Cory Poole

Athlete - East Orange

High School Boys 400m Hurdle Championship

"It means a lot. Me and my coaches have been talking about 50 points since my freshman year. So, we come out and did it today." "Pretty much everybody that put me through. I got an inside lane, so I saw everybody coming around and once I saw I could get the lead, I just went for it. I came around and won. My steps were pretty good." "It was maybe 35 percent. Hurdles 7, 8 and 9, I think I went back to 15." "At Nationals I definitely want to go faster than that. You'll have to wait and see."

Jermaine Gayle

3rd Leg - Jamaica
Closed lead a bit
"I have confidence in my team members, and I know what they are capable of doing. So my job was just to keep it as close as possible, and give us a fighting chance. I did the best that I can, and we came out with the victory. It feels good (to compete in Penn Relays) to be here. Last time I was here was in 2013. Before that I was in high school. So it's really good to be here and compete for the Jamaican people." Advice to friends and countrymen: "Just keep on motivating us as athletes and come together as one people."

Fitzroy Dunkley

Anchor - Jamaica
Come-from-behind victory at the finish line"
It means a lot to us. The U.S. has been dominating for the last couple years, and it was time for us to take it from them." "The crowd makes this more special than any other track meet. You have to be patient to come on strong at the finish line. The noise really helped me home and come in first. This is my first time running anchor leg at national level, but I ran it at LSU at the nationals and we won that so I was confident I could do it."

CM 4x200 Championship of America Invitational

On the the Penn Relays experience: "It's a great atmosphere, it's almost equal to running at like a world championship. There's almost 50,000 people here and for the most part everyone is here for the track and field. Everyone is here to watch the world compete against the world." What does it mean to win at Penn Relays: "It means everything. The University of Houston hasn't won a wheel in sprints in the last three decades so to come out here and break the curse it's great, there's no other feeling like it." On the team goals for the rest of the season: "As a team, the sky's the limit for us. We can do nothing but grow among each other. We had a little slip-up in our 4x1 and then made up for it with our 4x2. The sky's the limit for us. We already ran 38.5 (in the 4x1) and we can go faster, it's still early. We're getting better and better and trying to accomplish things we haven't done before."

On winning both the 4x2 and 100 today: "It means a lot to me. I want to thank my teammates for the support. We dropped the stick in the 4x1. We had to keep our heads up and keep pushing after that. So we went and took the 4x2 and after we won, my spirits were lifted. And with me PR'ing yesterday, I was determined to come back and win and do it for my coach and everyone who has been on my side. It's been a lot for me these last two days, but I managed to get through it. I'm just happy with myself right now." On his first time at Penn Relays: "I was at a junior college last year so it's my first time here. It's an exciting feeling. It's a great crowd with people out here cheering. I love the environment." On the goals for the rest of the season: "We're trying to go 9.8 or faster. The goal is to break 10 and I will do that."

Chris Mirabelli

Athlete - Rutgers

College Men's Javelin Throw Championship

"It's awesome because I know I push him (teammates Thomas Carr, 8th). And, honestly, I'm getting a little scared because senior year he might outdo me. But I hope all the best for him and we're just going to keep working -- we talk to each other everyday, try to make each other better, look at each other's technique and critique each other." "Honestly, I just want to see my technique get better and better each week and just try to beat myself each week." "I really like competition and this season, so far, it's been tough to find good competition. Coming in here, I knew Shuey was a great thrower and his throw really got me excited and made me rise to the occasion." "I love throwing at the Penn Relays. It's beautiful here, everyone's great, a great audience. Everyone just wants you to throw far. I love it." "I knew, I thought it was going to be far, and it was. I was excited. I mean, I wasn't doing everything right, technique-wise, so I just want to get back at practice and keep working at it." "This one definitely is one of the top three. I've always wanted to win a gold watch at Penn Relays and I finally did it. I'll be back next year to do it again."

Vashti Cunningham

Athlete - Nike

Winner, Olympian, and 19-year-old pro on her mental prep before jumping and managing the pressure of success at a young age.

"I always say the Lord's Prayer, especially when I get up to those high heights, I'm like, 'God, please, I need you on this one.' I used to get really nervous, but now I don't see myself as a big person to everybody. To me I'm just one of the competitors and nobody special. I just go in there knowing who I am, and knowing what I need to do. And then I just do what I have to do."
