Curtis Frye

South Carolina Head Coach 13th Season // East Carolina '74

Entering the 2009 track season in his 13th year as head track & field and cross country coach at South Carolina, Curtis Frye has established a program that is regarded as one of the nation's elite. Frye has coached or overseen over 60 NCAA champions, 108 SEC champions and more than 380 NCAA All Americans during his career.

In October 2008, Frye was bestowed the Order of Ikkos Medallion, presented by the United States Olympic Committee. A special order reserved for the coach of an Olympic or Paralympic medalist, Frye received the honor after coaching Jerome Singleton Jr. to a silver medal in the men's 100-meter dash at the 2008 Paralympic Games in Beijing. The medallion signifies the highest level of excellence that a coach can achieve.

Frye has coached an NCAA champion in all but one year since 1998, including at least one national champion every year since 2005. In 2008, Frye coached Jason Richardson to the 110-meter hurdles outdoor title after coaching six national champions the year before. All six national champions in 2007 were on the women's side with Natasha Hastings sweeping the 400m indoor and outdoor titles along with the mile relay team of Hastings, Krystal Cantey, Brandi Cross and Stephanie Smith. In addition, Frye has coached an SEC champion every year he has been at South Carolina.

One of the most well-respected coaches in the country, Frye brought South Carolina its first team NCAA championship in any sport when his women's team captured the 2002 NCAA Outdoor Championship crown. Frye is a three-time United States Track Coaches Association (USTCA) National Coach of the Year, taking home the 1999 and 2002 women's outdoor honors and the 1999 men's indoor honors. In taking home the men's indoor and women's outdoor coach of the year honors in 1999, he became the first person in the history of the USTCA to win the award indoors and outdoors in the same year. In 2001, he earned the prestigious Nike Coach of the Year award and was also named the 1997 USOC Track & Field Coach of the Year. Frye is also a three-time SEC Coach of the Year with the honor coinciding with his three women's outdoor conference championships in 1999, 2002 and 2005.

During his tenure at South Carolina, Frye has coached 10 SEC Athletes of the Year, the most recent being Johnny Dutch, who was named the 2008 SEC Freshman Runner of the Year (outdoors). He has also coached five national athletes of the year in Hastings (2007-overall), Demetria Washington (2002-indoor), Lashinda Demus (2002-overall), Terrence Trammell (2000-outdoor) and Miki Barber (2000-outdoor). Demus was acknowledged by Track and Field News while the United States Track & Field and Cross Country Coaches Association (USTFCCCA) honored the other four recipients.

On the women's side, Frye's teams have placed in the top 10 nationally outdoors in all but two of his seasons at Carolina. In addition to the team title in 2002, his teams earned the silver medal in 2005 and took home the bronze in 2003 and 2006. On the men's side, Frye's team placed in the top 25 nationally indoors in all but three of his seasons.

Along with continued success on the track, Frye has produced winners in the classroom on a consistent basis. Frye's athletes have earned four USTFCCCA National Scholar-Athlete of the Year honors in addition to an SEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year award. Richardson swept the indoor and outdoor national honors in 2008, following awards earned by 2006 National Indoor Scholar Athlete of the Year Shalonda Solomon and 2002 National Scholar Athlete of the Year Otukile Lekote.
