2008 (JUNIOR): Named to the 2008 American Volleyball Coaches Association All-South Region honorable mention team... Drew the starting assignment in all 30 matches while ranking as one of two players to see time in all 111 sets... Led the Gamecocks with a 3.61 kills-per-set average and with 35 aces... Ranked third in the Southeastern Conference and 76th nationally in kills per set and seventh in the league and 167th in Division I with a 0.32 service ace average... In SEC matches only, she ranked fourth with 3.57 kills per set and tied for sixth with 0.31 aces per set... Ranked third on the team with a .256 hitting percentage, good enough for 316th in the country... Ranked second on the team with a 2.82 digs-per-frame mark, which stood 13th in the league... Topped the squad with her 518 reception attempts... Finished in the top two in kills on 28 occasions, leading the squad in 17 of those matches... Also led the team eight times each in digs and blocks... Turned in 25 double-digit kill contests and 17 10+ dig affairs... Compiled perfect serve reception percentages 11 times... Named to the all-tournament team in each of the three pre-conference tourneys in which the Gamecocks competed: the Arizona State Sheraton Invite, the Art Carmichael Classic and the Carolina Challenge... Named the MVP of the Carolina Challenge after collecting 48 kills and 36 digs in the wins over the College of Charleston, Clemson and Winthrop... Had her season high of 22 kills in the Clemson match (9/12), making six kills in the fifth set, four of those coming to either stave off or set up match point against the archrival Tigers... Also earned SEC Offensive and CVU.com National Player of the Week accolades after the Carolina Challenge... Had 20 kills in the Rhode Island victory (9/5), starting a streak of 12 consecutive contests in double figures in kills... Racked up five aces and 11 digs in the sweep of Boston College (9/5)... Hit .464 (15-2-28) in the sweep of Georgia (9/21)... Matched that output exactly in the win at Mississippi State (10/3) while adding a season-best five aces... Had 18 kills in the sweep over Tennessee (10/10)... Rebounded from two tough matches against nationally-ranked foes to tally double-doubles in the next five SEC matches, starting and ending with the matches against Auburn (10/19-11/7)... The only non-double-double in the stretch came against South Carolina State, when she set a personal best with a .522 hitting percentage on 14 kills... Made 20 kills at LSU (10/26)... Collected a career-high 21 digs to go with four blocks and 14 kills in the SEC-TV match at Tennessee (11/16)... Compiled 16 kills with a .433 hitting clip in the home win over Alabama (11/21)... Hit .429 (14-2-28) against Mississippi State (11/23)... Had 17 kills and 10 digs against No. 14 Florida (11/26)... Garnered recognition on the SEC Fall Academic Honor Roll for the second time.

2007 (SOPHOMORE): One of three Gamecocks to start all 29 matches... Sat out just one game in the 106 played... Carolina's leading attacker with 3.32 kills per game... Also topped the squad in reception attempts (667) and reception percentage (.961)... Stood fourth on the team in digs (2.37 per game)... Finished fifth with 44 total blocks... Led the team in kills on 10 occasions and in digs and blocks once each... Topped the squad with 12 double-doubles... Had double-digit kills in 17 outings, including the team's best of 26 at Georgia (10/19)... Collected 10+ digs in 14 matches... Had a five-match stretch where she was the leading attacker for the Gamecocks (10/14-10/28)... Had two five-contest streaks of double-digit kills and another skein of four... Also had double-double streaks of four and five matches... Hit over .450 in three matches: versus Binghamton (8/24), against Troy (9/7) and Appalachian State (9/8)... Named to the Gamecock Nike Invitational All-Tournament Team after hitting .393 (31-7-61) and compiling 29 digs in the three matches... Opened SEC play with a 20-kill, 19-dig performance against Auburn (9/14)... The 19 digs were her season high... Started her first run of 10+ kills with 15 at Mississippi (9/23)... Started the shorter double-double streak at Alabama with 13 kills and 12 digs...
