LAST TIME OUT

The Thundering Herd placed second at the Aces ProRehab Classic in Evansville, Ind. After losing the first game of the Classic to Bradley, 4-0, the Herd was able to turn things around and win 1-0 over host Evansville in the final game of the tournament. A 38th minute goal by Sophomore Daniel Jodah (Mississauga, Ontario) was enough to lift the Herd to its first victory of 2014 right before C-USA action.

SCOUTING THE GAMECOCKS

South Carolina improved to a 4-3-0 record after its Tuesday night 2-1 win over UNC Greensboro. The Gamecocks have a record of 4-1 at home heading into the Friday match against the Herd. Kurtis Turner and Ive Burnett lead the team with two goals apiece.

South Carolina has scored 9 goals off of 102 shots. In contrast, the Herd has just 67 shots and three goals. Last season's result was a 0-0 tie after two overtime periods in Huntington.

THE GRAY AREA

Marshall coach Bob Gray on South Carolina Game

"South Carolina is a quality team and always has been. They got off to a really good start. Their coach and I go way back. They have great facilities, some of the best in the nation."

"Having our first Conference USA game on the road will be difficult, but we have some momentum now after finally getting that good win against Evansville. Our motto is to fight and try to compete for a win or draw, because a point on the road to start out with wouldn't be bad at all."

FINALLY VICTORIOUS

Marshall picked up its first win against Evansville 1-0 in the Aces ProRehab Soccer Classic on Sept. 21. Last season, the Herd picked up its only two wins on Sept. 15 and 17 against IPFW and VMI.

HE'S PRETTY GOOD, EH?

Sophomore Midfielder Daniel Jodah (Mississauga, Ontario) scored his first career Marshall goal and first game winning goal against Evansville Sept. 21. Jodah tallied four assists last season as a true freshman.

ROAD WARRIORS

Marshall has played just one true road game coming into the South Carolina match, beating Evansville 1-0 in the final match of the Aces ProRehab Classic.

YOUNG GUNS

Nine Marshall newcomers have started a game this season, with a total of 27 starts combined. Freshman Christian Kershaw (Severna Park, MD) has started all six games for the Herd this season, while defender Cory Shimensky (Kent, OH) has started five of six matches.

PRESEASON C-USA RANKINGS

The Herd was picked to finish 8th in the preseason Conference USA coaches poll. Last season's College Cup Final Four participant New Mexico earned the most first place votes with 7.

1. New Mexico (7)
2. Charlotte (1)
3. UAB (1)
4. Old Dominion
5. South Carolina
6. Kentucky
7. FIU
8. Marshall
9. Florida Atlantic

HOME SWEET HOOPS

In its first season at Hoops Family Field at Veterans Memorial Soccer Complex, the Herd won its only two games of the season at home. The team went on to post a 2-4-4 record at home, defeating IPFW and VMI, while earning draws against Bowling Green, Northern Kentucky, South Carolina and Tulsa.

YOUNG BLOOD

The 2014 squad is loaded with young talent as 19 of the 27 team roster spots are made up of freshmen and sophomores. Last season's number was high as well, with 20 of 28 players listed as freshmen and sophomores.

ROAD STRETCH

After starting with four straight games at home, the Herd has four straight road or neutral road games.

SCHEDULE OVERALL

The Herd is 51-63-12 all-time against its 2014 regular season opponents coming into the season (.452 percent winning percentage.) The Herd played preseason opponent Bowling Green (4-7-3) and regular season opponent Appalachian State (3-16-4) in the program's inaugural 1979 season. The most contested match-up on the 2014 schedule is the game against Kentucky on Oct. 12 (14-15-3).

HOME GROWN

Not lacking on home state talent, the Herd have 4 natives from the state of West Virginia, all of which are underclassmen heading into the season. (Ian Lovern, Trevor Starcher, Austin Ballengee and Tommy Trupo)

INTERNATIONAL FLAVOR

Just like in years past, the squad has a dose of international flavor as 9 members of the 2014 team are from outside of the United States. Countries include: Serbia (Goran Bratic), New Zealand (Scott Doney, Nick Edginton), Croatia (Ivan Sekulic), Germany (Dominik Reining), Australia (Alex Nelson), Canada (Daniel Jodah), England (Ryan Forde) and France (Arthur Duchesne).

STRENGTH OF SCHEDULE

Plays 4 teams this season that made the NCAA tournament; New Mexico, Old Dominion, Charlotte and Bradley. Of those 4 teams, New Mexico reached the College Cup semifinals before losing 2-0 to Champion Notre Dame. Two teams New Mexico (5) and Charlotte (18) were ranked in the top 25 of the final 2013 rankings.

NEW TEAMS ON SCHEDULE

The Herd will start two new series in 2014, with games against Bradley and Evansville in the Pro Rehab Classic in Evansville, Ind. (Sept. 19-21) on the schedule. The Bradley Braves finished last season with a 14-7-2 record and advanced to the NCAA tournament, while Evansville finished the season with a 10-8-1 record.

THE LONE SENIOR

Goalkeeper Danny Sellitti (Las Vegas, NV) is the lone senior on the 2014 team. Sellitti made 10 starts for the Herd in goal last season, earning a 2-5-3 record and recording 32 saves on the season.

POSTSEASON DROUGHT

After having made three consecutive postseason appearances in 2007, 2008 and 2009, the Herd have made the postseason on just one occasion in the past four seasons (2011).

EXPERIENCE APLENTY

Marshall head man Bob Gray enters his 20th season at Marshall and his 38th year as a head coach. Gray has amassed 424 career wins (169 at Marshall). With the 20 seasons from Gray, the Herd coaching staff has a combined 29 seasons of coaching experience with the Marshall program. The other experience comes from Thomas Olivier (six seasons - Assistant), and Alex Fatovic (three seasons - Assistant).

RETURNING FIREPOWER

The Herd returns 46 percent of its goal production (6/13) and 87 percent of its assist production (6/8) from the 2013 season. Jack Hopkins (3) is the returning leader for goals scored, while Trevor Starcher, Ben Holt and Nick Edginton scored 1 goal each last season. Daniel Jodah (4) and Ben Holt (2) are the two returning players that notched assists last season.

DEPTH DEFENSIVELY

Four players listed as defenders have more than 10 career starts at Marshall. Juniors Jack Hopkins (28), Nick Edginton (27) and Matt Freeman (26) and sophomore James Campbell (11) will bring plenty of game experience to a Herd team that lost back-line captain Travis Brent, who started all but five career games while at Marshall.

2013 RECAP

On a team with 14 newcomers and 14 returning players, the Herd struggled in 2013. The team finished the season with a record of 2-11-6 and failed to win a Conference USA game for the first time in program history.

2014 PLAYER ZONE

BUILT FORDE TOUGH

Sophomore Ryan Forde (London, England) scored his first career goal for the Thundering Herd in the Sept. 7 game against Liberty from a penalty kick. Forde's goal in the 32nd minute snapped the team's 232 minute scoring streak to start the season. Forde, who transferred to Marshall from Concord University in Athens, W.Va., has started all three games for the Herd this season.

DONEY ON TARGET

Freshman forward Scott Doney (Tauranga, New Zealand) scored his first career Marshall goal, the equalizer in the draw against Liberty.

FREEMAN BREAKS ASSIST DROUGHT

Junior Matt Freeman (Irmo, SC) recorded the game tying assist in the 2-2 draw against Liberty. That's Freeman's first assist since Radford (W 1-0) in 2012, a span of 32 games between assists.

COOL REINING

Freshman Goalkeeper Dominik Reining (Frankfurt, Germany) stepped into the opening match of the season against Duquesne in the 76th minute of a scoreless match. Reining then went on to make 4 saves over the next 34 minutes, helping the Herd earn a 0-0 tie after two overtime periods. Reining has since gone on to earn another tie against Liberty, recording 4 saves in that game.

CAPTAIN JACK RETURNS

Junior Jack Hopkins (Birmingham, Ala.) is the returning leader in both goals (3) and points (6) from last season. Hopkins scored in consecutive games against Wright State and Cleveland State in 2013, then recorded his final goal of the season against Bowling Green.

FORMER CAPTAIN BRENT SIGNS PRO CONTRACT IN HOLLAND

Last season's captain, Travis Brent, has signed a professional contract with the team Heracles Almelo in the Netherlands. The team competes in the top Dutch League, the Eredivisie, and finished 14th out of 18 teams in 2014.

Brent (Virginia Beach, Va.) was a defender with Marshall, normally playing as an outside back. He made 67 appearances while with the Herd, starting 64.

“We wanted to have one of the nicest soccer facilities in the country and in Conference USA, and we’re going to have that. It’s going to mean a lot to our soccer programs, and I think we’ll have more interest in Herd soccer than ever before.”
-Mike Hamrick, Marshall Athletic Director

About Veterans Memorial Soccer Complex

The main entrance plaza, at the corner of Fifth and 26th, is done in sections like that of a soccer ball. A sign similar to the one at the corner of Fifth and 20th - next to the Marshall Recreation Center - will grace the plaza along with plantings.

The site was the home of the Veterans Memorial Field House for more than six decades. The Herd’s aged former basketball home had fallen into disrepair - but the memorial panel to veterans that graced the side of the old arena was preserved and hangs at the main entrance of the soccer stadium off Fifth Avenue.

The main entrance to the 1,006-seat stadium includes a brick plaza.

The facility features a glass-door entrance from the field into the equipment room. Also, the men’s and women’s teams have their own locker rooms, training rooms and lounges. There also are visiting team and officials’ locker rooms.

The Herd head coaches and assistant coaches also will have their own offices, in addition to space for graduate assistants and a conference room.

Atop the stadium sits a large pressbox area that will accommodate TV, radio and print outlets.

Throughout the soccer building, walls are highlighted by sections of Kelly green, and rows of textured block bring definition to the walls.

The project, in excess of $8 million, is one of the products of the ongoing Vision Campaign for Marshall University Athletics.
