CAROLINA QUICK HITS

- South Carolina can clinch the 2011 Conference USA regular-season title on Friday versus Kentucky. Carolina leads the league with 18 points entering Friday's contest, with UAB in second with 16 points. A win (three points) would give Carolina the outright title regardless of the outcome of UAB's match, while a tie (one point) secures at least a share of the title for South Carolina, as a tie and a UAB win would mean the two teams would be Co-Regular Season champs. The Gamecocks own the tiebreaker over UAB after defeating the Blazers, 1-0, during the regular season, which would secure the No. 1 seed in the tournament for the Gamecocks.
- South Carolina will honor its senior class of Danny Cates, Stephen Morrissey, Ross Power, Andre Bahri, Vance Benson and Daniel Lynch prior to tonight's match vs. UK.
- South Carolina has won eight of its last 10 matches entering Friday's matchup versus Kentucky.
- The Gamecocks gave Mark Berson the 450th victory of his career with a thrilling 1-0 double overtime win on the road at No. 22 UCF on Tuesday. Junior defender Eric Martinez netted the game winner on an assist from sophomore forward Bradlee Baladez.
- South Carolina will conclude the 2011 season with a 4-0 record in away contests in C-USA play.
- The Gamecocks are led offensively by Baladez with seven goals and four assists for 18 points on the year. Freshman midfielder Braeden Troyer has contributed five goals, while senior midfielder Stephen Morrissey has added four. Sophomore J.P. Rafferty, junior Kevin Stam and freshman forward Snoopy Davidson have all tallied two goals this season.
- Redshirt-sophomore goalkeeper Alex Long earned his third shutout of the season at UCF earlier this week. Long played a stellar match in net, collecting a season high six saves.

SOUTH CAROLINA IN CONFERENCE PLAY

South Carolina has been a member of just two conferences for a total of nine seasons, including the 2011 campaign, in its 34-year history. The Gamecocks were a member of the Metro Conference during the 1993 and 1994 seasons, and have been an affiliate member of C-USA since 2005. In those nine seasons Carolina earned the 1993 Metro Conference Regular Season title, the 2005 and 2010 C-USA Tournament titles and the Gamecocks aim for the C-USA Regular Season crown with a win on Friday versus Kentucky.

SCOUTING THE WILDCATS

The Wildcats have tallied 33 goals in 19 games, with 1.74 goals scored per game and 15 shots taken a contest in 2011. UK is led offensively by sophomore Tyler Riggs, who has 10 goals and five assists in 17 games played. Matt Lodge owns seven goals and 10 assists in 17 of UK's 19 games, with two game-winning tallies. Charles Pettys has three goals and seven assists, while Josh Mulvany has four goals and four assists. In goal, Tyler Beadle has saved 50 shots in 17 games with 27 goals allowed and a 1.57 goals against average. This will be UK's third game of the 2011 season at Stone Stadium, as UK won the 2011 Gamecock Classic on Sept. 18 with its 5-1 win over Brown, also posting a 2-1 golden goal win over High Point. In two games at Stone Stadium in 2011, UK has outscored its opponents 7-2.

KENTUCKY SERIES HISTORY

The all-time series between Kentucky and South Carolina is tied at 4-4-1, however UK has won three consecutive contests against Carolina, including a 2-1 win last season in Lexington. ### LAST YEAR VS. THE WILDCATS

South Carolina suffered a 2-1 loss on the road at Kentucky in last year's regular-season finale for both schools. Then-senior Blake Brettschneider tallied Carolina's goal in the match. Then-freshman forward Brendan Murphy tallied the game winner for the Wildcats.

SCOUTING THE WILDCATS

The Wildcats have tallied 33 goals in 19 games, with 1.74 goals scored per game and 15 shots taken a contest in 2011. Both the preseason team and poll are selected by the league's men's soccer coaches. SMU was picked to win Conference USA, followed by UCF in second and Tulsa in third. Following the Gamecocks in fourth was Kentucky, UAB, Marshall, FIU and Memphis. Baladez returns for his sophomore campaign after a freshman season in 2010 that saw the Dallas, Texas, native score six goals, including five game winners. # MARK BERSON

HEAD COACH

34TH SEASON AT SOUTH CAROLINA, 439-181-59

35TH OVERALL, 450-186-59

Mark Berson, one of 13 Division I coaches ever to win 400 matches, begins his 34th season at the helm of the South Carolina soccer program. In the 2011 Division I coaching record book, Berson enters the season as the winningest active coach in NCAA Division I men's soccer by victories (441) and ranks as the No. 7 coach all-time in D-I

Currently, three of Berson's pupils at South Carolina are playing in the professional ranks - Wolff and Brettschneider in MLS with DC United, while Guzan competes with Aston Villa of the Barclays Premier League in England.

Berson led Carolina to a 113-39-12 mark (.726) in the 1990s, which rated the Gamecocks as one of the winningest programs in NCAA Division I soccer. In 1998, Berson earned the inaugural Independent Coach of the Year award after leading Carolina to the best record of all Independent schools.

Berson has also been honored as the National Soccer Coaches Association (NSCAA) Coach of the Year in the South on four occasions (1984, 1985, 1988, 1995).

Under his leadership, 19 Gamecocks have been selected to represent South Carolina in either the MLS Combine, the ISAA Senior Bowl or the UMBRO Select All-Star Classic. Included in that group are Brettschneider (2011), Maurer (2011), Mike Sambursky (2006), Josh Alcala (2005), Guzan (2004), Tim Glowienka (2003), Jordan Quinn (2003), Joey Worthen (2002), Chris Morman (1999), Mathis (1997), Billy Clifford (1995), Andrew Coggins (1991), Tommy Loeber (1990), Charles Arndt (1988), Doug Allison (1987), Bill Hency (1986), Warren Lipka (1985) David Burr, (1982) and Paul Turin (1979). Two of those players, Lipka and Arndt, were honored as National Goalkeeper of the Year in 1985 and 1988, respectively.

Berson's success has ranged beyond the college ranks, as 51 South Carolina players have been drafted into or entered professional soccer since 1978, while Gamecock players have represented the United States on the U.S. Olympic team, the U.S. National team, the National "B" team, the U.S. Under-20 and Under-23 teams, the World University Games squad, and the U.S. Olympic Festival teams. Berson has coached 11 individual NSCAA All-Americans (Doug Allison, Marty Baltzeger, Charles Arndt, Clark Brisson, Tommy Loeber, Chris Faklaris, Rob Smith, Mathis, Henry Ring, Guzan and Greg Reece), 11 individual Academic All-Americans (Peter Duitsman, Greg King, Jeff Love (twice), Pat Mihm, Phil Seidenberg, Loeber, Ruben Tufino, Arthur (second team/third team) Maurer (second team/first team), Brettschneider (third team) and Will Traynor (third team) and Soccer America's Freshman of the Year (Tufino). Duitsman was also named the Boyd McWhorter SEC Male Scholar Athlete of the Year in 1994.

Berson has been involved in soccer development as a coach, teacher and administrator on many levels. He is a U.S. Soccer National Instructional Staff Coach with an "A" coaching license and has served a US Soccer National Instructional staff coach since 1989. He has served as State Coach for the South Carolina Youth Soccer Association (SCYSA), working in player development and coaching certification. In 1992, he was inducted into the South Carolina Youth Soccer Association Hall of Fame.

Berson also coached the U.S. National U-18 team in the Granatkin/Leningrad Tournament in January 1989, in the Soviet Union. In July 1987, he directed the South team to the gold medal in the U.S. Olympic Festival in Durham, N.C., one year after serving as an assistant coach for the South squad.

Berson has served on the NCAA South Region Advisory Committee for the NCAA Tournament and the Division I Coaches Subcommittee for the National Soccer Coaches Association. He has also served as a scout for U.S. Soccer for the South Region. His Carolina Soccer Camp continues to be one of the country's finest soccer camps for children of all age groups and skill levels.

Berson began his coaching career when he joined the soccer staff at The Citadel in 1976 and served as an assistant coach under Eddie Teague. He took over the Bulldogs' head job the next season and led The Citadel to an 11-5-0 mark and a second-place finish in the Southern Conference.

Berson came to Columbia to start the varsity program in 1978 and promptly posted a 13-3-1 mark in his inaugural season with the Gamecocks. A year later, South Carolina finished with a 14-5-0 record and reached the NCAA Tournament for the first time. South Carolina has gone on to achieve a winning record in 30 of 33 seasons.

A 1971 graduate of Summit (N.J.) High School, Berson attended the University of North Carolina and received his bachelor of arts degree in journalism in 1975. Berson played on the Tar Heel soccer squad for four years, one as a midfielder and the other three in goal. As a senior, Berson received the UNC Educational Foundation Award and was a member of the Academic ACC Honor Roll. Berson earned his master's of education degree in sport administration from Ohio University in 1977.

Born March 16, 1953, in Hartford, Conn., Berson is married to the former Shauna Hopkins, a South Carolina alum, of Columbia. They have two children, Erin Rhea, and Luke William. Erin graduated from South Carolina in 2009, and Luke is currently enrolled at the University of South Carolina.

history by victories.

Berson has been at South Carolina from the beginning. He was hired to move the program to varsity status in 1978, and he quickly put Carolina on the map. He has gone on to mold the Gamecocks into consistent winners that compete for championships.

Before coming to Carolina in 1978, Berson went 11-5-0 in one season at The Citadel, making his overall record 441-180-58, a winning percentage of 69.2 percent. In 2006, Berson became one of five active (at that time) Division I coaches and the 10th all-time to reach the 400-victory milestone when his Gamecocks defeated UAB, 2-0, in a televised contest at Stone Stadium. Berson now has a 430-175-58 record at South Carolina.

Berson has made his mark on the college soccer world by taking the Gamecocks to 19 NCAA Tournaments. The Gamecocks have advanced to at least the second round 11 times and have four quarterfinal and two Final Four appearances. In 1993, the Gamecocks advanced to the NCAA Championship game.

Though Carolina has been independent during the majority of the program's tenure, the Gamecocks have captured a trio of conference titles under Berson's leadership. Carolina won the 1993 Metro Conference Championship in one of its two years competing in the conference. The Gamecocks joined Conference USA in 2005 and promptly claimed the league's tournament championship and automatic berth to the NCAA Tournament, while Carolina also won the C-USA Championship in 2010.

South Carolina won the 2010 Conference USA Tournament Championship, earning the No. 7 national seed in the NCAA Tournament en route to a first-round bye. The home field advantage propelled the Gamecocks to a 1-0 win over Duke during the second round, advancing the squad to the Round of 16. South Carolina concluded the season ranked No. 12 in the final NSCAA Top 25 Poll, while the team also earned the NSCAA's top team academic award.

South Carolina is very successful in its recruiting, bringing in a top-20 recruiting class in 2006, while in 2007 the South Carolina recruiting class ranked No. 10, the 2008 class ranked No. 14, the 2009 class No. 23, the 2010 class ranked No. 16 and the most recent 2011 class ranked No. 11 in the nation according to CollegeSoccerNews.com.

Besides making an impact in collegiate soccer, Berson's presence is also felt within the professional ranks. Former Gamecock Josh Wolff (1995-97) competed on the United States World Cup team for the second time during the summer of 2006 and was also an Olympic team member in 2000. Clint Mathis, a teammate of Josh Wolff during his time at Carolina, also enjoyed a celebrated professional career that spanned 11 seasons in Major League Soccer. Mathis was a member of the 2002 U.S. World Cup squad and helped his MLS team, Real Salt Lake, capture the MLS Cup in 2009. Mathis announced his retirement from professional soccer in August of 2010. Most recently, Blake Brettschneider, the 2010 C-USA Co-MVP and Co-Offensive MVP, has made his mark in MLS as an integral member of DC United.

During the summer of 2002, Wolff and Clint Mathis (1994-97) represented the United States in the World Cup. Mathis also graced the cover of Sports Illustrated in May prior to the World Cup, marking the third Gamecock athlete, in any sport, to be featured on the prestigious magazine.

In January 2005, former Gamecock Brad Guzan (2003-04) made MLS history when he was the No. 2 overall pick in the MLS SuperDraft, selected by CD Chivas USA. Guzan became the highest goalkeeper ever drafted into the league. In the fall of 2007, Guzan was selected as the 2007 Panasonic MLS Goalkeeper of the Year. He received his first invitation to the U.S. National Team Camp in January 2006 and was selected to the 2008 U.S. Olympic Team that competed in Beijing as the starting goalkeeper. Guzan was also honored during the summer of 2010 with a roster spot on the U.S. Men's National Team for the 2010 FIFA World Cup in South Africa. In 2004, goalkeeper Henry Ring enjoyed a breakout season representing the Garnet and Black in the MLS All-Star game and starting in goal for the East.

Most recently three Gamecocks were selected in the 2011 MLS Supplemental Draft, as Sam Arthur (Chicago Fire), Brettschneider (DC United) and Jimmy Maurer (New York Red Bulls) were drafted following their senior seasons at Carolina.
