DOUG ALLISON - 1987 ALL-AMERICAN - FORWARD

Doug Allison, South Carolina's first ever first-team All-American is the school's all-time leading point (158) and goal scorer (63). He led Carolina in scoring all four of his years and went to the NCAA Tournament three straight years from 1985-87. A native of Barnstaple, England, Allison joined Marty Baltzegar as the school's first All-America award winners. He served as an assistant coach to Mark Berson at South Carolina from 1991-94 and is currently the head coach at cross-state rival Furman.

MARTY BALTZEGAR - 1987 ALL-AMERICAN - DEFENDER

Marty Baltzegar was a second-team All-American after anchoring a stifling defense that allowed only 10 goals all year, two coming on penalty kicks. Baltzegar joined teammate Doug Allison as Carolina's first ever All-America honorees. Baltzegar scored 24 career points on six goals and 12 assists.

CHARLES ARNDT - 1988 ALL-AMERICAN - GOALKEEPER

A first-team All-America selection, Charles Arndt compiled 13 shutouts while leading the Gamecocks to their first semifinal appearance in the NCAA Tournament during his senior campaign. For his efforts, Arndt was named National Goalkeeper of the Year. He holds school records for career goals against average (0.70) and combined shutouts (29).

CLARK BRISSON - 1989 ALL-AMERICAN - FORWARD

Clark Brisson earned All-America honors after leading Carolina with a then-school record 50 points (21g, 8a). Brisson closed out his career in 1990 with 98 points (36g, 26a), good for fourth all-time in South Carolina history. In Brisson's four-year career, the Gamecocks compiled an amazing 61-14-11 (.773) mark and advanced to the NCAA Tournament four times.

TOMMY LOEBER - 1990 ALL-AMERICAN - DEFENDER

Tommy Loeber was a First-Team All-America selection by the NSCAA. He led a defense that only allowed 19 goals all year while advancing to the second round of the NCAA Tournament. Loeber, an Arlington, Texas, native, started more games than anyone in Carolina history, notching 87 starts in 87 games. He finished his career with six points on two goals and two assists.

CHRIS FAKLARIS - 1993 ALL-AMERICAN - FORWARD

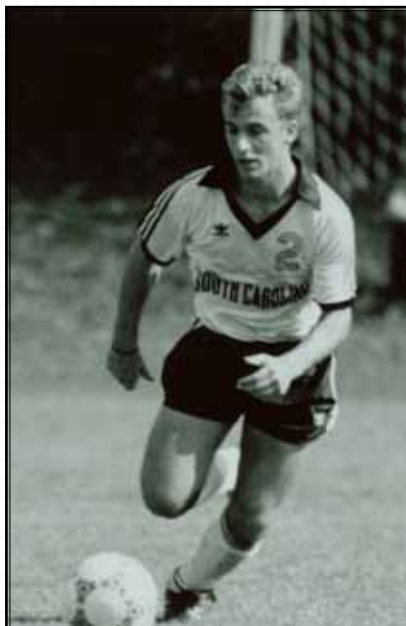

Chris Faklaris was a consensus Second-Team All-American by Soccer America, Soccer News and the NSCAA after leading the Gamecocks in points (44) and goals (20). Carolina's second all-time leading scorer with 124 points (55 goals, 14 assists), Faklaris led the Gamecocks to their only national championship game appearance in 1993.

ROB SMITH - 1994 ALL-AMERICAN - MIDFIELDER

Rob Smith, a third-team All-American, ended his career as Carolina's all-time leader with 40 assists. A starter in all 84 matches during his four-year career, Smith is tied for ninth all-time in scoring with 78 points (19 goals, 40 assists). Smith, who played for the MLS's Columbus Crew, completed his degree at South Carolina in 2001. He represented the United States at the 1996 Olympic Games in Atlanta, Ga.

CLINT MATHIS - 1995, '97 ALL-AMERICAN - MIDFIELDER

Clint Mathis set Gamecock season records for most points (53), goals (25) and game-winning goals (10) on his way to becoming a consensus first-team All-America selection in 1995. A third-team selection in 1997, he finished his career as the third all-time leading scorer in Carolina history with 121 points (53g, 15a). He was a three-time finalist for the Hermann Trophy and the MAC (Missouri Athletic Club) Player of the Year award. In 2002, he represented the United States in the World Cup.

HENRY RING - 1998, '00 ALL-AMERICAN - GOALKEEPER

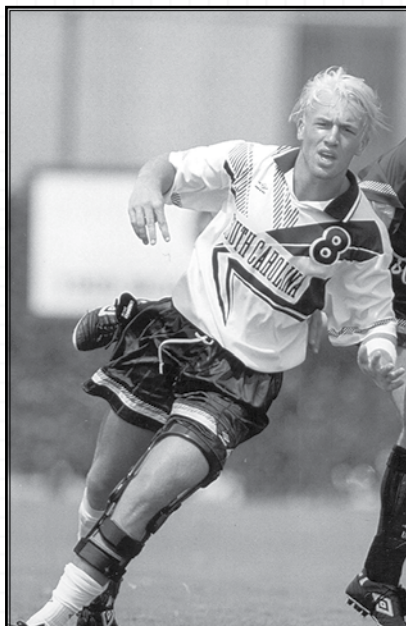

Henry Ring posted a goals against average of 0.72 and recorded 9.5 shutouts while allowing only 14 goals in 1,753 minutes in 1998. Ring was named to the first-ever All-Independent First Team. He became only the second Gamecock to earn All-America honors twice, joining Clint Mathis. Ring earned third-team honors after ending the 2000 campaign with an 0.93 GAA, allowing only 17 goals his senior season. He was drafted by the Chicago Fire in the 2001 MLS Superdraft and was the starter in net for the Fire in 2004.

BRAD GUZAN - 2004 ALL-AMERICAN - GOALKEEPER

Brad Guzan earned Second-Team All-America honors from the NSCAA in his second and final season as a Gamecock in 2004. He was also a semifinalist for the MAC (Missouri Athletic Club) Hermann Trophy and one of Soccer America's 11 Collegiate MVPs. The Homer Glen, Ill., native played every minute in goal of his two seasons at Carolina before opting to turn pro. Guzan was the No. 2 pick in the MLS SuperDraft, making him the highest goalkeeper ever drafted (CD Chivas USA). Guzan was the starting goalkeeper for the U.S. in the 2008 Beijing Olympics, while he began his first season with Aston Villa of the Barclays Premier League in England in late 2008. He was most recently honored with a roster spot on the 2010 U.S. Men's National Team that competed in the 2010 FIFA World Cup in South Africa.

GREG REECE - 2005 ALL-AMERICAN - DEFENDER

Greg Reece earned Third-Team All-America honors from CollegeSoccerNews.com following his senior season in 2005. A native of Clemmons, N.C., Reece was selected Conference USA Defensive Player of the Year and helped the Gamecocks capture the C-USA Championship and an automatic berth in the NCAA Tournament. Reece was a four-year starter on the backline for South Carolina.

AWARDS & HONORS

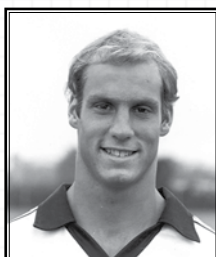

NSCAA ALL-SOUTH REGION

Since head coach Mark Berson started the Gamecock program in 1978, a total of 42 different student-athletes have collected 65 National Soccer Coaches Association of American (NSCAA) All-South Region honors. Brian Winstead was the first Carolina player to make the team in 1978. Fourteen Carolina players made the All-South Region team more than once during their career. Rob Smith was selected All-South Region in all four of his seasons at South Carolina (1991-1994). Doug Allison (1985-1987) and Chris Faklaris (1992-1994) were three-time All-South Region selections.

At least one South Carolina player has made the All-South Region team in every season since 1983, and two players have garnered the honor in 24 of those seasons. Three Gamecocks were honored in 2010 and four were named to the squad in the 1986, 1987 and 1994 seasons.

Warren Lipka was the 1985 National Goalkeeper of the Year.

NATIONAL GOALKEEPER OF THE YEAR

One of the most prestigious awards on the national college soccer scene is "Goalkeeper of the Year," so named by adidas and the NSCAA. Within a four-year span, South Carolina brought home two of those awards — Warren Lipka winning in 1985 and Charles Arndt in 1988.

Arndt became one of USC's best players ever after a sparkling senior campaign that saw him engineer 13 shutouts for the Gamecocks en route to a semifinals appearance in the NCAA Tournament. Arndt broke Lipka's long-standing record for minutes played in a career and has the best career goals against average in school history — allowing a goal every one-and-a-half games for an 0.70 career mark. Arndt was also named All-South Region, All-America, Academic All-America and John M. Johnson Award winner after the 1988 season.

Lipka became the Gamecocks' first-ever "Goalkeeper of the Year" award winner in 1985, after South Carolina completed what is still the best record in school history (20-3-1) while advancing to the NCAA Tournament quarterfinals. Lipka played 2,155 minutes in goal that season (still a school best) while being part of 15 shutouts in 24 matches that year for another school standard.

INDEPENDENT ALL-STAR TEAMS

From 1998 to 2000, the nine Independent teams voted on All-Independent All-Star teams. Six Gamecocks were named to the All-Independent teams in 1998, four to the first team and two to the second team. John Harr, Jonas Myltenberg and Scott Campagna joined Henry Ring on the first team. Harr and Myltenberg were a part of the USC offense that outscored its opponent's 47-14.

Midfielder Ryan O'Neill and forward Joey Worthen were named to the second team that year. Worthen also earned the honor of Co-Rookie of the Year. Head Coach Mark Berson also earned postseason accolades by earning Independent Coach of the Year honors.

In 1999, four Gamecocks represented South Carolina on the All-Independent squads. Senior defender Chris Morman made his first appearance on the first team, while fellow senior Ryan O'Neill made his second appearance after making the second team the previous season. As a sophomore, Joey Worthen also made the move from second team in '98 to first team in '99. He led the team in scoring with 11 goals and five assists for 27 points.

Freshman Tim Glowienka rounded out the list by making the second team. The midfielder started all 19 matches as a freshman and ended the season with three goals and two assists for eight points.

In 2000, eight of the Independent teams formed the Atlantic Soccer Conference, leaving South Carolina as the only true independent.

JOHN M. JOHNSON MEMORIAL AWARD

The John M. Johnson Jr. Memorial Award was established in 1982 to recognize South Carolina's Most Valuable Player during the season. The award is voted upon each season by the players and coaches and is presented at the annual team banquet.

The award is given in the memory of John Johnson Jr., an avid South Carolina soccer fan and lifelong supporter of the Gamecock soccer team and the entire University of South Carolina athletic program. Johnson is survived by his wife, who presents the award each year. Henry Ring (1999-2000), Mike Solano (1995-96) and Tommy Loeber (1989-90) have each earned the honor twice.

BRIAN WINSTEAD MEMORIAL AWARD

The Brian Winstead Memorial Award was established to honor the memory of Carolina soccer great Brian Winstead, who died in December 2004.

A pioneer for Gamecock soccer, Winstead was the first player to sign a scholarship agreement with USC in the men's soccer program's inaugural season in 1978.

Winstead went on to lead the Gamecocks in scoring in both of his seasons in Columbia, and, in 1978, he became the first South Carolina player to earn All-South Region honors. He also served as a team captain in 1979. Winstead's name remains etched in the South Carolina record books to this day. In just two seasons, he scored 80 points, which ranks eighth for points in a career.
