THE SOUTHEASTERN CONFERENCE

The Southeastern Conference, with its storied 84-year history of athletic achievements and academic excellence, has built perhaps the greatest tradition of intercollegiate competition in baseball of any league in the country since its inception in 1933.

An SEC squad has now appeared in the College World Series 32 of the last 33 years, including appearances by 18 teams in the last seven years. Eight SEC teams were selected for NCAA Regional play with six advancing to NCAA Super Regionals.

The SEC has sent 58 teams to the College World Series since 1990. That was accomplished despite no SEC teams making the field in 1992. LSU has been to Omaha 15 times, Florida 11 times, South Carolina six times, Georgia and Mississippi State five times, Arkansas four times, while Alabama, Tennessee and Vanderbilt have been three times each, and Auburn twice. Texas A&M made its first appearance as a member of the Southeastern Conference.

Following the 2017 CWS Championship Series, SEC teams have won 11 of the last 28 national championships, with LSU winning six (1991, 1993, 1996, 1997, 2000, 2009), South Carolina winning two (2010, 2011), Vanderbilt taking home the title in 2014, Georgia claiming the 1990 title and Florida in 2017. The SEC has finished runner up 10 times in that span, 1997, 2002, 2005, 2008, 2011, 2012, 2013, 2014, 2015 and 2017.

The SEC has played 61 games in the "Final Four" of the College World Series since 1990. Only six times, 1992, 1994, 2003, 2006, 2007 and 2016 has the SEC failed to get a team to the "Final Four" of the CWS.

Total home attendance for all 14 SEC teams passed the two million mark for the seventh consecutive season. The top-five national attendance leaders were all from the SEC (LSU, Ole Miss, Mississippi State, Arkansas and South Carolina).

Total attendance for the 2017 SEC Tournament was 127,479. The event has become the Birmingham metro's highest attended sporting event annually, second in the state only to NASCAR races at Talladega. Birmingham Magazine named it the top sporting event annually in the Birmingham area. The entire SEC Baseball Tournament was broadcast live on national television for the third consecutive year.
