South Carolina will enter 2009 as one of the most experienced teams in the nation, and depth will also be available after Coach Shelley Smith signed seven freshmen and landed two transfers for the 2009 season.

SCOUTING COLLEGE OF CHARLESTON

The Cougars, picked to finish sixth in the SoCon, return 11 letterwinners and eight starters from last year's 12-5-4 squad. It will be the first meeting between South Carolina and CofC since the 2002 season when the Gamecocks took a 3-1 victory at Stone Stadium.

MATTERN, GRIMSLEY NAMED PRESEASON ALL-SEC

South Carolina senior defender Blakely Mattern and sophomore forward Kayla Grimsley have been selected to the third annual women's soccer Coaches Preseason All-SEC team.

Mattern (Simpsonville, S.C.) has been named to the list in all three years of its existence. She is a three-time postseason All-SEC selection and in 2007 became the first sophomore to earn SEC Defensive Player of the Year honors. A 2007 Soccer Buzz All-American and 2008 CoSIDA/ESPN The Magazine First Team Academic All-American, Mattern has started every game of her career and is a three-time All-Southeast Region selection. In 2008, she was the leader of a defense that finished the season second in the SEC in shutouts (8) and ranked in the top two in every major defensive category, including goals allowed, points allowed, shots allowed and shots on goal allowed. The Gamecocks led the league in shots allowed (8.45/game) and shots on goal allowed (3.68/game).

Grimsley (Lakeland, Fla.) earns her first preseason honor after a strong freshman campaign that culminated in her earning second team All-SEC honors, SEC All-Freshman team honors and Soccer Buzz All-Southeast Region honors. She led the team in her rookie season with eight goals and six assists for 22 points, making her only the second freshman and seventh player overall to score 20 points in a season at South Carolina. She tied the program record with a six-match scoring streak that began with the start of conference play, and she became the only freshman in Gamecock history to score a goal in four consecutive matches. She twice earned SEC weekly honors and brought home four national team of the week honors last season.

COACHES TAB GAMECOCKS FOURTH IN SEC EAST

The South Carolina women's soccer team was picked to finish fourth in the Eastern division of the 2009 SEC preseason poll, the conference office announced Wednesday. The Gamecocks are coming off an 11-7-4 record in 2008 with a third place finish in the East with a 5-4-2 record.

South Carolina returns 10 starters and lost only one senior from the 2008 squad that advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the second consecutive year. Senior defender Blakely Mattern and sophomore forward Kayla Grimsley were named to the 11-player Preseason All-SEC team last week after both earned All-SEC honors last season.

Florida was selected as the favorite to claim the 2009 women's soccer title in the poll voted on by the league's 12 head coaches. In the East, Georgia and Tennessee were selected behind Florida with Vanderbilt picked to finish fifth and Kentucky picked sixth. 2008 CAROLINASoccer

Always a strong unit, the Carolina defense was led by senior captain Blakely Mattern, who eturned to the fields where she played her club soccer as a member of CESA, the club that sponsored the exhibition between the two teams.

Mexico opened the game on a strong offensive with two shots in the opening eight minutes of competition, but a header by Gamecock Shannon Bigbie that was saved in the ninth minute changed the momentum for South Carolina. The Gamecocks began to control the run of play, and on its next best look was able to score after Watts scored at 31:43.

At the restart, South Carolina continued to move on the attack with successive shots and a corner kick in the next two minutes before Diaz-Matosas placed one into the inside corner of the net at 35:12 to give South Carolina the cushion it needed. The remainder of the half saw a shot by both teams as Watts attempted another that was saved by Mexico keeper Erika Vanegas and Patton saved an attempt by Ocampo before the half.

In the second half, Mexico was able to string together flurries of shots, but none would break he plane against the Carolina defense.

IRST TIME OPPONENTS

South Carolina will face four opponents for the first time in 2009, starting with Louisville and Cincinnati in the second week of the season at the Louisville Tournament. The Gamecocks also vill see UCF and South Alabama later in the non-conference for the first meetings between the eams. Last season, Carolina went 0-1-2 against first time opponents, drawing UNC Wilmington and #7 Florida State before dropping a tight game to Western Carolina for the Gamecocks' first oss of the season.

ALL-AMERICAN DEFENSE

The South Carolina defense has been consistently one of the top in the SEC and in the nation, and all signs point to this season being another strong one for the Garnet and Black. The Gamecocks return two former Freshman All-Americans in seior Blakely Mattern and junior Brittiny Rhoades.

Mattern (Simpsonville, S.C.) has started every game of her career at center back, earning Freshman All-America honors in 2006 and becoming Carolina's first All-American after picking up nonors in 2007. Mattern also picked up 2007 SEC Defensive Player of the Year honors to become he first sophomore in conference history to earn the honor, and earned a trip to the US U-20 Vational Team camp in 2008. Rhoades (Wilmington, Del.) set a USC freshman record with 23 games played and 22 games started in her first year at left back, becoming the second Freshman All-American in as many years for the defense.

HOME AT THE STONE

South Carolina has been nearly unstoppable at Stone Stadium the past two seasons, posting 23-2-5 record at home since 2006. The streak included a 15-game unbeaten streak from Aug. 1, 2006-Oct. 5, 2007 and a 13-game unbeaten streak at "The Graveyard" from Oct. 19, 2007-Oct. 23, 2008. The lone blemishes on the record are a double-overtime loss to Vanderbilt (Oct. 7, 2007) and a loss to #7 Florida (Oct. 30, 2008).

2008 SEASON OPENER: SOUTH CAROLINA 0, UNC WILMINGTON 0

WILMINGTON, N.C. - The South Carolina women's soccer team opened the 2008 campaign with a scoreless draw Saturday against UNC Wilmington at a windy UNCW Soccer Stadium.

South Carolina outshot the Seahawks 17-4 but couldn't capitalize on their looks as the match noves the Gamecocks to 7-5-2 all-time in season openers. The overtime match was the first or South Carolina against a non-conference opponent in the regular season since they battled Charlotte to a 2-1 victory on Sept. 19, 2004.

"It was a team effort," South Carolina head coach Shelley Smith said. "We improved from the beginning of the match, so we'll take that into the next game. We created a lot of opportunities but couldn't put it away, so that was a disappointment. Wilmington played a tough match and got lucky on a couple, and we were unfortunate to not put those away. We are still experimenting with our lineups and will keep working hard. We were able to see what alot of people could do and could play many of our players. To hold them off is a positive thing we can take from this. Ne'll learn from it and go home and get ready for next week."

The Gamecocks controlled the pace of the match for the opening 25 minutes. Brooke Jacobs ecorded the first shot of the season for South Carolina in the fifth minute that missed the mark, but a Blakely Mattern strike off a Brittiny Rhoades corner kick was spot on before UNC Wilmingon keeper Emily Pratt recorded the save. Jacobs saw herself behind the Seahawk defense again n the 15th minute on a pass played by Danila Monteiro, but her open shot on goal was saved by he keeper.

Four minutes later, Shannon Bigbie split the defense with a dribble move on the left flank and centered to Monteiro whose shot was also stopped by Pratt. The Seahawks used the momentum to attack the Carolina defense, getting their first shot on goal in the 25th minute that was saved by Mollie Patton. A redshirt sophomore playing in her first game for the Gamecocks, Patton was ested in the 37th minute when Wilmington's Nicole Panek stole the ball in the penalty area for point-blank shot from eight yards out. Patton saved the shot to end the Seahawk threat. She ended the game with four saves, all on close range shots.

TOTAL RECO
UNDER SHEL	LEY SMITH: 4-13-22
	TNACoccer

"Mollie had a great game," Smith said. "She saved us in the first half when we gave them an opportunity out the back. That's what you need out of your goalkeeper. It was a great game for her and I'm glad she had a chance to get her first collegiate game out of the way, as well as many of our other newcomers."

Neither team was able to keep control of the ball for the majority of the second half before UNC Wilmington got two good looks on goal in a 10 minute span. In the 64th, a free kick bounced around the box before Patton was able to catch it in the air. Ten minutes later another free kick landed in the box, but Patton again saved the header.

Carolina got its best look on goal in the 85th after Kayla Grimsley was fouled just outside the penalty box. Shortly after, Grimsley had two consecutive looks on goal from 10 yards out. The first was saved by Pratt and the second went high to end the attacking opportunities in regulation.

The Gamecocks wasted no time in the first overtime period and almost ended the game when Grimsley played a ball to Monteiro behind the defense in the 92nd minute. One on one with the keeper, Monteiro snuck a shot past her, but the shot banged off the left post to keep the Seahawks alive. UNC Wilmington then gave the Gamecocks a scare of their own as a cross bounced high in the wind and grazed Patton's fingertips. A Seahawk attacker had an open chance on the back post but was denied by junior defender Blakely Mattern.

The game encountered a 15-minute delay in the first overtime period when Wilmington's Jenna Evans went down with a leg injury in the 98th minute. Following the delay, neither team saw a chance on goal until Jacobs hit two shots in a one-minute span in the 108th minute that were both saved by Pratt.

SHELLEY SMITH

Head Coach Ninth Season at South Carolina 13th Season Overall Vermont, 1993

Shelley Smith enters her ninth season at the helm of the USC women's soccer program and looks to continue building upon the success that she has brought to the program after taking the team to the first back-to-back NCAA Tournament appearances in program history.

Smith has cemented Carolina's position as a conference title contender and player on the national stage after guiding the Gamecocks in 2008 to their second consecutive NCAA Tournament bid and third consecutive SEC Tournament bid, both program firsts. The Gamecocks went 11-7-4 overall and earned five SEC wins for the third year in a row with only one senior on the roster. Respected as a top defensive team, the Gamecocks finished the regular season second in the SEC with eight shutouts and ranked in the top two in every major defensive category including goals allowed, points allowed, shots allowed and shots on goal allowed.

Blakely Mattern and Kayla Grimsley both earned All-SEC honors with Mattern earning her second first team and Grimsley picking up spots on the second team and freshman team. The duo also picked up Soccer Buzz All-Southeast Region honors while Mattern also earned a nod by the NSCAA.

Carolina's success in the classroom continued last season as her squad earned two Academic All-District honors in Mattern and Mollie Patton. Mattern was also named to the Academic All-America first team, making South Carolina one of only four teams in the nation – and the only in the SEC – to have an Academic All-American selected each of the past four seasons. Her team was also honored with its seventh NSCAA Team Academic Award. The team had 11 players named to the SEC Academic Honor Roll in addition to nine selections to the SEC Freshman Honor Roll. Overall, Smith has coached 131 SEC Academic Honor Roll recipients since coming to USC in 2001.

Smith has coached several top student-athletes at Carolina including Ashley Kirk, USC's first four-time All-SEC honoree, Carolina's first All-American in three-time All-SEC selection Blakely Mattern and two-time All-SEC performers Melinda Carter, Jessica Julin and Sarah Lentz. Julin is currently the captain of the Finland National Team and Carter played in the WUSA. The Gamecocks have earned 20 All-SEC honors in the last eight years.

In her first season as head coach at Carolina (2001), the Gamecocks were the third most improved team in the nation with an 8-7-3 overall record. Carolina also had one of the school's best home records, going 5-3 at Stone Stadium, allowing opponents to score only four goals in eight matches.

The success continued for USC in 2002 with 13 wins in Smith's second season. The year was highlighted with USC's first ever victories against Florida and Kentucky. Smith also led her team to ties against 2002 SEC champion Auburn and Eastern Division champion Tennessee.

Smith led the Gamecocks to another successful season in 2003 with 10 wins including a USC record eight-game unbeaten streak as well as a 6-2-1 record at home in Stone Stadium.

The 2004 season featured a win over No. 7 Clemson, the Gamecocks' first win over a ranked opponent since 1998, as well as a 6-3 mark in non-conference action. Ashley Kirk also became the first freshman soccer player in school history to be named SEC Freshman of the Year. In addition, Carolina set a school record for a home game-winning streak with six consecutive wins.

BACK-TO-BACK NCAA TOURNAMENT APPEARANCES

2009 South Carolina Women's Soccer

Following an injury filled 2005 season, the program took a big step forward in 2006 as USC went undefeated at home for the first time in school history with an 8-0-3 mark at Stone Stadium. The team's cumulative goals against average of 0.69 was the lowest ever tallied at Carolina. The season culminated with the Gamecocks advancing to the SEC Tournament semifinals for the first time in Carolina history, as Blakely Mattern became the team's first Freshman All-America selection since 1998.

Smith directed the 2007 Gamecocks to arguably the best season in school history, tying the school record with 14 victories and advancing to the NCAA Tournament for only the second time in program history. Carolina posted a 14-6-3 overall record including a 5-4-2 mark in the SEC after beginning the season by becoming the first team ever to knock off defending national champion and top-ranked North Carolina in a season opening game at Fetzer Field in Chapel Hill. The Gamecocks ran to a 7-0-0 start to the season – program bests for start to a season and winning streak – and peaked at No. 7 in the national polls. For the second consecutive season South Carolina advanced to the SEC Tournament semifinals after knocking off Tennessee for the first time in program history and earned the school's first bid to the NCAA Tournament since 1998. Blakely Mattern became the first All-American in South Carolina history.

In 12 years as a head coach, Smith has compiled an overall record of 122-97-24. Besides her collegiate coaching, Smith was a member of the Region III ODP staff for the past five years, as well as an assistant for the '90 Regional Team. Smith also was a member of the 2003 U-14 National Camp staff for U.S. Soccer.

With a background in both semi-professional and collegiate soccer, Smith previously served as head coach at Rhode Island from 1997-2000. The 2000 NSCAA Northeast Region Coach of the Year, Smith rebuilt the URI women's soccer program, compiling a 41-35-2 overall record. Smith took a program that was 2-16 her first year to 12-7-1 in her second season, marking the eighthmost improved won-lost record for a team in NCAA history. In 2000, Smith coached URI to its best record ever of 15-4-1, while reaching the Atlantic 10 Semifinals, a first in URI history.

Smith was nominated for the 2000 National Coach of the Year. The New England Women's Soccer Intercollegiate Soccer Association (NEWISA) also named her its Division I Coach of the Year in 2000. She was the 1998 Atlantic 10 Coach of the Year as well.

In addition to her experience as a coach, Smith brings experience from the semi-professional level. From 1996-2000, Smith played for the Boston Renegades in the W-1 League. Smith was captain in 2000 as she led Boston to the semifinals in the W-1 Championship. The Renegades reached the finals in 1998. Smith also had the opportunity to play overseas in 1994 as a member of the Sheffield United Women's Football Club in England.

Smith, a 1993 graduate of the University of Vermont with a degree in nutritional science, received her teacher's certificate from the same institution in 1995. Smith started all four years for the Catamounts. Her primary positions were center midfielder and central defender. She was a regional All-American in both 1992 and `93 in addition to being named First Team All-North Atlantic Conference each year from 1991-93. During her freshman year, the squad won the ECAC Tournament. Vermont was one of the first programs to offer women's soccer as a varsity sport and it competed on a national level. Smith was named to Vermont's Athletic Hall of Fame in the summer of 2004.

Smith worked as an assistant coach at Dartmouth College from 1995-97. The Big Green made the NCAA Tournament in her second season with the program.

Smith is married to USC associate head coach Jamie Smith, a 1994 graduate of Providence College. They are the proud parents of two sons, Braden James, born on Nov. 25, 2003 and Evan Addison born on Jan. 6, 2006. The family resides in Columbia, S.C.

Smith has her USSF B license and the NCAA Advanced National Diploma. She is currently a member of the USYSA Regional Olympic Development Staff.

A native of Shaftsbury, Vt., Smith graduated from Mount Anthony Union High School in 1989.
