Gamecocks Win 2002 SEC Championship

South Carolina knocks off top-ranked Auburn by three strokes to claim first SEC crown; McPherson earns medalist honors for second-straight year.

No. 25 South Carolina captured the women's golf program's first Southeastern Conference Championship behind a school-record three-day total of 861. The Gamecocks finished three shots ahead of Auburn after entering the final round tied with the top-ranked team.

While the Gamecocks were posting their first team title, junior All-American Kristy McPherson made it a clean sweep as she became just the second player in SEC women's golf history to win back-to-back individual titles. She carded a three-day 209 to win the title by two strokes over Vanderbilt's Nicki Cutler. McPherson continued her mastery of the SEC Tournament by posting her sixth-straight sub-par round in the event and, after opening last year's tournament with a five-under 67, has led each round in the SEC Championship over the last two seasons. The only other SEC women's golfer to earn back-to-back SEC individual titles was Florida's Deb Richard, who won three-consecutive crowns from 1982-84.

"I'm so proud of the ladies," said head coach Kristi Coggins. "They played with so much heart and fought until the final putt dropped. Our goal was to be in contention coming into the final round because we have played so well all spring on the last day.

The Gamecocks picked the right time to crush the previous school record for team tournament score, topping it by 23 strokes. The 861 was also three strokes better than the SEC Championship record of 864 set by Georgia at the 1988 event at Gulf Breeze, Fla. Prior to posting 290 or lower in all three rounds at the event, Carolina had turned in just four sub-300 rounds all season.

South Carolina shot its highest score of the tournament in the final round, but played a solid back nine to recapture the lead and hold on. USC stood at five-over par after the first nine holes and fell three strokes behind No. 9 Tennessee, which was eight-under at the turn. But the Lady Vols cooled down, and the Gamecocks played the back nine collectively at three-under to win the title. Carolina handed Auburn its fifth second-place showing on the year to go along with its five tournament victories. Tennessee finished third, five shots off the pace.

In the individual competition, McPherson got a scare from Vanderbilt's Nicki Cutler, who finished before her and was in the clubhouse with a five-under 211 after a final-round 67. Tied with Cutler entering the final six holes, McPherson carded three birdies down the stretch and earned the win. Her 209 was the second-best individual three-round score in SEC Tournament history, two strokes off the previous record of 207, which she shot in 2001.

"Every putt ... every shot ... all I wanted to do was make it for the team," McPherson said. "Winning the individual title this year is so much better because the team won. It was awesome last year - don't get me wrong - but I get to share it with the team this season. I was thinking about team honors all weekend, and it just so happened that the individual victory came around."

Junior Kacy Thompson of Columbia fell from fourth to 15th place with a final-round 79 (219 total). Junior Adrienne Gautreaux had a three-over 75 on the last day and finished tied for 17th place at 222. Reeta Laakkonen had a three-day total of 223 and finished tied for 18th place, thanks to second- and third-round 71s, which tied her lowest career rounds. Sophomore Marci Robinson had a one-over 73 in the last round and tied for 22nd place.
