

18th Annual C.A.P.S. Clinic

Benefiting Children's Chance

Saturday, February 18, 2017 ~ Columbia, SC

Who:

The USC men's soccer team is sponsoring a child/parent soccer clinic for ages 4-14, excluding high school students. The proceeds will go to Children's Chance, an organization whose mission is to help children with cancer and their families.

What:

The 18th Annual CAPS Clinic first and foremost will be fun. It is geared towards parents and children being together to learn soccer from the Carolina Gamecock coaching staff and varsity team.

Children will be grouped according to age and ability, while parents are welcome to participate or observe. Separate parental topics include rules of the game, introduction of basic skills, and small group and team tactics used in the game of soccer. Carolina players will be available for autographs and pictures at the end of the clinic.

When and Where:

Saturday, February 18, 2017 8:30 am-12:00 pm

The University of South Carolina, Stone Stadium
1300 Whaley Street Columbia, SC

Events of the Day:

8:30 am— Check-In/Registration

9:00 pm - Welcome & Instructions

9:15 – 12:00 pm Instruction & Play with USC & snack break in between

12:00 pm: Players available for autographs and photos

What to Bring: Each child should bring a soccer ball, shin guards, water, and appropriate soccer apparel for the clinic. Parents should dress appropriately to participate or observe (soccer shoes optional, portable/lawn chair encouraged). Feel free to bring snacks and drinks for your child and yourself, although a small snack & water will be provided. Feel free to bring your camera to take pictures at the event.

Thank You!
