NOTES ON SOUTH CAROLINA SOFTBALL

South Carolina first fielded a varsity team in 1974, however, limited records are available from that year or the 10 years thereafter. South Carolina had no conference affiliation until 1997 when the Southeastern Conference first sponsored the sport. Carolina competed in the South Carolina Association of Intercollegiate Athletics for Women for an unknown period of time. South Carolina won the first Southeastern Conference title in 1997, while the program has claimed two SEC Tournament titles in 1997 and 2000. The Gamecocks have won the SEC Eastern Division four times and made 15 appearances in NCAA regionals.

South Carolina's All-Time Winningest Coach

NFCA Hall of Fame Member Joyce Compton

On December 6, 2002, South Carolina head coach Joyce Compton was inducted into the National Fastpitch Coaches Association Hall of Fame. Compton became the NFCA's 27th inductee into the Hall of Fame. Also inducted in 2002 alongside Compton were international coaching great Linda Wells, USA Olympic Coach and University of Arizona head coach Mike Candrea and Director of National Fastpitch Coaches College Sharon Drysdale.

A legendary figure in the softball world, Joyce Compton retired following the 2010 season after 24 years at the University of South Carolina, while helping take the program to the Women's College World Series twice and to NCAA tournaments on 13 occasions.

Inducted into the National Fastpitch Coaches Association Hall of Fame in 2002, Compton was instrumental in the Southeastern Conference adopting softball as a sport in the mid 1990's. Once established, Compton's teams won four Eastern Division titles, two SEC Tournament trophies and the 1997 SEC Championship, the first season of the league's existence. Her record at South Carolina closed at 951-486-3 (.661), the winningest coach in South Carolina Athletics history.

Under her guidance, 11 Gamecocks earned a total of 21 All-America plaques, 28 earned 62 All-Region honors, while 12 garnered 15 All-SEC honors over the first 14 years of conference play. One player won the Honda Award, which goes to the most outstanding player in softball. Twice, Compton coached the SEC Player of the Year, while she mentored the SEC Female Athlete of the Year once.

The matriarch of SEC softball, Compton twice was named the SEC Coach of the Year, while she earned five Region Coach of the Year awards at South Carolina. Her teams performed well in the classroom as well, with 142 SEC Academic Honor Roll selections coming since 1997.

With an NCAA Division I record of 1,066-563-3, Compton ranked 10th among all NCAA softball coaches regardless of division and ninth in Division I history when she retired. In four years at Missouri, she went to the Women's College World Series once while claiming the Tigers' first Big 8 title.

Four times, her teams won an NCAA regional, three of those during her tenure at South Carolina.

"I have been fortunate to have had the pleasure to coach so many great players but more importantly great people in my 24 years as a Gamecock," Compton said. "My success is only because of these players, and I want to thank them. I take with me many great memories, and I will always treasure the friends that I have made not just here but throughout the softball community."

A New Jersey native, Compton began her coaching career at Mattatuck Community College, going 93-19 in seven seasons there. She earned coach of the year accolades five times. In 35 years as a head coach, Compton compiled a record of 1,159-582-3.

"Joyce has been a staple in the South Carolina Athletics Department for nearly a quarter of a century," South Carolina Director of Athletics Eric Hyman said. "A Hall of Fame coach, her career numbers speak for themselves. One of the top 10 coaches in the history of college softball and the winningest coach this school has ever known, Joyce is well-known and highly respected by her peers and throughout the softball circuit. We wish her the all the best in her retirement."

Some national marks her players have set still stand today. Tricia Popowski set the NCAA Division I record for triples in her career at Carolina under Compton, while Trinity Johnson holds the nation's record with 12 consecutive shutouts. The longest winning streak for a team in NCAA Division I history was compiled by her 1997 squad, who won 38 straight games during that magical season.

What Others Had to Say about Compton:

"Joyce Compton has been one of the leaders in our sport for the past 30 years. For me personally, I've known her and worked with her for a number of years. She has been a big influence on me with the way I coach and the way I run our program. It's sad to see a day like today come, but she has had a wonderful career and has been great for the game of softball, especially softball in the SEC. She will definitely be missed." - Jay Miller, head coach of Mississippi State and the US Women's National Softball Team

"Joyce Compton has had a long and distinguished legacy in our sport. We should all be cognizant of her contribution as a player and a coach to the game of softball. A pioneer of the game, no one should forget how she fought to keep South Carolina softball when other schools were dropping the sport. She has been my longest and dearest friend in the coaching profession. Our sport and I will miss seeing Joyce at the ballpark." - Yvette Girouard, LSU head coach

"Not only has Coach Compton had a major impact on SEC softball, she has also been such a big influence in my life. Coach has played a major role in shaping the type of person, player and coach that I am today. Not only was she able to pull the best out of me on the field, but she also taught me the value of hard work, perseverance and discipline. Those are lessons that stay with me every day. I am honored to have played for her at South Carolina. She will be greatly missed in the softball community." - Megan Matthews Buning, current Mississippi pitching coach and former South Carolina All-American

"Joyce gave SEC softball instant credibility when the league started playing back in 1997. It would have been a much tougher beginning without her in the league. She brought a powerhouse team to an eventual powerhouse league, and all of us now are very grateful to her and her great career. Joyce has been a very good friend and mentor during my 12 years at Bama, and I will certainly miss her." - Patrick Murphy, Alabama head coach

South Carolina in the SEC Tournament

South Carolina has won two SEC Tournaments and made a total of 10 appearances in what has grown into the nation's premier conference championship event. Three times, the team made the tourney's championship game, dropping an extremely-tight 1-0 loss in its last appearance in 2001 to a third-ranked LSU squad. In 10 tournaments, the Gamecocks own a 15-15 mark all-time in the event.

Gamecock pitchers have owned the tournament during the team's wins, as both Trinity Johnson and Megan Matthews earned MVP honors after the 1997 and 2000 events, respectively. A total of 19 Gamecock have earned placement on the all-tournament team, with Matthews the only Gamecock player to earn the honor twice in her career.
