GAMECOCKS SET FOR NCAA CHAMPIONSHIPS

Five individuals will represent South Carolina this week at the 2014 NCAA Men's Swimming and Diving Championships. The meet runs Thursday through Saturday at the Lee and Joe Jamail Texas Swimming Center in Austin, Texas. Preliminaries will begin each day at 12 p.m., and finals will be contested each night at 8. Sophomore Marwan El Kamash will swim in three individual events for the Gamecocks (100 freestyle, 200 freestyle, 500 freestyle), while seniors Michael Flach, Gerard Rodriguez, Jay Warner and redshirt freshman Kevin Leithold will join El Kamash to swim the relay events.

HISTORY AT THE NCAA CHAMPIONSHIPS

This is the 30th year South Carolina will have at least one student-athlete compete at the NCAA Men's Championships. The Gamecocks last appearance at the meet came in 2013 when then-junior Michael Flach swam the 200 freestyle, 500 freestyle and 200 butterfly. South Carolina has 12 top-25 finishes all-time at the NCAA Championships, with the last being a 20th-place showing in 2004. The Gamecocks' best finish was a 10th-place showing in 1987 after winning the Metro Conference Championship. During that year's championships, South Carolina had All-America performances from nine individuals and two relays. The Gamecocks have never had an individual national champion.

LAST TIME AT THE NCAA CHAMPIONSHIPS - 2013

Then-junior Michael Flach was the team's lone individual at the championships as he competed in the 200 freestyle (39th), 500 freestyle (45th) and 200 butterfly (27th). Flach also joined his teammates on the 200 (24th) and 400 (28th) medley relays, along with 800 freestyle relay which proved to be the group's top event. Joined by Marwan El Kamash, Alex Fitton and Gerard Rodriguez, Flach and Co. became Carolina's first relay team to earn All-America honors since 2007 as the team finished 15th with a time of 6:24.54. As a team, South Carolina finished 38th.

BREAKING NATIONAL RECORDS

Already one of the top swimmers in Egypt, sophomore Marwan El Kamash solidified his spot in late November at the Egyptian Championships where he broke both the 400 and 800 freestyle national records. In four races at the Championships, the native of Alexandria, Egypt, won the 200, 400 and 800 freestyles, and took second in the 50 freestyle.

SEC CHAMPIONSHIPS RECAP

South Carolina saw five school records fall at the SEC Championships in Athens, Ga., two from individuals and three from its relays. Junior Alex Vance broke the men's 200 breaststroke record twice on the final day, topping out at 1:56.47. Junior Victoria

Mitchell performed a similar feat, breaking the women's 200 backstroke record twice on the final day as she posted a time of 1:57.01 in the finals.

The 800 freestyle team comprised of Marwan El Kamash, Kevin Leithold, Michael Flach and Gerard Rodriguez shattered the school record in the event with a time of 6:20.59 as the finished fifth with an NCAA 'A' cut at the SEC Championships. Despite finishing ninth in the 200 medley, the group of Jay Warner, Eric Lethander, Leithold and Flach set the school record in the event at 1:26.13, more than a half a second better last year's group. The 400-medley relay of Warner, Leithold, Flach and El Kamash broke the school record with a mark of 3:11.58, which topped the group that set the record at the 2013 SEC Championships.

Overall, the Gamecock men finished the meet in 10th, while the women placed 11th.

CLOSING OUT HOME SLATE WITH A WIN

With the senior class competing for the final time at home, it was a bittersweet ending to for the group as the finished off their careers at Carolina Natatorium with a pair of sweeps over Queens and Wingate. The men defeated Wingate 187-130 and Queens 176-141, while the women won 182-129 over Wingate and 172-136 over Queens. The two teams combined to post the top time in 27 events during the two-day meet. The Gamecocks depth shined as they collected eight total 1-2-3 finishes for the weekend. Carolina also had at least 18 1-2 finishes. Individually, Kevin Leithold led Carolina on the weekend with five total wins, with three coming from relays. Elizabeth Maltby (500 and 1,000 free), Elise Weisert (100 and 200 breaststroke) and Taylor Vincent (50 and 100 free) each led the women in individual wins as each picked up two.

BACK STRONG AFTER 49 DAYS

In their first meet in 49 days, both the South Carolina men's and women's swimming and diving teams came away with convincing wins over Duke on Jan. 11 at the Carolina Natatorium. The Gamecock men claimed their win with a score of 184-116, while the women won 167-133. The Gamecocks won 19 of 32 events on the day and finished 1-2-3 in five events (men's 100 backstroke, 100 butterfly, 500 freestyle; women's 200 butterfly and 500 freestyle) and claimed at least the top two spots in 12 races.

GAINING MOMENTUM TO END THE FALL

The Gamecocks put together one of their best performances at an invitational in program history, totaling 15 NCAA B cut times during the three-day Virginia Tech Invitational, with 11 of those times coming from the men's team which moved them up to No. 17 by Endless Pools' rankings following the meet. Redshirt freshman Kevin Leithold led the way with five times that rank in the nation's top 30, including the fourth-fastest mark in the 100 breaststroke at 53.57, which broke the school's seven-year-old record in the event. Redshirt senior Michael Flach posted three B cuts, while seniors Gerard Rodriguez had two and Jay Warner chipped in one. On the women's side, South Carolina earned a pair of B cuts in the 200 breaststroke and 400 IM. Junior Victoria Mitchell earned one in each event as he won the 400 IM and took fourth in the 200 breaststroke. Senior Amanda Rutqvist earned her B cut as she won the 200 breaststroke, while senior Abby Galbreath was right behind Mitchell in the 400 IM to capture hers.

MEN CAPTURE FIRST SEC WIN OF 2013

Led by redshirt freshman Kevin Leithold who won three individual races (100 breaststroke, 100 butterfly, 100 freestyle) and led the Gamecock 400 freestyle relay team victory, the squad defeated LSU 166-134 at Carolina Natatorium. The Gamecocks won a total of eight events, finishing at least first and second in five of those races. Senior Gerard Rodriguez earned wins in both the 200 and 500 freestyles, while fellow senior Michael Flach was right behind him.

WORKING TOGETHER AGAIN

Until last year, the Gamecocks hadn't had a relay team invited to the NCAA Championships since the 800 freestyle relay team qualified in 2007. That team finished 11th in the event to earn All-America honors. Last year's 800 freestyle relay team of Gerard Rodriguez, Michael Flach, Marwan El Kamash and Alex Fitton entered the meet with the 19th fastest time in the country at 6:23.99, which was the school record at the time. That team finished 15th.

This year's group of El Kamash, Flach, Rodriguez and Kevin Leithold hold the 16th fastest time in the nation as the group broke last year's school record time by more than three seconds at the SEC Championships at 6:20.59.

McGee Moody

Head Swimming Coach Seventh Year at South Carolina

A proven leader in the coaching profession, McGee Moody begins his seventh season as the head swimming and diving coach at the University of South Carolina. He and his staff continue to build the South Carolina program and strive toward the elite level of the sport through effective training methods and tireless recruiting efforts.

In his six previous seasons at the helm, Moody has overseen a successful stretch for the Carolina swimming and diving program. Last season the Gamecock women went 6-7, including a win over Alabama in Tuscaloosa to give Moody his 100th career coaching victory (men and women combined). On the men's side, the Gamecocks went 6-6 on the season. Carolina's 800 freestyle relay team of Gerard Rodriguez, Alex Fitton, Michael Flach and Marwan El Kamash earned All-America honors for finishing 15th in the event at the NCAA Championships. Flach had a strong individual showing at the SEC Championships, winning silver in the 500 freestyle. Moody also gained his first international coaching experience as he was chosen to serve as an assistant for Team USA at the 2013 World University Games in Kazan, Russia.

During the 2011-12 season, the Gamecock women went 7-2, which was one of the best records in program history. The winning season gave Carolina back-to-back winning seasons for the first time since 1994-95. On the men's side, the Gamecocks went 5-4 to achieve back-to-back winning seasons for the first time since 1993-94.

During the 2010-11 season, the Gamecock men equaled the school record for wins in a single season, finishing with a 10-1 dual-meet record. The Carolina women also finished with a winning record for the first time since 2002, posting a 7-6 dual-meet mark. Along with the dual-meet success came postseason prowess as well - the Carolina men took seventh place at the 2011 SEC Championships, their best finish since Moody's arrival, and the Gamecock women finished in sixth place, their best showing since 2006.

In addition, South Carolina had its first-ever individual SEC Championship performance by a women's swimmer as freshman Amanda Rutqvist captured gold in the 200-yard breaststroke, setting an SEC record with her winning time. Senior diver Taryn Zack also won her second SEC crown in 1-meter diving; both advanced to the 2011 NCAA Championships.

Overall at the league meet in Gainesville, the Gamecocks took down 11 school records and posted 37 NCAA provisional qualifying times (and one automatic time). Rutqvist and sophomore men's swimmer Michael Flach earned All-America honors for the first time in their respective careers as well.

Moody's first three seasons at Carolina saw gradual improvements. The 2009-10 season was a bit of a rebuilding year, but highlights included freshman Michael Flach's bronze-medal performance in the 500 freestyle at the SEC Championships and an All-America performance by diver Taryn Zack at the NCAA Championships.

In 2008-09, the Gamecock women finished with a .500 dual meet record for the first time since 2005 and won five meets for the first time since 2002. The women also earned their highest SEC Championships finish in three years with a seventh-place showing. The Carolina men, meanwhile, sent two swimmers - Nick Walkotten and Kyle Cormier - to the NCAA Championships and earned a 29th-place national finish, the best for a Carolina squad since 2005. Combined, the Carolina men and women turned in 23 NCAA provisional qualifying times and broke 14 school records.

It wasn't an easy beginning for the East Carolina graduate, but Moody made great strides with the South Carolina program in his initial season on the Horseshoe. Despite arriving on campus only a month before the start of the 2007-08 season, Moody oversaw a successful transition as Carolina sent three swimmers to the NCAA Championships. Walkotten and Dominique Lendjel represented the Gamecock men while Christy Williams swam for the women.

Aside from NCAA competition, Moody saw even more success as nine Gamecock swimmers competed in the Olympic Trials. One swimmer, then-sophomore Sharmelle McLean, represented her home country of Trinidad & Tobago in the 2008 Summer Olympics in Beijing. In addition, then-rising senior Nicholas Walkotten competed at the Short Course World Championships.

Moody spent three years at William & Mary, where his teams achieved 559 lifetime best swims, 301 all-time Tribe top-10 performances, 46 school records and 18 gold medals at the Colonial Athletic Association Championships. The Tribe swimming program also excelled academically. The women received Academic All-America honors in each semester under Moody's tutelage.

In 2007, Moody earned the conference's Coach of the Year honor after leading his women's team (8-4, 6-2 CAA) to the first Colonial Athletic Association Championship in the program's 80-year history with a record-tying 12 gold medals. In doing so, the squad swept the conference awards by winning Performer of the Meet, Swimmer of the Year and Rookie of the Year. The men's program finished with a winning record (6-3-1, 5-2-1 CAA) for the first time since 1998-99, and finished fourth at the conference meet behind a pair of runner-up performances and a host of bronze medals.

In 2005-06, the Tribe women's team improved upon its fourth-place conference finish in 2005 by taking second, passing George Mason on the final day of the CAA Championships. During the season, the women were even more impressive, posting a 10-4 ledger (8-1 CAA), to set the school record for conference wins in a season. In the conference, their only blemish was against eventual champion UNC Wilmington. The men also experienced improvement, achieving five dual-meet wins for the first time since 1999 and posting a .500 mark (4-4) in the conference. They also improved on their result at the conference championship, riding a bevy of personal records in the last two days to a fifth-place finish.

Moody spent four seasons as an assistant men's swimming coach at the United States Naval Academy. During his tenure at Navy, Moody coached the Midshipmen's first NCAA automatic qualifier since 1996 in addition to guiding numerous NCAA, Senior National and Olympic Trial qualifiers. His 200 and 400 freestyle relay teams finished the season ranked in the top 25 of the world. Moody also made an impact in the Navy record book, with his athletes setting all of the top-10 fastest times in school history in both the 50 and 100 freestyles. Building his athletes into academic success stories as well, Navy's men's swimming team was awarded Academic All-America honors all three seasons from 2001-2004 under Moody's direction.

Moody got his coaching start at his alma mater, East Carolina University. He was the top assistant swim coach for both men and women for the Pirates from 1996-2000. While working in nearly every facet of the program at East Carolina, Moody coached over 25 varsity record holders.

A 1998 graduate of East Carolina, Moody swam on the Pirates' varsity squad for four seasons, setting several freshman records and captaining the team his junior and senior years. Moody was also an Olympic Trials qualifier in the 200 freestyle in 1992.

Moody, who earned both a bachelor's degree in psychology and master's in sports administration from ECU, is an active professional in the swimming community. He also served in the United States Navy, attaining the rank of Lieutenant. A member of both the American Swimming Coaches Association and the College Swimming Coaches Association of America, he has served as the chair of the latter's Media Relations Committee since 2001. He and his wife, Monica, have four daughters: Sydney, Olivia, Lily and Whitney.
