Lawrenceville, Ga./Collins Hill

Junior Year (2005-06)

Ranked among Carolina's leading scorers in 2005-06 ... Posted 10 double-figure scoring games, including a 15-point outburst at No. 3 LSU and a pair of 14-point performances in the Gamecocks' win at Alabama in which she was a perfect 4-for-4 from three-point range and against Georgia ... Scored a season-high 20 points against Georgia Southern, connecting on 8-of-16 attempts from the field and 4-of-11 attempts from three point range ... Scored 19 points and grabbed four rebounds in only 20 minutes of action against Savannah State ... Stepped up to distribute a season-high six assists in Carolina's win over Ole Miss when point guard Lea Fabbri was saddled with foul trouble ... Scored eight points and grabbed seven rebounds in Carolina's win over Winthrop, with five of her boards coming on the offensive glass ... Missed the Minnesota game with an injury to her left ankle that she sustained in practice the day before ... Returned to action in the next game against Ohio, scoring nine points in 11 minutes against the Bobcats.

Sophomore Year (2004-05)

Erupted for 28 points against Clemson, knocking down 5-of-10 attempts from three-point range against the Tigers ... Led USC in its win over Alabama when Lauren Simms went down with a knee injury in the first half, turning in a 19-point, nine-rebound effort in Carolina's win over the Crimson Tide ... With Simms still sidelined against Kentucky, Booker added another 15 points and nine rebounds to lift Carolina to its second SEC win ... Hauled in a career-best 13 rebounds at Arkansas, more than doubling her previous career high of six ... Scored 15 points against No. 1/1 LSU, playing all 40 minutes against the Tigers ... Scored 12 points and grabbed five rebounds (four offensive) at home against Tennessee ... Added 16 points on 4-of-7 shooting from three-point range at Alabama ... Averaged 37.3 minutes played per game over the last six games of the season.

Freshman Year (2003-04)

What Drives You: Passion and aggression.

Advice You'd Give To Young People: Always stay focused and know that God has created you to do great things, as my mom would say

What Do You Most Look Forward To During Your Freshman Year: Winning and having fun!!!

Why South Carolina: Location. It is not too close to home yet it is far enough away. They have one of the best programs for my major. Of course my coaches, teammates, and playing time. The campus is nice. I get my own room, because I love my privacy. I genuinely felt it deep, deep in my gut that this was the place for me to continue playing my basketball career.

What Drives You: The fans, my family, my team, and I just have a love for the game.

Advice You'd Give To Young People: Never give up. Always strive for what you believe in and what you want to do in life. Never let anyone tell you different or bring you down in any way. You control your future.

What Do You Most Look Forward To During Your Freshman Year: I want to become a Freshman All-American and want to lead my team to the Championship.

Why South Carolina: The team, the coaches and I just felt the chemistry with everyone on the staff that this is for me. When I came here on my visit, as soon as I stepped on campus I got a gut feeling that this is where I belong. I'm used to the city life so I just wanted to see something different and better.
