133,652 fans attended South Carolina home baseball games for the 2006 season. That total was the 11th highest attendance mark across the nation last year.

Seniors Chris Brown and Neil Giesler were among the leading hitters on the 2006 team. Brown also led the Gamecocks in on-base percentage with Giesler holding Carolina's longest hitting streak of the season. Both were named to the NCAA All-Regional team in Charlottesville, Va.

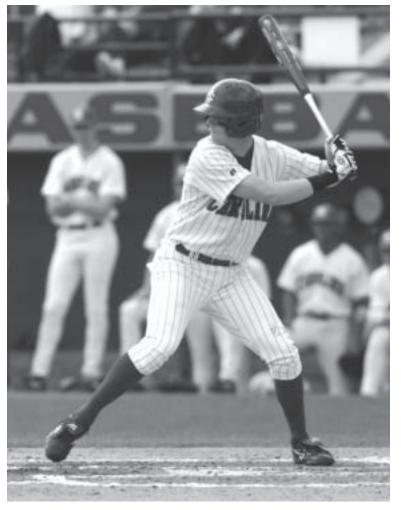

Justin Smoak Freshman All-American

The South Carolina baseball team welcomed current head football coach Steve Spurrier to a game during the 2006 season. Spurrier was an all-state baseball player in high school and helped lead his team to a state championship his senior season. He threw out the ceremonial first pitch before the April game between South Carolina and Clemson.

Andrew Cruse was a ninth round selection in the 2006 MLB Draft by the Philadelphia Phillies. He earned SEC Pitcher of the Week after 5.1 scoreless innings in a win over Clemson. Michael Campbell set several school records in 2006 including the all-time games played mark. He was selected in the 2006 MLB Draft by the San Diego Padres.

"The years have gone by extremely fast. It has been so wonderful here. Every year is exciting, we have great fans, great tradition. We have a passion for what we are doing, the fans have a passion. It has been a fast 10 years and we are looking forward to the second decade."

Wynn Pelzer pitched a complete game as Carolina defeated Evansville to clinch the Regional. He struck out a career-high nine batters in the 5-1 win for the Gamecocks.

Harris Honecyutt allowed just one run in six innings of Carolina's 8-3 win over Virginia.

Chris Brown was one of five Carolina players to earn All-Regional team honors.

Phil Disher earned tournament MVP honors and hit three home runs during the weekend including a grand slam.

Mike Cisco got the Gamecocks off to the right start in USC's 4-2 win over Evansville in game one with a complete game.

SHORTSTOP U

Adam Everett was a first round MLB draft selection out of South Carolina in 1998. He has played five seasons for Houston and played in the 2005 World Series for the Astros. The Baseball Book currently has him rated as the top defensive shortstop in all of baseball.

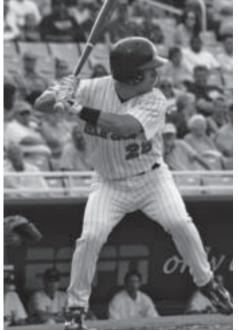

Brian Roberts was a supplemental first round MLB draft selection out of South Carolina in 1999. He has played six seasons for Baltimore and was an All-Star selection as well as team MVP in 2005 for the Orioles.

Drew Meyer was a first round MLB draft selection out of South Carolina in 2002. He recently made his first stint in the MLB this past season as a member of the Texas Rangers organization.

South Carolina has produced some of the most gifted shortstops in recent history. Since head coach Ray Tanner took over, three shortstops have been MLB 1st Round selections and have made it to the Major Leagues. Adam Everett (1997-98), Brian Roberts (1999) and Drew Meyer (2000-02) all earned All-America honors at Carolina. In addition, all three earned All-SEC honors along with Steven Tolleson (2003-05), who was drafted in the 8th Round.

Steven Tolleson earned All-SEC honors in 2005 and was drafted in the eighth round by Minnesota. He reached the high A level last season for the Twins.

BASEBALL TA's

Sarge officially retired July 1, 1997, after 45 years of service. That was 20 years after he retired from full-time employment but remained on board to supervise maintenance of athletic facilities.

For the next six plus years, until a few days prior to his death, Sarge was on hand almost daily as a consultant and advisor regarding the maintenance of playing fields and other athletic facilities

Those facilities included Sarge Frye Field, the baseball stadium that University trustees named for Sarge on May 11 1980

A native of Medon, Tenn., Frye was a master sergeant when he retried from the U.S. Army in 1953 after more than 23 years of service. A combat veteran of World War II and the Korean Conflict, Frye participated in the allied invasion of Europe, was wounded in action and decorated with the bronze star. He received a second bronze star in Korea.

Frye came to work for the University of South Carolina in 1953 and was placed in charge of athletic facilities. His duties were soon expanded to include supervision of grounds for the entire campus. He retired from full-time employment in 1977 but continued to supervise the maintenance of athletic facilities through the 1996-97 academic year.

Three Generations

SARGE FRYE FIELD

His wife, the former Ruby Howard of Anniston, Ala., passed away during the spring of 1997. Their son, Jerry, was a standout end on the South Carolina football squad, 1958-60, and was co-captain his senior year. Jerry's son Jay - Sarge's grandson - was a Gamecock football letterman, 1983-84.

Frye was honored in January 1993 when the American Baseball Coaches Association named him National Groundskeeper of the Year.

Sarge Frye Field is part of a 30-acre complex of athletic fields and buildings at the Rex Enright Athletic Center, named for the late University of South Carolina director of athletics and head football coach. Other facilities include the "Roundhouse" office building and the George Terry Olympic Sports building which houses dressing and sports medicine facilities.

The latest improvements in on-going renovations of Sarge Frye Field included the addition of 400 chairback seats on the first base side before the 2001 season; installation of 1800 chairback seats and a new rest room equipped visitor's dugout were completed prior to the 1999 season.

A new baseball player's lounge and locker room was added to this facility in 1997. The first stage of extensive renovations scheduled for Sarge Frye Field included the locker room, lounge, which features a 60" big screen television, and enlargement of the home dugout.

A two-tier press box was completed in 1987. A 10-foot fence surrounds the outfield and there is a large batter's background, 20 feet high and 40 feet side behind the center field fence. A computerized scoreboard and message center was installed in 1984.

Weldon B. "Sarge" Frye

Dimensions

Sarge Frye Field currently seats 6,000, but overflow crowds in excess of capacity are common.

Dimensions are 325 feet at the left field foul pole, 360 feet in the power alleys, 390 feet in center field and 325 feet at the right field pole. The facility is well lit for night baseball.

The New Roost, a residence hall for students adjacent to Sarge Frye Field, was completed in 1989 and replaced the original Roost built 20 years earlier. Originally a dormitory exclusively for scholarship athletes, the New Roost now houses both student-athletes and non-athletes. A portion of the original Roost has been remodeled into an academics enrichment center.

The Weems Baskin Track, Sam Daniel Tennis Center, the Eugene Stone Soccer Stadium, Beckham Softball field, practice fields and a golf green and practice area are also part of the Enright Athletic Center complex.

A field house containing indoor practice facilities for football, baseball, track, tennis and soccer was completed in 1991 and replaced a "Bubble" that was destroyed by Hurricane Hugo in 1989.

Tournaments

Sarge Frye Field was the site of the 2000, 2001, 2002 and 2004 NCAA Regional Tournament as well as the 2000, 2002, 2003 and 2004 NCAA Super Regional. In 1993 the Southeastern Conference Eastern Division Baseball Tournament was held at Sarge Frye Field.

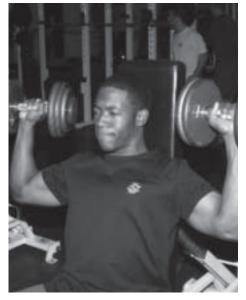

South Carolina ranked sixth in the nation in attendance for the 2004 season and has been ranked among the top 15 in the country over the last seven seasons.

Prior to that, the facility hosted six NCAA Regional baseball tournaments (1975-76-776-81-82-85) and the Metro Conference championship tournaments in 1987 and 1989. The South Carolina High School league often uses the facility for state championships and all-star games.

"The South Carolina strength and conditioning program is used to help develop stronger, more competitive baseball players. It ensures that each athlete gets the maximum benefit from resistance training, speed development, injury prevention, and sports specific conditioning. Players train year round using various methods of strength training and conditioning to challenge them not only physically but mentally."

USC strength & conditioning coach Billy Anderson

SOUTH CAROLINA EXPECTS TO CONTINUE WINNING WAYS IN 2007 SEASON

A strong nucleus of returning players combined with the top recruiting class in the country is expected to give the South Carolina baseball program an opportunity to compete for an SEC title and a spot in the College World Series.

"I like this team, said USC head coach Ray Tanner. "I think we have depth from an offensive and defensive standpoint and we are improved as a pitching staff. February will be here before we know it, hopefully we can get a little better and be ready to go."

Despite a young team in 2006, the Gamecocks still were among the top teams in the nation and reached the NCAA Super Regional round for the sixth time in the last seven seasons, one of only three teams to achieve that feat.

"We had a good year last year," said Tanner. "We played well at times, we didn't play well at other times and had a few bumps in the road with injuries to (Arik) Hempy, Chris Brown and Michael Campbell, three key players on our team. We were able to overcome and get into position to get close to the College World Series; we were just a few innings away. I was proud of the 2006 team in a lot of ways; I'm hoping that the guys that were knocking on the door last year can push it in a little bit this year. With our veteran players and an outstanding recruiting class, we could be good enough to make it back to Omaha."

POSITION PLAYERS

First baseman Justin Smoak is back for his second year in the Garnet and Black following an impressive first-year campaign that saw him earn Freshman All-American honors and lead the team with 17 homers and 63 RBI. He was also the only Gamecock player to start all 66 games in 2006. Smoak kept up his extraordinary pace over the summer in the prestigious Cape Cod League, where he earned MVP honors and was named the top prospect by Baseball America.

"Smoak had a tremendous freshman year and really is a clutch performer," said Tanner. "He is one of the top offensive and defensive players in the SEC."

Also returning to the infield for his sophomore season is shortstop Reese Havens, who made 65 starts last year and earned second team All-SEC honors. Havens fielded well at shortstop with a percentage of .969, just nine errors in 225 chances. Along with Smoak, he was an All-Star in the Cape Cod League.

"Reese had a super freshman year defensively for our team with only nine errors at short," said Tanner. "We expect his offensive numbers to improve. He's a young player, but an outstanding leader in our program."

Sophomores Andrew Crisp and James Darnell also are back to give the Gamecocks depth at both the infield and outfield spots. Crisp was a Freshman All-American last year and Darnell started late in the season in the outfield. The outfield also returns Cheyne Hurst, an All-Star this past summer in the New England Collegiate Baseball League (NECBL).

"Both Crisp and Darnell really played key roles for us down the stretch last year," said Tanner. "We've got outfielders that can move around with Darnell and Crisp, who are very versatile. Hurst is an unheralded player, who has been a very steady performer for us. Reese Havens also gained some experience playing some third base in the fall. It is a team that can move around a little bit with great depth. We should be able to score some runs and play good defense."

Carolina expects strong offensive production from the DH, catching staff and bench as well, welcoming back power hitters Robbie Grinestaff and Phil Disher. Grinestaff, like Smoak, had 17 homers on the season and Disher came on late to earn NCAA Regional MVP honors with three homers to help USC advance in the postseason tournament at Charlottesville, Va. Grinestaff is an early leader to start in left field with Disher expected to share time with Trent Kline behind the plate. Kline is the leading returning hitter from last year's team with a .336 average in 53 games and 37 starts. Add to the mix veterans Jon Willard and Drew Martin, who provided big bats off the bench from both the left and right side. Willard hit seven homers including five pinch-hit shots last year and Martin was a .276 hitter with 28 RBI.

Two key newcomers to this year's team add to the tremendous depth and both are expected to make their way into the lineup right away. Travis Jones and Lonnie Chisenhall were among the team's leading hitters in fall scrimmages. Jones transferred from Lake City CC in Florida and is expected to play second base while Chisenhall, a freshman from North Carolina, will find a spot either at third base or in the outfield. Chisenhall was North Carolina's state Player of the Year and an 11th round selection by the Pirates. He could also figure into Carolina's plans as a two-way player seeing some work at pitcher.

Rounding out the position players are outfielders Adam Crisp, Harley Lail, DeAngelo Mack, Jonathan Ratledge and Steven Reinhold.

"We are going to hit and score our share of runs but they always say great pitching will stop great hitting, so we will see how it goes, said Tanner. "I feel we have 11, 12 players who are good enough to play every day. You can only play nine, so there will be depth and a competitive situation."

PITCHING STAFF

The pitching staff features a bevy of exciting prospects with a combination of arms ready to take the mound for the garnet and black.

Looking into the rotation for the 2007 season, returning starters include junior left-hander Arik Hempy, junior right-hander Harris Honeycutt and sophomore right-hander Mike Cisco. Honeycutt returns after a 7-0 campaign that featured an NCAA Regional win against Virginia and a victory in the NCAA Super Regional over Georgia. Cisco was an SEC All-Freshman honoree and also was named to both the SEC Tournament and NCAA All-Regional teams with wins over Kentucky and Evansville. All three were starters in SEC games last year and bring the most experience to the staff. Hempy began last year as the Friday night starter for Carolina and looked to be one of the top pitchers in the SEC before an injury to his arm on March 31 kept him off the hill for the rest of the season. Hempy had successful Tommy John surgery and is expected to return some time in March.

"Our pitching staff has improved and we are looking to make strides in that area," said Tanner. "I think our pitching is better. Hempy's health will certainly factor in to what kind of pitching staff we have."

Also returning and possibly in the mix in the rotation is sophomore left-hander Will Atwood, who was another Gamecock that went to the Cape Cod League All-Star game.

Two Carolina newcomers figure to find innings early in the season with possible starts. Junior college transfer Jay Brown and freshman Nick Fuller bring impressive credentials into Columbia for the 2007 season. Fuller came to USC despite being selected in the third round of the 2006 MLB Draft with Brown an 18th round selection, choosing school over the pros.

Veteran arms lead the way in the bullpen. Most decorated being Wynn Pelzer, a second team All-SEC selection a year ago and the probable closer. Pelzer showed flashes last season as a talented prospect in a dual role as a starter and closer. He served the Gamecocks well in his sophomore season including a complete game performance vs. Evansville to clinch the NCAA Regional in Charlottesville, Va.

"Our plans are to keep Pelzer in the bullpen this year," said Tanner. "He has tremendous ability and could be a high draft choice in 2007."

Tanner also expects junior college newcomer Jordan Costner to provide an additional arm. Costner, a closer the last two seasons at Spartanburg Methodist College, brings a submarine delivery and a capability to put hitters away.

"Jordan is extremely competitive and has a closer's mentality," said Tanner. "I look for him to get 25 to 30 appearances for us out of the bullpen."

Contributions also look to come from senior right-hander

Conor Lalor and senior left-hander Forrest Beverly. Both look to close out their careers with success on the mound. Lalor logged 25 innings of relief in 2006 and Beverly started 13 games with six wins to his credit.

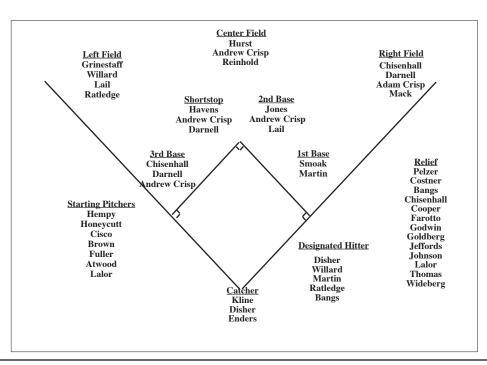

"Forrest is coming off of labrum surgery but is throwing again and should be ready to go by February," said Tanner. "Conor had his best fall since he's been in the garnet and black. He should make an impact as well."

SCHEDULE

The baseball season begins on February 9, 2007 when Carolina travels to a weekend tournament at UNC Wilmington. South Carolina will face NCAA Super Regional participant Oklahoma, Western Kentucky and the host Seahawks, another regional team. Carolina will then travel to Charleston, S.C. for a four-team tournament at The Citadel. USC's home opener is set for February 23 against Eastern Michigan. After that series Carolina will begin its annual home and home with Clemson followed by a road trip to College of Charleston. Eight of Carolina's first 12 games are on the road. The Gamecock schedule features 30 games against 2006 NCAA Tournament teams. South Carolina will begin the SEC schedule in March hosting LSU.

"It's not ideal opening up on the road but we were anticipating the new stadium, which is just a year away," said Tanner. "We do have a group of newcomers but a veteran team that I think can handle that kind of schedule early in the season. We have to find a way to win and be successful getting ready to go for SEC play."

The South Carolina Media Relations Office would like to thank you for your interest in the Carolina baseball team. This guide has been prepared to assist you in your coverage of the team. If you have any questions or requests please reach South Carolina baseball contact Andrew Kitick at 803-777-5257.

MEDIA GAME DAY SERVICES

At home and on the road, notes and statistics will be provided in the press box and on-line at www.uscsports.com. Complete box scores will be available shortly after each contest. A game story and box score following each game will be faxed and e-mailed to outlets requested. Scores will be reported to area broadcast outlets.

Wirless internet and telephone lines are available for use on the print media level.

Updated SEC and other scores of interest are provided throughout the game.

SCORE UPDATES

Media who wish to retrieve home score updates can call the press row phone at (803) 777-6648 or log on to uscsports.com for live gametracker stats.

CREDENTIALS

Accredited news media are admitted on a pass list basis through the breezeway entrance located near home plate and The Roost. Personnel assigned to cover games should contact Andrew Kitick at least one day before the game.

PARKING

There is no reserved media parking for regular season home games but there is parking available in the Roost lot near the breezeway entrance (off Heyward Street). For SEC and Clemson games, media are advised to arrive early.

Gamecock Sports Properties, a partnership between the University of South Carolina Athletic Department and two of the country's leaders in the collegiate sports marketing industry, ISP Sports and Learfield Communications, Inc., is the originating medium for radio coverage of the 2007 Carolina baseball games.

WOMG (103.1 FM) and WISW (1320 AM) in Columbia will be the flagship stations for originations of 34 regular season games plus all post-season play. The schedule will include 30 SEC games and the four game set with Clemson. Games can also be heard on www.uscsports.com.

In addition, for the third consecutive season live audio broadcast for the additional 22 regular season games will be available on-line at uscsports.com.

Mike Morgan enters his eighth year as the voice of Carolina Baseball on the Gamecocks Baseball Radio Network. Morgan also serves as the radio play-by-play announcer for the USC Men's Basketball team and the television announcer for the Gamecock football telecasts for CSS as well as Pay Per View.

In addition, Morgan co-hosts "PrimeTime Sports" on News/Talk WIS (1320 AM), Monday-Fridays from 6 to 8 p.m., as well as "Carolina Calls" featuring Gamecock coaches.

Before coming to Columbia, Morgan performed various play-by-play stints for football, basketball and baseball in Georgia, Alabama, and Florida. He also performed play-by-play for the single-A affiliate of the Cleveland Indians, the Columbus Redstixx, for two seasons. Morgan has been called upon to broadcast college and minor league baseball for television outfits including CSS as well.

As the voice of the Gamecocks, Morgan has called 14 College World Series games from Omaha including the 2002 National Championship.

While behind the mic for basketball, he's called NCAA tournament games and the last two NIT championships from Madison Square Garden.

Morgan recently earned 2005 South Carolina Sportscaster of the Year by the National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association (NSSA).

Tommy Moody, also in his eighth year, will again join Morgan as analyst for the home SEC contests. Along with his work as analyst, Moody will be play-by-play announcer for the additional 22 contests available at uscsports.com. Moody is the chairman of the USC Athletic Hall of Fame and was a past president of the USC Association of Lettermen in 1992. Moody played under head coach Bobby Richardson on the Gamecock baseball team from 1970-72 as an infielder.

Tom Price will join with Morgan to call the action on all road contests. Price served as Sports Information Director for 30 years at the University of South Carolina and continues to serve the athletics department in emeritus capacity.

Price was inducted into the CoSIDA Hall of Fame (College Sports Information Directors of America) in 1981, recipient of the 1992 CoSIDA Lifetime Achievement Award and winner of the 1993 CoSIDA Arch Ward Award, presented annually to a CoSIDA member who has made an outstanding contribution to the field of college sports information, and who by his or her activities, has brought dignity and prestige to the profession.

In addition, Price has also been honored by the NCBWA (National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association). Price received the organization's highest honor in 1982, the Wilbur Snypp Award, a yearly honor that is given to a professional for their contributions to the sport of collegiate baseball.

RAY 1 TANNER 1 Head Baseball Coach 11th Season - South Carolina 20th Season - Overall

Entering his 11th season as head coach at the University of South Carolina, Ray Tanner continues to lead the Gamecock baseball program to new heights with his commitment to excellence. Over the last decade, Tanner has established one of the premier programs in all of college baseball with milestones and accomplishments piling up each season.

Atop the list includes three consecutive trips to the College World Series from 2002-2004. Included in those journeys to Omaha was a national runner-up finish in 2002, a victory over SEC champion LSU in 2003 and three straight wins over perennial powers LSU, Miami (Fla.) and Cal State Fullerton in 2004.

Over the past seven years the Gamecocks own a 342-135 record, the fourth highest win total in Division I Baseball in that time frame as well as an SEC-best 130-79 in conference matchups. Since the 2000 season, Tanner's squads have reached the NCAA Regionals seven times, made six NCAA Super Regionals, clinched four SEC Eastern Division titles, earned two SEC Championships and won the school's first SEC Tournament title. In addition, Tanner has produced 21 All-Americans as well as 29 All-SEC performers to go along with 55 players that have signed professional baseball contracts.

South Carolina recorded its seventh consecutive 40-plus win season in 2006 and achieved a ranking as high as No. 1 during the year. Carolina earned a trip to the postseason and won the NCAA Charlottesville Regional before falling one win shy of a trip to Omaha and the College World Series by winning the first game of the NCAA Super Regional in Athens. The Super Regional appearance was Carolina's sixth in the past seven seasons, making the Gamecocks one of only three teams in the nation to achieve that feat. Under Tanner, USC owns seven consecutive trips to the NCAA Tournament, currently the longest streak among the 12 SEC schools.

Despite a young team, Tanner molded together a group that saw four players earn All-SEC honors including first team outfielder Michael Campbell and second team honorees Robbie Grinestaff (designated hitter), Reese Havens (shortstop) and Wynn Pelzer (relief pitcher). In addition to freshman Reese Havens earning All-SEC accolades, first baseman Justin Smoak, outfielder Andrew Crisp and starting pitcher Mike Cisco were named to the SEC All-Freshman team. The seven Gamecocks honored were the most players from an individual school to be recognized by the conference coaches in 2006. Smoak and Crisp also received national recognition with freshman All-America honors. Carolina finshed 2006 ranked 12th by Collegiate Baseball as well as 13th by Baseball America and 15th in the Sports Weekly/ABCA coaches' poll.

BASEBALL

Since coming to South Carolina in 1997, Tanner has compiled a 454-200 record, winning over 69 percent of baseball games USC has played. The winning percentage is second highest all-time among SEC coaches behind legendary LSU coach Skip Bertman. Coach Tanner will enter his 20th year of coaching and owns an overall record of 849-373-3 with 15 appearances in the NCAA Tournament as a head coach at NC State and South Carolina.

Tanner became the fourth fastest active coach to reach the 800 win plateau in the 2005 season. He has averaged over 42 wins a season and is currently the eighth winningest active coach in Division I college baseball by winning percentage.

Tanner has also gained valuable experience at an international level in his association with USA Baseball. He has served five stints with Red, White & Blue including his latest in 2003 as head coach for the USA National Baseball Team. At the helm of some of the top freshmen and sophomores in the country, Tanner's club finished with a 27-2 record, the best record for a U.S. National Team (.931 winning percentage) and won a silver medal at the 2003 Pan American Games. He was named the U.S. National Coach of the Year for his work that season. Prior to his head coaching stint, Tanner served as an auxiliary coach for the 2000 Olympic Team under Tommy Lasorda that won a gold medal at the XXVII Olympiad in Sydney, Australia. He was also an assistant with the 1995-1996 USA teams under former LSU coach Skip Bertman that culminated in a bronze medal win at the 1996 Olympics in Atlanta, Ga. Tanner also served alongside current Mississippi State coach Ron Polk on Bertman's staff. Tanner's first stint with USA Baseball came as an assistant coach to the national team in the summer of 1993.

Tanner was named the South Carolina head coach June 14, 1996

THE TANNER FAMILY Karen, Gracie, Maggie, Ray and Luke

after nine successful seasons at North Carolina State.

The 1997 Gamecocks compiled a 33-24 record in Tanner's initial season and qualified for the Southeastern Conference post-season tournament. The 1997 team produced a first team All-America player in designated hitter Ryan Bordenick. Bordenick and pitcher Brett Jodie were named to the All-SEC team and shortstop Adam Everett was chosen to play with the USA National Team. Bordenick and catcher Rob Streicher were named All-South.

The 1998 team was ranked among the top 20 in the nation, compiled a 44-18 record and earned a bid to the NCAA playoffs with Tanner earning SEC Coach of the Year. Pitcher Kip Bouknight, outfielder Mike Curry and shortstop Adam Everett were named first team All-SEC. Bouknight, Everett, Curry and Bordenick picked up All-America recognition and pitcher Peter Bauer was named freshman All-America. Seven 1998 Gamecocks signed professional contracts.

The 1999 team won South Carolina's first Southeastern Conference Eastern Division championship and finished with a 35-23 record. It produced a first team All-SEC designated hitter Tim Angiolini with shortstop Brian Roberts making the second team. Roberts led the NCAA in stolen bases with a school record 67 and also earned All-America recognition. Four players from the 1999 squad signed professional contracts.

Tanner's 2000 South Carolina team won the Southeastern Conference championship, a regional championship, advanced to a super regional and finished with a 56-10 record. The 2000 team was ranked first in the final Ratings Percentage Index (RPI) compiled by the NCAA and among the top ten in the three national final polls. Baseball America ranked the Gamecocks fourth, Baseball Weekly eighth and Collegiate Baseball ninth. In addition, Tanner was named National Coach of the Year as well as SEC Coach of the Year for a second time. Pitcher Kip Bouknight, 2000 consensus All-America, won the Golden Spikes Award for the nation's top amateur baseball player and finished the year with a 17-1 record. Bouknight and pitcher Scott Barber were first team selections on the 2000 All-SEC squad and pitcher Peter Bauer, outfielder Nate Janowicz and shortstop Drew Meyer were on the All-SEC second team.

His 2001 Gamecocks finished with a 49-20 record, won a regional and advanced to a super regional finishing in the top 15 in the national final polls. Carolina was 12th in the Baseball America poll, 13th in Baseball Weekly and 15th by Collegiate Baseball. The 2001 Gamecocks battled through the loser's bracket to win a second straight regional championship but lost a 3-2 heartbreaker to Stanford in the third and deciding super regional game at Palo Alto, Calif. Tanner's 2001 squad produced two All-America players in pitcher Lee Gronkiewicz, the nation's leader in saves, and catcher Tim Whittaker, who was also a semi-finalist for the Johnny Bench Award. Outfielder Garris Gonce, Gronkiewicz and outfielder Marcus McBeth were All-SEC.

In 2002, Tanner and his Gamecocks made it to Omaha and stayed 12 days to finish as National Runner-up. It was the first trip for Tanner and culminated in a national championship showdown between South Carolina and Texas. The Gamecocks won their second SEC championship in three years and Tanner was named 2002 America Baseball Coaches Association South Region Coach of the Year and South Carolina was ranked as the number two team in the nation in all of the final polls. The final 2002 record was 57-

18, topping the school record of 56 wins set two years earlier. The 2002 team won four games in the SEC Tournament after winning the official conference title with a 21-8 record in conference games. The Gamecocks then defeated Virginia Commonwealth and North Carolina twice to advance to the super regional for the third year in a row. The Gamecocks won two of three from defending national champion Miami (Fla.) to advance to the College World Series in Omaha. It took a five run ninth inning rally to defeat the Hurricanes in the deciding game. After being shut out 11-0 by Georgia Tech to open the 2002 World Series, Tanner's team fought back. Carolina defeated home state favorite Nebraska 10-8, Georgia Tech, 9-5, and Palmetto State archrival Clemson twice, 12-5 and 10-2, before losing the title game to Texas 12-6. It was South Carolina's third second place finish in Omaha. The Gamecocks were also runners-up in 1975 under coach Bobby Richardson and in 1977 under coach June Raines.

Three of Tanner's players; first baseman Yaron Peters, pitcher Blake Taylor and shortstop Drew Meyer earned All-American honors. Peters was the SEC Player of the Year, and Taylor led the nation in saves with 21. Meyer was a first round pick, the 10th overall choice in 2002 and the third consecutive Gamecock shortstop to be drafted in the first round.

South Carolina returned to the College World Series in 2003 and notched one win, an 11-10 slugfest over fellow SEC member LSU wrapped around a pair of losses to CWS runner-up Stanford. The final record in 2003 was 45-22 and in the final national polls the Gamecocks were ranked 6th by Collegiate Baseball, seventh by Baseball Weekly and 10th by Baseball America.

To get to Omaha a second straight time South Carolina won its fourth SEC Eastern Division championship, a fourth consecutive NCAA regional championship and a second consecutive super regional.

The 2003 Gamecocks swept the Atlanta regional tournament hosted by Georgia Tech with a win over East Carolina and two over Stetson and then swept two super regional games against North Carolina at Sarge Frye Field. Two of Tanner's 2003 players, pitcher David Marchbanks and third baseman Brian Buscher, earned All-America recognition. Marchbanks was also SEC Pitcher of the Year and he, Buscher and Landon Powell were named All-SEC. Seven 2003 Gamecocks were drafted and three others signed as free agents.

South Carolina made its third straight trip to Omaha in 2004 when the Gamecocks finished with a 53-17 record and in the process set or tied 20 school records. Four of Tanner's players earned All-American honors in 2004, catcher Landon Powell and pitchers Chad Blackwell, Matt Campbell and Aaron Rawl. Powell and Blackwell also earned All-SEC honors along with Brendan Winn. Six Gamecocks were drafted and signed professional baseball contracts in the 2004 season including Powell and Campbell, who were selected in the first round of the MLB draft, the first time in history that two USC players were taken in the first round. Carolina finished the year ranked third in the country in all three national polls.

USC had another successful season in 2005 that saw the Gamecocks earn a spot in the NCAA Atlanta Regional. Carolina finished 41-23 and reached the final game of the NCAA Regional. Senior first baseman Steve Pearce earned All-American honors and was named NCBWA District IV Player of the Year. Junior shortstop Steven Tolleson joined Pearce on the All-SEC team. Pearce, Davy Gregg, Aaron Rawl and Zac McCamie all signed professional baseball contracts at the end of the season. The Gamecocks finished the season ranked 21st by Sports Weekly and 25th by Baseball America.

Before arriving to Columbia as head coach of the Gamecocks, Tanner led his alma mater NC State to seven appearances in the NCAA postseason tournament and ranked second for most wins in school history. He was the 1990 Atlantic Coast Conference Coach of the Year and in 1993 was named Atlantic Region Coach of the Year when his team won 49 games.

While he was head coach a NC State for nine seasons, Tanner was affiliated with the Wolfpack baseball program for more than 20 years. He came to the Raleigh campus in the fall of 1976 as a player following an outstanding career at South Johnston High School in Four Oaks, N.C. A four-year starter at shortstop and third base, he earned All-Atlantic Coast Conference honors his senior season and still ranks among the Wolfpack's all-time leaders in several categories.

Following his playing career, Tanner served as an assistant on the staff of NC State coach Sam Esposito, overseeing the recruiting efforts and coaching third base.

When Esposito retired, Tanner moved up at the age of 28, becoming one of the youngest head baseball coaches in the nation. During his tenure as an assistant, the Wolfpack reached the NCAA Tournament twice. He had additional duties as assistant to the athletics director and as assistant athletics director in charge of game operations.

Tanner received the Bachelor of Arts degree in Recreational Administration from NC State in 1980 and the Master of Public Affairs, Public Administration in 1983.

Born Donald Ray Tanner, Jr., March 25, 1958 in Smithfield, N.C., Tanner grew up in Benson, N.C. He is married to the former Karen Donald, a native of Charleston, S.C. A University of South Carolina graduate, she was formerly head women's athletic trainer at NC State. During the summer of 1997 she served as trainer for Charlotte in the Women's National Basketball Association (WNBA). She is the former director of athletics and director of sports medicine at Columbia College.

They have two daughters, Bridgette Grace ("Gracie") and Margaret Pearl ("Maggie") and one son, Joseph Luke ("Luke").

JIMTOMAN37Associate Head Coach11th SeasonRecruiting Coordinator/Catchers

Now in his 11th season on the staff at South Carolina, this will be Jim Toman's 18th year working alongside head coach Ray Tanner, dating back to the 1990 season at NC State. Toman serves as recruiting coordinator and works with the catchers and was the 2002 Baseball America/American Baseball Coaches Association Assistant Coach of the Year. In August of 2004, Coach Toman was promoted to Associate Head Coach.

"Coach Toman and I have worked together for many years and he is certainly one of the very best coaches in the country," said head coach Ray Tanner. "I have been fortunate to have someone of Coach Toman's caliber by my side for 17 years and the job he has done and continues to do at South Carolina is outstanding."

One of the top recruiters in college baseball, Jim Toman served under Tanner at North Carolina State for seven years and joined the South Carolina staff when Tanner became the Gamecock head coach in June of 1996.

Toman has aided in recruiting 15 top-25 classes, including all 10 seasons at South Carolina. Three of the last four years, the Carolina recruiting classes have ranked first in the nation by Collegiate Baseball including the incoming 2006 class. The 2005 class earned a spot of number one along with the 2003 class that tied for first in rankings by Collegiate Baseball and was ranked second by Baseball America.

The 2004 class was ranked ninth in the nation by Baseball America and Collegiate Baseball. The 2002 class was ranked eighth. The 2001 class was ranked 10th and the 2000 class eighth best by Collegiate Baseball. The 1997 Gamecock class was ranked 17th and the 1998 and 1999 classes were both ranked 11th.

Six catchers coached at South Carolina by Toman have signed professional baseball contracts. Landon Powell, an All-American selection in 2004, was a first round draft pick by the Oakland A's as well as a finalist for the Johnny Bench Award (top collegiate catcher). Previous to Powell behind the plate were Tim Whittaker, a third team All-America choice in 2001, who signed with the Toronto Blue Jays. Brandon Pack signed in 2000 with the Texas Rangers, Ryan Bordenick in 1998 by the Milwaukee Brewers, and Rob Streicher in 1997 with the Montreal Expos. Most recently signed was this past year, when Ian Paxton signed with the Tampa Bay Devil Rays.

Toman earned four baseball letters at N. C. State, 1981-84, and was captain of the Wolfpack his junior and senior seasons. The highlight of his career as a player came in the 1984 Atlantic Coast Conference tournament when he set records for home runs (4), doubles (4) and total bases (25) and was named to the all-tournament team.

Toman also starred in the classroom. He earned a Bachelor of Science degree in vocational industrial education in 1985 and graduated as the top-ranked student in the vocational industrial education curriculum. He received the Master of Science degree in sport management from N. C. State in 1995 with a 4.0 grade point average.

Upon graduation, Toman entered the coaching profession as an assistant at Richmond County High School in Rockingham, N. C. While working with one of the top high school baseball programs in North Carolina for two years, he also served as head wrestling coach and as an assistant football coach. He then moved to Atlantic Community High School in Del Ray Beach, Fla., where he spent a year as an assistant in baseball and football.

Toman moved into the collegiate coaching ranks in 1989 as an assistant at Florida International University for one year. At FIU he was responsible for the weight program, worked with the catchers and coached first base. Toman joined the N. C. State staff before the 1990 season. He was promoted to the title of associate head coach at N. C. State in 1993.

Toman also spent three summers as an assistant coach with the Brewster Whitecaps of the Cape Cod League.

Born James Michael Toman Nov. 28, 1961 in Monroeville, Pa., he attended Gateway Senior High School in Monroeville where he was an all-star performer in both football and baseball. Toman is married to the former Ashley McLaughlin of Florence, S. C., a former volleyball player at Charleston Southern University.

They have a daughter, Caroline Frances, born Nov. 24, 1997, and two sons, Charles McLaughlin (Charlie Mac), born May 8, 2000 and Kendall Tucker, (Tucker) born Nov. 12, 2003.

MARK 48 CALVI Assistant Coach 3rd Season Pitching/Recruiting

Mark Calvi enters his third year as pitching coach at the University of South Carolina and his 14th year coaching in collegiate baseball.

Under the direction of Calvi, a young pitching staff found its form in the 2006 season putting together its best numbers late in the year and in the postseason. Sophomore Wynn Pelzer earned second team All-SEC honors with Mike Cisco also being named to the SEC All-Freshman team. In addition, both Pelzer and Cisco were part of the 2006 NCAA All-Tournament team at the Charlottesville Regional. Last year also saw sophomore Harris Honeycutt named the team's Most Outstanding Pitcher follwing his 7-0 record on the year that included wins over nationally ranked Virginia and Georgia in the NCAA Regional and NCAA Super Regional. Junior pitcher Andrew Cruse was also selected in the ninth round of the MLB Draft by the Philadelphia Phillies.

Calvi's first season at Carolina was also a success with USC producing a 3.78 team ERA, as senior pitchers Zac McCamie and Aaron Rawl finished among the SEC leaders in innings pitched and strikeouts. Rawl and McCamie also were selected in thte 2005 MLB Draft.

In his time at Carolina and FIU, Calvi has had 23 pitchers either drafted or signed by Major League Baseball teams. Calvi has also produced two pitchers that have led the nation in strikeouts and earned run average respectively. Pitcher Evan Thomas led the country in strikeouts with 220 in the 1996 season, the fourth highest total in NCAA history and Joseph Burns finished the 1995 campaign with a 1.20 ERA.

Before coming to USC, Calvi served as an assistant coach for 11 years at Florida International University. At FIU, Calvi's pitching staff finished among the Top 10 in the nation in earned run average five times and the Golden Panthers made seven NCAA appearances advancing to the Super Regionals against Southern Cal in 2001. His 1995 (2.40) and 1999 (3.07) staffs led Division I in ERA. In addition, the Golden Panthers led the entire nation in strikeouts in 1998 with 675 punchouts. His 1995 staff also posted 16 shutouts on the year, tied for the sixth highest total in NCAA history.

Calvi established himself as one of the top pitching coaches in the country at FIU producing eight All-Americans and 13 all-conference recipients.

Originally from Marco Island, Fla., Calvi earned three varsity letters in baseball at Nova Southeastern University as a catcher. After earning a bachelor's degree in secondary education, Calvi signed a professional baseball contract with the Seattle Mariners organization in 1992, helping his team win a Northwest League Championship that season. The following year he worked as a scout for the Mariners.

Calvi and his wife, Kaylie, have one daughter, Taylor, born on October 3, 1994.

Monte Lee is in his fifth season as assistant baseball coach on Ray Tanner's staff. Lee works with the outfielders and hitters during practice and coaches first base during the games. He also serves as Camp Coordinator for the Ray Tanner baseball camps in both the summer and winter.

He was no stranger to Sarge Frye Field when he joined the South Carolina staff in the fall of 2002. Lee played against the Gamecocks several times during his career, 1996-99, as a four-year starting outfielder at the College of Charleston. He experienced perhaps his best offensive game Feb. 6, 1999, when he drove in all of the College of Charleston runs with three home runs in a 5-4 loss to South Carolina.

Monte Lee played in 206 games during his career at College of Charleston from 1996 to 1999 before being the first position player drafted in school history by the St. Louis Cardinals in the 39th round of the 1999 MLB Draft. He earned all-district academic honors in 1999 and tallied 240 career hits, scored 156 runs, added 50 doubles, six triples, 22 homers, 150 RBI with 88 walks and 66 stolen bases. Coach Lee ranks first on the school's all-time list for RBI as well as second in doubles and total bases, third in at bats, fourth in runs scored and four in games played. Lee also finished his career with a .333 batting average. In the Fall of 2004, Lee was inducted as an inaugural member of the College of Charleston Wall of Fame at Patriots Point.

BASEBALL

After being drafted by the Cardinals in 1999 Lee played that summer with the New Jersey Cardinals in the New York-Penn League. He signed as a free agent with the Texas Rangers the following year (2000) and played at Savannah of the South Atlantic League where he was a teammate of former Gamecock outfielder Adam Poe.

A graduate of the College of Charleston, Lee began his coaching career as an assistant for two seasons, 2001-02, at Spartanburg Methodist Junior College. The 2001 Spartanburg Methodist club reached the NJCAA College World Series and the 2002 team set a school record with 51 wins in a season. During summers of those two years he also worked with the South Carolina Diamond Devils AAU team, as an assistant in 2001 and as head coach in 2002.

Born Monte Wesley Lee II, Feb. 9, 1977, in Spartanburg, Lee graduated from Lugoff-Elgin High School in 1995. He was a four-year baseball letterman in high school and also played football for two seasons.

Lee and his wife, Kelly, have two daughters, Madeline, born Feb. 15, 1996, and Shelby, born April 29, 1999.

BASEBALL

Brad Hocking begins his first season as student assistant coach with the South Carolina baseball program. Hocking orginally signed to pitch for the Gamecocks and enrolled in the fall of 2004 but was unable to play due to injuries.

Hocking is a member of the Honors College and is pursuing a bachelor's degree in accounting and financing. Hocking is expecting to complete his degree requirements in the spring of 2008. Hocking received the Community Service Award for the baseball team at the 2006 banquet. He also oversaw the Team Gamecocks effort that collected over 12,000 pounds of food for Harvest Hope.

Hocking came to Carolina from Riverside High School in Greer, S.C. At Riverside, Hocking played for coach Chris Bates and was the 2003 South Carolina AAA Player of the Year after compiling a 10-0 record with a 0.97 ERA and 83 strikeouts in 58 innings pitched. Greer was the 2003 and 2004 AAA state champions in South Carolina. Hocking played for Riverside along with current Gamecocks, Adam and Andrew Crisp, Kyle Enders, Alex Farotto and Will Kish. Despite not pitching in his senior season, Hocking batted .450 and earned all-state honors. Hocking was also his school's valedictorian with a 5.16 GPA.

Born Bradley Thomas Hocking on Feb. 21, 1986 in Greer, Hocking is the son of Scott and Barb Hocking. He has two older sisters, Marcie and Erin. His grandfather Bill Hocking, was captain of the basketball team at the University of Illinois.

Travis Boyd is in his third year working for the South Carolina Athletic Dept. in the Academic Enrichment office. Boyd oversees the baseball team's academic progress and assists with football. In addition to those duties, Boyd also coordinates the class attendance program for all student-athletes at Carolina.

Last season's fall GPA of 3.195 was the highest by a team ever under head coach Ray Tanner. The Gamecocks had 14 players named to the SEC Academic Honor Roll in 2006 with 15 players on the Dean's List in the fall of 2005 and six players on the Dean's List in the spring of 2006. Carolina also had three players earn President's List honors in the fall of 2005 and four players receive accolades in the spring of 2006.

Boyd received a bachelor's degree in pyschology in the spring of 2003 from Albion College. Boyd lettered in two sports while attending Albion including football and track and field and was also named to the MIAA Conference Honor Roll. He also holds a Master's degree in pyschology with concentration in athletc counseling, which he received in the spring of 2005 Springfield College (Mass.). Boyd completed an internship at the University of South Carolina during his master's candidacy.

Travis is engaged to Liz Monge and will be married in May of 2008.

A LOOK BACK AT THE 2006 SEASON IN THE SEC

The Southeastern Conference, with its storied 73-year history of athletic achievements and academic excellence, has built perhaps the greatest tradition of intercollegiate competition in baseball of any league in the country since its inception in 1933.

The SEC posted another landmark season in 2006 as the conference had an NCAA-high eight teams earn selection to NCAA postseason play and Georgia advanced to the College World Series. An SEC squad has now appeared in the College World Series 21 of the last 22 years. Ole Miss won the SEC tournament title over Vanderbilt. Alabama and Kentucky shared the SEC regular-season title with a 20-10 conference record.

The Southeastern Conference boasts ten former National Players of the Year, nine Baseball America Coach of the Year and seven Collegiate Baseball Coach of the Year honors. 126 student-athletes have been named first-team All-American, seven of which came in 2006.

In 2006, 40 former SEC players were listed on MLB opening day 25-man rosters, while 55 were taken in the 2006 MLB Amateur Draft, three in the first round. Tennessee's Luke Hochevar was the first overall pick of the draft by the Kansas City Royals. Georgia's Brooks Brown and Chris Coghlan of Ole Miss were both selected in the supplemental first round of the 2006 Major League Baseball Draft. Brown was selected by the Arizona Diamondbacks with the 34th overall pick and Coghlan was selected by the Florida Marlins with the 36th overall pick. With those three selections, the SEC has now had a first round selection in each year since 1991 and 58 total in the first round during that time.

The 2006 SEC Baseball Tournament, held in Hoover, Ala. drew 108,173 fans, marking the third time in the last four years the total has surpassed the 100,000 plateau. The championship game drew over 9,000, bringing the total from the 2005 and 2006 championship games, all involving out-of-stateteams, to over 20,000.

The SEC drew a record-high 1,602,535 fans to its on-campus ballparks in 2006, double that of the next closest conference. Seven SEC teams drew in excess of 100,000 fans to their parks in 2006. The SEC averaged a new league-high 3,862 fans per game in 2006. In addition, for the first time in league history, all 12 SEC schools averaged more than 1,000 fans per game.

NOTES

The SEC has sent 33 teams to the College World Series since 1990. That was accomplished despite no SEC teams making the field in 1992. LSU has been to Omaha 10 times and Florida and Georgia four times, while South Carolina, Mississippi State and Tennessee have been three times each. Auburn has been once, while Arkansas advanced in 2004.

SEC teams have won six of the last 17 national championships, with LSU winning five (1991, 1993, 1996, 1997, 2000) and Georgia claiming the 1990 title. The SEC has finished runner-up three times in that time, 1997, 2002 and 2005.

SEC teams are 61-57 since 1990 in Omaha, a 51.7 winning percentage. Not counting games against each other, the SEC has a 46-43 record in the CWS since 1990, a 51.7 winning percentage.

The SEC has averaged nearly eight games played per year in the College World Series since 1990. In 2004, 12 of the 15 games played in Omaha involved a SEC team. In 1997, the SEC had a team in 13 of the 14 games played in the CWS. Since 1990, an SEC team played in 103 of the 239 games played in the College World Series, an amazing 43 percent of games.

The SEC has sent nine of its 12 schools to the College World Series since 1990 - Alabama, Arkansas, Auburn, Florida, Georgia, LSU, Mississippi State, South Carolina and Tennessee.

Since 1990, 108 SEC squads have been invited to the NCAA Tournament, an average over six per season. The SEC set yet another NCAA record in both 2004 and 2005 with nine teams earning postseason berths. The SEC also had a NCAArecord five teams earn regional host sites in 2004 and 2006.

The SEC has had an NCAA-high 10 different teams compete in the 56-year history of the College World Series. In those appearances, the conference has registered a 83-98 record, a 45.8 winning percentage.

Since 1990, 22 SEC squads have posted 50-plus win seasons, while 82 have won 40-plus games in a season, including five teams in 2006.

The SEC posted a 253-92 record against nonconference foes in 2006, a 73.3 winning percentage. Since 1990, the SEC has accumulated a 4065-1536-4 record against non-conference teams, a 72.5 winning percentage.

SEC teams have also been strong in the polls. Since 1990, 80 conference teams have appeared in the final Baseball America poll, 85 in the final Collegiate Baeball poll and, since 1992, 77 in the final ESPN coaches poll.

The 2006 season for South Carolina featured a seventh straight apperance in the NCAA Tournament, a spot in the NCAA Super Regional for the sixth time in the last seven years, and the Gamecocks finishing with a 41-25 record, just one win shy of reaching the College World Series.

Carolina had a tremendous start to the year running out of the gates winning 26 of the team's first 29 games of the year. Carolina's 5-4 win over Elon in 11 innings in the season opener marked the first time in the school's 114-year history that the Gamecocks went into extra innings in the season opener. Senior RHP Andy Lambert and senior RHP Shawn Valdes-Fauli did not allow a hit in the final 5.2 innings pitched by Carolina in the season opener. Valdes-Fauli worked a perfect 2.2 innings with two strikeouts to pick up the win for Carolina. Series victories over Elon, Radford and Duquesne got the Gamecocks off to a 8-1 start in the first three weeks of the year.

A Top-10 showdown between South Carolina and Clemson was next and it lived up to its billing with the two teams splitting a pair of games at the beginning of the year. Carolina earned a 6-2 victory at home on Saturday (March 4) and fell to the Tigers 6-4 on Sunday (March 5). Carolina junior pitcher Andrew Cruse was the highlight for the Gamecocks on the weekend with 5.1 shutout innings of work in the Saturday victory. One of the most historic rivalries in all of college baseball, it has been tight between the Gamecocks and Tigers over the last six years, with USC and Clemson tied 14-14.

South Carolina got off to a good start in conference play winning the first three SEC series of the year, the first time the team had accomplished the feat since the 2002 season. The Gamecocks put up outstanding numbers during a nine-game winning streak in late March, early April with six wins over ranked opponents (Florida & LSU). In that stretch, USC outscored opponents a phenomenal 93-24 and hit .344 (114-for-331) with 14 HR and 88 RBI. The pitching staff was stellar in that stretch as well with a team ERA of 2.67 in 81 innings pitched.

A 21-4 victory over Florida on March 26 marked the largest margin of victory for USC since a 19-1 win over Niagara on Feb. 26, 2005. The 17-run victory was the largest for Carolina against an SEC team since a 21-1 win over Vanderbilt on April 18, 1992. The 21 runs were the most scored by Carolina since a 38-0 win over Charleston Southern on February 14, 2004 and the most scored against an SEC team since Ray Tanner has been head coach at Carolina (1997-present).

The sweep over the Gators was followed up by another conference sweep, this time USC taking three games on the road at LSU. It marked the second consecutive year that the Gamecocks had traveled to Baton Rouge and won all three contests. Carolina was outstanding at the plate and on the mound in the LSU series. Carolina outscored LSU 31-7 in three games and batted .304 (34-for-112) with the pitchers allowing just seven runs on 17 hits with a 2.33 ERA. Friday's game featured 12 hits by the Gamecocks including a three-run homer from Justin Smoak and a two-run homer by Neil Giesler. Carolina also pounded out 18 hits in Saturday's 18-4 win over LSU. The 18 hits included four homers from Michael Campbell, Robbie Grinestaff, Trent Kline and Smoak (second of the series.)

The month of April would see the Gamecocks win two key SEC series at home vs. Western Division rivals Ole Miss and Mississippi State. The Ole Miss series got off to a great start with a 1-0 win over the Rebels behind a clutch eight-plus inning performance by Mike Cisco. USC would follow that win up with a 6-3 victory the next day that saw the Gamecocks rally with four runs in the eighth inning including homers from Andrew Crisp and Justin Smoak. The rally excitement would continue the next home series vs. the Bulldogs when Carolina rallied from three runs down in the 11th inning to defeat Mississippi State and take the series with a 9-7 win. The bottom of the 11th featured a three-run pinch-hit homer from Jon Willard followed up by a two-run game-winner by Michael Campbell.

Although May would not be kind to the Gamecocks, Carolina did gain some key victories along the way including a win over the seventh-ranked Kentucky Wildcats in the opening round of the SEC Tournament. Trailing 1-0 in the ninth inning, USC would score four runs with Willard again coming through in the clutch with a two-run pinch-hit homer. Willard finished the year with seven home runs with four coming off the bench.

The NCAA Tournament took the second-seeded Gamecocks up the road and north to Charlottesville, Va. where the top seeded and host Virginia Cavaliers waited along with third-seeded Evansville and fourth-seeded Lehigh.

Despite a one day delay of rain and head coach Ray Tanner battling an illness, USC opened the regional with a 4-2 win over Evansville on Saturday, June 3. Freshman right-hander Mike Cisco hurled his first career complete game and Justin Smoak and Trent Kline each doubled twice to help lift Carolina to the win.

That set the stage for the top two seeds later that evening. In Carolina's second game of the day, Phil Disher hit a grand slam home run in the bottom of the third inning and sophomore right-hander Harris Honeycutt did not allow an earned run in six innings of work as South Carolina defeated Virginia 8-2 Honeycutt gave the Gamecocks a solid outing in his six-inning performance as he yielded just five hits and limited the Cavaliers to one run while striking out five batters.

After two scoreless innings, the Gamecocks stormed out to a 5-0 lead in the third inning. Ian Paxton opened the frame with a single to right field and advanced to second base on the Cheyne Hurst sacrifice bunt. Paxton would score the first USC run on a twoout RBI single from Chris Brown that saw Brown advanced to second base on a fielding error by Virginia right fielder Brandon Marsh. With Brown on second and Reese Havens on third base, Virginia elected to intentionally walk Justin Smoak to load the bases and set the stage for designated hitter Phil Disher. On Doolittle's first pitch, Disher launched a towering shot to left center field for his first career grand slam that put the Gamecocks ahead by five runs. It was Carolina's fifth grand slam of the season.

Although USC suffered a 15-5 setback to Evansville the next day, a complete game pitching performance by Wynn Pelzer and with the help of Phil Disher's three-run homer, South Carolina defeated Evansville 5-1 to capture the NCAA Charlottesville Regional championship and advance to the NCAA Super Regional. Disher earned tournament MVP honors and homered three times with 10 RBI throughout the four games.

Five different Gamecock players including tournament MVP Phil Disher were named to the All-Tournament Team. Also on the team were Pelzer, starting pitcher Mike Cisco, second baseman Chris Brown and third baseman Neil Giesler. Disher made the team as designated hitter.

South Carolina would meet a familiar face in the NCAA Super Regional traveling to Athens, Ga. to face the Georgia Bulldogs. Carolina shocked the Bulldogs in the opening game with a 15-6 win that featured one of the most impressive offensive performances in NCAA history.

South Carolina tied an NCAA Division I record for consecutive home runs with five in the second inning on its way to the win. A three-run lead would be extended to 9-0 as Carolina blasted five straight homers off Georgia starter Mickey Westphal and reliever Stephen Dodson. With two outs and a runner on first base, Neil Giesler began the barrage with a two-run homer to right field. Following Giesler was Justin Smoak, who knocked a solo homer to left field to increase the USC lead to six runs. Cleanup hitter Phil Disher was next and he drove his fourth postseason homer to deep left center that gave USC a sevenrun cushion and knocked out Westphal. Dodson came in for the Bulldogs and was greeted by Crisp, who hit a 1-1 pitch to left field for his second homer of the game and the fourth consecutive of the inning. The last homer would come off the bat of Robbie Grinestaff, who launched a deep shot to right field. South Carolina finished with eight homers on the afternoon.

The Bulldogs would come back against the Gamecocks though and take the final two games to earn a spot in Omaha. South Carolina got out to an early 4-0 lead in game two but the Bulldogs would score in the middle innings and defeat Carolina 11-5 to push the series to a final game three. Carolina held a 3-2 lead into the fifth inning before Georgia's bats got hot again clinching a spot in Omaha with a 11-6 victory.

1975 (51-6) - 2nd at College World Series

The foundation for South Carolina's first trip to the College World Series in 1975 was laid a year earlier when the Gamecocks earned their first invitation to the NCAA Tournament and narrowly missed a trip to Omaha.

It could be argued that the first bricks of that foundation were actually laid in 1970 when former New York Yankee second baseman Bobby Richardson was hired by athletics director Paul Dietzel with a mandate to put Gamecock baseball on the map.

975 CWS TEAM

Richardson was South Carolina's first full time baseball coach. Previously the diamond program was headed by part timers, usually an assistant football coach or physical education professor, or -- in the tenure of Bob Reising (1964-65) -- a professor of English literature.

The Gamecocks had never played an expanded schedule, 34 games in 1969 under football assistant Jack Powers being the most. That team finished with a 12-21-1 record the year before Richardson came on board.

The 21-8 mark accomplished under Powers in 1967 represented the record for wins in a season. To say baseball was a .500 program at best was borne out by statistics. Over 67 seasons, the Gamecocks had finished with 34 winning records against 33 losing seasons and 10 break even years.

Richardson started slowly, having never coached or managed a team before. However his illustrious 12year career with the Yankees, which included seven World Series appearances and a Most Valuable Player in the fall classic of 1960, had prepared him well. His first record of 14-20 would be South Carolina's last losing record over the next 30 years.

After an 18-12 finish in 1971, Richardson bumped the schedule up to 41 games in 1972 and finished 25-16. A 26-15-1 record followed in 1973 and the first NCAA bid came along in 1974 when the final record was 48-8. A 2-1 loss to Miami at Starkville, Miss. prevented a trip to Omaha.

The 1975 team featured a four-man pitching rotation of senior right-handers Earl Bass (17-1), Greg Ward (13-4), Raymond Lavigne (8-0) and junior lefthander Tim Lewis (11-0), a starting record of 49-5. The bullpen was used sparingly and contributed two wins and a loss to the final record of 51-6-1.

Bass, runner-up to Arizona State shortstop Jerry Maddox for national player of the year honors, was a first team All-America choice for the second time and senior first baseman Hank Small clubbed 19 home runs with a .390 batting average to also earn All-America honors. Lewis and Lavigne pitched back-to-back nohit wins as South Carolina lost only four and tied one of 49 regular season games.

That earned a host site for regional play and the Gamecocks swept past The Citadel, Temple and North Carolina State and moved on to Omaha, one of eight teams competing for the national championship.

Bass with relief help from seldom used closer Mike Cromer defeated Seton Hall 3-1 in the first round and Ward downed Eastern Michigan 5-1. Bass came back to defeat Arizona State 6-3 and after three rounds South Carolina was 3-0 and the only undefeated team.

Under a rule change adopted the following year, South Carolina would have earned a bye but under the procedure in force in 1975 there was a drawing and Arizona State won the bye. South Carolina played Texas. Ward had a rare bad game and the Longhorns drubbed the Gamecocks 17-6, leaving three teams in the double elimination field with one loss apiece.

Bass and Ward had each started twice in Omaha while Lewis (11-0) and Lavigne (8-0) had not been used despite their combined record of 19-0

Lewis got his chance, on his mother's birthday, against a well rested Arizona State team and he responded with a 4-1 complete game victory when the Gamecocks rallied from a 1-0 deficit with four runs in the top of the ninth inning against previously undefeated (14-0) Sun Devil ace Greg Cochran.

A scoreless game with two outs in the bottom of the eighth inning, Bob Pate singled and Jerry Maddox hit a bloop triple that landed a few inches fair in right field to give Arizona State a 1-0 lead.

Second baseman Mark Van Bever doubled to lead off the ninth and shortstop Jeff Grantz bunted the tying run to third. Right fielder Garry Hancock singled to drive in Van Bever. Small singled and Steve King walked to load the bases with one out. A fielder's choice RBI, two Sun Devil errors and a squeeze bunt plated three more runs and South Carolina led 4-1.

Lewis retired the side in the bottom of the ninth and South Carolina, in its first trip ever to the College World Series, met Texas for the national championship. That title eluded the Gamecocks, however, and the Longhorns prevailed 5-1. The only Gamecock run came on a home run by Hank Small.

Bass won his last six decisions in 1974 and first 17 in 1975 to establish a National record of 23 consecutive wins. He finished the season 17-1 and 34-3 for his career. The staff had an earned run average of 2.00 in 503 innings. Pitchers recorded 26 complete games and 13 shutouts.

1977 (43-12) - 2nd at College World Series

Two years after their first trip to the College World Series, the Gamcocks found themselves back in Omaha under a different head coach.

Bobby Richardson, who in seven seasons built the South Carolina program into a national power, resigned and June Raines was brought in to continue the sucess forged by Richardson. That included South Carolina's first three bids to the NCAA Tournament and first trip to Omaha.

For Raines, it was a return to the Gamecock Roost. Following a 10-year career as a catcher in the Cleveland Indians and Washington Senators minor league systems, Raines had served as a student assistant coach under Jack Powers and Richardson while earning bachelor and masters degrees.

Raines inherited a good nucleus from Richardson whose final team, 1976, had compiled a 38-14 record. Richardson's previous two teams were 48-8 in 1974 and 51-6-1 in 1975.

Raines added some outstanding talent in outfielder Mookie Wilson, catcher Johnny Long and right-handed pitcher Randy Martz from the Gamecock football squad to the returnees left by Richardson.

Through his first 20 games, Raines won 68 percent of the time, excellent under most criteria but somewhat short of Richardson's .828 percentage over his final three seasons. After winning 10 of his first 11 games, Raines saw his team lose five and tie one over the next nine. Arch rival Clemson, on the other hand, was unbeaten after 26 games with the best record in the nation.

South Carolina broke the Tigers' win streak with a 2-1 victory at Clemson behind Martz and the Gamecocks compiled a 30-6 record the remainder of the season for a final mark of 43-12-1. The late season surge included two more wins over Clemson for a sweep of the season series.

South Carolina was awarded its fourth consecutive regional site but quickly fell into the losers' bracket with a 7-6 loss to nationally second ranked South Alabama. Starter Randy Martz left the game with the lead but the bullpen couldn't hold it. Carolina would have to win four consecutive games over the next three days if it was to win the regional.

The uphill trek began with a 4-1 win over East Carolina behind a six-hit complete game by righthander Jim Lewis. The task ahead required two Sunday victories to force a showdown game on Monday.

Ed Lynch, from the Gamecock basketball team, drew the first assignment and stifled South Alabama. He scattered seven hits in an 11-2 rout. Sophomore right-hander Hal Hutchens caused some anxious moments when he allowed 12 hits and walked four but was tough with runners on base. With ninth inning relief help from Lewis, Hutchens came out with a 5-2 win over Wake Forest. With two days rest, Randy Martz got the call vs. the Demon Deacons. Although he allowed 10 hits, he struck out 12. Johnny Hinkel, Mark Van Bever and Mookie Wilson homered as the Gamecocks won 6-1 to clinch a spot in Omaha.

The opening game of the 1977 College World Series was a classic. With undefeated Randy Martz pitching for South Carolina, and Panamanian righthander Jaime Cocanower for Baylor, the score was tied 1-1 after nine innings with both starters still on the mound.

Martz retired the first two Baylor batters in the top of the 10th but three successive ground ball singles produced a run and the Bears took a 2-1 lead to the bottom of the 10th inning.

Van Bever lashed a double down the left field line and advanced to third when Wilson grounded out to deep shortstop. That brought up left fielder Chuck McLean who hit a line drive on the first pich that carried over Baylor center fielder Burl Coker's head.

Raines said later that he would have held McLean at third if he had been the third base coach. However, after nine innings, he had turned third base coaching duties over to assistant Johnny Hunton "to change over the luck" and Hunton waved McLean past third base. He slid home safely with an inside the park home run and a 3-2 Gamecock victory.

Lewis scattered eight hits and struck out 14 defeating Cal State-Los Angeles 6-2 and Martz came back on short rest to down Southern Illinois Carbondale 5-4 earning South Carolina a bye to the championship round as the only undefeated team.

A shoulder injury to power hitting first baseman Johnny Hinkel (15 home runs) left the Gamecocks a little short. Lynch pitched well in a complete game effort but lost 6-2 to Arizona State setting up another meeting with the Sun Devils. Lewis also pitched well but was on the short end of a 2-1 score and for the second time in two tries, South Carolina finished second in the College World Series.

Martz, with a 14-0 record, was named National Player of the Year, first team All-America and first round draft choice of the Chicago Cubs. He pitched four years in the major leagues. Wilson was second team All-America and played 1,403 major league games in 12 seasons with the Mets and Blue Jays. Lynch played eight years with the Mets and Cubs and became general manager of the Cubs. Lews made it to the big leagues for brief stints with the Mariners, Yankees and Twins.

1981 (46-15) - 4th at College World Series

After a three-year absence, South Carolina made its third trip to the College World Series in 1981. The Gamecocks finished second in 1975 and 1977 but didn't make the NCAA field in 1978 and '79. In 1980 they were invited but didn't make it out of the regional.

A 40-13 regular season record earend a host site for the 1981 regional. A win over Temple and two over Memphis State punched Carolina's ticket to Omaha where Oklahoma State was the opening round opponent. The only South Carolina player with World Series experience was fifth year senior third baseman Tommy "Termite" Williams, who was a freshman reserve second baseman on the 1977 squad.

In two previous trips to Omaha, Carolina had won its first three games but faced a different reality in 1981, falling into the loser's bracket. Oklahoma State scored three times in the first inning and twice in the third to lead 5-0. The Gamecocks battled back to tie the score at 5-5 with three runs in the top of the ninth but a three run home run by Stan Baughn won it for the Cowboys 8-5 in the 10th inning.

An elimination game against the Black Bears of Maine was postponed 24 hours by rain, and another rain delay with Carolina trailing 5-2 in the third inning didn't do a lot for confidence as the Gamecocks committed five errors. Don Gordon was charged with seven unearned runs and trailed 7-6 when Joe Kucharski came in for relief.

The sophomore handcuffed Maine on two singles over the final 4.1 innings. Carolina offset bad defense with a 17-hit attack that included two monstrous two-run home runs by Rob Lowery to win 12-7. At that time, Lowery was the sixth player to homer twice in a World Series game but the first in 25 years.

Jim Curl also had a two-run homer and Paul Hollins contributed three hits.

In an effort to shore up the defense before taking on Mississippi State, head coach June Raines moved Tommy Williams from third to second base where Jamey Thaw had committed two of the five errors against Maine. Williams had played second most of his career before moving to third as a senior.

South Carolina jumped out to a 6-0 lead after three innings and held on to edge Mississippi State 6-5 by surviving three serious late inning Bulldog threats. Freshman designated hitter/backup catcher Chris Boyle homered and Lowery hit his third of the series.

Mississippi State cut the lead to 6-5 with three runs in the seventh inning and had the bases loaded when Bobby Kish was summoned from the bullpen with one out and Bruce Castoria at the plate. Earlier, Castoria had tied the NCAA record with his 29th home run for Mississippi State's first two runs.

Kish struck Castoria out on three pitches and then retired Terry Loe on a pop up to Williams to escape further damage. Tony Gage led off the Mississippi State eighth with a triple but Kish retired Brad Winkler on a pop to Curl at first base. Sensing a suicide squeeze, Lowery called for a pitchout and Gage was an easy out to blunt that threat.

Raines said, "I wish I could take credit for calling a pitch out but I can't. Thank goodness my catcher is smart enough to call for a pitchout in that situation."

Mississippi State continued to threaten, putting two men on base with two outs in the ninth inning. A wild pitch advanced the tying run to third and the potential winning run to second with slugger Castoria coming up.

Raines signaled for an intentional walk but Kish demurred. He contended he could strike the Bulldog slugger out again. After a conference on the mound, the head coach prevailed and the bases were loaded. Terry Lee hit a ground ball to shortstop Rod Carraway, who flipped to second baseman Williams to force Castoria and end the game.

Left-hander Bret Baynham, South Carolina's starting pitcher, was the winner to improve his record to 10-1. Kish earned his seventh save.

Luck and pitching depth ran out and Carolina lost a slugfest, 10-7, to Arizona State, to finish fourth in the 1981 College World Series. Carolina gave up four runs in the first inning and never caught up. The Gamecocks had 11 hits, three of them by Curl, who hit his 17th home run.

For the first time, South Carolina had two .400 hitters. Lowery batted .404 and Pual Hollins an even .400. Curl hit .347 with 75 runs batted in. Left fielder Joe McCarthy hit only .266 but sole 51 bases and walked 71 times. Hollins had 14 home runs, Lowery 13 and Boyle had 10. Dennis Lubert had a 12-2 record, Don Gordon 8-3 and Kucharski 6-1 along with 10-1 by Baynham.

The final record was 46-15. The team batting average was .316 with 83 home runs. Lubert pitched 10 complete games, Gordon eight, Baynham three and Kucharski two.

Arizona State defeated Oklahoma State in the champipnship game to win its fifth College World Series championship.

CAROLINA SEBA

1982 (45-13) - 7th at College World Series

The 24 players who earned letters on the 1982 South Carolina baseball squad were a near equal split of 11 veterans from the 1981 roster that advanced to fourth place in the College World Series and 13 newcomers, nine freshmen and four junior college recruits.

The pitching rotation, however, was all veteran consisting of senior left-hander Dennis Lubert, senior Don Gordon, junior Joe Kucharski and sophomore Mark Calvert. Closer Jeb Babel, with prehaps the best pick-off move any Gamecock ever, was also back. Pitching depth was enhanced by the addition of freshman right-hander Larry Price and junior college left-hander Mike Werner.

Chris Boyle, primarily a designated hitter as a freshman, took over the catching role backed up by Neil Fox, a sophomore who also saw action at DH. Four freshmen figured prominently in the lineup, outfielders Scott Mackie, and Phillip Wilson, shortstop Kent Anderson and first baseman Greg Morhardt. Wilson was the brother of former Gamecock star Mookie Wilson, who had a 12-year major league career Offensive power was down considerably from the previous year. Junior college newcomer Larry Hernandez was the batting champion with a .347 average while the 1981 Gamecocks boasted two .400 hitters in catcher Rob Lowery and outfielder Paul Hollins. Boyle led the 1982 team in home runs with 12 and runs batted in with 59. Hernandez had 10 homers, Anderson eight, Wilson five.

The year before, Jim Curl had 17 homers and 75 RBI. Three others had double digit homers, including freshman Boyle with 10.

The pitching staff earned run average of 3.28, however, was considerably better than the year before and the final won-loss record was about the same, 45-13 in 1982 compared to 46-15 in 1981.

The 1982 squad hosted a six-team regional and swept through four wins to send Carolina to Omaha for the fourth time but the first time the Gamecocks had qualified in back to back seasons. Others in the regional field included West Virginia, making its first trip to the playoffs since 1967, The Citadel, Old Dominion, North Carolina and East Carolina.

Kucharski opened the regional by shutting out West Virginia 7-0 with ninth inning help from closer Babel. Boyle and Fox each had two hits and Boyle homered. The losing Mountaineers turned a triple play.

Carolina led 6-2 over The Citadel after three and a half innings the next day when rain suspended action overnight. Gordon, who had started, returned to the mound and worked into the eighth inning before giving way to Babel. The Gamecocks held on for a 6-4 win. Morhardt had four hits and five foot six inch senior outfielder Robby Vollmer homered.

In a rematch with The Citadel, the Gamecocks won 11-2 behind Lubert. Vollmer had four hits, third baseman John Sullivan had a pair of doubles and Wilson homered.

West Virginia held Carolina to four hits the second time around but the Gamecocks prevailed 5-2 behind a brilliant mound effot by Calvert, who scattered four hits through seven innings before turning the mound over to Babel. Sullivan figured in both Gamecock runs, driving in one with a single and scoring the other on a wild pitch. Jamey Thaw had two hits to account for half the Carolina total.

The 45-11 record entering the World Series would have been even more sensational if the Gamecocks hadn't played Miami (Fla.) eight times. Carolina lost four in a row at Coral Gables and three of four in Columbia. It was small consolation that Miami would end the season as College World Series champions.

Pitching, which had fashioned eight shutouts during the regular season fell apart in Omaha, giving up 25 runs in two games. For the first time in four trips, Carolina left Omaha without a win.

Stanford blasted the Gamecocks 15-4 with an 11-run sixth inning. Oklahoma State led 8-0 after three innings. Carolina rallied with a seven-run fifth on a grand slam by Sullivan and a two-run homer by Morhardt but the Gamecocks were eliminated from Omaha 10-8.

Kucharski pitched 112 innings with an 11-3 record and was a first team selection to the coaches All-America team. He was the first round draft selection of the Baltimore Orioles. Lubert was 8-3 as a senior and finished with a 31-9 career record. Gordon's 1982 record was 10-3. He made it to the majors, pitching in 78 games with the Toronto Blue Jays and Cleveland Indians 1986-88.

The other member of the 1982 team to advance to the majors was shortstop Kent Anderson. A freshman in '82, he played two more years at Carolina and in 1989 and '90 saw action in 135 games with the California Angels.

Calvert's record was 8-1 and his 2.78 earned run average in 68 innings led the team. Babel had a 3-0 record and Werner was 3-2. Hernandez, Sullivan, Morhardt, Boyle and Wilson had .300 or better batting averages and Vollmer led stolen bases with 23.

To say 1985 was a record-breaking year for South Carolina would be an understatement. The Gamecocks played more games, hit more home runs, scored more runs, turned more double plays and established a host of other records on the way to their fifth trip to the College World Series.

1985 (47-22) -

After a two-year absence, South Carolina was back in Omaha for the fifth time in 12 years but the stay was short. A 14-inning 1-0 loss to Arkansas and a 16-11 slugfest defeat at the hands of Oklahoma State eliminated the Gamecocks.

The season record was 47-22. The 47 wins were the third most in school history up to that point. The 1975 CWS second place team won 51 and the 1974 team won 48. A modest nine games was the longest win streak in 1985 but the team never lost more than three in a row.

Perhaps the most impressive record was 144 home runs in 69 games. That surpassed by 61 the 83 homers in 1981. The old mark for home runs in a game was six. The 1985 Gamecocks hit nine in a 29-3 win over Cincinnati that was called after six innings due to the lopsided score.

NA

First baseman Joe Datin hit 23 home runs, four more than the previous individual record for a season set by Hank Small in 1975. Nineteen different players homered and seven of them hit 10 or more.

Outfielder Keith Killian, who came back from serious injuries in an automobile accident shortly after graduating from high school, started as a senior and homered 15 times. Outfielder Rob Rinehart and designated hitter/outfielder Charlie Aldrich had 14 each, third baseman Lewis Jenkins 12, shortstop Jeff Barns and outfielder Jeff Morris 10 each.

Two players tied a record with three home runs in a game. Dave Hollins against Cincinnati and Rinehart against Clemson. Only one player, Chris Boyle, in 1983, had homered three times before. There have been a number of three-homer games since.

South Carolina players hit six grand slam home runs in 1985. Datin homered with the bases loaded twice. Aldrich, Hollins, Morris and Killian once each. Datin set a school record by driving in 88 runs. Rinehard drove in 60 and Killian 53. Three others logged 40 or more RBL Rinehart's 21 doubles bested the previous record by one. Rinehard would have had 22 two baggers but was called out once for not touching second base. The 149 doubles established a team record.

The defense for the most part was overshadowed by the heavy hitting offense but the Gamecocks turned a school record 68 double plays sparked by the middle infield combo of transfers, Barns at shortstop and Riley Polk at second. Barns transferred from Baptist College (now Charleston Southern University) and Polk spent two years at Clemson.

Barns became the first Gamecock to have 100 hits in a season and batted .351 in 285 at-bats.

Mike Cook was the only pitcher with double digit wins but his 16-2 record represented the second most victories in a season behind Earl Bass' 17-1 record in 1975. Cook also tied the mark with 19 starts and the strikeout record with 168 in 141 innings. Glenn Jenkins had an 8-2 record and left-hander Brian Currie was 6-2. His only loss after April was to Oklahoma State at the College World Series.

Altogether the 1985 Gamecocks established 34 team records and 19 individual marks.

BASEBALL

7th at College World Series

Catcher Jeff Churchich experienced the thrill of playing in the College World Series in his hometown of Omaha. He shared time behind the plate with Scott Lambert, who threw out 14 base runners attempting to steal, three of them in World Series games. Both also saw time as the designated hitter. Lambert batted .292 with seven homers. Churchich hit .294 and also had seven home runs.

Eddie Lendenski, a pinch hitting specialist, had five homers and a .274 average. Lendenski's most dramatic hit was a two-out ninth inning two-run homer that defeated Virginia Tech.

While the 1985 Gamecock lost both of their World Series decisions, the 1-0 loss to Arkansas was one of the greatest games in Rosenblatt Stadium history. The Razorbacks pushed across a run with two outs in the bottom of the 14th inning to end the second longest CWS game ever.

Cook started against Arkansas and pitched seven scoreless innings. Senior right-hander Bo Taylor, the sixth Carolina pitcher, worked the 14th inning, and was charged with the loss.

To earn the bid to the NCAA Tournament, South Carolina swept a six-game series with in-state rival Clemson, beat Metro Conference rival Virginia Tech five out of seven meetings and took two of three from Big Ten member Ohio State and frequent College World Series qualifier Maine.

Cook was a first team selection on the All-America teams selected by the coaches and by Baseball America. He was the first round draft selection by the California Angels and appeared in 41 major league games, 1986-93. Hollins, a freshman in 1985, was the other player from the '85 team to make it to the majors. In 12 years, 1990-2002, he played in 983 games and reached the MLB World Series in 1993 with the Philadelphia Phillies.

CAROLINA SEBA B

2002 (57-18) - 2nd at College World Series

South Carolina head coach Ray Tanner vowed he would never attend the College World Series until he took a team there. He and the Gamecocks made it to Omaha in 2002 for his first trip and the sixth Carolina trip to the CWS.

It began in February with a nine-game win streak and ended in late June before 24,089 fans on college baseball's biggest stage, the national championship game in Johnny Rosenblatt Stadium.

It had been 17 years since South Carolina had made it to the World Series and success came after two disappointments. South Carolina won regional tournaments in 2000 and 2001 but 3-2 one-run deciding game super regional losses to Louisiana-Lafayette and Stanford denied a trip to Nebraska.

Just a few of the highlights of 2002 included a school record 75 games, a record 57 victories, a Southeastern Conference championship, a third consecutive regional title, a super regional championship and a battle through the loser's bracket to the national championship game.

It might be said the Gamecocks did it the hard way. They trailed defending national champion Miam in the deciding super regional game before rallying for five ninth inning runs to win 6-4.

After being shut out 11-0 by Georgia Tech in the opening game of the World Series, the Gamecocks defeated home state favorite Nebraska, Georgia Tech in a rematch and Palmetto State rival Clemson twice to advance to center stage against Texas.

Along the way the Gamecocks broke or tied more than 50 team and individual records.

The Southeastern Conference championship was the second in three years for Carolina, which won nine of 10 conference series in compiling a 21-8 SEC record. The only series loss was to Arkansas and Carolina avenged that by defeating the Razorbacks twice in the Southeastern Conference tournament.

The season produced three All-America players, the SEC Player of the Year, four all-conference selections, three SEC all-tournament choices, five members of the all-regional team and the Scholar Athlete of the Year in the Southeastern Conference.

Senior Blake Taylor, who led the nation with 21 saves, first baseman Yaron Peters, who hit 29 home runs and drove in 95, were first team All-America and shortstop Drew Meyer made second team.

Peters batted .377 and was SEC Player of the Year. Peters, Taylor, Meyer and designated hitter Trey Dyson were named to the All-SEC team. Dyson won the H. Boyd McWhorter Award as the top male student-athlete in the SEC with a 3.74 grade point average in Business Administration.

The only pitcher with double digit wins was lefthander Gary Bell (10-3). Left-hander David Marchbanks was 9-4 and three others won seven games. Five regulars batted better than .300 and the team hit 122 home runs and 178 doubles.

In the regional, Carolina defeated Virginia Commonwealth and North Carolina twice with one loss to the Tar Heels, to advance to the super regional against defending champion Miami. Carolina won the first game 10-7, led by third baseman Brian Buscher's four hits that included his 14th home run. The Gamecocks lost the second game 5-2 to set up the dramatic ninth inning rally in the showdown game.

Miami was the home team and led 4-1 after eight innings but Peters doubled and Buscher singled to open the ninth. Pinch hitter Dyson doubled to score Peters with Buscher also scoring on the play off a Miami error and beating out a throw at home plate. Pinch hitter Garris Gonce doubled to tie the score with a bunt, wild pitch and passed ball scoring the final two runs. Carolina held off a Miami threat in the bottom of the ninth for a 6-4 victory.

A media poll nominated Carolina as most likely to be the first team eliminated in Omaha and it looked that way when sophomore Kyle Bakker shut the Gamecocks out 11-0 on six hits while Georgia Tech pounded five Gamecock pitchers for 19 hits.

Carolina had to face home state favorite Nebraska in the first elimination game. The Gamecocks trailed 4-0 after three innings but scored five runs in the fourth. The game went into the ninth inning tied 8-8. Meyer walked and Peters hit his 29th home run. Carolina prevailed 10-8 but faced a rematch with Georgia Tech. Freshman Aaron Rawl gave up 14 hits but pitched a complete game in a 9-5 win. Justin Harris and Steve Thomas homered for the Gamecocks.

Clemson won three of four regular season games with Carolina and the Tigers were 2-0 in the World Series when the Palmetto State entries squared off. Carolina ripped four Clemson pitchers for 15 hits including two home runs by Dyson and one each by Thomas and Landon Powell. Carolina won 12-4. Freshman left-hander Matt Campbell was the winner with 5.1 innings of two-hit shutout relief.

The Gamecocks faced Clemson again and Steven Bondurant pitched a complete game to eliminate the Tigers 10-2. Carolina had 13 hits, three by Kevin Melillo and Powell drove in three runs.

Texas advanced undefeated through three games with Carolina playing five to reach the finals. Carolina managed 10 hits but the pitching staff couldn't contain the Longhorn bats in a 12-6 loss for the title.

2003 (45-22) - 5th at College World Series

The 2003 Gamecocks got off to a slow start in the Southeastern Conference race but swept their final nine conference games to win the Eastern Division for the fourth time in five years. Carolina advanced to the College World Series with five straight NCAA regional and super regional victories.

South Carolina advanced to the World Series for the second consecutive year and sevenh time dating back to 1975. Prospects appeared dim after a 1-5 start in conference play but Carolina rallied to a 7-8 mark halfway through the conference season and went 12-3 the second half for a final SEC record of 19-11.

Carolina received its 19th bid to the NCAA Tournament but the Gamecocks didn't land a regional host site. Instead, the Gamecocks were shipped to Atlanta as the second seed to host Georgia Tech. Others in the four-team regional field were East Carolina and Stetson. Carolina had won eight of nine regionals played at Sarge Frye Field but in nine tries had never won a regional played away from home.

Atlanta in 2003 was destined to be a first. It began with a 4-0 shutout of East Carolina behind a fivehit complete game by right-hander Chris Hernandez. Stetson upset tournament favorite Georgia Tech.

A second consecutive complete game, this one by All-America left-hander David Marchbanks, produced a 7-2 win over Stetson. With one win left to clinch, left-hander Steven Bondurant pitched seven strong innings and Aaron Rawl contributed two hitless innings in a 9-3 win that sent Carolina to the super regional. Since number one seed Georgia Tech was eliminated in two games, South Carolina was awarded the host site for the super regional.

The North Carolina Tar Heels were the opponent in a rematch from 2002 when South Carolina went to Omaha by winning two of three over North Carolina. This time it was a Gamecock sweep, dispatching the Tar Heels 5-4 and 14-4.

The road to Omaha was paved by a host of heroes. Catcher Landon Powell homered four times in the regional and super regional with 10 runs batted in. He had 11 hits in 20 at bats. Third baseman Brian Buscher homered twice and drove in seven runs. Shortstop Justin Harris had 11 hits. Freshman right fielder Steven Tolleson batted .400, first baseman Bryan Triplett .391, second baseman Kevin Melillo .368, freshman left fielder Michael Campbell .333 and designated hitter Nick Gardiner .308 during the surge.

The Gamecocks managed one win in Omaha. After only two hits and being shut out by Stanford 8-0, Carolina remained alive by outscoring fellow Southeastern Conference member LSU 11-10 in an elimination game. The dream of a national championship ended with a second loss to Stanford, 13-6, who advanced to the finals but lost the title to Rice.

In the win over LSU, Carolina stormed ahead 6-0 before falling behind to the Tigers in the middle innings by scoring three times in the bottom of the eighth inning to eliminate the Bayou Bengals. LSU bunched all of its runs in the second, third, fourth and fifth innings before sophomore left-hander Matt Campbell silenced the Tiger bats. He allowed two hits in 5.1 innings. It was Campbell's second College World Series win. He had defeated Clemson in Omaha as a freshman.

A single by Buscher and an error scored two runs to tie the score in the eighth inning before Powell drove in the go ahead run with a double. Harris and Melillo had solo home runs.

Stanford's 17-hit attack in the second meeting sent the Gamecocks home. Buscher, Triplett and Tolleson homered in a losing cause.

Buscher won the Southeastern Conference batting title with a .393 average and was third team All-America. Marchbanks, with a 15-3 record and a 2.73 earned run average in 135.1 innings, was Southeastern Conference Pitcher of the Year and a first team All-America.

Marchbanks became the first South Carolina pitcher in 29 years to win two games in the same day when he defeated Mississippi State with three relief innings of a rain suspended game from the previous day and then worked 7.2 innings to down the Bulldogs 2-1. Matt Campbell was named SEC Pitcher of the Week three times and was selected to the USA Baseball National team coached by Ray Tanner.

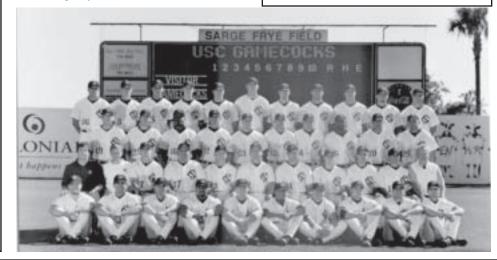

Harris had a 17-game hitting streak. Buscher began the season with a 14-game streak and had another streak of 13 games. The team batting average was .306 and the .973 fielding average was just two percentage points below the school record of .975.

Melillo set a second base record when he had nine assists in an 8-5 win over LSU at Baton Rouge.

2003 also marked the year of the "Dirty Dozen," as first coined by local Columbia writer Ron Morris. With the season in the balance, 12 returning players from the previous season brought the entire team together for a team "bonfire". Surrounding a metal barrel at Sarge Frye Field, the Gamecocks started a fire with each player tossing a personal item of theirs, sacrificing for a showing of a team unity. ### 2004 (53--17) - 3rd at College World Series

South Carolina opened the 2004 season with an 18-game win streak, struggled in the first half of the Southeastern Conference schedule, rallied to sweep its first SEC Tournament championship, the NCAA regional and super regional and earned a third consecutive trip to the College World Series.

The Gamecocks took a 10-game win streak to Omaha but for the third year in a row had to battle after a first-game loss. After being shut out 2-0 by eentual national champion Cal State Fullerton, the Gamecocks pounded fellow SEC member LSU 15-4 and Miami (Fla.) 15-11 and defeated Cal State Fullerton 5-3, the only team to claim a win over Fullerton in the 2004 World Series.

Fullerton won the third and rubber game meeting 4-0 to end the Gamecock season with a 53-17 final record and third place in the CWS.

The 18-game streak was the second longest in school history. While Carolina had won the SEC championship in 2000 and 2002, the Gamecocks had never won the conference tournament. A 7-6 10-inning win over Ole Miss, a 5-1 decision over Tennessee and a 3-2 win over Vanderbilt resulted in a tournament sweep.

Ole Miss scored six runs in the eighth inning and Carolina trailed 6-2 when the Rebels brough ace lefthander Stephen Head in from the bullpen. During the regular season, Head pitched a six-hit complete game 6-1 win over the Gamecocks.

Kevin Melillo started the ninth with a hit but Steve Pearce struck out. Michael Campbell walked but Head then struck out Steven Reinhold. Pinch hitter Hank Parks drove in a run with a single. Then came the dramatics for Carolina as Steven Tolleson hit a three-run homer off the left field foul pole to send the game into extra innings. Carolina won it in the 10th inning when Brendan Winn and Melillo singled and Pearce drove in Winn with a double.

and Davy Gregg erased a 2-1 Vanderbilt lead and Carolina won 3-2 behind right-hander Zac McCamie to win its first SEC tournament title.

The Gamecocks came home to host the regional with North Carolina, Coastal Carolina and The Citadel also in the field. It was North Carolina's third consecutive post-season trip to Sarge Frye Field.

Carolina used home runs by Steve Pearce, Ryan Mahoney and Mark Stanley, each of which had three RBI, to down The Citadel 12-4. Stanley was in the game because center fielder Davy Gregg had been hit in the head by a pitch and Stanley wound up on the all-tournament team.

Carolina downed North Carolina 5-2 then and would face the Tar Heels again after they eliminated The Citadel. Melillo homered and Steve Pearce had three hits and two RBI as South Carolina moved on to the super regional with a 7-6 win.

Carolina advanced to the super regional for the fifth consecutive year and hosted the final stop before Omaha. East Carolina brought a gaudy 51-11 record to Columbia. Both games in the super regional ere close but South Carolina prevailed and qualified for the World Series for the third consecutive year.

Matt Campbell and Jason Fletcher shut the Pirates out unit the eighth inningwhen Fletcher allowed two runs. USC brought Chad Blackwell in to close the game out as he earned his 18th save. Carolina won 4-2 by bunching single runs in the fourth and fifth innings and two runs in the sixth. Michael Campbell was the only Gamecock with two hits and Pearce hit a solo home run.

McCamie improved his record to 7-0 with a relief win in the second game won by the Gamecocks 5-3. Blackwell earned his 19th save and the key hit was an eighth inning double by Tolleson.

The lineup in the World Series almost looked like the Southeastern Conference tournament revisited. Four of the eight teams came from the nation's premier college baseball conference. LSU joined Carolina in its bracket along with Miami (Fla.) and Cal State Fullerton. Georgia and Arkansas were in the other bracket with Arizona and Texas.

Carolina only managed three hits in a 2-0 shutout loss to Cal State Fullerton but came back to eliminate LSU for the second year in a row. A six-run sixth inning featured a 19-hit Gamecock attack. LSU had 16 hits. The only extra base hit among the 35 by both teams was a ninth inning double by Tolleson. Melillo and Pearce had four singles apiece.

Carolina came out swinging against Miami and led 12-0 after four innings but had to fend off a fierce Hurricane rally to win 15-11. Billy Buckner scattered seven hits over seven innings and led 15-4 to improve his record 7-2. Everyone in the Gamecock batting order had at least one hit.

In the 5-3 win over Fulleron, USC had 12 hits, three by Triplett, who homered and drove in three runs. Fletcher pitched six innings to finish his season with a 6-1 record. Blackwell pitched three perfect innings to earn his 30th save.

Fullerton shut the Gamecocks out for the second time to advance at the series. Carolina managed eight hits, three by Pearce, but couldn't get on the scoreboard.

SOUTH CAROLINA BASEBALL A WINNING TRADITION

The University of South Carolina

The South Carolina baseball program has made six apperances in the NCAA Super Regionals over the past seven seasons, making the Gamecocks one of only three teams in the nation to achieve that feat since the 2000 campaign. In that span, Carolina has reached the College World Series three times (2002, 2003, 2004), won two SEC championships (2000, 2002) as well as an SEC Tournament title (2004). Carolina's seven consecutive years reaching the NCAA Regionals is also the longest current streak among all 12 SEC schools. Over the past seven years, the Gamecocks own a 342-135 record; the fourth highest win total in Division I Baseball as well as an SEC-best 130-79 record in conference match-ups.

SOUTH CAROLINA BASEBALL MLB FIRST ROUND DRAFT SELECTIONS

South Carolina has had five MLB first round draft selections since 1998. The Gamecocks have also had 56 players sign professional baseball contracts since head coach Ray Tanner began coaching at Carolina in the 1997 season.

This past year, the Gamecocks had 23 players with Major League Baseball franchises. Adam Everett, Drew Meyer and Brian Roberts all played in the 2006 MLB season. In addition, former Gamecocks, Brian Buscher and Jon Coutlangus were part of 40-man rosters.

Adam Everett 1998 1st Round Starting SS Houston Astros

Brian Roberts 1999 1st Round Starting 2B Baltimore Orioles

Drew Meyer 2002 1st Round Big League Debut 2006

Landon Powell 2004 1st Round

Scholarships and Research Productivity

The University of South Carolina

With every new class, USC's student body grows in academic excellence. This year's freshman class promises to be the most talented academically in the history of the university. And they're joining an impressive group of students. Last year, University students won 41 national awards, earning more than 1.3 million for advanced academic study. Winners included a Truman Scholar and Truman Scholar Finalist, four Fulbright Fellows, a Udall Scholar, three National Science Foundation Research Fellows, a U.S. Department of Homeland Security Scholar, two Goldwater Scholars and a Honorable Mention, a Knowles Science Teaching Fellow, a National Physical Science Consortium Scholar, five Rotary International Scholars, three National Security Education Program Scholars, eight Gilman Scholars, a Freeman-Asia Scholar, a NOAA Hollings Scholar and three Tau Beta Pi Scholars among others.

Carolina has received the Carnegie Foundations highest designation for its superior research activity and is the only university in the state to be designated for very high research activity. As Carolina builds its research campus, faculty are garnering prestigious grants to conduct research in areas that have real world applications for our state and our nation. Most recently, USC signed agreements with two leading research institutes in Korea and in Germany to share research and faculty in an area of immense importance to the world – next energy, specifically hydrogen fuel cells and other alternative energy sources. USC researchers also are directing their efforts toward the environment, biomedical sciences, and nanotechnology.

Selected Program Rankings

The University of South Carolina's capstone program for seniors and the undergraduate international business program at the Moore School of Business are among the nation's best, according to the 2006 "American's Best Colleges Guide," published by U.S. News and World Report. USC's Moore School of Business is raked No. 1 for undergraduate international business education—a ranking that USC has held since 1995. USC's programs in library and media and health librarianship captured the No. 2 and No.8 spot in their respective ratings categories. USC's programs for first-year and senior students are cited among the nation's best by the magazine in its "Programs to Look For" section, which list colleges and universities with outstanding programs that lead to student success.

USC's successful University 101 program began in 1972 to introduce firs-year students to life at Carolina and increase retention. This year's listing of top first-year programs places USC among the successful programs.

Dr. Andrew A. Sorensen

Andrew A. Sorensen came to USC after serving as president of the University of Alabama (1996-2002) and provost and vice president for academic affairs at the University of Florida (1990-1996). Dr. Sorensen also has been executive director of the AIDS Institute at the Johns Hopkins Medical Institutions and director of the School of Public Health at the University of Massachusetts at Amherst. He was a faculty member at Lincoln University, the University of Rochester, and Cornell University, and has been visiting faculty member at the Harvard University School of Medicine and the University of Cambridge School of Medicine.

Author or editor of seven books and more than 138 articles, he is professor of epidemiology and biostatistics in USC's Arnold School of Public Health. He holds a bachelor's degree in ethics and mater's and doctoral degrees in medical sociology from Yale University. He also earned a B.A. in history from the University of Illinois and a master of public health from the University of Michigan.

Currently, he is president of the Southeastern Conference, past president of the Southern University Conference, past chair of the Southern Universities Research Association Council of Presidents, and a trustee of the Universities Research Association. He was a member of the Education Advisory Committee for President Bush's Transition Team during 2000-2001, and was appointed in 2005 to the NIH National Science Advisory Board for Biosecurity. He is active in community affairs, serving as Honorary Chairman of the Board of Big Brothers/Big Sisters.

University of South Carolina Athletics Director Eric Hyman

Former National Athletics Director of the Year Eric Hyman is in his second year as the Director of Athletics at the University of South Carolina. Hyman officially began his duties at Carolina on July 1, 2005.

During the 2005-06 academic year, Carolina was one of only 11 schools in the country and the only school in the Southeastern Conference to have its football team participate in a bowl game, have both its men's and women's basketball programs compete in post-season tournaments and have its baseball squad reach regional play. In addition, the women's outdoor track & field team finished third in the country while crowning a pair of individual national champions and the equestrian hunt seat squad claimed a national title. Men's soccer earned a conference title while both men's and women's golf and tennis teams advanced to post-season action.

Hyman came to South Carolina from Texas Christian University in Fort Worth, Texas, where he served as the athletics director for over seven years. At TCU, Hyman worked to solidify a national reputation as an architect of championship programs, as an advocate for academic success and as a skilled administrator. For his success, Hyman was named the 2003-2004 Street and Smith's Business Journal National Athletics Director of the Year and was also chosen as the Division I-A West Regional Athletics Director of the Year by the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA). In his final year at TCU, the university produced three conference championships, seven second-place finishes and the C-USA Male and Female Athlete of the Year.

Under his leadership, TCU teams recorded 32 conference titles and consistently posted a graduation percentage rate higher than that of the overall TCU student body. Hyman was instrumental in orchestrating TCU's invitation to join Conference USA in July 2001 and spearheaded the effort for TCU to join the Mountain West Conference in July 2005, moving the program from the Western Athletic Conference it was in when Hyman arrived.

In the 2000-2001 school year, TCU teams turned in the best athletics record in school history when the Horned Frogs registered a school record eight WAC championships and had seven teams nationally ranked. TCU was one of only four schools to record 10 victories in football and 20 wins in both men's and women's basketball, while setting a school record for football season tickets sold.

TCU turned in the most successful overall season of any Conference USA member in 2001-02. The Horned Frogs' debut campaign in the league featured nine NCAA appearances, five tournament championships and one regular season title. In 2003-04, TCU captured four Conference USA crowns along with nine second-place finishes. The conference titles in women's swimming and women's indoor track & field were the first in school history for those programs, while the baseball team reached the NCAA Tournament for just the third time ever. In addition, the football team was ranked as high as sixth in the BCS polls during the season.

During Hyman's tenure, the football team went to six bowl games in seven seasons, the women's basketball team went to five straight NCAA Tournaments and the baseball team earned back-to-back regional appearances for the first time in school history.

As TCU's Athletics Director, Hyman worked diligently to improve athletic facilities. He directed a three-phase building plan that included the construction of a soccer stadium, a track complex and football practice fields during the first phase, renovations to the coliseum and the construction of an athletics center housing the football offices and meeting rooms, an academic center, athletic administration offices and an athletics heritage area in the second phase, and the construction of a baseball stadium, basketball practice complex, tennis offices and locker room building, an all-weather football practice field and a volleyball gymnasium in the final phase.

Before joining TCU, Hyman was the athletics director at Miami University in Oxford, Ohio. During his tenure, Miami had the fifth-highest student-athlete graduation rate among all NCAA Division I schools in the country. His last two years at Miami brought home 10 conference championships. Hyman also served as athletics director at VMI in Lexington, Virginia, in the 1980s.

No stranger to the Carolinas, Hyman coached football for nine years under Art Baker and Dick Sheridan, and was an associate athletics director for two years at Furman University, where he earned a master's degree in educational administration (1975). He and his wife, Pauline, coached the women's basketball team at North Greenville College in Tigerville, S.C., leading the team to national rankings in the '70s.

Hyman played football at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill where he was an all-ACC football player, on the Dean's list and selected for the Hula Bowl. He also served as the Executive Associate Athletics Director at North Carolina State University in Raleigh in the early 1990s.

His wife, Pauline, is a native of North Carolina and also graduated from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. Prior to her arrival at UNC, she played and later coached women's college basketball, taught sociology and psychology as well as serving as a college administrator. Pauline developed and taught the NCAA CHAMPS Life Skills course and various seminars for student-athletes at both Miami University and TCU. This past year she taught the Etiquette Seminar as part of South Carolina's Life Skills course and will lead other seminars to help prepare the student-athletes for their futures after Carolina athletics.

The Hymans have two adult children: Ryan, who graduated from TCU in 2001 and Corrine, a 2004 graduate of TCU. Ryan works for L.T. Barton Insurance Company in Fort Worth and Corrine is a realtor with Williams Trew Real Estate in Fort Worth.

Bearden received his Ph.D. from the University of South Carolina in 1975. Before returning to South Carolina, he served on the faculties of Western Kentucky and the University of Alabama from 1976-1978.

Dr. Bearden is currently on the editorial review boards of the Journal of Consumer Research, the Journal of Consumer Psychology, the Journal of Retailing and the Marketing Education Review. He served for six years on the Board of Directors for the American Marketing Association. He has been President of the Academic Division of the American Marketing Association and President of the Southern Marketing Association. Dr. Bearden received the University of South Carolina Amoco Teaching Award and the USC Mungo Award for Teaching Excellence that are presented annually to one faculty member and, as well as the Outstanding MBA Teacher Award, and twice has been awarded the Alfred G. Smith Darla Moore School of Business Teacher of the Year Award. He has been recognized as a faculty initiate in Mortar Board, ODK and Golden Key, and received the 2004 University of South Carolina Educational Foundation Research Award for Professional Schools and the 2005 USC Trustee Professorship Award.

His teaching and research interests include consumer behavior, marketing research, and the evaluation of marketing promotions. He was faculty codirector for the University Lilly Teaching Fellows from 1992-1995.

CHAMPS/LIFE SKILLS

USC was selected to begin a CHAMPS/Life Skills Program by the NCAA in 2000. CHAMPS is an acronym meaning CHallenging Athletes' Minds for Personal Success. The Life Skills program addresses committment to five areas: Academic Excellence, Athletic Excellence, Personal Development, Career Development and Service.

ETIQUETTE SEMINARS: "MANNERS MATTER"

The Etiquette Seminar prepares student-athletes for internships and job hunting by emphasizing table manners and other etiquette appropriate for interview situations in an interactive, formal dinner setting.

GAMECOCK ATHLETICS CAREER NETWORK

The Gamecock Athletics Career Network has resources available for identifying practicum and internship experiences. Other programs include: mentoring, assistance with resume development and job interviewing skills, networking seminars and collaborations with the University Career Center.

UNIVERSITY 101

Each freshman student-athlete enrolls in University 101, an internationally renowned seminar course dedicated to helping new students succeed, during their first semester.

THE STUDENT-ATHLETE ADVISORY COMMITTEE

USC has a Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC) made up of student-athlete representatives from each sport team within the Athletics Department. SAAC has been active in promoting department-wide community service projects and student-athlete camaraderie, and is a means for student-athletes to communicate with administration about issues that affect student-athletes.

ALL-SPORTS BANQUET

The Athletics Department gives special recognition to all studentathletes each spring at the All-Sports Banquet by honoring athletic and academic accomplishments of student-athletes and teams.

Home of the Gamecocks

The athletics department's community service program, "Team Gamecocks," represents a continuing commitment by Gamecock student-athletes, coaches and staff to respond with both time and effort to the needs of their local communities.

Alumni and fans hold a deep love for the Gamecocks. You won't find more passionate and loyal fans any place in the country.

The University of South Carolina

You're a Gamecock for life.

2001

The University of South Carolina features perhaps the most unique and electrifying pregame entrance in all of college football. The Gamecocks assemble in the southeast corner of Williams-Brice Stadium, and as more than 82,000 fans begin to roar in anticipation, the theme song from "2001 - A Space Odyssey" begins to blare over the stadium sound system. At the music continues, the excitement builds and the sound of the crowd grows defeaning. At the precise moment, in perfect coordination with the music, the Gamecocks storm onto the field.

The theme "2001" corresponds with the University's Bicentennial, which was celebrated six years ago.

Cocky

South Zarolina's official mascot, Cocky, appears at many Gamecock Athletics events. Known for his zany antics and widely-recognized around the country, Cocky has been a member of Capital One's Mascot All-America team for three straight years.

Alma Mater

"We Hail Thee Carolina" We hail thee, Carolina, and sing thy high praise With loyal devotion, remembering the days When proudly we sought thee, thy children to be: Here's a health, Carolina, forever to thee!

Since pilgrims of learning, we entered thy walls And found dearest comrades in thy classic halls We've honored and loved thee as sons faithfully; Here's a health, Carolina, forever to thee!

Generations of sons have rejoiced to proclaim Thy watchword of service, thy beauty and fame; For ages to come shall their rallying cry be: Here's a health, Carolina, forever to thee!

Fair shrine of high honor and truth, thou shalt still Blaze forth as a beacon, thy mission fulfill, And crowned by all hearts in a new jubilee: Here's a health, Carolina, forever to thee!

Fight Song

"The Fighting Gamecocks Lead the Way" Hey, Let's give a cheer, Carolina is here, The Fighting Gamecocks lead the way.

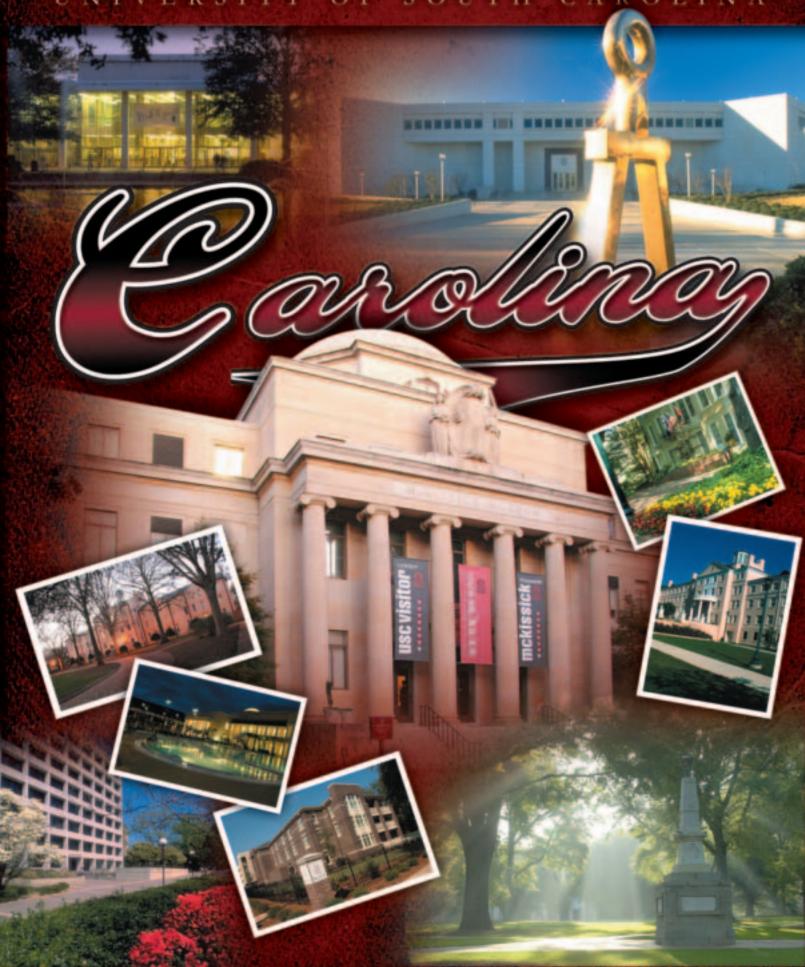

Who gives a care, If the going gets tough, And when it is rough, that's when the 'Cocks get going.

Hail to our colors of garnet and black, In Carolina pride have we.

So, Go Gamecocks Go - FIGHT! Drive for the goal - FIGHT! USC will win today - GO COCKS! So, let's give a cheer, Carolina is here. The Fighting Gamecocks All The Way!
