top individual award presented in intercollegiate soccer.

The male and female winners of the award are selected through voting by the members of the National Soccer Coaches Association of America (NSCAA). Voting for the MAC Hermann Trophy is conducted in late November, when a field of 15 semifinalists is reduced to three finalists. Each January, the winners are honored at an annual banquet at the MAC in downtown St. Louis.

Grimsley's appearance marks the second straight year that she has been selected as a candidate for the prestigious award. The honor comes on after a record breaking junior campaign that saw her earn NSCAA All-America honors and SEC Offensive Player of the Year honors after setting the South Carolina single season record for points (12 goals, 10 assists, 34 points).

FIVE GAMECOCKS NAMED TO SEC PRESEASON WATCH LIST

Five Gamecocks were named to the SEC's Preseason Watch List, which has taken over from the previous Preseason All-SEC poll. Seniors Kayla Grimsley, Ellen Fahey and Kortney Rhoades, sophomore Danielle Au and freshman goalkeeper Sabrina D'Angelo were selected to the list. Grimsley, Fahey and Au were postseason All-SEC selections last season with Grimsley and Au headlining the Gamecock attack and Fahey leading the nation's 17th-ranked defense. Rhoades returns to a starting role after missing most of the 2010 season due to injury. D'Angelo enters her first season after a prep career that included being the starting goalkeeper for the Canadian U-17 national team at the U17 Women's World Cup in 2010.

COACHES TAB GAMECOCKS SECOND IN SEC

The Southeastern Conference coaches have selected South Carolina to finish second in the SEC Eastern division this year. The Gamecocks are coming off their second consecutive runner-up finish in the SEC East after winning a program best eight conference games last season (8-2-1) and a berth in the NCAA Second Round. South Carolina made it to the SEC Tournament Final for the second straight season as well in 2010.

Florida was selected as the favorite to win the SEC title this year with 11 of 12 first-place votes cast for the Gators. South Carolina received the other first-place vote for the East and SEC overall titles. The 51 points that the Gamecocks received in the poll are the most in program history.

In the East, No. 9 Florida was followed by No. 21 South Carolina, Georgia, Tennessee, Vanderbilt and Kentucky. Auburn was the favorite to win the West, followed by LSU, Ole Miss, Alabama, Arkansas and Mississippi State. Points were compiled on a 6-5-4-3-2-1 basis for each division, though each coach was not allowed to vote for their own team.

EXCEEDING EXPECTATIONS

For the fifth consecutive year Coach Shelley Smith's 2010 squad exceeded preseason expectations by finishing strong in conference play. Picked to finish last in the East in the 2007 SEC Preseason poll, the Gamecocks tied a then-program record for wins en route to a fourth place division finish. Carolina was picked fourth in the 2008 preseason poll and again improved in the standings with a third place finish in the Eastern division. Coach Smith's team was again picked fourth in 2009 and responded with an SEC East runner-up finish that earned her SEC Coach of the Year honors. Last season's team was picked third in the East but won a program record eight SEC games to claim second overall in the league.

GAMECOCKS ON TV

South Carolina will appear on a TV a minimum of three times in 2011 with at least one of those games occurring on national TV, marking the fifth consecutive season that Carolina will play in front of a national audience. The Gamecocks defeated Vanderbilt 3-0 earlier this season on ESPN2 and defeated No. 22 Auburn 3-1 last Sunday on CSS. The Florida game in Gainesville will be shown on FS Florida. The Gamecocks are 8-6-1 on TV since the 2007 season.

Shelley Smith 11th Season

Shelley Smith enters her 11th season at the helm of the South Carolina women's soccer program in 2011 after turning the Gamecocks into conference and national title contenders with four consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances.

Entering 2011, Smith led the Gamecocks to 59 overall and 25 SEC victories since the NCAA streak began with the 2007 season, marks that both rank second amongst the league's 12 active coaches. She has guided her teams to back-to-back SEC Championship Game appearances, winning the title in 2009 and claiming second in 2010.

The 2010 team posted a 15-6-4 overall mark and a program record 8-2-1 mark in the SEC, earning the team the number two seed in the tournament, another program best. The team advanced to the NCAA Second Round in a year that saw Kayla Grimsley earn SEC Offensive Player of the Year honors in addition to becoming the second All-American in Gamecock history and a MAC Hermann Trophy Award candidate. The team earned four All-SEC selections in Grimsley, Ellen Fahey, Danielle Au and Brittiny Rhoades, who was also selected as a Top Drawer Soccer First Team Team of the Season selection.

Once again, the Gamecocks finished as one of the top defensive teams in the country in 2010. The Gamecock squad had a streak of 11 consecutive games in limiting opponents to four shots on goal or less, and finished the regular season as the SEC's leader in every major defensive category including goals against average, shutouts, shots allowed and points allowed. The team posted 10 shutouts on the year and was led by Rhoades on the backline and Mollie Patton in goal. Offensively, Grimsley led the league in goals, points and game-winning goals with a stat line of 12 goals, 10 assists and 34 points, tying the South Carolina single-season record for points in the process.

Carolina's success in the classroom also continued last season as her squad tied a program best with three Academic All-District honors in Mollie Patton, Christine Watts and Brooke Jacobs. Patton was also named to the Academic All-America first team, making South Carolina one of only two teams in the nation - and the only in the SEC - to have an Academic All-American selected each of the past six seasons. Even more impressive is that South Carolina is the only program in the country to have a first team Academic All-America selection each of the past three seasons. In addition, Patton was an NSCAA Scholar All-Region and Lowe's Senior CLASS Award candidate. Smith's team was also honored with its ninth NSCAA Team Academic Award. Smith has coached 154 SEC Academic Honor Roll recipients since coming to USC in 2001.

Smith has coached several top student-athletes at Carolina including Ashley Kirk, USC's first four-time All-SEC honoree, Carolina's All-Americans in four-time All-SEC selection Blakely Mattern and senior Kayla Grimsley, and two-time All-SEC performers Melinda Carter, Jessica Julin and Sarah Lentz. Julin is currently the captain of the Finland National Team, and Carter and Mattern played in the WUSA and WPS, respectively. The Gamecocks have earned 28 All-SEC honors in the last 10 years.

In her first season as head coach at Carolina (2001), the Gamecocks were the third-most improved team in the nation with an 8-7-3 overall record. Carolina also performed well at home with a 5-3 mark at Stone Stadium while allowing opponents to score only four goals in eight matches. The success continued for USC in 2002 with 13 wins in Smith's second season. The year was highlighted with USC's first ever victories against Florida and Kentucky. Smith also led her team to ties against 2002 SEC champion Auburn and Eastern Division champion Tennessee.

Smith led the Gamecocks to another successful season in 2003 with 10 wins including an eight-game unbeaten streak as well as a 6-2-1 record at home in Stone Stadium. The 2004 season featured a win over No. 7 Clemson, the Gamecocks' first win over a ranked opponent since 1998, as well as a 6-3 mark in non-conference action. Ashley Kirk also became the first freshman soccer player in school history to be named SEC Freshman of the Year. In addition, Carolina set a school record for a home game winning streak with six consecutive wins.

Following an injury filled 2005 season, the program took a big step forward in 2006 as USC went undefeated at home for the first time in school history with an 8-0-3 mark at Stone Stadium. The team's cumulative goals against average of 0.69 was the lowest ever tallied at Carolina. The season culminated with the Gamecocks advancing to the SEC Tournament semifinals for the first time in Carolina history, as Blakely Mattern became the team's first Freshman All-America selection since 1998.

Smith directed the 2007 Gamecocks to arguably the best season in school history at that time, tying the school record with 14 victories and advancing to the NCAA Tournament for only the second time in program history. Carolina posted a 14-6-3 overall record including a 5-4-2 mark in the SEC after beginning the season by becoming the first team ever to knock off defending national champion and top-ranked North Carolina in a season opening game at Fetzer Field in Chapel Hill. The Gamecocks ran to a 7-0-0 start to the season - program bests for start to a season and winning streak - and peaked at No. 7 in the national polls. For the second consecutive season South Carolina advanced to the SEC Tournament semifinals after knocking off Tennessee for the first time in program history and earned the school's first bid to the NCAA Tournament since 1998. Blakely Mattern became the first sophomore to ever earn SEC Defensive Player of the Year honors in addition to becoming the first All-American in South Carolina history.

Smith has cemented Carolina's position as a conference title contender and player on the national stage after guiding the Gamecocks in 2008 to their second consecutive NCAA Tournament bid and third consecutive SEC Tournament bid, both program firsts. The Gamecocks went 11-7-4 overall and earned five SEC wins for the third year in a row with only one senior on the roster. Respected as a top defensive team, the Gamecocks finished the regular season second in the SEC with eight shutouts and ranked in the top two in every major defensive category including goals allowed, points allowed, shots allowed and shots on goal allowed.

Carolina advanced into the upper echelon of programs after Smith guided the Gamecocks in 2009 to the program's first SEC title and a berth in the NCAA Round of 16, earning her SEC Coach of the Year and NSCAA South Region Coach of the Year honors. South Carolina was a No. 2 national seed in the NCAA tournament and finished with a 19-4-2 record, the best in school history. The Gamecocks finished as one of the top defensive teams in the nation with a school record 15 shutouts, led by Mattern on the backline who was a consensus first team All-American and Lowe's Senior CLASS Award finalist in her final season. Grimsley finished the year with 33 points and was named an honorable mention All-American by Top Drawer Soccer. The team finished eighth in the nation in average attendance.

In 14 years as a head coach, Smith has compiled an overall record of 156-106-30. Besides her collegiate coaching, Smith was a member of the Region III ODP staff for the past six years, as well as an assistant for the '90 Regional Team. Smith also was a member of the 2003 U-14 National Camp staff for U.S. Soccer.

Smith is married to USC associate head coach Jamie Smith, a 1994 graduate of Providence College. They are the proud parents of two sons, Braden James, born on Nov. 25, 2003 and Evan Addison born on Jan. 6, 2006. The family resides in Columbia, S.C.
