THE SOUTHEASTERN CONFERENCE

Michael Slive
SEC Commissioner

Chuck Dunlap
SEC Media Contact

The Southeastern Conference, with its storied 78-year history of athletic achievements and academic excellence, has built perhaps the greatest tradition of intercollegiate competition in baseball of any league in the country since its inception in 1933.

The SEC posted another tremendous season in 2011 as the conference had seven teams earn selection to NCAA postseason play with South Carolina, Vanderbilt and Florida advancing to the College World Series. A SEC squad has now appeared in the College World Series 26 of the last 27 years. South Carolina and Florida both advanced to the National Championship Series, marking the sixth seventh time since 2000 a SEC team played for the national championship in Omaha and fourth in a row. South Carolina won their second consecutive national championship, the third straight for the SEC. Florida won the SEC tournament title over Vanderbilt. Florida, South Carolina and Vanderbilt all won the SEC regular-season title with a 22-8 conference record, while Arkansas won the Western Division with a 15-15 record.

The Southeastern Conference boasts 11 former National Players of the Year (Vanderbilt's David Price won in 2007), 11 Baseball America Coach of the Year and 10 Collegiate Baseball Coach of the Year honors. Also, 149 student-athletes have been named first-team All-American, six of which came in 2011.

Six SEC players were taken in the first round of the 2011 Major League Baseball Amateur Draft, held Tuesday in New York City. Vanderbilt's Sonny Gray was picked 18th by the Oakland Athletics. Alex Meyer of Kentucky was selected 23rd by the Washington Nationals, while LSU's Mikie Mahtook was 31st by the Tampa Bay Rays. Zach Cone (UGA), Jackie Bradley, Jr. (SC) and Grayson Garvin (VU) were taken in the supplemental first round. With those six selections this year, the SEC has now had a first round selection in each year since 1991 and 89 total in the first round during that time.

The SEC drew a record of over two million fans to its oncampus ballparks in 2011, the sixth year in a row to draw over 1.6 million. Seven SEC teams drew in excess of 100,000 fans to their parks in 2011. The SEC averaged a record 4,990 fans per game in 2011, the fifth straight year to exceed the 4,000 mark. The SEC Baseball Tournament drew nearly 100,000 fans and 7,000 per game in 2011. The SEC Championship Game was broadcast nationally on ESPN2 for the second straight year.

NOTES

The SEC has sent 46 teams to the College World Series since 1990. That was accomplished despite no SEC teams making the field in 1992. LSU has been to Omaha 12 times, Florida six times, South Carolina and Georgia five times, Mississippi State four times, while Alabama, and Tennessee have been three times each. Auburn has been twice, while Arkansas advanced in 2004 and 2009.

SEC teams have won nine of the last 22 national championships, with LSU winning six (1991, 1993, 1996, 1997, 2000, 2009), South Carolina winning two (2010, 2011) and Georgia claiming the 1990 title. The SEC has finished runner-up five times in that time, 1997, 2002, 2005, 2008 and 2011. South Carolina was runner-up in 2002.

SEC teams are 89-73 since 1990 in Omaha, a 54.9 winning percentage. Not counting games against each other, the SEC has a 68-53 record in the CWS since 1990, a 56.2 winning percentage.

The SEC has played 39 games in the "Final Four" of the College World Series since 1990, an average of over 1.5 per year. Only five times, 1992, 1994, 2003, 2006 and 2007 has the SEC failed to get a team to the "Final Four" of the CWS.

The SEC has averaged nearly eight games played per year in the College World Series since 1990. In 2004, 12 of the 15 games played in Omaha involved a SEC team. In 1997, the SEC had a team in 13 of the 14 games played in the CWS. Since 1990, an SEC team played in 141 of the 315 games played in the College World Series, an amazing 44.8 percent of games.

The SEC has sent 10 of its 12 schools to the College World Series since 1990 - Alabama, Arkansas, Auburn, Florida, Georgia, LSU, Mississippi State, South Carolina, Tennessee and Vanderbilt.

Since 1990, 145 SEC squads have been invited to the NCAA Tournament, an average of nearly seven per season. The SEC set yet another NCAA record in 2004, 2005 and 2008 with nine teams earning postseason berths. The SEC also had a NCAA-record five teams earn regional host sites in 2004 and 2006.

The SEC has had an NCAA-high 11 different teams compete in the 58-year history of the College World Series. In those appearances, the conference has registered a 111-112 record, a 49.8 winning percentage.

Since 1990, 28 SEC squads have posted 50-plus win seasons, while 107 have won 40-plus games in a season, including seven teams in 2010.

The SEC posted a 249-82 record against non-conference foes in 2011, a 75.2 winning percentage. Since 1990, the SEC has accumulated a 5307-1998-4 record against non-conference teams, a 72.6 winning percentage.

SEC teams have also been strong in the polls. Since 1990, 104 conference teams have appeared in the final Baseball America poll, 115 in the final Collegiate Baseball poll and, since 1992, 105 in the final ESPN coaches poll.
