The South Carolina Media Relations Office would like to thank you for your interest in Carolina Swimming & Diving. This guide has been prepared to assist you in your coverage of the team. If you have any questions or requests, please reach South Carolina swimming & diving contact Justin Holt at (803) 777-7872 or via e-mail - jnholt@mailbox.sc.edu.

INTERVIEWS

South Carolina head coach McGee Moody, head diving coach Todd Sherritt, staff and all Gamecock athletes are available for media interviews. Interviews can be conducted on before or after practice each day or at other times arranged by the Media Relations Office.

It is requested that all interviews be arranged through Justin Holt. Athletes and coaches have been instructed to not agree to interviews not arranged by the Media Relations Office.

POST-MEET INTERVIEWS

Post-game interviews are conducted on the pool deck or in the team meeting room at Blatt P.E. Center. After the athletes warm down, requested athletes will be available. The South Carolina locker room is closed to the media.

MEDIA MEET DAY SERVICES

At home and on the road, notes and statistics will be provided in the press box and on-line at www.gamecocksonline.com. Complete results will be available shortly after each meet; hard copies can be obtained at home meets and an online version will be available from road meets. A post-meet story following each meet will be faxed and e-mailed to outlets requested. Scores will be reported to area broadcast outlets.

Wireless internet is available for use in the Blatt P.E. Center.

CREDENTIALS

No credentials are required to cover South Carolina home swimming & diving meets. All competitions at the Blatt P.E. Center are free and open to the public. Photographers should contact Justin Holt prior to covering a meet to ensure adequate deck space.

PARKING

Parking at the Blatt P.E. Center is subject to the rules and regulations of University of South Carolina Parking Services. There is very limited parking available in the Blatt P.E. Center lot, but other parking can be found within short walking distance.

ON THE INTERNET

Information on all of South Carolina's teams can be obtained through the official website of University of South Carolina athletics, GamecocksOnline.com. The site features all the information contained in this guide, plus links to the Southeastern Conference and other swimming & diving resources.

To convert a metric time achieved in a 25-meter racing course to an equivalent time for a 25-yard racing course: (a) transform the achieved metric time into seconds; (b) carrying the calculation out to five decimal places, multiply the transformed time in seconds by the appropriate following conversion factor; (c) drop, without rounding, all units smaller than a hundredth of a second; and (d) finally, transform the resultant value in seconds back into minutes and seconds to obtain the converted time.

Short-Course Conversion Factors (Men and Women)

Event	Factor
400 meters to 500 yards	1.153
800 meters to 1,000 yards	1.153

Housed in the Sol Blatt P.E. Center, the Carolina Natatorium serves as the home to South Carolina swimming and diving.

Extending 50 meters in length and 25 yards in width, the pool meets all structural requirements for SEC and NCAA competition. One of the more convenient aspects of the pool is its ability to transform from an Olympic size pool to a recreational training facility. A moveable bulkhead - newly installed in 2009 - allows the length of the pool to be set at 25 yards, 25 meters or 50 meters, allowing the Gamecocks to train for various meets.

Having undergone several renovations, the Natatorium can also become a semi-open air facility. Featuring 12 solid electronic moveable doors throughout the natatorium, the doors allow Gamecock swimmers the opportunity to practice under simulated natural conditions. The doors also open to a beautiful sun deck that allows athletes to take full advantage of the warm South Carolina sunshine. The renovation of 2000 included new coaches' offices and meeting rooms, and a fresher look that includes banners of every SEC team, and plaques of every Gamecock All-America swimming and diving selection in school history. This "Wall of Fame" is located in the spectator seating area, which provides a spectacular "birds eye" view of the pool area for fans to view exciting SEC action.

Carolina Natatorium underwent another extensive renovation during the summer of 2010 when a new pool deck and an upgraded new lighting system were installed. In addition, the walls were painted garnet to give the nearly 35-year-old facility a brand new look as it continues to be one of the top swimming and diving facilities in this part of the country.

The Natatorium is also home to a quality diving venue. Featuring two one-meter and three-meter boards and a five-meter diving platform, the natatorium's diving area presents student-athletes with a first-rate training and meet facility. The diving area is 25 yards by 35 feet with depth slopes of 12-14 feet. A state-of-the-art DVR system provides valuable training equipment with both a side view and an underwater camera.

Carolina's swimming facility also features a state-of-the-art Colorado Timing system. It has a 10-lane readout for spectators and swimmers. The seating area features 800 permanent seats with movable seating to accommodate up to 400 more spectators.

The site of the 1995 SEC Championships, the Natatorium served as a training site for the 1996 Russian Olympic Team in June of 1996. The Natatorium was also the site of the mens USA-Russia Dual Meet, nationally televised in April 1995. The New Zealand team also came to USC prior to the Olympics for a meet. The Natatorium also hosts the South Carolina State High School Swimming Championships and the Columbia city championships every year.

McGee Moody

Head Swimming Coach
Fifth Year at South Carolina

A proven leader in the coaching profession, McGee Moody is in his fifth season as the head swimming coach at the University of South Carolina. He and his staff continue to build the South Carolina program and strive toward the elite level of the sport through effective training methods and tireless recruiting efforts.

In his four seasons at the helm, Moody has overseen a successful stretch for the Carolina swimming and diving program. Last season, the Gamecock men equaled the school record for wins in a single season, finishing with a 10-1 dual-meet record. The Carolina women also finished with a winning record for the first time since 2002, posting a 7-6 dual-meet mark.

His first three seasons saw gradual improvements. The 2009-10 season was a bit of a rebuilding year, but highlights included freshman Michael Flach's bronze-medal performance in the 500 freestyle at the SEC Championships. In 2008-09, the Gamecock women finished with a .500 dual meet record for the first time since 2005 and won five meets for the first time since 2002. The women also earned their highest SEC Championships finish in three years. The Carolina men, meanwhile, sent two swimmers - Nick Walkotten and Kyle Cormier - to the NCAA Championships and earned a 29th-place national finish, the best for a Carolina squad since 2005. Combined, the Carolina men and women turned in 23 NCAA provisional qualifying times and broke 14 school records.

It wasn't an easy beginning for the East Carolina graduate, but Moody made great strides with the South Carolina program in his initial season on the Horseshoe. Despite arriving on campus only a month before the start of the 2007-08 season, Moody oversaw a successful transition as Carolina sent three swimmers to the NCAA Championships. Walkotten and Dominique Lendjel represented the Gamecock men while Christy Williams swam for the women.

Aside from NCAA competition, Moody saw even more success as nine Gamecock swimmers competed in the Olympic Trials. One swimmer, then-sophomore Sharntelle McLean, represented her home country of Trinidad & Tobago in the 2008 Summer Olympics in Beijing. In addition, then-rising senior Nicholas Walkotten competed at the Short Course World Championships.

Moody spent three years at William & Mary, where his teams achieved 559 lifetime best swims, 301 all-time Tribe top-10 performances, 46 school records and 18 gold medals at the Colonial Athletic Association Championships. The Tribe swimming program also excelled academically. The women received Academic All-America honors in each semester under Moody's tutelage.

In 2007, Moody earned the conference's Coach of the Year honor after leading his women's team (8-4, 6-2 CAA) to the first Colonial Athletic Association Championship in the program's 80-year history with a record-tying 12 gold medals. In doing so, the squad swept the conference awards by winning Performer of the Meet, Swimmer of the Year and Rookie of the Year. The men's program finished with a winning record (6-3-1, 5-2-1 CAA) for the first time since 1998-99, and finished fourth at the conference meet behind a pair of runner-up performances and a host of bronze medals.

In 2005-06, the Tribe women's team improved upon its fourth-place conference finish in 2005 by taking second, passing George Mason on the final day of the CAA Championships. During the season, the women were even more impressive, posting a 10-4 ledger (8-1 CAA), to set the school record for conference wins in a season. In the conference, their only blemish was against eventual champion UNC Wilmington. The men also experienced improvement, achieving five dual-meet wins for the first time since 1999 and posting a .500 mark (4-4) in the conference. They also improved on their result at the conference championship, riding a bevy of personal records in the last two days to a fifth-place finish.

Moody spent four seasons as an assistant men's swimming coach at the United States Naval Academy. During his tenure at Navy, Moody coached the Midshipmen's first NCAA automatic qualifier since 1996 in addition to guiding numerous NCAA, Senior National and Olympic Trial qualifiers. His 200 and 400 freestyle relay teams finished the season ranked in the top 25 of the world. Moody also made an impact in the Navy record book, with his athletes setting all of the top-10 fastest times in school history in both the 50 and 100 freestyles. Building his athletes into academic success stories as well, Navy's men's swimming team was awarded Academic All-America honors all three seasons from 2001-2004 under Moody's direction.

Moody got his coaching start at his alma mater, East Carolina University. He was the top assistant swim coach for both men and women for the Pirates from 1996-2000. While working in nearly every facet of the program at East Carolina, Moody coached over 25 varsity record holders.

A 1998 graduate of East Carolina, Moody swam on the Pirates' varsity squad for four seasons, setting several freshman records and captaining the team his junior and senior years. Moody was also an Olympic Trials qualifier in the 200 freestyle in 1992.

Moody, who earned both a bachelor's degree in psychology and master's in sports administration from ECU, is an active professional in the swimming community. He also served in the United States Navy, attaining the rank of Lieutenant. A member of both the American Swimming Coaches Association and the College Swimming Coaches Association of America, he has served as the chair of the latter's Media Relations Committee since 2001. He and his wife, Monica, have four daughters: Sydney (10), Olivia (7), Lily (4) and Whitney (2).

Todd Sherritt

Head Diving Coach

19th Year at South Carolina

Success and Todd Sherritt go hand in hand. Beginning his 19th season as the head diving coach for South Carolina, Sherritt continues to set new standards for Gamecock diving and has established the program as one of the best in the country.

One of the most influential diving coaches in the country, Sherritt has coached 35 NCAA All-Americans, 15 U.S. Diving National Champions, three Olympians, 10 SEC Champions and one NCAA Champion. In 1999, he was named SEC Diving Coach of the Year and, in 1997, he was named USOC Developmental Diving Coach of the Year. Sherritt is also a 10-time World Team Coach for Team USA, including during 2007.

Sherritt has continued to produce greats in the Garnet and Black, most recently Taryn Zack, who earned the 10th SEC Championship for the Carolina diving program in 2011. Zack took the title on the 1-meter board at the 2011 SEC Championships, earning her second gold medal at the league meet. Zack also earned accolades out of the pool as she was named the SEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year for swimming & diving, and she was named a Capital One Academic All-American by the College Sports Information Directors of America, just the second in the history of Carolina swimming & diving.

As a junior, Zack finished seventh at the NCAA Championships in the three-meter event to earn her third All-America honor. She earned her first All-America honor in 2008 as a freshman as she took eighth place on the three-meter board. In addition, an 11th-place finish in the one-meter event that season earned her a nod for Honorable Mention All-American. In her sophomore season, Zack continued her incredible success by winning her first conference title, taking the gold medal in the 1-meter competition at the SEC Championship.

Also in 2009, another pupil of Sherritt's, current Gamecock assistant coach Allison Brennan, captured gold at the USA Diving Grand Prix in the 3-meter event, beating out a pair of 2008 Olympic medalists to take top honors. Recently under Sherritt's guidance, Brennan finished sixth in the world at the World Championships held in Australia in 2007. She also won the 3-meter title at the 2006 U.S. National Championships and placed seventh at the 2006 World Cup in Chengshu, China that same year. Brennan joins Sherritt this year as an assistant coach after a third-place finish at the 2008 Olympic Trials. Brennan was the 2004 NCAA Champion on the one-meter board, the first individual national champion for the South Carolina swimming and diving program. She also was the 2006 SEC Champion on the one-meter and three-meter boards, and set the school record on the three-meter.

The 2003-04 season was a stellar year for Gamecock diving as USC took four divers to the NCAA Championships, and in addition to Brennan, Andy Bradley recorded his second consecutive national runner-up performance on the one-meter board at the NCAA Championships. In 2003, Bradley was the runner-up at the U.S. Championships as well. Internationally, Tracey Richardson found success as she earned a spot at the 2004 Olympics on the Great Britain National Team and competed on the three-meter board. Brennan and Bradley qualified for the U.S. Olympic Trials. Other standouts included All-Americans Lauren King (2003-05) and Holly Hodges (2001-05).

Sherritt's international coaching stints include serving as the head coach for Team USA in the 2000 FINA World Grand Prix in Rodstock, Germany. In 1999, he was selected as the World Cup coach for the United States in Wellington, New Zealand, and he was a World University coach for the U.S. in Mallarco, Spain in July of the same year. Most recently, he served as the team leader for Team USA at the China Open in 2008.

In 1998-99, Sherritt helped lead one of South Carolina's most decorated divers, Michelle Davison, to new heights. Davison won two SEC titles and was named SEC Diver of the Year, en route to finishing fourth and fifth on the one- and three-meter boards respectively at the NCAA Championships. That year, Sherritt was named SEC Women's Diving Coach of the Year.

Sherritt's first Olympic opportunity came in 1996 with Gamecock standout Vivian Alberty. The 1995 one-meter SEC Champion finished her career at USC as a four-time All-American and in 1996 competed for Puerto Rico at the Olympics in Atlanta.

In addition to athletics, Sherritt's divers have excelled outside of the pool as well. Holly Hodges was a recipient of the SEC Community Service Post-Graduate Scholarship in 2004-05. Cheryl Lemon was named USC's Female Student Athlete of the Year in 2000, while Chad Sheldon and Lemon were named to the SEC Honor Roll in 1998. Brandon Hulko was named USC Male Student-Athlete of the Year in 2002, and Taryn Zack was South Carolina's Scholar-Athlete of the Year in 2011.

A native of Cincinnati, Ohio, Sherritt founded South Carolina Divers in 1982, a University of South Carolina based age group diving team. Sherritt received a B.S. degree in physical education from the University of Cincinnati in 1982.

Sherritt has two daughters, 21-year-old Amber and 2-year-old Hannah. His wife's name is Kara.

Julie Harrington

*Assistant Diving Coach
First Year at South Carolina*

Julie Harrington begins her first season as an assistant coach at South Carolina. Harrington was hired in August of 2011 after spending the previous two seasons as an assistant at Texas Christian University.

While at TCU, Harrington helped lead the men's team to an in-season dual meet championship in 2010 with a 7-0 record. Harrington also saw 34 school records fall during her stint as well as two individuals win Mountain West Conference championships and 48 earn All-MWC honors.

Prior to TCU, Harrington was an assistant coach at Towson University in Towson, Md., from 2006-09. She helped guide the Tigers to women's CAA Championships in 2008 and 2009. Towson broke the school record for wins in each of those seasons. The Tigers also set 43 school records, eight CAA Championship records and had 14 student-athletes earn All-CAA accolades during her tenure.

Harrington also served as an assistant coach at the United States Merchant Marine Academy from 2003-06 as she helped lead the Mariners to three consecutive Skyline Conference titles. The Mariners broke 31 school records during her stint and sent 11 individuals to the NCAA Division III Championships, with three of those being All-Americans. Along with her coaching duties, Harrington served as assistant aquatics director and a professional instructor for U.S. Coast Guard mandated courses.

Harrington, who is a 2000 graduate of Ithaca College, was a standout swimmer at the collegiate level. She qualified for three NCAA Championships, set the school record in the 200-fly as a freshman and won the NSYWCAA title in the 400-individual medley as a sophomore.

Harrington recently received her master's degree in educational administration from TCU.

Jason Memont

*Assistant Swimming Coach
Fifth Year at South Carolina*

Jason Memont begins his fifth season as an assistant coach at South Carolina. He joined the Gamecock coaching staff in September of 2007 after spending the previous three seasons in the same capacity at William and Mary alongside head coach McGee Moody.

Memont is primarily in charge of the distance swimmers, which have been a key component of South Carolina's success in his tenure. In 2011, Memont saw sophomore Michael Flach win his second straight bronze medal at the SEC Championships in the 500-yard freestyle and advance to the NCAA Championships, where he earned his first All-America certificate with a 15th-place finish. In addition, he helped sophomores Brooks Ross and Matt Columbus to finals appearances at the SEC Championships. In 2010, he helped Flach win the bronze medal at the SEC Championships in the 500 freestyle, qualifying for his first NCAA Championships.

During his time with the Tribe, Memont helped produce eight Colonial Athletic Association champions, 80 school top-10 times, 10 school records, and 293 lifetime-best swims. The 2005-06 women's swimming team set school records for wins in a season, conference wins in a season, conference winning percentage, and highest place at the CAA meet; the men's team posted the most wins in the past seven years.

Memont was directly responsible for many of the top performances during his time at William and Mary. Memont also proved himself as a dedicated coach and recruiter for the Tribe. As head recruiter, he oversaw the two fastest classes in William and Mary history. The '09 and '10 classes accounted for 72% of the teams points at CAA Championships.

Memont joined the Tribe after spending the previous two-and-a-half years as head coach of the YMCA North Shore swim team in Ipswich, Mass. Overseeing all swimmers age five-18, 20 of his swimmers went on to Division I programs under his guidance. He also coached five YMCA qualifiers during his tenure.

An accomplished collegiate swimmer at Rochester Institute of Technology from 1996-2001, Memont won the Empire 8 conference title in the 200 breaststroke his senior season. He also counted two third-place finishes at conferences among his accomplishments, in the 200 IM as a junior and in the 100 breast as a senior. He raced to NCAA provisional marks in the 200 IM and 400 IM and holds five school records (200 IM and all four relays). Named varsity captain in 1999 and 2001, Memont also served as an assistant coach in his final two seasons, helping three national qualifiers. He was also a five-year member and assistant coach of RIT's nationally ranked club water polo team and made the Dean's List four times during his collegiate career.

Memont, who holds a B.S. in information technology from RIT, spent three years as a high school technology teacher at Haverhill High School in Haverhill, Mass. While there, he also served as the men's varsity tennis coach for two seasons.

Abby Steketee

Assistant Swimming Coach
Fourth Year at South Carolina

Abby Steketee begins her fourth season as assistant coach for the University of South Carolina and coaches the individual medley swimmers. Steketee previously served one year as a volunteer coach with the Carolina men's and women's swimming squad, assisting with pool and dryland workouts and helping coordinate academic services for student-athletes. She now coaches the stroke groups.

Her swimmers had a breakout year in 2010-11 as freshmen Amanda Rutqvist and Rachael Schaffer qualified for the NCAA Championships in the breaststroke and IM events. In addition, Rutqvist captured South Carolina's first-ever SEC Championship by a women's swimmer, setting a league record in the 200 breaststroke final to earn the gold medal.

Before coming to Carolina, she was a graduate assistant at West Virginia University. Aside from assisting with workouts, she served as academic counselor for student-athletes and assisted with administrative duties, which included newsletter production and travel coordination.

In addition to swimming, she also has volunteered her time in service in the community. While in Morgantown, Steketee was involved with the American Cancer Society as chairman of the Relay for Life Luminaria Community. She also volunteered at Ruby Memorial Hospital.

Steketee graduated from Northwestern University magna cum laude with a degree in human development and psychological services in 2003. At Northwestern, she participated on the crew team. She was selected as Most Valuable Rower three consecutive years and served as varsity captain. While in Evanston, Steketee also served with the Northwestern Aquatic Swim Association, serving as head development coach for a 150-member youth swim team.

She received a master's degree in public health from West Virginia University. She is married to Steve Steketee, who is also an assistant coach on the South Carolina staff.

Steve Steketee

Assistant Swimming Coach
Fifth Year at South Carolina

Steve Steketee begins his fifth season as an assistant coach at South Carolina. He was hired in September of 2007 after spending the previous three seasons in the same capacity at West Virginia University. Steve is primarily responsible for coaching the freestyle sprinters.

Under Steketee's guidance, the Gamecock sprinters have made strides over the past five seasons. This past season, senior Bridget Halligan swam the fourth-fastest 50 freestyle in school history with a 22.83 at the SEC Championships. Halligan also clocked a 50.30 in the 100 free, the fifth-best time in Carolina annals. Halligan's time of 54.55 in the 100 butterfly was also a top-10 mark at Carolina as she now ranks fourth.

In 2009, Shantelle McLean broke a long-standing school record in the 50 freestyle with a 22.65, eclipsing the 21-year-old record previously set by Dana Dutcher in 1988. Steketee also helped McLean prepare for the 2008 Beijing Olympics, where she represented her home country of Trinidad & Tobago.
