SCOUTING EASTERN KENTUCKY

The Colonels enter the tournament at 2-5, but have played a challenging schedule with three-straight weekends on the road to open their season. EKU opened the season with wins over San Diego State and Cal State, Northridge before dropping the next five. Last weekend, the team lost to Arizona, Radford and Grand Canyon out at the Cactus Classic in Tucson. Leading the offense are senior pins Nikki Drost and Celina Sanks, who account for over half (5.68) of the team's kills per set (10.82). At the net, Ciera Koons accounts for 1.04 blocks per set, but the team as a whole is averaging just 1.75 blocks per set through seven matches. The Colonels are under the direction of Lori Duncan, now in her 20th season leading the program.

SCOUTING MIAMI (OHIO)

Year in and year out, the Redhawks of Miami have proven themselves as one of the best mid-major programs in the country. In 2016, the team finished 24-7, won its conference regular season title and earned a rare at-large bid to the NCAA tournament. This season, Miami is the odds-on favorite to win the Mid-American Conference, receiving 10 of the 12 possible first-place votes in the preseason coaches poll and return most of the key contributors to last year's tournament run. Senior libero Maeve McDonald and senior pin Katie Tomasic made the preseason all-conference team, and despite a very challenging schedule the team enters the Carolina Classic at 4-4. Of those four losses, though, three have been tight contests with perennial standouts such as Western Kentucky, Wichita State, and Dayton. Nationally, Miami's defense ranks 16th in digs per set, and McDonald is 25th in the nation with 5.37 digs per set.

SCOUTING RADFORD

The Highlanders are another perennial power coming to the tournament, with 24 or more wins in three of the last four seasons under coach Marci Jenkins. Radford is quietly building another solid season in 2017, as it enters week three with a 6-0 record. The team swept through the Cactus Classic in Tucson last weekend, highlighted by a 3-2 win over the host Wildcats from Arizona on Saturday after trailing 2-0. Senior pin Maddie Palmer has a lot to do with the early success, as the 2016 Big South Player of the Year is already averaging 3.65 kills per set with a .274 hitting percentage. The Highlanders rank 21st nationally in aces per set as a team and 58th in blocks.

PRESEASON PRESS

The South Carolina Gamecocks were picked to finish seventh in the SEC, and sophomore pin Mikayla Shields made the 10-woman preseason all-conference team. Both were voted on by league coaches. The Orlando, Fla. native is the first Gamecock to make the conference's preseason team since Juliette Thévenin in 2013.

QUOTABLE: SCOTT SWANSON

On the team rebounding Saturday vs. Duke after a tough start to the weekend "I just saw some of the cleanest volleyball that we've played in the short season so far. Last night, after a couple of disappointing losses, and having to shuffle the lineup because of injuries and some sickness, it was a pretty dreary feeling in the locker room. Mikyla Shields stood up and said 'this is not happening, tomorrow Duke doesn't know what's going to hit them.' The team rallied behind that and she backed it up in a big way... it was a special comeback from a really rough day before."

DUKE INVITATIONAL NOTABLES

- Mikayla Shields made the all-tournament team, after averaging 5.33 kills and 3.17 digs per set, while hitting .383. Her 26 kills against the Blue Devils set a new career high.
- The win over Duke was the team's first since 1988. The home team had won the previous five meetings in the all-time series.
- Sophomore setter Courtney Koehler had her best match as a Gamecock in the win over Duke, with four kills, 47 assists and eight digs. Her previous high for assists was 35.
- Courtney Furlong set a new career high with 16 digs against UNC Wilmington. She shattered her previous best, which was seven in her freshman year.
- Aubrey Ezell's 17 assists and 15 digs against UNCW give her 26 career double-doubles, good for ninth in school history.
- Shields' recorded a double-double in each match over the weekend. Her 17 digs against UNCW set a new career high.
- The team's 13 blocks against Duke are a season best, and are the most since Oct. 2 of last season.

SHIELD-BEARER

Mikayla Shields had a weekend to remember at the Duke Invitational, finishing the three-match weekend with 64 kills over the 12 sets while hitting .383 and recording a double-double in each match. She started the weekend with a 14-kill, 10-dig performance against Northwestern, and followed that up in the second match of a doubleheader by going for career-highs with 24 kills and 17 digs against UNC Wilmington. She saved the best performance of her young career when the team needed her most, as she stepped up against the host Blue Devils and reached a new career high with 26 kills and just three errors on 45 swings (good for a .511 hitting percentage). That moved her into a tie for the fifth-most kills in a four-set match in the program's rally-scoring era. She would also dig up 11 more balls. For the weekend, Shields averaged 5.33 kills and 3.17 digs per set, while hitting .383.

NOTEWORTHY

FURLONG AND LOCK OVERCOME INJURIES TO PROVIDE DEPTH IN 2017

Juniors Courtney Furlong and Emma Lock both entered the season as question marks, after going through major injuries last season. Lock missed most of her sophomore campaign with a shoulder injury, and Furlong suffered through a back injury during the team's winter training and had to have surgery in May. With both back in the rotation, they have immediately boosted the team both on and off the court. Lock has seen time in all six matches, and is averaging 1.39 digs per set as a defensive specialist. Furlong has started in four of the six matches and is averaging career highs in kills, digs and blocks so far in 2017.

ROBINSON WITH A HISTORIC DEBUT

In her first collegiate match, freshman middle Mikayla Robinson led the Gamecocks with 12 kills on 13 attacks against Mercer, giving her a final hitting percentage of .846. That is the highest by any Gamecock with double-digit kills in a match since Lori Rowe hit .870 back on Sept. 17, 1983. Robinson and Rowe are the only Gamecocks to ever finish with a hitting percentage of .800 or better with double-digit kills.

A 'FRESH' PERSPECTIVE

The Gamecocks welcome in four freshman for the 2017 season...

- Brooke Gostomski was a multiple-time Wisconsin Volleyball Coaches Association (WVCA) All-State honoree as an outside hitter, playing for Muskego High School. She missed her senior season due to injury, but still was named one of the top 150 high school seniors due to her success at the club level.
- Ellie Popelka was a high school all-american for Jamestown High School in Virginia. She made the AVCA's high school phenom team three times, and was the Wendy's High School Heisman representative for Virginia.
- Mikayla Robinson comes to Carolina as a top-20 recruit, and is also a high school all-american. She made Volleyball Magazine's Fab 50 team, and had a successful career at the high school and club level. Her father, Marcus, was a star football player at South Carolina and in the NFL, and also ran on the Gamecock track and field team.
- Jess Vastine is another high school all-american, coming to Columbia from Wittman, Arizona. She finished second in kills and third in aces at the state's Division II level, and was a AIA Division I first team member while playing for her mother at Millennium High School.

THE SUMMER OF SHIELDS

After posting one of the best seasons ever by a Gamecock freshman, Mikayla Shields expanded her skills over the summer thanks to a stint with Team U.S.A. In April, she was named to the junior national team roster, and won gold with the team at the U20 Pan American Cup in Costa Rica. She was also invited to training camp for the FIVB U20 World Championships, but did not make the 12-woman roster. Shields is the first Gamecock to earn experience on the national team since 2006, when current assistant coach Shonda Cole competed for the U.S.A. Volleyball National A2 Team in 2005 and 2006.

GAMECOCKS EARN AVCA ACADEMIC HONORS

The 2016 squad earned a place on The American Volleyball Coaches Association's (AVCA) Team Academic Award for the sixth-straight season, all coming under the direction of head coach Scott Swanson. The team's 3.673 GPA for the team in the spring semester was the second-highest in program history.

2016-17 PROGRAM NOTABLES

- South Carolina is coming of an 18-win season in 2016, the most since 2012.The offense hit a combined .246 for the year, 37 points higher than 2015 and
- the third-highest overall in the last decade.
  Mikayla Shields finished the season with team highs in kills (341) and hitting percentage (.308). She is the first Gamecock since Shonda Cole in 2006 to lead the team in both categories, and is the first since Belita Salters in 2008 to have over 300 kills while also hitting above .300.
- Shields earned a spot on the AVCA honorable mention team for the Southeast. She is the 25th Gamecock in school history to make the team, and the first Carolina freshman since Ashley Edlund in 1995 to be honored.
- Alicia Starr set the freshman record for blocks per set in the rally-scoring era (1.13).
  Aubrey Ezell shattered the sophomore service aces record, finishing with 41. She also cut her error rate down from 0.82 per set in 2015 to 0.58 in 2016.

HOME-COURT ADVANTAGE

After a 2016 that saw the team welcome in three of the top five crowds in the Carolina Volleyball Center's history, the Gamecocks picked up right where they left off in the 2017 season's opening weekend. Against Mercer in the season opener, 1,925 fans packed the stands for the second-largest crowd in program history. Then in the tournament championship match against North Florida on Saturday, 1,804 more filled the gym for the fifth-highest attendance ever. Over 5,000 Gamecock faithful attended the team's first three matches of the season.

ALL-TIME RECORDS

- South Carolina holds a 789-612 (.562) all-time record, dating back to 1973.
- The Gamecocks joined the SEC for volleyball in 1991, and have an all-time conference record of 179-237 (.431).
- In matches in the Carolina Volleyball Center, Carolina 187-100 (.651).
- With 96 career wins, head coach Scott Swanson ranks third in program history for wins. Kim Hudson (1993-2004) is the program's wins leader, with 226.

Sophomore Alicia Starr was a surprise standout at the net in her first season with the team. Despite playing out at the pin in her prep career, Starr moved in to the middle due to depth concerns, and turned out to be the team's top blocker. Her 1.13 blocks per set set the program's freshman record for the rally-scoring era serve has been

gram's most dominant in the rally-scoring
era. Her first two seasons with the program rank fourth and fifth in program history for aces per set, all while cutting her service errors almost in half from 2015 to 2016.

SCOTT SWANSON || HEAD COACH

- Third in program history for career wins
- Coached seven NCAA tournament teams (Arizona State 1999, 2000, Minnesota 2006-10)
- Part of staff that coached eight All-Americans
- Recruited three top-10 classes to Minnesota

The 11th head coach in Gamecock Volleyball history, Scott Swanson aims to build off a strong 2016 campaign as he begins year seven with the program. The Gamecocks will lean on a young but talented core that helped the team finish last season with 18 wins, tied for the most under Swanson.

The team started 2016 with a 12-match win streak, sweeping all four of its preseason tournaments for the best start since 2012. A handful of first-year players showed early on that they would be key factors in the team's success, as freshmen Mikayla Shields, Courtney Koehler, Claire Edwards and Alicia Starr stepped in to major playing time in the non-conference.

The young Gamecocks would be challenged in the SEC, finishing 9th overall with a 6-12 record. South Carolina faced the toughest conference schedule of any SEC team, with home and away match ups with each of the top four finishers. Despite the adversity, the team picked up its first wins over a ranked team in 10 years after beating No. 21 Missouri at home, erased a 2-0 deficit to Miss. State on the road, and earned its first road win over LSU since 2003. Shields was honored with SEC All-Freshman team honors in the postseason, and also was one of just two freshmen to make the AVCA's All-Region team. In the summer, Mikayla earned a spot on the Collegiate National Team and played for Team USA at the Pan-American Cup, winning gold.

The Gamecocks faced a season of different adversities in 2015, coming from untimely injuries and a roster featuring six freshmen who all were asked to fill important roles. The team bonded through the rigors of the season, and picked up impressive wins over Tennessee, Ole Miss, and a season sweep of Arkansas. Swanson moved into third in program history for wins in a career after winning his 72nd game at South Carolina on Oct. 25. Individually, freshman Aubrey Ezell finished with perhaps one of the best debut seasons ever by a Gamecock, finishing the season with the second-most assists ever in the program's rally-scoring era and a spot on the SEC All-Freshman Team.

It would not just be the freshmen who would surprise, the team also saw breakout seasons from Dessaa Legros and Sarah Blomgren. Senior Darian Dozier capped her career in style, moving up to third in program history for career blocks and entered the top ten in hitting percentage as well. Off the court, the team volunteered over 1100 for community service, the most of any team at South Carolina.

In 2014, the Gamecocks posted a 17-14 record, which included seven SEC wins, the program's most since 2008. Libero Mikaela Christiaansen set the program record for most digs in a single season with 535, while middle blocker Darian Dozier set single-season rally scoring era school records for total blocks (141) and block assists (127). The Gamecocks also turned in another strong year in the classroom, as a league-best 12 players made the SEC Fall Academic Honor Roll.

During the 2013 season, outside hitter Juliette Thévenin became just the second Gamecock in school history to earn AVCA All-America honors as she was named honorable mention All-American. Thévenin was also a first-team AVCA All-Southeast Region and All-SEC selection, leaving the program in the top 10 in six career categories.

Swanson guided the Gamecocks to an 18-14 record in 2012, the program's second winning season in the last decade. South Carolina got off to a program-best 13-0 start and improved its hitting percentage for a second straight season, ranking second in the SEC with a percentage of .255, an improvement of 29 points from the previous year. Outside hitter Juliette Thévenin garnered second-team All-SEC honors after she ranked second in SEC play with 4.40 kills per set and 4.81 points per set, becoming the first Gamecock since 2008 to receive an All-SEC award.

In Swanson's first season, the Gamecocks went 14-16 and improved its offensive efficiency and its backline defense under his guidance. The team led the SEC with a 16.78 digs average, the best mark in four years for the Gamecocks, and hit .226, a 45-point improvement from the 2011 season.

Swanson's teams have also proved themselves in the classroom, earning the Team Academic Award from the American Volleyball Coaches Association all six of his seasons at Carolina. In his six seasons, 61 student-athletes have earned a spot on the SEC Academic honor roll, including all 12 eligible players in 2016. The team also claimed the department's Life Skills Team of the Year award in 2011-12, honoring the group for its academic achievements, personal development and work in the community.

Prior to his current head coaching job, Swanson spent five years on the sidelines for the Golden Gophers, helping the team to five-consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances and a 125-46 record. Three times, Minnesota finished second in the Big Ten behind perennial power Penn State. The 2009 team advanced to the national semifinals in the NCAA Tournament.

During his tenure in Minneapolis, five Golden Gophers earned All-America accolades, including 2009 first-team middle blocker and 2012 US National Team pool member Lauren Gibberneyer. Swanson also led the Gophers' recruiting efforts, posting three top-10 recruiting classes according to PrepVolleyball.com. The 2009 group earned top honors from the outlet.

In the summer of 2009, Swanson spent time with USA Volleyball's A-2 Junior National Team, and he coached the USA Red team to a second-place showing in the 2008 USA Adult Open Championships.

Swanson brings in four years of head coaching experience to Columbia after his tenure at the University of Texas-El Paso. With a 50-61 career record, Swanson had the team on the brink of the NCAA Tournament in 2005, when the Miners went 21-10. Three player earned all-conference honors under Swanson's tutelage, including honorable mention All-American Kari Stacy. He also inked a high school All-American and saw his team improve in the classroom to a department-best 3.2 GPA in 2005.

Prior to UTEP, Swanson spent six years at his alma mater, Arizona State. He helped the team to two NCAA Tournament appearances during his time in Tempe and coached one second-team All-American and two Pac-10 All-Freshman Team players. Two of his Sun Devil players garnered Academic All-America certificates as well.

Swanson started his coaching career at Mountain View (Ariz.) High School, working as an assistant with the varsity team and leading his junior varsity group to a 17-1 record. As a head coach with the Arizona East Valley Juniors club, he led a 16-1s team to a national runner-up finish and earned Cactus Region Coach of the Year honors. He also served as head coach at Camelback High School before landing the job with Arizona State, where he also played club volleyball.

A graduate of ASU, Swanson is married to the former Erin Meier. The couple has two daughters, Rylee Sue and Haylen Rae.
