This Season's Notables

Staying Power

South Carolina head coach Dawn Staley is in her ninth season at the helm after guiding the Gamecocks into the postseason six times in her first eight seasons in Columbia. That string includes five straight NCAA Tournament berths, which is the longest consecutive streak in program history. Those five appearances include three Sweet 16s and a Final Four berth.

Rankings Review

South Carolina comes into this season ranked as high as No. 2 and as low as No. 7 in the various preseason polls. The two season-long polls – Associated Press and USA Today Coaches – have the Gamecocks at No. 4 and No. 3, respectively.

The AP's top-five ranking keep South Carolina as one of two programs in the nation to hold a ranking that high every week since the start of the 2014-15 season.

Tough Road Ahead

The Gamecocks have a tough schedule ahead this season, facing 12 games against teams ranked in either the AP or USA Today Coaches Preseason Poll. Eight of those games are on the road, including a neutral-site contest against No. 5/8 Louisville. Three of the 12 games – at No. 7/6 Ohio State, vs. No. 5/8 Louisville, at No. 8/6 Texas – come in the first month of the season.

Fourth Follow-Up?

The Gamecocks enter the 2016-17 season as the three-time reigning SEC regular-season champions, becoming just the third program to win three straight titles, joining Tennessee (2000-04 and 1993-95) and Auburn (1987-89).

SEC coaches and the media picked the Gamecocks to claim the conference title again this season. The league has had the same champion four straight seasons just once before when Tennessee claimed its fourth straight in 2003 en route to the league-record five consecutive titles (2000-04).

All-Americans Abound

South Carolina is one of three teams to return multiple Associated Press All-Americans in 2016-17. Senior center Alaina Coates was an honorable mention selection by the organization, the first All-America nod of her career. Junior forward A'ja Wilson brought home First-Team All-America honors from the AP after the organization put her on its third team in 2014-15.

In this season's Preseason AP All-America list, Wilson grabbed 32 of a possible 33 votes for the first team. ESPN tabbed her the top player in the nation this season as well. Coates has picked up several preseason All-America honors this season and was named the No. 9 player in the nation by ESPN.

Four x 1,000

South Carolina boasts four 1,000-point scorers on this season's roster, led by Alaina Coates (1,241) and A'ja Wilson (1,016). Junior transfers Kaela Davis (1,246 at Georgia Tech) and Allisha Gray (1,053 at North Carolina). All four have been first-team all-conference selections in their respective leagues as well.

Back in (Garnet and) Black

The Gamecocks return five letterwinners from last season with a sixth, Tiffany Davis, returning after missing 2015-16 due to injury. Five of those six letterwinners are junior and seniors.

Transfer Tickets

South Carolina welcomes the on-court addition of a pair of junior transfers who sat out last season per NCAA rules. Guard Kaela Davis is a two-time All-ACC First-Team selection as the fastest player in Georgia Tech history to record 1,000 career points (52 games). Guard Allisha Gray was also a 1,000-point scorer in just two seasons at North Carolina, earning First-Team All-ACC status as a sophomore after leading the team in scoring at 15.2 points per game to rank eighth in the ACC.

Back row: Bianca Cuevas-Moore, Allisha Gray, Tyasha Harris, Tiffany Davis, Doniyah Cliney, Victoria Patrick, Araion Bradshaw

SEASON IN REVIEW

New Faces

Five new Gamecocks join the fold this season with the four freshmen ready to take the court right away. Junior forward Alexis Jennings will sit out this season due to NCAA transfer rules.

Guard Tyasha Harris (Noblesville, Ind.) headlines the freshman class, coming off a summer spent helping the U.S. to its seventh-straight gold medal in the FIBA U18 Americas Championship. Araion Bradshaw (Hyde Park, Mass.) and Victoria Patrick (Orlando, Fla.) join her in the guard spot. Bradshaw is point guard with good court vision, and Patrick comes in as a scorer to help stretch the floor. Forward Mikiaah Herbert Harrigan rounds out the class, bringing athleticism, speed and perimeter shooting to the team.

Alai-ja Awaits

Over the past two seasons, opponents may be inclined to think of the paint as the Gamecock-owned continent of Alaija as senior center Alaina Coates and junior forward A'ja Wilson have firmly planted the flag in the lane on both ends of the court. Earning All-America and First-Team All-SEC status last season, the duo averaged a combined 27.3 points, 18.5 rebounds and 4.2 blocks. In the Gamecocks' 15 games against ranked opponents, the pair were even more dominant with 29.7 points per game, 20.3 rebounds per contest and 4.9 blocks per outing.

The Amazing Technicolor Dream Coates

Senior Alaina Coates has played a pivotal role in all of South Carolina's accomplishments over the last three seasons by being a steady offensive producer and a dominant rebounder. She averaged a double-double both overall and in SEC play last season, becoming the first Gamecock to average double-figure rebounds overall since 1992-93 and in SEC play since 1993-94. Her sustained success made her just the fifth Gamecock to amass at least 1,000 career points and 900 career rebounds. Already the program's career record-holder in defensive rebounds (642), she is fourth on the career rebounds list (930) with eyes on becoming just the third player in program history to join the 1,000-point, 1,000-rebound club. Defensively, Coates is arguably unmanageable inside, ranking second in program history in career blocked shots (171) and altering countless others with her athleticism and timing. She recorded the program's first triple double to include blocked shots last season with 29 points, 16 rebounds and 10 blocked shots against Winthrop on Dec. 13, 2015.

Already a two-time All-American, junior A'ja Wilson is on track to become the most decorated Gamecock in program history.

AW = All-World

Entering her third season at South Carolina, junior forward A'ja Wilson is already one of the most decorated Gamecocks in program history. She joined the 1,000-point club in her 71st career game and set the program's single-season record for blocked shots with 103 last season. Those efforts helped her become the first player in league history to earn both SEC Player of the Year and SEC Defensive Player of the Year honors in the same season. Wilson was a consensus First-Team All-American and a finalist for all three national player of the year awards. Following her MVP performance in the 2015 FIBA U19 World Championships, she was also named USA Basketball Female Athlete of the Year for 2015.

USA Basketball

At least one Gamecock has donned the red, white and blue for USA Basketball in each of the last three summers, and the group has helped six U.S. teams to gold medals in that time. Former Gamecock Tiffany Mitchell got the streak started with her FIBA 3x3 World Championship gold in 2014, which A'ja Wilson and Dawn Staley matched with a gold in the 2014 FIBA U18 Americas Championship. Staley went on to assist on USA Basketball's FIBA World Championship gold-medal team that same year. The next summer, Wilson and Staley claimed the 2015 FIBA U19 World Championship gold. This summer, incoming freshman Tyasha Harris steered Staley's U.S. U18 team to a gold in the FIBA U18 Americas Championship.

Rankings Review

South Carolina comes into this season ranked as high as No. 2 and as low as No. 7 in the various preseason polls. The two season-long polls – Associated Press and USA Today Coaches – have the Gamecocks at No. 4 and No. 3, respectively.

The AP's top-five ranking keep South Carolina as one of two programs in the nation to hold a ranking that high every week since the start of the 2014-15 season.

Senior Alaina Coates is one of just three Gamecocks all-time to amass at least 1,000 points and 900 rebounds in her career.
