No. 14 South Carolina (8-1-0, 1-0-0 SEC) returns home to open its home SEC slate this weekend after three games on the road. On Friday, the Gamecocks host Missouri (6-1-2, 1-0-0 SEC) at 6 p.m. in the first half of a doubleheader that also features South Carolina men's soccer against Marshall. Sunday, The Graveyard hosts this season's second top-25 matchup with the Gamecocks taking on No. 22 Georgia (6-1-1, 1-0-1 SEC) at 1 p.m.

SCOUTING MISSOURI

Currently riding a seven-match unbeaten streak that dates back to 2-1 overtime win at TCU on Aug. 29, Missouri comes to Columbia looking to win its fifth-straight match. Last weekend, the Tigers defeated LSU 3-1 in their conference opener.

A pair of seniors lead the Tigers in goals and assists with Taylor Grant netting six goals and Kaysie Clark notching eight assists. Clark's eight assists ranks sixth nationally and leads the SEC. McKenzie Sauerwein has played every minute in net, posting three shutouts and allowing 10 goals. Midfielder Kaitlyn Clark is the reigning SEC Freshman of the Week after tallying a goal and an assist in Mizzou's 3-1 win over LSU.

The Gamecocks and Tigers have met just twice, with both meetings coming since Missouri joined the SEC. Mizzou has taken both matchups, posting a 2-1 decision last season at home and a 1-0 win in 2012 at Stone Stadium.

SCOUTING GEORGIA

No. 22 Georgia sits atop the league table with four points after tying Ole Miss in the first conference match of the season in August and defeating Vanderbilt, 3-1, Sunday. The Bulldogs are on a five-game winning streak.

In Sunday's come-from-behind victory at Vanderbilt, Marion Crowder netted a pair of goals and has scored multiple goals in back-to-back games. Crowder ranks second on the team with 11 points (5g, 1a). Gabby Seiler has 17 points on five goals and seven assists to lead Georgia. Freshman netminder Louise Hogrell has played every minute for the Bulldogs, allowing six goals for a 0.76 goals against average. Her four shutouts on the season rank second in the SEC behind South Carolina.

Georgia checked in at No. 13 in the season's initial RPI report released on Monday and continues to climb in the NSCAA poll, checking in at No. 22 this week. The Bulldogs face a pair of ranked teams this weekend, traveling to Gainesville, Fla., on Friday to play No. 7 Florida before ending the weekend in Columbia.

UP NEXT

The Gamecocks continue SEC play next weekend, traveling to Alabama on Fri., Oct. 3, for an 8 p.m. ET contest. On Sunday, South Carolina returns to Columbia to host LSU at 1 p.m.

OUT FOR REVENGE

Last season, South Carolina finished SEC play with an 8-2-1 record. Both losses came at the hands of this weekend's opponents. The then-No.17 Gamecocks traveled to Georgia on Sept. 20 and the Bulldogs handed South Carolina its first loss of the season, collecting a 2-0 win in the SEC opener. Marion Crowder and Laura Eddy scored for Georgia in the match. Nearly a month later, the then-No. 7 Gamecocks traveled to Missouri and fell, 2-1, just their second loss of the season. Paige Bendell netted her first career goal for South Carolina while Taylor Grant and Alyssa Diggs recorded tallies for Missouri. In their opening match of the SEC Tournament last season, the Gamecocks took a 4-0 result over Georgia. In 2013, the Gamecocks allowed two goals just three times – at Georgia, at Missouri and vs. Texas A&M in the SEC Tournament. South Carolina dropped all three decisions.

STATE OF DEFENSE

For the second-straight season, the Gamecocks moved through non-conference play allowing just one goal (vs. Clemson, Sept. 5). After allowing just their second goal of the season in the 89th minute at Auburn last weekend, the Gamecocks boast a 0.22 goals against average, a number that ranks third in the country. South Carolina has posted seven shutouts in its nine matches this season. No other SEC team has more than four shutouts or has allowed less than four goals.

ATTRACTING A CROWD

In five home matches this season, the Gamecocks lead the nation in average attendance with 3,761. South Carolina has played in front of at least 1,900 fans at each contest at The Graveyard, with a total of 18,804 coming through the gates. On Fri., Sept. 5, South Carolina set a program record with 5,855 in attendance at the rivalry match vs. Clemson. The previous regular season record stood at 3,017 (Clemson, 9/10/10) with the all-time attendance number of 4,347 set vs. Wake Forest in the NCAA Tournament on Nov. 20, 2009. All five contests rank in the program's all-time attendance top 12.

TOP 5

In the season's initial NCAA's Ratings Percentage Index (RPI) report released Monday evening, the Gamecocks checked in at a program-high No. 5. The spot is the team's highest ranking since a No. 8 listing on Oct. 8 of last season. This weekend's opponents offer an opportunity to boost the resume with South Carolina taking on No. 37 Missouri and No. 13 Georgia. The RPI is one of the tools used by the selection committee to determine the 64-team field for the NCAA Tournament, ranking teams based on wins and losses as well as strength of schedule.

THE GAMECOCKS VS. RANKED TEAMS

The Gamecocks will look to improve their 8-16-5 home record against ranked teams on Sunday afternoon when they face No. 22 Georgia. In 2013, South Carolina played five teams in the top 25, putting together a 2-2-1 record that included wins over No. 7 Duke (1-0, Aug. 25, 2013) at home and No. 8 Florida (2-1, 2OT, Oct. 4, 2013) on the road. Earlier this season, the Gamecocks defeated then-No. 22 Boston University at Stone Stadium on a double-overtime golden goal from Raina Johnson. Sophie Groff assisted on the tally in the 104th minute.

HOME SWEET HOME

"The Graveyard" has proven to be a friendly place for the Gamecocks recently. In 2013 as they streaked to a perfect 11-0-0 record at home, the first in program history. With a 2-1 win over SEC foe Kentucky, the 2013 squad became the first team to win 10 regular season games at Stone Stadium. They added another against Furman in the NCAA Tournament to push the streak to 11, tying the 2009 (11-1-0) squad with the most home wins in school history. South Carolina's stingy defense allowed just four goals in 11 home matches. With shutout wins over Samford, No. 22 Boston University in overtime and Milwaukee to open the 2014 home slate, the Gamecocks stretched the streak to 14, the longest win streak in school history. South Carolina was stopped just short of the record 15-match unbeaten streak at Stone Stadium, falling to Clemson 1-0 on Sept. 5, 2014.

In her 18th season as a head coach, South Carolina's Shelley Smith collected her 200th career victory over Milwaukee on Aug. 31, 2014. The second head coach in Gamecock history has posted 162 of her now 203 career wins at the helm of the Garnet and Black. Her 14-year career in Columbia has featured both an SEC tournament (2009) and regular-season championship (2011).

D'ANGELO, LEACH NAMED CANDIDATES FOR SENIOR CLASS AWARD

Goalkeeper Sabrina D'Angelo and center back Taylor Leach have been selected as two of thirty candidates for the 2014 Senior CLASS Award in women's collegiate soccer. To be eligible for the award, a student-athlete must be classified as an NCAA Division I senior and have notable achievements in four areas of excellence - community, classroom, character and competition. An acronym for Celebrating Loyalty and Achievement for Staying in School, the Senior CLASS Award focuses on the total student-athlete and encourages students to use their platform in athletics to make a positive impact as leaders in their communities. South Carolina is one of just three schools to have a pair of candidates on the list. After being narrowed to 10 finalists midway through the regular season, the Senior CLASS Award winners will be announced during the 2014 NCAA Men's and Women's College Cup® championships in December.

D'ANGELO, McCASKILL GARNER RECOGNITION IN WEEK 4

For their performances in a pair of shutout road victories over USF and FGCU in Tampa, Fla., senior goalkeeper Sabrina D'Angelo and freshman Savannah McCaskill earned SEC weekly honors. D'Angelo posted her 25th and 26th career shutouts over the weekend and collected a season-high seven saves against USF. D'Angelo was also named National Defensive Player of the Week by College Sports Madness and was an honorable mention on the TopDrawerSoccer.com Team of the Week. McCaskill scored her much-awaited first career goal in the 82nd minute against FGCU. She also recorded an assist against USF for her first multi-point weekend of the season.

D'ANGELO EARNS HER FIRST SEC DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK

A two-time SEC Defensive Player of the Year, Sabrina D'Angelo earned her first SEC Defensive Player of the Week for her shutout efforts against No. 22 Boston University and Milwaukee in Week 2. D'Angelo recorded her 22nd and 23rd career shutouts (second in school history). After shutout performance over the ranked Terriers, D'Angelo came up big when it mattered. Faced with an early Milwaukee penalty kick, the senior keeper kept the shutout streak alive with a diving save to her right. The save ignited a run that led to the Gamecocks' first goal of the day less than three minutes later. The pair of wins extended the home winning streak to a program-best 14, captured head coach Shelley Smith's 200th career victory and won the Garnet & Black Classic Title. The Gamecocks are the only SEC team to not allow a goal this season. D'Angelo was named SEC Freshman of the Week in October of 2011.

SHUTOUT START

With a pair of 2-0 wins at East Carolina and at home over Samford to open the season followed by a 1-0 double-overtime thriller against No. 22 Boston University and a 2-0 decision over Milwaukee, South Carolina opened the season with four-consecutive shutouts for the second-straight season. The Gamecocks allowed just 11 total shots in their first four matches, fewest in the SEC, and was the only league team that did not allow a point in the first four matches of the 2014 season.

LEACH RECOGNIZED NATIONALLY OPENING WEEKEND

TopDrawerSoccer.com named Leach to their Team of the Week after the center back provided the offense in the season opener at East Carolina, scoring a pair of set-piece goals in the 2-0 win. The match marked her first career multi-goal game. The senior also helped captain the Gamecocks' defense to back-to-back shutouts to start the season for the second-straight year. The unit allowed just three shots over the course of the opening weekend, the fewest in the league, and is one of three SEC teams that has yet to allow a point.

WATCHING D'ANGELO

A year after becoming the first MAC Hermann semifinalist in program history, Sabrina D'Angelo begins the season on the 2014 MAC Hermann Trophy Watch List. Of the 35 players on the 2014 watch list, D'Angelo is one of four who were semifinalists last season. In 2013, the Canadian had one of the best seasons for a keeper in South Carolina history, recording 12 shutouts and posting a 0.59 goals against average while anchoring the SEC's top defense. Her 12 shutouts led the conference and ranked seventh nationally. In two games against top-10 competition in 2013, D'Angelo stood her ground against 22 shots to produce eight saves and allow only one goal to help the

77.3

South Carolina returns eight of 11 starters and 77.3 percent of its scoring from the record-breaking 2013 campaign. 2013 leading scorer Raina Johnson netted 10 goals and an assist last season. Johnson's five game-winning goals is the second-most in a season in South Carolina history. The Gamecocks' top distributor Chelsea Drennan is back for her sophomore season after dishing out 12 assists to set a freshman single season record in 2013. Six of Drennan's set-ups led to a game-winning tally, a single-season record.

PRESEASON SEC

The SEC coaches selected South Carolina to finish third in the league, with Florida and Texas A&M topping the table. Last season, the Gamecocks finished behind co-champions Florida and Texas A&M.

Four Gamecocks were named to the SEC Preseason Watch List – senior goalkeeper Sabrina D'Angelo, senior centerback Taylor Leach, sophomore midfielder Chelsea Drennan and freshman midfielder Savannah McCaskill. D'Angelo is a two-time SEC Defensive Player of the Year (2011, 2013) and has been an All-SEC honoree each season of her career in the Garnet and Black. Leach joined D'Angelo on the All-SEC First Team and Drennan earned an SEC All-Freshman nod. McCaskill enters the season as a four-star prospect.

NATIONAL RESPECT ON THE RISE

The Gamecocks start the season ranked in various polls after the program earned its second top-15 final ranking in school history last year. The NSCAA has South Carolina at the No. 14 spot in their preseason poll, the highest for the Gamecocks since entering the 2010 season at No. 12. South Carolina is one of three SEC teams in the poll with Florida at No. 8 and Texas A&M at No. 9. TopDrawerSoccer.com has Shelley Smith's program at No. 9 in their preseason rankings.

EXHIBITION PLAY

In its lone exhibition match of the season, the No. 14 Gamecocks faced No. 18 Duke in Durham, N.C., and dropped a 2-0 decision. South Carolina played every available player in the match and utilized several formations as they prepped for the regular season. Freshman Savannah McCaskill earned a starting nod and posted two shots in the effort. Junior Raina Johnson also tallied a pair of shots, including a rocket that bounced off the cross bar, as the Gamecocks looked to get on the board. Senior Sabrina D'Angelo and sophomore Katelyn Houston collected a save against the Blue Devils.
