The Carolina Center (14,922)

Carlos Powell and Chuck Eidson hit back-to-back three pointers to give Carolina the lead for good and the Gamecocks survived an East Tennessee State surge for a 71-66 victory to open the season and a new era of USC basketball at The Carolina Center. A crowd of 14,922 instantly became the largest to see a Gamecock men's home game in the 18,000-seat, state-of-the-art Carolina Center.

Carolina started the game on a dunk by Kerbrell Brown, but ETSU responded with 11-straight points and had a 16-3 lead after a Tim Smith layup with six minutes gone. USC scored seven points in a row and eventually tied the game at 19-19 before the Bucs raced back out to a five-point advantage (26-21) with 7:44 left. The Gamecocks, however, finished the half strong and capped a 20-8 run to take a 41-34 lead into the lockerroom.

ETSU again fought back and went on a 12-0 run to take a 51-45 lead on a pair of Ryan Lawson free throws with 14:52 to play in the game. The Bucs kept the lead for most of the second half until Carolina took a brief lead on a pair of Chuck Eidson free throws (5:51), then with the game tied, Powell and Eidson nailed back-to-back treys to give USC a 67-63 lead with 3:31 to go. The Buccaneers would come no closer down the stretch.

Eidson came within one assist of the first triple-double in USC history, leading Carolina with 19 points, 10 rebounds, nine assists and five steals. Powell had 15 points and 10 rebounds, while Rolando Howell had 12 points and Brown 11. Tony Kitchings led the Gamecocks with 11 rebounds.

The Carolina Center (13,505)

Chuck Eidson tied his career high with 25 points and recorded the first triple-double in South Carolina history as the Gamecocks pulled away in the second half for an 82-65 victory over South Carolina State before 13,505 at The Carolina Center.

Eidson had 10 assists and 10 rebounds — three in the final three minutes — along with five steals to post his best day in the Carolina uniform.

South Carolina started the game on fire, with an Eidson slam dunk capping a 16-0 run highlighted by back-to-back three pointers. Eidson's slam came just 3:30 into the contest, with the Gamecocks going up 21-4 at the 9:37 mark on an Eidson three pointer. The Gamecocks recorded their largest margin of the game, 34-12, after a pair of Marcus Morrison free throws with 4:23 left. But South Carolina State ended the first half on a 20-6 run with a Dustin Braddick bank three pointer ending the first 20 minutes with the Gamecocks ahead 40-32.

The Bulldogs cut the lead to five points three minutes into the second half, but the Gamecocks quickly went back up by 13 after a Marius Petravicius jumper at the 15:29 mark. SCSU, however, went on a 14-4 run and cut the lead to 56-53 on a Braddick three pointer three minutes later. USC upped the lead to 10 points, but again the Bulldogs cut it to four points on a Dakin Braddick jumper at the 4:53 mark of the half (65-61). USC responded with a 17-4 run to end the game going away.

Carlos Powell had a career-high 20 points while Petravicius came off the bench for 15 points.

The Carolina Center (9,109)

Four South Carolina players scored in double figures and Chuck Eidson set the Gamecock all-time steals record as Carolina downed a pesky Appalachian State team, 71-56, before 9,109 at The Carolina Center.

Eidson's back-to-back steals in the second half gave him 224, breaking the USC record of 223 set by Barry Manning in 123 career games. Eidson broke the mark in his 87th career game (36 fewer contests).

The opening stages of the game featured three ties and a trio of lead changes with the Mountaineers' Johnathan Mitchell giving ASU a 9-7 advantage on a slam dunk at the 15:03 mark. Carolina responded with a 17-4 run and took a 24-13 lead after a Carlos Powell three pointer at the 8:24 point of the game. App. State go the margin to seven, but USC went on a 13-4 run for its largest first half lead (37-21) and had a 37-23 advantage after the first 20 minutes.

Playing without Tony Kitchings, who broke his hand early in the previous game, Carolina rotated its post players and never led by less than 11 points in the second half. The Gamecocks put together a modest 7-0 run and had their largest lead of the game at 51-33 after back-to-back jumpers by Mike Boynton and Rolando Howell, the last at the 9:56 mark of the second half.

Eidson led the Gamecocks in scoring for the third-straight game with 16 points, while Powell had 15 points and nine rebounds. Howell chipped in 11 points and eight boards while Chris Warren had 13 points. Boynton led the Gamecocks with a career-best eight assists.

South Carolina 66

Dec. 2, 2002
Columbia, S.C.
The Carolina Center (14,573)

Carlos Powell tied his career high with 20 points and South Carolina used a suffocating defense to limit Temple to 5-of-26 from the three-point line as the Gamecocks cruised to a 66-47 victory before 14,573 at The Carolina Center. The victory ended a four-game streak of wins to open the new building.

Coming off allowing Appalachian State to make just 2-of-23 three pointers, the Gamecocks broke a close game open with a run at the end of the first half and an offensive explosion in the second stanza.

Carolina started off the game on fire, pushing out to a 9-2 lead after a Chuck Eidson three pointer with 14:30 left. But Temple scored the game's next 14 points and led 16-9 after a Nile Murry jumper midway through the period. In fact, Carolina would make just two field goals in a 12-minute span, but stayed within striking distance. Then down five with 2:39 left, Carolina scored the half's final nine points and took a 23-19 lead into intermission.

Temple quickly re-took the lead in the second half and the teams traded leads six times in the first eight minutes of the period. Then with USC down by one, the Gamecocks went on a 15-2 run and took its largest lead of the game at the time at 48-36 after a Rolando Howell three-point play. Carolina would lead by double digits the rest of the way with the final score being the Gamecocks' largest lead the entire game. Carolina put the game away with a strong second half of shooting, making 16-of-24 shots (66.7%) while limiting Temple to just five points in an eight-minute span of the period.

Howell had 12 points and eight rebounds for Carolina while Chuck Eidson had 12 points.

Georgetown 67
South Carolina 59

Dec. 5, 2002
Washington, D.C.
MCI Center (5,469)

Georgetown's Mike Sweetney scored 27 points and pulled down 11 rebounds and Carolina could not overcome an 11:40 stretch without a field goal in the second half as the Hoyas handed the Gamecocks their first loss of the season, 67-59, before 5,469 fans at MCI Center. The game was Carolina's first on the road on the 2002-03 season.

The game started out slowly, with the teams trading leads a pair of times with Carlos Powell tying the contest at 5-5 on a jumper four minutes in. But Georgetown went on an 11-0 run over a 3:30 span to take its largest lead of the game at 16-5 after a dunk by Sweetney. Carolina then clamped down defensively and held the Hoyas to just one field goal over the next six minutes and 10 points overall the rest of the half as the Gamecocks worked their way back into the contest. Carolina used an 18-8 run over the last 10 minutes of the first half, tying the game at 29-29 on a Marcus Morrison free throw at 1:16. A pair of Tony Bethel free throws 12 seconds later gave Georgetown a 31-29 halftime lead.

The Gamecocks raced to their first lead of the game early in the second half and opened up a 45-42 advantage after a Rolando Howell jumper at the 12:40 mark. But Carolina would not knock down another field goal until there were 50 seconds to play; however, five-straight free throws pulled USC to within 53-50 with 5:38 left. But the Gamecocks could not convert on two opportunities to pull closer or tie the game and Georgetown pulled away for the victory, the Bulldogs' fourth in as many tries over South Carolina.

Carlos Powell led the Gamecocks with 18 points while Kerbrell Brown had 17.

NC State 76
South Carolina 64

Dec. 8, 2002
Raleigh, N.C.
RBC Center (12,069)

Julius Hodge sparked a 17-3 run with three-straight three-point possessions as NC State came back from six points down to race past South Carolina, 76-64, before 12,069 fans at RBC Center. The loss was Carolina's second in a row on the road as the Gamecocks played their first regular-season game in Raleigh since the 1971 season.

Carolina got things rolling early, erasing a 2-0 Wolfpack lead with an 11-3 run, highlighted by a Rolando Howell dunk, giving USC an 11-5 lead with 16:02 to play. NC State got to within one point, but Carolina scored seven-straight points and took its largest lead of the game at 18-10 after a Howell layup at 9:24. USC led by as many as seven points with just more than two minutes remaining, but the Wolfpack scored the half's final six points and pulled to within 32-31 after the game's first 20 minutes. Carolina made most of its headway from the line, going 11-of-13 from 15 feet out in the first half.

The Gamecocks again got out to a quick start, upping the lead to six points (41-35) after another Howell dunk, and after NC State tied the game, raced back out to another six point advantage (51-45) after a Kerbrell Brown layup. But the Wolfpack started their surge, going on an 8-0 run to take a 53-51 lead on a Hodge three pointer at 8:29. Brown responded with a trey, but Hodge gave NC State the lead for good on a layup on the next possession, and the Wolfpack increased the lead from there on spectacular shooting. NCSU made 13-of-22 field goals in the final 20 minutes (59.1%), 7-of-13 three pointers (53.8%) and 12-of-15 free throws (80%).

Carlos Powell again led USC in scoring with 19 points, while Brown added 15.

Dec. 19, 2002
Laramie, Wyo.
Arena Auditorium (9,642)

USC was looking to end its road woes, but it wouldn't in December as Wyoming defeated the Gamecocks 77-63. Wyoming had four of its five starters score in double-figures and five players overall. The Cowboys were aided by a 21-29 mark at the charity stripe, while USC was 5-7 from the foul line. USC is now 1-1 lifetime against Wyoming, with Coach Odom coaching his first career game in the state of Wyoming.

USC was led by junior Kerbrell Brown, who had 14 points in the losing effort. It was the first time this season he led the team in scoring. Brown also added two steals and four rebounds. Senior Chuck Eidson scored 13 points, had five assists, a block and two steals. Senior Marius Petravicius shot and made his first career three-pointer in the second half.

Ivan Howell, academically ineligible the first semester, played in his first game of the season, scoring eight points in 20 minutes.

USC went into the lockerroom at halftime down 35-39 to Wyoming. Ivan Howell hit a three at the 11:50 mark in the second half to get South Carolina within four points. USC fell back, but inched a bit closer at 10:41 with two straight field goals, to cut the lead to five at 49-44, but could never get back within striking distance the finals minutes as the Cowboys finished the game off, 77-63.

GAME 12

Kentucky 62
South Carolina 55

Jan. 11, 2003
Lexington, Ky.
Rupp Arena (23,5910)

South Carolina's road woes continued at Kentucky when the Gamecocks dropped a 55-62 game to the Wildcats. USC is a perfect 7-0 at home, but 0-5 on the road this season.

Junior Michael Boynton replaced junior Rolando Howell in the line-up, after Howell suffered a mild head trauma on Wednesday and missed practice.

The Gamecocks were led in scoring by Kerbrell Brown. Brown, who last lead the Gamecocks in scoring against Wyoming, had 19 points, including hitting four three pointers in the second half. He also pulled down four rebounds in 22 minutes off the bench.

Carlos Powell continued his fine play for the Gamecocks, scoring 17 points, making eight of 16 field goals, with four rebounds and an assist. Chuck Eidson scored 11 points, with four assists and two steals.

USC was up on the 'Cats 13-7 at the 12:29 mark in the first half and then UK took over. UK went on a 25-6 run to end the first half. USC went seven and half minutes with out a field goal and then followed that stretch up with another two minute scoring drought.

The second half was more to the Gamecocks liking as USC shot 37% from the field and saw Brown make four threes. USC shot 38% on the night from the field to UK's 49%. UK ruled the free throw line, making 15 of 19 to USC's just 3 of 4 (USC didn't shoot a free throw until the last 2 minutes of the game).

South Carolina 60

Jan. 15, 2003
Columbia, S.C.
The Carolina Center (13, 962)

Behind a 31-point performance by Marquis Daniels, Auburn defeated South Carolina 67-60 on Wed. evening at the Carolina Center. The loss marks USC's first defeat at the Carolina Center and drops the Gamecocks to 7-6 and 1-2 in the SEC.

Junior Rolando Howell went 7-for-12 from the field and finished with 15 points and 11 rebounds to lead the Gamecocks. It was his eighth career double-double and the first of the season. Junior Michael Boynton added 12 points for USC.

South Carolina held the early advantage in the first half jumping out to a 26-20 lead in the first 13 minutes. Rolando Howell had four field goals and Carlos Powell added three as the Gamecocks took a six-point lead. Auburn struck back with a 14-3 run to end the half, paced by Daniels' 13 first half points.

Trailing 53-43 with just over six minutes remaining in the game, Carolina cut the Tigers lead to three at 59-56 with 3:03 left in the second half. Humphrey Coliseum (7,035)

A game removed from one of its finest performances of the year in a 75-77 loss to then-No. 6 Florida, USC didn't travel as well to Mississippi State, dropping a 48-64 game to the Bulldogs in front of 7,035 fans at Humphrey Coliseum.

USC shot a season-low 27.5% from the field. The Gamecocks also collected season low's, as a team, in the following categories: points (48), field goal made (14) and field goal attempts (44).

One bright spot: Chuck Eidson went 10-11 from the free throw line, including hitting nine straight to begin the game. Eidson's tallies were a career high in free throws made (previous high was nine vs. UNCC in 2000) and a season high in free throws attempted (career high was 13 vs. UNLV in the 2002 NIT).

MSU led 13-10 with 7:11 left in the first half and then went on to outscore the Gamecocks 18-9 to finish the half up 31-19. Bulldog center Mario Austin, who finished the game with 18 points, scored four straight field goals in that stretch.

In the second half USC scored its field goal of the half at 17:04, with Carlos Powell hitting a jumper. MSU went up 44-30 at the 11:45 and 46-32 at the 11:21 mark. USC got within 10, 48-38, at the 9:04 mark, but the Bulldogs proved to be too much for USC, outscoring USC 33-29 in the second half to win the game, 48-64.

Jan. 29, 2003
Knoxville, Tenn.
Thompson-Boling Arena (13,326)

In attempt to change its road fortunes on the year, USC flew up to Tennessee the day of the game, instead of flying up the night before. Unfortunately for the Gamecocks, the switch didn't do the trick, as USC fell 56-60 in Knoxville, pushing the Gamecocks road record to 0-7 in 2002-03. It was USC's first loss to UT in three tries.

USC was led by Kerbrell Brown, who had 17 points - a game high, including 15 in the first half. Also scoring in double-figures were Chuck Eidson (14) and Tony Kitchings (12). USC led 42-40 with 11 minutes to go, but then UT went on an 11-0 run to take the lead for good. USC got within two with 4:18 left on the clock (field goal by Kitchings, 51-49), but UT again answered with a 6-1 run.

UT was led the SEC's leader scorer, Ron Slay, who played with four fouls most of the second half, scoring 16 points and picking up six rebounds and three assists. Brandon Crump also scored in double figures, adding 13 points to go with nine rebounds and three blocks.

Feb. 1, 2003
Columbia, S.C.
The Carolina Center (14,922)

Kentucky's Marquis Estill scored 18 points and Keith Bogans added 16 as Kentucky defeated South Carolina 87-69 at the Carolina Center in front of 14,922 fans.

Carolina shot a season-best 51.9 percent from the field as Chuck Eidson led the way, finishing 7-for-12 with 17 points and six assists. Kerbrell Brown added 15 points and Rolando Howell scored 13 as South Carolina fell to 7-10 on the season and 1-6 in the SEC.

South Carolina stayed with the Wildcats the majority of the first half with Eidson and Brown scoring early baskets to pace the Gamecocks. Carolina was down 23-22 with just over nine minutes remaining in the first half when Kentucky made its run. A field goal by Marquis Estill, three-point play from Erik Daniels and a Bogans basket put the Wildcats up eight as USC took timeout.

Kentucky continued its success from the field and on the boards, with Gerald Fitch and Bogans adding consecutive three-point baskets to increase the lead to 38-24, a 16-2 run over a five-minute stretch. Kentucky finished the first half with a 26-12 run.

USC won the second half, 37-30 and after watching UK score 21 second chance points to USC's three, the two teams scored just three second chance points a piece in the second half.

LSU kept USC's winless streak on the road in 2002-03, pushing the streak to eight straight losses on the road, with LSU snapping its own losing streak of five.

The Gamecocks were led by Carlos Powell, who had been suffering through a mini-slump of his own. Powell scored 18 points, with four rebounds, one assist and two steals in 29 minutes off the bench.

Rolando Howell also scored in double-figures, hitting 11 with four rebounds and one steal in 23 minutes.

John Chappell had his first career against the Tigers, pulling in one rebound in six minutes. Tony Kitchings, fighting the same virus that kept Jarod Gerald back home in Columbia, came off the bench to score six points with four rebounds and a block.

Tied at 16 with 11:23 left in the first half, LSU went on an 18-5 run. USC scored a field goal at 11:05 and then scored just one (5:32, Kitchings) until Kerbrell Brown hit one at 2:04.

In the second half, USC got within four (52-48) before the Tigers pulled away for a 71-58 win.

The Carolina Center (17,072)

Carlos Powell's three-point basket with 5:50 remaining in the game led to a late 15-1 run for South Carolina as the Gamecocks defeated Clemson 76-59 at The Carolina Center. The win is South Carolina's third straight victory vs. the Tigers and marks the first time since the 1990-91 season that both the men's and women's basketball teams at South Carolina have defeated Clemson. South Carolina is now 9-11 on the season.

South Carolina's Chuck Eidson had 20 points and Chris Warren added a career-high 17 points to lead the Gamecocks. Tony Kitchings also finished 7-for-9 with 14 points.

The Gamecocks broke out of the gate in the early first half, taking a 12-0 lead in the first four minutes of the game. Eidson scored five points in the run and Kitchings added four as USC went on top early. Carolina led at the end of the first half 33-24.

The second half found both teams trading baskets until a run by Clemson brought the Tigers within one point. Powell's three-point basket, tip-ins from Warren and Kitchings and a three-point basket by Warren capped the 15-1 run as the Gamecocks pulled away from the Tigers.

GAME 21

South Carolina 72
Arkansas 65

Feb. 15, 2003
Columbia, S.C.
The Carolina Center (9,065)

Chris Warren scored a career-best 23 points, including six three pointers in the second half, to lead the Gamecocks to a 72-65 win over Arkansas. The six three's in the second half were the most by any player in a half in the SEC this season. The televised game puts USC at 5-5 on TV this season.

It was USC's second straight win over the 'Backs and the third win in a row for the Gamecocks. It was the first time the home team won the contest between the two teams since Arkansas won in 1998.

USC led 30-25 at the break. The two teams tied it up twice in the second half, with Arkansas taking the lead before one of Warren's three's quieted the rally and guaranteed USC the win.

Chuck Eidson had 14 points with four assists and two steals. At one point, Eidson had hit 19 straight free throws (from Vandy to Arkansas game) and finished the Arkansas game hitting seven of eight.

Tony Kitchings put together his second stellar game in a row, scoring 15 points with seven rebounds, three assists and three blocks.

USC outshot Arkansas 49.0% to 46.3%, but was outshot from the three point line (44.4% to 41.2%) and the free throw line (77.8% to 70.8%), despite Eidson hitting 7-8 and Warren hitting 5-6.
