2017 NCAA TOURNAMENT

South Carolina (22-10) earned a No. 7 seed in its ninth berth to the NCAA Tournament and will face 10th-seeded Marquette (19-12) in the First Round in Greenville, S.C. on Friday, March 17. The Gamecocks will be playing in the East Regional and with a victory, would face the winner of second-seeded Duke (27-8) vs. 15th-seeded Troy (22-14) on Sunday.

SOUTH CAROLINA IN THE NCAA TOURNAMENT

South Carolina's selection to the 2017 NCAA Tournament field marks the Gamecocks' ninth trip all-time to the NCAA Tournament and the first since 2004. Carolina holds an all-time record of 4-9 in NCAA Tournament games, with its last win coming in the 1973 East Regional Consolation versus Southwestern Louisiana (now Louisiana Lafayette). Carolina's first-ever win in the Tournament came in a 53-51 win over Temple in 1972, when Gamecock great Kevin Joyce hit a last-second jumper to propel the Gamecocks past the Owls into the Sweet 16.

Below are a few notables about South Carolina's NCAA Tournament history:

- The Gamecocks have advanced to the NCAA Tournament nine times (including 2017): 1971, 1972, 1973, 1974, 1989, 1997, 1998, 2004 and 2017
- South Carolina's first-ever NCAA Tournament win came in a 53-51 victory over Temple on March 11, 1972, in Williamsburg, Va., in the NCAA First Round
- Tom Riker (1970-72) owns the Carolina record for most points scored in a tournament game with 39 vs. Fordham on March 20, 1971, in Raleigh. He made 18-of-26 attempts from the floor in that contest
- Melvin Watson dished a Gamecock NCAA Tournament record 10 assists vs. Richmond on March 12, 1998, in Washington, D.C.
- South Carolina all-time vs. NCAA opponents: Coppin State (0-1), Fordham (0-1), Furman (0-1), Memphis (0-2), North Carolina (0-1), N.C. State (0-1), Pennsylvania (0-1), Richmond, (0-1), Southwestern Louisiana (now Louisiana Lafayette) (1-0), Temple (1-0), Texas Tech (1-0), Villanova (1-0)

INTERVIEW POLICIES

All interview requests must be made in advance to SID Emily Miles in the South Carolina Media Relations Office. Beginning with the start of practice in October, Miles will release a weekly coach and student-athlete availability schedule to media on Mondays.

Post-Game Interview Policy: After each home game, the visiting coach will address the media first, followed by South Carolina student-athletes then South Carolina head coach Frank Martin. (Depending on deadline, this may be altered on a game-by-game basis).

Road Interview Policy: Interviews with Coach Martin and Gamecock student-athletes while on the road will be scheduled according to the home post-game media procedure.

All interviews are to be coordinated through the Media Relations Office. This allows the staff to arrange the interview when it best suits the student-athlete's and the reporter's schedules. Please contact the Media Relations Office in advance to make your interview requests. Media are not permitted to contact student-athletes on their own at any time.

All interviews will take place at the designated media interview site for that day as listed in the weekly availability schedule or in the Media Relations Office.

Dormitory, apartment and cell phone numbers for student-athletes will not be provided to the media. Should you need to conduct a telephone interview with a student-athlete, a call will be placed to you from the student-athlete at a mutually agreeable time.

BY THE NUMBERS

5th

South Carolina ranks fifth nationally in turnovers forced per game, as Gamecock opponents are averaging 17.3 turnovers per game. That mark leads the SEC as well.

5th

Carolina ranks fifth in 3-point field goal percentage defense (29.3%) nationally. South Carolina has held 17 opponents to below 30% from 3 this season.

178

Senior guard Sindarius Thornwell ranks 15th nationally with 178 free throws made this season. That number is seventh in Carolina history for a single season.

39

Tom Riker's 39 points on March 20, 1971 vs. Fordham mark the most scored by a Gamecock in an NCAA Tournament game. He made another school record, 18 field goals in that contest.

6-4

South Carolina head coach Frank Martin is 6-4 all-time in NCAA Tournament games as a head coach. He led his 2009-10 Kansas State squad to the Elite Eight.

13

Rookie guard Raykym Felder led the Gamecocks in bench points in 13 games this season, including in the SEC Tournament contest vs. Alabama with 10 points.

23

Sophomore forward Chris Silva leads the Gamecocks with 43 blocks this season. He has 23 career games with at least two blocks, including hitting the mark 13 times this season.

22.1

South Carolina senior guard Sindarius Thornwell led the SEC in league games with 22.1 points per game. He had 11 20-point scoring outings in conference play this season.

5+

Senior guard Duane Notice posted five 3s in the Feb. 25 win over Tennessee. It marked the 29th game of his career where he has connected on at least three 3s in a game.

37-3

South Carolina is 17-2 when leading at the half this season. Over the course of the last two seasons, the Gamecocks are 37-3 when leading at the break.

A SOUTH CAROLINA WIN WOULD ...

- Improve Carolina's record to 5-9 all-time in NCAA Tournament games
- Be the first Gamecock NCAA Tournament win since a 90-85 win over then-Southwestern Louisiana on March 17, 1973, in the NCAA East Regional Consolation
- Be the second-straight season that the Gamecocks earned a postseason win, as they defeated High Point 88-66 in the first round of the NIT in Columbia last season

GAMECOCK QUICK HITS

- South Carolina is in its 109th season of varsity basketball in 2016-17.

- On the sidelines, Frank Martin is joined by associate head coach Matt Figger, assistant coaches Perry Clark and Bruce Shingler, and director of operations Andy Assaley.

- South Carolina head coach Frank Martin is 6-4 all-time in NCAA Tournament games, with all of those contests coming while he was the head coach at Kansas State. Martin led his 2009-10 squad to an Elite Eight appearance, while each season that Martin's team advanced to the NCAA Tournament it won at least one game.

- With the Gamecocks selection to the NCAA Tournament this season it marks the first time that South Carolina has had back-to-back postseason bids (NIT in 2016) since Carolina advanced to the NCAA Tournament in 2004 and then the NIT in 2005 and 2006.

- South Carolina is 1-2 in neutral site contests this season, as the Gamecocks upset then-No. 18/16 Syracuse at the Barclays Center on Nov. 26, before suffering a three-point loss to Seton Hall at Madison Square Garden on Dec. 12 and a loss on March 10 to Alabama in the SEC Tournament Quarterfinals in Nashville.

- Over the course of the last two seasons, Carolina is 5-3 in neutral site games.

- Sindarius Guard Sindarius Thornwell pulled in several awards last week for his outstanding season on the court. He was named the SEC Player of the Year, as well as garnering All-SEC First Team and All-Defensive Team accolades from the league coaches. He was named a unanimous selection to the AP All-SEC First Team and he earned USBWA All-District III (Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Maryland) honors.

- South Carolina captured its 20th win of the season on Feb. 11 in Starkville over Mississippi State. It marked the first time the Gamecocks have had back-to-back 20-win seasons (25-9 during 2015-16 campaign) since the 2003-04 (23-11), the 2004-05 (20-13) and the 2005-06 (23-15) seasons when the Gamecocks posted three-straight 20-win campaigns.

- The Gamecocks posted their 10th SEC win of the season in Starkville as well, marking just the fifth double-digit win total in SEC play for Carolina in its 26-seasons in the league. It's also just the second time that Carolina has had back-to-back seasons with double-digit league wins, as the Gamecocks posted 11 last season. (15 SEC wins in 1997, 11 in 1998).

- Thornwell was named to the Naismith Trophy Top 30 list, the Atlanta Tipoff Club announced on Feb. 9.

- Thornwell has accounted for 30.2% of the team's scoring over the course of the last five games. Overall this season, he accounts for 23.6% of Carolina's scoring. In league play, that number jumped to 30.2%. Only one other player in the last 18 SEC seasons accounted for more of his team's scoring in SEC games and had winning SEC seasons than Thornwell. UT's Ron Slay accounted for 31.3% of the Vols scoring during the 2003 league campaign.

KEY STAT

South Carolina forces 17.3 opponent turnovers per contest, which leads the SEC and ranks fifth nationally. The Gamecocks have forced at least 15 turnovers in 26 games this season, and forced at least 20 turnovers eight times. SEC Player of the Year and All-Defensive Team member Sindarius Thornwell leads the Gamecocks and ranks 13th nationally with 2.2 steals per game this season.

- In league play, Carolina opponents averaged 18.4 turnovers per contest. Two straight opponents near the end of the season - Tennessee (Feb. 25) and Mississippi State (Feb. 28) - both committed 20 turnovers. It marked the sixth and seventh SEC opponents that committed at least 20 turnovers.
- Through 32 games this season, South Carolina has held the opposing team's top scorer to below his season average in 23 of those games.
- South Carolina forced at least 15 turnovers in every SEC game this season except the Arkansas game (the Razorbacks had 13). Texas A&M's 25 marked an opponent season high in the category, and Alabama (Feb. 7 game) was just behind with 24 giveaways.
- South Carolina currently ranks fifth in the nation in 3-point field goal percentage defense, holding opponents to just 29.3 percent from beyond the arc this season. Carolina has held eight opponents to below 20% from 3-point range this season and 17 opponents below 30%.
- South Carolina leads the SEC in several defensive categories entering NCAA Tournament action. In overall games, Carolina is tops in scoring defense (64.5), second in FG% defense (39.8%) and first in 3-point FG% defense (29.3%), and in steals (7.8 per game). In strictly league games, Carolina finished third in scoring defense (68.2), second in 3-point FG% defense (31.3%) and first in steals (7.9 per game).
- Individually in the SEC statistics (overall games), Thornwell leads the league in scoring (21.0), is sixth in rebounds (7.2), first in steals (2.2) and eighth in offensive rebounds per game (2.5). Dozier is sixth with 1.7 steals per outing.
- South Carolina was 15-3 at home during the regular season, averaging 75.7 points per game and hitting 41.8% from the field.
- The Gamecocks were 6-5 in away games this season (5-4 in SEC games), and averaged 69.4 points per game and hit 41.1% from the field.
- South Carolina head coach Frank Martin is 88-84 (.511) all-time in conference games following the 2017 campaign.
- Frank Martin is 8-6 all-time in NCAA and NIT games during his tenure as a head coach. He is 6-4 in the NCAA Tournament and 2-2 in the NIT.
- Martin is 23-33 (.417) against ranked opponents as a head coach. His teams have four wins over opponents ranked in the top five, and two wins over opponents who are ranked No. 1.
- South Carolina finished its 26th basketball season as a member of the Southeastern Conference in 2017. The Gamecocks are 167-259 (.392) all-time in SEC games.
- The Gamecocks currently rank 43rd in the NCAA RPI (games through March 11), which is fifth in the SEC behind Kentucky (4th), Florida (10th), Arkansas (28th) and Vanderbilt (38th).
- South Carolina has 11 top 100 RPI and 15 top 150 RPI wins this season.
- Three would finish in double-figures, but the Gamecocks would suffer a 64-53 loss to Alabama in the SEC Tournament Quarterfinals on March 10. Senior guard Sindarius Thornwell led Carolina with 16 points, sophomore guard PJ Dozier added 15 with a team high two assists, and freshman guard Rakym Felder would add 10 off the bench. Alabama out-rebounded the Gamecocks by 15 in the contest.
- Sindarius Thornwell would score 25 points with seven rebounds, six assists and two steals, but a furious second-half comeback by South Carolina would fall short at Ole Miss in the regular-season finale, as the Rebels posted a 75-70 victory in Oxford on March 4. Thornwell would score 11 of his points at the foul line and connected on four of Carolina's nine 3s in the contest. The Gamecocks trailed by as many as 21 in the second half, and pulled to within four late in the game.
- Senior guard Sindarius Thornwell would score 17 of his 22 in the second half, and sophomore forward Chris Silva posted the third double-double of his career with 15 points and 11 rebounds, in Carolina's 63-57 victory over Mississippi State on Feb. 28 in Columbia on Senior Night. Carolina did not shoot the ball well, hitting just 34.0% of its attempts, but the Gamecock defense held the Bulldogs to just 36.4% in the game and 26.9% from 3, while forcing 20 turnovers (for the second straight game) to clinch the home-court win.
- South Carolina captured its 11th win of the SEC season on Feb. 25 with a 27-point win over Tennessee. Four scored in double-figures for the Gamecocks, led by sophomore guard PJ Dozier's 19. Senior guard Duane Notice was key in a big second half for the Gamecocks, as he hit five 3s in the game, including three in the first five and a half minutes of the second half. The Gamecock defense was strong against the Vols, holding UT to just 7.7% from 3-point range (1-13) and 33.3% overall in the game.
- Despite a 23-point, 10 rebound performance from senior guard Sindarius Thornwell, South Carolina suffered its third-straight loss in an 81-66 decision at No. 13/12 Florida on Feb. 21 in Gainesville. Fellow senior guard Duane Notice was also in double-figures with 16 on the night. After not connecting for a 3-pointer in the first matchup between the two schools, Florida hit nine 3s and out-rebounded Carolina in the 15-point win.
- Senior guard Sindarius Thornwell claimed sole possession of first place in Carolina history with his 117th career start at LSU. He passed Gamecock greats BJ McKie and Melvin Watson, who both started 116 career games, to claim the top spot.
- Carolina's win at Tennessee on Jan. 11 was the 200th of head coach Frank Martin's coaching career. He amassed a 117-54 record as head coach at Kansas State, and holds a mark of 84-66 in his fifth season at Carolina.

SEC COACHES POSTSEASON AWARDS

South Carolina senior guard Sindarius Thornwell was named the 2017 SEC Player of the Year, while he also garnered First Team All-SEC honors, as well as All-Defensive Team accolades from the league's coaches. Thornwell's distinction as the Player of the Year marks the first Gamecock to ever earn the honor. His First-Team honors mark the first All-SEC award of his career, while he was named to the All-Defensive team for the second straight season. Thornwell led the SEC in scoring in league games this season with 22.1 points per game, while he was sixth with 7.5 rebounds per league game and first with 2.4 steals. He posted 11 20-point games during league action, which included a 34-point outing at Kentucky, and an historic 44-point performance against Alabama. During his career in the Garnet and Black, Thornwell has earned SEC All-Freshman Team (2014), First Team All-SEC (2016), All-Defensive Team (2016, 2017) accolades and the 2017 SEC Player of the Year award.

DOZIER NAMED TO SEC COMMUNITY SERVICE TEAM

South Carolina sophomore guard PJ Dozier was named to the 2017 SEC Community Service Team on March 2. This season marks the 19th that the SEC has named its Community Service Team in men's basketball. Dozier has done outstanding work in community outreach during his time at Carolina, reading to local schools, helping with Meals on Wheels and the annual 8K In 8 Days campaign to name a few.

NATIONAL RANKINGS

South Carolina has been ranked in the AP poll for nine weeks this season and in the Coaches Poll for 10 weeks. The Gamecocks jumped in to the national rankings on Nov. 28 for the first time this season after posting wins over two ranked opponents the previous week in No. 25/24 Michigan and No. 18/16 Syracuse. The Gamecocks checked in at No. 20 in the Associated Press poll and No. 23 in the Coaches Poll. The Gamecocks have risen to as high as 16th in the AP poll this season (Dec. 12), which was the highest rank for Carolina since the Gamecocks were ranked 14th in the final poll of the 1997-98 campaign. The Gamecocks high mark in the Coaches poll this season was at No. 15 (Dec. 12).

SCOUTING NO. 10 SEED MARQUETTE

- Marquette is making its 32nd NCAA Tournament appearance
- The Golden Eagles have played in 16 Sweet Sixteens and advanced to the Final Four three times (1974, 1977, 2003), winning a National Title under legendary head coach Al McGuire in 1977
- Head coach Steve Wojciechowski is in his third season at the helm after serving as an assistant at Duke for 14 seasons
- MU finished fourth in the Big East with a 10-8 record
- The Golden Eagles have a 3-3 record vs. common opponents with wins over Georgia, Vanderbilt and Seton Hall and losses to Michigan and Seton Hall (2)
- Marquette is the top-ranked 3-point shooting team in the country at 43 percent; they rank fifth in the country in made 3s per game at 10.5
- The Golden Eagles led the Big East in scoring and ranked 17th in the country, averaging 82.5 points per game
- Guard Markus Howard is the team's leading scorer at 13.1 points per game; he was named to the Big East All-Freshman and ranks No. 1 in the country in 3-point percentage, making 54.9 percent of his shots behind the arc
- Guard Andrew Rowsey, who is the team's third-leading scorer at 11.5 points per game, was named the Big East's Sixth Man of the Year; his 93.3 percent free throw percentage is third in the country
- MU's balanced offensive attack features five players that average double-figures and seven players who average 8-plus points per game

SERIES INFO: Marquette leads the all-time series 12-4 ... The series dates back to the 1966-67 season ... The team's have met just once on a neutral court, which is also the last meeting between the two schools, as the Golden Eagles posted a 92-89 OT win in the championship game of the 2005 Great Alaska Shootout ... Frank Martin has never face Marquette.

SCOUTING NO. 2 SEED DUKE

- Duke is making its 22nd consecutive NCAA Tournament appearance and 33rd overall under head coach Mike Krzyzewski
- Duke finished fifth in the ACC at 11-5 and won the ACC Tournament at the Barclays Center, winning four games in four days; they are 9-1 on a neutral court this year
- The Blue Devils are led by unanimous First-Team All-ACC selection, sophomore guard Luke Kennard; he averaged 20.1 ppg, 5.3 rpg and 2.5 apg
- Forward Jayson Tatum, an ACC All-Freshman Team selection, is the team's second leading scorer (16.9 ppg) and rebounder (7.3 rpg)
- Five players average double-figures for Duke

SERIES INFO: Duke leads the all-time series with South Carolina 56-19 ... The Blue Devils hold an 8-1 advantage in games played on a neutral court ... The series dates back to the 1920-21 season ... Duke won the last meeting between the two schools in an 81-56 decision at the Maui Invitational on Nov. 20, 2001 ... Frank Martin has faced Duke once as a head coach, as his Kansas State squad suffered an 82-68 loss to the top-ranked Blue Devile on Nov. 23, 2010, in the O'Reilly Auto Parts CBE Classic in Kansas City, Mo.

SCOUTING NO. 15 SEED TROY

- Troy is making its second NCAA Tournament appearance (first since 2003) in school history after winning the Sun Belt Championship
- The Trojans are led by head coach Phil Cunningham in his fourth season
- Forward Jordan Varnado is the team's leading scorer (16.5 ppg) and rebounder (7.1 rpg)
- Guards Wesley Person (14.8 ppg) and Jeremy Hollimon (12.1 ppg) average double figures as well
- Troy ranks in the top-15 nationally in free throws made (13th, 602) and free throw attempts (12th, 834)

SERIES INFO: A matchup between the Gamecocks and Troy would mark the first-ever meeting between the two schools ... Frank Martin has also never faced Troy in his tenure as a head coach.

BY THE NUMBERS

- 1.3 - Sophomore forward Chris Silva is averaging 1.3 blocks per game this season, which is a team high.
- 1.7 - PJ Dozier's 1.7 steals per game is second on the team and ranks sixth in the SEC. Dozier has eight games this season with at least three steals, and collected a season high four steals vs. FIU and again vs. Alabama.
- 2.2 - Senior guard Sindarius Thornwell is averaging 2.2 steals per game this season, which leads the SEC and ranks 13th nationally.
- 2.4 - Thornwell's 2.4 steals per game led the SEC in conference games this season. It marked the most steals per game in conference play by a Gamecock since Devan Downey averaged 2.5 per SEC game during the 2010 season. Additionally, it was the most seals per game in the SEC during league games since LSU's Anthony Hickey averaged 2.8 during the 2013 league season.
- 2.982 - The Gamecocks excelled in the classroom during the fall semester, as the team posted a cumulative GPA of 2.982.
- +3.9 - South Carolina leads the SEC and is 10th nationally with a turnover margin of +3.9.
- 5+ - Senior guard Sindarius Thornwell matched for a team high six assists in the March 4 contest at Ole Miss, marking the 27th game of his career with five or more helpers.
- 6 - South Carolina committed just six turnovers in the win vs. A&M on Jan. 7, trying for the fewest in the Frank Martin era.
- 8-8 - Sophomore forward Chris Silva was a perfect 8-of-8 from the charity stripe in the win over Auburn on Jan. 24.
- 13 - South Carolina's 13 steals vs. FIU on Dec. 4 marked a season high in the category, surpassing the previous high of 12 vs. Syracuse.
- 13 - Senior guard Justin McKie scored a career high 13 points in the win over Auburn on Jan. 24. He hit 5-of-7 from the floor, including a career best 3-of-4 from range.
- 14-15 - Senior guard Sindarius Thornwell set then-career highs when he hit 14 free throws on 15 attempts at Kentucky on Jan. 21. Thornwell missed his first free throw of the game, and went on to finish 14-14 from the line the rest of the way.
- 16 - Sophomore forward Chris Silva scored a career high 16 points in Carolina's win vs. Ole Miss on Jan. 14, and has matched the mark three times in league play, most recently vs. Arkansas on Feb. 15.
- 17.3 - South Carolina leads the SEC and ranks fifth nationally with 17.3 forced turnovers per game.
- 20+ - Senior guard Sindarius Thornwell's 15 20-point games this season mark the most 20-point games in a campaign since Devan Downey had 19 20-point efforts during the 2009-10 season.
- 21.0 - Thornwell's 21.0 points per game in overall games this season leads the SEC and ranks 21st nationally. Thornwell has scored in double-figures in every game this season and has scored 15 or more 23 times.
- 23 - South Carolina dished a season high 23 assists in the Jan. 24 win over Auburn. It is the third-most ever during the Frank Martin era.
- 25 - The 25 turnovers by Texas A&M were an opponent high this season. It was the most turnovers in a game by a Carolina opponent since SE Louisiana committed 26 turnovers on Dec. 21, 2011.
- 31 - Freshman guard Rakym Felder's 31 3s on the year mark the most by a Carolina freshman since Sindarius Thornwell had 37 during his rookie campaign in 2013-14.
- 33-28 - South Carolina head coach Frank Martin holds a 33-28 all-time record in neutral site games as a head coach.
- 34 - Senior guard Sindarius Thornwell scored a then-career high 34 points in the contest at Kentucky on Jan. 21. It marked the first 30-point game of his career.
- 34 - South Carolina scored a season high 34 points off of 22 LSU turnovers in the win at the Maravich Center on Feb. 1.

37-3 - Over the course of the last two seasons, the Gamecocks are 37-3 in games when leading at the half. Carolina was 20-1 last season when leading at the half, and 17-2 this season when holding the edge at the break.

39 - Dozier's 39 made 3s this season are 29 more than his total of 10 from his rookie campaign.

48 - South Carolina has out-scored its opponent in points in the paint in 48 of the last 65 games dating back to last season. The Gamecocks are 39-8 in those games, including a 15-6 mark this season when scoring more points in the paint than its opponent.

51.2% - South Carolina collects an assist on 51.2 percent of its made baskets this season (403/787). Carolina dished 15 assists in the home win vs. Tennessee, led by PJ Dozier's four helpers.

62 - The senior trio of Sindarius Thornwell (22), Duane Notice (27) and Justin McKie (13) accounted for 62 points in the Carolina win over Auburn on Jan. 24.

64.5 - South Carolina ranks 29th in the country and second in the SEC in scoring defense, as opponents are averaging just 64.5 points per game this season.

70+ - Three different Gamecocks have registered at least 70 assists this season. Sophomore guard PJ Dozier's 89 are a team high, while senior guards Duane Notice and Sindarius Thornwell have dished 72 and 74, respectively, this season.

98 - South Carolina's 98 points scored vs. Auburn marked the third-most every scored in an SEC game and the most ever scored during the Frank Martin era.

127 - Senior guard Sindarius Thornwell is the career leader at Carolina with 127 starts.

178 - Sindarius Thornwell's 178 made free throws this season is second in the SEC and 15th nationally.

176 - South Carolina is 176-82 all-time at Colonial Life Arena, including a 15-3 mark this season.

190 - Senior guard Sindarius Thornwell ranks fifth all-time in career steals at Carolina with 190, including 57 this season.

300 - Senior guard Duane Notice collected the 300th assist of his career at Memphis on Dec. 30.

500 - Sophomore guard PJ Dozier tallied the 500th point of his career in the Jan. 28 win at Missouri.

649 - Sindarius Thornwell ranks third among active players in the SEC with 649 career rebounds. He is 31 rebounds from cracking the top 10 in Carolina history in career boards. 1,355 - Senior guard Duane Notice ranks 19th all-time at Carolina with 1,355 points. Notice is just six points away from surpassing Mike Doyle (1,360) for 18th all-time.

1,823 - Senior guard Sindarius Thornwell ranks fifth all-time at Carolina with 1,823 career points. Thornwell is 81 points away from passing Devan Downey (1,901) for fourth place all-time. Thornwell is just the fifth Gamecock to score at least 1,800 points during his career.

3,178 - Senior guards Duane Notice and Sindarius Thornwell have combined to score 3,178 points during their time in the Garnet and Black.

UP NEXT

The winner of Friday's first-round matchup between No. 7 seed South Carolina and No. 10 seed Marquette will advance to the second round to face the winner of the second-seeded Duke vs. No. 15 seed Troy contest. Sunday tip times will be announced following the conclusion of game action on Friday.

SILVA EMERGING AS CONSISTENT OFFENSIVE THREAT

Sophomore forward Chris Silva has emerged as a consistent offensive threat this season. The Libreville, Gabon, native has set or matched a career high in scoring four different times this season, including in the Feb. 15 game vs. Arkansas, matching a career best with 16 points. Silva has hit 55.0 percent of his shot attempts this season (105-191), and is also hitting 73.0 percent (103-141) at the foul line. His rebounds per game average (5.7) is significantly higher than his freshman season, and his 43 blocks this season are 15 more than he had in all of 2015-16. Below is a quick breakdown of some key numbers from his rookie to sophomore campaigns:

	Freshman	Sophomore	Note
FG%	48.2%	55.0%	was 5-7 from the floor at Miss. St.

THORNWELL'S HISTORIC NIGHT VS. ALABAMA

Senior guard Sindarius Thornwell put forth an historic performance in Carolina's four-overtime loss to Alabama on Feb. 7 at Colonial Life Arena. His 44-point performance tied for the fourth-most points in a game by a Gamecock and the most in a game since 1979, while his 21-rebounds were the most by any player in the SEC this season and the most by a Gamecock since 1993. Below are some notes on his performance:

- Thornwell set the SEC record for made free throws in a league game with 25 vs. the Crimson Tide. He broke a record held by LSU's Pete Maravich of 22 made free throws in a game vs. Florida in 1969.

- Thornwell's 25 made free throws and 33 attempts were both South Carolina school records.

- Thornwell's 44 points marked the first 40-point game by a Gamecock since Michael Foster had 40 in a win vs. Vanderbilt on Dec. 28, 1986, in New Orleans. That game was a double-overtime contest.
- Thornwell's 44 points marked the most in a game by a Carolina player since Cedrick Hordges had 44 vs. Biscayne on Dec. 1, 1979.
- Thornwell's 21 rebounds marked the first 20-rebound game by a Gamecock since Emmett Hall pulled down 23 vs. the College of Charleston on Dec. 22, 1993.
- The 21 rebounds by Thornwell were the most by a player in the SEC this season, and tied for the 15th-most by any player nationally (games played through Feb. 8).
- Thornwell became the first Gamecock to record two games with at least 30 points in a season since Devan Downey had six games with 30 or more points during the 2009-10 campaign.

THE DEFENSE

South Carolina is making headlines this season for its tenacious defense, check out a few key stats on the Gamecock D:

- Carolina has held 16 opponents this season to below 40% from the floor.
- The Gamecocks have ranked among the top 25 in the nation in field goal percentage defense at the conclusion of the last two seasons - 13th in 2014-15 when opponents hit 38.7%, and 25th in 2015-16 when opponents hit 39.7% - while Carolina currently ranks 17th nationally (opponent field goal percent of 39.8%) in the category this season.
- The Gamecocks have scored double-digit points off of turnovers in all but one game this season, including a season high 34 points off of turnovers in the win at LSU on Feb. 1.
- Carolina leads the SEC and ranks fifth nationally with 17.3 opponent turnovers per game. Only West Virginia (20.4), The Citadel (17.6), Fordham (17.5) and Grambling (17.5) force more turnovers per contest.
- The Gamecocks lead the SEC and rank 26th nationally in steals per game with 7.8 per contest.

MCKIE KEY VS. GEORGIA ON FEB. 4

A huge 3 from the corner with 3:17 on the clock, and the eventual game winning free throws, solidified a career moment for senior guard Justin McKie in Carolina's home win over Georgia on Feb. 4. McKie picked up a steal and added a lay-in in the opening half vs. the Bulldogs, before collecting two steals in half two, while connecting on a huge 3 late in the game, which gave the Gamecocks a nine-point advantage. McKie hit two free throws with six seconds on the clock, which gave Carolina a four-point advantage. The makes would stand as the game winners as the Bulldogs hit a last-second lay-up just before the buzzer to make the final score 77-75. McKie is having a stellar year in 2016-17, averaging career highs in every major statistical category, including points per game (4.4). He is also dishing 1.4 assists compared to just 0.6 turnovers per outing.

CAROLINA TRENDS UNDER MARTIN

Gamecock trends under Frank Martin ...

- South Carolina is 58-36 when posting at least six made 3s in a game.
  - South Carolina posted a season high 15 made 3s in the win over Auburn on Jan. 24.
- South Carolina is 72-29 when scoring more points in the paint than its opponent.
  - The Gamecocks out-scored Syracuse 30-8 in points in the paint in the upset win at the Barclays Center on Nov. 26.
- South Carolina is 77-34 when holding its opponents to under 45 percent from the field.
  - South Carolina held Michigan to 19.2% from the field on Nov. 23.
- South Carolina is 72-28 when out-rebounding its opponent.
  - The Gamecocks out-rebounded Tennessee 38-29 in the home win over the Vols on Feb. 25.

DOZIER NUMBERS

South Carolina sophomore guard PJ Dozier has tallied double-digit points in 20 games this season, including 21 in the Gamecock home win vs. Georgia on Feb. 4 and again the following game vs. Alabama on Feb. 7. Dozier also has 17 games with at least 15 points and he has scored 20 or more in eight games. His field goal percentage of 39.1 percent (158-404) ranks higher than last season's number of 38.1 percent (91-239) during his rookie campaign. Most notably is his accuracy from beyond the arc. Dozier connected on 10-of-47 attempts last season (21.3%), and has surpassed his mark of made 3s this season, hitting 39-of-125 attempts at 31.2 percent. He is also making a mark on the defensive end with 52 steals (1.7 per game/6th in the SEC).

A LOOK BACK AT THE NON-CONFERENCE

South Carolina faced a tough non-conference slate in 2016-17, highlighted by four contests away from home, including two neutral site and two true away games. Carolina posted an 8-1 record at home during non-league action, with wins over La Tech, Holy Cross, Monmouth, SC State, Michigan, Vermont, FIU and Lander. Carolina posted a strong 64-50 neutral site win over Syracuse at the Barclays Center in Brooklyn, and also captured a road win at USF. Carolina's losses came in a three-point decision vs. Seton Hall at Madison Square Garden and a two-point home loss to Clemson before the break for the holiday. The final non-conference game of the regular season saw former Metro Conference foe Memphis post a 16-point win over Carolina at FedExForum.

ALABAMA NOTABLES (MARCH 10)

- The Gamecocks got solid production off the bench, scoring 16 points, led by Felder's 10.
- The Brooklyn, N.Y., native scored in double figures for the eighth time this season.
- Senior Duane Notice is in third place all-time in program history with 133 career games played.
- Silva logged his 13th game of the season with at least two blocks.

OLE MISS NOTABLES (MARCH 4)

- Thornwell logged his 15th 20-point game of the season (30th career) Saturday night. He became the first Gamecock to lead the SEC in scoring in league games (22.1 ppg) since Devan Downey (26.2 ppg) in 2009-10.
- The Lancaster, S.C., native, went 11-for-16 at the charity stripe, marking his fifth game in SEC play with double-digit makes at the foul line.
- Gravett, who made his second career start, finished with 10 points. It was his first game with 10-plus since he scored a career-high 12 in a road win at Tennessee on Jan. 11. He set a new career high with six assists in tonight's game.
- Carolina forced 17 turnovers. The Gamecocks forced 15-plus turnovers in 17 of their 18 SEC games.
- South Carolina's 17 assists Saturday night were it's most since a season-high 23 vs. Auburn on Jan. 24.

MISSISSIPPI STATE NOTABLES (FEB. 28)

- Prior to tonight's game, Sindarius Thornwell, Duane Notice and Justin McKie were honored for Senior Night at midcourt. They were joined by five student managers: Dalton Abel, Paul Dransfield, Jacob Freeze, Treis Huggins and Will Saxman.
- Thornwell went 11-for-12 at the charity stripe, snapping a streak of 33-straight made foul shots that spanned over five games. The senior has made 47-of-49 at the charity stripe the past six games.
- With the win, Carolina improved its record to 17-2 when leading at the half this season.
- The Gamecocks are 15-1 this season when holding their opponents below 39 percent shooting from the field.

TENNESSEE NOTABLES (FEB. 25)

- Prior to today's game, Frank Martin and his wife, Anya, along with Charlotte Price and Maggie Barrett (USC students and the 2017 co-directors for Colleges Against Cancer and Relay for Life), presented a $579,000 grant check for cancer research to Dr. Jan Eberth, a University of South Carolina Mentored Research Scholar.
- Dozier's 19 points were his most since scoring 21 vs. Alabama on Feb. 7.
- Thornwell has now scored 15-plus in every SEC game this season except one. He's scored 15-plus in 21 of the 23 games he's played in this season overall.
- Notice finished with five 3s, marking the sixth time this season he's made four or more shots from deep. Four of the six have come in SEC games.
- The Gamecocks scored 23 bench points, led by Felder's 12. It was his first game in double figures since he scored 13 in a road win at Missouri on Jan. 28.
- Carolina scored 27 points off of 20 Tennessee turnovers Saturday afternoon. The Gamecocks have forced 20-plus turnovers in six SEC games.
- The Gamecocks have now won 11 league games on 2017, matching the second-most SEC wins all-time for a single season.
- Carolina has now beaten the Volunteers three times in a row, marking the longest win streak over Tennessee since the team won six-straight from 1995-98.

FLORIDA NOTABLES (FEB. 21)

- Thornwell tallied his fifth-straight game with 20 or more points. The Lancaster, S.C. native, has accomplished the feat nine times in SEC play.
- He now has 28 games with 20 or more points for his career. 13 of those have come this season.
- Thornwell was 11-for-11 at the free throw line, posting his 10th perfect game of the season at the charity stripe. He's made seven or more free throws 10 times this season for the Gamecocks.
- Freshman Sedee Keita logged a career-high with 28 minutes off the bench. He finished the game with six rebounds, one shy of tying a career high (7 vs. Memphis).
- South Carolina was 19-for-22 (86 percent) at the free throw line as a team, good for its second best percentage of the season at the line.
- The Gamecocks forced 16 turnovers Tuesday night. They've forced 15 or more in 14 of the team's 15 conference games this year.

THORNWELL NAMED TO PRESEASON SQUAD

Senior guard Sindarius Thornwell was named to the Preseason All-SEC First Team on Thursday by the league's coaches. Thornwell enters the season as the league's high scorer for active players with 1,278 career points. This marks the third-straight season that Thornwell has garnered preseason honors from the coaches, as he was named to the Preseason All-SEC Second Team prior to his sophomore and junior campaigns.

2016-17 SCHEDULE

South Carolina has an exciting schedule set for the 2016-17 campaign. The slate features 14 games, with 10 home contests, including one exhibition. Highlighting the non-conference portion of the schedule is the Gamecocks' participation in the Brooklyn Hoops Holiday Invitational, as well as a matchup versus Seton Hall in the Under Armour "Reunion" doubleheader at Madison Square Garden in mid-December. The Gamecocks will face eight teams that advanced to the postseason a year ago, with four of those NCAA Tournament participants, including Syracuse, which advanced to the Final Four.

GAMECOCKS CONCLUDE HISTORIC 2015-16 REGULAR SEASON

South Carolina concluded an historic regular season on March 5, 2015, with a 76-61 win on the road at Arkansas. That victory set the school record for regular-season wins at 24. The Gamecocks began the season 15-0, their best start since the 1933-34 campaign, and the 24 wins marked the most since the 1996-97 squad also posted 24 victories. In addition, South Carolina's 11 SEC wins marked the most since 1998, match the second-most ever by a Carolina team and marked just the fourth time that the Gamecocks had double-digit SEC wins in their 25 years in the league.

GAMECOCKS ANNOUNCE MARTIN'S MATH CLUB

The SC Education Oversight Committee (EOC) announced on Nov. 28 "Martin's Math Club," a partnership with University of South Carolina head men's basketball coach Frank Martin and the University of South Carolina Athletics Department. Martin, a former high school math educator, developed the project designed to help young people learn that math is fun and relevant in their daily lives. The inaugural "Martin's Math Club" contest will run from November 28, 2016-February 24, 2017. The contest provides the opportunity for teachers and students in grades Kindergarten through 8th grade to win two tickets to a Gamecock men's basketball home game. With assistance from SC math educators, the EOC published 18 standards-based lessons for K-8th grade that incorporate math and basketball. For more information visit helpwithmathsc.org.

CREMINS NAMED SEC LEGEND

The Southeastern Conference released its 2017 Allstate SEC Basketball Legends on Jan. 20, and it was announced that Gamecock great Bobby Cremins has been selected as South Carolina's representative this season. Cremins was the starting point guard for Carolina where he played from 1967-1970. He was captain of the 1969-70 team that went 25-3 and captured the ACC regular-season title with an undefeated 14-0 mark in league games. Cremins was an assistant at South Carolina for legendary head coach Frank McGuire following his playing career, before he became a college head coach at Georgia Tech, Appalachian State and College of Charleston. Cremins led his teams to 18 post-season appearances, including 11 NCAA Tournament berths.

NOTICE NOMINATED FOR NABC GOOD WORKS TEAM

University of South Carolina senior guard Duane Notice has been named a nominee for the Allstate NABC Good Works Team. It was announced by the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) on Nov. 30. The team honors student-athletes for their outstanding community outreach. During his time at South Carolina Notice has been extremely involved in community outreach, spending time with several organizations such as: Harvest Hope Food Bank, Special Olympics, Palmetto Health Children's Hospital, Boy Scouts, the Dorn V.A. Medical Center in town, Ronald McDonald House, the Richland County Sheriff's Department, Epworth Children's Home and Brookland Baptist Church to name a few. Also of note, Notice and his teammates spent time volunteering with the Red Cross Flood Relief during the historic flooding in Columbia in October 2015, making care packages of food and personal hygiene products for families who had been devastated by the flooding. Members of the Allstate NABC Good Works Team* will be invited by Allstate, an official corporate partner of the NCAA, to the 2017 NABC Convention and 2017 NCAA Men's Final Four* in Phoenix, where they will participate in a community service project benefitting the city. More information about the Allstate NABC Good Works Team* is available at www.nabc.org.

South Carolina, 2012-present

Frank Martin was named the head men's basketball coach at the University of South Carolina on March 27, 2012, becoming the 32nd head coach in the history of the South Carolina program, which enters its 109th season as a varsity sport in 2016-17. Martin owns a 187-117 (.600) overall record as a head coach, entering his 10th season overall, and a 70-63 (.526) record entering his fifth season at South Carolina.

In Martin's fourth season leading the Garnet and Black (2015-16), Carolina put together one of the top seasons in its history, matching a school record for wins with a 25-9 overall record on the year, while the Gamecocks reached double-digit SEC wins for just the fourth time since joining the league, posting an 11-7 mark in conference contests. The SEC finish was Carolina's highest since the league combined its East and West Divisions prior to the 2012 season. South Carolina began the season 15-0, its best start since the 1933-34 campaign and went on to post a school-record 24 regular-season wins.

The Gamecocks received votes or were ranked for 15 weeks in the USA Today Coaches Poll, rising to as high as 15th, and for a total of 14 weeks in the AP poll, rising to as high as 19th, during the season. Carolina advanced to postseason play for the first time since 2009, making their 12th appearance in the Postseason NIT as one of the top four seeds in the event. The Gamecocks posted a win over High Point in the opening round, before suffering a season-ending loss to visiting Georgia Tech on March 21.

Three Gamecocks were honored with postseason awards by the SEC coaches, with senior forward Michael Carrera earning First Team All-SEC accolades, junior guard Sindarius Thornwell was named to the All-Defensive Team and junior guard Duane Notice was named the league's Sixth Man of the Year. Carrera went on to earn honors from several organizations following the best season of his career. Carrera, Notice and Thornwell each reached the 1,000 career-point plateau during the season as well.

Prior to his appointment in Columbia, Martin spent the previous five seasons as the head coach at Kansas State University, leading the Wildcats to the NCAA Tournament four times, including a trip to the "Elite 8," during the 2009-10 campaign when the squad won a school record 29 contests. Martin's Wildcats won at least 21 games in each of his five seasons at the helm, as the program compiled a record of 117-54 (.684) under his direction. During that time, Kansas State posted a 50-32 (.609) record in Big 12 Conference games, finishing fifth or higher in each season, with three season finishes of third or better.

A native of Miami, Fla., Martin earned his bachelor's degree in physical education from Florida International in 1993. He and his wife, Anya, have three children, Brandon, Amalia and Christian.

EXB - SOUTH CAROLINA 107, NEWBERRY 89
NOV. 6, 2016/COLONIAL LIFE ARENA

COLUMBIA, S.C. - South Carolina opened its 2016-17 season with a 107-89 exhibition win over Newberry College on Sunday afternoon at Colonial Life Arena. Carolina shot 50.0 percent from the field in the game en route to its offensive outburst. Senior guard Sindarius Thornwell led all players with 34 points on 13-of-24 shooting. The Lancaster, S.C., native, recorded a double-double with 11 rebounds, which led the team. He also led the team with five assists and five blocks.

South Carolina jumped out to a 12-point lead in the first half with 11:23 left, but Newberry would keep the game competitive forcing 12 turnovers and knocking down 10 shots from deep. Thornwell led all scorers at the break with 16 points on 6-of-10 shooting. He also led the team with five rebounds. Carolina shot 51.5 percent from the field as they headed to halftime with a 53-46 lead.

The Gamecocks opened the second half on a 29-11 run, building their lead to 81-57. Thornwell (10 points) and sophomore guard PJ Dozier (nine points) helped fuel the scoring outburst with 26 of those points. Dozier finished tied for second on the team with 17 points. Senior guard Duane Notice, last season's SEC Sixth Man of the Year, also poured in 17 points. Notice was 4-for-9 from behind the arc.

Carolina's defense ramped up in the second half holding Newberry to a 42.1 field goal percentage. The Gamecocks forced 21 turnovers in the game and out-rebounded the Wolves 52-33. Newberry, who looked to run all game with a smaller lineup, would finish the game with 39 attempts from three-point range.

With the win, South Carolina remains unbeaten in five career exhibition contests under the direction of Head Coach Frank Martin.

GAME 1 - SOUTH CAROLINA 85, LA TECH 76
NOV. 11, 2016/COLONIAL LIFE ARENA

COLUMBIA, S.C. - The South Carolina men's basketball team (1-0) opened the 2016-17 regular season with an 85-76 victory over Louisiana Tech (0-1) Friday night. Four Gamecock starters were in double-figures, led by senior guard Sindarius Thornwell, who poured in 18 points. The Lancaster, S.C., native filled up the stat sheet leading the team in rebounds (7) and assists (6).

Senior guard Duane Notice (17), sophomore guard PJ Dozier (17) and sophomore forward Chris Silva (11) were the other South Carolina starters in double figures. Dozier's 17 points were a new career-high.

The Gamecocks jumped out to a 7-2 lead to start the game behind five points from Dozier. The Gamecocks extended their lead to 16-6 after Thornwell hit a 3-pointer with 12:49 left in the first half.

South Carolina's half court defense was suffocating in the first 10 minutes, as they held the Bulldogs to 29 percent shooting from the field. Louisiana Tech finished half one 11-of-29 from the field (37.9 percent).

The Bulldogs closed the gap to 18-16 with 10:24 left, but Carolina pushed the lead back to nine at 36-27 with 2:36 to play in the half after back-to-back 3s from senior guard Justin McKie and sophomore guard Hassani Gravett.

Gravett ended the first half with an exclamation point as he tipped in a Notice 3-point miss at the buzzer. Carolina led 42-31 at the break as the, Villa Rica, Ga. native's, tip-in gave the team its biggest lead of the first half at 11.

Thornwell led all scorers at halftime with nine points on 4-of-8 shooting. He also had five rebounds and three assists. Junior forward Ran Tut had a nice first half off the bench, dropping four points and tying for the team lead in rebounds with five. Notice had eight points, Dozier seven and Gravett seven to round out Carolina's scoring in the opening period. Carolina out-rebounded La Tech 22-18 in half one.

In the second half, the Bulldogs cut the deficit to seven with 14:13 left after a 3-pointer by sophomore guard Derric Jean from the right wing. La Tech's Jacobi Boykins stole the ball at half court finishing with an emphatic dunk at the other end to cut the lead to 59-54. He was whistled for a technical foul after the play. Notice missed both free throws but Silva put the Gamecocks back up by seven after a dunk on the ensuing possession off a great dish from Gravett.

La Tech's Daquan Bracy would cut the lead to four at 65-61, knocking down a 3-pointer with 7:58 left. Thornwell would answer the basket with a fast break 3 of his own from the left corner to put Carolina back up seven with 5:56 on the clock. The Bulldogs answered, but Silva increased the lead to nine with a 3-point play with 4:31 left after beating Jean to the hole for the and-one bucket.

Thornwell and Silva again halted La Tech's momentum after bringing Colonial Life Arena to its feet with two straight transition dunks, pushing the lead to 80-70 with 2:37 left, and the Gamecocks would close the nine-point win.

GAME 2 - SOUTH CAROLINA 81, HOLY CROSS 49
NOV. 13, 2016/COLONIAL LIFE ARENA

COLUMBIA, S.C. - South Carolina (2-0) picked up its second win of the season Sunday night at Colonial Life Arena after an 81-49 victory versus Holy Cross (0-1). The Gamecock defense limited the Crusaders to just 17 second half points and 30 percent shooting (6-20) from the field in the half. Carolina senior guard Sindarius Thornwell had 20 points to lead all scorers.

After trailing 4-3 early in the game, Carolina went on a 9-0 run after a put-back dunk by sophomore Chris Silva that put the Gamecocks up 12-4. Senior guard Justin McKie extended the early lead to 10 after a transition layup put Carolina ahead 18-8 with 11:56 to go in the first half. McKie's layup forced Crusader Head Coach Bill Carmody to take a timeout after his team started the game 2-for-11 from the field (18.1 percent).

After the timeout, freshman guard Rakym Felder hit a 3-pointer from the top of the key to put the Gamecocks up 24-13. Carolina started the game on fire from the field, hitting 10-of-14 shots, good for 71.4 percent.

Holy Cross cut the lead to five at the 7:08 mark, but Thornwell answered with a post up bucket from the left block to put the Gamecocks up 33-26. Senior guard Duane Notice then hit a 3 on the team's next possession, putting Carolina up 10, 36-26, with 3:03 left in the opening half.

Senior guard PJ Dozier hit his third 3 of the first half from the left wing with 1:29 left to put the Gamecocks up 15. Holy Cross answered with a 3-point bucket of its own. The teams exchanged 3s again on their next possessions, as Thornwell hit from deep for Carolina and Robert Champion, the Crusaders' leading scorer from a year ago, hit one for Holy Cross. Champion's 3 cut the deficit to 12 just before the half with Carolina leading 44-32.

Thornwell led all scorers at the break with 14. Dozier was the second-leading scorer on the stat sheet with 13 first-half points for the Gamecocks. Notice had four assists to lead all players. Carolina shot 58.3 percent in the opening period, including going 8-of-13 from deep. Champion, and forward Malachi Alexander, each scored 12 points for the Crusaders to account for 24 of the team's 32 first-half points.

Carolina picked up right where it left off in the second half as Thornwell hit a 3 at the 15:03 mark to give the Gamecocks a 16-point lead, 53-37. McKie tallied his eighth point with just under 12 minutes to play with a high floater in the lane, which put Carolina up by 20, 59-39.

The Gamecocks defense remained locked in during half two. Holy Cross started the second half 4-for-13, just 30.8 percent from the field. Carolina's hot shooting continued on the offensive end, as it started the second half 8-of-16 (50 percent).

Thornwell hit his fourth 3 of the game with 8:34 left to put the Gamecocks up 66-42. He finished the night 4-for-6 from behind the arc. McKie joined Thornwell in double figures, scoring his 10th point of the night with 3:08 left after stealing the ball and taking it coast-to-coast for the lay in to give Carolina a 74-47 lead late in the game.

GAME 3 - SOUTH CAROLINA 70, MONMOUTH 69 NOV. 15, 2016/COLONIAL LIFE ARENA

COLUMBIA, S.C. - PJ Dozier scored the game-winning jumper on a lob from Duane Notice as time expired in overtime Tuesday night at Colonial Life Arena to power South Carolina (3-0) to a 70-69 non-conference win over Monmouth (1-1). Senior guard Sindarius Thornwell led all scorers for the third-straight game with 23 points. He also had nine rebounds and five assists.

Tonight's game marks Carolina's third game in five days to open the 2016-17 season. Carolina got off to a fast start, opening the game on a 13-0 run. Thornwell and Notice each hit 3s as the Gamecocks opened the game 4-of-7 from the field. Monmouth started the game 0-for-9 and didn't get its first bucket until 13:12 left in the first half.

South Carolina pushed its run to 17-2 just before the second media timeout on a Chris Silvia made free throw. The Gamecocks went 9-for-13 from the charity stripe in the first 10 minutes, after a pair of Notice free throws made the score 19-2.

The Hawks would battle back into the game, cutting the lead to 19-7 with 7:35 left in the opening period, after taking advantage of an 0-for-11 field-goal drought for Carolina that lasted over 10 minutes. Redshirt-sophomore guard TeMarcus Blanton ended the drought after knocking down a 3 to push the Carolina lead to 22-7 with 6:59 left in the half.

Monmouth went on a 6-0 run to cut the lead to nine at 22-13, but the Gamecocks remained ahead 26-13 after back-to-back buckets by senior guard Justin McKie. The Hawks scored the final two baskets of the half to make it 29-22 as the teams headed to the locker room.

Both teams struggled shooting the ball for long stretches in the first half. Monmouth finished the first half 7-for-30 (23.3 percent), while South Carolina shot 8-of-30, good for 26.7 percent.

The Gamecocks started the second half much like half one, going on an 11-0 run after knocking down 4-of-7 shots from the field (57.1 percent). They led 38-22 at the first media timeout. Thornwell (4) and Notice (5) tallied nine of the 11 points on the run.

The Hawks started half two 2-of-9 (22.2 percent) from the field, but then went on a 16-2 run, holding Carolina scoreless for nearly five minutes before a Silva reverse lay-in. McKie and Notice each hit 3s in the stretch to make it 50-46, but the Hawks got back within two at the under-eight media timeout. Monmouth took its first lead at 52-50 with 6:52 left after a put-back lay-in by big man Diago Quinn.

Thornwell scored five-straight points to put the Gamecocks back ahead, 55-52, forcing a timeout by head coach King Rice with 5:45 remaining in the second half. Monmouth then had a four-minute field goal drought before scoring four-straight to tie it up at 58-58 with 1:23 remaining. A pair of Thornwell free throws put Carolina ahead by two with 31.7 seconds left, but Micah Seaborn answered for the Hawks with two free throws of his own to tie the score again.

The Gamecocks turned it over off an inbound play with eight seconds left. Monmouth got a shot off from the right wing, but Thornwell skied high to block it. Carolina got the ball back with 07 seconds left. Dozier launched a half-court heave from the left side that rimmed in-and-out and the game headed to overtime tied at 60.

Dozier, who did not score in regulation, scored six of the team's 10 points in overtime, to propel Carolina to victory. Thornwell scored the other four points from the free throw line. Nine of his 23 points came from the charity stripe Tuesday night. Notice (15) and Silvia (10) joined Thornwell in double-figures. Silvia tallied his first career double-double after leading the team with 10 rebounds.

The Hawks finished the game with four players in double-figures. Chris Brady led the way with 17 points and 10 rebounds. Je'Lon Hornbeak (14), Micah Seaborn (11) and Justin Robinson (11) were also in double-figures for Monmouth. The Gamecocks held Robinson, who was the unanimous selection for MAAC Preseason Player of the Year, to just 2-of-13 shooting.

GAME 4 - SOUTH CAROLINA 90, SC STATE 52 NOV. 18, 2016/COLONIAL LIFE ARENA

COLUMBIA, S.C. - South Carolina (4-0) picked up a non-conference home win Friday night after downing South Carolina State (1-2) 92-50. Senior guard Sindarius Thornwell led all scorers for the fourth-straight game with 22 points (8-of-15 from the field). It was Thornwell's third 20-point game of the season.

Carolina went to the first media timeout up 11-3, after starting the game 5-of-7 from the field. The Bulldogs cut the lead to 13-8 after an Edward Stephens 3. The Gamecocks then held the Bulldogs scoreless for the next 3:25 (14:44 to 11:19). Two Khadim Gueye free throws and a jumper by Maik Kotsar pushed the lead back to nine at 17-8 at the 13:44 mark in the opening period.

In the first 10 minutes, Carolina held SC State to just 29 percent shooting (4-of-14). The Gamecocks were the exact opposite, starting the game shooting 59 percent from the field (10-for-17).

Kotsar put Carolina up 25-11 after a nifty reverse layup with 8:56 left in the opening half to force Bulldogs head coach Murray Garvin to take his first timeout of the game. After the timeout, the Gamecocks went on a 10-2 run after 3s from sophomore guard PJ Dozier and r-sophomore guard Hassani Gravett.

Thornwell pushed the lead to 40-18 after knocking down a corner 3 with five minutes left to play in the opening half. The Lancaster, S.C. native, then hit another 3 with 1:46 left to push Carolina's lead to 45-23. The 3 gave him 16 first-half points, which led all scorers. The Gamecocks ended the half on a 5-0 run to take a 50-25 lead at the break. Kotsar had eight points at the break and led the team with seven rebounds. The Bulldogs did not connect for a field goal the final 2:41 of the first half and finished 9-for-28 (32 percent) from the field.

Carolina continued to build on its lead in the second half. Kotsar hit double-figures for the first time in his career with 16:54 left in the game after a put back lay-in off a Thornwell miss. The lay-in opened up a 30-point lead for the home team, 60-30.

The Gamecocks would lead by 26 or more for the rest of the night.

Kotsar, a native of Tallin, Estonia, finished the game with 15 points and eight rebounds. He was a perfect 7-of-7 from the field.

Chris Silva was also in double-figures with 11 points. He also had seven rebounds, including four on the offensive end.

Eric Eaves, the Bulldogs leading returner scorer, finished with a game-high 14 points for SC State.

GAME 5 - SOUTH CAROLINA 61, 25/24 MICHIGAN 46 NOV. 23, 2016/COLONIAL LIFE ARENA

COLUMBIA, S.C. - South Carolina (5-0) stifled No. 25/24 Michigan (4-1) 61-46 at Colonial Life Arena Wednesday evening, handing the Wolverines their first loss of the season. The Gamecocks had four players in double figures, led by senior guard Sindarius Thornwell, who finished with 21 points and 10 rebounds. It was the Lancaster, S.C. native's fourth-straight game scoring 20-plus and his first double-double of the season.

Carolina threw the first punch Wednesday evening, jumping out to a 13-5 lead at the first media timeout with 15:42 left in the first half. Notice and Silva combined for 10 of the team's first 12 points with five apiece.

Three forced turnovers and a 6-2 advantage on the boards aided the Gamecocks solid start. The Wolverines countered with a 7-0 run to bring the score to 13-12 as Carolina went scoreless for over four minutes.

Michigan struggled to shoot the ball against South Carolina's stifling defense the entire first half, but was able to keep the game tight with solid shooting from the charity stripe. Eleven of the team's first 18 points came from the free throw line, as they went 11-of-12 (94 percent).

The Wolverines led 20-19 but a Thornwell 3 put the Gamecocks back in front 22-19 with 7:56 left in the first half. Thornwell started the game 4-of-6 with nine points. Michigan answered right away and the teams headed to the under eight media timeout tied at 22-22. Up to that point, the Wolverines were just 5-of-19 (26 percent) from the field and 1-for-10 (10 percent) from behind the arc.

Senior guard Justin McKie came off the bench and scored five-straight points to put Carolina back ahead 27-23. The Gamecocks remained ahead 29-25 at the final media timeout of the half with 3:43 left. Michigan's poor shooting continued, as it was 5-for-20 (25 percent) up to that point.

Notice ended the first half emphatically for Carolina with a coast-to-coast transition layup with 20 seconds left. His layup put the Gamecocks up 33-27 at the half. Carolina held the Wolverines scoreless the final 3:19 of the half. Thornwell led all scorers in the first half with 11 points on 5-of-8 shooting. Michigan shot 6-of-24 (25 percent) and 1-of-12 from behind the 3-point line. Sophomore PJ Dozier did an outstanding job on the Wolverines leading scorer, Zak Irvin, as he went 2-of-8 and scored just five points.

It was much of the same story for Michigan in the second half, as they started 1-for-6 from the field. Sophomore Hassani Gravett hit a jumper from the right wing to put Carolina up 37-29 with 15:47 left in the game. A Notice layup then put Carolina up by 10 with 14:48 left. It was the Gamecocks' first double-digit lead of the game.

Michigan's Muhammad-Ali Abdur-Rahkman tallied a 3-point play on the ensuing possession to cut the lead to seven at 39-32. That would be the closest the Wolverines would get the rest of the night. Abdur-Rahkman's lay-in ended a 4:08 scoring drought.

After a timeout by Michigan head coach John Beilein, freshman Maik Kotsar scored on an aggressive dribble drive to his left with 10:54 left to put Carolina up 43-33. A pair of Thornwell free throws then pushed the lead to 45-33 with 10:06 left.

An and-1 put back layup by Wolverine big man Mark Donnal ended a 6:53 scoring drought for Michigan. He made the ensuing free throw to cut the lead to 51-40 with 7:35 left. Gravett halted the momentum with a lob to Silva he threw down a thunderous dunk to push the lead back to 13 at 53-40.

With 3:07 left, Kotsar slipped to the hoop again. Thornwell fed him and the freshman big man finished for his 10th point, giving Carolina its biggest lead of the game at 59-43 with 3:07 left.

A Dozier steal put the game on ice in the final 1:20. He threw an outlet pass to Thornwell, who threw it ahead to Notice. The Toronto, Ontario, native, finished to put Carolina up 61-46 with 1:14 left.

GAME 6 - SOUTH CAROLINA 64, #18/16 SYRACUSE
NOV. 26, 2016/BROOKLYN, NY. (BARCLAYS CENTER)

BROOKLYN - The South Carolina men's basketball team picked up another top-25 victory Saturday afternoon, earning a 64-50 win over No. 18/16 Syracuse (4-1) in the Barclays Center in Brooklyn, N.Y. as part of the Brooklyn Hoops Holiday Invite. The Gamecocks (6-0) had three players score 15 points or more, and used a fierce defensive effort to hold the Orange to 36 points under their season scoring average.

The Gamecocks set the tone early against Syracuse, softening its vaunted zone defense with a pair of 3s from Sindarius Thornwell and PJ Dozier to open the game. It took Carolina just 25 seconds to earn a lead it held for the entire half -- and ultimately, the game -- and after an 8-0 run the lead grew to 20-11 and remained at least a two-possession game for the final 10 minutes of the period.

South Carolina's defense frustrated and harassed the Orange, limiting them to just eight field goals total in the half and a 34 percent success rate from the floor. Driven by 21 points combined from Thornwell and Dozier, the Gamecocks took a 37-26 lead into the halftime break. As a team, South Carolina shot 50 percent in the half, making 11 of 21 attempts on two-point field goals thanks to great dribble penetration from the point guard tandem of Dozier and Thornwell. The duo's ability to get inside Syracuse's zone paid off all afternoon, with South Carolina enjoying a 30-8 margin in points in the paint by the time the final buzzer sounded.

Syracuse made a strong push out of intermission, starting with an 8-3 run to get the Barclays Center crowd of 8,733 on their feet in a 40-34 game. A Thornwell layup off a Maik Kotsar steal broke off the momentum for a spell, but Syracuse's pressure did not let up. Freshman Sedee Keita gave South Carolina some juice off a big block on a dunk attempt, with the ensuing rebound scooped up and taken coast-to-coast by Hassani Gravett for the lay-in. After the Orange split a pair of free throws, Duane Notice relived some more pressure on a deep 3-pointer to make it a 47-39 game with 13 minutes still to play in the game.

Foul troubles would be a major hurdle early in the second half for the Gamecocks, as Syracuse went into the double bonus with 11 minutes still to play while the Gamecocks saw the Orange whistled just twice in the same span. Free throw opportunities gave Syracuse a chance stop the clock and cut into its deficit, but Frank Howard missed four straight shots at the line to keep Carolina ahead by three possessions, 51-43, at the eight-minute mark. South Carolina's defense made sure that free throws would be the best looks the opposition could get; the Gamecocks held Syracuse without a made field goal from the 15:16 mark until a 3-pointer finally broke the spell with 6:37 to play.

South Carolina's offense would not enjoy the same success as its defense, though, as a scoring drought from 10:32 to 4:37 kept it from taking advantage of Syracuse's struggles. Kotsar flipped in his tenth point of the game off a helper from Thornwell to snap the dry spell and make it 53-46 with four minutes to go. The Orange's 17th turnover of the game on the following possession helped Carolina continue what would become a key 6-0 run over a span of three and a half minutes that put the Gamecocks back ahead by double-digits, 57-46, and they would cruise to the 64-50 win thanks to a 7-of-8 success rate at the free throw line down the stretch and just one Syracuse field goal over the final three minutes.

GAME 7 - NO. 20/23 CAROLINA 68, VERMONT 50
DEC. 1, 2016/COLONIAL LIFE ARENA

COLUMBIA, S.C. - No. 20/23 South Carolina (7-0) downed Vermont (6-3) 68-50 Thursday night to remain undefeated. Sophomore PJ Dozier tallied a new career-high 21 points to lead the way for the Gamecocks. Freshman Maik Kotsar (14), sophomore Chris Silva (12) and senior Sindarius Thornwell (11) were also in double-figures.

Carolina jumped out to a 7-3 lead at the first media timeout behind five points from Dozier. The Gamecock defense was stifling in the early goings as the Catamounts started the game 1-for-6 from the field (16.7 percent). Two free throws by Dre Willis cut the lead to 7-5 and ended a 4:09 scoreless draught for Vermont with 13:11 left in the first half.

The game then went back-and-forth the next few minutes as the teams traded baskets. A jumper by Vermont's Cam Ward cut it to 13-11 with 12:01 remaining in the first half, but five-straight points by Thornwell pushed the Gamecocks' lead to 18-11.

Vermont closed the gap, but South Carolina pushed the lead back to seven at 24-17 on a jumper from Hassani Gravett. A Vermont 3-pointer and a free throw brought the game back to three points at 24-21 before Silva scored seven-straight points to make it 31-23, giving Carolina its biggest lead of the half at the under-four media timeout. Dozier hit a 3 to make it 34-23 on the first possession out of the timeout. The made 3 marked a scorching 14-for-21 (66.7 percent) start from the field for the Gamecocks.

A Silva and-1 play made it 39-25 with 2:21 left. Vermont would close the half on a 7-4 run, as Carolina led 43-32 at the break. Dozier and Silva were both in double-figures for the Gamecocks with 12 points apiece at halftime. The duo tied for the team-lead in rebounds as well with four. Thornwell nearly broke into double-figures for Carolina, as he tallied nine points in the opening period. The Gamecocks finished half one 17-of-28 (60.7 percent) from the field.

Carolina came out firing on all cylinders in the second half. Two quick baskets by Kotsar and a transition alley hoop from Thornwell to Dozier forced Catamount head coach John Becker to take a timeout just two minutes into the half after the 6-0 run by the Gamecocks.

The run was stretched to 13-1 after a Dozier made 3 with 16:10 left in the game. South Carolina's hot first half shooting continued as they started 6-of-7 (85.7 percent) from the field after the break.

The Gamecocks led 58-37 at the under 12 media timeout with 11:09 left after pushing the run to 16-5. From there, Carolina would lead by 19 or more the rest of the game.

Kotsar exploded in the second half with 12 points to lead all scorers. Dozier added nine and tallied his first career 20-point game with 4:52 left after a made layup. Thornwell got into double-figures with a made put back late, as he finished with 11 points and led the team with nine assists, which tied a career single-game high for the senior. The Lancaster, S.C. native, has been in double-figures every game this season for South Carolina.

GAME 8 - NO. 20/23 CAROLINA 70, FIU 54
DEC. 4, 2016/COLONIAL LIFE ARENA

COLUMBIA, S.C. - No. 20/23 South Carolina (8-0) picked up its eighth-straight win of the season after defeating FIU (3-6) 70-54 at Colonial Life Arena on Sunday afternoon. Senior guard Duane Notice tied a career-high with 27 points. He was on fire from deep, knocking down six 3s, which set a new-career high. Joining Notice in double-figures was sophomore PJ Dozier (20), who logged his second-straight 20-point game.

Carolina got off to another solid start as Dozier faked a pass to the corner and pulled up from the left wing knocking down a 3 with 17:11 remaining in the first half. The made long-ball forced a Panther time out just three minutes in as the Gamecocks opened play on a 7-0 run.

The lead was pushed to 11-5 at the first media timeout. Dozier, who came into the game fresh off a career-high 21 points in the team's win over Vermont on Thursday, remained hot from the field scoring seven of Carolina's first 11 points.

Freshman RakyM Felder pinpointed a long pass down the floor to Notice who laid it in to make it 15-7. FIU cut the score to 19-14 after an Anthony Boswell 3 from the corner.

The Gamecocks then went on another 7-0 run as Notice knocked down a trey ball from the right wing to move the lead to double-digits at 26-14 with 5:07 left in the first half. Another Notice 3 with 3:54 left pushed him into double-figures on the score sheet.

Freshman Maik Kotsar snagged an offensive rebound on Carolina's final offensive possession of the half and found a wide-open Notice, who was spotting up behind the arc. Notice knocked down his third 3 of the half and put the Gamecocks up 36-22 at the break. The Toronto, Ontario, native, led all scorers with 14 at halftime. Dozier joined him in double-figures with 11 (4-for-4). Carolina's stingy defense forced a season-high 14 turnovers in the first half.

FIU big man Michael Kessens scored via layup to cut the Gamecocks' lead to 13 with 11:14 left, but Carolina answered with a 7-0 run to push the lead to 20 with 6:37 remaining. The Gamecocks would lead by 16 or more the rest of the way.

Notice broke 20 on the score sheet after hitting his fifth 3 of the game with 4:54 left to put the Gamecocks up 61-40. Dozier tallied his 20th point with a free throw on the ensuing possession. Notice's career-high sixth 3 came with 3:21 left. He finished 8-of-13 from the field and 6-of-10 from behind the arc. Dozier went 7-for-13 from the field, including 2-for-4 from deep. The Columbia, S.C., native, had seven rebounds which tied sophomore Chris Silva for the team lead. Felder led the team with four assists.

GAME 9 - SETON HALL 67, NO. 16/15 CAROLINA 64
DEC. 12, 2016/NEW YORK (MADISON SQUARE GARDEN)

NEW YORK - No. 16/15 South Carolina (8-1) suffered its first loss of the season Monday night, as it fell 67-64 in a hard-fought battle with Seton Hall (8-2) at Madison Square Garden in the Under Armour Reunion. Sophomore guard PJ Dozier led the Gamecocks with 20 points (9-of-19), marking his third-straight 20-point outing.

The Pirates jumped out to a 2-0 lead, but Carolina answered with a 7-0 run fueled by three turnovers (two steals) and four points from senior Justin McKie, who was making his second career start.

South Carolina's stifling defense forced six turnovers in the game's opening eight minutes. Seton Hall's Myles Powell hit a 3 to end a three minute scoring drought for the Pirates, but sophomore Chris Silva answered with an offensive block and put back to give the Gamecocks a 14-13 lead with 10:57 remaining in the opening half.

It was a physical first period, as both teams would be in the bonus with 10:17 left. Senior guard Duane Notice popped to the wing and hit Carolina's first 3 of 3 with game's 8:29 left to make it 19-17. A Dozier steal and layup pushed it to 21-17, forcing a timeout by Seton Hall head coach Kevin Willard with 7:32 left. The steal was the Gamecocks 10th forced turnover of the half.

Two free throws by freshman forward Sedee Keita pushed Carolina's run to 7-0 and made the score 23-17 with 7:10 left. Dozier then drove to the hole on the Gamecocks' ensuing possession and spun away from the hoop to hit a smooth, fade away jumper, extending the run to 9-0. The made basket gave Carolina its biggest lead of the first half at 25-17 with 6:54 remaining.

The Pirates leading scorer Khadeen Carrington hit a contested 3 with 2:31 left to cut Carolina's lead to 29-26. Sophomore guard Hassani Gravett answered back with a long ball of his own to push the lead back to six with 1:43 left. Dozier slashed to the hoop and scored just before the half to put the Gamecocks up 34-27 at the break.

South Carolina ended the first half with a 22-6 edge in points in the paint. The Gamecocks held Seton Hall to just 26 percent shooting (7-of-27) in the first half after forcing 13 turnovers and notching eight steals. Dozier led all scorers at halftime with 12 points on 6-of-10 shooting.

The teams exchanged baskets early in the second half, as the Gamecocks led 40-35 at the under 16 media timeout with 15:43 on the clock. A Seton Hall dunk from Desi Rodriguez after the timeout cut it to three, but Carolina was again able to answer as Gravett knocked down a jumper from the left wing.

Seton Hall then went on a 5-0 run to tie the game at 42-42 with 14:37 left. Dozier followed with a 3, however, when he took the extra pass from Notice and connected from the corner to make it 45-42. The 3 was his sixth-straight made basket. With the shot clock dwindling, Gravett then hit a deep 3 on the ensuing possession to make it 48-43 Gamecocks with 13:38 left.

The Pirates clawed back into it and took their first lead at 49-48 since midway through the first half on a made free throw by Myles Powell with 12:23 remaining. The game would be tight and back-and-forth the rest of the way.

After Seton Hall jumped ahead 57-55 after a made free throw by Delgado, Dozier made a tough hoop to tie it back up at 57-57 with 6:02 left. Delgado answered the basket with a dunk to put the Pirates back in front 59-57 with 4:32 left in the ball game. McKie came up with a huge steal and nailed a 3 from the corner to put Carolina back ahead 60-59 with 3:53 left on the clock.

Carrington knocked down another midrange jump shot to put the Pirates ahead 63-60 with 2:05 left. Rodriguez then went 1-of-2 at the charity stripe to make it 64-60 with 1:49 left. Sophomore forward Maik Kotsar made a big shot from the left wing on the ensuing possession to cut Seton Hall's lead to 64-62 with 1:34 remaining.

McKie then made another big time defensive play for the Gamecocks stealing it away from Rodriguez with 31 seconds left. He was fouled and headed to the line with a 1-and-1 chance to tie it up. The senior was clutch, knocking down both free throws to tie it at 64-64. Rodriguez took it hard to the hole and scored a contested layup to put the Pirates ahead 66-64 with 11 seconds left. Dozier got off a solid look from 3 with 3 seconds left, but could not knock it down. Carolina fouled and Rodriguez made 1-of-2 from the line. Dozier launched a full-court heave that rattled in-and-out as time expired for the Seton Hall win.

GAME 10 - NO. 16/15 CAROLINA 77 - USF 66
DEC. 17, 2016/TAMPA, FLA./USF SUN DOME

TAMPA, Fla. - No. 16/15 South Carolina (9-1) notched its first true road win of the season, 77-66, at South Florida (5-4) on Saturday afternoon. Sophomore PJ Dozier tallied a new career-high 23 points (9-of-18), marking his fourth-straight game with 20-plus. Senior Duane Notice hit four 3-pointers in the second half and finished with 15.

Carolina won the opening tip and jumped out to a 9-6 lead after a Maik Kotsar layup with 16:36 left. The freshman from Tallin, Estonia started the game 3-for-3 from the field with six points. The Gamecocks led 9-8 at the first media timeout with 15:48 left.

The Bulls then went on a 9-0 run to take a 17-12 lead that was capped off with a 3-point play by Geno Thorpe just before the second media timeout with 11:58 left. Carolina countered with a 6-0 run to regain the lead 18-17, forcing a timeout by USF head coach Orlando Antigua with 9:53 left.

The Bulls switched to a 2-3 zone as the Gamecocks had missed seven-straight shots from behind the arc. Freshman Rakym Felder ended the drought from long range and knocked down back-to-back 3s to put South Carolina ahead 24-21. Jahmal McMurray then hit consecutive 3-pointers to put USF back in front 29-27 at the final media timeout of the first half with 3:47 left.

The Gamecocks trailed by six at the break, 37-31, as the Bulls ended the opening period on a 14-4 run. Felder (3-for-6 from 3) and sophomore PJ Dozier (4-for-9) led Carolina in half one with nine points each. Kotsar had seven points and led the team with four rebounds. McMurray led all scorers with 15 at the break (5-of-10, 2-2 from 3). USF held a 26-17 edge on the glass at halftime.

Back-to-back 3s by Notice brought the Gamecocks within 3 at the under-16 media timeout with 15:45 left in the second half. A Silva dunk and two Felder free throws put the Gamecocks back ahead, 48-46, with 14:47 to go. A Dozier steal and layup by senior Justin McKie then put Carolina up four, forcing a timeout by the Bulls with 12:16 left.

Dozier threw down a transition dunk after the timeout to cap a 9-0 run for the Gamecocks, which put them ahead 57-51. USF clawed back into it and pulled within one at 57-56 after consecutive 3s by McMurray with 9:03 left. McKie answered with a 3 on the ensuing possession after an offensive board by freshman Khadim Gueye.

After a Dozier made 3 with 5:23 left, Carolina began to pull away. With the shot clock dwindling, the Gamecocks swung the ball around the perimeter and Notice hit his fourth 3 of the second half to put Carolina up nine, 72-63 with 3:05 left. The Gamecocks would lead by eight or more the rest of the way en route to the 77-66 victory.

Felder and Dozier tied for the team lead with five assists, as Carolina matched a season-high 18 assists on the day. Kotsar led the way on the glass for the Gamecocks, snagging nine rebounds. McKie recorded a new career-high with four steals to lead the team.

GAME 11 - CLEMSON 62 - NO. 22/20 CAROLINA 60
DEC. 21, 2016/COLONIAL LIFE ARENA

COLUMBIA, S.C. - No. 22/20 South Carolina (9-2) fell at home Wednesday night to Clemson (9-2), 62-60. PJ Dozier tallied a new career-high 26 points on 10-of-22 shooting. He also had eight rebounds and led the team with five assists.

Colonial Life Arena was electric from the start, as sophomore Chris Silva threw down a thunderous dunk on the game's first possession. From there, it went back-and-forth and Carolina took a 7-6 lead at the first media timeout with 15:37 left. Three different Gamecocks scored the team's first seven points.

Donte Grantham gave the Tigers a 12-10 lead with 12:29 left in the half after hitting a 3 from the right wing. His made long ball ended an over four-minute field goal drought for Clemson.

The Tigers pushed the lead to 17-14 with 7:32 left after another bucket by Grantham. A Dozier layup versus contact in the lane brought Carolina within two at 21-19 with 5:48 left. The hoop was Dozier's 11th point, as he was the game's first player in double-figures.

Sophomore guard Hassani Gravett pushed the ball ahead and brought the Gamecock faithful to their feet after scoring in transition to tie the game at 25-25 with 2:04 left in the opening half. Clemson ended a 2-43 scoring drought with a pair of Elijah Thomas free throws moments later to regain the lead 27-25.

The Tigers held a 29-25 edge as the horn sounded at the end of the first half. Dozier led all scorers at the break with 13 points on 5-of-8 shooting. He was 2-for-2 from 3. Grantham and Thomas led Clemson with eight each. Carolina shot 11-for-29 (37.9 percent) in half one, while the Tigers were 11-for-26 (42.3 percent).

The Gamecocks opened the second half on a 6-0 run to regain the lead 31-29. They pushed the run to 8-3 after a dunk by Dozier that made it 33-32 with 18:07 left, but Clemson retook the lead 37-35 at the first media timeout of the second half with 15:48 remaining.

The score would remain 37-35 for the next 3:48 as both teams ramped up their defensive pressure. Maik Kotsar's layup with 13:20 left ended the drought for both teams. Carolina held a 39-37 advantage at the next media timeout with 11:27 left. A pair of free throws snapped a 6:05 scoring drought for the Tigers and brought them within one at 40-39 with 11:03 on the clock.

Silva converted an and-1 to put the Gamecocks up 46-43 with 8:40 to go. Clemson's leading scorer Jaron Blossomgame brought them within one again at 47-46 with 6:26 remaining.

The Gamecocks led 54-52 at the final media timeout with 3:32 remaining. Dozier made a tough, second-effort bucket to put Carolina up three, but Blossomgame made a tip in on the ensuing possession to bring the Tigers back within one. Head coach Frank Martin then took a timeout with 1:14 left, his team up 58-57.

Two free throws by Marquise Reed put Clemson up 59-58 with 52 seconds left. Carolina got two 3-point looks, but senior Justin McKie and Gravett's shots just missed and the Gamecocks were forced to foul with 20.3 seconds left. Avry Holmes hit both to put the Tigers up three before PJ Dozier then was fouled with 9.8 seconds left and hit both to bring Carolina within one at 61-60. Holmes was fouled again with 9.2 on the game clock. He made the first and missed the second, but the Gamecocks were unable to convert on the opposite end and the Tigers held on for the 62-60 victory.

GAME 12 - NO. -/25 CAROLINA 90 - LANDER 62
DEC. 27, 2016/COLONIAL LIFE ARENA

COLUMBIA, S.C. - South Carolina (10-2) posted a 90-62 victory versus instate foe Lander (3-7) Tuesday night at Colonial Life Arena. Freshman Rakym Felder led the team with a career-high 20 points after going 5-for-7 from the 3-point line.

The Bearcats scored the game's first hoop, but Carolina went on an 11-0 run to take an 11-2 lead with 15:32 left in the opening half. Freshman Maik Kotsar had six of the team's first 11 points.

The Gamecocks pushed the run to 19-0 after a pair of Notice free throws with 12:56 remaining. A jumper by freshman Sedee Keita improved the run to 29-1, as Carolina led 29-3 with 9:48 to go in the first half. The Gamecocks' defense held Lander to 1-of-15 shooting in the first 10 minutes.

The Bearcats ended their 0-for-14 field goal drought, as Carolina was up 36-7 at the under eight media timeout. Felder hit back-to-back 3s to extend the lead to 50-14 with 1:49 on the clock. The Brooklyn, N.Y., native, then hit another 3 with 44 seconds left, as the Gamecocks led 53-16 at halftime.

Carolina shot 20-for-32 (63 percent) in the opening half, including 7-for-11 from 3. The Gamecocks held Lander to just 17 percent (5-for-30) shooting from the field and had a 25-14 edge in the rebound column. Felder led the way with 15 points, as he was 4-of-4 from behind the arc in the first half. Nine different players scored in half one for Carolina.

After the break, Felder hit his fifth 3-pointer with 12:19 to go in the game, as Carolina jumped out to its biggest lead of the night, 73-33.

Kotsar posted his first career double-double, snagging his 10th rebound and scoring his 10th point on the ensuing possession with 9:16 to go and the Gamecocks in control up 77-43.

South Carolina remained up by 30 the rest of the way, before a late Lander 3 with 18 seconds left in the game to make it 90-62.

PJ Dozier (15), Duane Notice (13) and Kotsar (10) joined Felder in double-figures. Chris Silva tied Kotsar for the team lead with 11 rebounds and Carolina tied a season-high with 18 assists on the night.

GAME 13 - MEMPHIS 70, -/25 CAROLINA 54
DEC. 30, 2016/FEDEXFORUM/MEMPHIS, TENN.

MEMPHIS, Tenn. - The South Carolina men's basketball team dropped a 70-54 decision at Memphis (10-4) Friday night in its final game of 2016. Three Gamecocks reached double figures in scoring, but a season-low shooting percentage and a season-high 30 fouls stunted the offense. PJ Dozier led the team with 13 points in 24 minutes of action.

Both teams battled self-inflicted woes in the opening 10 minutes of the game, as South Carolina (10-3) shot well from the field but were held back by foul troubles and nine turnovers, and Memphis hit just four of its first 17 attempts. A jumper by PJ Dozier made it 15-12 in the Gamecocks' favor with 11:23 to play, but the Tigers countered with an 11-0 run over the next four minutes for their first lead of the night. Following the Dozier basket, Carolina ended the half just 3-of-14 from then on, but took advantage of a Memphis scoring spell late in the period to cut what once was a 10-point deficit down to five points at the buzzer.

Memphis took a 33-28 lead into the break, powered by 11 points from Markel Crawford. The guard accounted for almost half of his team's total field goals (five out of 11), as the Tigers shot 39 percent from the floor but made up for that with 10 free throws. South Carolina was led by six points from Chris Silva and five points from Hassani Gravett and Dozier, but were unable to keep a consistent lineup on the floor thanks to 13 team fouls that saddled four different players with two fouls in the period.

The Gamecocks were able to trim the lead back to one possession, 39-38, eight minutes in to the second half thanks to a 7-1 run. Memphis struck back with an 11-3 run over the next three minutes to ward off the Gamecock momentum, using five straight missed field goals from South Carolina to maintain the lead.

Foul trouble started to weigh heavily on the Gamecocks as the final period wore on. Leading rebounder Chris Silva picked up his fifth foul with six minutes to go, and leading scorer Dozier took a seat as well just two minutes later. The Tigers pulled away late from the free throw line and took its largest lead of the game to the final buzzer, 70-54.

GAME 14 - NO. -/RV CAROLINA 67 - GEORGIA 61
JAN. 4, 2017/ATHENS, GA./STEGEMAN COLISEUM

ATHENS, Ga. - South Carolina (11-3, 1-0 SEC) kicked off SEC play with a 67-61 road win at Georgia (9-5, 1-1 SEC) on Wednesday night. Sophomore PJ Dozier led all scorers with 24 points. Senior guard Sindarius Thornwell filled up the stat sheet for his eighth career double-double with 19 points and 11 rebounds.

Both teams exchanged buckets in the early goings with the score all knotted up 7-7 with 15:46 left at the first media timeout of the game. Carolina's offense and defense were in sync early, as nine of the team's first 11 points came off Bulldog turnovers.

A Hassani Gravett 3-pointer with 11:38 left put the Gamecocks up 16-14. Mike Edwards was able to answer for Georgia, as the score was again tied, this time at 16 all, as the teams headed to the benches for the under 12 media timeout with 10:15 left.

Back-to-back hoops by sophomore Chris Silva put Carolina up by four, 24-20, marking the Gamecocks' biggest lead of the first half with 7:10 remaining on the clock. The Bulldogs clawed back to take the lead 28-26 right before a made 3 by senior Justin McKie from the left corner that put Carolina back in front, 29-28, with 4:10 left.

A J.J. Frazier made 3 gave Georgia the lead back, as they went ahead 33-31 with 1:36 remaining in the half. The Bulldogs hit a free throw to go up 34-33 with 12 seconds left, giving the Gamecocks one more chance on the offensive end before the break. Dozier fed Thornwell at the top of the key. Thornwell fed it right back to Dozier on the left wing and he pulled up as time expired. The Columbia, S.C. native knocked down the shot from deep to give Carolina a 36-34 lead at the break.

Dozier led all scorers at half with 14 points. Silva poured in eight. The back-and-forth first half affair featured 11 ties and 13 lead changes. The Gamecocks were able to force eight turnovers in the opening period, which led to 11 points.

Carolina opened the second half on an 8-3 run as it jumped to a 44-37 lead at the under 16 media timeout with 15:58 remaining. The lead held firm at seven, 48-41, at the next media timeout with 11:01 on the clock. The Bulldogs opened the second half shooting just 18 percent from the field (2-of-11).

Georgia cut the Gamecock lead to two, 51-49, but Carolina answered with consecutive buckets from Dozier and Silva to push it back to six, 55-49, with 7:36 left.

In a four point game with 2:07 remaining, Silva went to the charity stripe to shoot two. He made the first, but missed the second. Gravett came up with a huge play tipping the miss to an open teammate to retain possession for the Gamecocks. Thornwell scored and Carolina went back up by six, 62-56, with 1:44 on the clock.

The Bulldogs shifted momentum back their way as leading scorer Yante Martin drilled a 3 at the top of the key with 57 seconds left to make it a one point game, 62-61. Thornwell attacked the hoop aggressively on the next possession and tipped in his own miss at the rim to put the Gamecocks up 64-61 with 36 seconds left. Georgia would get only one shot up in its final two possessions as Carolina held on for the hard-fought 67-61 conference victory on the road.

GAME 18 - 24/24 CAROLINA 57, 19/21 FLORIDA 53
JAN. 18, 2017/COLONIAL LIFE ARENA

COLUMBIA, S.C. - No. 24/24 South Carolina (15-3, 5-0 SEC) powered past No. 19/21 Florida (14-4, 5-1 SEC), 57-53, down the stretch Wednesday night in a battle of unbeaten teams in SEC play at Colonial Life Arena. Senior guard Sindarius Thornwell led all scorers with 20 points, moving into the top 10 in Carolina history in career points scored in the contest.

Both teams were scoreless at the first media timeout with 15:48 on the clock. Carolina and Florida were a combined 0-5 from the field with nine turnovers between the two squads early on. The game's first hoop came at the 14:12 mark when Florida's Kasey Hill stole the ball and laid it in on the other end. Another steal-layup by Hill on the ensuing possession put the Gators in front 4-0 with 13:55 to go.

Freshman Rakym Felder knocked down a 3 from the corner to put the Gamecocks on the board with 12:27 on the clock, and the score remained 4-3 until the next media timeout.

Right out of the media timeout, Felder connected on another 3, this one from the right wing to give the Gamecocks their first lead of the night, 6-4, with 11:32 remaining in the half. South Carolina's first three hoops came from behind the arch, as senior Justin McKie knocked down a long-ball with 10:22 left to make it 9-6.

The score was all knotted up at 13-13 at the under-eight media timeout with 7:21 to go. After the teams combined for just seven points in the first eight minutes, they combined for 19 in the next 4:30. Carolina held a 15-11 edge on the glass early.

The Gators rallied and went on 10-3 run to take a 23-16 lead at the final media timeout with 3:44 left in the first half. The team's traded baskets the rest of the half, as Florida took a 28-21 lead at halftime. Hill led all scorers with 11 at the break. Felder had seven at the half to lead the Gamecocks. Carolina shot 7-for-30 (23 percent) and the Gators were 12-of-31 in the opening stanza (39 percent).

The Gamecocks opened half two on a 5-1 run thanks to four points from sophomore Chris Silva to cut the deficit to three, 29-26, with 18:23 to go. Carolina pushed the run to 9-2 and tied the game 30-30 at the first media timeout of the second half with 15:47 to go. A free throw by freshman Maik Kotsar put the Gamecocks in front 31-30 with 13:35 on the clock, giving the team its first lead since the 10:22 mark of the opening half.

An and-1 transition bucket by Thornwell gave the Gamecocks their largest lead of the game, 35-30, at the under 12 media timeout with 11:58 to go. The Carolina defense held Florida scoreless for 5:44 to that point with their last point coming at the free throw line at the 17:42 mark. The Gators were 0-for-8 to start the second half, their last field goal coming with 1:01 to go in the opening half. A Devin Robinson dunk ended the draught for Florida with 11:20 on the clock to make it 35-32.

A pair of free throws trimmed the Gamecock lead to 40-38 with 8:49 left in the game. The score remained 40-38 at the under eight media timeout with 7:59 to go. A Thornwell made 3 pushed the lead back to five, 45-40, forcing a timeout by Gator head coach Mike White with 5:51 to go in the game.

An and-1 by Silva put Carolina up six, 48-42, but Florida answered with a 4-0 run to make it 48-46 just before the final media timeout with 2:59 on the clock. Florida came within one, 52-51, but Thornwell knocked down two huge free throws on the ensuing possession to make it 54-51 with 53 seconds to go.

The Gators came within one again after a bucket by Chris Chiozza with 40 seconds remaining. Carolina turned to Dozier to make a play on the next possession. The Columbia, S.C., native answered the bell and took it hard to the rack from the left wing and kissed in a contested left-handed layup to make it 56-53 with 22 seconds left. The Gamecocks forced a turnover on the next possession and Thornwell hit a big free throw to make it a two-possession game, 57-53, with 16 seconds left.

Florida guard Canyon Barry attempted a 3 at the opposite end, but the shot wouldn't fall and the ball would be out of bounds to Carolina. Dozier threw a baseball pass to a wide-open Thornwell who ran out the clock, sealing the 57-53 win.

GAME 19 - 5/5 KENTUCKY 85, 24/24 CAROLINA 69
JAN. 21, 2017/LEXINGTON, KY/RUPP ARENA

LEXINGTON, Ky. - No. 24/24 South Carolina (15-4, 5-1 SEC) was handed its first conference loss of the season Saturday evening at Rupp Arena, as it fell 85-69 to No. 5 Kentucky (17-2, 7-0 SEC). Senior Sindarius Thornwell led all scorers with a new career-high 34 points.

The Wildcats forced three turnovers early and jumped out to a quick 7-0 lead. They extended the lead to 10, 13-3, at the first media timeout with 15:52 left. A transition hoop by Malik Monk pushed the lead to 23-6, forcing head coach Frank Martin to take a timeout with 11:26 to go. Carolina had eight turnovers and was 2-for-7 (29 percent) from the field to begin the contest. Kentucky started the game 9-for-13 (69 percent).

Redshirt sophomore Hassani Gravett came off the bench and knocked down a 3 from the right wing, trimming the deficit to 28-15 with 8:03 to go in the first half. The Villa Rica, Ga., native, continued to swing momentum back in the Gamecocks favor as he had two steals and two transition hoops to make it 30-21 with 6:43 left.

Thornwell then threw down a huge dunk to cap an 8-0 run, bringing Carolina within seven, 30-23, at the under eight media timeout with 5:46 to go. The Lancaster, S.C., native pushed the run to 12-0 after knocking down four-straight free throws to bring the Gamecocks within three, 30-27, with 4:39 on the clock. Derek Willis knocked down a 3 to end the draught for the Wildcats on the ensuing possession to bring the score to 33-27 at the final media timeout of the first half with 3:53 to go.

Kentucky pushed its lead back to double-digits, but Thornwell was able to get to the rim to make it 39-31 with just over two minutes to go in the half. The Wildcats answered immediately as Monk drew contact from behind the arc and knocked all three free throws down to make it 42-31 with 1:58 on the clock.

Monk and Thornwell then exchanged 3s as the lead remained 11 with 42 seconds left in the half. Thornwell drove to the hole and drew a foul with 0.4 seconds left. He knocked down both shots at the charity stripe as the Gamecocks trailed by nine heading to halftime, 47-38.

Thornwell led all scorers at the break with 20 points (5-of-10 from the field, 9-of-10 from the free throw line). He had 19 points over a nine-minute stretch in the opening half. Gravett had seven to lead all bench players. Carolina shot 52 percent in the opening half (13-of-25), and Kentucky shot 65 percent (17-of-26).

The Gamecocks opened the second half on a 5-0 run, forcing a timeout by Wildcat head coach John Calapari with 18:28 to go and the score 47-42. Kentucky respond with a 7-0 run to push its lead back to double-digits, 55-44, forcing Martin to take a timeout with 16:09 remaining.

Two 3s from the left wing by sophomore TeMarcus Blanton cut the score to 60-52 with 13:40 to go, but the Wildcats pushed the lead back to 10, 64-54, at the under-12 media timeout with 11:39 on the clock.

Thornwell had a tip in put back off his own miss with 10:20 to go and made it 67-57. The basket marked his 28th point and a new career-high for the senior guard. A dunk by Edrice Adebayo put the lead back at 14, 71-57, at the next media timeout with 7:08 left in the game.

The Gamecocks got some solid looks down the stretch but were unable to breakthrough the final seven minutes, as Kentucky led by double-digits the rest of the way en route to the 85-69 victory.

COLUMBIA, S.C. - No. 23/24 South Carolina (16-4, 6-1 SEC) collected its sixth SEC win of the season at Colonial Life Arena Tuesday night with a 98-69 win versus Auburn (13-7, 3-5 SEC). The Game

GAME 21 - 23/24 CAROLINA 63 - MIZZOU 53
JAN. 28, 2017/MIZZOU ARENA/COLUMBIA, MO.

COLUMBIA, Mo. - No. 23/24 South Carolina (17-4, 7-1 SEC) picked up its third road win in SEC play after downing Missouri (5-15, 0-8 SEC), 63-53, Saturday night. The Gamecocks are now tied atop the conference standings with No. 4 Kentucky (17-4, 7-1 SEC). Senior Sindarius Thornwell recorded his ninth career double-double with 16 points and 11 rebounds to lead the team. The 11 rebounds matched a career-high.

Carolina fell behind 7-0 after starting 0-for-5 from the field. The Gamecocks clawed back into the game with a 10-2 run, capped by a corner 3 by senior Justin McKie with 11:33 remaining in the first half. The long-ball just after the second media timeout gave Carolina its first lead of the game, 10-9.

The teams exchanged hoops the next several minutes, as the physical game remained tight with the score knotted up 19-19 at the final media timeout of the first half with 3:15 to go.

After trailing 22-21 with 1:11 to go, the Gamecocks ended the first half on a 5-0 run. Freshman Rakym Felder hit his third 3-pointer of the half to put Carolina ahead 24-22 with 51 seconds on the clock.

On the opening half's final possession, TeMarcus Blanton missed a decent look from behind the arc. Freshman Hassani Gravett was able to corral the offensive board and hit a fade away jumper from the left baseline with three seconds left to give the Gamecocks some momentum heading into the locker room, up 26-22 at the break.

Both teams were unable to find their stroke offensively in the first half. South Carolina was 10-for-27 (37 percent) from the field and the Tigers were 7-for-21 (33 percent) from the floor. There was 20 combined turnovers, as each team had 10. The Gamecocks made five 3s and outscored Missouri's bench 19-0. Felder led all scorers at the break with 12 (4-for-7), marking his sixth time this season in double-figures.

Just before the first media timeout of the second half, Thornwell found fellow senior Duane Notice spotting up behind the arc in transition. Notice knocked down the shot to put Carolina up by seven, 31-24, with 15:38 to go. Thornwell then scored five-straight to put the Gamecocks ahead by double-digits for the first time, 38-28, with 12:56 to play.

Back-to-back 3s for South Carolina by Notice and sophomore PJ Dozier gave the Gamecocks their biggest lead of the game, 46-33, with 10:10 remaining. The lead remained 13, 48-35, at the under eight media timeout with 7:49 to go.

The Tigers cut the lead to seven, but Notice knocked down his third 3 of the game to put the lead back to 10. Missouri answered on the other end with a bucket to make it 56-48 at the final media timeout with 3:18 to go. The Tigers would come within seven once more down the stretch as Carolina held on for the 63-53 victory.

Thornwell was perfect from the free throw line for the second-straight game, as he finished 7-for-7. The team shot 14-for-19 (74 percent) at the charity stripe overall Saturday night. Felder was the only other Gamecock to join Thornwell in double-figures with 13.

GAME 22 - 19/20 CAROLINA 88 - LSU 63
FEB. 1, 2017/MARAVICH CENTER/BATON ROUGE, LA.

BATON ROUGE, La. - No. 19/20 South Carolina (18-4, 8-1 SEC) led from start to finish in an 88-63 victory at LSU (9-12, 1-8 SEC) Wednesday night. With the win, the team remains tied with No. 8/6 Kentucky (18-4, 8-1 SEC) atop the SEC standings. Four Gamecocks scored in double figures, led by senior Duane Notice and sophomore PJ Dozier's 17 points.

Carolina had a textbook start on the road, opening up a 12-3 lead at the first media timeout with 15:47 to go. The Gamecocks started the game 4-for-6 from the field and 2-for-2 from behind the arc after transition 3s from Notice and Dozier.

The lead grew to 18-3 after an offensive rebound and layup by sophomore Hassani Gravett with 14:16 on the clock. The Tigers went on a 5-0 run to cut the deficit to 10, but two baskets by senior Sindarius Thornwell made it 22-8, forcing a timeout by LSU head coach Johnny Jones with 11:42 left in the opening half.

The timeout was unsuccessful in halting Carolina's momentum, as an and-1 play by Notice pushed the lead to 20 for the first time, 30-9, with 8:46 on the clock. The three-point play capped an 8-0 run for the Gamecocks, as they led 32-14 at the under eight media timeout. Carolina started 12-for-20 (60 percent) from the field and held the Tigers to 5-of-14 (36 percent) shooting, forcing eight turnovers.

Brandon Sampson scored eight straight points for LSU to make it 40-25 with 4:18 left, but the Gamecocks answered as the lead grew went back to 19, 44-25, at the final media timeout of the first half with 3:10 to go.

Three Carolina players were in double figures at the half, as Carolina led 50-32. Dozier led the way with 14. Sophomore Chris Silva had 12 and Thornwell had 11 as the Gamecocks shot 58 percent (19-for-33) in the first half. Carolina forced 11 turnovers and outscored LSU 30-16 in the paint en route to scoring 50 points in the opening half for the first time this season in SEC-play.

The Gamecocks started the second half 1-of-7 from the floor, as the Tigers cut the lead to 12, 52-40, at the first media timeout with 15:47 left in the game. Notice hit two free throws after a technical foul on the Tigers to make it 59-40 with 14:49 to go.

South Carolina extended its run to 13-0 over a four-minute span take its biggest lead of the game, 65-40, with 11:43 remaining at the under 12 media timeout. It was 75-56 at the next media break, but a 3-pointer from the right wing by senior Justin McKie matched the Gamecocks biggest lead, 81-56, with 4:36 to go.

Carolina led 81-60 at the final media timeout with 3:09 on the clock and went on to win by 25, 88-63, marking its largest road victory of the season in conference play. The Gamecocks shot just under 50 percent (30-for-61) from the floor in the game, forcing 22 turnovers that led to 34 points. Silva and Thornwell each finished with 16 points to join Notice and Dozier in double figures.

GAME 23 - 19/20 CAROLINA 77, GEORGIA 75
FEB. 4, 2017/COLONIAL LIFE ARENA

COLUMBIA, S.C. - Paced by sophomore guard PJ Dozier's seventh 20-point game of the season and four 3-pointers each from seniors Sindarius Thornwell and Duane Notice, No. 19/20 Carolina held off Georgia to register a 77-75 win Saturday afternoon at Colonial Life Arena. The victory improved the Gamecocks' record to 19-4 and 9-1 in the SEC and kept them unbeaten at home in conference action. Georgia dropped to 13-10 overall and 4-6 in league play following the loss.

Dozier finished with a game-high 21 points, including five over the final 1:52 to help Carolina hold off Georgia's late rally. Thornwell chipped in 18 points, while Notice added 15 for a Gamecock backcourt unit that accounted for 68 of Carolina's points Saturday. The Gamecocks shot 45.8 percent from the 3-point line and knocked down 11 field goals from beyond the arc for the game. A strong defensive showing in the second half keyed Carolina's victory, as the Bulldogs were held without a field goal for a stretch of over eight minutes in the final period.

The two offenses began to get into a rhythm in a back-and-forth final 10 minutes of the half. Notice netted his second field goal of the afternoon in style, delivering a three-point play from the right block, and Dozier's jumper answered a Georgia 3-pointer and gave the Gamecocks a 24-23 lead with just over eight minutes remaining in the half. The Bulldogs' seventh-straight made field goal resulted in a three-point play and put Georgia in front 28-26 before a great drive inside from Thornwell set the guard up for a tough left-handed layup and made it 28-28 with 4:16 to play in the period. The basket put the senior in double-figures with 11 for the Gamecocks, whose backcourt provided all of Carolina's points in the opening 20 minutes.

Sparked by Dozier, the Gamecocks called 10 of the half's final 16 points to pull even with the Bulldogs at the break. The sophomore's layup cut the Bulldog lead to 32-30, and his fourth field goal of the half made it 35-34 Gamecocks with just over a minute left in the half. Dozier capped off the impressive stretch with a 3-pointer off a kick-out pass from redshirt sophomore guard Hassani Gravett to put Carolina ahead 38-36 before Bulldog guard J.J. Frazier converted a pair of free throws to send the two teams into the locker room tied at 38. Thornwell and Dozier totaled 11 points each in the half for a Carolina team that shot 7-of-13 from the 3-point line in the first period.

The Gamecock backcourt continued to answer the call from long range out of the break, and Notice's third 3-pointer established a 44-40 Carolina lead with just over three minutes gone in the second half. The Bulldogs battled back with six-straight points to take a 46-44 lead, but Notice again delivered from the corner. The guard, who knocked in at least three 3-pointers for the eighth time this season, connected on a shot from beyond the arc from the left side to put the Gamecocks back in front 47-46 with 14:29 to play. Felder brought the Carolina fans to their feet less than two minutes later after using a pump fake to get into the lane and bank home a nifty layup that made it 49-48 Gamecocks in the tightly contested affair.

The contest remained a one-possession game, and another Georgia free throw pulled the Bulldogs even at 51 as the teams headed into the final 10 minutes. Freshman forward Malik Kotsar displayed great touch down low with a turnaround jumper from the left block that made it 53-51 Gamecocks and provided the start of an 8-0 Carolina run. Three Gamecock free throws over the next 90 seconds produced the largest lead of the game for Carolina at 56-51, and momentum continued to shift towards the home side when Thornwell drilled a 3-pointer to stretch the advantage to 59-51 with 7:30 to play. Thornwell supplied another big play less than two minutes later when the senior swiped the ball away and made a layup on the other end to give the Gamecocks a 61-54 cushion with just over six minutes remaining in the game.

Georgia's points continued to come from the charity stripe, and two free throws from Frazier cut the Gamecock lead to 62-58 with 4:37 left. Carolina responded with two free throws from Kotsar to put the lead to 64-58 before the Gamecocks again seized control via the 3-point line. Senior guard Justin McKie knocked down the shot, finding the bottom of the net from the left side to make it 67-58 late in the contest. The Bulldogs' first field goal in over eight minutes made it 67-60, and Georgia inched closer when it converted a three-point play to cut the lead to 69-63 with just over two minutes remaining. The Bulldogs would not go away, as they came to within four of the lead at 73-69 with 26 seconds to play following a jumper from Frazier and a free throw by guard William Jackson II.

The contest became a one-possession game at 74-71 when Jackson II laid it in, and Georgia cut the Carolina advantage to 75-73 on another basket from Frazier. The Gamecocks' ensuing in-bounds pass sent the ball to McKie, who headed to the line after being fouled with just six seconds remaining. The senior calmly connected on both attempts from the charity stripe to make it 77-73, and Georgia's tip-in following its missed 3-pointer with a second remaining was not enough to make up the difference.

Carolina shot 43.3 percent from the floor for the afternoon and scored 16 points off 15 Georgia turnovers. Saturday's game featured 18 lead changes, with neither team able to build a double-digit lead throughout the contest.

GAME 24 - ALABAMA 90, 19/16 CAROLINA 86
FEB. 7, 2017/COLONIAL LIFE ARENA

COLUMBIA, S.C. - No. 19/16 South Carolina (19-5, 9-2 SEC) fell short, 90-86, in a four-overtime contest at Colonial Life Arena to Alabama (14-9, 7-4 SEC) Tuesday night. Senior Sindarius Thornwell tallied career-highs with 44 points and 21 rebounds. He also made 25 free throws, marking a new South Carolina record, and an SEC record in league contests.

The Crimson Tide took advantage of a poor shooting start for the Gamecocks (0-for-7), jumping out to a 10-2 lead at the first media timeout with 15:17 left. They extended the lead to 17-5 with 11:26 left after a 7-0 run. Carolina still couldn't buy a bucket, going 1-for-10 to that point. Alabama started 6-for-11 (55 percent) with 10 points in the paint.

The lead remained in double-digits for the Crimson Tide, as they were in front 23-10 at the next media timeout with 7:36 left. Alabama's attack was balanced early on as seven different players scored.

The shooting woes continued for the Gamecocks, as the Crimson Tide took their biggest lead of the first half, 28-11, with 3:20 to go. Carolina was unable to breakthrough in the final three minutes of the half, and trailed 32-16 at the break.

The Gamecocks' 16 first half points were a new season-low as they were held without a field goal the final 10:23 in the opening half. Thornwell led Carolina with 5 points after going 5-for-6 from the free throw line. Alabama had a 27-19 edge on the glass and outscored the Gamecocks 16-4 in the paint.

South Carolina trimmed the deficit to 11 with just under 17 minutes and trailed 37-24 at the first media timeout of the second half with 15:47 to go. Thornwell had six of the team's first eight points of the second set. The lead remained in double-figures, 46-34, at the under 12 media timeout. Senior Duane Notice knocked down a free throw then corralled his own miss and found Thornwell, who drilled a 3 on the Gamecocks used the four-point swing to trim the deficit to single digits, 48-40 with 10:08 to go.

The lead went back to 10, 50-40, at the under eight media timeout with 7:26 left. It remained 10, 54-44, at the final media timeout. Two free throws by Chris Silva brought Carolina within six, 55-49, with 2:30 to go. The Gamecocks continued to chip away at the lead after Thornwell spun to the hoop and scored from the right block with 1:59 left in the game, forcing Alabama head coach Avery Johnson to take a timeout, his team up 55-51.

Two Thornwell free throws made it 55-53 with 47 seconds left. Alabama's Shannon Hale missed the front end of a 1-and-1, as Carolina got the ball with a chance to tie or take the lead with 24.5 seconds left. Thornwell slashed to the basket and made an incredible shot as he was met with contact by two Crimson Tide defenders, drawing a foul with 13.3 seconds left. He missed the ensuing free throw and Johnson took a timeout with 13.3 seconds left. Avery Johnson Jr. missed at the end of regulation, and Thornwell tipped out the rebound as the team's headed to the first of four overtime periods tied at 57-57 after the Gamecocks erased a 16-point halftime deficit.

The teams went back-and-forth in the first overtime period. Alabama took a 61-61 lead with 2:58 to go. Thornwell then got to the line on the ensuing possession and put Carolina ahead 63-62 with 2:44 to go. Hale would hit 1-of-2 to tie it at 63-63 with 1:40 left. Each team had two chances down the stretch but was unable to capitalize as the score remained 63-63.

In the second overtime, the Gamecocks jumped out to a 70-63 lead behind five points from sophomore PJ Dozier. The Crimson Tide then rattled off eight-straight points to take a 71-70 lead after a Johnson Jr. layup with 48 seconds left. Thornwell then scored and Johnson Jr. answered with a 3 on the other end to put Alabama ahead 74-72 with 19 seconds left. Thornwell attacked the hoop and scored the equalizer with four seconds remaining to send the game to the third overtime tied at 74-74.

Alabama pushed out to a five point lead in the third overtime period 82-77, forcing Frank Martin to take a timeout with 1:44 to play. Dozier nailed a huge 3 from the left wing out of the timeout to make it 82-80 with 1:26 to go. Thornwell got to the line again with 23 seconds left and made two to tie the contest at 82-82. UA's Corban Collins bid for a game-winning 3 fell short and the teams headed to the fourth extra period.

The fourth overtime went back-and-forth again as the team's exchanged buckets in the first three minutes. Dozier was called for his fifth foul, sending Riley Norris to the free throw line with 55 seconds left and the game tied 86-86. Norris hit both to make it 88-86. Notice got two solid looks from behind the arc, but he was unable to convert at the opposite end. Norris hit another pair of free throws to make it 90-86 with 18 seconds left. Carolina missed two 3s on its final possession of the game, as the Crimson tied her for the four-point win.

GAME 25 - 19/16 CAROLINA 77, MISS. STATE 73
FEB. 11, 2017/HUMPHREY COLISEUM/STARKVILLE

STARKVILLE, Miss. - No. 19/16 South Carolina (20-5, 10-2 SEC) notched its 20th win of the season Saturday night after topping Mississippi State (14-10, 5-7 SEC) on the road in conference play. With the victory, the Gamecocks remained tied for first in the SEC with No. 15/12 Kentucky and No. 17/17 Florida. Senior Sindarius Thornwell led all scorers with 28 points for his 10th 20-plus outing of the season.

Thornwell, who was coming off a career-high 44 points vs. Alabama, started the game 4-for-4 (2-for-2 from 3) with 10 points as Carolina jumped out to a 10-2 lead, forcing a timeout by Bulldogs head coach Ben Howland with 17:02 to go. The Gamecocks remained in front 12-5 at the first media timeout with 15:11 left in the opening half.

A 6-2 run by Mississippi State trimmed Carolina's lead to 14-11 at the next media timeout with 11:26 left. Thornwell's third 3 of the game snapped an 0-for-7 field goal drought for the Gamecocks and put them ahead 17-14. The Bulldogs grabbed their first lead of the game, 20-17, after capping a 15-3 run with a 3 just before the under eight media timeout with 7:52 on the clock.

Mississippi State's seventh 3-pointer of the first half gave them its biggest lead, 31-24, forcing a timeout by head coach Frank Martin with 3:21 left.

Carolina ended the half on a 12-5 run out of the timeout. Thornwell found senior Justin McKie in the corner on the Gamecocks' final possession, and McKie knocked down a 3 as time expired to tie the score 36-36 at the half.

Thornwell led all scorers with 19 points in the first half after going 6-for-10 from the field and 3-for-4 from behind the arc. Carolina shot 12-for-27 (44 percent) from the floor and the Bulldogs shot 13-for-25 (52 percent) in the first half. Both teams shot it extremely well from deep, as the Gamecocks were 5-for-10 (50 percent) from 3 and Mississippi State was 8-for-15 (53 percent).

Carolina started the second half on a 7-0 run to push in front 43-36. The Bulldogs clawed back within two, 46-44, at the first media timeout of the second half with 15:41 left. The Gamecocks remained in front, 54-51, at the under 12 media timeout with 10:56 to go in the ballgame.

Mississippi State grabbed its first lead of the second half, 56-54, after a 3 by Xavier Stapleton with 9:36 on the clock. Carolina answered to take the lead back, 59-58, at the under 8 media timeout with 7:38 left after an and-1 by sophomore Chris Silva and a layup by McKie.

The Bulldogs then retook the lead, 64-63, but the Gamecocks responded again after a 3 by senior Duane Notice and a layup by freshman Maik Kotsar with 3:31 to go. A basket by Thornwell put Carolina up 72-64 with 2:52 left, matching the team's biggest lead of the game.

The Lancaster, S.C., native, took over and scored the team's final seven points to propel the Gamecocks to the 77-73 road win. Silva (15) and Kotsar (10) joined Thornwell in double figures. After a strong first half from behind the arc, Carolina held the Bulldogs to 25 percent (3-for-12) shooting from 3 in the second half. The Gamecocks shot 56 percent (15-for-27) in the second half.

GAME 26 - ARKANSAS 83, 21/19 CAROLINA 76
FEB. 15, 2017/COLONIAL LIFE ARENA

COLUMBIA, S.C. - No. 21/19 South Carolina's (20-6, 10-3 SEC) comeback fell short at home Wednesday night, as the team suffered an 83-76 loss to Arkansas (19-7, 8-5 SEC). Senior Sindarius Thornwell had 25-plus for the third straight game, finishing with 27 points to lead all scorers. He went 10-for-19 from the field, setting a new career high with his 10 made field goals.

The Gamecocks attacked the hoop early, scoring 10 of their first 14 points in the paint en route to building a 14-9 lead at the first media timeout with 15:14 to go. Carolina started 6-for-9 from the field (67 percent). The lead grew to 19-5 with 14:18 left after a quick 5-0 run was capped by a steal and dunk by senior Duane Notice.

Arkansas responded with an 8-0 run to cut the lead to 19-13 at the next media timeout with 11:38 on the clock. The Razorbacks extended the run to 15-0 after a transition 3-pointer by Daryl Macon. The 3-point basket gave the Razorbacks their first lead of the game 20-19, forcing Frank Martin to take a timeout with 9:20 to go.

Thornwell scored with 8:33 left to snap a nearly six-minute scoring drought for the Gamecocks. Arkansas responded on the ensuing possession to take a 22-21 lead with 7:49 left at the under-eight media timeout.

A 3 by Jaylen Barford, his 13th point of the half, extended the Razorbacks' run to 20-2, giving them a 28-21 lead with 6:25 left in the half. Arkansas scored on the next possession to open its biggest lead of the game 30-21. Carolina responded with an 8-0 run to make it 30-29, as Thornwell scored through contact just before the under four media timeout with 3:36 on the clock. The Lancaster, S.C., native, completed the and-1, sinking the free throw out of the timeout to tie the game 30-30.

The Razorbacks closed the opening half on a 9-2 run to take a 39-32 lead at half-time. They shot 56 percent (15-for-27) to start the game, led by Barford's 17 first-half points. Thornwell led the way with 12 at the break for the Gamecocks. Sophomore PJ Dozier had seven and Notice had six points, as Carolina shot 37 percent (13-for-25) from the field in the opening half.

Arkansas' hot shooting continued in the second half as they started 4-for-6 (67 percent) and led 49-41 at the first media timeout with 15:46 to go. Senior Justin McKie knocked down a big 3 from the corner that got the crowd back into it. The long-ball brought Carolina within five, 55-50, with 12:26 on the clock, forcing Anderson to take a timeout. Thornwell then blocked a shot on the next possession that deflected to Notice. He found Thornwell up ahead in transition, leading to a monster dunk that pulled the Gamecocks within three, 55-52, at the under 12 media timeout with 11:42 remaining in the game.

Carolina cut it to one, but the Razorbacks went up by seven, 64-57, at the under eight media timeout with 7:43 remaining in the game. The teams then exchanged makes back-and-forth the next few minutes. Notice drew contact in the lane and scored to make it 73-68 at the final media timeout with 3:57 left. He made the free throw to pull the Gamecocks within four, 73-69.

Thornwell willed Carolina within two, but the lead went back to four as Martin took a timeout with 2:25 to go. Freshman guard Rykym Felder brought Colonial Life Arena to its feet right out of the timeout with a deep 3 in front of the Gamecocks' bench to make it 75-74 with 2:19 left. The Razorbacks pulled back ahead by three, but sophomore PJ Dozier was able to cut through the defense to pull Carolina within one again, 77-76, with 1:03 left.

Arkansas scored with 29 seconds left as the shot clock expired to go up three. They then finished 4-for-4 at the free throw line to seal the win. Silva matched a career-high with 16 points. Notice finished with 14 to round out the Gamecocks in double figures.

GAME 27 - VANDERBILT 71, #21/19 CAROLINA 62
FEB. 18, 2017/MEMORIAL GYM/NASHVILLE, TENN.

NASHVILLE, Tenn. - No. 21/19 South Carolina (20-7, 10-4 SEC) was defeated 71-62 by Vanderbilt (14-13, 7-7 SEC) Saturday night at Memorial Gym. Senior Sindarius Thornwell recorded 21 points for his fourth straight game with 20-plus.

Carolina led 8-6 at the first media timeout with 15:08 to go after starting 4-for-7 (57 percent) from the field, all of its points coming in the paint. The Gamecocks made their sixth-straight basket as the lead grew to 12-9 with 14:09 on the clock. The score remained 12-9 at the under 12 media timeout with 11:37 to go.

The Commodores tied it at 12-12, and the teams exchanged hoops until the next media timeout with the score tied 18-18 with 6:26 left in the half. It was a slow-paced, physical game on both ends of the floor, as both squads were in the bonus with over 10 minutes left. Thornwell scored 10-straight points for Carolina as the Gamecocks opened up a 24-20 lead with 4:31 to go in the first half.

South Carolina remained in front 24-23 at the final media timeout with 2:11 to go. After Vanderbilt grabbed the lead, the Gamecocks went on a 6-0 run to go ahead 30-25 after an offensive rebound and basket by freshman Sedee Keita with 27 seconds left.

Matthew Fisher-Davis scored for the Commodores as time expired to make it 30-27 Carolina at halftime. Thornwell had 14 points at the break to lead all scorers. He was 4-for-8 from the field and 6-for-6 at the free throw line in the first half. Sophomore PJ Dozier had eight points on 4-of-9 shooting for Carolina. The Gamecocks were 12-of-28 (43 percent) in the first 20 minutes, while Vanderbilt was 9-for-23 (39 percent). The Commodores bench outscored South Carolina 15-2 in the opening half.

Vanderbilt opened a 40-36 lead in the second half, fueled by a 13-6 run and two 3-pointers by Riley LaChance. Frank Martin took a timeout with 16:19 on the clock and the Gamecocks were able to tie it, 40-40, after sophomore Chris Silva's sixth point of the half.

South Carolina made four of its next five shots to jump ahead 49-46 with 12:06 remaining. Sophomore Hassani Gravett knocked down a jumper from the right baseline to give the Gamecocks their biggest lead of the game, 53-47, with 9:40 on the clock.

The Commodores stormed back to grab a 55-54 lead at the under eight media timeout with 7:26 left in the game. Another LaChance 3 put Vanderbilt up 64-58 at the final media timeout with 3:14 left.

South Carolina was unable to overcome the deficit, as the Commodores closed the game on a 24-9 run. Dozier had 15 points and Silva tallied 14 to join Thornwell in double figures for the Gamecocks. Fisher-Davis led the way for Vanderbilt with 17 points, as Vanderbilt shot 50 percent (11-for-22) from the floor and 44 percent from 3 (7-for-16) in the second half.

GAME 28 - #13/12 FLORIDA 81, CAROLINA 66
FEB. 21, 2017/EXACTECH ARENA/GAINESVILLE, FLA.

GAINESVILLE, Fla. - South Carolina (20-8, 10-5 SEC) suffered an 81-66 loss on the road Tuesday evening at No. 13/12 Florida (23-5, 13-2 SEC). Senior Sindarius Thornwell had 23 points (15 in the second half) and 10 rebounds for his fifth double-double (11th career) of the season to lead the Gamecocks.

After trailing 8-3, Carolina went on a 4-0 run to make it 8-7 at the first media timeout with 15:14 left. The Gamecocks forced four turnovers early that led to five points. The Gators then made their next four shots to extend their lead to 17-10 with 13:23 to go.

The Gamecocks cut it to three twice, but the Gators pushed back ahead by six, 22-16, at the under eight media timeout with 7:36 on the clock. Two Casey Hill free throws put Florida up by double-digits for the first time with 6:11 remaining. A Hill jumper on the Gators next possession then gave them their biggest lead of the half, 28-16.

Carolina chipped away at the lead and was able to cut the deficit to five points, 28-23, with 3:35 to go after a transition 3-pointer by senior guard Duane Notice off a steal by Thornwell. Notice remained aggressive and successfully completed an and-1 to tie the game at 28 with just over two minutes left in the first half, capping a 12-0 run for the Gamecocks.

Carolina's run was not over as Thornwell grabbed an offensive rebound, then senior Justin McKie knocked down a corner 3 to give the team its first lead of the game, 33-30 with 1:06 remaining. McKie's 3 marked a 17-2 run by the Gamecocks after they trailed by 12, but Florida closed the half on a 5-0 run, to take a 35-33 lead at the break.

South Carolina shot just 30 percent (11-29) in the opening half but was able to force 12 turnovers that led to 12 points. Notice led the Gamecocks' balanced offensive attack with nine points, while Thornwell had eight and Silva had seven. KeVaughn Allen led all scorers with 14 first half points.

Both teams came out of the locker room shooting it well. The Gators remained in front 44-41 at the first media timeout of the second half with 15:35 remaining. South Carolina started 4-for-7 (57 percent) after the break.

The lead remained three for Florida, 49-46, before a pair of 3s by Devin Robinson forced Frank Martin to take a timeout, his team trailing 55-46 with 11:41 to go. The Gators' lead grew to 11, but remained at nine at the under eight media timeout with 7:08 on the clock.

Three free throws by Allen gave Florida its biggest lead, 76-61, with 4:43 to go in the ballgame. Carolina was unable break through down the stretch as the Gators posted the 81-66 win. Notice had 16 points to join Thornwell in double-figures for the Gamecocks. Allen had a game-high 26 points and was one of four players for Florida in double-figures.

GAME 29 - RV/RV CAROLINA 82, TENNESSEE 55
FEB. 25, 2017/COLONIAL LIFE ARENA

COLUMBIA, S.C. - A monster second half powered South Carolina (21-8, 11-5 SEC) to an impressive 82-55 home win over Tennessee (15-14, 7-9 SEC) on Saturday afternoon. The Gamecocks out-scored the Volunteers 44-25 in the final 20 minutes, and four players scored in double figures, led by sophomore PJ Dozier's 19 points.

Six points off five turnovers helped Carolina push out on an 8-2 lead at the first media timeout with 15:52 to go. Sophomore Chris Silva had four points early for the Gamecocks. The Volunteers came within three, 10-7, but Carolina used an 8-2 run to take an 18-9 lead at the under 12 media timeout in the first half. The Gamecocks started the game 6-for-12 (50 percent) from the floor and were 6-of-7 (86 percent) at the charity stripe.

Freshman Rakym Felder thornwell for an easy transition bucket, forcing Tennessee head coach Rick Barnes to take a timeout with 8:50 on the clock, his team trailing 24-9 after Carolina extended the run to 16-2. Senior Duane Notice knocked down a three to give the Gamecocks their biggest lead of the half, 27-9, just before the under eight media timeout. Turnovers continued to lead to points for Carolina, as the team tallied 14 of its first 27 points off takeaways.

Tennessee cut the deficit to 12, 32-20, at the final media timeout of the first half with 3:46 remaining. After the Gamecocks' lead went back to 15 with just under three minutes to play in the opening half, the Volunteers closed on an 8-1 run to trail 38-30 at the break.

Dozier was the only player in double figures on either side at the half, as he scored 11 on 5-of-10 shooting. Thornwell and Notice each has six, while Felder (5) and freshman Sedee Keita (4) had nine of the team's 11 first half-baskets. Grant Williams and Robert Hubbs III each had eight points to lead the Volunteers.

The teams exchanged buckets out of the break, and the game remained tight, 43-38, at the first media timeout of the second half with 15:52 remaining. Colonial Life Arena erupted after back-to-back Notice 3-pointers put the Gamecocks in front with a commanding 51-38 lead, forcing a Barnes timeout with 14:34 to play. The long ball was Notice's fifth 3 of the game and his third of the half.

A Dozier layup with 13:29 remaining put Carolina in front 55-38 and the lead remained steady at 17 at the under 12 media timeout, 57-40, with 11:15 to go. Consecutive 3s, this time by Felder and Thornwell, gave the Gamecocks their first 20-point advantage of the afternoon, 63-43, with 9:01 to play.

The lead remained 63-43 at the under eight media timeout with 7:38 to go and stayed at 20, 70-50, at the final media timeout after a Thornwell dunk. Carolina led by 20 the rest of the way en route to the 82-55 win.

Notice (15), Thornwell (15) and Felder (12) joined Dozier in double figures for the Gamecocks. Those three, along with Dozier, combined for 33 of the team's 44 points in the second half.

GAME 30 - /RV CAROLINA 63, MISS. STATE 57
FEB, 28, 2017/COLONIAL LIFE ARENA

COLUMBIA, S.C. - Senior guard Sindarius Thornwell scored 17 of his 22 points in the second half to propel South Carolina (22-8, 12-5 SEC) to a 63-57 Senior Night victory over Mississippi State (14-15, 5-12 SEC) at Colonial Life Arena on Tuesday. The win clinched a double-bye for the Gamecocks in next week's SEC Tournament. The team's 12 conference wins are the second most SEC wins in program history.

Carolina led 6-5 at the first media timeout with 15:32 left in the opening half. The Gamecocks had six rebounds and four offensive boards but were unable to capitalize on their early second chances. The Gamecocks pushed in front 10-5, but the Bulldogs scored six of the next seven points to pull within one, 12-11, at the next media timeout with 11:07 on the clock. Carolina opened the game 3-for-15 (28 percent) from the floor.

Each team then made four of its next five field goals, as the Gamecocks remained in front, 21-20 with 7:30 remaining. Sophomore forward Chris Silva was dominant inside early, as he had nine points and six rebounds.

Carolina continued to lead, 26-25, at the final media timeout of the first half with 3:52 to go. The shooting woes continued for the Gamecocks, but the team made up for it at the free throw line knocking down 13 foul shots in the opening half.

Mississippi State jumped out to its biggest lead of the opening half, 29-26, after a tip-in from Eli Wright with 2:17 on the clock, but Carolina closed the half on a 7-0 run to take a 32-29 lead at the break.

Silva had 11 points and seven rebounds at halftime, both game-highs. Mario Kegler led the Bulldogs with eight points in just nine minutes of action. The Gamecocks held a 20-16 edge on the glass, and forced 10 Mississippi State turnovers. Silva, Dozier and Thornwell combined for 16 of the team's 20 rebounds in the first half.

Two 3s fueled a quick 6-0 run for the Bulldogs, as they pulled within four at 45-41. Mississippi State continued to chip away at the lead and got within three, 50-47, at the under eight media timeout with 7:30 on the clock. The Bulldogs took advantage of a 2:19 scoring draught and three turnovers from the Gamecocks.

Mississippi State grabbed its first lead of the second half after a 3-pointer by Tyson Carter put them ahead 52-50 with 4:33 on the clock. Thornwell knocked down a pair at the line, his eighth and ninth free throws of the game, to tie it at 52-52 at the final media timeout with 3:59 remaining in the ballgame.

It was a senior-to-senior connection as Thornwell then found Duane Notice for the biggest shot of the game, as he popped to the left wing and knocked down a huge 3 to cap a 7-0 run with 2:15 remaining. The shot swung momentum back in favor of the home team as Howland took a timeout with just over two minutes to play, Carolina ahead 57-52.

The Bulldogs cut the deficit to three, 57-54, right out of the timeout, but Thornwell split the defense and connected on a tough, left handed layup to make it 59-54 on the ensuing possession with 1:35 to play. Thornwell iced the game at the free throw line with six seconds left, as Carolina prevailed 63-57.

Silva had his third career double-double (all this season) with 15 points and 11 rebounds to join Thornwell in double figures for the Gamecocks. Carolina forced 20 turnovers for the second straight game (seventh time in SEC play) and out-rebounded the Bulldogs 39-31.

GAME 31 - OLE MISS 75, -/RV CAROLINA 70
MARCH 4, 2017/THE PAVILION/OXFORD, MISS.

OXFORD, Miss. - A ferocious second half rally fell just short Saturday night, as South Carolina (22-9, 12-6 SEC) was defeated 75-70 by Ole Miss (19-12, 10-8 SEC) in the team's regular season finale. Senior Sindarius Thornwell led all scorers with 25 points as he filled up the stat sheet for the Gamecocks with seven rebounds and six assists.

The Rebels led 9-5 early, but Carolina went on a 5-0 run to take a 10-9 lead at the first media timeout with 13:59 to go. Ole Miss regained the lead, 13-12, at the next media timeout with 11:56 on the clock. The Gamecocks were sharing the basketball early, as five different players scored and the team logged four assists.

A quick 7-0 run by Ole Miss forced head coach Frank Martin to take a timeout with 10:02 remaining, his team trailing 20-13. Carolina responded forcing three turnovers on a 6-0 run to pull within one, 20-19, at the under eight media timeout with 7:59 to go in the opening half.

The Rebels grew back to seven, but a four-point swing on a technical foul pulled the Gamecocks back within three, 31-28, with just under four minutes to play. Back-to-back 3s by Cullen Neal put Ole Miss back in control, 37-28 with 3:13 to go.

Carolina was unable to close the gap before the horn and trailed 42-31 at the break, just its second double-digit halftime deficit of the season. Thornwell had 11 points to lead the team. Freshman Maik Korsar and sophomore Hassani Gravett each had five. Thornwell and Gravett combined for eight of the team's nine first half assists. The Rebels shot the ball efficiently in the first 20 minutes, going 16-for-28 (57 percent) from the floor and 6-for-10 (60 percent) from behind the arc. Breein Tyree led all scorers with 13 (6-for-9). Sebastian Saiz was also in double figures for Ole Miss with 11 points.

The Rebels hot shooting continued to start the second half, as they opened the game's final 20 minutes on a 9-0 run. Tyree hit a 3 to put Ole Miss ahead 20, 51-31, forcing Martin to take a timeout with 16:38 to go.

Maik Korsar made it 54-43 at the under-12 media timeout with 11:58 to go.

Senior Duane Notice got to the rim and scored, then Gravett knocked down a 3-pointer to pull the Gamecocks within six, 54-48, with 10:26 left. Ole Miss led 60-52 at the under eight media timeout. Carolina came within four, but the Rebels took advantage of a three minute scoring draught for the Gamecocks to go ahead 65-56 at the final media timeout with 3:56 remaining.

Notice knocked down a huge 3-pointer to cap a 7-0 run for Carolina, pulling the team within four, 71-67, with 1:07 left in the game. The deficit went back to seven, but the Toronto, Ontario, native, pulled Carolina within four again, 74-70, after another big 3 with 25 seconds to go. The Gamecocks were unable to find the bottom of the net the rest of the game, as Ole Miss held on for the hard-fought 75-70 victory.

GAME 32 - ALABAMA 64, -/RV CAROLINA 53
MARCH 10, 2017/BRIDGESTONE ARENA/NASHVILLE

NASHVILLE, Tenn. - South Carolina (22-10, 12-6 SEC) fell to Alabama (19-13, 10-8 SEC) 64-53 in an SEC Tournament Quarterfinal matchup on Friday afternoon at Bridgestone Arena. Senior Sindarius Thornwell led the Gamecocks with 16 points in 37 minutes.

It was a defensive showcase in the first 20 minutes as both teams came into the game ranked 1-2 in the SEC in a handful of defensive categories. The Gamecock defense held Alabama to 36 percent shooting in the opening half (10-for-28) and 20 percent (2-for-10) from 3-point land. Thornwell and freshman Rakym Felder led the team with six points each. Alabama's Braxton Key led all scorers with 10 points on 4-of-5 shooting in the first half.

The Crimson Tide scored the game's first bucket, but Carolina's defense locked in and held it scoreless for the next 2:49, as Alabama led 2-0 at the first media timeout of the game with 15:36 on the clock. The Tide remained in front 9-6 at the under 12 media timeout with 10:54 to go.

Evan Hinson provided a huge lift off the Carolina bench to spark an 8-2 run for the Gamecocks' offense. He scored four points and pulled down two rebounds as South Carolina grabbed its first lead of the game 14-13 with 6:50 remaining in the first half.

Alabama regained the lead 21-19 at the final media timeout of the half with 2:56 on the clock. Felder knocked down 1-of-2 at the free throw line with eight seconds to go as the Gamecocks trailed 23-22 at halftime. Carolina's bench scored 11 of the team's first 19 points with Hinson and Felder combining for nine.

The Crimson Tide opened the second half 4-for-7 (57 percent) to take a four-point lead, 31-27, at the first media timeout with 15:57 to play. The Gamecocks then forced five turnovers leading to eight combined points from sophomore PJ Dozier and Felder to go on top 37-36.

Alabama's hot shooting, 7-of-10 to start second half, continued though and it went back in front by three, 40-37, forcing head coach Frank Martin to take a timeout with 11:56 on the clock. Felder and Dozier combined for 12 of the team's first 15 points in the second half.

Both teams exchanged hoops the next several minutes, but the Tide remained in front by four, 52-48, at the final media timeout of the game with 3:57 to play. Felder found Dozier out of the timeout for a huge 3 in front of the Gamecock bench to pull Carolina within one, 52-51, with 3:44 remaining.

The Gamecocks got within one again at 54-53 after a pair of free throws by sophomore Chris Silva with 2:54 left to play. Silva's free throws would be the team's final points of the game.
