The 1988 Gamecock men's soccer team made history during the later months of the season. After a top seed and an opening-round bye, USC won the battle of the Carolinas with a 3-1 victory over the Tar Heels of North Carolina, avenging a stunning loss from the previous season. In the second round, Coach Berson's squad went on to capture a 1-0 victory over SMU on Clark Brisson's goal in the 29th minute to advance to the school's first Final Four appearance.

CLARK BRISSON
1987-90

1993 was a year to remember for the Gamecocks. Opening the NCAA Tournament with consecutive victories over intra-state rivals Furman (1-0) and Clemson (3-2) and blanking Air Force 6-0 on its home field, Carolina seemed destined for greatness. Behind the late heroics of Jaime Posnanski, USC captured a 1-0 victory over Cal State-Fullerton to advance to the national championship game against ACC foe Virginia. The Cavaliers collected a 2-0 victory, but Carolina etched its name in history.

BILLY BAUMHOFF
1991-94

Head coach Mark Berson has been at the helm of the Carolina program since the inaugural 1978 season. Berson has led USC to 18 NCAA Tournament appearances during his tenure.

1979 FIRST ROUND

CLEMSON 1, CAROLINA 0
NOV. 25 AT RIGGS FIELD

CLEMSON, S.C. — After only two seasons of competition, Mark Berson led the Gamecocks to the school's first NCAA Tournament appearance. The game was a rematch of an earlier 1-0 win by the Tigers in Clemson, and a first-half goal by Obed Ariri began and ended the scoring on a rainy day at Riggs Field.

The loss ended USC's season at 14-5-0, a year that included four losses by a 1-0 score and that earned the Gamecocks their first national ranking (16th at midseason).

CAROLINA 3, DUKE 0
NOV. 17 AT THE GRAVEYARD

COLUMBIA, S.C. — Two first-half goals just eight minutes apart broke a scoreless tie, and Carolina went on to a 3-0 victory over Duke in the Gamecocks' first ever NCAA Tournament match at The Graveyard. Carolina opened the scoring 21 minutes into the match on a goal by Doug Allison off a Scott Cook pass. Cook scored eight minutes later when an apparent cross found the net for a 2-0 halftime lead.

Dan Ratcliff finished the scoring 15 minutes into the second half on a pass from Allison as the Gamecocks advanced to the second round for the first time in school history.

CAROLINA 1, CLEMSON 0 (PK)
NOV. 24 AT RIGGS FIELD

CLEMSON, S.C. — Carolina headed into the second-round match at Clemson with a 19-2-1 record with the Tigers breaking USC's 13-match winning streak earlier in the year at Clemson. Also on the line was Clemson's perfect 9-0 record all-time against the Gamecocks as over 6,000 spectators were on hand for the NCAA South Region Championship match.

But Carolina put together its finest defensive performance of the year, stopping 14 Clemson shots and sending the match into sudden death penalty kicks. After Carolina's Bill Hency made it 1-0, the Tigers' J.R. Fenton missed wide right and, following Arni Arnthorsson's successful try, the Gamecocks had defeated the defending national champions for the first time and had advanced to the NCAA quarterfinals.

COLUMBIA, S.C. — South Carolina had its bid for a trip to the Final Four thwarted by a talented American squad in front of over 4,000 rain-soaked fans as the Eagles won 2-0 at The Graveyard. Playing on a field drenched by rain for four days, the two teams were scoreless after the first half, but the Eagles broke out in the second stanza.

All-American Michael Brady slipped a tough-angle shot past USC's National Goalkeeper of the Year Warren Lipka at 58:11 for what turned out to be the game-winning goal. Brady then assisted on a second goal, which put the contest away and sent American to the Final Four, where the Eagles lost in the finals to UCLA.

NOV. 16 AT DUKE FIELD

DURHAM, N.C. — South Carolina played its first NCAA match outside the state of South Carolina and came away with a hard-luck 3-2 loss to the highly-regarded Blue Devils at Duke Field. The Gamecocks had lost to the Blue Devils 3-2 in overtime earlier in the year and were poised for revenge after Gavin Coombs scored nine minutes into the game.

But after Duke tied the game at the 22:47

mark on a goal by Steve Kerr, the Blue Devils pushed another goal across when Tommy Loeber and goalie Chris Foley collided on a crossing pass, sending both players to the hospital. Duke would score again just 28 seconds later for a 3-1 lead, but Carolina fought back to a 3-2 halftime deficit after a Dan Ratcliff unassisted goal with less than a minute to play.

Neither team scored in the second half, ending the Gamecocks' season at 17-5-0.

COLUMBIA, S.C. — South Carolina entered the 1987 NCAA Tournament as the South Region's top seed and led by the senior tandem of Doug Allison, Marty Baltzegar, Scott Cook and Jim Sonefeld. In the first round, the Gamecocks took advantage of that leadership as Cook pushed through an overtime goal for USC's 1-0 win over N.C. State at The Graveyard.

Carolina outshot the Wolfpack 14-5 and had a number of opportunities thwarted by N.C. State goalie Kris Peat. But Cook penetrated the defense and scored on a Jeff Love pass with only 2:36 left in the second overtime period to send the Gamecocks into the South Region title match.

UNC opened the scoring with a goal midway through the opening half, but Doug Allison answered on a Scott Cook pass at the 70:11 mark to send the game into overtime. Both teams had chances go by the board in overtime and after the Gamecocks missed twice on penalty chances, Missimo netted the game winner.

The loss to UNC was only the second for the Gamecocks on the season as they finished with an impressive 16-2-3 record, allowing a school-low 0.42 goals per game with an incredible 14 shutouts.

The Gamecocks had trouble adjusting to the astroturf surface early, but managed to get outstanding goalkeeping from Chris Foley and went into intermission tied 0-0. Neither team could get on the board in the second half, with a Clark Brisson shot from inside the 18-yard box glancing off the crossbar with time ticking away in regulation. Cavalier goalie and future U.S. Olympic team member Tony Meola stopped a couple

DUKE 1, CAROLINA 0
 NOV. 19 AT STONE STADIUM

COLUMBIA, S.C. — Seventh-seeded South Carolina fought two tough opponents in its first round NCAA Tournament match: the non-stop rain and the Blue Devils of Duke. Carolina managed the rain, but could not stop Duke as the Devils edged Carolina 1-0 in Columbia.

Ball handling was tough due to the constant rain and both teams fought through, but were not able to move the ball the way they wanted to. Duke ended the first half with a slight 7-6 shot advantage. Duke ended the match out-shooting USC 15-11.

Duke took the lead at the 71:02 mark of the second half. USC midfielder Dave Moore took down Duke forward Ali Curtis inside the box, and a penalty kick was called. Curtis, the Blue Devils' leading scorer, converted the kick, slipping the ball past USC goalkeeper Henry Ring.

The constant rain and the tough Duke defense prevented the Gamecocks from scoring the equalizer, and the Blue Devils held on to the slim 1-0 lead.

UAB 3, CAROLINA 2
 NOV. 25 AT STONE STADIUM

COLUMBIA, S.C. - In the second round of the NCAA Men's Soccer Tournament, USC fell to the University of Alabama-Birmingham, 3-2, in overtime in Columbia, S.C. The Gamecocks, finishing the season 12-5-2, received a bye in the first round, while UAB defeated Furman, 1-0, in overtime.

The Blazers struck first at the 11:09 mark when Martin Rey knocked in the ball from 15 yards out. The Gamecocks, coming on strong in the second half, scored off a penalty kick in the 48th minute. Joey Worthen, tripped by Rogerio Oliveira, resulted in a penalty kick taken by Ryan Daley. Daley netted the ball in the top left corner of the goal, tying the match.

With less than 15 minutes left in regulation, Rey scored his second goal of the match, giving the Blazers a 2-1 lead. Answering the Blazers' goal, Gamecock forward Jordan Quinn, tied the game at 2-2 just 54 seconds later. Ryan Barber, serving the ball from midfield, connected with Quinn, who headed the ball in from the goal box.

The match ended regulation knotted at 2-2. The Blazer's would go on to win with a shot by Flavio Monteiro at 96:47.

COLUMBIA, S.C. — The University of South Carolina men's soccer team fell to Coastal Carolina, 2-1, in double overtime in the first round of the NCAA Tournament at Eugene E. Stone III Stadium.

South Carolina took a 1-0 early lead at 35:57. Thomas Hilliard headed the ball to Dave Moore who knocked the ball past Chanticleers' goalkeeper Andrew Paxton. Moore posted his second goal of the season, while Hilliard recorded his first assist. USC would carry a 1-0 lead into halftime.

In the second half, Coastal Carolina tied the game in the 85th minute, sending the match into overtime. Bobby Crovo fed the ball, past two Gamecock defenders, to the feet of Mike Littlefield who netted his 16th goal of the year. The match would enter overtime 1-1.

In the second overtime, Bobby Crovo scored with 28 seconds remaining to give Coastal Carolina the victory.

Gamecock goalkeeper Michael Bachmeyer posted nine saves to tie USC's individual game high for NCAA play. Coastal Carolina goalkeeper Andrew Paxton recorded two saves.

COLLEGE OF CHARLESTON 3,
 CAROLINA 2
 NOV. 19 AT STONE STADIUM

COLUMBIA, S.C. — Despite a valiant effort, the University of South Carolina men's soccer team was unable to overcome College of Charleston, falling 3-2, in the first round of the NCAA Soccer Tournament at Stone Stadium.

College of Charleston registered the first goal of the match in the 27th minute. Darren Toby headed in Troy Lesesne's free kick to put the Cougars on top, 1-0.

The Cougars took a 2-0 lead at the 61:15 mark when Jeremy Gold drove the ball downfield on a counter attack, all the way into the box and knocked it into the back of the net.

Facing a two-goal deficit, USC picked up the pace, and got on the scoreboard in the 73rd minute. Sophomore forward Ayo Akinsete took a pass from Jose Ramos and fired a shot into the lower left corner of the goal from 10 yards out.

USC continued to fight, but Charleston answered with its third goal at 79:37. Toby struck again, playing give-and-go with Gold before firing the ball in from 12-yards and making it 3-1.

The Gamecocks would not go quietly, though. Just over two minutes later, junior Greg Reece rifled a shot and Wiggins earned the save with a deflection, but Deter hustled after the loose ball and headed the ball just across the goal line to bring USC back to within a goal.

Carolina's furious rally continued, but came up short. After being out-shot 13-7, the Gamecocks turned the tables, out-shooting Charleston, 18-7, in the final 45 minutes.

Both goalkeepers had busy nights. Sophomore goalkeeper Brad Guzan finished with seven saves, while USC forced Wiggins to stop 10 shots.

WAKE FOREST 2, CAROLINA 0
 NOV. 18 AT SPRY STADIUM

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. — South Carolina men's soccer team fell to Wake Forest, 2-0, in the first round of the NCAA Tournament at Spry Stadium. The Gamecocks played a man down for the final 37 minutes of the contest, and the Demon Deacons scored both of their goals during that stretch to advance to the second round.

The Gamecocks came out firing, forcing Wake goalkeeper Brian Edwards to make a two of his three first-half saves in the opening five minutes. Ryan Deter took a shot inside the 18-yard box, and a minute later, Ayo Akinsete beat the Demon Deacon defense to go one-on-one with Edwards, who cut down the chance.

The action continued back and forth throughout the half, with both teams mounting dangerous scoring opportunities. In the 31st minute, Wake's Lyle Adams fired a shot from near the top of the box of from left to right that was saved off the line by Makan Hislop. The Demon Deacons' follow-up attempt from Jamie Franks sailed high.

Carolina freshman goalkeeper Mike Gutavson came up with a big save with 3:22 remaining in the half. Wells Thompson booted a volley shot from 15 yards out on the left side, but Gustavson reacted quickly, knocking down the ball for the save, his third of the half.

Neither team was able to crack the scoring column in the opening 45 minutes. Wake Forest held the shot advantage, 11-8, while South Carolina took two corner kicks to the Deacons' one. With 37:31 to play in the match, Hislop was tagged with a red card following a tackle on Moose, forcing the Gamecocks to play with 10 men the rest of the way.

Wake Forest broke the scoreless tie at the 68:32 mark. Sam Cronin played the ball from the right side to a waiting Solle inside the box. Solle drove the ball into right side of the net to make it, 1-0. The goal was his first of the season.

Carolina continued to battle and threatened to tie in the 74th minute. Ralph Pace controlled the ball at the top of the 18-yard box and played it wide right of the goal to Deter. Deter crossed the ball to Akinsete. Akinsete's shot sailed wide right.

Wake exploited its one-man advantage with 1:49 left to play as Thompson scored on a breakaway. Solle was credited with an assist on the goal.

Gustavson finished with five saves for the Gamecocks, while Edwards had four stops for Wake.
