REUNION, Fla. - Led by senior Justine Dreher's individual win, South Carolina captured the inaugural ANNIKA Intercollegiate title by seven strokes at the Reunion Resort's Watson Course on Tuesday. In their first tournament of the season, the Gamecocks fired a 10-under 854 at the three-day event with Dreher finishing the tournament at 9-under.

The hand-selected field at the ANNIKA Intercollegiate is likely the deepest of the regular season. The 12-team field included 11 of the top 13 teams in the Golfweek preseason poll.

Entering the day with a one-stroke lead, all five South Carolina golfers shot even par or below during the final round to record a third-round total of 852 (-6).

After carding a pair of 68s (-4) on the first two days of the tournament, Dreher captured her first collegiate win. Dreher kept Duke's Leona Maguire at bay with today's round of 71 (-1). Maguire was the runner-up at 8-under with her Blue Devil teammate Celine Boutier and Stanford's Shannon Aubert finishing in a tie for third at 6-under.

With three birdies on the back nine, freshman Nanna Madsen carded a round of 70 (-2) for her second under-par round of the event. Madsen recorded a three-day total of 214 (-2) in her first collegiate tournament to finish tied for ninth.

Sophomore Jia Xin Yang led South Carolina today, firing a 3-under 69, the best round of her career at South Carolina. Yang finished in a tie for 22nd with a total of 218 (+2). Steady junior Mary Fran Hillow yet again posted her third even-par round of the week for a total of 216 to finish in a tie for 14th.

Katelyn Dambaugh bounced back on the final day after struggling in the first two rounds, posting a round of 72 (E). Dambaugh finished the tournament at 9-over in a tie for 47th.

Arizona, the leader after the first round, finished in second place with a total of 861 (-3). Thanks to a third-round charge, Oklahoma State finished in third at 2-under (862) with Stanford just behind at even par. Duke, the defending National Champions, took fifth at 3-over.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. - No. 2 South Carolina (+13) claimed a 14-stroke win for its second title of the fall season at this weekend's Mercedes-Benz Collegiate Championships hosted by the University of Tennessee at the Cherokee Country Club. Freshman Nanna Madsen captured medalist's honors by three strokes at 1-under and junior Mary Fran Hillow carded a program-record 65 in today's round. Three Gamecocks finished in the top four.

South Carolina entered the day in third place and used a 3-under 281 today to take the title. The Gamecocks carded the second-best team score in tournament history with a three-round total of 865 (295-289-281, +13). Hillow's 65 is also a tournament record. After finishing 10th at the ANNIIKA and fifth at last weekend's Tar Heel Invitational, Madsen earned her first title. The freshman posted a three day total of 212 (72-69-71) to finish at 1-under for a three-stroke win.

At 2-over (76-74-65=215), Hillow earned runner-up honors. On No. 3, Hillow carded the first eagle of the season for South Carolina and surged 29 spots up the leaderboard for her first top-five finish with her historic 6-under 65.

ATHENS, Ga - Senior Justine Dreher fired an even-par 72 to lead No. 3 South Carolina in the stroke play portion of the 43rd Annual Liz Murphey Collegiate Classic on Friday at the University of Georgia Golf Course. Dreher was one of just two rounds of par or better. The Gamecock team carded a 20-over 308 to earn the No. 2 seed as the event shifts to match play tomorrow.

Friday's format for the Liz Murphey schedule featured 18 holes of stroke play. Those results determined the individual medalist and the seedings for match play competition that will begin on Saturday and continue through Sunday.

After finishing the front nine at 1-under, Dreher holed seven-consecutive pars before recording a bogey on No. 17 to finish with a 72. It is Dreher's best competitive round since the second day of the spring-opening Florida State Match-Up in early February.

Sophomore Katelyn Dambaugh and junior Sarah Schmelzel finished the day at 6-over (78) to tie for 21st. Freshman Ainhua Olarra carded an 80 (+8) to finish in 30th. The Gamecocks dropped sophomore Jia Xin Yang's score of 81 (+9).

UCLA earned the top seed for match play, topping the leaderboard with a 13-over 301. South Carolina (+20), Arkansas (+21) and Duke (+22) earned the top four seeds in the "Red" bracket. Arkansas' Regina Plasencia finished one stroke ahead of Dreher at 1-under (71).

ATHENS, Ga. - On the second day of action at the Liz Murphey Collegiate Classic, the No. 3 Gamecocks dropped their first round of match play against Georgia 3-2 and took down No. 7 Arkansas 3.5-1.5 in the day's second round at the University of Georgia Golf Course. The tournament was South Carolina's first match play experience of the season.

After earning the No. 7 seed yesterday, host Georgia upset the No. 2 seed Gamecocks 3-2 in South Carolina's first duel of the day. Junior Sarah Schmelzel found the most success in the match, defeating Manuela Carbajo 3 up. South Carolina also tallied a win thanks to sophomore Jia Xin Yang, who took down Sylvie Brick 1 up. The Bulldogs' Harang Lee and Rocio Sanchez defeated sophomore Katelyn Dambaugh and freshman Ainhua Olarra by one. Senior Justine Dreher fell to Sammi Lee by two.

The loss sent the Gamecocks to the lower bracket to face Arkansas. Led by Dambaugh's 6 and 5 win over Samantha Marks, South Carolina recorded a 3.5-1.5 win over the Razorbacks. Yang, the only Gamecock to win both of her head-to-head contests, recorded her second win of the day with a 3 and 2 victory over Summar Rochell. Olarra topped Jordy Labarbera by two holes. Dreher and Gaby Lopez went the full 18 holes before finishing all square. Razorback Regina Plasencia won by three holes over Schmelzel.

South Carolina fell to Baylor, 3-2, in the final round of match play action at the Liz Murphey Collegiate Classic in Athens, Ga., on Sunday. The Gamecocks got wins from sophomores Jia Xin Yang and Katelyn Dambaugh in the fifth-place match.

Yang went undefeated in match play over the weekend after capping the event by taking down Baylor's Giovanna Maymon 3 and 1. Dambaugh captured the win over the Bears' Dylan Kim, 3 and 2. Senior Justine Dreher fell to Hayley Davis, 2 and 1, while freshman Ainhua Olarra dropped her match to Baylor's Lauren Whyte, 3 and 2. Junior Sarah Schmelzel lost to Laura Lonardi 5 and 4.

In 2014, the Liz Murphey became one of the first women's events to switch to a combination of stroke and match play in advance of the NCAA Championships' adaptation of a similar format in 2015. Yesterday, the Gamecocks earned the No. 2 seed after 18 holes of qualifying stroke play and advanced to the "Red" bracket. After playing two rounds of match play on Saturday, the teams wrapped up the event with one final round of match play on Sunday.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. - After entering the final round of the 2015 SEC Championships nine shots behind leader No. 13 Texas A&M, the No. 2 Gamecocks pulled within two strokes on the back nine, but ultimately finished second after shooting a 1-under 284 in the final round at the Greystone Golf and Country Club. South Carolina posted a 54-hole team score of 863 (-1).

The Gamecocks drew within two strokes just after making the turn, but the Aggies pulled back out ahead by five strokes. With most golfers having just three holes to go, a weather delay struck. At the time, South Carolina had pulled back within three shots, but when they returned to the course, lost momentum.

Senior Justine Dreher capped her career at the SEC Championships with her fourth top-15 finish. Dreher was 2-under (70) on the day. She briefly shared the lead, but struggled after the delay to finish the tournament at 4-under (212).

Sophomore Katelyn Dambaugh had some difficulty on the front nine before steadying after the turn to finish the day at 2-over (74) and tie with Dreher at 4-under (212) for the weekend. It is the highest SEC Championships finish of her career.

Junior Sarah Schmelzel played steady golf throughout the day to finish at even-par (72) in the third round. Schmelzel was 5-over (221) for the weekend to tie for 21st. In her first SEC Championship appearance, sophomore Jia Xin Yang finished at 5-over (221) to also tie for 21st. Yang rebounded from a tough first round to shoot a 1-under 71 on Saturday followed by a 2-under 70 on Sunday. She birdied three-straight holes on the front nine to jump-start her day.

Junior Mary Fran Hillow also posted her best finish at the conference event, taking 39th at 10-over (226). Hillow carded her best round of the tournament on Sunday, shooting even-par (72).

Texas A&M claimed both the team and individual crowns. The Aggies finished at 13-under (851) after posting an 11-under second round on Saturday to create separation and 7-under 281 in the final round on Sunday. Their second-round 277 set a new team round SEC Championship record. At 9-under (207), A&M's Bianca Fabrizio earned medalist honors by two strokes over her teammate Maddie Szeryk (-7).

RALEIGH, N.C. - Top-seeded South Carolina fired a final-round 296 (+8) to clinch its third NCAA East Regional title since 2010 on Saturday at the Lonnie Poole Golf Course in Raleigh, N.C. The Gamecocks finished the tournament with a 54-hole score of 877 (+13) and captured the win by eight strokes to advance to their sixth-straight NCAA Championship. Senior Justine Dreher earned her sixth top-five finish of the season, finishing the weekend at even-par.

The Gamecocks entered the day with an eight-stroke lead after posting the only under-par team score of the tournament (-2, 286) on Friday. Alabama and LSU each made runs at the Gamecocks, particularly on the front nine when Alabama drew within five on a few occasions, but South Carolina fought its way through a difficult back nine to stay on top.

Dreher continued her career of strong postseason play, registering her second-straight top-five finish and her sixth of the season. Her 54-hole score of 216 (E) tied her for fifth with two others. After making the turn at 1-over, the senior played bogey-free on the back nine and holed a birdie on No. 15 to finish the day with a 72 (E)

Sophomore Katelyn Dambaugh turned in her best round of the weekend with a 2-under 70 on Saturday. She did not post a bogey on the front nine and made the turn at 3-under. She went 1-over on her final nine holes and posted her best career regional result in a tie for 12th at 5-over (221).

Junior Sarah Schmelzel also posted her best NCAA Regional finish. The Gamecock struggled after the turn and carded a final-round 77 (+5). With a three-round score of 220 (+4), Schmelzel captured 11th place, her best result since the season-opening Florida State Match-Up (T9) in February.

After a solid front nine, junior Mary Fran Hillow was 5-over on the back to card a third-round 77 (+5). Hillow was the fourth Gamecock to earn a top-25 result, tying for 22nd with a 54-hole score of 224 (+8).

After making the turn at 6-over, sophomore Jia Xin Yang battled on the back nine, carding eight pars and a birdie to also end the day at 5-over (77). Yang finished with a three-round score of 229 (+13, T48).

2015 NCAA East Regional Champions

South Carolina captures third NCAA East Regional crown since 2010 with stellar second round.

RALEIGH, N.C. - Top-seeded South Carolina fired a final-round 296 (+8) to clinch its third NCAA East Regional title since 2010 on Saturday at the Lonnie Poole Golf Course in Raleigh, N.C. The Gamecocks finished the tournament with a 54-hole score of 877 (+13) and captured the win by eight strokes to advance to their sixth-straight NCAA Championship. Senior Justine Dreher earned her sixth top-five finish of the season, finishing the weekend at even-par.

The Gamecocks entered the day with an eight-stroke lead after posting the only under-par team score of the tournament (-2, 286) on Friday. Alabama and LSU each made runs at the Gamecocks, particularly on the front nine when Alabama drew within five on a few occasions, but South Carolina fought its way through a difficult back nine to stay on top.

Dreher continued her career of strong postseason play, registering her second-straight top-five finish and her sixth of the season. Her 54-hole score of 216 (E) tied her for fifth with two others. After making the turn at 1-over, the senior played bogey-free on the back nine and holed a birdie on No. 15 to finish the day with a 72 (E).

Sophomore Katelyn Dambaugh turned in her best round of the weekend with a 2-under 70 on Saturday. She did not post a bogey on the front nine and made the turn at 3-under. She went 1-over on her final nine holes and posted her best career regional result in a tie for 12th at 5-over (221).

Junior Sarah Schmelzel also posted her best NCAA Regional finish. The Gamecock struggled after the turn and carded a final-round 77 (+5). With a three-round score of 220 (+4), Schmelzel captured 11th place, her best result since the season-opening Florida State Match-Up (T9) in February.

After a solid front nine, junior Mary Fran Hillow was 5-over on the back to card a third-round 77 (+5). Hillow was the fourth Gamecock to earn a top-25 result, tying for 22nd with a 54-hole score of 224 (+8).

After making the turn at 6-over, sophomore Jia Xin Yang battled on the back nine, carding eight pars and a birdie to also end the day at 5-over (77). Yang finished with a three-round score of 229 (+13, T48).

Also advancing to the NCAA Championships in Bradenton, Fla., are Northwestern (+21), host NC State (+23), Alabama (+24), LSU (+24) and Campbell (+28).

LSU's Madeline Sagstrom captured medalist honors by six strokes, finishing the weekend at 8-under (208). Coastal Carolina's Lena Schaeffner and LSU's Caroline Nistrup took second at 2-under, and Alabama's Emma Talley was fourth at 1-under. Dreher, Furman's Taylor Totland and NC State's Rachael Taylor tie for fifth (E).

The Gamecocks capture the moment after earning the 2015 NCAA East Regional championship and their sixth-straight trip to NCAA Championships.

2012 NCAA East Regional Champions

South Carolina leads wire-to-wire to claim second East Regional title in three seasons.

STATE COLLEGE, Pa. - For the second time in three years, the South Carolina women's golf team claimed the NCAA East Regional title. The Gamecocks led wire-to-wire and wrapped up the tournament with a final-round 291 (+3) to win by five strokes on Saturday at the Penn State Golf Course.

Carolina held a seven-shot lead heading into the round and was never threatened as it went on to post a three-day total of 873 (+9), which ties for the fifth lowest 54-hole total in school history. The win is the Gamecocks' first since claiming the 2010 NCAA East Regional.

"It's unbelievable. To come out on top in such a deep regional, we just did a phenomenal job," South Carolina head coach Kalen Harris said. "We are lucky to come away with it. The team played so solid. They were mentally tough every day and just stayed in the present. That's more than we can ask for, and we just need to do that going into the NCAA Championship."

Texas A&M and Texas finished tied for second with a score of 878 (+14) to clinch two of the eight available spots for the NCAA Championships, while Alabama (879), Florida (879), Arizona State (887), Michigan State (887) and Duke (887) will also advance.

Sophomore Suzie Lee made sure the Gamecocks held on to first place by firing a career-low 68 (-4), which ties for the third lowest score by a sophomore in school history. Lee bounced back from Friday's 83 to climb the leaderboard and finish in a tie for 41st with a score of 224 (+8). She played her best golf of the season on the front nine, shooting a 4-under 32. The highlight of her round came on the par-4 sixth when she sank her approach shot from 127 yards for eagle.

"That's so impressive," Harris said. "She got off to a 1-under start. Then the eagle at No. 6 got her to 3-under, and she just kept it going. I couldn't be prouder of her for her comeback after an 83 (on Friday)."

Senior Katie Burnett carded a 1-over 73 and finished in a tie for third with a score of 216 (E). She came up three shots shy of forcing a playoff to play for her second medalist honor at the NCAA East Regional in three years. After shooting even par on the front side, she struggled at times on the back nine with three bogeys as she fell back to 2-over heading to the 18th tee box. However, she closed out the round on a positive note by making birdie on the final hole to secure the seventh top-five finish of her career, which moves her into a tie for fourth in top-five finishes all-time at South Carolina.

Junior Amanda Strang shot an even-par 72 to post a career-best NCAA Regional finish of a tie for 14th with a score of 220 (+4). After shooting a 3-over 39 on the front nine, she settled down to play her best nine holes of the tournament on the back side, recording birdies on three of her first four holes and making par the rest of the way to get back to even for the round.

Freshman Justine Dreher wrapped up an impressive NCAA Regional debut with a final-round 78 (+6). She finished the tournament in a tie for 19th with a score of 221 (+5). On the day, Dreher carded one birdie, three bogeys, two double bogeys and 13 pars. She played a key role in building Carolina's cushion heading into the final day with rounds of 70 (-2) and 73 (+1) on the first two days.

Junior Meredith Swanson turned in an 80 (+8) to finish in a tie for 87th. She produced one birdie on the day as she sank a three-foot putt on the par-4 13th after narrowly holing out on her approach shot from the rough.

Texas A&M's Katerina Ruzickova shot a 1-over 73 to hold on to win medalist honors with a score of 213 (-3).

The Gamecocks will now advance to the NCAA Championship for the fourth time in five years. This year's tournament will be held May 23-26 at the Vanderbilt Legends Club in Franklin, Tenn. South Carolina will be joined by SEC foes Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, LSU, Tennessee and Vanderbilt. The Gamecocks finished 18th at last year's NCAA Championship.

2010 NCAA East Regional Champions

South Carolina holds off Tennessee by two strokes to win first regional title in program history; Burnett shoots 210 (-6) to take medalist honors.

GREENVILLE, N.C. – It finally all came together.

After going five years without a team tournament victory of any kind, the South Carolina women's golf team took down some of the nation's best teams in winning the NCAA East Regional on Saturday, posting a 54-hole score of 864 (E) to defeat Tennessee by two shots.

The key component of the Gamecocks' team victory came in the person of sophomore Katie Burnett, who shot a closing round of 71 (-1) to earn medalist honors for the first time in her collegiate career with a 3-day total of 210 (-6), one shot ahead of Auburn's Carlie Yadloczky.

"I'm really proud of them," coach Kalen Harris said. "They played really steady for three days, and played very well under really windy conditions today. We've been knocking on the door for a couple of tournaments now where they've been close and just haven't finished one, but they finished one at the right time (today) and I'm really proud of them."

The Gamecocks posted the best team round of the final day at 290 (+2) to overcome a five-shot deficit entering Saturday's third round. Duke, who led after two rounds of play, fell back to a tie for third after a closing round of 300 (+12). Tennessee, meanwhile, traded the lead with South Carolina and Duke for most of the day, but struggled down the stretch to post a final-day score of 296 (+8).

Carolina traded the lead back and forth with Duke, Tennessee, Auburn and Pepperdine throughout the day, but it appeared late in the day that it would come down to a duel with the Lady Vols. But the Gamecocks, as a team, were 3-under over their final three holes of the day while Tennessee was 1-over in that same stretch on the back nine, including one double-bogey at 18 that proved to be the difference.

Burnett was steady as a rock throughout the day and throughout the tournament. On a day when par was a very good score, the sophomore from Brunswick, Ga., had 15 of them. She first moved into red figures with a birdie at the dogleg-left par-4 14th, then saw a putt at the 18th just miss as she made the turn at 1-under. She faced a tough start to the more-exposed front nine as she fought her way out of a fairway bunker to make bogey at No. 2, then had a birdie putt at No. 4 lip out. She took dead aim at the par-5 seventh hole to card what would be the clinching birdie, then made pars at the eighth and ninth to hold on for the victory.

"To be honest, I don't think it's really hit me yet," Burnett said. "I'm still a little speechless at the moment. But I really couldn't be happier. I missed a few putts here and there, but I knew that if I kept playing the way I was playing, a few putts would fall coming down to the end."

Coming to the ninth and final hole, Burnett hit her approach past the flag to about 12 feet, but didn't know if she needed to make it to secure the victory. It turned out that all she needed was a two-putt for par, and that's what she managed to do as the awaiting Gamecock team stormed the green for hugs and high-fives all around.

Burnett's round of 210 ties for the fifth-best 54-hole individual total in school history, equaling an effort by Siew-Ai Lim at the 1994 Carolyn Cudone Invitational. In addition to becoming the 12th different Gamecock women's golfer to win an individual title, she is the third to win an NCAA East Regional. Teammate Benedicte Toumpsin won the 2008 event in Athens, Ga., and Lim was the medalist at the 1995 regional in Memphis, Tenn.

But it wasn't just Burnett's effort that led to the 17th team title in program history. Toumpsin turned in her second-straight round of even-par 72 to post a three-day total of 218 (+2) and a likely top-20 finish. She started off her final round with eight consecutive pars before coming to the 18th hole that had been a death trap for the Gamecocks all week. The pond down the left side claimed Toumpsin's tee shot, and she settled for a bogey to make the turn at 1-over. She would get that stroke right back at No. 1 with a birdie, then rolled off five more pars before running into trouble at No. 7. After an errant drive forced a layup, she hit her third shot into the hazard. But somehow, she was able to get up and down for bogey to minimize the damage. And once again, she fought right back for a birdie at No. 8 to get back to even par; a par at the ninth finished a strong day.

Senior Corrine Carr was the second-highest finisher for the Gamecocks, fighting her way to a closing 74 (+2) to finish at 217 (+1) overall, also a likely top-20 placement. Carr fought off bogeys at 12 and 13 by making back-to-back birdies at 14 and 15, then dropped another shot after a three-putt bogey at 16. She would hold on to par 17 and 18, then rolled off three more pars before bogeys at the windswept fourth and fifth holes. She would get one shot back with birdie at the seventh, then made two pars to close. Her 54-hole total of 217 equals a career-best, which previously came at the Mercedes-Benz Collegiate earlier this season.

Amanda Strang recovered from a tough 79 in Friday's second round to sign for a 73 (+1) Saturday, a six-shot improvement for the freshman. Standing 2-over after bogeys at 11 and 18, she finally got one stroke back with a birdie at the par-4 fifth. A bogey at No. 6 dropped her back to 2-over, then she made back-to-back birdies at the par-5 seventh and the lengthy par-3 eighth. However, a missed four-footer at nine kept her from level par as she finished 1-over for the day, 6-over for the week.

Taylor Barrett, the third senior on the Gamecock roster, was consistent throughout the week as she carded rounds of 76 (+4) all three days. A bogey-birdie start preceded six straight pars to keep her even as she came to the 18th. As with two of her teammates, she found rough going on the course's closing hole and made bogey to make the turn at 1-over. The wind got the best of her on the opening holes of the front nine as she made bogey on Nos. 1, 2 and 5, but recovered to post four straight pars to close a solid tournament.

South Carolina joined fellow SEC schools Tennessee, Auburn and Vanderbilt in advancing to the NCAA Championship, which runs May 18-21 at the Country Club of Landfall in Wilmington, N.C. Other schools advancing from the East Regional included Duke, Tulane, Pepperdine and TCU. Burnett's victory came by one shot over Auburn's Carlie Yadloczky, with Texas Tech's Rosalyn Kim earning the individual invitation to the NCAA Championships with her third-place finish at 4-under. First-round leader Nina Muehl of East Tennessee State tied for fourth place at 3-under with Tennessee freshman Erica Popson, the SEC runner-up.

2002 SEC Champions

South Carolina knocks off top-ranked Auburn by three strokes to claim first SEC crown; McPherson earns medalist honors for second-straight year.

No. 25 South Carolina captured the women's golf program's first Southeastern Conference Championship behind a school-record three-day total of 861. The Gamecocks finished three shots ahead of Auburn after entering the final round tied with the top-ranked team.

While the Gamecocks were posting their first team title, junior All-American Kristy McPherson made it a clean sweep as she became just the second player in SEC women's golf history to win back-to-back individual titles. She carded a three-day 209 to win the title by two strokes over Vanderbilt's Nicki Cutler. McPherson continued her mastery of the SEC Tournament by posting her sixth-straight sub-par round in the event and, after opening last year's tournament with a five-under 67, has led each round in the SEC Championship over the last two seasons. The only other SEC women's golfer to earn back-to-back SEC individual titles was Florida's Deb Richard, who won three-consecutive crowns from 1982-84.

"I'm so proud of the ladies," said head coach Kristi Coggins. "They played with so much heart and fought until the final putt dropped. Our goal was to be in contention coming into the final round because we have played so well all spring on the last day.

The Gamecocks picked the right time to crush the previous school record for team tournament score, topping it by 23 strokes. The 861 was also three strokes better than the SEC Championship record of 864 set by Georgia at the 1988 event at Gulf Breeze, Fla. Prior to posting 290 or lower in all three rounds at the event, Carolina had turned in just four sub-300 rounds all season.

South Carolina shot its highest score of the tournament in the final round, but played a solid back nine to recapture the lead and hold on. USC stood at five-over par after the first nine holes and fell three strokes behind No. 9 Tennessee, which was eight-under at the turn. But the Lady Vols cooled down, and the Gamecocks played the back nine collectively at three-under to win the title. Carolina handed Auburn its fifth second-place showing on the year to go along with its five tournament victories. Tennessee finished third, five shots off the pace.

In the individual competition, McPherson got a scare from Vanderbilt's Nicki Cutler, who finished before her and was in the clubhouse with a five-under 211 after a final-round 67. Tied with Cutler entering the final six holes, McPherson carded three birdies down the stretch and earned the win. Her 209 was the second-best individual three-round score in SEC Tournament history, two strokes off the previous record of 207, which she shot in 2001.

Head coach Kristi Coggins, Adrienne Gautreaux, Marci Robinson, Kristy McPherson, Reeta Laakkonen, Kacy Thompson and assistant coach Clarissa Childs.

"Every putt ... every shot ... all I wanted to do was make it for the team," McPherson said. "(Winning the individual title) this year is so much better because the team won. It was awesome last year – don't get me wrong – but I get to share it with the team this season. I was thinking about team honors all weekend, and it just so happened that the individual victory came around."

Junior Kacy Thompson of Columbia fell from fourth to 15th place with a final-round 79 (219 total). Junior Adrienne Gautreaux had a three-over 75 on the last day and finished tied for 17th place at 222. Reeta Laakkonen had a three-day total of 223 and finished tied for 18th place, thanks to second- and third-round 71s, which tied her lowest career rounds. Sophomore Marci Robinson had a one-over 73 in the last round and tied for 22nd place.

Katie Burnett

2010 - Hon. Mention (Golfweek, NGCA) • 2012 - Second Team (Golfweek, NGCA)

Katie Burnett put together a stellar career that saw her win the 2010 NCAA East Regional, post the best NCAA Championship finish in school history (fifth place) and leave as the career scoring average leader at South Carolina (74.18). Burnett led the Gamecocks to a team title at the NCAA East Regional in Greenville, N.C., the first regional team title in program history and the first team victory of any kind in five years. In her sophomore season, she amassed a pair of top-five finishes, three top-10s and nine top-20 showings. As a senior, she guided the Gamecocks to a second NCAA East Regional title in three years and a fifth-place showing at the NCAA Championship, which was the best finish in school history at the national championship.

Katelyn Dambaugh

2015 - Honorable Mention (Golfweek)

After a solid fall, Dambaugh caught fire in the spring of 2015, ending the regular season with a fifth-place finish at the PING ASU Invitational spurred by a second-round 66. She rode the momentum into the following weekend at the SEC Championship, matching a program and SEC Championship record with a second-round 65. The Goose Creek, S.C., native recorded her second-straight top-five finish at the conference event, tying for fourth. A two-time Second-Team All-SEC honoree, Dambaugh captured three-top five finishes in the 2014-15 season and owns the lowest career scoring average (minimum 55 rounds) in program history with a 73.66 through her first two campaigns with the Gamecocks.

Justine Dreher

2014 - Honorable Mention (WGCA, Golfweek)
2015 - First Team (WGCA, Golfweek)

Justine Dreher was a cornerstone of Kalen Anderson's developing program both on and off the course. After improving each season, she graduated with the second-lowest career scoring average (74.12) in program history. Dreher played a key role in the Gamecocks' postseason success, posting five of her nine career top-five results in 12 postseason appearances. After kicking off her senior season with a win at the inaugural ANNIKA Intercollegiate, Dreher collected six top-five results and posted the lowest single-season scoring average in South Carolina history (72.53). A fourth place result propelled the Gamecocks to their second straight SEC Championship runner-up finish. The French native was a key part of two NCAA East Regional titles, six-straight NCAA Tournament appearances and a pair of SEC Championship runner-up results. Dreher closed out her career with back-to-back First Team All-SEC recognitions and 2015 SEC Scholar Athlete of the Year honors and as just the third Gamecock to earn First-Team All-America honors.

Siew Ai Lim

1994 - Second Team (NGCA) • 1995 - First Team (NGCA)

Siew Ai Lim completed her career in 1995 as the only Gamecock women's golfer to compete in the NCAA Championship four times. She has the best record of any South Carolina player at the national championship, posting three top-20 efforts - including a tie for sixth place in 1996 and a tie for ninth in 1995 - in her four appearances. She propelled the Gamecocks to the 1995 NCAA Championship by winning the NCAA East Regional - the first NCAA Regional title for Gamecock women's golf - and helped the team to its best-ever NCAA finish, a tie for ninth. Named the 1995 SEC Player of the Year, her regional title was one of two individual medalist honors claimed by the Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia, native; the other being a win at the 1994 Carolyn Cudone Intercollegiate. She completed her career as the all-time scoring leader at South Carolina; she now ranks fifth all-time with a 76.23 career stroke average.

Kristy McPherson

2001, 2002, 2003 - First Team (NGCA)

The most decorated golfer in South Carolina history, Kristy McPherson remains one of only two players in Southeastern Conference history to win back-to-back SEC Women's Golf Championship titles, claiming medalist honors in 2001 and 2002. The second year, her 7-under-par 209 helped lead the Gamecocks to its first team SEC Championship, defeating Auburn by three strokes. She led the Gamecocks to the NCAA Championship each year from 2001 to 2003 and was the team's top finisher each time. McPherson is the all-time leader in individual victories at South Carolina, winning six tournaments in her four years. A four-time All-SEC selection and the 2003 SEC Player of the Year, McPherson left USC with the all-time lead in scoring average at 74.42; she currently ranks second all-time. She also posted the top three individual seasons, her best being her senior year of 2002-03 with a 73.42 stroke average.

Samantha Swinehart

2014 - Second Team (WGCA); Honorable Mention (Golfweek)

Samantha Swinehart wrapped up her career with an incredible senior season that helped propel the Gamecocks to their fifth consecutive NCAA Championship. Swinehart posted a scoring average of 73.12 in 2014, which ranks second all time at for a single season South Carolina. She also earned Second Team All-SEC honors and was named to the WGCA East All-Region Team. During her time as a Gamecock she recorded 13 top-20 finishes including two in the top-five, both of which came during her senior campaign. Swinehart's career scoring average of 75.70 ties for fifth best in school history.

Benedicte Toumpsin

2008 - Third Team (Golfweek); Honorable Mention (NGCA)

Benedicte Toumpsin was named an All-American following a stellar sophomore campaign in 2008 when she captured medalist honors at the NCAA East Regional, propelling South Carolina into the NCAA Championship for the first time in five seasons. Also a two-time All-SEC selection, Toumpsin won at least a share of medalist honors twice in her career - the 2008 regional and the 2009 LSU Golf Classic. She finished her career with an NCAA Championship appearance in 2010, helping the team to a tie for 14th place

DINAH SHORE TROPHY

2004 Dinah Shore Trophy

2006 Dinah Shore Trophy

The Dinah Shore Trophy Award, a part of the Dinah Shore Scholarship Fund, is a cooperative effort between The LPGA Foundation, the Friends of Golf (FOG), and the Nabisco Dinah Shore, one of the LPGA's four major championships and the largest contributor to the Dinah Shore Scholarship Fund.

The LPGA Foundation introduced the Dinah Shore Scholarship Fund in March 1994 in honor of the late Dinah Shore, and together with FOG and the Nabisco Dinah Shore, developed the Dinah Shore Trophy Award and its criteria. A fundraising organization administered by Eddie Merrens, head golf professional at Bel Air Golf Club in Beverly Hills, CA, FOG contributes annually to collegiate, high school and junior golf programs throughout the country, and Dinah Shore was considered the "First Lady" of FOG.

A selection committee of The LPGA Foundation chooses the Dinah Shore Trophy Award recipient from nominations submitted by the National Golf Coaches Association. Nominees for the award must meet the following criteria:

- * An overall grade point average (GPA) of at least 3.2 on a 4.0 scale;
- * Played in at least 50% of her team's scheduled events;
- * Maintained a scoring average of 78 or less; and
- * Demonstrated leadership skills and/or extraordinary community affairs work.

The perpetual Dinah Shore Trophy is a crystal trophy, created by Tiffany & Co. with an engraving of Dinah Shore. The trophy is housed at Mission Hills Country Club, site of the annual Nabisco Dinah Shore.
