CAROLINA'S NCAA HISTORY

The Gamecocks have a rich history of competing in the NCAA Championship in men's soccer. Carolina has appeared in 18 NCAA Tournaments since the program's inception in 1978, beginning with their first trip to the NCAA Championship in 1979.

South Carolina has played in the NCAA quarterfinals on four occasions and made two trips to the NCAA Final Four (1988, 1993). The Gamecocks played in the National Championship match in 1993.

Heading into the 2006 season, the Gamecocks have advanced to the NCAA Tournament in 12 of the last 15 years.

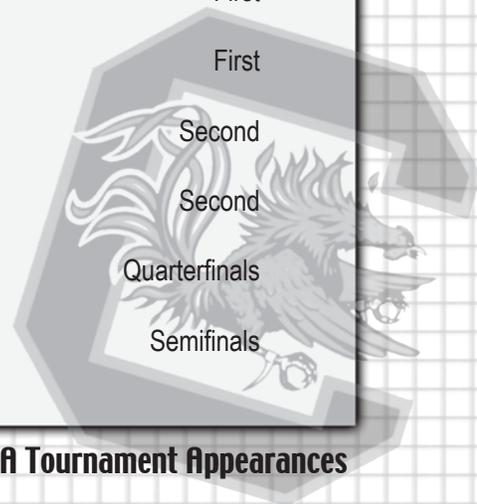

Head coach Mark Berson and former assistant Doug Allison pose with the 1993 NCAA Runner-Up Trophy.

Clemson 1, Carolina 0
Nov. 25 at Riggs Field

CLEMSON, S.C. — After only two seasons of competition, Mark Berson led the Gamecocks to the school's first-ever NCAA Tournament appearance. The game was a rematch of an earlier 1-0 win by the Tigers in Clemson, and a first-half goal by Obed Ariri began and ended the scoring on a rainy day at Riggs Field.

The loss ended USC's season at 14-5-0, a year that included four losses by a 1-0 score and which earned the Gamecocks their first national ranking (16th at midseason).

COLUMBIA, S.C. — Two first-half goals just eight minutes apart broke a scoreless tie and Carolina went on to a 3-0 victory over Duke in the Gamecocks' first ever NCAA Tournament match at The Graveyard. Carolina opened the scoring 21 minutes into the match on a goal by Doug Allison off a Scott Cook pass. Cook scored eight minutes later when an apparent cross found the net for a 2-0 halftime lead.

Dan Ratcliff finished the scoring 15 minutes into the second half on a pass from Allison as the Gamecocks advanced to the second round for the first time in school history.

CLEMSON, S.C. — Carolina headed into the second round match at Clemson with a 19-2-1 record with the Tigers breaking USC's 13-match winning streak earlier in the year at Clemson. Also on the line was Clemson's perfect 9-0 record all-time against the Gamecocks as over 6,000 spectators were on hand for the NCAA South Region Championship match.

But Carolina would put together its finest defensive performance of the year, stopping 14 Clemson shots and sending the match into sudden death penalty kicks. After Carolina's Bill Hency made it 1-0, the Tigers' J.R. Fenton missed wide right and following Arni Arnthorsson successful try, the Gamecocks had defeated the defending national champions for the first time ever and had advanced to the NCAA quarterfinals.

COLUMBIA, S.C. — South Carolina had its bid for a trip to the Final Four thwarted by a talented American squad in front of over 4,000 rain-soaked fans as the Eagles won, 2-0, at The Graveyard. Playing on a field drenched by rain for four days, the two teams were scoreless after the first half, but the Eagles broke out in the second stanza.

All-America Michael Brady slipped a tough-angle shot past USC's National Goalkeeper of the Year Warren Lipka at 58:11 for what turned out to be the game-winning goal. Brady then assisted on a second goal which put the contest away and sent American to the Final Four, where the Eagles lost in the finals to UCLA.

Carolina finished the year with a school-record 20 wins and a 20-3-1 overall mark.

Duke 3, Carolina 2
Nov. 16 at Duke Field

DURHAM, N.C. — South Carolina played its first NCAA match ever outside the state of South Carolina and came away with a hard-luck 3-2 loss to the highly-regarded Blue Devils at Duke Field. The Gamecocks had lost to the Blue Devils 3-2 in overtime earlier in the year and were poised for revenge after Gavin Coombs scored nine minutes into the game.

But after Duke tied the game at the 22:47 mark on a goal by Steve Kerr, the Blue Devils pushed another goal across when Tommy Loeber and goalie Chris Foley collided on a crossing pass, sending both players to the hospital. Duke would score again just 28 seconds later for a 3-1 lead, but Carolina fought back to a 3-2 halftime deficit after a Dan Ratcliff unassisted goal with less than a minute to play.

Neither team scored in the second half, ending the Gamecocks' season at 17-5-0.

COLUMBIA, S.C. — South Carolina entered the 1987 NCAA Tournament as the South Region's top seed and led by the senior tandem of Doug Allison, Marty Baltzegar, Scott Cook and Jim Sonefeld. In the first round, the Gamecocks took advantage of that leadership as Cook pushed through an overtime goal for USC's 1-0 win over N.C. State at The Graveyard.

Carolina outshot the Wolfpack 14-5 and had a number of opportunities thwarted by N.C. State goalie Kris Peat. But Cook penetrated the defense and scored on a Jeff Love pass with only 2:36 left in the second overtime period to send the Gamecocks into the South Region title match.

COLUMBIA, S.C. — The North Carolina Tar Heels broke the hearts of Gamecock soccer faithful as Derek Missimo pushed through the clinching penalty kick for a 2-1 Tar Heel victory to end the Gamecocks' season.

USC opened the scoring with a goal midway through the opening half, but Doug Allison answered on a Scott Cook pass at the 70:11 mark to send the game into overtime. Both teams had chances go by the board in overtime and after the Gamecocks missed twice on penalty chances, Missimo netted the game winner.

The loss to UNC was only the second for the Gamecocks on the season as they finished with an impressive 16-2-3 record, allowing a school-low 0.42 goals per game with an incredible 14 shutouts.

COLUMBIA, S.C. — Fresh off another top seed in the South and looking for revenge from last year's stunning setback to North Carolina, the Gamecocks cruised to a 3-1 win over the Tar Heels at The Graveyard. The Gamecocks looked sharp after earning a first-round bye, pushing through two first half goals and never trailing.

Phil Seidenberg opened the scoring off a Clark Brissson pass at the 27:17 mark and USC made it 2-0 after Grenville Pope scored at 38:37 to put the Gamecocks up by a 2-0 count at the intermission. Derek Missimo scored an unassisted goal with 7:30 to play in the match but the

Carolina 1, Southern Methodist 0 Nov. 27 at The Graveyard

COLUMBIA, S.C. — South Carolina made school history, scoring on a beautifully orchestrated goal in the first half and held on for a 1-0 win over SMU at The Graveyard to advance to the Final Four for the first time in school history.

Played before a good crowd on Thanksgiving weekend, Carolina broke the ice midway through the first half off a free kick. Clark Brisson whiffed on the attempt just outside the 18-yard box and got behind the SMU wall, where a second pass from Billy McMullan found him wide open for the point-blank goal. The Gamecocks' Charles Arndt stopped 10 Mustang shots and led the Gamecocks to Bloomington, Ind., for a shot at the title.

BLOOMINGTON, IND. — Playing in its first Final Four game ever, South Carolina could not overcome missed opportunities and a star-studded performance from Howard goalie Shaka Hislop as the Bison came away with a 2-0 victory in the semifinals.

Though USC outshot the Bison, 12-8, Carolina missed two point-blank chances in the first half on incredible Hislop and the teams went into intermission tied at 0-0. Howard would score a penalty kick goal less than 10 minutes into the second half, however, and got past the Gamecock defense for the final margin with 15 minutes left for the 2-0 victory.

COLUMBIA, S.C. — For the second time in three years, South Carolina came away with a thrilling victory in the first round as the Gamecocks slipped past Duke, 2-1, at The Graveyard. In a game featuring all the scoring in the second half, USC advanced to the second round of the tourney for the third-straight season and fourth time in five years.

The two teams played to a scoreless first half with the Gamecocks dominating, outshooting Duke 15-7. Andrew Coggins broke the ice with a goal at 65:07, but Duke tied it seven minutes later. The score remained tied until Ruben Tufino scored with only four minutes left on the clock for the thrilling, 2-1 win.

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. — In one of the more impressive offensive showings in USC's postseason history, South Carolina scored early and never trailed in blistering Wake Forest, 5-1, at Polo Field to earn a berth in the NCAA quarterfinals for the third time in five years.

Carolina wasted little time, scoring on a Jeff Love goal just five minutes into the match, followed by an unassisted Ruben Tufino score at 18:02 to make it 2-0 Gamecocks at halftime. Wake Forest finally scored with just less than 20 minutes to play, but the Gamecocks quickly responded with three goals.

Tufino scored six minutes after the Deacon tally and Clark Brisson and Andrew Coggins closed out the scoring in the final five minutes — Coggins' goal coming on a midfield chip of the Deacon goalkeeper with a minute to play.

CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA. — Chris Keldermen scored an astro turf-aided goal with under 10 minutes to play in the second overtime period and Virginia went on to a 1-0 victory over the Gamecocks at Scott Field, ending USC's run and season a 17-3-2.

The Gamecocks had trouble adjusting to the astro turf surface early, but managed to get outstanding goalkeeping from Chris Foley and went into intermission tied 0-0. Neither team could get on the board in the second half, with a Clark Brisson shot from inside the 18-yard box glancing off the crossbar with time ticking away in regulation. Cavalier goalie and future U.S. Olympic team member Tony Meola stopped a couple of Gamecock attempts in overtime before Keldermen's goal iced the contest.

A Virginia shot was saved by Foley on a diving attempt, but the ball bounced into the air off the turf surface, where Keldermen headed it in at 111:52 for the victory.

CLEMSON, S.C. — Faced with the task of a return trip to Clemson where Carolina had lost 3-1 earlier in the year, the Gamecocks responded with a resounding 3-0 victory over the Tigers at Riggs Field to advance to the NCAA second round.

The Gamecocks defeated Clemson, 3-0, in the first round of the 1990 NCAA Tournament.

2006 Gamecocks

Played before 5,500 fans in Clemson, Greg Strehmel broke a scoreless match up with a goal at the 39:21 mark for a 1-0 USC lead at the intermission. Just after the half, Andrew Coggins took consecutive passes from Clark Brisson and Jonas Gudjonsson to put the Gamecocks up 2-0. A late penalty kick by Strehmel closed out the scoring and sent the Gamecocks into the second round for the fourth-straight season.

Before an overflow crowd of 6,720 — the second-largest ever in the state of South Carolina — the Gamecocks advanced to the quarterfinals with an impressive 3-2 victory over Clemson.

Carolina started out on fire and led 2-0 after just 20 minutes of action. Chris Faklaris (14:44) and Rob Smith (18:19) recorded unassisted goals for USC's early advantage, but Wolde Harris got Clemson to within one at the intermission. Harris scored a second goal 10 minutes into the second stanza and momentum seemed to be on Clemson's side for a comeback. Smith, however, launched a 25-yard blast that beat Tiger goalie Yaro Zawislanski to the upper far corner of the net for the victory.

COLUMBIA, S.C. — Despite a valiant effort, the University of South Carolina men's soccer team was unable to overcome College of Charleston, falling 3-2, in the first round of the NCAA Soccer Tournament at Stone Stadium.

College of Charleston registered the first goal of the match in the 27th minute. Darren Toby headed in Troy Lesesne's free kick to put the Cougars on top, 1-0.

The Cougars took a 2-0 lead at the 61:15 mark when Jeremy Gold drove the ball downfield on a counter attack, all the way into the box and knocked it into the back of the net.

Facing a two-goal deficit, USC picked up the pace, and got on the scoreboard in the 73rd minute. Sophomore forward Ayo Akinsete took a pass from Jose Ramos and fired a shot into the lower left corner of the goal from 10-yards out.

USC continued to fight, but Charleston answered with its third goal at 79:37. Toby struck again, playing give-and-go with Gold before firing the ball in from 12-yards and making it 3-1.

The Gamecocks would not go quietly, though. Just over two minutes later, junior Greg Reece rifled a shot and Wiggins earned the save with a deflection, but Deter hustled after the loose ball and headed the ball just across the goal line to bring USC back to within a goal.

Carolina's furious rally continued, but came up short. After being out-shot 13-7, the Gamecocks turned the tables, out-shooting Charleston, 18-7, in the final 45 minutes.

The Gamecocks came out firing, forcing Wake goalkeeper Brian Edwards to make a two of his three first-half saves in the opening five minutes. Ryan Deter took a shot inside the 18-yard box, and a minute later, Ayo Akinsete beat the Demon Deacon defense to go one-on-one with Edwards, who cut down the chance.

The action continued back and forth throughout the half, with both teams mounting dangerous scoring opportunities. In the 31st minute, Wake's Lyle Adams fired a shot from near the top of the box of from left to right that was saved off the line by Makan Hislop. The Demon Deacons' follow-up attempt from Jamie Franks sailed high.

Carolina freshman goalkeeper Mike Gutavson came up with a big save with 3:22 remaining in the half. Wells Thompson booted a volley shot from 15 yards out on the left side, but Gustavson reacted quickly, knocking down the ball for the save, his third of the half.

Neither team was able to crack the scoring column in the opening 45 minutes. Wake Forest held the shot advantage, 11-8 while South Carolina took two corner kicks to the Deacons' one.

With 37:31 to play in the match, Hislop was tagged with a red card following a tackle on Moose, forcing the Gamecocks to play with 10 men the rest of the way.

Wake Forest broke the scoreless tie at the 68:32 mark. Sam Cronin played the ball from the right side to a waiting Solle inside the box. Solle drove the ball into right side of the net to make it, 1-0. The goal was his first of the season.

Carolina continued to battle and threatened to tie in the 74th minute. Ralph Pace controlled the ball at the top of the 18-yard box and played it wide right of the goal to Deter. Deter crossed the ball to Akinsete. Akinsete's shot sailed wide right.

Wake exploited its one-man advantage with 1:49 left to play as Thompson scored on a breakaway. Solle was credited with an assist on the goal.

Gustavson finished with five saves for the Gamecocks while Edwards had four stops for Wake.
