South Carolina Plays Next Three Out of Conference

Looking for some confidence after a tough start in Southeastern Conference action, the Gamecocks step out of league play to take on Charlotte, Winthrop and Coastal Carolina. Wednesday's game at Charlotte, rescheduled from a rainout earlier this season, is slated for a 5 p.m. start, while Thursday's game against the Eagles has first pitch scheduled for 7 p.m. at Beckham Field. Coastal Carolina comes to Columbia for a 5:30 p.m. single game on Tuesday, April 7.

Rough Start to SEC Play

The Gamecocks took their time to get things going in SEC play. The squad lost its first seven games in league play for the first time in program history before breaking through with a win in the first game of the doubleheader against Mississippi. Previously, the longest it took to get one SEC victory was in 2006, when the squad won its fourth league contest. The Gamecocks have faced some tough competition in its 1-11 league start, getting swept in three games by then-No. 2 (now No. 1) Florida and then-No. 9 (now No. 7) Georgia while dropping doubleheaders at both 2008 NCAA Tournament participant Arkansas and No. 7/6-ranked Tennessee.

Weather Wreaks Havoc on Gamecocks' Schedule

One large weather system took four games off South Carolina's schedule from Feb. 28-Mar. 2. Right after the Gamecocks completed their second game in the National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA) Leadoff Classic, rain started falling in Columbus, Ga., and caused the cancellation of the rest of the Gamecocks' contests at South Commons Stadium. The back end of that front brought snow into the southeast, dumping over a half-foot of the white stuff in Chapel Hill, N.C., on Sunday night. As of Tuesday afternoon, that had yet to clear, once again wiping the previously-annual border battle between North and South Carolina from happening. Now the squad has lost an SEC game, as rain in Knoxville shortened the Tennessee series from three to two games.

The five rainouts surpasses the number of games the Garnet and Black lost to weather during the entire 2008 season. It's the most games lost by South Carolina since 2005, when 10 games were cancelled and another declared a tie thanks to rain. That team still got in 56 games, but this year's squad has just 20 games left on its schedule, which would be 10 less than 2005.

Eight-Run Inning And No Win? Yeah, It Really Happened

After South Carolina won its first game in SEC play in 2009, Ole Miss came back to take a 7-0 lead going into the home half of the fifth. The Gamecocks came back to not only tie the game but take the lead with an eight-run inning. Problem was, the game didn't end there. The Rebels came back with five runs to take the win, 12-8. The last time South Carolina lost a game where it scored eight or more runs was 2005, when the team fell, 10-8, at Auburn in the first game of the doubleheader on March 26.

The good news was South Carolina scored eight runs in a game for the first time since March 3, 2007. That contest against Charlotte was also the last time the program put up eight in one inning, as they closed out the game in the sixth inning with the offensive explosion. The Gamecocks last scored more than eight in an inning back in 2005, when they hung 11 in an inning against South Dakota State on March 5, 2005.

Garnet and Black Practicing (Some) Patience

A few of the Gamecocks have been patient at the plate this season, as three are seeing at least four pitches per plate appearance. Surprisingly, a freshman, Evan Childs, leads the way with 4.3 pitches per plate appearance. Just behind her are senior Jacqueline Wetherbee and sophomore P.J. Fulmer, who have both seen 4.0 pitches. Sophomore Jill Semento and freshman Lauren Lackey are tied for fourth at 3.9.

Returners Reasserting Place on Top, At Least on a Few Lists

After letting the freshmen get all the publicity during the first weekend, the returning Gamecocks have come back to put themselves on top of many of the statistical lists through 26 games. Senior Ashton Payne leads the team in batting average, hits and triples. Sophomore Laura Mendes now leads the team in doubles and slugging percentage. Sophomore Jill Semento leads the squad in on-base percentage. But the freshmen still hold leads in numerous categories. Lauren Lackey tops the squad with two steals and nine walks, while Evan Childs holds down the top spot in runs, home runs and RBI. The freshman pitchers continue to dominate their statistics, with Kierstyn White and Audrey Broyles leading in all positive categories.

More Parts Mean More Lineups? Stay Tuned

Last season, the Gamecocks seemingly never ran out the same nine in the same order. Reality was not far from the truth, as head coach Joyce Compton used the same defensive alignment in back-to-back games just three times all season. In all, South Carolina utilized 38 different units around the pitcher. Lineup order was a different matter entirely, as 43 different orders were trotted out in the 47-game season. But even with the larger roster (by three), there is only one more position player on the roster compared to 2008.

That hasn't changed the mixing and matching tendencies, though. Through the first 29 games, South Carolina has utilized 21 different defensive alignments and 28 different batting orders.

Look at Career List Possibilities in 2009

A few Gamecocks are looking to move onto or move up some career charts. Senior Ashton Payne already has spots in the top 10 in stolen bases and triples, and she's close to adding hits and batting average to her list. She needs 11 hits in 2009 to tie for 10th all-time with Debralee Troesh, while nine batting average points would push her ahead of Toinette Reed into 10th. She needs one steal to tie for eighth with Dana Fulmer. Payne now has fourth place to herself on the triples list, but she would have to break the NCAA single-season record for triples to move any higher.

A couple of others are already eyeing positions in different charts. Senior Jacqueline Wetherbee needs two round-trippers to tie Jana Zimmerman and current assistant coach Adrianna Baggetta for ninth all-time on the home-run charts. And sophomore Jill Semento is close to landing on a painful list, as one more hit-by-pitches will put her in a tie for eighth with 10 in her short career.

Carolina in the Month of April Under Joyce Compton

In the Joyce Compton era, Carolina is 287-143-1 (.667) during the fourth month of the year. Last season, the Gamecocks went 4-9 in April, which included dropping the final nine, all in SEC play.

South Carolina in the SEC Stat Rankings (as of games played on March 29)

The Gamecocks stand 11th in batting average at .218 as a team. They are also 11th in both on-base percentage (.294) and slugging percentage (.289). The squad has laid down 27 sacrifices and connected for six sacrifice flies, tied for sixth in the SEC in both. South Carolina's team ERA is 10th, while the staff's four saves are tied for the most in the conference. And the team's fielding percentage stands sixth in the league. The Gamecocks have turned 14 double plays, tied for the most in the SEC.

Individually, Audrey Broyles' 101 strikeouts rank eighth. White's three saves has her tied for the league lead. Offensively, Ashton Payne's two triples tie for eighth, while Jill Semento's two sacrifice flies are also knotted at eighth.

In SEC games only, the squad is last in all three "slash" stats (.192 batting average, .277 on-base percentage and .251 slugging percentage). South Carolina also stands 11th in ERA at 5.57 and allow opponents to hit at a .321 clip.

South Carolina Splits Its Games in Rain-Shortened NFCA Leadoff Classic

Once again, things were altered for all teams scheduled to compete in the National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA) Leadoff Classic, but it was more than just rain that altered the 2009 version. Snow wiped out the reworked Sunday schedule as well. The Gamecocks were among a handful of the 21 teams that got in at least two games during the tournament. South Carolina split its Friday outings, downing defending Conference USA champ Houston, 2-1, before falling to Illinois State, 7-0.

Stubblefield Has Strong Weekend in Gamecock Invitational

Freshman centerfielder Kristen Stubblefield was a leader in the lineup during the home tournament, hitting a team-best .417 in the Gamecock Invitational. The Corona, Calif., native also had an .833 slugging percentage after hitting her first career triple and home run during the weekend. Her four runs scored also topped the team, while her three RBI stood second. The freshman also had a sacrifice fly and a sac bunt as well during the tourney.

For the season, Stubblefield has totaled six runs batted in and seven runs scored, both in the top four on the team.

Spreading Around the Love in Orlando

The Gamecocks went 5-0 in the UCF Early Bird Tournament, and they did it with a team approach. Only two starters on the weekend did not contribute a run, either by scoring one or driving one in, during the event. Freshman Evan Childs scored three runs to lead the team, while another rookie, Lauren Lackey, had the most RBI on the team while in Mickey Mouse's part of the country.

What a Debut!

Freshman Audrey Broyles had a day for the ages in her first game donning the Garnet and Black against the College of Charleston. The Pembroke Pines, Fla., freshman tossed a complete game, allowing just one earned run while fanning 14 Cougars. That is the highest number of K's recorded by a Gamecock in their debut, with the current records going back to 1996. What made Broyles' first game even better was her day at the plate. She went 1-for-3 with a two-RBI single in the first to help put the Gamecocks on top, 4-0.

Broyles continued her good work in the circle, going 3-0 during the UCF Early Bird Tournament. She tossed her first complete-game shutout while compiling 10 K's in the win over Bowling Green. Broyles also got wins in relief against Bradley and Texas-Arlington.

Is the Second Game of the Year Still a Debut if It's on the First Day?

Evan Childs came through with a big contest in just her second game in a South Carolina jersey. The Conway, S.C., product hit two game-tying home runs in the Gamecocks' 6-4 win in the second game of the doubleheader on Saturday against the College of Charleston. The first was a solo shot in the third to answer the Cougars' run in the top half of the frame. The last one was a three-run blast that knotted the contest at 4-4 in the fifth. That set the stage for Laura Mendes' go-ahead sacrifice fly in the sixth that was the difference in the contest.

The Gamecocks Have Lots of Youth . . .

Head coach Joyce Compton has never had 10 newcomers enter her program in one year until this season. Nine freshmen (matching a record from 2005) and one transfer make up one of the youngest teams Compton has ever fielded. The most inexperience will be in the circle, as redshirt sophomore Krystle Robinson is the only pitcher back. She made 16 starts and 24 appearances overall. Three true freshmen and one transfer will vie to fill the over 220 or nearly 70 percent of the innings lost from last season.

... But They Also Bring Back Lots of Experience

But this is no green group as a whole. Out of 423 starts in the nine batting spots, over 67 percent of those starts return. The returning catchers started all but two games last season, the most of any spot. Three returners started all but four games in left field, which stands second. At shortstop, junior Lindsay Walker started 41 of the 47 games, the third-highest percentage on the team. The positions losing the most starts are right field (32), third base (30) and first base (24).

South Carolina Picked to Finish Fourth in SEC East

In what should be familiar to Gamecock fans, the Southeastern Conference coaches selected the squad to finish fourth in the SEC Eastern Division. This is the sixth-consecutive year that South Carolina has ranked fourth in the preseason polling of the league's managers. Florida was chosen to win the East and the overall title, while Tennessee was picked second. Georgia was selected third, while Kentucky came in fifth. Alabama was the coaches' choice to win the SEC West this season.

Gamecocks All-Time vs. Charlotte

South Carolina owns a 29-3 mark against Charlotte all-time in softball, including a 10-1 mark in the Queen City. The 49ers took the last meeting, however, salvaging the final game of the doubleheader on March 3, 2007 with a 2-1 win.

Scouting the Charlotte 49ers

Charlotte stands at 18-8 on the season and holds a 4-2 mark in Atlantic-10 play. The team's fielding has been excellent, making just 19 errors in its 26 games. The offense hasn't been bad as well, with Serena Smith, a transfer from Western Carolina, carrying the biggest load. She has driven in a team-best 24 RBI and leads the squad in batting average and on-base percentage. Sarah Malene has scored a team-best 23 runs and has 25 of the team's 51 steals. She's been caught just once, and the 49ers have been nabbed just four times in 55 attempts. Keri Palma leads the team with a .548 slugging percentage.

In the circle, Charlotte is fronted by junior Emily Jeffery. She's compiled a 13-4 record with a 1.51 ERA in 106.2 innings of work. Completing 12 of her 13 starts, Jeffery has struck out 136 batters while walking just 42. Katy Hackett is the No. 2 starter, putting together a 2.91 ERA in 53.0 innings of action. She also has an impressive 44:16 strikeout to walk ratio.

The Last Time - South Carolina vs. Charlotte - March 3, 2007

Despite an explosive inning to win game one against Charlotte, South Carolina bats fell silent in game two as the Gamecocks fell to the 49ers, 2-1, to split the doubleheader. Gamecock miscues allowed Charlotte to score two runs in the fifth inning. Pouliot pitched a perfect game for 4.1 innings before Cee Brooks got a single. The next batter, Emily Forbes, reached on a fielder's choice after the Gamecocks' attempt to get the lead runner out at second were unsuccessful. The Charlotte runners then advanced to second and third on a groundout and were in prime scoring position. Keri Palma then singled to second base to score Brooks, but an error by Caitlin Marsh allowed Forbes to score and Charlotte took the 2-0 lead. USC was able to get out of the inning after the next batter fouled out, but the damage had already been done.

Gamecocks All-Time vs. Winthrop

The Gamecocks and Eagles have met 47 times in history, with South Carolina taking 39 of those meetings. The squads also tied in 2005. Last season, the Gamecocks got a 6-3 win in Rock Hill.

Scouting the Winthrop Eagles

Winthrop is 14-14 on the season overall and 3-0 in the Big South. Lisa Kingsmore is the Eagles' top hitter, slugging over .600 while leading the team with six doubles and a .451 batting average. Tessa Thomas also ranks as a dangerous hitter, with a .362 average, six homers and a team-best 21 RBI. She's also scored 23 times, best on the squad. The Eagles are not a particularly fast squad, stealing 11 bases in 18 tries.

Pitching has been a major issue for Winthrop. The team ERA is 4.04, and they have allowed 100 runs on the season. Megan Evans leads the team with a 11-6 record and a 3.43 ERA. She's started 15 games and completed seven, fanning 93 in 107.2 innings of work. Taylor Wright holds a 4.54 ERA, striking out 21 while walking 18 in 41.2 innings.

The Last Time - South Carolina vs. Winthrop - April 2, 2008

A pair of home runs by sophomore Cagney Davis and freshman Laura Mendes propelled South Carolina to a 6-3 victory over Winthrop on Wednesday evening at Terry Field. Mendes had one of her best games in the Garnet and Black, going 3-for-4 with a three-run blast in the third that put the game out of reach. Junior Ashton Payne moved her hitting streak to six games, with a 2-for-4 outing with her fourth triple of the year and two runs scored. Sophomore Lindsay Walker continued her hot hitting, doubling and driving in a run on a 2-for-4 evening.

Gamecocks All-Time vs. Coastal Carolina

The Gamecocks are 41-6 all-time against the Chanticleers, including a 25-2 mark all-time in the meetings in Columbia. Last season, South Carolina got a 6-2 win in Conway.

Scouting the Coastal Carolina Chanticleers

Coastal held a 10-20 record as of March 30, including a 1-2 mark in Big South action. The Chanticleers have been led by Michelle Evans, who leads the team with a .325 batting average. Sarah Maples tops Coastal with 17 runs scored and is among three Chanticleers with 12 RBI. Coastal Carolina has 28 doubles as a team this season, helping them to a .337 slugging percentage.

The Chanticleers have had issues with their pitching, with the staff posting a 4.72 ERA. Katelin Edwards has logged the most innings and starts, but she is just 4-13 on the season with a 5.31 ERA. Ashley Frederick has a 5-5 record with a 3.97 ERA, best on the team. None of the pitchers are strikeout artists, with all three (including Ivy McCranie) averaging just over a half a punchout per inning. The team has committed 40 errors in their 30 games as of this date.

The Last Time - South Carolina vs. Coastal Carolina - April 9, 2008

Freshman Jill Semento capped South Carolina's comeback effort with a seventh-inning grand slam to lead the Gamecocks to a 6-2 victory over in-state rival Coastal Carolina on Wednesday at the CCU Softball Field. The Gamecocks came back in the top of the seventh, loading the bases with no one out on a P.J. Fulmer double, a Jacqueline Wetherbee hit by pitch and an Ashton Payne single through the middle. After a fly out, freshman Laura Mendes put the 1-1 pitch through the left side to plate Fulmer and tie the game at 2-2. That brought Semento to the plate, who worked the count to 3-1 before driving the Ashley Pedersen pitch over the centerfield wall for her fourth home run of the season.

Did You Know?

This will be for some miscellaneous facts learned this season. First up, did you know the trip from Columbia to Patriots Point in Mount Pleasant, S.C., lasts exactly as long as the movie Major League?...From the trip to Knoxville, we learned that Lindsay Walker's last game at third base prior to that day was when she was 12 years old...After the final game at Auburn, Jill Semento said that was the first time she played at shortstop since sometime in high school.
