The Columbia Tip-Off Club has supported the South Carolina men’s and women’s basketball programs since the Frank McGuire era. With the tremendous support of Gamecock men’s coach Frank Martin and women’s coach Dawn Staley, the Club seeks to develop, promote and grow fan interest in both basketball programs through Club membership.

The Tip-Off Club offers three membership levels: Individual ($125), Spur ($375/3 attendees) and Garnet and Black ($1,000/8 attendees). These membership levels permit access to all Club meetings for the season. Attendees will hear from the Gamecock head coaches, as well as from opposing team coaches, in a relaxed and intimate environment. For questions, please email the Columbia Tip-Off Club at columbiatipoffclub@gmail.com, or send us a tweet @ColaTipOffClub. We look forward to seeing you there! Go Gamecocks!

The Columbia Tip-Off Club is a non-profit booster group of South Carolina men's and women's basketball fans. The Club works closely with the coaching staffs to provide fan support, behind the scenes access and an opportunity to further enhance collegiate basketball relationships and experiences.
