In the spring of 2004, the Gamecocks fired a three-day team total of 847 to win the Palmetto Intercollegiate. It was the second-lowest team score in school history.

Head coach Steve Liebler's 1991 South Carolina team captured the Metro Conference Championship. Carl Paulson, Brett Quigley and Michael Christie finished first, second and third, respectively on the individual leader board.

GAMECOCK ALL-AMERICANS

ALLEN POWERS ▶ 1968

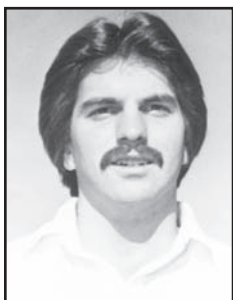

In 1968, Allen Powers was named to the All-America team and finished in the NCAA top five. A 1968 graduate of USC, Powers won the Carolinas' Four-Ball Tournament four times and captured the S.C. Amateur in 1982. Powers' other collegiate victories included the 1967 South Carolina Intercollegiate and the 1968 Palmetto Intercollegiate.

DAVID TOLLEY ▶ 1984

David Tolley earned All-America honors in 1984 and graduated from South Carolina the same year. Tolley gained national recognition while at South Carolina by playing in the 1983 Masters Tournament. Tolley shot a 77-74 at The Masters, missing the cut by only four shots. He was runner-up in the 1982 U.S. Amateur before losing to Jay Sigel.

MIKE HOLLAND ▶ 1978

A 1978 graduate of USC, Mike Holland earned All-America honors his final season. Holland won the S.C. Amateur in 1976, finished ninth in the NCAAs in 1978 and played five years on the PGA Tour. Holland teamed with Vance Heafner to win the Walt Disney Team Championship in 1981, and in 1982, finished second in the St. Jude Memphis Classic.

FRED WADSWORTH ▶ 1984

Fred Wadsworth was named to the 1984 All-America squad. As a senior, Wadsworth placed ninth at the NCAA Championships. He collected victories at the Imperial Lakes Invitational and the South Carolina Invitational. In 1986, Wadsworth joined the PGA Tour and captured the Southern Open Championships. He is a 1984 graduate of USC.

STEVE LIEBLER ▶ 1980, 1981

A 1981 graduate, Steve Liebler was a two-time All-American in 1980 and 1981. Liebler claimed four top-10 finishes during his career. He captured the Eastern Amateur in 1981, and won the 1979 Guilford College Intercollegiate Tournament. After five years on the professional golf tour, he returned to his alma mater as head coach. The Virginia native coached USC to six NCAA Championship tournaments in his tenure.

RICK WILLIAMS ▶ 1988

Rick Williams was named to the 1988 All-America and All-Metro squads. Williams earned All-Metro honors again in 1990 by capturing the conference individual title. He finished his collegiate career with a 44th-place showing at the 1990 NCAA East Regional Tournament.

WEBB HEINTZELMAN ▶ 1984

A 1984 graduate of South Carolina, Webb Heintzelman earned All-American honors his senior year. While playing for the Gamecocks, Heintzelman claimed the 1984 Tar Heel Invitational crown and established a new course record with a round of 65.

JEFF HULL ▶ 1989

Jeff Hull earned All-America honors in 1989 as a senior. Hull finished 13th in the 1989 NCAAs. He was also named an All-American Scholar and played in the United States Amateur Championship.

BRETT QUIGLEY ▶ 1991

A 1991 graduate of USC, Quigley earned honorable mention All-America honors in senior season. Quigley also garnered Academic All-America laurels and made first team All-Metro Conference that season. He was second in the 1989 Metro Conference Tournament and posted a 72.9 stroke average his senior year. The Barrington, R.I., native is currently having a successful professional career, including a top-20 finish on the PGA's money list in 2006.

ERIC ECKER ▶ 1998, 1999

Eric Ecker was named to the Honorable Mention All-America squad in both his sophomore and junior seasons. As a sophomore he captured the 1998 SEC Championship with a two-day score of eight-under-par. He participated in every South Carolina tournament in his four years at the school and ranked as one of USC's all-time bests in terms of low tournament score and single-round low.

MICHAEL CHRISTIE ▶ 1992

Michael Christie was an all-SEC selection and an honorable mention All-American in 1992. He had seven top-10 finishes in tournament play, including a third-place finish at the 1991 Metro Conference Championship. After a very successful collegiate career, Christie completed his degree in retailing and participated in the PGA qualifying school.

KYLE THOMPSON ▶ 1999-2001

Kyle Thompson left USC as the second golfer to be named an All-American three times (1999, 2000, 2001). In 1999, he captured individual championships in both the Seminole Classic and the NCAA East Regional, where he set a school record of 63 in the final round. After winning the 2001 NCAA West Regional, Thompson broke Carl Paulson's school record of most individual titles with five. He is the only golfer in the history of the NCAA to win two different regionals.

Thompson is currently playing professionally on the Nationwide Tour.

CARL PAULSON ▶ 1993

Carl Paulson earned All-American honors in 1993. While at USC, Paulson compiled four individual medalist honors, more than anyone ever to wear the garnet and black. He was the Metro Conference Champion in 1991 and was named SEC Player of the Year in 1993. Paulson won the 1995 PGA Tour Qualifying School. Paulson is currently playing professionally.

EIRIK JOHANSEN ▶ 2003, 2006

Eirik Johansen earned honorable mention All-America honors as a freshman and again as a senior. Johansen shined during his first season as a Gamecock, leading the team with a 72.53 stroke average. He went on to become a three-time first-team All-SEC selection after playing in every tournament South Carolina entered during his career. Johansen concluded his career with 20 top-10 finishes.

DAVID SEAWELL ▶ 1994, 1996

David Seawell was named a second-team All-American as a sophomore. He won the Carpet Capital Collegiate in 1994 and led the nation in stroke average at one time. Seawell tied for fourth in the East Regional of the NCAA Championships and qualified as an individual for the NCAA Finals. He qualified for the NCAA Championships in Columbus, Ohio as a junior, en route to honorable mention All-America honors.

MARK ANDERSON ▶ 2005

Mark Anderson put together an outstanding freshman season, capped by a earning third-team All-America honors. Anderson placed first in two tournaments during his rookie campaign, the Southern Highlands Collegiate Championship and the Schenkel E-Z Go Invitational. He earned first-team all-SEC honors and was named the league's Freshman of the Year. Anderson led South Carolina with a 73.22 stroke average and
