WEEMS BASKIN

The outdoor track is dedicated in honor of former coach Weems O. Baskin, Jr. After his death in 1993, the All-Comers Meet was renamed in his honor, the Weems Baskin Memorial Meet.

During his brilliant coaching career at South Carolina from 1949 to 1969, Baskin won 90 dual meets and lost 47. He later held the position of administrative assistant to the athletic director before retiring in 1972.

The only breaks in his coaching career that began in 1930 were during World War II when Baskin served as a Naval officer, in 1946 and 1947 as a businessman in Athens, Ga., and 1951 when South Carolina did not field a team due to the Korean War.

Originally from Carrollton, Ga., Baskin was a four-sport athlete at Carrollton High School. He enrolled at Auburn in 1923 and by his senior year was playing tight end on the football team and winning the national championship in the 110-meter high hurdles. Baskin also ran the low hurdles and competed in the shot put, discus, javelin and high jump. He won the Southern Conference title three straight years in the high hurdles and was a national AAU indoor champion in 1928.

After receiving a degree in education, Baskin ran for the New York Athletic Club for two winters and wrote for various publications. He began his coaching career as an assistant football coach at Auburn in 1930 and assisted with the track team. He went to Georgia in 1931 to become the head track coach while serving as an assistant to football. Baskin served in the same capacity at Mississippi from 1938 to 1943 before joining the Naval Reserve during WWII.

Baskin, a former president of the National Track and Field Coaches Association and chairman of the NCAA Track and Field Rules Committee, is a member of the U.S. Track & Field and Cross Country Coaches Association Hall of Fame (USTFCCCA) and the Helms Foundation Track and Field Hall of Fame. He also was elected to the South Carolina and Georgia Track and Field Halls of Fame.

ABOUT WEEMS BASKIN TRACK

The outdoor track, named in honor of legendary Gamecock coach Weems Baskin, features a 400-meter, eight-lane track with multi-directional sprint straightaways. The Eroton "S" Synthetic track surface is made by Southwest Recreational Industries, Inc.

Inside the track are two multi-directional long and triple jump runways that include four pits. There also is a multi-directional vault area, and the high jump apron was expanded during the 1997 surfacing project.

The outdoor track also features world-class throwing facilities. The hammer and discus circles are surrounded by a 20-foot high cage that meets NCAA and international standards. There also are two shot put rings, a javelin runway and an additional ring with a cage.

The outdoor track has seating to accommodate 2,200 spectators.

2014 AWARD PRESENTATIONS

On Saturday at 1 p.m., the action on the track will break for a brief moment to recognize four South Carolina student-athletes with the Horse Award as well as the Deronda Powell and James Bauknight Awards.

The Horse Award

The Horse Award was created in 2010 and is named for Bob “The Horse” Dempsey. The honor was created by South Carolina track alumni to honor the memory Dempsey and is presented annually to deserving seniors who exemplify what Dempsey meant to his team: a competitive spirit, a tremendous work ethic, and a zeal for making his team better. This year’s recipients are seniors Chris Royster and Vashti Bandy.

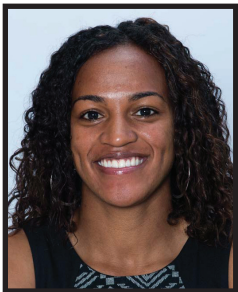

CHRIS ROYSTER

SR • Conyers, Ga.

Chris Royster has been a workhorse the team can rely on, participating in nearly 80 relays over the course of his four seasons in the Garnet and Black. Already holding two relay All-America certificates, he saw increased individual success while also continuing to be a consummate team player last season. At the 2013 SEC Outdoor Championships, Royster ran the fourth-fastest all-conditions 100-meter dash in school history at 10.17. He went on to make his individual NCAA debut in the event, earning his third overall All-America honor. The team recognized Royster’s importance and hard work by naming him a team captain this season.

VASHTI BANDY

SR • Charlotte, N.C.

Also a dependable and indispensable relay member, Vashti Bandy has also run on nearly 80 relays during her career at South Carolina. Bandy is a four-time relay All-American and has made an impact since her freshman season when she earned certificates in both the 4x100-meter and 4x400-meter relays. The Gamecocks placed 10th in the 4x1 that year, her best NCAA finish. A member of the SEC Academic Honor Roll, Bandy also serves as a team captain.

The James Bauknight & Deronda Powell Awards

The South Carolina track and field program is also honoring recipients for the James Bauknight and Deronda Powell Awards. These awards are named in honor of two long-time employees in the South Carolina athletics department that were known for their dedication and service to the university and the track and field program. Seniors Josh Suttmeier and Jeannelle Scheper are being recognized for embodying the characteristics for which these two individuals were known for during their time as a Gamecock.

JOSH SUTTMEIER

R-JR • Somerdom, N.J.

Josh Suttmeier has left his mark at South Carolina both on and off the field of competition. In his first season, Suttmeier set the school javelin record at the 2012 NCAA Championships, with a throw of 238’6”. Last season, the team captain battled injuries, but attempted to score for his team at the 2013 SEC Outdoor Championships. Suttmeier is the vice president of the University’s Student-Athlete Advisory Committee and is devoted to serving the community. With athletics, academics, community service and leadership roles on his plate, an exceptional work ethic has helped the USTFCCA All-Academic excel at everything.

JEANNELLE SCHEPER

SR • Gros-Islet, St. Lucia

Jeannelle Scheper made quick work of writing her legacy at South Carolina. After becoming the first Gamecock earn a high jump bid for NCAA championship in 2012, Scheper has not missed an NCAA event since. She is now a five-time All-American. In 2013, she captured the first SEC high jump crown in program history and just weeks ago earned her second-straight NCAA indoor silver medal. Scheper’s contributions to the team are not limited to results though. Overcoming the challenges of moving from St. Lucia to join the Gamecocks at the young age of 16, Scheper has worked her way into a leadership role and has become an irreplaceable asset in bringing the team together. Scheper has also ramped up her community service efforts and is a member of the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee as well.
