TODAY'S GAME

South Carolina aims for its 20th win of the 2016-17 campaign and its 10th win of the SEC season on Tuesday when it hosts Alabama at Colonial Life Arena. The Gamecocks are currently in sole possession of first place in the SEC standings. The meeting against the Crimson Tide is the only matchup between the two schools this SEC regular season. South Carolina has won four-straight entering Tuesday's game, most recently collecting a two-point win over border rival Georgia on Saturday. Alabama has lost two straight, but owns a 6-4 record in league games, which has the Crimson Tide in a two-way tie for fourth in the league standings.

GAME STORYLINES

- South Carolina is in its 109th season of varsity basketball in 2016-17.
- On the sidelines, Frank Martin is joined by associate head coach Matt Figger, assistant coaches Perry Clark and Bruce Shingler, and director of operations Andy Assaley.
- South Carolina remains in the national rankings this week, checking in at No. 19 in the AP poll and No. 16 in the Coaches Poll. South Carolina has been ranked in the AP poll for eight weeks this season and in the Coaches Poll for nine weeks.
- South Carolina looks for its 20th win of the season on Tuesday vs. Alabama. It would mark the first time the Gamecocks have had back-to-back 20-wins seasons (25-9 during 2015-16 campaign) since the 2004-05 (20-13) and the 2005-06 (23-15) seasons.
- The Gamecocks are also looking for their 10th SEC win of the year on Tuesday vs. the Crimson Tide. It would mark just the fifth double-digit win total in SEC play for Carolina in its 26-seasons in the league. It would also be just the second time that Carolina would have back-to-back seasons with double-digit league wins, as the Gamecocks posted 11 last season. (15 SEC wins in 1997, 11 in 1998).

A SOUTH CAROLINA WIN WOULD ...

- Be the Gamecocks fifth-straight SEC win, matching the longest league win streak this season (began league play 5-0)
- Improve Carolina's home record to 14-1 this season, and be the 30th in the last 34 home games at Colonial Life Arena
- Be the fifth-straight at home over the Crimson Tide

- Paced by sophomore guard PJ Dozier's seventh 20-point game of the season and four 3-pointers each from seniors Sindarius Thornwell and Duane Notice, No. 19/20 Carolina held off Georgia to register a 77-75 win last Saturday. The win completed the regular-season sweep of the Bulldogs after Georgia had won the previous three meetings between the two schools. Dozier would score five points in the final 1:52 of the game, however, senior guard Justin McKie's two free throws with just six seconds remaining proved the game winners.

- Thornwell and rookie forward Maik Kotsar both pulled down three offensive rebounds in the win over Georgia. Carolina scored 16 second-chance points vs. the Bulldogs.

- South Carolina's backcourt has accounted for 81.0% of scoring over the course of the last five games.

- Eight different Gamecocks average at least 12 minutes per game, and seven different players provide at least five points per outing.

- The Gamecocks won their second straight on the road, and fifth overall in away games this season, with an 88-63 victory at LSU on Feb. 1. Four Gamecocks scored in double figures, led by PJ Dozier and Duane Notice's 17 each. Sindarius Thornwell and Chris Silva both scored 16, and Silva pulled down a team high eight rebounds. - South Carolina posted a 63-53 road win at Missouri on Jan. 28 behind the ninth double-double of senior guard Sindarius Thornwell's career, as he led the squad with 16 points and 11 rebounds. senior guard Justin McKie set a career high with three makes from beyond the arc.

- The Gamecocks continued their stifling defense in the win over Auburn, holding the Tigers to just 35.6% from the floor, and 14.3% from 3-point range.
- Despite a career high 34 points from senior guard Sindarius Thornwell, the Gamecocks couldn't overcome an early deficit and suffered their first loss of the SEC campaign on Jan. 21 at No. 5/5 Kentucky, 85-69. The Wildcats hit 58.3 percent of their attempts from the floor, and connected on eight 3s in the win. Carolina was also without sophomore guard PJ Dozier, who was unavailable for the game due to back spasms.
- R-sophomore guard TeMarcus Blanton scored a career high 12 points at UK. It was the first double-figure game of his career.
- UK's eight 3s in the game were the most by a Carolina opponent since Texas A&M connected on 11 on Jan. 7, and the second-most by an opponent this season.
- Behind 20 points from senior guard Sindarius Thornwell and an 11-point second half from sophomore forward Chris Silva, Carolina overcame hitting just 29.4 percent from the field to post a four-point victory over No. 19/21 Florida on Jan. 18 at Colonial Life Arena. The 57-53 win over the Gators was the second straight for South Carolina over its former SEC East rival. The Gamecock defense was stifling, holding Florida to 35.2% from the field, and 0-17 from 3-point range. Thornwell would score 15 of his 20 in the second half.
- Carolina's win at Tennessee was the 200th of head coach Frank Martin's coaching career. He amassed a 117-54 record as head coach at Kansas State, and holds a mark of 84-66 in his fifth season at Carolina.

NATIONAL RANKINGS

The Gamecocks jumped in to the national rankings on Nov. 28 for the first time this season after posting wins over two ranked opponents the previous week in No. 25/24 Michigan and No. 18/16 Syracuse. The Gamecocks checked in at No. 20 in the Associated Press poll and No. 23 in the Coaches Poll. The Gamecocks have risen to as high as 16th in the AP poll this season (Dec. 12), which was the highest rank for Carolina since the Gamecocks were ranked 14th in the final poll of the 1997-98 campaign. The Gamecocks high mark in the Coaches poll this season was at No. 15 (Dec. 12).

MCKIE KEY VS. GEORGIA ON FEB. 4

A huge 3 from the corner with 3:17 on the clock, and the eventual game winning free throw, solidified a career moment for senior guard Justin McKie in Carolina's home win over Georgia on Feb. 4. McKie picked up a steal and added a lay-in in the opening half vs. the Bulldogs, before collecting two steals in half two, while connecting on a huge 3 late in the game, which gave the Gamecocks a nine-point advantage. McKie hit two free throws with six seconds on the clock, which gave Carolina a four-point advantage. The makes would stand as the game winners as the Bulldogs hit a last-second lay-up just before the buzzer to make the final score 77-75. McKie is having a stellar year in 2016-17, averaging career highs in every major statistical category, including points per game (5.2). He is also dishing 1.7 assists compared to just 0.7 turnovers per outing.

SCOUTING ALABAMA

- Alabama enters Tuesday's matchup with the Gamecocks holding a 13-9 overall record, including a 6-4 mark in SEC games. Alabama is in a two-way tie with Arkansas for fourth place in the standings.
- The Crimson Tide is led by head coach Avery Johnson in his second season. The former NBA star on the court and on the sidelines, Johnson owns a 31-24 record thus far at Alabama.
- In league play, Alabama has wins over Mississippi State, Vanderbilt, LSU, Missouri, Georgia and again vs. Mississippi State. Three of those wins have come on the road - at MSU, at LSU and at Georgia.
- Two average double-figure points for the Tide, led by freshman forward Braxton Key's 12.1 per game. Key, a native of Charlotte, N.C., also paces the team in league games at 15.0 points per outing.
- R-freshman guard Dazon Ingram adds 10.2 per outing in overall games and his 3.7 assists per outing lead the team.
- Key and graduate guard Corban Collins led the squad with 17 points each in the most recent outing vs. Auburn.
- In the SEC statistics, Alabama is among league leaders in scoring defense (2nd, 65.1 ppg), field goal percentage defense (5th, 41.5%), rebound margin (1st, +6.5) and offensive rebounds (12.7 per game).

2016-17 SCHEDULE

South Carolina has an exciting schedule set for the 2016-17 campaign. The slate features 14 games, with 10 home contests, including one exhibition. Highlighting the non-conference portion of the schedule is the Gamecocks' participation in the Brooklyn Hoops Holiday Invitational, as well as a matchup versus Seton Hall in the Under Armour "Reunion" doubleheader at Madison Square Garden in mid-December. The Gamecocks will face eight teams that advanced to the postseason a year ago, with four of those NCAA Tournament participants, including Syracuse, which advanced to the Final Four.

GAMECOCKS CONCLUDE HISTORIC 2015-16 REGULAR SEASON

South Carolina concluded an historic regular season on March 5, 2015, with a 76-61 win on the road at Arkansas. That victory set the school record for regular-season wins at 24. The Gamecocks began the season 15-0, their best start since the 1933-34 campaign, and the 24 wins marked the most since the 1996-97 squad also posted 24 victories. In addition, South Carolina's 11 SEC wins marked the most since 1998, match the second-most ever by a Carolina team and marked just the fourth time that the Gamecocks had double-digit SEC wins in their 25 years in the league.

GAMECOCKS ANNOUNCE MARTIN'S MATH CLUB

The SC Education Oversight Committee (EOC) announced on Nov. 28 "Martin's Math Club," a partnership with University of South Carolina head men's basketball coach Frank Martin and the University of South Carolina Athletics Department. Martin, a former high school math educator, developed the project designed to help young people learn that math is fun and relevant in their daily lives. The inaugural "Martin's Math Club" contest will run from November 28, 2016-February 24, 2017. The contest provides the opportunity for teachers and students in grades Kindergarten through 8th grade to win two tickets to a Gamecock men's basketball home game. With assistance from SC math educators, the EOC published 18 standards-based lessons for K-8th grade that incorporate math and basketball. For more information visit helpwithmathsc.org.

LAST SEASON VS. ALABAMA

GAME 16 - ALABAMA 73, CAROLINA 50 JAN. 13, 2016/TUSCALOOSA, ALA.

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. - The No. 19/15 South Carolina men's basketball team suffered its first loss of the season Wednesday night at Alabama, 73-50. The Gamecocks fell behind early and saw their 15-game season-opening win streak come to an end. The Crimson Tide improves to 10-5 and 1-2 in conference action. Michael Carrera led the team with 14 points and 10 rebounds, his second double-double in the last four games.

It would be the Gamecocks (15-1, 2-1 SEC) versus Riley Norris for the first 10 minutes of the game, as Alabama's sophomore forward connected on his first five attempts from 3-point range. The South Carolina offense would not be able to answer the hot start, and Norris' fifth 3 of the half pushed Alabama's early advantage to 19-4 at the 11:39 mark.

The Gamecocks started just 2-of-12 from the field, but a stretch of six baskets in nine attempts gave the offense a brief jolt. The Tide rolled into halftime with a 35-22 lead, Laimonas Chatkevicius and Mindaugas Kacinas led the Gamecocks with six points apiece and combined to shoot 5-of-9. As a team, South Carolina connected on just 8-of-26 shots in the opening frame.

The offense was held without a field goal for the final three minutes of the first half, and that trend carried into the second half. The Gamecocks missed their first 12 attempts out of the break, and went without a point until a three-point play from Duane Notice with 11:51 left to play in regulation. In the time between Carolina's field goals, Alabama extended the lead up to 48-22.

Notice's field goal broke the seal for the Gamecock offense, who scored six straight baskets in a five-minute stretch, but it came too late. Freshman guard Jamall Gregory spurred an 8-0 run with six minutes left, hitting a 3 and converting a three-point play over the span of three possessions, but Alabama's lead would be too much to overcome.

GAME 21 - CAROLINA 78, ALABAMA 64 JAN. 30, 2016/COLONIAL LIFE ARENA

COLUMBIA, S.C. - The RV/22 South Carolina men's basketball team earned a hard-fought win over Alabama (11-9, 2-6 SEC) Saturday night, winning 78-64. Michael Carrera's second-straight game with a double-double led the way, with Sindarius Thornwell and Chris Silva joining him in double figures. Now at 19-2, 6-2 in conference play, the Gamecocks have their highest win total for a season in seven years.

The upswell of emotion from the sold-out Colonial Life Arena personified the Gamecocks' energy from the opening tip. The Garnet and Black were flying around on both ends of the court, and built a 12-5 lead early behind a 5-of-7 start from the field in the first three minutes. A pair of Alabama turnovers fed into the opening salvo, the first led to a 3 in the corner from Mindaugas Kacinas and the second would be a picked-off inbounds pass from Kacinas that scored a layup and a foul.

The Tide were able to slow down the pace and erased the early advantage. The Gamecocks were finding looks from the field, but made just one field goal in an eight-minute stretch and missed six free throws in that same span. Alabama would tie things up at 15-all with 13 minutes still to play, and after a grinding five-minute stretch after that it would takes first lead at 20-19.

The visitor's lead would last just 19 seconds thanks to an immediate answer from Michael Carrera. A 3 from the senior sparked an 11-2 Gamecocks run that put them back ahead 30-22 heading into the final four minutes of the period. A 3 off a bank shot from Sindarius Thornwell with 37 seconds left to play gave Carolina its largest lead of the night, 35-26, heading into the break. Thornwell would lead all scorers in the half with 10 points, and his five rebounds also led the way. Carolina's defense held Alabama to just 7-of-28 from the floor in the half, including four different stretches where the Tide missed at least four straight shots.

A basket from Chris Silva to start the half gave Carolina its first double-digit lead of the game, but Alabama would soon bring it back to a five with 14:24 to play. A 14-5 run after that, keyed by a Duane Notice 3, would put the early comeback attempt on the back burner and staked Carolina to a 59-45 lead just four minutes later.

In a game that was physical from the tip, both offenses had slow nights, but foul troubles for Alabama would grind down its depth and give the Gamecocks 46 shots at the line (27 in the second half). It would also force the Tide defense to commit to a zone look, which would be punished over a key stretch by Carolina. Laimonas Chatkevicius and Mindaugas Kacinas worked the high-low post game for baskets on three-straight possessions, and a 3 from Carrera would force the visitors to move back to man-to-man.

Retin Obasohan did everything he could to keep his side in contention, scoring ten-straight points for the Tide in a three minute span. It would not be enough, as the rest of his team shot just 32 percent (9-of-28) in the second half. He picked up his fifth foul off a technical with a minute to go, becoming the fourth 'Bama player to be disqualified, and the Gamecocks salted the game away at the foul line.

Frank Martin was named the head men's basketball coach at the University of South Carolina on March 27, 2012, becoming the 32nd head coach in the history of the South Carolina program, which enters its 109th season as a varsity sport in 2016-17. Martin owns a 187-117 (.600) overall record as a head coach, entering his 10th season overall, and a 70-63 (.526) record entering his fifth season at South Carolina.

In Martin's fourth season leading the Garnet and Black (2015-16), Carolina put together one of the top seasons in its history, matching a school record for wins with a 25-9 overall record on the year, while the Gamecocks reached double-digit SEC wins for just the fourth time since joining the league, posting an 11-7 mark in conference contests. The SEC finish was Carolina's highest since the league combined its East and West Divisions prior to the 2012 season. South Carolina began the season 15-0, its best start since the 1933-34 campaign and went on to post a school-record 24 regular-season wins.

The Gamecocks received votes or were ranked for 15 weeks in the USA Today Coaches Poll, rising to as high as 15th, and for a total of 14 weeks in the AP poll, rising to as high as 19th, during the season. Carolina advanced to postseason play for the first time since 2009, making their 12th appearance in the Postseason NIT as one of the top four seeds in the event. The Gamecocks posted a win over High Point in the opening round, before suffering a season-ending loss to visiting Georgia Tech on March 21.

Three Gamecocks were honored with postseason awards by the SEC coaches, with senior forward Michael Carrera earning First Team All-SEC accolades, junior guard Sindarius Thornwell was named to the All-Defensive Team and junior guard Duane Notice was named the league's Sixth Man of the Year. Carrera went on to earn honors from several organizations following the best season of his career. Carrera, Notice and Thornwell each reached the 1,000 career-point plateau during the season as well.

Prior to his appointment in Columbia, Martin spent the previous five season as the head coach at Kansas State University, leading the Wildcats to the NCAA Tournament four times, including a trip to the "Elite 8," during the 2009-10 campaign when the squad won a school record 29 contests. Martin's Wildcats won at least 21 games in each of his five seasons at the helm, as the program compiled a record of 117-54 (.684) under his direction. During that time, Kansas State posted a 50-32 (.609) record in Big 12 Conference games, finishing fifth or higher in each season, with three season finishes of third or better.

A native of Miami, Fla., Martin earned his bachelor's degree in physical education from Florida International in 1993. He and his wife, Anya, have three children, Brandon, Amalia and Christian.

GAME 1 - SOUTH CAROLINA 85, LA TECH 76
NOV. 11, 2016/COLONIAL LIFE ARENA

COLUMBIA, S.C. - The South Carolina men's basketball team (1-0) opened the 2016-17 regular season with an 85-76 victory over Louisiana Tech (0-1) Friday night. Four Gamecock starters were in double-figures, led by senior guard Sindarius Thornwell, who poured in 18 points. The Lancaster, S.C., native filled up the stat sheet leading the team in rebounds (7) and assists (6).

Senior guard Duane Notice (17), sophomore guard PJ Dozier (17) and sophomore forward Chris Silva (11) were the other South Carolina starters in double figures. Dozier's 17 points were a new career-high.

The Gamecocks jumped out to a 7-2 lead to start the game behind five points from Dozier. The Gamecocks extended their lead to 16-6 after Thornwell hit a 3-pointer with 12:49 left in the first half. South Carolina's half court defense was suffocating in the first 10 minutes, as they held the Bulldogs to 29 percent shooting from the field. Louisiana Tech finished half one 11-of-29 from the field (37.9 percent).

The Bulldogs closed the gap to 18-16 with 10:24 left, but Carolina pushed the lead back to nine at 36-27 with 2:36 to play in the half after back-to-back 3s from senior guard Justin McKie and sophomore guard Hassani Gravett.

Gravett ended the first half with an exclamation point as he tipped in a Notice 3-point miss at the buzzer. Carolina led 42-31 at the break as the, Villa Rica, Ga. native's, tip-in gave the team its biggest lead of the first half at 11.

Thornwell led all scorers at halftime with nine points on 4-of-8 shooting. He also had five rebounds and three assists. Junior forward Ran Tur had a nice first half off the bench, dropping four points and tying for the team lead in rebounds with five. Notice had eight points, Dozier seven and Gravett seven to round out Carolina's scoring in the opening period. Carolina out-rebounded La Tech 22-18 in half one.

In the second half, the Bulldogs cut the deficit to seven with 14:13 left after a 3-pointer by sophomore guard Derric Jean from the right wing. La Tech's Jacobi Boykins stole the ball at half court finishing with an emphatic dunk at the other end to cut the lead to 59-54. He was whistled for a technical foul after the play. Notice missed both free throws but Silva put the Gamecocks back up by seven after a dunk on the ensuing possession off a great dish from Gravett.

La Tech's Daquan Bracy would cut the lead to four at 65-61, knocking down a 3-pointer with 7:58 left. Thornwell would answer the basket with a fast break 3 of his own from the left corner to put Carolina back up seven with 5:56 on the clock. The Bulldogs answered, but Silva increased the lead to nine with a 3-point play with 4:31 left after beating Jean to the hole for the and-one bucket.

Thornwell and Silva again halted La Tech's momentum after bringing Colonial Life Arena to its feet with two straight transition dunks, pushing the lead to 80-70 with 2:37 left, and the Gamecocks would close the nine-point win.

GAME 2 - SOUTH CAROLINA 81, HOLY CROSS 49
NOV. 13, 2016/COLONIAL LIFE ARENA

COLUMBIA, S.C. - South Carolina (2-0) picked up its second win of the season Sunday night at Colonial Life Arena after an 81-49 victory versus Holy Cross (0-1). The Gamecock defense limited the Crusaders to just 17 second half points and 30 percent shooting (6-20) from the field in the half. Carolina senior guard Sindarius Thornwell had 20 points to lead all scorers.

After trailing 4-3 early in the game, Carolina went on a 9-0 run after a put-back dunk by sophomore Chris Silva that put the Gamecocks up 12-4. Senior guard Justin McKie extended the early lead to 10 after a transition layup put Carolina ahead 18-8 with 11:56 to go in the first half. McKie's layup forced Crusader Head Coach Bill Carmody to take a timeout after his team started the game 2-for-11 from the field (18.1 percent).

After the timeout, freshman guard Rakym Felder hit a 3-pointer from the top of the key to put the Gamecocks up 24-13. Carolina started the game on fire from the field, hitting 10-of-14 shots, good for 71.4 percent.

Holy Cross cut the lead to five at the 7:08 mark, but Thornwell answered with a post up bucket from the left block to put the Gamecocks up 33-26. Senior guard Duane Notice then hit a 3 on the team's next possession, putting Carolina up 10, 36-26, with 3:03 left in the opening half.

Senior guard PJ Dozier hit his third 3 of the first half from the left wing with 1:29 left to put the Gamecocks up 15. Holy Cross answered with a 3-point bucket of its own. The teams exchanged 3s again on their next possessions, as Thornwell hit from deep for Carolina and Robert Champion, the Crusaders' leading scorer from a year ago, hit one for Holy Cross. Champion's 3 cut the deficit to 12 just before the half with Carolina leading 44-32.

Thornwell led all scorers at the break with 14. Dozier was the second-leading scorer on the stat sheet with 13 first-half points for the Gamecocks. Notice had four assists to lead all players. Carolina shot 58.3 percent in the opening period, including going 8-of-13 from deep. Champion, and forward Malachi Alexander, each scored 12 points for the Crusaders to account for 24 of the team's 32 first-half points.

Carolina picked up right where it left off in the second half as Thornwell hit a 3 at the 15:03 mark to give the Gamecocks a 16-point lead, 53-37. McKie tallied his eighth point with just under 12 minutes to play with a high floater in the lane, which put Carolina up by 20, 59-39.

The Gamecocks defense remained locked in during half two. Holy Cross started the second half 4-for-13, just 30.8 percent from the field. Carolina's hot shooting continued on the offensive end, as it started the second half 8-of-16 (50 percent).

Thornwell hit his fourth 3 of the game with 8:34 left to put the Gamecocks up 66-42. He finished the night 4-for-6 from behind the arc. McKie joined Thornwell in double figures, scoring his 10th point of the night with 3:08 left after stealing the ball and taking it coast-to-coast for the lay in to give Carolina a 74-47 lead late in the game.

GAME 3 - SOUTH CAROLINA 70, MONMOUTH 69
NOV. 15, 2016/COLONIAL LIFE ARENA

COLUMBIA, S.C. - PJ Dozier scored the game-winning jumper on a lob from Duane Notice as time expired in overtime Tuesday night at Colonial Life Arena to power South Carolina (3-0) to a 70-69 non-conference win over Monmouth (1-1). Senior guard Sindarius Thornwell led all scorers for the third-straight game with 23 points. He also had nine rebounds and five assists.

Tonight's game marks Carolina's third game in five days to open the 2016-17 season. Carolina got off to a fast start, opening the game on a 13-0 run. Thornwell and Notice each hit 3s as the Gamecocks opened the game 4-of-7 from the field. Monmouth started the game 0-for-9 and didn't get its first bucket until 13:12 left in the first half.

South Carolina pushed its run to 17-2 just before the second media timeout on a Chris Silvia made free throw. The Gamecocks went 9-for-13 from the charity stripe in the first 10 minutes, after a pair of Notice free throws made the score 19-2.

The Hawks would battle back into the game, cutting the lead to 19-7 with 7:35 left in the opening period, after taking advantage of an 0-for-11 field-goal drought for Carolina that lasted over 10 minutes. Redshirt-sophomore guard TeMarcus Blanton ended the drought after knocking down a 3 to push the Carolina lead to 22-7 with 6:59 left in the half.

Monmouth went on a 6-0 run to cut the lead to nine at 22-13, but the Gamecocks remained ahead 26-13 after back-to-back buckets by senior guard Justin McKie. The Hawks scored the final two baskets of the half to make it 29-22 as the teams headed to the locker room.

Both teams struggled shooting the ball for long stretches in the first half. Monmouth finished the first half 7-for-30 (23.3 percent), while South Carolina shot 8-of-30, good for 26.7 percent.

The Gamecocks started the second half much like half one, going on an 11-0 run after knocking down 4-of-7 shots from the field (57.1 percent). They led 38-22 at the first media timeout. Thornwell (4) and Notice (5) tallied nine of the 11 points on the run.

The Hawks started half two 2-of-9 (22.2 percent) from the field, but then went on a 16-2 run, holding Carolina scoreless for nearly five minutes before a Silva reverse lay-in. McKie and Notice each hit 3s in the stretch to make it 50-46, but the Hawks got back within two at the under-eight media timeout. Monmouth took its first lead at 52-50 with 6:52 left after a put-back lay-in by big man Diago Quinn.

Thornwell scored five straight points to put the Gamecocks back ahead, 55-52, forcing a timeout by head coach King Rice with 5:45 remaining in the second half. Monmouth then had a four-minute field goal drought before scoring four-straight to tie it up at 58-58 with 1:23 remaining. A pair of Thornwell free throws put Carolina ahead by two with 31.7 seconds left, but Micah Seaborn answered for the Hawks with two free throws of his own to tie the score again.

The Gamecocks turned it over off an inbounds play with eight seconds left. Monmouth got a shot off from the right wing, but Thornwell skied high to block it. Carolina got the ball back with .07 seconds left. Dozier launched a half-court heave from the left side that rimmed in-and-out and the game headed to overtime tied at 60.

Dozier, who did not score in regulation, scored six of the team's 10 points in overtime, to propel Carolina to victory. Thornwell scored the other four points from the free throw line. Nine of his 23 points came from the charity stripe Tuesday night. Notice (15) and Silva (10) joined Thornwell in double-figures. Silva tallied his first career double-double after leading the team with 10 rebounds.

The Hawks finished the game with four players in double-figures. Chris Brady led the way with 17 points and 10 rebounds. Jc'Lon Hornbeak (14), Micah Seaborn (11) and Justin Robinson (11) were also in double-figures for Monmouth. The Gamecocks held Robinson, who was the unanimous selection for MAAC Preseason Player of the Year, to just 2-of-13 shooting.

GAME 4 - SOUTH CAROLINA 90, SC STATE 52
NOV. 18, 2016/COLONIAL LIFE ARENA

COLUMBIA, S.C. - South Carolina (4-0) picked up a non-conference home win Friday night after downing South Carolina State (1-2) 92-50. Senior guard Sindarius Thornwell led all scorers for the fourth-straight game with 22 points (8-of-15 from the field). It was Thornwell's third 20-point game of the season.

Carolina went to the first media timeout up 11-3, after starting the game 5-of-7 from the field. The Bulldogs cut the lead to 13-8 after an Edward Stephens 3. The Gamecocks then held the Bulldogs scoreless for the next 3:25 (14:44 to 11:19). Two Khadim Gueye free throws and a jumper by Maik Kotsar pushed the lead back to nine at 17-8 at the 13:44 mark in the opening period.

In the first 10 minutes, Carolina held SC State to just 29 percent shooting (4-of-14). The Gamecocks were the exact opposite, starting the game shooting 59 percent from the field (10-for-17).

Kotsar put Carolina up 25-11 after a nifty reverse layup with 8:56 left in the opening half to force Bulldogs head coach Murray Garvin to take his first timeout of the game. After the timeout, the Gamecocks went on a 10-2 run after 3s from sophomore guard PJ Dozier and r-sophomore guard Hassani Gravett.

Thornwell pushed the lead to 40-18 after knocking down a corner 3 with five minutes left to play in the opening half. The Lancaster, S.C. native, then hit another 3 with 1:46 left to push Carolina's lead to 45-23. The 3 gave him 16 first-half points, which led all scorers. The Gamecocks ended the half on a 5-0 run to take a 50-25 lead at the break. Kotsar had eight points at the break and led the team with seven rebounds. The Bulldogs did not connect for a field goal the final 2:41 of the first half and finished 9-for-28 (32 percent) from the field.

Carolina continued to build on its lead in the second half. Kotsar hit double-figures for the first time in career with 16:54 left in the game after a put back lay-in off a Thornwell miss. The lay-in opened up a 30-point lead for the home team, 60-30.

The Gamecocks would lead by 26 or more for the rest of the night.

Kotsar, a native of Tallin, Estonia, finished the game with 15 points and eight rebounds. He was a perfect 7-of-7 from the field.

Chris Silva was also in double-figures with 11 points. He also had seven rebounds, including four on the offensive end.

Eric Eaves, the Bulldogs leading returner scorer, finished with a game-high 14 points for SC State.

GAME 6 - SOUTH CAROLINA 64, #18/16 SYRACUSE
NOV. 26, 2016/BROOKLYN, NY. (BARCLAYS CENTER)

BROOKLYN - The South Carolina men's basketball team picked up another 20-25 victory Saturday afternoon, earning a 64-50 win over No. 18/16 Syracuse (4-1) in the Barclays Center in Brooklyn, N.Y. as part of the Brooklyn Hoops Holiday Invite. The Gamecocks (6-0) had three players score 15 points or more, and used a fierce defensive effort to hold the Orange to 36 points under their season scoring average.

The Gamecocks set the tone early against Syracuse, softening its vaunted zone defense with a pair of 3s from Sindarius Thornwell and PJ Dozier to open the game. It took Carolina just 25 seconds to earn a lead it held for the entire half -- and ultimately, the game -- and after an 8-0 run the lead grew to 20-11 and remained at least a two-possession game for the final 10 minutes of the period.

South Carolina's defense frustrated and harassed the Orange, limiting them to just eight field goals total in the half and a 34 percent success rate from the floor. Driven by 21 points combined from Thornwell and Dozier, the Gamecocks took a 37-26 lead into the halftime break. As a team, South Carolina shot 50 percent in the half, making 11-of-21 attempts on two-point field goals thanks to great dribble penetration from the point guard tandem of Dozier and Thornwell. The duo's ability to get inside Syracuse's zone paid off all afternoon, with South Carolina enjoying a 30-8 margin in points in the paint by the time the final buzzer sounded.

Syracuse made a strong push out of intermission, starting with an 8-3 run to get the Barclays Center crowd of 8,733 on their feet in a 40-34 game. A Thornwell layup off a Maik Kotsar steal broke off the momentum for a spell, but Syracuse's pressure did not let up. Freshman Sedee Keita gave South Carolina some juice off a big block on a dunk attempt, with the ensuing rebound scooped up and taken coast-to-coast by Hassani Gravett for the lay-in. After the Orange split a pair of free throws, Duane Notice relived some more pressure on a deep 3-pointer to make it a 47-39 game with 13 minutes still to play in the game.

Foul troubles would be a major hurdle early in the second half for the Gamecocks, as Syracuse went into the double bonus with 11 minutes still to play while the Gamecocks saw the Orange whistled just twice in the same span. Free throw opportunities gave Syracuse a chance stop the clock and cut into its deficit, but Frank Howard missed four straight shots at the line to keep Carolina ahead by three possessions, 51-43, at the eight-minute mark. South Carolina's defense made sure that free throws would be the best looks the opposition could get; the Gamecocks held Syracuse without a made field goal from the 15:16 mark until a 3-pointer finally broke the spell with 6:37 to play.

South Carolina's offense would not enjoy the same success as its defense, though, as a scoring drought from 10:32 to 4:37 kept it from taking advantage of Syracuse's struggles. Kotsar flipped in his tenth point of the game off a helper from Thornwell to snap the dry spell and make it 53-46 with four minutes to go. The Orange's 17th turnover of the game on the following possession helped Carolina continue what would become a key 6-0 run over a span of three and a half minutes that put the Gamecocks back ahead by double-digits, 57-46, and they would cruise to the 64-50 win thanks to a 7-of-8 success rate at the free throw line down the stretch and just one Syracuse field goal over the final three minutes.

GAME 7 - NO. 20/23 CAROLINA 68, VERMONT 50
DEC. 1, 2016/COLONIAL LIFE ARENA

COLUMBIA, S.C. - No. 20/23 South Carolina (7-0) downed Vermont (6-3) 68-50 Thursday night to remain undefeated. Sophomore PJ Dozier tallied a new career-high 21 points to lead the way for the Gamecocks. Freshman Maik Kotsar (14), sophomore Chris Silva (12) and senior Sindarius Thornwell (11) were also in double-figures.

Carolina jumped out to a 7-3 lead at the first media timeout behind five points from Dozier. The Gamecock defense was stifling in the early goings as the Catamounts started the game 1-for-6 from the field (16.7 percent). Two free throws by Dre Willis cut the lead to 7-5 and ended a 4:09 scoreless draught for Vermont with 13:11 left in the first half.

The game then went back-and-forth the next few minutes as the teams traded baskets. A jumper by Vermont's Cam Ward cut it to 13-11 with 12:01 remaining in the first half, but five-straight points by Thornwell pushed the Gamecocks' lead to 18-11.

Vermont closed the gap, but South Carolina pushed the lead back to seven at 24-17 on a jumper from Hassani Gravett. A Vermont 3-pointer and a free throw brought the game back to three points at 24-21 before Silva scored seven-straight points to make it 31-23, giving Carolina its biggest lead of the half at the under-four media timeout. Dozier hit a 3 to make it 34-23 on the first possession out of the timeout. The made 3 marked a scorching 14-for-21 (66.7 percent) start from the field for the Gamecocks.

A Silva and-1 play made it 39-25 with 2:21 left. Vermont would close the half on a 7-4 run, as Carolina led 43-32 at the break. Dozier and Silva were both in double-figures for the Gamecocks with 12 points apiece at halftime. The duo tied for the team-lead in rebounds as well with four. Thornwell nearly broke into double-figures for Carolina, as he tallied nine points in the opening period. The Gamecocks finished half one 17-of-28 (60.7 percent) from the field.

Carolina came out firing on all cylinders in the second half. Two quick baskets by Kotsar and a transition alley hoop from Thornwell to Dozier forced Catamount head coach John Becker to take a timeout just two minutes into the half after the 6-0 run by the Gamecocks.

The run was stretched to 13-1 after a Dozier made 3 with 16:10 left in the game. South Carolina's hot first half shooting continued as they started 6-of-7 (85.7 percent) from the field after the break.

The Gamecocks led 58-37 at the under 12 media timeout with 11:09 left after pushing the run to 16-5. From there, Carolina would lead by 19 or more the rest of the game.

Kotsar exploded in the second half with 12 points to lead all scorers. Dozier added nine and tallied his first career 20-point game with 4:52 left after a made layup. Thornwell got into double-figures with a made put back late, as he finished with 11 points and led the team with nine assists, which tied a career single-game high for the senior. The Lancaster, S.C. native, has been in double-figures every game this season for South Carolina.

GAME 8 - NO. 20/23 CAROLINA 70, FIU 54
DEC. 4, 2016/COLONIAL LIFE ARENA

COLUMBIA, S.C. - No. 20/23 South Carolina (8-0) picked up its eighth-straight win of the season after defeating FIU (3-6) 70-54 at Colonial Life Arena on Sunday afternoon. Senior guard Duane Notice tied a career-high with 27 points. He was on fire from deep, knocking down six 3s, which set a new-career high. Joining Notice in double-figures was sophomore PJ Dozier (20), who logged his second-straight 20-point game.

Carolina got off to another solid start as Dozier faked a pass to the corner and pulled up from the left wing knocking down a 3 with 17:11 remaining in the first half. The made long-ball forced a Panther time out just three minutes in as the Gamecocks opened play on a 7-0 run.

The lead was pushed to 11-5 at the first media timeout. Dozier, who came into the game fresh off a career-high 21 points in the team's win over Vermont on Thursday, remained hot from the field scoring seven of Carolina's first 11 points.

Freshman Rakym Felder pinpointed a long pass down the floor to Notice who laid it in to make it 15-7. FIU cut the score to 19-14 after an Anthony Boswell 3 from the corner.

The Gamecocks then went on another 7-0 run as Notice knocked down a trey ball from the right wing to move the lead to double-digits at 26-14 with 5:07 left in the first half. Another Notice 3 with 3:54 left pushed him into double-figures on the score sheet

GAME 9 - SETON HALL 67, NO. 16/15 CAROLINA 64
DEC. 12, 2016/NEW YORK (MADISON SQUARE GARDEN)

NEW YORK - No. 16/15 South Carolina (8-1) suffered its first loss of the season Monday night, as it fell 67-64 in a hard-fought battle with Seton Hall (8-2) at Madison Square Garden in the Under Armour Reunion. Sophomore guard PJ Dozier led the Gamecocks with 20 points (9-of-19), marking his third-straight 20-point outing.

The Pirates jumped out to a 2-0 lead, but Carolina answered with a 7-0 run fueled by three turnovers (two steals) and four points from senior Justin McKie, who was making his second career start.

South Carolina's stifling defense forced six turnovers in the game's opening eight minutes. Seton Hall's Myles Powell hit a 3 to end a three minute scoring drought for the Pirates, but sophomore Chris Silva answered with an offensive board and put back to give the Gamecocks a 14-13 lead with 10:57 remaining in the opening half.

It was a physical first period, as both teams would be in the bonus with 10:17 left. Senior guard Duane Notice popped to the wing and hit Carolina's first 3 of the game with 8:29 left to make it 19-17. A Dozier steal and layup pushed it to 21-17, forcing a timeout by Seton Hall head coach Kevin Willard with 7:32 left. The steal was the Gamecocks 10th forced turnover of the half.

Two free throws by freshman forward Sedee Keita pushed Carolina's run to 7-0 and made the score 23-17 with 7:10 left. Dozier then drove to the hole on the Gamecocks' ensuing possession and spun away from the hoop to hit a smooth, fade away jumper, extending the run to 9-0. The made basket gave Carolina its biggest lead of the first half at 25-17 with 6:54 remaining.

The Pirates leading scorer Khadeen Carrington hit a contested 3 with 2:31 left to cut Carolina's lead to 29-26. Sophomore guard Hassani Gravett answered back with a long ball of his own to push the lead back to six with 1:43 left. Dozier slashed to the hoop and scored just before the half to put the Gamecocks up 34-27 at the break.

South Carolina ended the first half with a 22-6 edge in points in the paint. The Gamecocks held Seton Hall to just 26 percent shooting (7-of-27) in the first half after forcing 13 turnovers and notching eight steals. Dozier led all scorers at halftime with 12 points on 6-of-10 shooting.

The team's exchanged baskets early in the second half, as the Gamecocks led 40-35 at the under 16 media timeout with 15:43 on the clock. A Seton Hall dunk from Desi Rodriguez after the timeout cut it to three, but Carolina was again able to answer as Gravett knocked down a jumper from the left wing.

Seton Hall then went on a 5-0 run to tie the game at 42-42 with 14:37 left. Dozier followed with a 3, however, when he took the extra pass from Notice and connected from the corner to make it 45-42. The 3 was his third-straight made basket. With the shot clock dwindling, Gravett then hit a deep 3 on the ensuing possession to make it 48-43 Gamecocks with 13:38 left.

The Pirates clawed back into it and took their first lead at 49-48 since midway through the first half on a made free throw by Myles Powell with 12:23 remaining. The game would be tight and back-and-forth the rest of the way.

After Seton Hall jumped ahead 57-55 after a made free throw by Delgado, Dozier made a tough hoop to tie it back up at 57-57 with 6:02 left. Delgado answered the basket with a dunk to put the Pirates back in front 59-57 with 4:32 left in the ball game. McKie came up with a huge steal and nailed a 3 from the corner to put Carolina back ahead 60-59 with 3:53 left on the clock.

Carrington knocked down another midrange jump shot to put the Pirates ahead 63-60 with 2:05 left. Rodriguez then went 1-of-2 at the charity stripe to make it 64-60 with 1:49 left. Sophomore forward Maik Kotsar made a big shot from the left wing on the ensuing possession to cut Seton Hall's lead to 64-62 with 1:34 remaining.

McKie then made another big time defensive play for the Gamecocks stealing it away from Rodriguez with 31 seconds left. He was fouled and headed to the line with a 1-and-1 chance to tie it up. The senior was clutch, knocking down both free throws to tie it at 64-64. Rodriguez took it hard to the hole and scored a contested layup to put the Pirates ahead 66-64 with 11 seconds left. Dozier got off a solid look from 3 with 3 seconds left, but could not knock it down. Carolina fouled and Rodriguez made 1-of-2 from the line. Dozier launched a full-court heave that rattled in-and-out as time expired for the Seton Hall win.

TAMPA, Fla. - No. 16/15 South Carolina (9-1) notched its first true road win of the season, 77-66, at South Florida (5-4) on Saturday afternoon. Sophomore PJ Dozier tallied a new career-high 23 points (9-of-18), marking his fourth-straight game with 20-plus. Senior Duane Notice hit four 3-pointers in the second half and finished with 15.

Carolina won the opening tip and jumped out to a 9-6 lead after a Maik Kotsar layup with 16:36 left. The freshman from Tallin, Estonia started the game 3-for-3 from the field with six points. The Gamecocks led 9-8 at the first media timeout with 15:48 left.

The Bulls then went on a 9-0 run to take a 17-12 lead that was capped off with a 3-point play by Geno Thorpe just before the second media timeout with 11:58 left. Carolina countered with a 6-0 run to regain the lead 18-17, forcing a timeout by USF head coach Orlando Antigua with 9:53 left.

The Bulls switched to a 2-3 zone as the Gamecocks had missed seven-straight shots from behind the arc. Freshman Rakym Felder ended the drought from long range and knocked down back-to-back 3s to put South Carolina ahead 24-21.. Jahmal McMurray then hit consecutive 3-pointers to put USF back in front 29-27 at the final media timeout of the first half with 3:47 left.

The Gamecocks trailed by six at the break, 37-31, as the Bulls ended the opening period on a 14-4 run. Felder (3-for-6 from 3) and sophomore PJ Dozier (4-for-9) led Carolina in half one with nine points each. Kotsar had seven points and led the team with four rebounds. McMurray led all scorers with 15 at the break (5-of-10, 2-2 from 3). USF held a 26-17 edge on the glass at halftime.

Back-to-back 3s by Notice brought the Gamecocks within two at the under-16 media timeout with 15:45 left in the second half. A Silva dunk and two Felder free throws put the Gamecocks back ahead, 48-46, with 14:47 to go. A Dozier steal and layup by senior Justin McKie then put Carolina up four, forcing a timeout by the Bulls with 12:16 left.

Dozier threw down a transition dunk after the timeout to cap a 9-0 run for the Gamecocks, which put them ahead 57-51. USF clawed back into it and pulled within one at 57-56 after consecutive 3s by McMurray with 9:03 left. McKie answered with a 3 on the ensuing possession after an offensive board by freshman Khadim Gueye.

After a Dozier made 3 with 5:23 left, Carolina began to pull away. With the shot clock dwindling, the Gamecocks swung the ball around the perimeter and Notice hit his fourth 3 of the second half to put Carolina up nine, 72-63 with 3:05 left. The Gamecocks would lead by eight or more the rest of the way en route to the 77-66 victory.

Felder and Dozier tied for the team lead with five assists, as Carolina matched a season-high 18 assists on the day. Kotsar led the way on the glass for the Gamecocks, snagging nine rebounds. McKie recorded a new career-high with four steals to lead the team.

Sophomore guard Hassani Gravett pushed the ball ahead and brought the Gamecock faithful to their feet after scoring in transition to tie the game at 25-25 with 2:04 left in the opening half. Clemson ended a 2:43 scoring drought with a pair of Elijah Thomas free throws moments later to regain the lead 27-25.

The Tigers held a 29-25 edge as the horn sounded at the end of the first half. Dozier led all scorers at the break with 13 points on 5-of-8 shooting. He was 2-for-2 from 3. GAME 13 - MEMPHIS 70, -/25 CAROLINA 54
DEC. 30, 2016/FEDEXFORUM/MEMPHIS, TENN.

MEMPHIS, Tenn. - The South Carolina men's basketball team dropped a 70-54 decision at Memphis (10-4) Friday night in its final game of 2016. Three Gamecocks reached double figures in scoring, but a season-low shooting percentage and a season-high 30 fouls stunted the offense. PJ Dozier led the team with 13 points in 24 minutes of action.

Both teams battled self-inflicted woes in the opening 10 minutes of the game, as South Carolina (10-3) shot well from the field but were held back by foul troubles and nine turnovers, and Memphis hit just four of its first 17 attempts. A jumper by PJ Dozier made it 15-12 in the Gamecocks' favor with 11:23 to play, but the Tigers countered with an 11-0 run over the next four minutes for their first lead of the night. Following the Dozier basket, Carolina ended the half just 3-of-14 from then on, but took advantage of a Memphis scoring spell late in the period to cut what once was a 10-point deficit down to five points at the buzzer.

Memphis took a 33-28 lead into the break, powered by 11 points from Markel Crawford. The guard accounted for almost half of his team's total field goals (five out of 11), as the Tigers shot 39 percent from the floor but made up for that with 10 free throws. South Carolina was led by six points from Chris Silva and five points from Hassani Gravett and Dozier, but were unable to keep a consistent lineup on the floor thanks to 13 team fouls that saddled four different players with two fouls in the period.

The Gamecocks were able to trim the lead back to one possession, 39-38, eight minutes in to the second half thanks to a 7-1 run. Memphis struck back with an 11-3 run over the next three minutes to ward off the Gamecock momentum, using five straight missed field goals from South Carolina to maintain the lead.

Foul trouble started to weight heavily on the Gamecocks as the final period wore on. Leading rebounder Chris Silva picked up his fifth foul with six minutes to go, and leading scorer Dozier took a seat as well just two minutes later. The Tigers pulled away late from the free throw line and took its largest lead of the game to the final buzzer, 70-54.

GAME 15 - NO. -/RV CAROLINA 79, TEXAS A&M 68
JAN. 7, 2017/COLONIAL LIFE ARENA

COLUMBIA, S.C. - South Carolina (12-3, 2-0 SEC) posted a double-digit win in its SEC home opener Saturday afternoon, after defeating a tough Texas A&M (8-6, 0-3 SEC) team 79-68. Senior guard Duane Notice and freshman guard Rakym Felder each scored 19 points to lead Carolina. The duo combined for seven of the team's nine 3s in the game.

Carolina trailed A&M 9-7 at the first media timeout with 15:54 left in the opening half. The Gamecocks struggled to shoot the ball early after going 3-of-13 (23 percent) in the game's first five minutes. Senior Sindarius Thornwell had five of the team's first seven points.

The shooting woes (3-for-19) continued for the Gamecocks up until the next media timeout with 11:45 left as the Aggies pushed their lead to 13-9. Carolina kept the game tight on the defensive end, forcing five early turnovers.

The lead was cut to 20-17 after a couple of 3-balls from freshman Rakym Felder with 10:06 on the clock. Another 3-pointer tied the game with 8:55 left, as the Gamecocks swung the ball around the perimeter to Notice who was wide open on the outside.

A&M extended the lead back to the three at the next media timeout with 5:09 left. The Aggies shot the ball well in the early goings, as they were 13-for-20 (65 percent) from the floor. Sophomore Chris Silva led the Gamecocks to that point with seven points.

The Aggies pushed the lead to seven, 33-26, after a made 3 by DJ Hogg with 4:37 to go before the break, but a Notice 3 cut the deficit to 33-31 with 2:15 on the clock. Felder followed with a steal and transition layup at the opposite end and a made free throw after being fouled, which capped an 8-0 run as Carolina regained the lead for the first time since the beginning of the game.

The Gamecocks led by one, 36-35, after a pair of Notice free throws with four seconds left. Hogg was able to get off a deep 3 as time expired. The shot banked in as A&M took a 38-36 lead at the break. Notice led Carolina at halftime with 10. Silva and Felder each had nine. Hogg led all scorers at the break with 14. Carolina's defense forced a season-high 15 turnovers in the first half, leading to 16 points.

The Gamecocks opened the second half on a 7-0 run jumping out to a 43-38 lead. They led 45-40 at the first media timeout with 15:31 to go. A pair of 3s by Notice and Felder then forced Aggie head coach Billy Kennedy to take a timeout with 14:07 on the clock, as Carolina led by its biggest margin of the game, 51-43.

Texas A&M then went on a run of its own, as a Hogg jumper trimmed the lead to just two, 56-54, with 10:23 left. The score remained 56-54 until the next media timeout with 7:54 to go in the game. The Aggies then retook the lead 59-58 with seven minutes left after a made 3 from the right wing by Tony Trocha-Morelos.

The Gamecocks quickly regained the lead 65-59 after a 7-0 run with 5:46 left. A putback by Thornwell extended the margin to 69-61 with 4:21 to go. With 3:02 left, Thornwell then threw a no-look dart to the right corner where a wide-open PJ Dozier was spotting up. Dozier knocked down the 3 to put Carolina ahead by 11, 72-61, its biggest lead of the game. Hogg answered on the ensuing possession with a 3 and Carolina led by eight, 72-64, at the final media timeout.

Freshman Rakym Felder knocked down a 3 from the corner to put the Gamecocks on the board with 12:27 on the clock, and the score remained 4-3 until the next media timeout.

Right out of the media timeout, Felder connected on another 3, this one from the right wing to give the Gamecocks their first lead of the night, 6-4, with 11:32 remaining in the half. South Carolina's first three hoops came from behind the arch, as senior Justin McKie knocked down a long-ball with 10:22 left to make it 9-6.

A free throw by freshman Maik Kotsar put the Gamecocks in front 31-30 with 13:35 on the clock, giving the team its first lead since the 10:22 mark of the opening half.

An and-1 transition bucket by Thornwell gave the Gamecocks their largest lead of the game, 35-30, at the under 12 media timeout with 11:58 to go. The Carolina defense held Florida scoreless for 5:44 to that point with their last point coming at the free throw line at the 17:42 mark. Florida came within one, 52-51, but Thornwell knocked down two huge free throws on the ensuing possession to make it 54-51 with 53 seconds to go.

The Gators came within one again after a bucket by Chris Chiozza with 40 seconds remaining. Carolina turned to Dozier to make a play on the next possession. The Columbia, S.C., native answered the bell and took it hard to the rack from the left wing and kissed in a contested left-handed layup to make it 56-53 with 22 seconds left. The Gamecocks forced a turnover on the next possession and Thornwell hit a big free throw to make it a two-possession game, 57-53, with 16 seconds left.

The Tigers went on a 5-0 run to cut the deficit to 10, but two baskets by senior Sindarius Thornwell made it 22-8, forcing a timeout by LSU head coach Johnny Jones with 11:42 left in the opening half.

The timeout was unsuccessful in halting Carolina's momentum, as an and-1 play by Notice pushed the lead to 20 for the first time, 30-9, with 8:46 on the clock. The three-point play capped an 8-0 run for the Gamecocks, as they led 32-14 at the under eight media timeout. GAME 23 - 19/20 CAROLINA 77, GEORGIA 75
FEB. 4, 2017/COLONIAL LIFE ARENA

COLUMBIA, S.C. - Paced by sophomore guard PJ Dozier's seventh 20-point game of the season and four 3-pointers each from seniors Sindarius Thornwell and Duane Notice, No. 19/20 Carolina held off Georgia to register a 77-75 win Saturday afternoon at Colonial Life Arena. The victory improved the Gamecocks' record to 19-4 and 9-1 in the SEC and kept them unbeaten at home in conference action. Georgia dropped to 13-10 overall and 4-6 in league play following the loss.

Dozier finished with a game-high 21 points, including five over the final 1:52 to help Carolina hold off Georgia's late rally. Thornwell chipped in 18 points, while Notice added 15 for a Gamecock backcourt unit that accounted for 68 of Carolina's points Saturday. The Gamecocks shot 45.8 percent from the 3-point line and knocked down 11 field goals from beyond the arc for the game. A strong defensive showing in the second half keyed Carolina's victory, as the Bulldogs were held without a field goal for a stretch of over eight minutes in the final period.

The two offenses began to get into a rhythm in a back-and-forth final 10 minutes of the half. Notice netted his second field goal of the afternoon in style, delivering a three-point play from the right block, and Dozier's jumper answered a Georgia 3-pointer and gave the Gamecocks a 24-23 lead with just over eight minutes remaining in the half. The Bulldogs' seventh-straight made-field goal resulted in a three-point play and put Georgia in front 28-26 before a great drive inside from Thornwell set the guard up for a tough left-handed layup and made it 28-28 with 4:16 to play in the period. The basket put the senior in double-figures with 11 for the Gamecocks, whose backcourt provided all of Carolina's points in the opening 20 minutes.

Sparked by Dozier, the Gamecocks called 10 of the half's final 16 points to pull even with the Bulldogs at the break. The sophomore's layup cut the Bulldog lead to 32-30, and his fourth field goal of the half made it 35-34 Gamecocks with just over a minute left in the half. Dozier capped off the impressive stretch with a 3-pointer off a kick-out pass from redshirt sophomore guard Hassani Gravett to put Carolina ahead 38-36 before Bulldog guard J.J. Frazier converted a pair of free throws to send the two teams into the locker room tied at 38. Thornwell and Dozier totaled 11 points each in the half for a Carolina team that shot 7-of-13 from the 3-point line in the first period.

The Gamecock backcourt continued to answer the call from long range out of the break, and Notice's third 3-pointer established a 44-40 Carolina lead with just over three minutes gone in the second half. The Bulldogs battled back with six-straight points to take a 46-44 lead, but Notice again delivered from the corner. The guard, who knocked in at least three 3-pointers for the eighth time this season, connected on a shot from beyond the arc from the left side to put the Gamecocks back in front 47-46 with 14:29 to play. Felder brought the Carolina fans to their feet less than two minutes later after using a pump fake to get into the lane and bank home a nifty layup that made it 49-48 Gamecocks in the tightly contested affair.

The contest remained a one-possession game, and another Georgia free throw pulled the Bulldogs even at 51 as the teams headed into the final 10 minutes. Freshman forward Malik Kotsar displayed great touch down low with a turnaround jumper from the left block that made it 53-51 Gamecocks and provided the start of an 8-0 Carolina run. The Gamecock free throws over the next 90 seconds produced the largest lead of the game for Carolina as 56-51, and momentum continued to shift towards the home side when Thornwell drilled a 3-pointer to stretch the advantage to 59-51 with 7:30 to play. Thornwell supplied another big play less than two minutes later when the senior swiped the ball away and made a layup on the other end to give the Gamecocks a 61-54 cushion with just over six minutes remaining in the game.

Georgia's points continued to come from the charity stripe, and two free throws from Frazier cut the Gamecock lead to 62-58 with 4:37 left. Carolina responded with two free throws from Kotsar to push the lead to 64-58 before the Gamecocks again seized control via the 3-point line. Senior guard Justin McKie knocked down the shot, finding the bottom of the net from the left side to make it 67-58 late in the contest. The Bulldogs' first field goal in over eight minutes made it 67-60, and Georgia inched closer when it converted a three-point play to cut the lead to 69-63 with just over two minutes remaining. The Bulldogs would not go away, as they came to within four of the lead at 73-69 with 26 seconds to play following a jumper from Frazier and a free throw by guard William Jackson II.

The contest became a one-possession game at 74-71 when Jackson II laid it in, and Georgia cut the Carolina advantage to 75-73 on another basket from Frazier. The Gamecocks' ensuing in-bounds pass sent the ball to McKie, who headed to the line after being fouled with just six seconds remaining. The senior calmly connected on both attempts from the charity stripe to make it 77-73, and Georgia's tip-in following its missed 3-pointer with a second remaining was not enough to make up the difference.

Carolina shot 43.3 percent from the floor for the afternoon and scored 16 points off 15 Georgia turnovers. Saturday's game featured 18 lead changes, with neither team able to build a double-digit lead throughout the contest.
