Kalen Anderson

Head Coach :: Duke, 2001 :: 4th year at South Carolina

Kalen Anderson enters her fourth year as the head coach of the South Carolina women's golf team on a high note - as the defending NCAA East Regional Champion.

Anderson led the Gamecocks to their first regional title in 2010 as the team posted an even-par total of 864, holding off Tennessee by two strokes to earn a second NCAA Championship berth in three years - not a bad start for the 2001 Duke graduate in her initial head coaching position.

Anderson earned that job when South Carolina tabbed her to mentor its program in January 2008. She joined the Gamecocks after two years as an assistant at Duke, where she had an All-American career as a player, and a four-year stint as a professional on the FUTURES Tour.

And her philosophy on coaching has led to immediate success for the Carolina program.

the University of South Carolina. The Gamecock women's golf team is committed to achieving short-game and scoring game excellence, and our much of our practice time reflects this goal. I also place a strong emphasis on building individual relationships and finding what motivates players on an individual level. Personal Given Name: Kalen Marie Anderson Born: August 8, 1978 in St. Paul, Minn. High School: Edina High in Edina, Minn.

In three seasons at South Carolina, Anderson has overseen a seamless, successful transition from the previous coaching staff, highlighted by the program's first tournament title in five years at the 2010 NCAA East Regional. In addition, two players have earned All-America accolades, equaling the number of All-Americans in program history prior to her arrival.

The 2010 season was a banner year for Anderson and the Gamecocks, capped by the team's second NCAA Championship appearance in three years where they earned a tie for 14th place. This followed Katie Burnett's and the Gamecocks' triumph at the NCAA East Regional in Greenville, N.C., where Burnett earned medalist honors in leading Carolina to the regional title.

In 2009, her first full season at Carolina, the team grew together as the season progressed and earned a spot in the NCAA East Regional in Gainesville, Fla. Highlighting the year was Benedicte Toumpsin's tie for medalist honors at the LSU Golf Classic and the emergence of a freshman star in Katie Burnett.

Her first season in 2008, Anderson guided the Gamecocks into the NCAA Championship for the first time since 2003. Team leader Bénédicte Toumpsin earned third-team All-America status from Golfweek and an honorable mention All-America nod from the National Golf Coaches Association, becoming South Carolina's first All-American since Kristy McPherson earned the honor for the third time in her career in 2003.

Anderson joined the staff of Duke's Hall of Fame head coach Dan Brooks in the spring of 2006 and helped the Blue Devils to their second-straight national title. Duke went on to add a third title in 2007. Duke also claimed back-to-back Atlantic Coast Conference championships in her time on staff. Anderson was the designated coach during several tournaments and saw four Blue Devils earn All-America status in 2006, including three first-team selections.

"In coaching, we work on skills and techniques during practice, so when we get to tournament play, my major role is to help players keep a positive attitude and stay in the right frame of mind to let their hard work and talent shine," Anderson said. "In addition to being a resource to help players make smart decisions during competition, I like to use humor to keep them loose while also pushing them toward productivity."

Outside of tournament play, Anderson focused on short game, course management and mental coaching with her players. She helped three-time All-ACC selection Jennifer Pandolfi raise her short game from 431st in the nation in December 2005 to 84th in April 2007, while her chipping stats improved from 341st to 15th over the same period. Additionally, Anderson helped personalize fitness plans for players and actively participated in team workouts.

Off the course, Anderson was just as involved with shaping college players. At Duke, she assisted in arranging community service opportunities and monitored academic progress. She designed practices and skill sets, arranged team travel, ordered and managed equipment and uniforms, and assisted in fundraising projects for the Blue Devils. Anderson also worked hard as a recruiter, evaluating top-ranked prospects on the state, national and international level. Organizing and leading recruiting visits, she helped the Blue Devils land the top golfer in the class of 2008.

"I am extremely grateful to have had the opportunity to be mentored by Coach Brooks and be part of an elite program both as a player and a coach," Anderson said. "My many experiences at Duke have taught me how to keep players motivated, excited about golf and focused on attaining their goals. I will draw on that experience to help build South Carolina women's golf into a championship program."

Prior to her start in coaching, Anderson played golf professionally from 2001 through 2005. She played a total of 56 events on the FUTURES Tour, recording her best finish at the 2002 Florida Hospital FUTURES Golf Classic in SeBring, Fla., where she tied for fourth. Anderson also participated in four LPGA Qualifying Schools and played in the 2000 U.S. Women's Open. While playing, she also worked to network and generate sponsorships to support her career, raising $120,000 of capital.

Anderson kicked off her college career by earning Atlantic Coast Conference co-Rookie of the Year honors in 1998. Playing in the NCAA Championship all four years of her career, she helped the Blue Devils to their first national title in 1999, finishing 12th in the individual standings. She captured All-ACC and Academic All-America honors that year, a feat she would repeat over the remaining two years of her career. With the nation's top-rated total short game in 2000, Anderson picked up second-team All-America status. Finishing ninth in the NCAA Regional in 2000, she was the Blue Devils' top finisher at the NCAA Championship, claiming 21st place. In all, Anderson collected 16 top-10 finishes in her career, including the individual title in the 2001 Liz Murphey Intercollegiate.

A native of Edina, Minn., Anderson earned her bachelor's degree in psychology with a certificate in markets and management from Duke in 2001. She is engaged to Deuce Harris of Durham, N.C., a former wrestler at Duke University.

As a player at Duke, Anderson was a three-time All-ACC selection. She earned second-team All-America status in 2000 and was part of Duke's first national championship team in 1999.

Puggy Blackmon

Director of Golf :: Carson-Newman, 1973 :: 16th year at South Carolina

After 12 seasons at the helm of the South Carolina men's golf program, Puggy Blackmon was named director of golf in July 2007. Blackmon, who was inducted to the Golf Coaches' Association of America Hall of Fame in 2005 and the Georgia Tech Hall of Fame in 2008, is now the unifying presence for Carolina golf, sharing his wealth of knowledge with both the men's and women's teams. His experience building both successful teams and players will help both teams continue to improve and compete at a national level. Since the 2008-09 season, Blackmon has spent the bulk of his time as an assistant coach for the women's team, implementing a short-game program that led the Gamecocks to their first NCAA Regional title in 2010.

As a head coach at South Carolina and Georgia Tech, Blackmon steered his teams to 23 straight trips to NCAA postseason, including all 12 seasons he coached the Gamecocks. At South Carolina, eight of his 12 NCAA Regional berths resulted in NCAA Championship appearances. South Carolina golf won nine team tournament titles in Blackmon's tenure, including the 2007 NCAA West Regional. The Gamecocks have spent a considerable amount of time in the national polls, including a No. 3 national ranking in 1999 and fourth in 2000.

Under Blackmon's tutelage, Gamecocks captured 11 individual titles, including five from All-American Kyle Thompson. Six golfers earned 10 All-America honors, and 11 Gamecocks were named to 17 All-Southeastern Conference first or second teams. Blackmon also coached two SEC Freshmen of the Year (Mark Anderson, 2005 and Eric Ecker, 1998) and an SEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year (West Streib, 2005).

In Blackmon's final season at the helm of the men's program, the team celebrated with a victory at the 2007 NCAA West Regional, during which the team's total of 820 shattered the school record for a 54-hole tournament by 25 strokes. In arguably the most important event of the season, Blackmon's golfers posted just two scores over par among the 15 rounds played. George Bryan IV led the way en route to PING All-Southeast Region and honorable mention All-America honors at season's end.

Blackmon's players excelled academically as well. The men's golf team posted the highest team grade point average of any of the school's men's programs for three consecutive semesters in the spring of 2005, fall of 2005 and spring of 2006. Former Gamecock Lars Cederqvist was named a 2000 CoSIDA Academic All-American as a senior after maintaining a 4.0 in mechanical engineering throughout his collegiate career. Eight different golfers have earned 10 GCAA All-America Scholar honors while 40 players have been named to the SEC Academic Honor Roll.

In addition to serving as director of golf at South Carolina, Blackmon serves as swing coach for PGA Tour players David Duval and Kyle Thompson.

Before coming to Carolina on June 5, 1995, Blackmon coached Georgia Tech to five Atlantic Coast Conference Championships, 11-consecutive NCAA Championship appearances and 34 team tournament titles.

During his 12-year tenure at Georgia Tech, Blackmon built the Yellow Jacket program into one of the most successful and dominant in college golf. At that time, only six other college golf programs had matched his program's 11 straight trips to the NCAA Tournament. Blackmon's Tech squad finished runner-up at the 1993 NCAA Championship, and he led the Ramblin' Wreck to five top-seven national finishes. His Georgia Tech teams either won or finished second in the ACC Championship nine times.

A four-time ACC Coach of the Year (1984, 1985, 1992, 1993), three of Blackmon's former golfers finished second at the NCAA Championships, and his players at South Carolina and Georgia Tech combined for 31 individual tournament crowns. Blackmon coached 31 All-Americans at Tech and Carolina and two national players of the year in the 1990s at Tech. Duval, a four-time All-American, was the 1993 National Player of the Year, while Stewart Cink, the 2009 British Open Champion, was named the 1995 National Player of the Year.

Blackmon has coached 30 All-SEC or All-ACC performers in his tenure, while five of those individuals -- Bob McDonnell (1985), David Duval (1991, 1993), Mikko Rantanen (1994) and Eric Ecker (1998) -- were conference medalists. The Yellow Jackets won the ACC team title in 1985, 1991, 1992, 1993 and 1994, while Carolina was runner up by one stroke at the 1998 SEC Championship – USC's best finish ever. In addition, Blackmon coached his teams to 43 tournament titles and finished his coaching career with a streak of 23 straight postseason appearances at Carolina and Blackmon has also proven to be an effective fundraiser, which is a role he has expanded as director of golf. At Carolina, Blackmon has orchestrated and raised funds for the Wardle Golf House, South Carolina's state-of-the-art teaching facility, and a complete renovation of the on-campus short-game facility. His creation of "Cock N" Fire" and "Head Ball Coach" wines have raised over $250,000 for the purchase of a conversion van and two mini-vans for the team's travel. Blackmon also spearheaded the efforts that raised $1.2 million for endowment of his team's scholarships at Georgia Tech.

Born William Dempsey Blackmon III on Dec. 9, 1950, in Beaufort, S.C., he is a 1969 graduate of Ridgeland High School. Blackmon played collegiately at Carson-Newman College, where he received his bachelor of arts in business administration in 1973. He was chosen one of the Outstanding College Athletes of America in 1971 and 1973. After receiving his master of science in economics from Clemson in 1977, Blackmon worked for six years in the golf resort operations and development field in Florida.

Blackmon and his wife, Gail, also a Ridgeland native, have three children: a daughter, Ashley, and two sons, Jordan and Tate. Ashley, a South Carolina and Medical School at South Carolina graduate, is a physician in Columbia and is married to Jared Jones; the couple has a daughter, Bailey Gail. Jordan is a USC graduate and pursuing a film career in California, and Tate is a current student at Midlands Tech.

Corrine Carr

Student Assistant Coach

Corrine Carr will serve as a student assistant coach for the 2010-11 season as she completes her coursework at the University of South Carolina. Carr played for the Gamecocks from 2008-10 as a junior and senior, helping the team to two NCAA Regional berths and an appearance in the 2010 NCAA Championship.

Carr finished her two-year Carolina career with a 76.39 scoring average through 58 tournament rounds for the Gamecocks, ranking her sixth all-time in program history with a minimum of 55 rounds. In her senior season of 2010, she played in every event and posted a 74.85 stroke average, good enough for the 10th-best single season in Carolina history.

She transferred to South Carolina after two years at Furman University, where she played in 20 events, including the 2008 NCAA Championship. Her best finishes as a Paladin came in back-to-back tournaments as she finished 10th at both the 2008 Southern Conference Championship and the 2008 NCAA East Regional.

Since completing her eligibility with the Gamecocks, Carr has remained competitive on the amateur circuit, winning the 2010 Carolinas Women's Amateur Championship at Furman University Golf Club in late May. She also qualified for and competed in the 2010 U.S. Women's Amateur, where she advanced to the match play round.

Carr is a native of Pinehurst, N.C., and graduated from The O'Neal School. She is a business major and is scheduled to graduate from South Carolina in the fall of 2010.

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla. – South Carolina got strong play across the board and finished one stroke behind Florida to take second place in 36 holes of stroke-play qualifying at the NGCA Match Play Championship. Katie Burnett and Amanda Strang tied for third in the stroke-play portion of the event. Burnett fired rounds of 69 and 75 to total an even-par day of 144. Strang, playing in her first collegiate event, went 72-72=144 to tie her Gamecock teammate. Not far behind was senior Corrine Carr, who tied for eighth place with rounds of 72-73=145, one stroke behind Burnett and Strang. Swanson and Toumpsin turned in rounds of 154 to tie for 46th place.

As a team, the Gamecocks shot 292-294=585 to finish one stroke behind Florida and four shots clear of defending SEC champion Auburn to earn the No. 2 seed in the match play portion of the event.

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla. – South Carolina was able to salvage a victory at the Hooters/ NGCA Collegiate Match Play Championship, defeating Chattanooga 3-2 to take home seventh place. With the team match tied at two apiece, the outcome came down to the final hole of Katie Burnett's match with Chattanooga's Kayla Stewart. Burnett, who had trailed nearly the whole way, squared the match on their 16th hole with a par on the tricky par-4 sixth. Both would par No. 7 (their 17th) and the match came to the final hole all square. Burnett would record a par on the par-5 eighth while Stewart made bogey, and Burnett won the hole and the match, 1-up. It wrapped a 1-1-1 weekend for Burnett as she began her sophomore campaign.

South Carolina's first two wins came relatively easily as Amanda Strang took down Christine Wolf, 3 and 2. Benedicte Toumpsin wrapped up a 1-0-1 weekend with a win in her match, 3 and 1, over Maria Juliana Loza. Like Strang, Toumspin led from wire-to-wire, taking as much as a four-hole lead at various points in the match.

Taylor Barrett led most of the way in her match and came to the 17th hole all square with Maria Salinas. But Barrett would make bogey on the final two holes against Salinas' pars to give Salinas a 2-up victory. Corrine Carr would stage a valiant comeback after trailing nearly the whole match, nearly overcoming Emma de Groot after she was dormie with three to play. But the two would halve the final hole, giving de Groot the win, 1-up.

For the weekend, South Carolina finished 1-2 in the competition, defeating Chattanooga but falling to Virginia and Alabama. The Southeastern Conference fared very well in the event with six of the eight teams in the championship bracket being members of the SEC.

South Carolina

FRANKLIN, Tenn. – South Carolina sophomore Katie Burnett put together a 36-hole total of 142 (-2) to earn her second top-20 finish in as many events and lead the Gamecocks at the Mason Rudolph Women's Championship. With a team score of 296, South Carolina was four strokes better on Sunday than in Friday's first round and finished at 596 (+20) in 17th place at the rain-shortened event at the Vanderbilt Legends Club North Course.

Burnett, who was tied for eighth after Friday's first round, shot a 1-over 73 on Sunday to finish tied for 20th place at 2-under par. Burnett had four birdies, three bogeys and one double-bogey on the day as she led South Carolina for the week.

Senior Corrine Carr had Carolina's best round of the day, shooting an even-par 72 to finish at 7-over-par for the week and tied for 76th place. Carr had only a bogey to blemish her opening-nine scorecard as she made the turn at 1-over, then had three birdies and two bogeys on her back nine to finish at even par for the day.

Freshman Amanda Strang was consistent with a pair of 74s on the week to finish at 148 (+4), tied for 61st. Freshman Meredith Swanson and sophomore Taylor Weaver both improved by one shot on Sunday as Swanson shot 77 to finish 84th and Weaver shot 80, finishing 88th.

Southern California took the team title with a 560 (-16), and UCLA was two strokes behind at 14-under. Auburn finished one stroke back of the Bruins at 13-under par.

The Trojans' Jennifer Song ran away with individual medalist honors, shooting 66-66-132 (-12) to win by three shots over Vanderbilt's Marina Alex, Auburn's Cydney Clanton and UCLA's Sydnee Michaels.

The teams played 18 holes on Sunday to make the tournament a 36-hole event after heavy rains forced the cancellation of Saturday's second round.

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. – Senior Corrine Carr shot a 1-under-par 71 on Sunday to lead South Carolina in the final round of the Lady Tar Heel Invitational. The Gamecocks shot 302 as a team to finish the tournament in 13th place at 893 (+29) at the UNC Finley Golf Course.

Carr's round of 71 was her best in two years as a Gamecock, surpassing a pair of 72s she shot earlier in the season. Starting on the 12th hole with the shotgun start, Carr made six straight pars before a birdie at the 18th. She would make bogey as she started the front nine, but erased that with birdie at No. 2. Another birdie at the sixth hole got her to 2-under, but a bogey at the 10th would leave her at 1-under for the day. She finished at 223 (+7) for the week, tied for 38th place. Senior Benedicte Toumpsin was the low Gamecock for the week with rounds of 72–74-75=221 (+5). Her closing-round 75 included two bogeys on the front nine and another pair of bogeys along with one birdie on the back side. She would finish tied for 21st.

Freshmen Meredith Swanson and Amanda Strang tied for 53rd place at 227 (+11). Swanson shot 79 on Sunday while Strang finished with an 80. Sophomore Katie Burnett shot 77 on Sunday to finish at 12-over, tied for 61st place.

Michigan State was the wire-to-wire tournament champion at 860 (-4), 12 shots ahead of runner-up Auburn (+8). Alabama finished third at 11-over with Texas A&M and Vanderbilt tied for fourth at 16-over.

Louisville's Sara-Maude Juneau ran away with medalist honors, shooting her second straight round of 68 (-4) on Sunday to finish at 206 (-10) and take a six-stroke victory. Vanderbilt's Marina Alex and Michigan State's Laura Kueny tied for second at 4-under.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. – Three South Carolina individuals earned top-15 finishes and the Gamecock women's golf team took home its best finish from a 54-hole stroke play event since 2005 with a third-place showing at the Mercedes-Benz Women's Collegiate Championship. The Gamecocks shot 297 (+9) on Sunday to finish at 889 (+25) for the tournament, only two strokes back of runner-up Louisville. South Carolina had its best-ever finish at the Mercedes-Benz, surpassing its fourth-place showing in 1999. It was also a vast improvement from last year's tournament at Fox Den Country Club when the Gamecocks shot 912 to finish in 15th place.

Senior Corrine Carr led the way with a career-best fifth place finish at 1-over par for the tournament. Her 54-hole total of 217 was three shots better than her previous career low, a 220 at the 2008 NCAA East Regional while a sophomore at Furman. She shot 71 in the final round, the Gamecocks' only sub-par round of the week and one of only six in the field Sunday. Benedicte Toumpsin and Katie Burnett entered the day tied, then shot matching rounds of 75 (+3) to remain that way, finishing in a tie for 15th place. Freshman Amanda Strang tied for 29th after shooting 76 in the final round, and fellow rookie Meredith Swanson improved by two strokes in the final round with a 77 to finish in a tie for 66th.

Conditions were highly unfavorable all three days of the event. Rain on Friday coupled with bitter cold and wind for the weekend made low scores rare throughout the field. But the Gamecocks were undeterred, placing three individuals in the top 15 for the first time since the 2005 Chrysler Challenge.

Tennessee was the wire-to-wire winner of their home tournament, taking a 19-shot victory at 868 (+4). Louisville was second at 887 (+23) with the Gamecocks only two shots back of the Cardinals. Carolina was eight shots clear of their next-closest competitor, Kent State (+33).

PARRISH, Fla. – South Carolina's women's golf finished Tuesday's final round of the Central District Invitational right where they started as the Gamecocks shot 305 (+17) to earn a tie for 11th-place at River Wilderness Golf Club just outside the Tampa Bay area.

Senior Corrine Carr led the way for the Gamecocks, shooting 75 (+3) on the final day to finish at 11-over-par 227 for the tournament, earning a tie for 31st place. Carr improved by five strokes over her second-round score as she wrapped up her week with a two-birdie, five-bogey performance.

Seniors Benedicte Toumpsin and Taylor Barrett, along with sophomore Katie Burnett, each posted matching rounds of 77 (+5) to round out the weekend. Toumpsin finished the week at 229 (+13), tied for 39th place, as she had an up-and-down day on Tuesday that included four birdies and four bogeys to go along with a double- and triple-bogey. Barrett had a pair of birdies to go along with five bogeys and a double as she finished her tournament at 231 (+15), tied for 50th. Burnett's round was similar to Toumpsin's as she went 36-41 with three birdies, four bogeys and two doubles. The sophomore concluded her tournament at 234 (+18).

Freshman Amanda Strang had a strong round going at 1-over par with just two holes to play, but a double bogey-bogey finish left her at 4-over 76 for the day and 19-over 235 for the tournament.

Florida ran away with the tournament title, shooting a three-day total of 857 (-7) to take a 29-stroke victory over runner-up TCU (+22). Fourth-ranked Purdue was third at 889 (+25). Gator sisters Isabelle and Marika Lendl shared medalist honors at 212 (-4) with Arkansas' Kelli Shean in third place at even par.

VALDOSTA, Ga. – South Carolina's women's golf team got a consistent 54 holes from sophomore Katie Burnett en route to an 11th-place team finish at the Kinderlou Challenge, which wrapped up Tuesday at Kinderlou Forest Golf Club. The Gamecocks posted a team score of 304-308-307=919 (+43) to earn 11th place in the 18-team field.

Burnett, a sophomore from Brunswick, Ga., posted rounds of 75-74-76=225 (+6) on the par 73, 6,265-yard track to earn a tie for 16th place, her third top-20 finish of the season. Burnett had to finish her second round this morning along with the rest of the field, but was unshaken by the suspension of play as she posted a two-birdie, three-bogey 74. She was equally consistent in the final round, carding 13 pars and a birdie against just four bogeys to record a 3-over day.

Senior Benedicte Toumpsin had a very steady final round with the only blemishes on her scorecard a double-bogey at the 7th and a bogey at the 14th. She carded rounds of 76-81-76=233 (+14) to finish in a tie for 46th place. One stroke back was senior Corrine Carr, who went 77-76-81=234 (+15) to tie for 49th. Freshman Amanda Strang tied for 53rd with a three-round total of 235 (+16), and senior Taylor Barrett was 71st at 241 (+22).

Tulane held on to its first-round lead to take a seven-stroke victory at 889 (+13) with Ohio State taking the team runner-up spot at 896 (+20). SEC foes Tennessee, Georgia and Vanderbilt took the next three spots. Individually, it was the Green Wave's Janine Fellows turning in the only 54-hole total under par with a 217 (-2). Vanderbilt's Marina Alex, ranked No. 2 in the country, and Georgia's Marta Silva Zamora, the defending SEC Champion, tied for second at 219 (E).

ATHENS, Ga. – South Carolina was one of only six teams in the field to break 300 on Sunday, climbing up the leaderboard to a tie for 11th place against a very strong field at the Liz Murphey Collegiate Classic. Katie Burnett earned her fifth top-20 of the season after closing with a 72. The Gamecocks posted a closing round of 299 (+15), the sixth-best team round of the day and easily South Carolina's best of the weekend. South Carolina tied Virginia for 11th place at 932 (+68) on a very tough scoring weekend for all 23 teams in the field. All five Gamecocks had their best rounds of the tournament on Sunday, resulting in a 25-stroke improvement in the team score from the opening round and a 10-stroke upgrade from Saturday's second round.

Burnett, a sophomore from Brunswick, Ga., had a rare even-par round of 72 on Sunday, going 36-36 to close strong and tie for 20th place. Benedicte Toumpsin was lights-out on the course's back nine, posting a 3-under 34 on that side. She struggled with the front side, however, with four bogeys and a double-bogey, along with one birdie, on the front nine to finish with a 74 (+2) to tie for 28th place overall. Amanda Strang and Corrine Carr tied for 69th place as Strang poted a 77 (+5) on Sunday, a five-shot improvement over her second round, and Carr signed for a 79 (+7) to match her second-round score. Taylor Barrett had her best round of the week with a 76 (+4) on Sunday that included three birdies plus an eagle at the 385-yard, par-4 fourth hole.

GREENSBORO, N.C. – Senior Benedicte Toumpsin and sophomore Katie Burnett tied for 20th place as the South Carolina women's golf team finished in ninth place at the Bryan National Collegiate, shooting 297 (+9) in Sunday's final round to finish at 893 (+29) overall Toumpsin shot 73 (+1) in her final round - her best score of the week - to get to 222 (+6) for the week and earn her second top-20 finish of the season. Starting on hole No. 7 with the shotgun start, the Belgium native had a bogey on her third hole of the day, but then responded with a birdie and an eagle on consecutive holes to get to 2-under. Three straight bogeys would put her back over par, but she would par her final nine holes to close out the tournament.

Burnett, a native of Brunswick, Ga., also finished at 222 (+6) and tied for 20th place, her sixth top-20 finish in eight events this year. She closed with a 76 (+4) that included two birdies, two bogeys and a pair of double bogeys on the day. Burnett has been either the top finisher or tied for the top spot on the team in five of eight tournaments this season, including three in a row.

Freshman Amanda Strang had her second straight solid round, shooting a 1-over 73 to tie for 35th place at 225 (+9). She had three bogeys on the day, but got two of those shots back on one swing as she eagled the par-4, 389-yard first hole, which was her 12th of the day. Senior Taylor Barrett shot 76 (+4) on Sunday to finish tied for 54th, and senior Corrine Carr tied for 63rd after closing with a 75 (+3) on Sunday.

Florida State outlasted co-host Wake Forest for the team title as both teams posted scores of 294 (+6) on the day; FSU finished at 873 (+9) and Wake was at 874 (+10). Ohio State, Vanderbilt and Duke tied for third at 886 (+22). The Demon Deacons' Cheyenne Woods was the individual medalist at 211 (-5), with Tennessee's Nathalie Mansson in second and Virginia's Brittany Altomare and Duke's Lindy Duncan tied for third.

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. – Senior Corrine Carr shot the best round of her collegiate career with a bogey-free 67 (-4) on Sunday to lead South Carolina in the final round of the SEC Women's Golf Championship at NorthRiver Yacht Club. The Gamecocks shot 288 (+4) on the day to finish in seventh place at 867 (+15) overall, one shot back of LSU.

Carr, a native of Pinehurst, N.C., had the tournament field's low round of the day; it was one of only seven rounds in the 60s in Sunday's final round. It was also the best 18-hole score of her career, surpassing a 69 in the first round of the 2008 NCAA East Regional, which came while she was a sophomore at Furman. Her round was flawless with four birdies and no bogeys on a course that played difficult all week long.

Sophomore Katie Burnett was the high finisher for South Carolina this week, turning in rounds of 72-70-72=214 (+1) to finish alone in 15th place. It was Burnett's seventh top-20 finish in nine events this season and her score of 214 was her season-best by eight shots.

Freshman Amanda Strang completed a successful first SEC Championship with a tie for 28th place after shooting 72 (+1) on Sunday, her best round of the tournament, to finish at 220 (+7) for the week. As with Burnett, it was Strang's best 54-hole total of the season, five shots better than a 225 two weeks ago at the Bryan National Collegiate.

Senior Benedicte Toumpsin earned her third top-20 finish of the season at 217 (+4) despite a 6-over-par 77 in the final round. It was the 17th career top-20 finish for Toumpsin. Taylor Barrett shot 78 (+7) on the final day to finish at 227 (+14) for the week, tied for 44th place.

The Gamecocks' team score of 288 was its second time in three rounds to shoot their best team total of the year and ties for the fourth-lowest score in team history, equaling a second-round effort in the 2006 Dick McGuire Intercollegiate.

GREENVILLE, N.C. — Corrine Carr and Katie Burnett tied for fourth place in the 17-player field, leading South Carolina to a second-place finish in a tri-match with Duke and East Carolina on Saturday at Ironwood Country Club. The Gamecocks shot 588 (+12) in the 36-hole outing to finish three strokes behind the Pirates and six ahead of the third-ranked Blue Devils.

Burnett and Carr posted totals of 145 (+1) to tie for fourth place. Carr had her second straight sub-par round in the morning with a 71, then followed up with a 74. Burnett went 72-73 on the day to mark her sixth time in 10 events to be one of the Gamecocks' top finishers. Freshman Amanda Strang tied for sixth place with rounds of 76-72=148 (+4), and Taylor Barrett shot 76-74-150 (+6) to finish in eighth place.

East Carolina's Amber Littman was the day's medalist, shooting 71-68=139 (-5) to finish three shots clear of Duke's Kim Donovan, who went 72-70=142 (-2). ECU's Abby Bools was third at even-par 144, followed by Burnett and Carr.

2010 NCAA East Regional Champions

South Carolina holds off Tennessee by two strokes to win first regional title in program history; Burnett shoots 210 (-6) to take medalist honors

GREENVILLE, N.C. – It finally all came together.

After going five years without a team tournament victory of any kind, the South Carolina women's golf team took down some of the nation's best teams in winning the NCAA East Regional on Saturday, posting a 54-hole score of 864 (E) to defeat Tennessee by two shots.

The key component of the Gamecocks' team victory came in the person of sophomore Katie Burnett, who shot a closing round of 71 (-1) to earn medalist honors for the first time in her collegiate career with a 3-day total of 210 (-6), one shot ahead of Auburn's Carlie Yadloczky.

"I'm really proud of them," coach Kalen Anderson said. "They played really steady for three days, and played very well under really windy conditions today. We've been knocking on the door for a couple of tournaments now where they've been close and just haven't finished one, but they finished one at the right time (today) and I'm really proud of them."

The Gamecocks posted the best team round of the final day at 290 (+2) to overcome a five-shot deficit entering Saturday's third round. Duke, who led after two rounds of play, fell back to a tie for third after a closing round of 300 (+12). Tennessee, meanwhile, traded the lead with South Carolina and Duke for most of the day, but struggled down the stretch to post a final-day score of 296 (+8).

Carolina traded the lead back and forth with Duke, Tennessee, Auburn and Pepperdine throughout the day, but it appeared late in the day that it would come down to a duel with the Lady Vols. But the Gamecocks, as a team, were 3-under over their final three holes of the day while Tennessee was 1-over in that same stretch on the back nine, including one double-bogey at 18 that proved to be the difference.

Head Coach Kalen Anderson, Taylor Barrett, Benedicte Toumpsin, Katie Burnett, Amanda Strang, Corrine Carr, Director of Golf Puggy Blackmon.

Burnett was steady as a rock throughout the day and throughout the tournament. On a day when par was a very good score, the sophomore from Brunswick, Ga., had 15 of them. She first moved into red figures with a birdie at the dogleg-left par-4 14th, then saw a putt at the 18th just miss as she made the turn at 1-under. She faced a tough start to the more-exposed front nine as she fought her way out of a fairway bunker to make bogey at No. 2, then had a birdie putt at No. 4 lip out. She took dead aim at the par-5 seventh hole to card what would be the clinching birdie, then made pars at the eighth and ninth to hold on for the victory.

"To be honest, I don't think it's really hit me yet," Burnett said. "I'm still a little speechless at the moment. But I really couldn't be happier. I missed a few putts here and there, but I knew that if I kept playing the way I was playing, a few putts would fall coming down to the end."

Coming to the ninth and final hole, Burnett hit her approach past the flag to about 12 feet, but didn't know if she needed to make it to secure the victory. It turned out that all she needed was a two-putt for par, and that's what she managed to do as the awaiting Gamecock team stormed the green for hugs and high-fives all around.

Burnett's round of 210 ties for the fifth-best 54-hole individual total in school history, equaling an effort by Siew-Ai Lim at the 1994 Carolyn Cudone Invitational. In addition to becoming the 12th different Gamecock women's golfer to win an individual title, she is the third to win an NCAA East Regional. Teammate Benedicte Toumpsin won the 2008 event in Athens, Ga., and Lim was the medalist at the 1995 regional in Memphis, Tenn.

But it wasn't just Burnett's effort that led to the 17th team title in program history. Toumpsin turned in her second-straight round of even-par 72 to post a three-day total of 218 (+2) and a likely top-20 finish. She started off her final round with eight consecutive pars before coming to the 18th hole that had been a death trap for the Gamecocks all week. The pond down the left side claimed Toumpsin's tee shot, and she settled for a bogey to make the turn at 1-over. She would get that stroke right back at No. 1 with a birdie, then rolled off five more pars before running into trouble at No. 7. After an errant drive forced a layup, she hit her third shot into the hazard. But somehow, she was able to get up and down for bogey to minimize the damage. And once again, she fought right back for a birdie at No. 8 to get back to even par; a par at the ninth finished a strong day.

Senior Corrine Carr was the second-highest finisher for the Gamecocks, fighting her way to a closing 74 (+2) to finish at 217 (+1) overall, also a likely top-20 placement. Carr fought off bogeys at 12 and 13 by making back-to-back birdies at 14 and 15, then dropped another shot after a three-putt bogey at 16. She would hold on to par 17 and 18, then rolled off three more pars before bogeys at the windswept fourth and fifth holes. She would get one shot back with birdie at the seventh, then made two pars to close. Her 54-hole total of 217 equals a career-best, which previously came at the Mercedes-Benz Collegiate earlier this season.

Amanda Strang recovered from a tough 79 in Friday's second round to sign for a 73 (+1) Saturday, a six-shot improvement for the freshman. Standing 2-over after bogeys at 11 and 18, she finally got one stroke back with a birdie at the par-4 fifth. A bogey at No. 6 dropped her back to 2-over, then she made back-to-back birdies at the par-5 seventh and the lengthy par-3 eighth. However, a missed four-footer at nine kept her from level par as she finished 1-over for the day, 6-over for the week.

Taylor Barrett, the third senior on the Gamecock roster, was consistent throughout the week as she carded rounds of 76 (+4) all three days. A bogey-birdie start preceded six straight pars to keep her even as she came to the 18th. As with two of her teammates, she found rough going on the course's closing hole and made bogey to make the turn at 1-over. The wind got the best of her on the opening holes of the front nine as she made bogey on Nos. 1, 2 and 5, but recovered to post four straight pars to close a solid tournament.

South Carolina joined fellow SEC schools Tennessee, Auburn and Vanderbilt in advancing to the NCAA Championship, which runs May 18-21 at the Country Club of Landfall in Wilmington, N.C. Other schools advancing from the East Regional included Duke, Tulane, Pepperdine and TCU. Burnett's victory came by one shot over Auburn's Carlie Yadloczky, with Texas Tech's Rosalyn Kim earning the individual invitation to the NCAA Championships with her third-place finish at 4-under. First-round leader Nina Muehl of East Tennessee State tied for fourth place at 3-under with Tennessee freshman Erica Popson, the SEC runner-up.

2002 SEC Champions

South Carolina knocks off top-ranked Auburn by three strokes to claim first SEC crown; McPherson earns medalist honors for second-straight year.

No. 25 South Carolina captured the women's golf program's first Southeastern Conference Championship behind a school-record three-day total of 861. The Gamecocks finished three shots ahead of Auburn after entering the final round tied with the top-ranked team.

While the Gamecocks were posting their first team title, junior All-American Kristy McPherson made it a clean sweep as she became just the second player in SEC women's golf history to win back-to-back individual titles. She carded a three-day 209 to win the title by two strokes over Vanderbilt's Nicki Cutler. McPherson continued her mastery of the SEC Tournament by posting her sixth-straight sub-par round in the event and, after opening last year's tournament with a five-under 67, has led each round in the SEC Championship over the last two seasons. The only other SEC women's golfer to earn back-to-back SEC individual titles was Florida's Deb Richard, who won three-consecutive crowns from 1982-84.

"I'm so proud of the ladies," said head coach Kristi Coggins. "They played with so much heart and fought until the final putt dropped. Our goal was to be in contention coming into the final round because we have played so well all spring on the last day.

The Gamecocks picked the right time to crush the previous school record for team tournament score, topping it by 23 strokes. The 861 was also three strokes better than the SEC Championship record of 864 set by Georgia at the 1988 event at Gulf Breeze, Fla. Prior to posting 290 or lower in all three rounds at the event, Carolina had turned in just four sub-300 rounds all season.

Head coach Kristi Coggins, Adrienne Gautreaux, Marci Robinson, Kristy McPherson, Reeta Laakkonen, Kacy Thompson and assistant coach Clarissa Childs.

South Carolina shot its highest score of the tournament in the final round, but played a solid back nine to recapture the lead and hold on. USC stood at five-over par after the first nine holes and fell three strokes behind No. 9 Tennessee, which was eight-under at the turn. But the Lady Vols cooled down, and the Gamecocks played the back nine collectively at three-under to win the title. Carolina handed Auburn its fifth second-place showing on the year to go along with its five tournament victories. Tennessee finished third, five shots off the pace.

In the individual competition, McPherson got a scare from Vanderbilt's Nicki Cutler, who finished before her and was in the clubhouse with a five-under 211 after a final-round 67. Tied with Cutler entering the final six holes, McPherson carded three birdies down the stretch and earned the win. Her 209 was the second-best individual three-round score in SEC Tournament history, two strokes off the previous record of 207, which she shot in 2001.

"Every putt ... every shot ... all I wanted to do was make it for the team," McPherson said. "(Winning the individual title) this year is so much better because the team won. It was awesome last year — don't get me wrong — but I get to share it with the team this season. I was thinking about team honors all weekend, and it just so happened that the individual victory came around."

Junior Kacy Thompson of Columbia fell from fourth to 15th place with a final-round 79 (219 total). Junior Adrienne Gautreaux had a three-over 75 on the last day and finished tied for 17th place at 222. Reetta Laakkonen had a three-day total of 223 and finished tied for 18th place, thanks to second- and third-round 71s, which tied her lowest career rounds. Sophomore Marci Robinson had a one-over 73 in the last round and tied for 22nd place.

Katie Burnett

2010 - Honorable Mention (Golfweek, NGCA)

Katie Burnett put together a stellar sophomore campaign that saw her win the NCAA East Regional, tie for the highest NCAA Championship finish in school history (9th place), and put together the second-best single-season scoring average in South Carolina women's golf history. Burnett led the Gamecocks to a team title at the NCAA East Regional in Greenville, N.C., the first regional team title in program history and the first team victory of any kind in five years. In her sophomore season, she amassed a pair of top-5 finishes, three top-10s and nine top-20 showings.

Siew Ai Lim

1994 - Second Team (NGCA) • 1995 - First Team (NGCA)

Siew Ai Lim completed her career in 1995 as the only Gamecock women's golfer to compete in the NCAA Championship four times. She has the best record of any South Carolina player at the national championship, posting three top-20 efforts - including a tie for sixth place in 1996 and a tie for ninth in 1995 - in her four appearances. She propelled the Gamecocks to the 1995 NCAA Championship by winning the NCAA East Regional - the first NCAA Regional title for Gamecock women's golf - and helped the team to its best-ever NCAA finish, a tie for ninth. Named the 1995 SEC Player of the Year, her regional title was one of two individual medalist honors claimed by the Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia, native; the other being a win at the 1994 Carolyn Cudone Intercollegiate. She completed her career as the all-time scoring leader at South Carolina; she now ranks fifth all-time with a 76.23 career stroke average.

Kristy McPherson

2001, 2002, 2003 - First Team (NGCA)

The most decorated golfer in South Carolina history, Kristy McPherson remains one of only two players in Southeastern Conference history to win back-to-back SEC Women's Golf Championship titles, claiming medalist honors in 2001 and 2002. The second year, her 7-under-par 209 helped lead the Gamecocks to its first team SEC Championship, defeating Auburn by three strokes. She led the Gamecocks to the NCAA Championship each year from 2001 to 2003 and was the team's top finisher each time. McPherson is the all-time leader in individual victories at South Carolina, winning six tournaments in her four years. A four-time All-SEC selection and the 2003 SEC Player of the Year, McPherson left USC with the all-time lead in scoring average at 74.42; she currently ranks second all-time. She also posted the top three individual seasons, her best being her senior year of 2002-03 with a 73.42 stroke average.

Benedicte Toumpsin

2008 - Third Team (Golfweek); Honorable Mention (NGCA)

Benedicte Toumpsin was named an All-American following a stellar sophomore campaign in 2008 when she captured medalist honors at the NCAA East Regional, propelling South Carolina into the NCAA Championship for the first time in five seasons. Also a two-time All-SEC selection, Toumpsin won at least a share of medalist honors twice in her career - the 2008 regional and the 2009 LSU Golf Classic. She finished her career with an NCAA Championship appearance in 2010, helping the team to a tie for 14th place

Dinah Shore Trophy

The Dinah Shore Trophy Award, a part of the Dinah Shore Scholarship Fund, is a cooperative effort between The LPGA Foundation, the Friends of Golf (FOG), and the Nabisco Dinah Shore, one of the LPGA's four major championships and the largest contributor to the Dinah Shore Scholarship Fund.

The LPGA Foundation introduced the Dinah Shore Scholarship Fund in March 1994 in honor of the late Dinah Shore, and together with FOG and the Nabisco Dinah Shore, developed the Dinah Shore Trophy Award and its criteria. A fundraising organization administered by Eddie Merrins, head golf professional at Bel Air Golf Club in Beverly Hills, CA, FOG contributes annually to collegiate, high school and junior golf programs throughout the country, and Dinah Shore was considered the "First Lady" of FOG.

A selection committee of The LPGA Foundation chooses the Dinah Shore Trophy Award recipient from nominations submitted by the National Golf Coaches Association. Nominees for the award must meet the following criteria:

- * An overall grade point average (GPA) of at least 3.2 on a 4.0 scale;
- * Played in at least 50% of her team's scheduled events;
- * Maintained a scoring average of 78 or less; and
- * Demonstrated leadership skills and/or extraordinary community affairs work.

The perpetual Dinah Shore Trophy is a crystal trophy, created by Tiffany & Co. with an engraving of Dinah Shore. The trophy is housed at Mission Hills Country Club, site of the annual Nabisco Dinah Shore.
