COMMUNITY OUTREACH

Since April 1, 2013, Gamecock student-athletes have performed more than 5,000 hours of community service, an average of more than 9.5 hours per student-athlete.

This is the highest total in school history and amongst the highest in the Southeastern Conference.

"Team Gamecocks" community service activities includes reading to elementary school children, collecting food for the Harvest Hope Food Bank, visiting both hospitalized children and veterans and interacting with kids in after-school programs. These are ongoing opportunities for "Team Gamecocks" and student-athletes can select service opportunities in which they are most interested.

ACADEMIC HIGHLIGHTS

GAMECOCKS EARN NATIONAL ACADEMIC HONORS

Six University of South Carolina athletic squads earned national academic honors during the 2013-14 season. These include men's basketball, cross country, men's soccer, men's tennis, women's tennis and volleyball.

In addition to the team honors, 40 Gamecocks earned individual national academic honors last season.

Gamecocks lead all teams with 336 student-athletes on Southeastern Conference Academic Honor Rolls (Fall, Winter, Spring, First-Year) in 2013-14. Carolina led the SEC Fall Academic Honor Roll and the First-Year SEC Academic Honor Roll and was second in the Spring and Winter SEC Academic Honor Rolls.

59 student-athletes earned a 4.0 during the spring semester to earn a spot on the President's List.

Gamecock student-athletes achieved better than a 3.0 cumulative grade point average for the academic year, with a 3.161 last fall, and a 3.222 in the spring. It marked the 15th consecutive semester that South Carolina's departmental GPA soared above the 3.0 mark.

Below is a sport-by-sport breakdown of the national academic honors earned by Gamecock student-athletes:

- More than 1.16 million fans have attended Gamecock home athletic ticketed contests in 2013-14.
- All seven Gamecock home football games sold out in 2013 with an average home attendance of 82,401, nearly 2,000 more than Williams-Brice Stadium's seating capacity. Carolina has won 18 straight games at Williams-Brice Stadium, the longest home field win streak in the FBS.
- A school-record 5,957 season tickets have been sold for the 2014 Gamecock home baseball season, surpassing the 5,835 total of last season.
- As of May 21 (37 home games), South Carolina is 2nd in the nation in total baseball attendance (279,043) and 5th in the nation in average attendance (7,541).
- South Carolina is 10th in the nation and third in the SEC, averaging 6,371 fans per home women's basketball game. Attendance at home Carolina women's basketball games has picked up an average of 2,419 fans per game from last year's 3,952 capacity. It is the largest per game increase in NCAA Women's Basketball. [Numbers from 2012-13 & 2013-14 NCAA Stat Reports.]
- A school record 789 season tickets have been sold for the 2014 Gamecock softball season.
- South Carolina is the largest per game increase in the SEC (+1,471) and second in the SEC in largest percent attendance increase for men's basketball (10,074 in 2013-14, 17.0% increase from 8,603 in 2012-13).
- South Carolina set the new total attendance mark for the Volleyball Competition Facility with 15,526 fans attending 16 matches this season, breaking the previous record of 11,787 in 17 matches in 2012. The average of 970 fans per match shattered the VCF average attendance record of 765 from the 2002 season. South Carolina's average attendance ranked 40th nationally and fifth in the SEC.
- Men's and Women's Soccer saw significant attendance increases from 2012 to 2013. Men's Soccer went from an average of 929 fans per game to 1,405 fans per game (+51 percent). Women's soccer went from an average of 716 fans per game to 1,360 fans per game, a staggering 89 percent increase.
- Every ticketed sport at South Carolina (Football, Men's and Women's Basketball, Baseball, Men's and Women's Soccer, Volleyball and Softball) saw an increase this year from last year in season ticket sales.

SOCIAL MEDIA

2013-14 REVIEW

Summary/Highlights

South Carolina has the 12th-largest social media following among NCAA programs, rising one spot from last year's 13th-overall ranking, up from the 15th-largest following in 2011-12. South Carolina has 563,000 fans on Facebook and 74,000 followers on Twitter*. Facebook and Twitter are the only two social networks counted for these rankings by Coyle Media, but the Gamecocks also attract large numbers of followers on YouTube, Instagram, Pinterest, and Tumblr. According to rankings compiled by Auburn University, South Carolina is one of only two schools (joined by Oregon) to have athletics department accounts ranked in the Top 15 in followers on Facebook, Twitter, YouTube, Instagram, and Pinterest.

Platforms

FACEBOOK

Facebook.com/GamecocksOnline
562,332 likes, ranked 12th nationally

From July 2013 to July 2014, the South Carolina Gamecocks page attracted 192,379 new likes, an increase of 52%, and up three spots in the national rankings from last year. This rate of growth is up considerably compared to last year, in which the page's following increased by just 15%. Some of the growth can be attributed to a new relationship with Facebook's Sports Partnerships department. Facebook designated our accounts as official and verified accounts, resulting in improved placement in searches and the integration of several unofficial pages into our official page.

We have positioned Facebook as a place for Gamecock fans to gather and engage, both during events and during the week. We post videos, high quality photos and graphics, and questions to spark discussion. The fan is the focus, highlighted by our Fan Photo of the Day feature and several themed fan photo albums that are updated regularly such as Gamecock Pets, Gamecock Weddings, and Gamecock Military and Veterans where fans submit their photos to be included.

TWITTER

@GamecocksOnline
74,000 followers, ranked 10th nationally

From July 2013 to July 2014 the main @GamecocksOnline Twitter account earned 24,238 new followers, a 49% increase, and moved up one spot in the national rankings.

Twitter continues to grow as a source of breaking news and information. We use it to spread news, give in-game updates, share photos and behind-the-scenes action, answer questions, provide customer service, and engage with fans on a daily basis. Fans join us in widely using the #Gamecocks hash tag to track and join conversations about South Carolina teams.

In addition to the main athletics department account, every South Carolina team has an individual team account. Among college baseball programs the @GamecockBaseball team account has the 2nd most followers in the country (61,298) behind only LSU, while head coach Chad Holbrook has the most followers of any baseball coach in the country with 21,792. Basketball coaches Dawn Staley and Frank Martin are ranked No. 6 and No. 9 in followers, respectively. With just under 8,000 followers, @GamecockWBB jumped to No. 9 in the country from 24th among women's basketball squads last year. @GamecockSwim (No. 25) and @GamecockMTennis (No. 22) are also ranked in the Top 25 for followers.

Most of the Gamecocks' head coaches as well as Athletics Director Ray Tanner have established individual Twitter accounts. A full directory may be found at GamecocksOnline.com/Connect.

YOUTUBE

YouTube.com/GamecocksOnline
12,298 subscribers, ranked 10th nationally

Our YouTube channel generated 4,262,100 views from July 1, 2013, to July 1, 2014. Boosted by being the top pick in the NFL Draft, videos involving Jadeveon Clowney were among the most viewed over the past year. The Gamecocks' winter workout highlight videos also continue to be hugely popular. s.
