CAROLINA IN THE NCAA TOURNAMENT

South Carolina's won its first NCAA Tournament game last Friday with its 4-0 win against Davidson and advanced to the Round of 16 for the first time by defeating Rutgers 1-0. Playing in its third consecutive tournament and first time as a national seed (No. 2), the Gamecocks impove to 2-2-1 all-time in NCAA Tournament games. The first bid came in a 2-0 loss at Charlotte in 1998 when the Gamecocks went 11-6-1 in the regular season. In 2007, Carolina earned an at-large bid with a 14-6-2 record when the Gamecocks played Duke to a 1-1 draw at Athens, Ga. Duke advanced with a 4-1 edge in penalty kicks. In 2008, South Carolina dropped a 3-2 overtime decision to William & Mary at Durham, N.C.

SCOUTING WAKE FOREST

No. 14 Wake Forest comes into Friday's matchup with a 15-5-2 record after finishing fifth in the unforgiving ACC at 5-3-2. The Demon Deacons posted shutouts in both opening round matches last week, defeating Kennesaw State 2-0 and West Virginia 3-0 at Spry Stadium. The Deacons are led by a pair of senior forwards in Jill Hutchinson (14g, 3a, 31p) and Kaley Fountain (10g, 10a, 30p), but junior midfielder Casey Luckhurst was the star last weekend by scoring her first three career goals. In the net, junior Amanda Barasha sports a 0.70 goals against average with six shutouts in 1278 minutes, and senior Laura Morse has a 0.94 goals against average with three shutouts in 765 minutes.

EARNING 100

South Carolina head coach Shelley Smith earned her 100th victory as head coach of the Gamecocks in Sunday's win against Rutgers. In her ninth season in Columbia, she sports a 100-65-24 record. Her all-time coaching record is 141-100-26 which includes her 41-35-2 record while coaching Rhode Island for four seasons.

SMITH NAMED SEC COACH OF THE YEAR, FOUR GAMECOCKS EARN ALL-SEC HONORS

South Carolina head coach Shelley Smith was named SEC Coach of the Year, senior Blakely Mattern was named SEC Scholar Athlete of the Year, and four Gamecocks earned All-SEC honors to cap the most successful regular season in program history.

It is the first SEC Coach of the Year honor for Smith, who guided South Carolina to school records for conference (seven) and overall (15) victories this season. The Gamecocks recorded a program-best second place finish in the SEC East and came within one game of winning the overall title.

Mattern and sophomore Kayla Grimsley were two of only four unanimous First Team All-SEC selections. Seniors Kim Miller and Samantha Diaz-Matosas earned their first All-SEC honors after the duo made the second team, as voted by the league's coaches.

SENIOR CLASS SET THE BAR HIGH

The 2009 senior class will leave Columbia as the winningest senior class in program history. Entering weekend play, the group of seniors hold a 55-22-14 (.681) record, the most wins and best win-percentage for a South Carolina senior class. The group of seven has led Carolina to four consecutive SEC tournament appearances, the first SEC title in program history, the first NCAA Tournament national seed in program history and the first NCAA wins in school history.

THE BEST SEASON EVER

With a 18-3-2 record and 7-3-1 SEC record, the Gamecocks have already earned program bests for overall and conference wins in a season. The Gamecocks finished a program-best second in the SEC East and came within one game of the winning the SEC title.

JACOBS RELISHES POSTSEASON PLAY

Junior Brooke Jacobs annually saves some of her best games for the NCAA Tournament and has scored a first half goal in each of Carolina's last three tournament games. The Chambersburg, Pa., native had a breakout game against William & Mary in the 2007 first round by knocking in Carolina's first goal and adding an assist. The striker matched the effort last Friday by scoring the first goal of the game and adding an assist against Davidson. She then scored a first half goal to defeat Rutgers on Sunday. Her eight points in NCAA matches are a school record.

GRIMSLEY JOINS ELITE COMPANY

Sophomore Kayla Grimsley became just the fifth player in South Carolina history to register a 10-goal season after scoring in the 63rd minute against Arkansas. Grimsley joins Jennie Ondo, Angela Austin, Debbie Smith and Darcel Mollon as players to reach the plateau. She also needs one goal to tie Ondo for the single-season goals record (14).

GETTING THE W'S

South Carolina's 19 wins are tied for third in the country behind the top two teams in this week's national polls: #1 Stanford (22) and #2 Portland (20). UCLA, North Carolina and Notre Dame are the teams that have 19 wins this season along with the Gamecocks.

HOME AT THE STONE

South Carolina has been nearly unstoppable at Stone Stadium the past three seasons, posting a 33-2-5 record at home since 2006. The streak included a 15-game unbeaten streak from Aug. 31, 2006-Oct. 5, 2007 and a 13-game unbeaten streak at "The Graveyard" from Oct. 19, 2007-Oct. 23, 2008. The lone blemishes on the record are a double-overtime loss to Vanderbilt (Oct. 7, 2007) and a loss to #7 Florida (Oct. 30, 2008). The season opening win against College of Charleston was Coach Shelley Smith's 50th win at Stone Stadium. Carolina is a perfect 10-0-0 at Stone Stadium this season.

PATTON SETS THE SEC RECORD

Mollie Patton recently set the SEC record for consecutive shutouts when she notched seven straight, passing the previous record of six held by Kentucky's Carrie Kuhnell (1995) and Auburn's Megan Rivera (2003). She also set a new South Carolina single-season shutout record when she grabbed her eighth shutout of the year in the win against Kentucky. She then set the career record in the next game at Ole Miss with her 16th shutout in 33 career games, surpassing the previous mark of 15 set by Laura Armstrong and Elise Matthews.

SHUTOUT DEFENSE

South Carolina finished the regular season tied for eighth in the nation with 12 shutouts on the year with only 10 goals allowed. Junior goalkeeper Mollie Patton has held the national lead in all three goalkeeping categories for the majority of the season. Going into Friday's round of 16 match, she is third in the nation with 15 solo shutouts and ranks ninth nationally with a 0.50 goals against average.

GRIMSLEY'S RECORD PLAY

Sophomore Kayla Grimsley has continued the stellar play that she exhibited in her freshman season last year. The flashy player set a new South Carolina record with a nine-match scoring streak, and her goal against South Alabama tied her program record four-match goal scoring streak. She currently is first in the SEC in goals (13) and second in points (33).

FIRST HALF LOCKDOWN

LSU's goal 57 seconds into the regular season game marked the first time this season that South Carolina has allowed a goal in the first half. Florida and SEC Tournament first round opponent Georgia are the only other teams to notch first half goals against South Carolina.

EXCEEDING EXPECATIONS

For the fourth consecutive year Coach Shelley Smith's squad exceeded preseason expectations by finishing strong in conference play. Picked by the coaches to finish last in 2006, the Gamecocks earned fifth in the Eastern division. Picked to finish last in the East in the 2007 SEC Preseason poll, the Gamecocks tied a program record for wins en route to a fourth place division finish. Carolina was picked fourth in the 2008 preseason poll and again improved in the standings with a third place finish in the Eastern division. Coach Smith's team was again picked fourth in 2009 and responded with an SEC East runner-up finish that earned her SEC Coach of the Year honors.

MATTERN CONTINUES TO PICK UP NATIONAL HONORS

Senior defender Blakely Mattern continues to pick up honors in her final season as a Gamecock. A Lowe's Senior CLASS Award finalist, Mattern has been named the SEC Defensive Player of the Week twice, was selected to the Soccer America National Team of the Week four times, earned Top Drawer Soccer Team of the Week honors once and has also earned CollegeSoccer360.com Primetime Player of the Week honors twice. In addition, she is a first team Academic All-American for the second consecutive year and has earned NSCAA national player of the week honors this year.

MEXICAN FORESHADOW

South Carolina's incredible run this season may have been foreshadowed by the preseason ending 2-0 shutout win of the Mexican National Team. Since that match, the Mexican team went 4-0 in its collegiate tour and outscored opponents 14-2 with wins at Kennesaw State (5-0), previously ranked TCU (4-1), #14 Southern California (2-0) and Cal State Fullerton (3-1).

AT THE TOP OF THE NCAA LISTS

Noted as one of the top defensive teams in the country under Shelley Smith, South Carolina has continued that excellence this season and added a little offensive flair as well. The Gamecocks have the NCAA's eighth-ranked defense with a 0.53 goals against average and 15 shutouts. The team is also No. 34 in scoring offense (2.00 goals/game). With that type of production, South Carolina is also at the top of the SEC lists in half of the statistical categories. The team leads the conference in goals allowed, goals against average, shutouts, shots allowed, shots on goal allowed, points allowed and shot on goal percentage.

SPREADING THE WEALTH

Goals have been spread around the entire Gamecock team so far with a different player hitting the game-winning goal in nine of Carolina's 19 wins. Fourteen different players have scored a goal this season, and only half of those players have scored multiple goals this season: Kayla Grimsley, Kim Miller, Blakely Mattern, Samantha Diaz-Matosas, Lindsay Small, Brooke Jacobs, Kortney Rhoades and Christine Watts.

MILLER TIME

Senior Kim Miller has been one of the most consistent performers for South Carolina the past four years, and the New York native has stretched that consistency to another part of her game in her final season. Miller is 12th in the NCAA and second in the SEC with 11 assists so far this season, and she currently has the Carolina record with five game winning goals this season.

THE ROAD TO REDEMPTION

South Carolina lost only three games this season, dropping road matches to No. 23 Georgia (2-1), No. 13 LSU (1-0) and No. 8 Florida (3-0). After earning the fourth seed for the SEC Tournament in Orange Beach, South Carolina's road to the title was setup to allow the Gamecocks to avenge their only three losses of the season. In Wednesday's quarterfinal round, the Gamecocks defeated Georgia 3-2. In Friday's semifinal round, the Gamecocks defeated Florida 1-0. The Gamecocks officialy tied LSU (1-1) in the final, but Carolina earned the title with an 8-7 edge in penalty kicks, giving South Carolina the rare chance to post a win or draw against every team on the 2009 schedule (also tied Mississippi State on the road).

FIRST TIME OPPONENTS

South Carolina faced five opponents for the first time in 2009 and went 5-0 in those games. The Gamecocks defeated Louisville (3-0), Cincinnati (4-0), UCF (1-0), South Alabama (6-1) and Rutgers (1-0). Last season, Carolina went 0-1-2 against first time opponents, drawing UNC Wilmington and #7 Florida State before dropping a tight game to Western Carolina.

IN THE POLLS

South Carolina finishes the season with a unanimous No. 8 ranking, jumping as many as seven spots in one of the three polls after the run to the SEC title. The Gamecocks are No. 8 by the NSCAA, Soccer America and Soccer Times - the first SEC team in the rankings.

GRABBING THE SCHOOL RECORD

Senior defender Blakely Mattern has started every game of her career, and with 91 career starts is officially the school's all-time leader after surpassing Ashley Kirk's record of 81 starts four weeks ago. She, along with Samantha Diaz-Matosas and Kim Miller, surpassed the games played record of 83 this season as well and all hold the lead with 91 games played.

GAMECOCKS ON TV

The SEC Championship match was South Carolina's fourth televised game in the 2009 season. The team defeated Vanderbilt, 2-1, in the SEC opener on Sept. 25 before falling 1-0 to LSU on ESPNU and Florida (3-0) on Fox Sports Florida. Carolina and LSU played the SEC final on ESPNU, the second game on the network between the teams this season. The first LSU broadcast marked the third consecutive season that the Gamecocks played a game on national television.

ELLEN FAHEY'S STEPPING UP

Sophomore defender Ellen Fahey started every game at centerback last season as a freshman, continuing the legacy of all-conference caliber freshman defenders after Blakely Mattern (2006) and Brittiny Rhoades (2007). Strong and assertive in the back, Fahey added a new dimension to her play thus far after recording her first four career points, three on game-winning assists. Her three game-winning assists tie the South Carolina sophomore single season record.

HELMET! HELMET! HELMET!

Junior goalkeeper Mollie Patton has learned to embrace the helmet she has had to wear the past two seasons due to previous concussions. This year she has company now that Lindsay Small and Brittiny Rhoades have been confined to wearing headgear due to blows to the head recently. Rhoades began wearing headgear after a blow in the Clemson victory led to her getting stitches on her left brow. Small then had to get headgear after taking an inadvertent elbow in the Vanderbilt victory, causing her to get stitches below her right brow.

ROCKY TOPPED

South Carolina's 2-1 win at Tennessee last weekend marked the first win in program history in Knoxville. In addition, the victory extended Carolina's current streak in the series. After going winless in the first 13 matches between the SEC East rivals, South Carolina has now won the last three meetings - one at home, one at the SEC tournament and one in Knoxville.

SENIOR CLASS BECOMES FIRST TO WIN AT CLEMSON

South Carolina defeated rival Clemson 5-0 last Sunday for the program's first victory at Historic Riggs Field. In a rivalry that has been played annually since 1995 in a home-and-home series, the Gamecocks not only never won at Riggs Field in seven tries but never scored a goal there until the offensive outburst in a 5-0 win. Senior Shannon Bigbie hit the game winner in her first start of the year, classmate Blakely Mattern scored two goals and senior Kim Miller notched two assists in the victory.

DIAZ-MATOSAS DELIVERS

Senior defender Samantha Diaz-Matosas has started off strong for South Carolina with a four-point weekend at the Cardinal Classic. Diaz-Matosas earned an assist in the final seconds of the match against Louisville before scoring her first goal of the season and getting the gamewinning assist in the 4-0 win against Cincinnati. On Senior Night, she hit the game-winner in overtime to defeat Auburn. A versatile player, Diaz-Matosas can play anywhere on the field, making her a top threat for the Gamecocks in her fourth year.

MATTERN'S CAREER WEEKEND

Senior Blakely Mattern had a career weekend at the Carolina's Cup when she scored three goals in two games for six points to earn the Carolina's Cup MVP honor. The senior defender also led the Gamecocks to their sixth shutout - tied for the NCAA lead - in the 5-0 win at Clemson and 2-0 win against UNC Wilmington. For her efforts, she was named the SEC Defensive Player of the Week for the second time in three weeks and also earned a spot on the Soccer America and Top Drawer Soccer National Teams of the Week.

RETURNING CATEGORY LEADERS

Carolina returns 10 starters from last season's NCAA Tournament team and only lost one senior from the squad that went 11-7-4. South Carolina will enter 2009 as one of the most experienced teams in the nation, and depth will also be available after Coach Shelley Smith signed seven freshmen and landed two transfers for the 2009 season.

Shelley Smith Ninth Season

Shelley Smith enters her ninth season at the helm of the USC women's soccer program and looks to continue building upon the success that she has brought to the program after taking the team to the first back-to-back NCAA Tournament appearances in program history.

Smith has cemented Carolina's position as a conference title contender and player on the national stage after guiding the Gamecocks in 2008 to their second consecutive NCAA Tournament bid and third consecutive SEC Tournament bid, both program firsts. The Gamecocks went 11-7-4 overall and earned five SEC wins for the third year in a row with only one senior on the roster. Respected as a top defensive team, the Gamecocks finished the regular season second in the SEC with eight shutouts and ranked in the top two in every major defensive category including goals allowed, points allowed, shots allowed and shots on goal allowed.

Blakely Mattern and Kayla Grimsley both earned All-SEC honors with Mattern earning her second first team and Grimsley picking up spots on the second team and freshman team. The duo also picked up Soccer Buzz All-Southeast Region honors while Mattern also earned a nod by the NSCAA.

Carolina's success in the classroom continued last season as her squad earned two Academic All-District honors in Mattern and Mollie Patton. Mattern was also named to the Academic All-America first team, making South Carolina one of only four teams in the nation – and the only in the SEC – to have an Academic All-American selected each of the past four seasons. Her team was also honored with its seventh NSCAA Team Academic All-American to the SEC Academic Honor Roll in addition to nine selections to the SEC Freshman Honor Roll. Overall, Smith has coached 131 SEC Academic Honor Roll recipients since coming to USC in 2001.

Smith has coached several top student-athletes at Carolina including Ashley Kirk, USC's first fourtime All-SEC honoree, Carolina's first All-American in three-time All-SEC selection Blakely Mattern and two-time All-SEC performers Melinda Carter, Jessica Julin and Sarah Lentz. Julin is currently the captain of the Finland National Team and Carter played in the WUSA. The Gamecocks have earned 20 All-SEC honors in the last eight years.

In her first season as head coach at Carolina (2001), the Gamecocks were the third most improved team in the nation with an 8-7-3 overall record. Carolina also had one of the school's best home records, going 5-3 at Stone Stadium, allowing opponents to score only four goals in eight matches.

The success continued for USC in 2002 with 13 wins in Smith's second season. The year was highlighted with USC's first ever victories against Florida and Kentucky. Smith also led her team to ties against 2002 SEC champion Auburn and Eastern Division champion Tennessee.

Smith led the Gamecocks to another successful season in 2003 with 10 wins including a USC record eight-game unbeaten streak as well as a 6-2-1 record at home in Stone Stadium.

The 2004 season featured a win over No. 7 Clemson, the Gamecocks' first win over a ranked opponent since 1998, as well as a 6-3 mark in nonconference action. Ashley Kirk also became the first freshman soccer player in school history to be named SEC Freshman of the Year. In addition, Carolina set a school record for a home gamewinning streak with six consecutive wins.

Following an injury filled 2005 season, the program took a big step forward in 2006 as USC went undefeated at home for the first time in school history with an 8-0-3 mark at Stone Stadium. The team's cumulative goals against average of 0.69 was the lowest ever tallied at Carolina. The season culminated with the Gamecocks advancing to the SEC Tournament semifinals for the first time in Carolina history, as Blakely Mattern became the team's first Freshman All-America selection since 1998.

Smith directed the 2007 Gamecocks to arguably the best season in school history, tying the school record with 14 victories and advancing to the NCAA Tournament for only the second time in program history. Carolina posted a 14-6-3 overall record including a 5-4-2 mark in the SEC after beginning the season by becoming the first team ever to knock off defending national champion and top-ranked North Carolina in a season opening game at Fetzer Field in Chapel Hill. The Gamecocks ran to a 7-0-0 start to the season program bests for start to a season and winning streak - and peaked at No. 7 in the national polls. For the second consecutive season South Carolina advanced to the SEC Tournament semifinals after knocking off Tennessee for the first time in program history and earned the school's first bid to the NCAA Tournament since 1998. Blakely Mattern became the first sophomore to ever earn SEC Defensive Player of the Year honors in addition to becoming the first All-American in South Carolina history.

In 12 years as a head coach, Smith has compiled an overall record of 122-97-24. Besides her collegiate coaching, Smith was a member of the Region III ODP staff for the past five years, as well as an assistant for the '90 Regional Team. Smith also was a member of the 2003 U-14 National Camp staff for U.S. Soccer.

With a background in both semi-professional and collegiate soccer, Smith previously served as head coach at Rhode Island from 1997-2000. The 2000 NSCAA Northeast Region Coach of the Year, Smith rebuilt the URI women's soccer program, compiling a 41-35-2 overall record. Smith took a program that was 2-16 her first year to 12-7-1 in her second season, marking the eighth-most improved won-lost record for a team in NCAA history. In 2000, Smith coached URI to its best record ever of 15-4-1, while reaching the Atlantic 10 Semifinals, a first in URI history.

Smith was nominated for the 2000 National Coach of the Year. The New England Women's Soccer Intercollegiate Soccer Association (NEWISA) also named her its Division I Coach of the Year in 2000. She was the 1998 Atlantic 10 Coach of the Year as well.

In addition to her experience as a coach, Smith brings experience from the semi-professional level. From 1996-2000, Smith played for the Boston Renegades in the W-1 League. Smith was captain in 2000 as she led Boston to the semifinals in the W-1 Championship. The Renegades reached the finals in 1998. Smith also had the opportunity to play overseas in 1994 as a member of the Sheffield United Women's Football Club in England.

Smith, a 1993 graduate of the University of Vermont with a degree in nutritional science, received her teacher's certificate from the same institution in 1995. Smith started all four years for the Catamounts. Her primary positions were center midfielder and central defender. She was a regional All-American in both 1992 and `93 in addition to being named First Team All-North Atlantic Conference each year from 1991-93. During her freshman year, the squad won the ECAC Tournament. Vermont was one of the first programs to offer women's soccer as a varsity sport and it competed on a national level. Smith was named to Vermont's Athletic Hall of Fame in the summer of 2004.

Smith worked as an assistant coach at Dartmouth College from 1995-97. The Big Green made the NCAA Tournament in her second season with the program.

Smith is married to USC associate head coach Jamie Smith. They are the proud parents of two sons, Braden James, born on Nov. 25, 2003 and Evan Addison born on Jan. 6, 2006.

Smith has her USSF B license and the NCAA Advanced National Diploma. She is currently a member of the USYSA Regional Olympic Development Staff.
