THE CAROLINA VOLLEYBALL COMPETITION FACILITY

Nineteen ninety-six ushered in a new era for Carolina Volleyball as the Gamecocks began play in the Volleyball Competition Facility. The $4.6 million facility was completed in January of 1996.

In 2002, USC averaged over 700 people a match for the sixth year in a row, good enough for second in the SEC.

In 2001 Carolina broke the attendance record with a school record crowd of 1,793 in the match with SEC foe Florida which was the largest volleyball crowd in South Carolina history. This was also the largest crowd to ever attend a volleyball match in the state of South Carolina.
