Season in Review

Highlights Include Guardians Classic Title; NCAA Tournament Appearance

Picked to finish last in the Southeastern Conference, South Carolina had the last laugh last year when the Gamecocks started off the season winning the Guardians Classic and then went on to post a 23-11 record with an SEC Tournament semi-final appearance and an NCAA Tournament berth. The season also featured a four-week stay in the top 25 nationally.
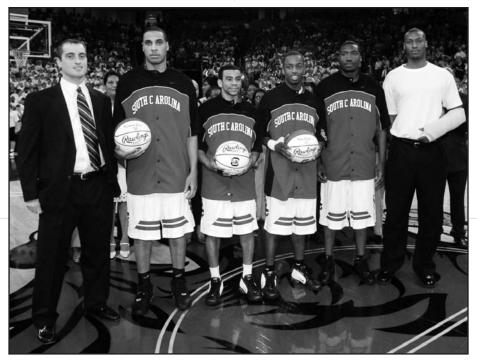

Led by senior captain Mike Boynton, Jr. throughout the year, USC won four straight games to win the Guardians Classic in Kansas City to start the season, including wins over Missouri Valley Tournament runner-up Southwest Missouri State and NCAA Tournament participant Richmond. Tarence Kinsey was named the MVP of both the Columbia Regional and the Championship rounds. In addition, Carlos Powell was named to the All-Tournament team.

USC rolled off eight straight wins to start the season, including a 76-61 whipping of Clemson on the road. With its fourth win in a row over the Tigers, Boynton left USC 4-0 vs. CU – a feat not matched since 1971-72. Dropping a 71-61 loss at Temple, USC rolled off five more wins, including a crucial 58-55 win over NCAA Tournament team N.C. State.

The Gamecocks began the SEC schedule with a 13-1 record against non-conference competition – their best start since the 1969-70 team started the season 18-1. Its 12 wins prior to January 1st were the most by any Gamecock team ever.

A close loss at home to Florida (65-62) on a last-minute shot led to five straight SEC wins, including critical wins on the road at Georgia and Vanderbilt. USC dropped a 79-68 game at Ole Miss before grabbing a 90-82 overtime win over NCAA Tournament Elite Eight participant Alabama. The two teams combined to score the most points ever in the Colonial Center.

A one point loss at Kentucky, with a last-second look, USC took it to overtime against Mississippi State just a few nights later falling 79-75. But true to the Gamecock way, NCAA Sweet 16 participant Vanderbilt was USC's next victim, an 82-75 win, on Valentine's Day. USC then dropped games at Arkansas and Florida before sailing home to rough up Georgia for the second time in as many tries – this time 63-47. It was the third series sweep over Georgia since the 'Cocks joined the SEC in 1991. But USC lost forward Rolando Howell for the season with a broken hand in the win over the 'Dawgs.

USC welcomed a school and state record 18,000 for senior night against Kentucky. USC said goodbye to Mike Boynton, Jr., Kerbrell Brown, Sheldon Everett, Ivan Howell, Rolando Howell and manager Hall Beard. But even actress Ashley Judd on the sidelines couldn't help pump up the Gamecocks and its fans as USC fell 85-65.

USC went to the SEC Tournament with its NCAA Tournament hopes on the Gamecocks' minds. USC rattled off wins over Arkansas, 91-81, and then LSU, 85-64, to play Kentucky for the third time in 2004. The third time did not prove to be a charm as USC fell 78-63 to the Wildcats. After his stellar play, which included five three-pointers against Arkansas and six treys against LSU, Boynton was named to the SEC All-Tournament. In addition to his barrage of three-pointers, Boynton was 17-19 from the charity stripe against the Razorbacks.

Brandon Wallace received the perfect gift for his 19th birthday at Coach Odom's house – an NCAA Tournament at-large bid. The Gamecocks played Memphis in Kansas City in a defensive battle, with the Tigers coming out on top 59-43.

Boynton established a new career games played record with 125. Carlos Powell was named to the All-SEC third team, Renaldo Balkman was named to the All-SEC Freshmen team and John Chappell was named an All-District Academic All-American. Boynton, in addition to being named the USC Male Athlete of the Year, was tabbed as the SEC Male Community Service Post-Graduate Scholarship winner. Finally, Odom was named the 2004 SEC Coach of the Year, becoming only the second coach in the history of the SEC and the ACC to be named Coach of the Year in both leagues.

The 2003-04 Senior Class: Manager Hall Beard, Kerbrell Brown, Sheldon Everett, Mike Boynton, Jr., Ivan Howell and Rolando Howell.

GAME 1

South Carolina 83
Gardner Webb 74
Nov. 17, 2003
Columbia, S.C.
The Colonial Center (5,317)

Carlos Powell started off this season just like last season, collecting a double-double (12 points, career-high 16 rebounds) as South Carolina beat Gardner-Webb 83-74 in the first round of the Guardians Classic. It was the first-ever meeting between the two programs.

Down 42-36 at the half, USC came back to win the game against a Gardner Webb team that will be playing Division I for just the second year this season. USC was just 1-13 when trailing at the half last season. Mike Boynton's 3-pointer with 5:33 left in the second half gave South Carolina the lead for good. South Carolina hit 12 of 26 three-pointers, including eight of 15 in the second half. Gardner-Webb was just 4-of-24 from the three point line.

Doing something they never did last year, USC had six in double-figures, including Tarence Kinsey, who had 14 points and nine rebounds. Also scoring in double figures were Tre Kelley (11), Josh Gonner (14), Kerbrell Brown (11), Boynton (11) and Powell (12).

Guardians Classic - Opening Round, Game 2

GAME 2

South Carolina 76
Idaho 66
Nov. 18, 2003
Columbia, S.C.
The Colonial Center (4,892)

Playing Idaho for just the second time, USC came away with a 76-66 win to advance to the semi-finals of the Guardians Classic in Kansas City, Mo. Sophomore Tarence Kinsey had a career night as he scored a career-high 21 points with seven rebounds. Junior Carlos Powell added 19 points and six rebounds in the game that pushed USC to 2-0.

For his efforts Kinsey was named the South Carolina Regional MVP.

The Gamecocks (2-0) led almost the entire game, with the exception of the Vandals' 1-0 lead early.

South Carolina's 3-point shooting cooled off against the Vandals - the Gamecocks were 7-of-19 (36.8 percent) compared to 12-of-26 in the opener. But they forced 21 turnovers with 10 steals.

Kerbrell Brown, coming back from off-season knee surgery, scored in double figures the second straight night with 13 points and led USC with nine rebounds. South Carolina shot 42.6 percent (29-of-68), while holding Idaho to 37.5 percent shooting (21-of-56).

Guardians Classic - Regional Final

GAME 3

South Carolina 73
Navy 40
Nov. 21, 2003
Columbia, S.C.
The Colonial Center (7,923)

Forcing a school-record 30 turnovers and tying another school record with 20 steals of its own, USC defeated Navy 73-40 to move to 3-0. It was the two school's second meeting (first: Navy won 43-22 2/14/25).

South Carolina held an opponent to the fewest points since falling to Maryland 31-30 in overtime in 1971. Eight of the 13 Gamecocks who saw playing time had at least one steal.

Senior Mike Boynton led all scorers with 15 points. Sophomore Tarence Kinsey continued his fine play as he had 14 points and five rebounds. Kinsey scored just 43 points all of last season and this season has already scored 49.

The Gamecocks saw three other players score in double figures: Carlos Powell had 11, Josh Gonner had 10 and Renaldo Balkman scored in double figures for the first time in his career with 10.

The Midshipmen were trailing 15-13 with just under 14 minutes to go in the first half when things went south. USC led 36-22 at the half. Navy only scored 18 points in the entire second half. All told, USC scored 40 of its 73 points off turnovers.

Guardians Classic - Semi-Final Game 2

GAME 5

South Carolina 67
Richmond 61
Nov. 25, 2003
Kansas City, Mo.
The Municipal Auditorium (1,247)

Sophomore Tarence Kinsey scored 15 points and was named the MVP of the Guardians Classic, leading USC to a 67-61 win over Richmond to win the Guardians Classic. It was USC's first tournament title since the 1991 Texaco Sun Classic.

Carlos Powell, who had 12 points in the title game, was also named to the Guardians Classic All Tournament team. He has scored in double figures each of the first five games. Coming off the bench, freshmen Renaldo Balkman scored 13 points, while Brandon Wallace added 10.

The game was held for more than 10 minutes when South Carolina junior guard Josh Gonner was injured in a backcourt collision on a fast-break with a little more than three minutes left in the game. Gonner was removed from the floor on a stretcher and taken to North Kansas City Hospital with a neck strain.

There were four lead changes and three ties in the first half, with Carolina taking a 33-32 into the lockerroom at halftime. No more than seven points separated the two teams in the opening half.

With the game back and forth in the second half, Richmond led 47-43 with just more than 10 minutes left. Wallace came off the bench to hit two key free throws with 7:22 left put the Gamecocks ahead 50-49 to stay.

The Gamecocks countered with a four straight three minutes later when Tarence Kinsey was fouled while making a 3-pointer and made his free throw.

GAME 6

South Carolina 77
Campbell 48
Nov. 29, 2003
Columbia, S.C.
The Colonial Center (7,227)

Off to its best start since 1988, junior Carlos Powell scored 18 points and Tarence Kinsey scored 14 to lead South Carolina to a 77-48 victory over Campbell. It was both Kinsey and Powell's sixth game this year in double figures.

Senior Mike Boynton scored 10 points, hitting two 3-pointers to help fuel a 23-5 run over a nine-minute span in the first half. Senior Kerbrell Brown scored 12 points, while freshman Tre Kelley, starting his first game, scored 10 points.

Junior Josh Gonner suffered a sprained neck in the Richmond game and didn't dress against the Camels.

USC went into the locker room at halftime with a 41-26 lead and allowed the Camels to score only 22 points in the second half.

Campbell led 18-16 with 9:34 remaining in the first half. Campbell never got closer than 13 in the second half.

Every Gamecock who stressed attempted at least one shot, with everyone but Paulius Joneliunas and Sheldon Everett scoring at least two points. USC held the Camels without a block and also held every scorer in single digit points.

GAME 7

South Carolina 70
The Citadel 38

Dec. 3, 2003
Charleston, S.C.
McAlister Fieldhouse (3,473)

Starting off the season 7-0 for the first time since 1971-72, USC held The Citadel under 40 points, defeating the Cadets 70-38 in Charleston. The Gamecocks were led by freshman Brandon Wallace who had a double-double in his first career start.

Wallace scored 10 points and pulled down 11 rebounds. Freshman Renaldo Balkman came off the bench to score a game-high 15 points with six rebounds. USC had a season-high six slam dunks, including two by Balkman and Tarence Kinsey each.

The 38 points The Citadel scored were the fewest points allowed by a Gamecock team since 1971 when Maryland defeated USC 31-30.

The Citadel led 8-6 with 13:14 in the first half when USC went on a 19-0 tear. The Gamecocks scored every point the next eight minutes and finished the half with a 40-18 lead.

In the second half it was more Gamecocks with USC taking a 52-22 lead at the 13:41 mark. The Gamecocks went up 61-29 at the 4:35 mark, scoring just two points themselves in five minutes.

The Citadel hit only one three-pointer the entire game and that one came in the last minute. The Cadets shot just 22.7%.

GAME 8

South Carolina 76
Clemson 61

Dec. 6, 2003
Clemson, S.C.
Littlejohn Coliseum (9000)

Winning its fourth game in a row against Clemson, USC defeated the Tigers 76-61 in Tiger Town behind the sharp-shooting of Carlos Powell, who scored a career-high 23 points.

With the fourth win in a row, Mike Boynton will graduate 4-0 against the Tigers — a feat not matched since 1971-72.

Powell also added a season-high six steals. He has scored in double figures every game this season. Josh Gonner (13), Tarence Kinsey (11) and Kerbrell Brown (10) all finished in double figures, but it was the leadership of Mike Boynton, Jr. that helped the Gamecocks win the game. Boynton scored nine points, playing 38 minutes with flu-like symptoms.

Clemson led early, 9-5 at the 15:44 mark in the first half. The two teams went back and forth in the first half, with Clemson taking a 31-28 lead with 1:08 in the half. USC cut it to one at 40.9 seconds, but the Tigers went to the locker-room with a 33-30 lead.

The two teams knotted it up at 40 and 47 before USC took control, going on an 11-2 run from the 9:15 mark to 5:40. USC went up 63-52 with 4:08 remaining. Clemson continued to do what the opponents have done against USC — outrebounding USC 35-28. But USC forced the Tigers to turn the ball over 27 times, adding 17 steals. Neither team shot the ball particularly well, with USC shooting almost 42 percent to Clemson's 39 percent. But, USC made 17-18 free throws in the second half.

GAME 9

Temple 71
South Carolina 61

Dec. 15, 2003
Philadelphia, Pa.
Liacouras Center (4,308)

Dropping its first game of the year, after an 8-0 start, USC was upended at Temple 71-61. USC took the lead at 2-0, but then Temple went on an 8-0 run and never really looked back in the first half. Temple returned the favor on its own home court after USC took a 66-47 win over the Owls last year.

The two teams went to the lockerroom with Temple up 32-17 - it was the lowest point total for the Gamecocks in the first half since they scored 13 in the win over Ole Miss last January.

In the second half Temple went up by as many as 20 (55-35) before the USC started a run of its own. The Gamecocks trailed 62-59 with a little more than a minute to go but missed a couple key three-pointers.

Graduating at 3:30 pm that same day, Mike Boynton, Jr. flew up with another graduate, Ivan Howell, with both players arriving just prior to tip-off. Boynton stepped on the court and scored a career-high 16 points. He also added four steals and four assists.

USC had two other players in double figures: Carlos Powell had 14 with 8 REB and Renaldo Balkman had 10 points and 8 rebounds.

GAME 10

South Carolina 71
Charleston Southern 36
Dec. 17, 2003
Columbia, S.C.
The Colonial Center (5,902)

USC, now 8-0 when scoring 70 or more points, defeated Charleston Southern 71-36. USC held its fourth opponent under 41 points this season - with Charleston Southern topping Navy(41) and The Citadel (38) for the lowest opponent point total since Maryland in 1972.

Carlos Powell led all scorers with 16 points and four rebounds. It is the 10th straight time this season he has scored in double figures and the 39th time in his career. Mike Boynton, Jr. scored 14 points with Renaldo Balkman scoring 12 points and nine rebounds. Another freshman, Brandon Wallace, pulled down nine rebounds, scoring seven points with three steals.

Balkman started in place of junior Josh Gonner who was suspended for the game for violation of team rules. USC was also forced to play without Tarence Kinsey, who suffered a mild concussion at Temple.

USC shot 44.4% from the floor, with CSU shooting just 29.4 %, scoring 18 points in both the first and second halves. USC forced CSU to turnover the ball 23 times, including 15 for steals. In the second half USC played a good bit of the time with four freshmen on the court.

GAME 11

South Carolina 58
N.C. State 55
Dec. 20, 2003
Columbia, S.C.
The Colonial Center (10,411)

Playing the first team from Tobacco Road in Columbia since 1971, USC came away with a 58-55 win over the NC State Wolfpack. Junior Josh Gonner led all scorers with 19 points and Kerbrell Brown picked up his first career double-double with 11 points and 10 rebounds.

Only Maryland (once in 1988) and Clemson have come to Columbia since the Gamecocks left the ACC. The win was pay back for State's 76-64 win last year in Raleigh.

USC shot only 35 percent to State's 45 percent, but USC forced 16 turnovers and only turned the ball over nine times.

Carlos Powell finished in double figures for the 11 straight game this season - scoring nine of his points on a 9-2 run by USC.

After running out to a 10-2 lead in the first half, USC went to the lockerroom ahead 30-22. The second half featured four lead changes and two ties.

USC took the lead with 2:31 left on the clock at 52-50. Mike Boynton put the icing with a free throw. When his second one missed, Brown grabbed his career best 10th rebound of the day and put it in the basket.

GAME 12

South Carolina 86
S.C. State 50
Dec. 22, 2003
Columbia, S.C.
The Colonial Center (8,027)

Scoring the most points by a Gamecock basketball team in the Colonial Center, USC pushed its record to 11-1 with an 86-50 win over South Carolina State. USC is off to its best start since 1969 when it started the season 18-1.

Mike Boynton, Jr. scored a career-high 21 points, with a perfect 9-9 effort from the free throw line. Carlos Powell scored in double figures for the 12th times this season, scoring 12 points with five rebounds. Renaldo Balkman came off the bench to score in double figures, hitting 6-6 from the free throw line, tallying 12 points.

USC held a team with 20 or less points in a half for the sixth time when South Carolina State posted just 18 in the first half. USC took a 34-18 lead to the lockerroom at half time.

USC shot 46 percent for the game, while SCSU shot just 27 percent from the field and just eight percent from beyond the arc.

It was USC's 12 straight win over SCSU and helped Dave Odom to a perfect record vs. in-state teams his first three years at USC.

GAME 13

South Carolina 59
Yale 48

Dec. 30, 2003
Columbia, S.C.
The Colonial Center (10,052)

Mike Boynton, Jr. once again led the way for the Gamecocks, scoring 14 points, including two straight two three-pointers, to aid South Carolina in its 12th win of the season over Yale, 59-48.

Boynton, Carlos Powell (10) and Tarence Kinsey (10) all scored in double figures. USC had at least three players in double figures this entire season, with Powell scoring in double figures every game this season. Kerbrell Brown added nine points and a game high nine rebounds as well. Brandon Wallace came off the bench to grab seven boards and block three shots.

USC also held a team for the the sixth time to 20 or less points for a half with Yale scoring 20 points in the first half.

USC, who went to the lockerroom with a 25-20 led, came roaring out in the second half, scoring the first 14 points and holding Yale scoreless until the 13:01 mark. But Yale's 21-7 run made the game interesting when the Dogs pulled within five at the 6:05 mark (46-41). USC led the entire game.

The game also featured the return of senor Rolando Howell, who returned to action after serving a 12 game suspension and then recovering from a broken right foot. Howell played four minutes.

GAME 14

South Carolina 78
Appalachian State 58

Jan. 2, 2004
Columbia, S.C.
The Colonial Center (8,309)

Carlos Powell notched his third double-double of the year, scoring 17 points with 11 boards in the 78-58 win over Appalachian State. Powell has scored in double figures every game thus far and 43 times in his career.

USC ends the non-conference with a 13-1 record and is now 16-0 vs. non-conference teams in The Colonial Center. With the 13 wins, USC topped last year's 12-win season already. It's the best start for the Gamecocks since USC went 18-1 to start the 1969-70 season.

USC continued its streak of having at least three players in double figures every game this season with Powell (17), Tarence Kinsey (10) and Mike Boynton, Jr. (13) all scoring in double figures. Kerbrell Brown had a career-high seven assists and Brandon Wallace set a career best with five blocks.

Senior Rolando Howell scored his first basket of the year (5:59, 1st half), a slam dunk, adding seven points with three rebounds in nine minutes.

App. State took a 1-0 lead on a free throw to start the game, but after that it was all Gamecocks. USC took a 42-23 lead to the lockerroom - its largest lead of the season.

GAME 15

No. 14 Florida 65
South Carolina 62

Jan. 7, 2004
Columbia, S.C.
The Colonial Center (15,022)

With the largest crowd of the year on hand, South Carolina fought to the very end, but fell short, dropping a 62-62 contest to No. 14 Florida in the two team's SEC opener.

Josh Gonner scored 18 points and grabbed three boards to lead the Gamecock effort. Carlos Powell, who has scored in double figures every game this campaign, scored 12 points tying a team-high with seven rebounds and a block.

USC had just nine turnovers to Florida's 17, but the Gators shot 42.9% to USC's 38.1%. USC shot only 17.2% from beyond the arc, hitting just five of 29 shots.

It was a battle from the gun, with the two teams knotting it up eight times. USC took a 29-27 lead the lockerroom. At the 4:50 mark David Lee scored to put the Gators ahead for good, 59-57.

Renaldo Balkman's driving layup with 39 seconds left got USC within 63-62. But UF's Anthony Roberson hit two free throws with 18 seconds to go and South Carolina missed two tries at tying the game.

Josh Gonner front-rimmed a fade-away 3-pointer with 8 seconds left and Michael Boynton also missed a 3 and Florida hung on for its fifth straight victory overall and sixth in a row over the Gamecocks.

GAME 16

South Carolina 84
Georgia 63
Jan. 10, 2004
Athens, Ga.
Stegeman Coliseum (10,017)

Posting the largest margin of victory in Athens ever and its largest victory against Georgia since 1962, USC came away from Athens with an 84-63 win over Georgia. It was the largest margin of victory for USC in an SEC game since Carolina defeated Vanderbilt 66-43 on Feb. 16, 2002.

USC had six players in double figures for the second time this season (first was vs. Gardner Webb). Kerbrell Brown led all scorers with 18 points, shooting 7 of 8 from the field, including a perfect 3 of 3 from beyond the three-point line. In double figures as well were: Mike Boynton, Jr. (10), Josh Gonner (13), Rolando Howell (11), Powell (13) and Balkman (12). Powell has scored in double figures every game this season.

Howell, who led all Gamecocks' with six rebounds, made his first start of the season in place of Powell. Powell and Balkman were tardy to the team's pre-game meal earlier in the day and therefore did not play their first normal rotation.

Georgia's lone highlight of the day seemed to be the first play of the game when Chris Daniels had a break-away slam dunk in the first seconds of the game. It was pretty much all USC after that.

The Gamecocks shot a season-high 54.5% with the 'Dawgs shooting just 39.6%. The 'Dawgs kept the game from being a blow-out by shooting 84.6% at the line, hitting 22-26 of their free throws, including Daniels who was 12-13.

USC took a 42-28 lead to the lockerroom. USC played everyone it brought, including Jon Land who had a steal and a rebound at the end of the game. Land was redshirted last year after suffering on-going issues with his knee.

GAME 17

South Carolina 53
Auburn 51
Jan. 14, 2004
Auburn, Ala.
Beard-Eaves Mem. Coliseum (10,500)

Entering the game 0-5 in overtime games dating back to 1999, USC put an end to that streak with a 53-51 overtime thriller at Auburn. USC was 0-1 in overtime games to Auburn (only OT was at the 2000 SEC Tourney).

Carlos Powell stole the ball and made a right-handed lay-up to take the lead for good with 12 seconds left. Auburn put two shots up but neither was good.

USC shot 36.9% in the game, including 50.0% in the first half. Auburn shot just 25.4%, including 20.0% from beyond the three point line.
USC was led by Powell, who scored a team-high 19 points and also grabbed a team-high 7 boards. Also scoring in double figures for the Gamecocks were Kerbrell Brown (10) and Josh Gonner (10), who came off the bench after suffering from the flu the past couple days.

USC held its seventh team to 20 points or less in a half when Auburn scored just 19 points in the second half due to USC's smothering defense. To end the game, Auburn made just two of 20 shots.

USC was down nine points a few times in the second half, before taking a 47-45 lead with 58 seconds left in regulation. AU tied the score with two-Watson free throws with 35 seconds to go. USC tried in vain to score and AU also had a last second shot go astray to push the game to over-time.

GAME 18

South Carolina 85
Tennessee 64
Jan. 17, 2004
Columbia, S.C.
Colonial Center (17,806)

In front of the largest crowd to ever see a basketball game in the state of South Carolina, the Gamecock basketball team defeated Tennessee 85-64 - it's largest margin of victory at home against an SEC team since USC defeated Alabama on Feb. 19, 2000 (also 21 points, 82-61). It is the best start in conference play since the 96-97 team opened 4-0.

It was Coach Odom's 50th win as a Gamecock. He now is 50-33 at Carolina. The only USC coach to reach the 50 win mark faster was Frank Johnson in 1974, needing only 79 games.

Josh Gonner set career highs in points (24, previous 19), field goals made (10, previous 8), and field goal percentage (.769, previous .667). Carlos Powell continued his double figures steak this year, scoring 12 points with a game-high seven rebounds and seven assists (tying his career high). Brandon Wallace continued to impress Gamecock fans with three blocks and Renaldo Balkman had two rim-shaking slam dunks to lead the team with 12 total this season.

USC led from start to finish, with Tennessee only coming as close at nine in the opening minutes. The Gamecocks made 64.7% (11-17) of its 3-point attempts, which is the highest percentage during Odom's tenure at USC. The 63.6% was the best shooting percentage during Odom's tenure as well — with USC hitting 35 of 55 of their field goals.

GAME 19

No. 25 USC 61
LSU 55
Jan. 24, 2004
Columbia, S.C.
Colonial Center (17,927)

Carlos Powell hit a key three late to help No. 25 Carolina over LSU 61-55. That one three might have been the most important attempt of the day, but either way – it was the only three of the day for USC (1-23).

The crowd of 17,927 was the largest crowd to ever see a basketball game in the state of South Carolina. The win marks the second best start for USC in SEC play after five games. The best start came in 1996-97 when Carolina went 5-0. That season USC won the SEC title.

Powell scored in double figures for the 20th straight game, scoring 12 points with four rebounds and four steals. Rolando Howell played the most minutes of the year, 27, in probably his best effort of the year. Howell scored 12 points, seven rebounds and collected two assists and a steal. Also scoring in double figures was Josh Gonner (10) and Renaldo Balkman (11).

USC shot just 38.2% due to the fact it shot 4.3% from the three point line. LSU shot 39.1%. LSU turned the ball over 23 times to USC's nine times with USC stealing the ball 14 times.

USC led 29-21 with 2:42 to go in the first half before LSU closed out the first half with a 7-0 run. LSU took a 34-31 lead on a 15-2 run. The score was tied 34 all at 14:08 before LSU took a 41-36 lead at 12:43. Renaldo Balkman hit a jump shot and was fouled, scoring one free throw to make it 43-42 LSU at 9:41 to cap a 6-0 Gamecock run.

USC went up 47-45 with seven minutes to play, with the two teams going back and forth, knotting it up t 50 with two minutes to play. Carlos Powell hit the key three to put USC up 53-52 at 1:33.

With 22 seconds to go, a double technical was called against Mike Boynton and Rolando Howell and another LSU player. USC held on for the win.

GAME 20

No. 24 USC 57
Vanderbilt 55
Jan. 28, 2004
Nashville, Tenn.
Memorial Gym (12,824)

South Carolina won its fifth straight SEC game, defeating Vanderbilt on the road 57-55 to hand the 'Dores their first loss of the season at home. The 18-2 start matches USC Head Coach Dave Odom's best start ever as a head coach (1996-97, Wake Forest).

USC shot just 38.2%, but the 'Dores shooting was also dismal as they shot 35.4%, including 23.8% from beyond the arc. USC shot a perfect 11 of 11 from the charity stripe.

USC was led by Josh Gonner, who scored 17 points with three rebounds and five steals. Carlos Powell scored 10 points, keeping his streak of scoring in double figures alive at 21 games (including every game this season). Tre Kelley added a game-high five assists and Rolando Howell was 6-6 from the free throw line, scoring eight points with a team-high eight rebounds.

The game featured four ties and 10 lead changes. South Carolina's largest lead of the game was six at the 11:37 mark in the second half.

USC went to the lockerroom down 32-28, but came of the lockerroom and put together a 14-6 run prior to Vandy going on a 7-0 run of its own.

Josh Gonner stole the ball and made a basket to make it 55-53 USC with less than 30 seconds left. A Vandy dunk by Matt Freije knotted the score at 55-55 with 9.2 seconds left to play.

Gonner drove down the floor, tossed a lay-up, which missed but Kerbrell Brown tipped the ball in with 1.2 seconds to go to seal the Gamecocks 18th win of the season. A last second Freije shot from half-court bounced off the back-board.

USC's Renaldo Balkman and Vandy's Corey Smith were both ejected in the first half. Balkman was ejected for a flagrant foul while Smith was ejected for fighting. Freije was also issued a technical for throwing the ball at USC's Kelley in the first half.

GAME 21

Ole Miss 79
No. 24 USC 68
Jan. 31, 2004
Oxford, Miss.
Tad Smith Coliseum (4,848)

Despite making 23 of 29 free throws, USC kept its streak of never winning in the state of Mississippi going as USC is 0-7 now in Oxford. Ole Miss won 79-68, scoring 17 second chance points to USC's four.

Ole Miss was led by Justin Reed who scored a personal best 32 points with 11 rebounds - the most points USC has given up to an individual this year. It is also the most points a team has scored against the Gamecocks this year.

USC was led by Josh Gonner, who put in 20 points with four rebounds, two assists and five steals in 39 minutes. USC also saw Carlos Powell (14), Tre Kelley (11) and Rolando Howell (10) score in double figures. It is the 22nd game in a row Powell has hit double figures as he has scored in double figures every game this season.

USC took a 14-7 lead in the first half but the two battled back and forth, tying it at 24, 26 and leaving the court at half-time with each squad owning 30 points.

The second half did not start like USC planned with the Rebels jumping out to 37-30 lead. USC got within one on a Gonner three pointer (41-40) but that was as close as they would get the rest of the game.

USC shot 40.0% to Ole Miss' 46.4% from the field. Both teams made 23 free throws in a game that saw two Gamecocks (Kerbrell Brown, Howell) foul out. It was the third game in a row USC has seen at least one player foul out.

GAME 22

No. 25 USC 90
Alabama 82 OT
Feb. 4, 2004
Columbia, S.C.
Colonial Center (16,227)

South Carolina won its second overtime game this season, defeating Alabama 90-82. The two teams combined for the most points ever in the Colonial Center with USC setting a facility record with the 90 points.

Three pointers seemingly fell from the sky, with the Gamecock connecting on 14 of 25 (56%) and the Tide hitting 16 of 31 (51.6%). The 14 threes by USC is one off the school record (15 vs. Cincinnati, 2/15/97), but second all-time. In addition, 'Bama's 16 were second-best in school history for an opponent.

USC shot 56.1% to 'Bama's 46.7%.

USC had all five starters in double figures, including Josh Gonner, who scored a team-high 22 points. Renaldo Balkman led the Gamecocks with a game-high eight rebounds. The other Carolina players in double figures included Carlos Powell (13), Kerbrell Brown (16), Renaldo Balkman (11) and Mike Boynton, Jr. (12). Boynton hit four three's for the 10th time in his career.
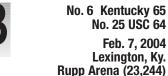

USC took a 39-32 lead the lockerroom at halftime, ending the first half on a 12-0 run. USC led by as many as 15 in the second half (12:11), but a couple mini-runs by 'Bama put the Tide back on the map with 3:45 left the score was tied at 65.

The two teams traded three pointers twice, with Kerbrell Brown hitting one with 19.7 seconds left on the clock to tie it at 71 and push it to OT.

USC was on fire in the OT period, putting up a 12-0 before the Tide were able to score. USC outscored the Tide 19-11 in the OT period.

GAME 23

No. 6 Kentucky 65
No. 25 USC 64
Feb. 7, 2004
Lexington, Ky.
Rupp Arena (23,244)

Both teams gave the 23,244 fans a game worth the money. With a chance to win the game in the last seconds, Kerbrell Brown's shot hit the backboard and clanged out of bounds, giving No. 6 Kentucky a hard-fought 65-64 win over No. 25 Carolina. The win was UK head coach Tubby Smith's 100th career SEC win.

The game, which featured 11 lead changes and eight ties, saw the largest lead of the game belonging to the Gamecocks (17-11 in the first half). USC shot 46.4% to Kentucky's 41.4% from the field. USC was just 6 of 11 from the free throw line, shooting none in the first half, to the 'Cats 14 of 17.

USC had four players in double figures, with Carlos Powell and Mike Boynton, Jr. both finishing with a team-high 12 points. Renaldo Balkman added 11 with Josh Gonner scoring 10. Powell led the team with seven rebounds as USC turned the ball over 10 times to UK's 12.

The two teams went the locker room knotted up at 27. Twice in the first half, USC's defense stopped Kentucky from making a field goal (17:13-11:59 and then from 10:04 to 7:17).

In the second half, the two teams battled back and forth. USC went up 59-57 on a Balkman putback at 3:40 and then USC went up 63-62 on Boynton's fourth three of the second half.

UK took a 65-63 on a Daniels basket at 1:09. Carlos Powell made the first, but missed the back-end of his free throws to make it 65-64 UK.

GAME 24

No. 6 Miss. State 79
No. 25 USC 75   OT
Feb. 11, 2004
Columbia, S.C.
Colonial Center (17,792)

Timmy Bower's three-pointer with 7.2 seconds on the clock knotted the score at 71 and pushed it to overtime. No. 6 Mississippi State got the best of No. 25 Carolina, taking a 79-75 win in overtime. USC is now 2-1 in SEC overtime games this year, while MSU moves to 10-0 on the road this season.

Senior Rolando Howell led the charge against the Bulldogs, putting together arguably one of his best-ever collegiate games. He tied a career high with 24 points, set a career high with four blocks and brought down a season-high 11 rebounds. It was the 10th double-double of his career.

USC also saw Carlos Powell (11), Josh Gonner (12) and Tre' Kelley (10) score in double figures.

The Gamecocks shot 44.8% to MSU's 41.%. Neither team lit up the foul line, with USC hitting 53.6% of its shots (15-28) and the 'Dawgs shooting 47.1 % (16 of 34). The Gamecocks were 1-6

USC had a 12-point lead, but let it slip away in the final five minutes of regulation. The Gamecocks were outrebounded 40-49, but had 10 blocked shots to the 'Dawgs one.

During the first three minutes of overtime, the teams combined to miss nine-of-12 three throws, leaving Mississippi State with a 73-72 lead.

Mike Boynton put USC in front for a short period of time with a 3-pointer. But those were USC's final points. After Lawrence Roberts scored, the Bulldogs hit four free throws in the final minute while USC was missed its final four shots. The Gamecocks made 1-of-6 field goals and 1-of-6 free throws in overtime.

GAME 25

No. 25 USC 82
Vanderbilt 75
Feb. 14, 2004
Columbia, S.C.
Colonial Center (16,092)

Winning its 20th game of the year, No. 25 USC defeated Vandy 82-75 for its fifth win in a row over the Commodores and its eighth in nine games. USC now leads the all-time series 19-15. Vanderbilt has not won a road game this season.

Rolando Howell paced the Gamecocks with his second straight double-double (11th of his career), picking up 17 points and 12 boards. He also blocked three shots. Tre' Kelley scored a career high in points with 16; Mike Boynton, Jr. hit a career-high with five three-pointers to score 15 points and Josh Gonner had a career-high five rebounds.

USC went to the lockerroom with a 46-32 lead after Tre' Kelley hit a last second shot at the half-time buzzer.

USC went on a six point run to put the game out of reach at the 10:57 mark. USC led 74-55 with a little more than 2:45 seconds on the clock before Vandy rattled off a 20-8 run to finish the game. Boynton fouled out at 4:52 of the second half - the third time this season that Boynton has fouled out.

USC shot 46.6% from the field to Vandy's 42.9%. The Gamecocks had struggled from the free throw line the past two games, but this night they shot 80.0%, making 20 from 25 from the charity stripe - including Tre' Kelley's personal best nine of 12. South Carolina's 80% shooting from the free throw line was the second highest this season. The season high is 88.5% (23-for-26) made at Clemson in a 76-61 win.

GAME 26

Arkansas 82
No. 25 USC 66
Feb. 21, 2004
Fayetteville, Ark.
Bud Walton Arena (17,812)

No. 25 USC gave up a season-high five dunks to host-Arkansas - dropping an 82-66 game in Fayetteville. It snapped USC's two-game winning streak against the Hogs.

Tre' Kelley led the Gamecocks in scoring for the first time in his career, finishing the game with 18 points. It was also a career high for Kelley. Mike Boynton, Jr. was the only other Gamecock in double figures - tallying 11 points, including three three-pointers. Freshman Renaldo Balkman, coming off the bench, had career highs in assists with four and in steals, also with four. Rolando Howell, who had had two straight double-doubles, scored no points and had only two rebounds in 21 minutes.

Both teams played sloppy in the first half, with USC turning the ball over 10 times to Arkansas' 11. USC shot 34.6% in the first half to Arkansas' 34.5%.
Arkansas shot a season-best 65.4% in the second half (for both a USC opponent and its team). The Hogs had four players in double figures. USC shot 40.4% and were just 11 of 17 from the free throw line (64.7%).

While Arkansas won by 16 points, USC pulled within six at the 1:58 mark on a Carlos Powell jump-shot; and were also within six at 1:18 when Kelley hit one of his three three-pointers on the day.

GAME 27

Florida 69
South Carolina 58
Feb. 25, 2004
Gainesville, Fla.
O'Connell Center (10,975)

Tied at 53 with 3:48 to play, USC couldn't hold on, letting Florida close out the game on a 16-5 run, dropping a 69-58 game at Gainesville. With the win, Florida sweeps its third straight series against USC and gave coach Billy Donovan his 200th career win as a head coach.

Rolando Howell picked up his third double-double in four games, collecting 22 points and 10 boards. He was the only Gamecock in double figures and five slam dunks - a season high for any Gamecock in a game the past two years.

USC shot 40.0% to UF's 47.9%. USC was just 9 of 17 from the free throw line (52.9%) while Florida shot 17 of 21 (81.0%).

The two teams went to the lockerroom with Florida holding a one point edge, 29-28. USC had trailed by 10 at one point in the first half (23-13, 8:48), but USC battled back with a 4-0 run and then a 5-2 run.

The two teams battled back and forth in the second half, with the lead changing hands eight times. USC went up 43-38 but then Florida mounted its comeback. Combined with USC's inability to make a basket in more than seven minutes (13:46 - 6:51), Florida went on a 10-0 run to take control of the game.

Tied at 53-all with 3:48 to play, it looked like it would be a fight to the finish. But UF closed out the game with a 16-5 run, including a 14-2 run at one point.

GAME 28

USC 63
Georgia 47
Feb. 28, 2004
Columbia, S.C.
Colonial Center (17,814)

Holding Georgia without a field goal the last 10:25 of the game, South Carolina ran away with a 63-47 win over the Bulldogs. It was the third series sweep over Georgia for USC since it joined the SEC.

It was bittersweet though as USC senior forward Rolando Howell went down around the 18 minute mark of the second half with the broken left wrist. He will miss the remainder of the season.

USC was led by Josh Gonner, who picked up 22 points, three rebounds and four steals. It was the fourth game for Gonner with 20 or more points against an SEC team.

USC also saw Howell score 10 points and Renaldo Balkman finish with 10 points and a team-high seven rebounds. John Chappell stepped in for the injured Howell and scored four points with three rebounds in nine minutes.

Leading the entire first half, Georgia took a 30-31 lead to the lockerroom. The first half did feature two ties (24 all at 5:10 and 30 all at 40.6).

The two teams knotted it up at 38 at the 15:45 mark and that was all she wrote for Georgia. South Carolina went on an 8-0 run to take a 46-39 lead at the 11:08 mark. With USC up 48-44, the Gamecocks went on a 14-0 run as well.

Carolina held Georgia to just 16 points in the second half. It was the ninth team this year USC has held to 20 points or less in a half.

GAME 29

No. 9 Kentucky 84
USC 65
March 3, 2004
Columbia, S.C.
Colonial Center (18,000)

Playing in front of the largest crowd to ever see a basketball game in the state of South Carolina, 18,000 fans jammed into The Colonial Center for the last regular season home game of the year. No. 9 Kentucky handed Carolina its worst loss the season, 84-65. Kentucky led from start to finish, shooting 51.7% to USC's own 36.5%.

USC averaged 17,088 fans over an eight game SEC schedule. All told, 204,760 fans came through the turnstyles in 2003-04.

One bright spot: USC was 12 of 14 from the free throw line with Carlos Powell (2-2), Tre' Kelley (3-3) and Brandon Wallace (2-2) all making all their free throws.

USC said goodbye to six seniors, including manager Hall Beard: Sheldon Everett, Ivan Howell, Kerbrell Brown, Rolando Howell and Mike Boynton, Jr. All four seniors started the game plus Powell, with Ivan Howell and Everett starting their first career game.

USC was led by Carlos Powell, who finished the game in double figures for the first time since Mississippi State (2/11/04), scored a team-high 15 points with nine rebounds. He also made his first three-pointer since the overtime loss to MSU.

Brandon Wallace scored a career-high 13 points, adding four rebounds, three steals and a block. Boynton, Jr. tied his career high with seven rebounds, scoing six points.

UK shot 13 three-pointers to USC's own seven. They also won the battle of the boards wtih 40 rebounds to USC's 34.
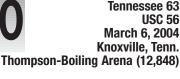

Kentucky went to the lockerroom with a 38-24 lead. At one point in the second half UK went on a 15-0 run and led the Gamecock by 29 points a few times. USC matched that with a 26-10 run but just couldn't seem to get over the hump.

GAME 30

Tennessee 63
USC 56
March 6, 2004
Knoxville, Tenn.
Thompson-Boiling Arena (12,848)

Leading from start to finish, Tennessee topped Carolina in its last regular season game of the year in Knoxville, 63-56. Despite out-scoring the Vols in the second half, 35-31, Tennessee out-shot 55.0% to USC's 37.3% overall.

USC put four scorers in double figures: Josh Gonner led all in Garnet and Black with 13 points, Kerbrell Brown had 11 and Mike Boynton, Jr. and Tarence Kinsey both added 10 points each. Kerbrell Brown led the Gamecocks with seven rebounds.

USC had only six rebounds at the half, shooting 35.0% from the field. UT went to the lockerroom with a 32-31 lead, shooting almost 60% from the field (59.1%). USC's 21 points in the first half would have been its lowest output of the season if it wasn't for the 17 the Gamecocks scored at Temple in December.

UT took a 3-0 lead and never looked back in the first half, going up by as many as 12 (15-3, 23-11 and 30-18). USC went three and half minutes followed by another seven minutes without a field goal in the first half.

In the second half, USC brought it to within two points twice: 42-40 UT at the 8:25 mark and then 48-46 UT at the 5:46 mark. Down by 10 at the 1:45 mark, USC pulled within five at the 1:12 mark but its efforts of a comeback were dashed.

GAME 31

USC 91
Arkansas 81

March 11, 2004
Atlanta, Ga.
Georgia Dome (12,545)

South Carolina stopped its brief losing streak, thanks mostly to Mike Boynton. The lefty guard scored a career-high 32 points - including five 3-pointers - and the Gamecocks may have solidified their postseason plans by beating Arkansas 91-81 in the first round.

Boynton's previous best was 21 earlier in the season against South Carolina State. In this one, he made 17-of-19 free throws, and the Gamecocks were 39-of-50 as a team.

Josh Gonner had 18 points and Tarence Kinsey added 14 and a career-high 11 rebounds for South Carolina (22-9), which lost its final two games of the regular season and four of its last five.

They took the lead for good barely three minutes into the game on a 3 by Gonner and Boynton added two more to start a 17-2 run. The Razorbacks (12-16) never got closer than eight the rest of the way.

A 3-pointer by Arkansas' Jones brought them within 13 with 8:36 left in the game, but Kinsey responded with a three-point play on a putback. The 6-foot-6 guard followed up his 10-point effort in the previous game against Tennessee - his first one in double figures since Jan. 17 - and hit his first 3 in four games to help stop a brief Arkansas rally early in the second half.

The Razorbacks closed to 39-22 with two consecutive baskets after the break, forcing a timeout by South Carolina coach Dave Odom. He drew up a play in the huddle that his team ran perfectly, with Kinsey using a solid screen by Carlos Powell and swishing a jumper from beyond the arc. On the next possession for the Gamecocks, Kinsey twice kept it alive with offensive rebounds.

Later, another 3-pointer by Boynton and a free throw by Kerbrell Brown - his only point of the game - pushed the lead to 24, and South Carolina cruised from there. Arkansas didn't help by missing three straight shots and making three turnovers.

GAME 32

USC 85
LSU 64

March 12, 2004
Atlanta, Ga.
Georgia Dome (20,203)

Mike Boynton made sure South Carolina kept its NCAA tournament hopes alive. Boynton scored 18 points, hitting all six of his field goals from beyond the 3-point line, to lead the Gamecocks to an 85-64 win over LSU in the quarterfinal round of the Southeastern Conference Tournament.

Tarence Kinsey, who hit a 5-foot runner and the ensuing free throw for a 72-58 lead with 4:08 remaining, joined Josh Gonner in scoring 14 points for South Carolina, which hit 12-of-21 shots from beyond the 3-point arc.

LSU had a 15-point lead midway through the first half, but the Tigers couldn't contain South Carolina in the paint. The Gamecocks had lost three of four before beating Arkansas 91-81 on Thursday, but Boynton scored all five of his field goals on 3-pointers against the Razorbacks, too.

Carlos Powell led South Carolina with seven rebounds and five assists. Renaldo Balkman had 11 points to lead the Gamecocks in outscoring LSU 24-13 from the bench.

LSU shot just 32 percent (8-of-25) in the second half as Gonner gave South Carolina its first double-digit lead with a 3-pointer from the right side of the key with 8:35 remaining. The Tigers were just 3-of-15 on 3-point attempts in the second half.

The Gamecocks improved to 16-1 when scoring 70 or more points. South Carolina trailed 40-39 at halftime, but the Gamecocks went to 2-13 when trailing at intermission.

Kentucky 78
USC 63

March 13, 2004
Atlanta, Ga.
Georgia Dome (21,446)

The eighth-ranked Wildcats beat South Carolina 78-63 in the semi-finals for a chance to win their 25th SEC tournament title.

Josh Gonner led South Carolina (23-10) with 17 points. Carlos Powell added 12 for the Gamecocks, who had won two straight in the tournament after ending the regular season with six losses in eight games, including an 84-65 setback at home to Kentucky.

Fitch and Eric Daniels took over the game after South Carolina's Mike Boynton's 3-pointer cut the Wildcats' advantage to 61-54 with 7:08 remaining.

Powell's lay-in made it 63-56 at the 6:13 mark, and Fitch hit a straightway 3 with 3:21 remaining that put the game out of reach.

Kentucky forced the first eight turnovers of the game, taking a 33-24 lead as Daniels hit a left-handed turnaround jumper in the lane. Smith credited the defense of Hawkins, a senior point guard, with setting the Wildcats' tempo.

GAME 34

NCAA Tournament 1st Round
Memphis 59
USC 43

March 19, 2004
Kansas City, Mo.
Kemper Arena (15,260)

Holding Conference USA's Player of the Year and Rookie of the Year to just 10 points between the two of them (Antonio Burks and Sean Banks), USC couldn't contain Rodney Carney, who scored 26 points with 10 rebounds, sending USC home with a 59-43 loss in the first round of the NCAA Tournament to Memphis.

USC was led by Carlos Powell, who scored 11 points in 33 minutes. The 11 points put Powell over the 1000 career point total as a junior (1001 total). He was the only Gamecock in double figures, with Tre' Kelley grabbing a personal best and team-high seven rebounds. Mike Boynton, Jr., who has been named to the SEC All-Tournament team the previous weekend, did not score a point.
