Head Coach :: Duke, 2001 :: 5th year at South Carolina

Kalen Harris enters her fifth year as the head coach of the South Carolina women's golf team on a high note - as the defending NCAA East Regional Champion.

Harris led the Gamecocks to their first regional title in 2010 as the team posted an even-par total of 864, holding off Tennessee by two strokes to earn a second NCAA Championship berth in three years - not a bad start for the 2001 Duke graduate in her initial head coaching position.

Harris earned that job when South Carolina tabbed her to mentor its program in January 2008. She joined the Gamecocks after two years as an assistant at Duke, where she had an All-American career as a player, and a four-year stint as a professional on the FUTURES Tour. And her philosophy on coaching has led to immediate success for the Carolina program.

"I am dedicated to building a championship program at the University of South Carolina," Harris said. "The Gamecock women's golf team is committed to achieving short-game and scoring game excellence, and our much of our practice time reflects this goal. I also place a strong emphasis on building individual relationships and finding what motivates players on an individual level. I focus on individual skill development within a competitive, supportive team environment. I bring intensity to practices and training, while also creating a structure that allows players to lead a balanced life as a student-athlete."

In four seasons at South Carolina, Harris has overseen a seamless, successful transition from the previous coaching staff, highlighted by the program's first tournament title in five years at the 2010 NCAA East Regional. In addition, two players have earned All-America accolades, equaling the number of All-Americans in program history prior to her arrival.

Under Harris, the Gamecocks have advanced to three NCAA Championships in four seasons; the program had appeared in the NCAA Championship a total of eight times since

Personal

Given Name: Kalen Marie Anderson
Born: August 8, 1978 in St. Paul, Minn.
High School: Edina High in Edina, Minn.

1980 before her arrival in 2008.

What was thought to be a rebuilding year in 2011 - one junior, two sophomores and three freshmen comprised the entire Carolina roster - turned into unforeseen success as the Gamecocks battled through being shipped to the West Coast for their NCAA Regional to finish in sixth place and earn their third NCAA Championship berth in four years. Freshmen Suzie Lee and Samantha Swinehart led the charge at the West Regional in Auburn, Wash., tying for 15th place after battling through cold, wind and rain for three days. The team would finish in 18th place at the NCAA Championships in College Station, Texas, setting the stage for what could be a very strong 2011-12 campaign.

The 2010 season was a banner year for Anderson and the Gamecocks, capped by the team's second NCAA Championship appearance in three years where they earned a tie for 14th place. This followed Katie Burnett's and the Gamecocks' triumph at the NCAA East Regional in Greenville, N.C., where Burnett earned medalist honors in leading Carolina to the regional title.

In 2009, her first full season at Carolina, the team grew together as the season progressed and earned a spot in the NCAA East Regional in Gainesville, Fla. Highlighting the year was Benedicte Toumpsin's tie for medalist honors at the LSU Golf Classic and the emergence of a freshman star in Katie Burnett.

Her first season in 2008, Harris guided the Gamecocks into the NCAA Championship for the first time since 2003. Team leader Bénédicte Toumpsin earned third-team All-America status from Golfweek and an honorable mention All-America nod from the National Golf Coaches Association, becoming South Carolina's first All-American since Kristy McPherson earned the honor for the third time in her career in 2003.

Harris joined the staff of Duke's Hall of Fame head coach Dan Brooks in the spring of 2006 and helped the Blue Devils to their second-straight national title. Duke went on to add a third title in 2007. Duke also claimed back-to-back Atlantic Coast Conference championships in her time on staff. Anderson was the designated coach during several tournaments and saw four Blue Devils earn All-America status in 2006, including three first-team selections.

"In coaching, we work on skills and techniques during practice, so when we get to tournament play, my major role is to help players keep a positive attitude and stay in the right frame of mind to let their hard work and talent shine," Harris said. "In addition to being a resource to help players make smart decisions during competition, I like to use humor to keep them loose while also pushing them toward productivity."

Outside of tournament play, Harris focused on short game, course management and mental coaching with her players. She helped three-time All-ACC selection Jennifer Pandolfi raise her short game from 431st in the nation in December 2005 to 84th in April 2007, while her chipping stats improved from 341st to 15th over the same period. Additionally, Harris helped personalize fitness plans for players and actively participated in team workouts.

Off the course, Harris was just as involved with shaping college players. At Duke, she assisted in arranging community service opportunities and monitored academic progress. She designed practices and skill sets, arranged team travel, ordered and managed equipment and uniforms, and assisted in fundraising projects for the Blue Devils. Anderson also worked hard as a recruiter, evaluating top-ranked prospects on the state, national and international level. Organizing and leading recruiting visits, she helped the Blue Devils land the top golfer in the class of 2008.

"I am extremely grateful to have had the opportunity to be mentored by Coach Brooks and be part of an elite program both as a player and a coach," Harris said. "My many experiences at Duke have taught me how to keep players motivated, excited about golf and focused on attaining their goals. I will draw on that experience to help build South Carolina women's golf into a championship program."

Prior to her start in coaching, Harris played golf professionally from 2001 through 2005. She played a total of 56 events on the FUTURES Tour, recording her best finish at the 2002 Florida Hospital FUTURES Golf Classic in Sebring, Fla., where she tied for fourth. Harris also participated in four LPGA Qualifying Schools and played in the 2000 U.S. Women's Open. While playing, she also worked to network and generate sponsorships to support her career, raising $120,000 of capital.

Harris kicked off her college career by earning Atlantic Coast Conference co-Rookie of the Year honors in 1998. Playing in the NCAA Championship all four years of her career, she helped the Blue Devils to their first national title in 1999, finishing 12th in the individual standings. She captured All-ACC and Academic All-America honors that year, a feat she would repeat over the remaining two years of her career. With the nation's top-rated total short game in 2000, Harris picked up second-team All-America status. Finishing ninth in the NCAA Regional in 2000, she was the Blue Devils' top finisher at the NCAA Championship, claiming 21st place. In all, Harris collected 16 top-10 finishes in her career, including the individual title in the 2001 Liz Murphey Intercollegiate.

A native of Edina, Minn., Harris earned her bachelor's degree in psychology with a certificate in markets and management from Duke in 2001. She is married to Deuce Harris of Durham, N.C., a former wrestler at Duke University.

As a player at Duke, Harris was a three-time All-ACC selection. She earned second-team All-America status in 2000 and was part of Duke's first national championship team in 1999.

Puggy Blackmon

Director of Golf :: Carson-Newman, 1973 :: 17th year at South Carolina

After 12 seasons at the helm of the South Carolina men's golf program, Puggy Blackmon was named director of golf in July 2007. Blackmon, who was inducted to the Golf Coaches' Association of America Hall of Fame in 2005 and the Georgia Tech Hall of Fame in 2008, is now the unifying presence for Carolina golf, sharing his wealth of knowledge with both the men's and women's teams. His experience building both successful teams and players will help both teams continue to improve and compete at a national level. Since the 2008-09 season, Blackmon has spent the bulk of his time as an assistant coach for the women's team, implementing a short-game program that led the Gamecocks to their first NCAA Regional title in 2010.

As a head coach at South Carolina and Georgia Tech, Blackmon steered his teams to 23 straight trips to NCAA postseason, including all 12 seasons he coached the Gamecocks. At South Carolina, eight of his 12 NCAA Regional berths resulted in NCAA Championship appearances. South Carolina golf won nine team tournament titles in Blackmon's tenure, including the 2007 NCAA West Regional. The Gamecocks have spent a considerable amount of time in the national polls, including a No. 3 national ranking in 1999 and fourth in 2000.

Under Blackmon's tutelage, Gamecocks captured 11 individual titles, including five from All-American Kyle Thompson. Six golfers earned 10 All-America honors, and 11 Gamecocks were named to 17 All-Southeastern Conference first or second teams. Blackmon also coached two SEC Freshmen of the Year (Mark Anderson, 2005 and Eric Ecker, 1998) and an SEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year (West Streib, 2005).

In Blackmon's final season at the helm of the men's program, the team celebrated with a victory at the 2007 NCAA West Regional, during which the team's total of 820 shattered the school record for a 54-hole tournament by 25 strokes. In arguably the most important event of the season, Blackmon's golfers posted just two scores over par among the 15 rounds played. George Bryan IV led the way en route to PING All-Southeast Region and honorable mention All-America honors at season's end.

Blackmon's players excelled academically as well. The men's golf team posted the highest team grade point average of any of the school's men's programs for three consecutive semesters in the spring of 2005, fall of 2005 and spring of 2006. Former Gamecock Lars Cederqvist was named a 2000 CoSIDA Academic All-American as a senior after maintaining a 4.0 in mechanical engineering throughout his collegiate career. Eight different golfers have earned 10 GCAA All-America Scholar honors while 40 players have been named to the SEC Academic Honor Roll.

In addition to serving as director of golf at South Carolina, Blackmon serves as swing coach for PGA Tour players David Duval and Kyle Thompson.

Before coming to Carolina on June 5, 1995, Blackmon coached Georgia Tech to five Atlantic Coast Conference Championships, 11-consecutive NCAA Championship appearances and 34 team tournament titles.

During his 12-year tenure at Georgia Tech, Blackmon built the Yellow Jacket program into one of the most successful and dominant in college golf. At that time, only six other college golf programs had matched his program's 11 straight trips to the NCAA Tournament. Blackmon's Tech squad finished runner-up at the 1993 NCAA Championship, and he led the Ramblin' Wreck to five top-seven national finishes. His Georgia Tech teams either won or finished second in the ACC Championship nine times.

A four-time ACC Coach of the Year (1984, 1985, 1992, 1993), three of Blackmon's former golfers finished second at the NCAA Championships, and his players at South Carolina and Georgia Tech combined for 31 individual tournament crowns. Blackmon coached 31 All-Americans at Tech and Carolina and two national players of the year in the 1990s at Tech. Duval, a four-time All-American, was the 1993 National Player of the Year, while Stewart Cink, the 2009 British Open Champion, was named the 1995 National Player of the Year.

Blackmon has coached 30 All-SEC or All-ACC performers in his tenure, while five of those individuals -- Bob McDonnell (1985), David Duval (1991, 1993), Mikko Rantanen (1994) and Eric Ecker (1998) -- were conference medalists. The Yellow Jackets won the ACC team title in 1985, 1991, 1992, 1993 and 1994, while Carolina was runner up by one stroke at the 1998 SEC Championship -- USC's best finish ever. In addition, Blackmon coached his teams to 43 tournament titles and finished his coaching career with a streak of 23 straight postseason appearances at Carolina and Georgia Tech.

Blackmon has also proven to be an effective fundraiser, which is a role he has expanded as director of golf. At Carolina, Blackmon has orchestrated and raised funds for the Wardle Golf House, South Carolina's state-of-the-art teaching facility, and a complete renovation of the on-campus short-game facility. His creation of "Cock N' Fire" and "Head Ball Coach" wines have raised over $250,000 for the purchase of a conversion van and two mini-vans for the team's travel. Blackmon also spearheaded the efforts that raised $1.2 million for endowment of his team's scholarships at Georgia Tech.

Born William Dempsey Blackmon III on Dec. 9, 1950, in Beaufort, S.C., he is a 1969 graduate of Ridgeland High School. Blackmon played collegiately at Carson-Newman College, where he received his bachelor of arts in business administration in 1973. He was chosen one of the Outstanding College Athletes of America in 1971 and 1973. After receiving his master of science in economics from Clemson in 1977, Blackmon worked for six years in the golf resort operations and development field in Florida.

Blackmon and his wife, Gail, also a Ridgeland native, have three children: a daughter, Ashley, and two sons, Jordan and Tate. Ashley, a South Carolina and Medical School at South Carolina graduate, is a physician in Columbia and is married to Jared Jones; the couple has a daughter, Bailey Gail. Jordan is a USC graduate and pursuing a film career in California, and Tate is a current student at Midlands Tech.

Samantha Swinehart posted a final-round 75 (+3) with two bad holes - double-bogeys at 12 and 14 - the difference on the day. Fellow freshman Suzie Lee had a consistent week with rounds of 73-73-74=220 (+4) giving her a tie for 17th place. Also in a tie for 17th place was sophomore Meredith Swanson, who went 72-73-75=220 (+4). The team's third freshman, Katie Rose Higgins, was impressive as an individual with a final-round 73 (+1) that moved her up 13 spots to a tie for 45th place. CHAPEL HILL, N.C. - Junior Katie Burnett shot a 1-under-par 71 on the final day of the Tar Heel Invitational, leading a seven-shot turnaround for South Carolina and helping the Gamecocks to an 11th-place finish on Sunday. The Gamecocks posted their best team round of the week at 290 (+2) and moved up two spots to tie Louisville for 11th place with a three-round total of 291-297-290=878 (+14).

Burnett saw a three-shot improvement from a pair of 74s in the first two round in recording her third round in red numbers so far this season.

Katie Rose Higgins improved by one shot over her second-round effort with a 2-over-par 74 on Sunday. Following a double-bogey at No. 1, she rolled off seven straight pars before back-to-back birdies at the ninth and 10th to get her back to 1-over. Bogey at 11 and par at 12 gave her a 2-over-par day and a total score of 221 (+5). Fellow freshman Samantha Swinehart faltered a bit in her final round with a 79 (+7) that included a pair of birdies.

Alabama set a tournament record and ran away with the tournament title at 836 (-28), despite a final-round charge from top-ranked LSU who finished at 848 (-16). Duke finished third at 851 (-16). The Crimson Tide's Brooke Pancake took home medalist honors after winning on the second hole of a sudden-death playoff with LSU's Megan McChrystal; the pair tied at 205 (-11). Alabama's Camilla Lennarth was third at 206 (-10).

AUBURN, Ala. - Led by a career-best round from sophomore Amanda Strang, the South Carolina women's golf team recorded the low round of the day Sunday to finish fifth at the SEC Women's Championship. The Gamecocks shot a 287 (-1) in the final round to lead the field and move from eighth to fifth at the Auburn University Club, finishing with a 54-hole score of 893 (+29), one shot back of fourth-place Arkansas and six back of third-place LSU.

For South Carolina, the round of 287 marked the third-best round of the week overall and tied for the fifth-best 18-hole team score in school history. In SEC Championship play, only a round of 282 (-6) in the second round of the 2002 SEC Championship - which the Gamecocks won - stands ahead of today's effort at Auburn.

Strang, a sophomore from Jonstorp, Sweden, made it around the par 72, 6,364-yard layout in 3-under-par 69, a 14-shot improvement from the tournament's opening round Friday and the first time in her collegiate career to break 70 in a tournament round. Her previous best was a 70 in the first round of last season's NCAA East Regional. Strang jumped from a tie for 46th to a tie for 29th, one of her best tournament finishes of the year.

Freshman Suzie Lee, competing in her first SEC Championship, was the high finisher for South Carolina as she earned a tie for ninth place - her first career top-10 as a collegian - with her third straight round of 73 (+1) to finish the week at 219 (+3).

Another freshman, Katie Rose Higgins, improved by six shots from her second-round performance with an even-par 72. She would finish the week in a tie for 24th place.

Like Higgins, Katie Burnett improved by six shots on Sunday to post a 73 (+1) in her final round. She finished in a tie for 24th place at 227 (+11).

Samantha Swinehart had her best round of the week as well, shooting 75 (+3) in the final round to finish in a tie for 32nd place at 229 (+13).

Auburn was the wire-to-wire leader and captured its second SEC title in three years with an even-par 864, winning by 11 shots over Alabama. Tennessee's Erica Popson was the tournament medalist at 210 (-6), winning by one shot over 2009 champion Marta Silva Zamora of Georgia.

2010 NCAA East Regional Champions

South Carolina holds off Tennessee by two strokes to win first regional title in program history; Burnett shoots 210 (-6) to take medalist honors

GREENVILLE, N.C. – It finally all came together.

After going five years without a team tournament victory of any kind, the South Carolina women's golf team took down some of the nation's best teams in winning the NCAA East Regional on Saturday, posting a 54-hole score of 864 (E) to defeat Tennessee by two shots.

The key component of the Gamecocks' team victory came in the person of sophomore Katie Burnett, who shot a closing round of 71 (-1) to earn medalist honors for the first time in her collegiate career with a 3-day total of 210 (-6), one shot ahead of Auburn's Carlie Yadloczky.

"I'm really proud of them," coach Kalen Harris said. "They played really steady for three days, and played very well under really windy conditions today. We've been knocking on the door for a couple of tournaments now where they've been close and just haven't finished one, but they finished one at the right time (today) and I'm really proud of them."

The Gamecocks posted the best team round of the final day at 290 (+2) to overcome a five-shot deficit entering Saturday's third round. Duke, who led after two rounds of play, fell back to a tie for third after a closing round of 300 (+12). Tennessee, meanwhile, traded the lead with South Carolina and Duke for most of the day, but struggled down the stretch to post a final-day score of 296 (+8).

Carolina traded the lead back and forth with Duke, Tennessee, Auburn and Pepperdine throughout the day, but it appeared late in the day that it would come down to a duel with the Lady Vols. But the Gamecocks, as a team, were 3-under over their final three holes of the day while Tennessee was 1-over in that same stretch on the back nine, including one double-bogey at 18 that proved to be the difference.

Burnett was steady as a rock throughout the day and throughout the tournament. On a day when par was a very good score, the sophomore from Brunswick, Ga., had 15 of them. She first moved into red figures with a birdie at the dogleg-left par-4 14th, then saw a putt at the 18th just miss as she made the turn at 1-under. She faced a tough start to the more-exposed front nine as she fought her way out of a fairway bunker to make bogey at No. 2, then had a birdie putt at No. 4 lip out. She took dead aim at the par-5 seventh hole to card what would be the clinching birdie, then made pars at the eighth and ninth to hold on for the victory.

"To be honest, I don't think it's really hit me yet," Burnett said. "I'm still a little speechless at the moment. But I really couldn't be happier. I missed a few putts here and there, but I knew that if I kept playing the way I was playing, a few putts would fall coming down to the end."

Coming to the ninth and final hole, Burnett hit her approach past the flag to about 12 feet, but didn't know if she needed to make it to secure the victory. It turned out that all she needed was a two-putt for par, and that's what she managed to do as the awaiting Gamecock team stormed the green for hugs and high-fives all around.

Burnett's round of 210 ties for the fifth-best 54-hole individual total in school history, equaling an effort by Siew-Ai Lim at the 1994 Carolyn Cudone Invitational. In addition to becoming the 12th different Gamecock women's golfer to win an individual title, she is the third to win an NCAA East Regional. Teammate Benedicte Toumpsin won the 2008 event in Athens, Ga., and Lim was the medalist at the 1995 regional in Memphis, Tenn.

But it wasn't just Burnett's effort that led to the 17th team title in program history. Toumpsin turned in her second-straight round of even-par 72 to post a three-day total of 218 (+2) and a likely top-20 finish. She started off her final round with eight consecutive pars before coming to the 18th hole that had been a death trap for the Gamecocks all week. The pond down the left side claimed Toumpsin's tee shot, and she settled for a bogey to make the turn at 1-over. She would get that stroke right back at No. 1 with a birdie, then rolled off five more pars before running into trouble at No. 7. After an errant drive forced a layup, she hit her third shot into the hazard. But somehow, she was able to get up and down for bogey to minimize the damage. And once again, she fought right back for a birdie at No. 8 to get back to even par; a par at the ninth finished a strong day.

Senior Corrine Carr was the second-highest finisher for the Gamecocks, fighting her way to a closing 74 (+2) to finish at 217 (+1) overall, also a likely top-20 placement. Carr fought off bogeys at 12 and 13 by making back-to-back birdies at 14 and 15, then dropped another shot after a three-putt bogey at 16. She would hold on to par 17 and 18, then rolled off three more pars before bogeys at the windswept fourth and fifth holes. She would get one shot back with birdie at the seventh, then made two pars to close. Her 54-hole total of 217 equals a career-best, which previously came at the Mercedes-Benz Collegiate earlier this season.

Amanda Strang recovered from a tough 79 in Friday's second round to sign for a 73 (+1) Saturday, a six-shot improvement for the freshman. Standing 2-over after bogeys at 11 and 18, she finally got one stroke back with a birdie at the par-4 fifth. A bogey at No. 6 dropped her back to 2-over, then she made back-to-back birdies at the par-5 seventh and the lengthy par-3 eighth. However, a missed four-footer at nine kept her from level par as she finished 1-over for the day, 6-over for the week.

Taylor Barrett, the third senior on the Gamecock roster, was consistent throughout the week as she carded rounds of 76 (+4) all three days. A bogey-birdie start preceded six straight pars to keep her even as she came to the 18th. As with two of her teammates, she found rough going on the course's closing hole and made bogey to make the turn at 1-over. The wind got the best of her on the opening holes of the front nine as she made bogey on Nos. 1, 2 and 5, but recovered to post four straight pars to close a solid tournament.

South Carolina joined fellow SEC schools Tennessee, Auburn and Vanderbilt in advancing to the NCAA Championship, which runs May 18-21 at the Country Club of Landfall in Wilmington, N.C. Other schools advancing from the East Regional included Duke, Tulane, Pepperdine and TCU. Burnett's victory came by one shot over Auburn's Carlie Yadloczky, with Texas Tech's Rosalyn Kim earning the individual invitation to the NCAA Championships with her third-place finish at 4-under. First-round leader Nina Muehl of East Tennessee State tied for fourth place at 3-under with Tennessee freshman Erica Popson, the SEC runner-up.

2002 SEC Champions

South Carolina knocks off top-ranked Auburn by three strokes to claim first SEC crown; McPherson earns medalist honors for second-straight year.

No. 25 South Carolina captured the women's golf program's first Southeastern Conference Championship behind a school-record three-day total of 861. The Gamecocks finished three shots ahead of Auburn after entering the final round tied with the top-ranked team.

While the Gamecocks were posting their first team title, junior All-American Kristy McPherson made it a clean sweep as she became just the second player in SEC women's golf history to win back-to-back individual titles. She carded a three-day 209 to win the title by two strokes over Vanderbilt's Nicki Cutler. McPherson continued her mastery of the SEC Tournament by posting her sixth-straight sub-par round in the event and, after opening last year's tournament with a five-under 67, has led each round in the SEC Championship over the last two seasons. The only other SEC women's golfer to earn back-to-back SEC individual titles was Florida's Deb Richard, who won three-consecutive crowns from 1982-84.

"I'm so proud of the ladies," said head coach Kristi Coggins. "They played with so much heart and fought until the final putt dropped. Our goal was to be in contention coming into the final round because we have played so well all spring on the last day.

The Gamecocks picked the right time to crush the previous school record for team tournament score, topping it by 23 strokes. The 861 was also three strokes better than the SEC Championship record of 864 set by Georgia at the 1988 event at Gulf Breeze, Fla. Prior to posting 290 or lower in all three rounds at the event, Carolina had turned in just four sub-300 rounds all season.

South Carolina shot its highest score of the tournament in the final round, but played a solid back nine to recapture the lead and hold on. USC stood at five-over par after the first nine holes and fell three strokes behind No. 9 Tennessee, which was eight-under at the turn. But the Lady Vols cooled down, and the Gamecocks played the back nine collectively at three-under to win the title. Carolina handed Auburn its fifth second-place showing on the year to go along with its five tournament victories. Tennessee finished third, five shots off the pace.

In the individual competition, McPherson got a scare from Vanderbilt's Nicki Cutler, who finished before her and was in the clubhouse with a five-under 211 after a final-round 67. Tied with Cutler entering the final six holes, McPherson carded three birdies down the stretch and earned the win. Her 209 was the second-best individual three-round score in SEC Tournament history, two strokes off the previous record of 207, which she shot in 2001.

"Every putt ... every shot ... all I wanted to do was make it for the team," McPherson said. "Winning the individual title) this year is so much better because the team won. It was awesome last year – don't get me wrong – but I get to share it with the team this season. I was thinking about team honors all weekend, and it just so happened that the individual victory came around."

Junior Kacy Thompson of Columbia fell from fourth to 15th place with a final-round 79 (219 total). Junior Adrienne Gautreaux had a three-over 75 on the last day and finished tied for 17th place at 222. Reetta Laakkonen had a three-day total of 223 and finished tied for 18th place, thanks to second- and third-round 71s, which tied her lowest career rounds. Sophomore Marci Robinson had a one-over 73 in the last round and tied for 22nd place.

Katie Burnett

2010 - Honorable Mention (Golfweek, NGCA)

Katie Burnett put together a stellar sophomore campaign that saw her win the NCAA East Regional, tie for the highest NCAA Championship finish in school history (9th place), and put together the second-best single-season scoring average in South Carolina women's golf history. Burnett led the Gamecocks to a team title at the NCAA East Regional in Greenville, N.C., the first regional team title in program history and the first team victory of any kind in five years. In her sophomore season, she amassed a pair of top-5 finishes, three top-10s and nine top-20 showings.

Siew Ai Lim

1994 - Second Team (NGCA) • 1995 - First Team (NGCA)

Siew Ai Lim completed her career in 1995 as the only Gamecock women's golfer to compete in the NCAA Championship four times. She has the best record of any South Carolina player at the national championship, posting three top-20 efforts - including a tie for sixth place in 1996 and a tie for ninth in 1995 - in her four appearances. She propelled the Gamecocks to the 1995 NCAA Championship by winning the NCAA East Regional - the first NCAA Regional title for Gamecock women's golf - and helped the team to its best-ever NCAA finish, a tie for ninth. Named the 1995 SEC Player of the Year, her regional title was one of two individual medalist honors claimed by the Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia, native; the other being a win at the 1994 Carolyn Cudone Intercollegiate. She completed her career as the all-time scoring leader at South Carolina; she now ranks fifth all-time with a 76.23 career stroke average.

Kristy McPherson

2001, 2002, 2003 - First Team (NGCA)

The most decorated golfer in South Carolina history, Kristy McPherson remains one of only two players in Southeastern Conference history to win back-to-back SEC Women's Golf Championship titles, claiming medalist honors in 2001 and 2002. The second year, her 7-under-par 209 helped lead the Gamecocks to its first team SEC Championship, defeating Auburn by three strokes. She led the Gamecocks to the NCAA Championship each year from 2001 to 2003 and was the team's top finisher each time. McPherson is the all-time leader in individual victories at South Carolina, winning six tournaments in her four years. A four-time All-SEC selection and the 2003 SEC Player of the Year, McPherson left USC with the all-time lead in scoring average at 74.42; she currently ranks second all-time. She also posted the top three individual seasons, her best being her senior year of 2002-03 with a 73.42 stroke average.

Benedicte Toumpsin

2008 - Third Team (Golfweek); Honorable Mention (NGCA)

Benedicte Toumpsin was named an All-American following a stellar sophomore campaign in 2008 when she captured medalist honors at the NCAA East Regional, propelling South Carolina into the NCAA Championship for the first time in five seasons. Also a two-time All-SEC selection, Toumpsin won at least a share of medalist honors twice in her career - the 2008 regional and the 2009 LSU Golf Classic. She finished her career with an NCAA Championship appearance in 2010, helping the team to a tie for 14th place

Dinah Shore Trophy

2004 Dinah Shore Trophy

2006 Dinah Shore Trophy

The Dinah Shore Trophy Award, a part of the Dinah Shore Scholarship Fund, is a cooperative effort between The LPGA Foundation, the Friends of Golf (FOG), and the Nabisco Dinah Shore, one of the LPGA's four major championships and the largest contributor to the Dinah Shore Scholarship Fund.

The LPGA Foundation introduced the Dinah Shore Scholarship Fund in March 1994 in honor of the late Dinah Shore, and together with FOG and the Nabisco Dinah Shore, developed the Dinah Shore Trophy Award and its criteria. A fundraising organization administered by Eddie Merrins, head golf professional at Bel Air Golf Club in Beverly Hills, CA, FOG contributes annually to collegiate, high school and junior golf programs throughout the country, and Dinah Shore was considered the "First Lady" of FOG.

A selection committee of The LPGA Foundation chooses the Dinah Shore Trophy Award recipient from nominations submitted by the National Golf Coaches Association.

Nominees for the award must meet the following criteria:

- * An overall grade point average (GPA) of at least 3.2 on a 4.0 scale;
- * Played in at least 50% of her team's scheduled events;
- * Maintained a scoring average of 78 or less; and
- * Demonstrated leadership skills and/or extraordinary community affairs work.

The perpetual Dinah Shore Trophy is a crystal trophy, created by Tiffany & Co. with an engraving of Dinah Shore. The trophy is housed at Mission Hills Country Club, site of the annual Nabisco Dinah Shore.
