DOUG ALLISON

1987 • Forward

Doug Allison is the school's all-time leading points (158) and goal scorer (63). He led Carolina in scoring all four of his years and went to the NCAA Tournament three straight years from 1985-87. A native of Barnstaple, England, Allison joined Marty Baltzegar as the school's first first-team All-American. He is currently the head coach at cross-state rival Furman.

MARTY BALZEGAR

1987 • Defender

Marty Baltzegar was named a second-team All-American after anchoring a stifling defense that allowed only 10 goals all year, two coming on penalty kicks. Baltzegar joined teammate Doug Allison as Carolina's first ever All-American honorees. Baltzegar scored 24 career points on six goals and 12 assists.

2006 Gamecocks

CHARLES ARNDT

1988 • Goalkeeper

A first-team All-America selection, Charles Arndt compiled 13 shutouts while leading the Gamecocks to their first semifinal appearance in the NCAA Tournament during his senior campaign. For his efforts, Arndt was named National Goalkeeper of the Year. He holds career school records for goals against average (0.70) and combined shutouts (29).

CLARK BRISSON

1989 • Forward

Clark Brisson earned All-America honors after leading USC with a then-school record 50 points (21g, 8a). Brisson closed out his career in 1990 with 98 points (36g, 26a), good for third all-time in USC history. In Brisson's four-year career, USC compiled an amazing 61-14-11 (.773) mark and advanced to the NCAA Tournament four times.

TOMMY LOEBER

1990 • Defender

Tommy Loeber was a first-team All-America selection by the NSCAA. He led a defense that only allowed 19 goals all year while advancing to the second round of the NCAA Tournament. Loeber, an Arlington, Texas native, started more games than anyone in Carolina history, notching 87 starts in 87 games. He finished his career with six points on two goals and two assists.

South Carolina Soccer

CHRIS FAKLARIS

1993 • Forward

Chris Faklaris was a consensus second-team All-American by Soccer America, Soccer News and the NSCAA after leading the Gamecocks in points (44) and goals (20).

Carolina's second all-time leading scorer with 124 points (55g, 14a), Faklaris led the Gamecocks to their first National Championship appearance in 1993.

ROB SMITH

1994 • Midfielder

Rob Smith, a third-team All-American selection, ended his career as Carolina's all-time leader with 40 assists. A starter in all 84 matches during his four-year career, Smith is tied for seventh all-time in Carolina scoring with 78 points (19g, 40a). Smith, who played for the MLS's Columbus Crew, completed his degree at USC in 2001. He represented the United States at the 1996 Olympic Games in Atlanta, Ga.

CLINT MATHIS

1995 & 1997 • Midfielder

Clint Mathis set three USC season records for most points (53), goals (25) and game-winning goals (10) on his way to becoming a consensus first-team All-America selection in 1995. A third-team selection in 1997, he finished his career as the third all-time leading scorer in USC history with 121 points (53g, 15a). He was a three-time finalist for the Hermann Trophy and the MAC Player of the Year award. During the 2002 summer he represented the United States in the World Cup. He currently plays for the Colorado Rapids of the MLS.

2006 Gamecocks

HENRY RING

1998 & 2000 • Goalkeeper

Henry Ring ended 1998 with a goals against average of 0.72. Ring recorded 9.5 shutouts in 1998, allowing only 14 goals in 1,753 minutes. Ring was named to the first-ever All-Independent first team as well as being named Independent Player of the Week (Sept. 16).

Ring became only the second Gamecock to earn All-America honors twice, joining Clint Mathis. Ring earned third team honors after ending the 2000 campaign with a 0.93 GAA, allowing only 17 goals his senior season. He was drafted by the Chicago Fire in the 2001 MLS Superdraft and was the starter in net for the Fire in 2004.

RING

BRAD GUZAN

2004 • Goalkeeper

Brad Guzan earned second-team All-America honors from the NSCAA in his second and final season as a Gamecock in 2004. He was also a semifinalist for the Missouri Athletic Club Hermann Trophy and one of Soccer America's 11 Collegiate MVPs.

The Homer Glen, Ill., native played every minute in goal of his two seasons at Carolina. He compiled an 0.96 goal-against average as a freshman and totaled nine shutouts, both of which rank among the best ever for a freshman at South Carolina.

Guzan turned opted to turn pro following his sophomore season and was the No. 2 pick in the Major League Soccer SuperDraft. Expansion-club CD Chivas USA made Guzan the highest goalkeeper ever drafted. He started as a rookie in goal for Chivas in 2005.

NSCAA ALL-SOUTH REGION

Since head coach Mark Berson started the Gamecock program in 1978, a total of 39 different Gamecocks have collected 57 National Soccer Coaches Association of American All-South Region honors. Brian Winstead was the first Carolina player to make the team in 1978.

Fourteen Carolina players made the All-South Region team more than once during their career. Rob Smith was selected All-South Region in all four of his seasons at South Carolina (1991-1994). Doug Allison (1985-1987) and Chris Faklaris (1992-1994) were three-time All-South Region selections.

At least one South Carolina player has made the All-South Region team in every season since 1983 and two players have garnered the honor in 20 of those seasons. Four Gamecocks were named to the squad in the 1986, 1987 and 1994 seasons.

GOALKEEPER OF THE YEAR

One of the most prestigious awards on the national college soccer scene is "Goalkeeper of the Year," so named by adidas and the NSCAA. Within a four-year span, South Carolina brought home two of those awards — Warren Lipka winning in 1985 and Charles Arndt in 1988.

Arndt became one of USC's best players ever after a sparkling senior campaign that saw him engineer 13 shutouts for the Gamecocks en route to a Final Four finish in the NCAA Tournament. Arndt broke Lipka's long-standing record for minutes played in a career and has the best career goals against average in school history — allowing a goal every one-and-a-half games for a 0.70 career mark. Arndt was also named All-South, All-American, Academic All-American and John M. Johnson award winner after the 1988 season.

Lipka became the Gamecocks' first-ever "Goalkeeper of the Year" award winner in 1985, after South Carolina completed what is still the best school record in history (20-3-1) while advancing to the NCAA quarterfinals. Lipka played 2,155 minutes in goal that season (still a school best) while being a part of 15 shutouts in 24 matches that year for another school standard.

ACADEMIC ALL-AMERICANS

South Carolina has established the finest of all traditions in the college soccer world with its promotion of the student-athlete concept. As an illustration of that fact, no fewer than 12 Gamecocks overall and 10 different players have been named to an Academic All-America team over the past 15 seasons.

Gamecocks who have received the honor have displayed a combination of fine athletic ability to go along with the classroom success. Defender Greg King was a three-year starter and earned 1994 honors on the GTE Academic All-America first team squad. Defender Peter Duitsman, a native of Naperville, Ill., was selected as an Academic All-America after serving as the Gamecocks' team captain in 1993. Ruben Tufino earned Freshman of the Year honors from Soccer America in 1989 and is the school's eighth leading scorer. Charles Arndt was the National Goalkeeper of the Year in 1988 while earning Academic All-America honors the same year. Former Gamecock assistant coach Doug Allison, a 1988 graduate with a degree in physical education from South Carolina, captured Academic All-America honors after the 1986 and 1987 seasons. Ragnar Thorarinsson, who played for South Carolina in 1984 and 1985, was the first Gamecock ever to be chosen to the squad. Along with receiving the award in 1985, Thorarinsson started in the midfield for USC's South Region championship team.

INDEPENDENT ALL-STAR TEAMS

From 1998 to 2000, the nine Independent teams voted on All-Independent all-star teams. Six Gamecocks were named to the All-Independent teams in 1998, four to the first team and two to the second-team. John Harr, Jonas Myllenberg and Scott Campagna joined Henry Ring on the first team. Harr and Myllenberg were a part of the USC offense that outscored its opponent 47-14.

Midfielder Ryan O'Neill and forward Joey Worthen were named to the second team. Worthen also earned the honor of Co-Rookie of the Year. Head Coach Mark Berson also earned postseason accolades by earning Independent Coach of the Year honors.

In 1999, four Gamecocks represented South Carolina on the All-Independent squads. Senior defender Chris Morman made his first appearance on the first team, while fellow senior Ryan O'Neill makes his second appearance after making the second team last season. Sophomore forward Joey Worthen also made the move from second team in '98 to first team in '99. Worthen led the team in scoring with 11 goals and five assists for 27 points.

Freshman Tim Glowienka rounded out the list by making the second team. The midfielder started all 19 matches as a freshman and ended the season with three goals and two assists for eight points.

In 2000, eight of the Independent teams formed the Atlantic Soccer Conference, leaving South Carolina as the only true independent.

JOHN M. JOHNSON AWARD

The John M. Johnson, Jr. Memorial Award was established in 1982 to recognize South Carolina's Most Valuable Player during the season. The award is voted upon each season by the players and coaches and is presented at the annual team banquet.

The award is given in the memory of John Johnson, an avid South Carolina soccer fan and lifelong supporter of the Gamecock soccer team and the entire University of South Carolina athletic program. Johnson is survived by his wife, who presents the award each year. Henry Ring (1999-2000), Mike Solano (1995-96) and Tommy Loeber (1989-90) have each earned the honor twice.

BRIAN WINSTEAD AWARD

The Brian Winstead Memorial Award was established to honor the memory of Carolina soccer great Brian Winstead, who died in December 2004.

A pioneer for Gamecock soccer, Winstead was the first player to sign a scholarship agreement with USC in the men's soccer program's inaugural season in 1978.

Winstead went on to lead the Gamecocks in scoring in both of his seasons in Columbia, and in 1978, he became the first South Carolina player ever to earn All-South Region honors. He also served as a team captain in 1979. Winstead's name remains etched in the South Carolina record books to this day. In just two seasons, he scored 80 points, which ranks eighth for points in a career.
