Carolina Gamecocks

1975 (51-6) - 2nd at College World Series

The foundation for South Carolina's first trip to the College World Series in 1975 was laid a year earlier when the Gamecocks earned their first invitation to the NCAA Tournament and narrowly missed a trip to Omaha.

It could be argued that the first bricks of that foundation were actually laid in 1970 when former New York Yankee second baseman Bobby Richardson was hired by athletics director Paul Dietzel with a mandate to put Gamecock baseball on the map.

Richardson was South Carolina's first full time baseball coach. Previously the diamond program was headed by part timers, usually an assistant football coach or physical education professor, or -- in the tenure of Bob Reising (1964-65) -- a professor of English literature.

The Gamecocks had never played an expanded schedule, 34 games in 1969 under football assistant Jack Powers being the most. That team finished with a 12-21-1 record the year before Richardson came on board.

The 21-8 mark accomplished under Powers in 1967 represented the record for wins in a season. To say baseball was a .500 program at best was borne out by statistics. Over 67 seasons, the Gamecocks had finished with 34 winning records against 33 losing seasons and 10 break even years.

Richardson started slowly, having never coached or managed a team before. However his illustrious 12-year career with the Yankees, which included seven World Series appearances and a Most Valuable Player in the fall classic of 1960, had prepared him well. His first record of 14-20 would be South Carolina's last losing record over the next 30 years.

After an 18-12 finish in 1971, Richardson bumped the schedule up to 41 games in 1972 and finished 25-16. A 26-15-1 record followed in 1973 and the first NCAA bid came along in 1974 when the final record was 48-8. A 2-1 loss to Miami at Starkville, Miss. prevented a trip to Omaha.

The 1975 team featured a four-man pitching rotation of senior right-handers Earl Bass (17-1), Greg Ward (13-4), Raymond Lavigne (8-0) and junior left-hander Tim Lewis (11-0), a starting record of 49-5. The bullpen was used sparingly and contributed two wins and a loss to the final record of 51-6-1.

Bass, runner-up to Arizona State shortstop Jerry Maddox for national player of the year honors, was a first team All-America choice for the second time and senior first baseman Hank Small clubbed 19 home runs with a .390 batting average to also earn All-America honors. Lewis and Lavigne pitched back-to-back no-hit wins as South Carolina lost only four and tied one of 49 regular season games.

That earned a host site for regional play and the Gamecocks swept past The Citadel, Temple and North Carolina State and moved on to Omaha, one of eight teams competing for the national championship.

Bass with relief help from seldom used closer Mike Cromer defeated Seton Hall 3-1 in the first round and Ward downed Eastern Michigan 5-1. Bass came back to defeat Arizona State 6-3 and after three rounds South Carolina was 3-0 and the only undefeated team.

Under a rule change adopted the following year, South Carolina would have earned a bye but under the procedure in force in 1975 there was a drawing and Arizona State won the bye. South Carolina played Texas. Ward had a rare bad game and the Longhorns drubbed the Gamecocks 17-6, leaving three teams in the double elimination field with one loss apiece.

Bass and Ward had each started twice in Omaha while Lewis (11-0) and Lavigne (8-0) had not been used despite their combined record of 19-0

Lewis got his chance, on his mother's birthday, against a well rested Arizona State team and he responded with a 4-1 complete game victory when the Gamecocks rallied from a 1-0 deficit with four runs in the top of the ninth inning against previously undefeated (14-0) Sun Devil ace Greg Cochran.

A scoreless game with two outs in the bottom of the eighth inning, Bob Pate singled and Jerry Maddox hit a bloop triple that landed a few inches fair in right field to give Arizona State a 1-0 lead.

Second baseman Mark Van Bever doubled to lead off the ninth and shortstop Jeff Grantz bunted the tying run to third. Right fielder Garry Hancock singled to drive in Van Bever. Small singled and Steve King walked to load the bases with one out. A fielder's choice RBI, two Sun Devil errors and a squeeze bunt plated three more runs and South Carolina led 4-1.

Lewis retired the side in the bottom of the ninth and South Carolina, in its first trip ever to the College World Series, met Texas for the national championship. That title eluded the Gamecocks, however, and the Longhorns prevailed 5-1. The only Gamecock run came on a home run by Hank Small.

Bass won his last six decisions in 1974 and first 17 in 1975 to establish a National record of 23 consecutive wins. He finished the season 17-1 and 34-3 for his career. The staff had an earned run average of 2.00 in 503 innings. Pitchers recorded 26 complete games and 13 shutouts.

SEASON IN REVIEW

HISTORY & RECORDS

1977 (43-12) - 2nd at College World Series

Two years after their first trip to the College World Series, the Gamecocks found themselves back in Omaha under a different head coach.

Bobby Richardson, who in seven seasons built the South Carolina program into a national power, resigned and June Raines was brought in to continue the success forged by Richardson. That included South Carolina's first three bids to the NCAA Tournament and first trip to Omaha.

For Raines, it was a return to the Gamecock Roost. Following a 10-year career as a catcher in the Cleveland Indians and Washington Senators minor league systems, Raines had served as a student assistant coach under Jack Powers and Richardson while earning bachelor and masters degrees.

Raines inherited a good nucleus from Richardson whose final team, 1976, had compiled a 38-14 record. Richardson's previous two teams were 48-8 in 1974 and 51-6-1 in 1975.

Raines added some outstanding talent in outfielder Mookie Wilson, catcher Johnny Long and right-handed pitcher Randy Martz from the Gamecock football squad to the returnees left by Richardson.

Through his first 20 games, Raines won 68 percent of the time, excellent under most criteria but somewhat short of Richardson's .828 percentage over his final three seasons. After winning 10 of his first 11 games, Raines saw his team lose five and tie one over the next nine. Arch rival Clemson, on the other hand, was unbeaten after 26 games with the best record in the nation.

South Carolina broke the Tigers' win streak with a 2-1 victory at Clemson behind Martz and the Gamecocks compiled a 30-6 record the remainder of the season for a final mark of 43-12-1. The late season surge included two more wins over Clemson for a sweep of the season series.

South Carolina was awarded its fourth consecutive regional site but quickly fell into the losers' bracket with a 7-6 loss to nationally second ranked South Alabama. Starter Randy Martz left the game with the lead but the bullpen couldn't hold it. Carolina would have to win four consecutive games over the next three days if it was to win the regional.

The uphill trek began with a 4-1 win over East Carolina behind a six-hit complete game by right-hander Jim Lewis. The task ahead required two Sunday victories to force a show-down game on Monday.

Ed Lynch, from the Gamecock basketball team, drew the first assignment and stifled South Alabama. He scattered seven hits in an 11-2 rout. Sophomore right-hander Hal Hutchens caused some anxious moments when he allowed 12 hits and walked four but was tough with runners on base. With ninth inning relief help from Lewis, Hutchens came out with a 5-2 win over Wake Forest. With two days rest, Randy Martz got the call vs. the Demon Deacons. Although he allowed 10 hits, he struck out 12. Johnny Hinkel, Mark Van Bever and Mookie Wilson homered as the Gamecocks won 6-1 to clinch a spot in Omaha.

The opening game of the 1977 College World Series was a classic. With undefeated Randy Martz pitching for South Carolina, and Panamanian right-hander Jaime Cocanower for Baylor, the score was tied 1-1 after nine innings with both starters still on the mound.

Martz retired the first two Baylor batters in the top of the 10th but three successive ground ball singles produced a run and the Bears took a 2-1 lead to the bottom of the 10th inning.

Van Bever lashed a double down the left field line and advanced to third when Wilson grounded out to deep short-stop. That brought up left fielder Chuck McLean who hit a line drive on the first pitch that carried over Baylor center fielder Burl Coker's head.

Raines said later that he would have held McLean at third if he had been the third base coach. However, after nine innings, he had turned third base coaching duties over to assistant Johnny Hunton "to change over the luck" and Hunton waved McLean past third base. He slid home safely with an inside the park home run and a 3-2 Gamecock victory.

Lewis scattered eight hits and struck out 14 defeating Cal State-Los Angeles 6-2 and Martz came back on short rest to down Southern Illinois Carbondale 5-4 earning South Carolina a bye to the championship round as the only undefeated team.

A shoulder injury to power hitting first baseman Johnny Hinkel (15 home runs) left the Gamecocks a little short. Lynch pitched well in a complete game effort but lost 6-2 to Arizona State setting up another meeting with the Sun Devils. Lewis also pitched well but was on the short end of a 2-1 score and for the second time in two tries, South Carolina finished second in the College World Series.

Martz, with a 14-0 record, was named National Player of the Year, first team All-America and first round draft choice of the Chicago Cubs. He pitched four years in the major leagues. Wilson was second team All-America and played 1,403 major league games in 12 seasons with the Mets and Blue Jays. Lynch played eight years with the Mets and Cubs and became general manager of the Cubs. Lewis made it to the big leagues for brief stints with the Mariners, Yankees and Twins.

Carolina Gamecocks

1981 (46-15) - 4th at College World Series

After a three-year absence, South Carolina made its third trip to the College World Series in 1981. The Gamecocks finished second in 1975 and 1977 but didn't make the NCAA field in 1978 and '79. In 1980 they were invited but didn't make it out of the regional.

A 40-13 regular season record earned a host site for the 1981 regional. A win over Temple and two over Memphis State punched Carolina's ticket to Omaha where Oklahoma State was the opening round opponent. The only South Carolina player with World Series experience was fifth year senior third baseman Tommy "Termite" Williams, who was a freshman reserve second baseman on the 1977 squad.

In two previous trips to Omaha, Carolina had won its first three games but faced a different reality in 1981, falling into the loser's bracket. Oklahoma State scored three times in the first inning and twice in the third to lead 5-0. The Gamecocks battled back to tie the score at 5-5 with three runs in the top of the ninth but a three run home run by Stan Baughn won it for the Cowboys 8-5 in the 10th inning.

An elimination game against the Black Bears of Maine was postponed 24 hours by rain, and another rain delay with Carolina trailing 5-2 in the third inning didn't do a lot for confidence as the Gamecocks committed five errors. Don Gordon was charged with seven unearned runs and trailed 7-6 when Joe Kucharski came in for relief.

The sophomore handcuffed Maine on two singles over the final 4.1 innings. Carolina offset bad defense with a 17-hit attack that included two monstrous two-run home runs by Rob Lowery to win 12-7. At that time, Lowery was the sixth player to homer twice in a World Series game but the first in 25 years.

Jim Curl also had a two-run homer and Paul Hollins contributed three hits.

In an effort to shore up the defense before taking on Mississippi State, head coach June Raines moved Tommy Williams from third to second base where Jamey Thaw had committed two of the five errors against Maine. Williams had played second most of his career before moving to third as a senior.

South Carolina jumped out to a 6-0 lead after three innings and held on to edge Mississippi State 6-5 by surviving three serious late inning Bulldog threats. Freshman designated hitter/backup catcher Chris Boyle homered and Lowery hit his third of the series.

Mississippi State cut the lead to 6-5 with three runs in the seventh inning and had the bases loaded when Bobby Kish was summoned from the bullpen with one out and Bruce Castoria at the plate. Earlier, Castoria had tied the NCAA record with his 29th home run for Mississippi State's first two runs.

Kish struck Castoria out on three pitches and then retired Terry Loe on a pop up to Williams to escape further damage. Tony Gage led off the Mississippi State eighth with a triple but Kish retired Brad Winkler on a pop to Curl at first base. Sensing a suicide squeeze, Lowery called for a pitchout and Gage was an easy out to blunt that threat.

Raines said, "I wish I could take credit for calling a pitch out but I can't. Thank goodness my catcher is smart enough to call for a pitchout in that situation."

Mississippi State continued to threaten, putting two men on base with two outs in the ninth inning. A wild pitch advanced the tying run to third and the potential winning run to second with slugger Castoria coming up.

Raines signaled for an intentional walk but Kish demurred. He contended he could strike the Bulldog slugger out again. After a conference on the mound, the head coach prevailed and the bases were loaded. Terry Lee hit a ground ball to shortstop Rod Carraway, who flipped to second baseman Williams to force Castoria and end the game.

Left-hander Bret Baynham, South Carolina's starting pitcher, was the winner to improve his record to 10-1. Kish earned his seventh save.

Luck and pitching depth ran out and Carolina lost a slugfest, 10-7, to Arizona State, to finish fourth in the 1981 College World Series. Carolina gave up four runs in the first inning and never caught up. The Gamecocks had 11 hits, three of them by Curl, who hit his 17th home run.

For the first time, South Carolina had two .400 hitters. Lowery batted .404 and Paul Hollins an even .400. Curl hit .347 with 75 runs batted in. Left fielder Joe McCarthy hit only .266 but stole 51 bases and walked 71 times. Hollins had 14 home runs, Lowery 13 and Boyle had 10. Dennis Lubert had a 12-2 record, Don Gordon 8-3 and Kucharski 6-1 along with 10-1 by Baynham.

The final record was 46-15. The team batting average was .316 with 83 home runs. Lubert pitched 10 complete games, Gordon eight, Baynham three and Kucharski two.

Arizona State defeated Oklahoma State in the championship game to win its fifth College World Series championship.

1982 (45-13) - 7th at College World Series

The 24 players who earned letters on the 1982 South Carolina baseball squad were a near equal split of 11 veterans from the 1981 roster that advanced to fourth place in the College World Series and 13 newcomers, nine freshmen and four junior college recruits.

Chris Boyle, primarily a designated hitter as a freshman, took over the catching role backed up by Neil Fox, a sophomore who also saw action at DH. Four freshmen figured prominently in the lineup, outfielders Scott Mackie, and Phillip Wilson, shortstop Kent Anderson and first baseman Greg Morhardt. Wilson was the brother of former Gamecock star Mookie Wilson, who had a 12-year major league career.

Offensive power was down considerably from the previous year. Junior college newcomer Larry Hernandez was the batting champion with a .347 average while the 1981 Gamecocks boasted two .400 hitters in catcher Rob Lowery and outfielder Paul Hollins. Boyle led the 1982 team in home runs with 12 and runs batted in with 59. Hernandez had 10 homers, Anderson eight, Wilson five.

The year before, Jim Curl had 17 homers and 75 RBI. Three others had double digit homers, including freshman Boyle with 10.

The pitching staff earned run average of 3.28, however, was considerably better than the year before and the final win-loss record was about the same, 45-13 in 1982 compared to 46-15 in 1981.

The 1982 squad hosted a six-team regional and swept through four wins to send Carolina to Omaha for the fourth time but the first time the Gamecocks had qualified in back to back seasons. Others in the regional field included West Virginia, making its first trip to the playoffs since 1967, The Citadel, Old Dominion, North Carolina and East Carolina.

Kucharski opened the regional by shutting out West Virginia 7-0 with ninth inning help from closer Babel. Boyle and Fox each had two hits and Boyle homered. The losing Mountaineers turned a triple play.

Carolina led 6-2 over The Citadel after three and a half innings the next day when rain suspended action overnight. Gordon, who had started, returned to the mound and worked into the eighth inning before giving way to Babel. The Gamecocks held on for a 6-4 win. Morhardt had four hits and five foot six inch senior outfielder Robby Vollmer homered.

In a rematch with The Citadel, the Gamecocks won 11-2 behind Lubert. Vollmer had four hits, third baseman John Sullivan had a pair of doubles and Wilson homered.

West Virginia held Carolina to four hits the second time around but the Gamecocks prevailed 5-2 behind a brilliant mound effort by Calvert, who scattered four hits through seven innings before turning the mound over to Babel. Sullivan figured in both Gamecock runs, driving in one with a single and scoring the other on a wild pitch. Jamey Thaw had two hits to account for half the Carolina total.

The 45-11 record entering the World Series would have been even more sensational if the Gamecocks hadn't played Miami (Fla.) eight times. Carolina lost four in a row at Coral Gables and three of four in Columbia. It was small consolation that Miami would end the season as College World Series champions.

Pitching, which had fashioned eight shutouts during the regular season fell apart in Omaha, giving up 25 runs in two games. For the first time in four trips, Carolina left Omaha without a win.

Stanford blasted the Gamecocks 15-4 with an 11-run sixth inning. Oklahoma State led 8-0 after three innings. Carolina rallied with a seven-run fifth on a grand slam by Sullivan and a two-run homer by Morhardt but the Gamecocks were eliminated from Omaha 10-8.

Kucharski pitched 112 innings with an 11-3 record and was a first team selection to the coaches All-America team. He was the first round draft selection of the Baltimore Orioles. Lubert was 8-3 as a senior and finished with a 31-9 career record. Gordon's 1982 record was 10-3. He made it to the majors, pitching in 78 games with the Toronto Blue Jays and Cleveland Indians, 1986-88.

The other member of the 1982 team to advance to the majors was shortstop Kent Anderson. A freshman in '82, he played two more years at Carolina and in 1989 and '90 saw action in 135 games with the California Angels.

Calvert's record was 8-1 and his 2.78 earned run average in 68 innings led the team. Babel had a 3-0 record and Werner was 3-2. Hernandez, Sullivan, Morhardt, Boyle and Wilson had .300 or better batting averages and Vollmer led stolen bases with 23.

Carolina Gamecocks

1985 (47-22) - 7th at College World Series

To say 1985 was a record-breaking year for South Carolina would be an understatement. The Gamecocks played more games, hit more home runs, scored more runs, turned more double plays and established a host of other records on the way to their fifth trip to the College World Series.

After a two-year absence, South Carolina was back in Omaha for the fifth time in 12 years but the stay was short. A 14-inning 1-0 loss to Arkansas and a 16-11 slugfest defeat at the hands of Oklahoma State eliminated the Gamecocks.

The season record was 47-22. The 47 wins were the third most in school history up to that point. The 1975 CWS second place team won 51 and the 1974 team won 48. A modest nine games was the longest win streak in 1985 but the team never lost more than three in a row.

Perhaps the most impressive record was 144 home runs in 69 games. That surpassed by 61 the 83 homers in 1981.

The old mark for home runs in a game was six. The 1985 Gamecocks hit nine in a 29-3 win over Cincinnati that was called after six innings due to the lopsided score.

First baseman Joe Datin hit 23 home runs, four more than the previous individual record for a season set by Hank Small in 1975. Nineteen different players homered and seven of them hit 10 or more.

Outfielder Keith Killian, who came back from serious injuries in an automobile accident shortly after graduating from high school, started as a senior and homered 15 times. Outfielder Rob Rinehart and designated hitter/outfielder Charlie Aldrich had 14 each, third baseman Lewis Jenkins 12, shortstop Jeff Barns and outfielder Jeff Morris 10 each.

Two players tied a record with three home runs in a game. Dave Hollins against Cincinnati and Rinehart against Clemson. Only one player, Chris Boyle, in 1983, had homered three times before. There have been a number of three-homer games since.

South Carolina players hit six grand slam home runs in 1985. Datin homered with the bases loaded twice. Aldrich, Hollins, Morris and Killian once each. Datin set a school record by driving in 88 runs. Rinehart drove in 60 and Killian 53. Three others logged 40 or more RBI.

Rinehart's 21 doubles bested the previous record by one. Rinehart would have had 22 two baggers but was called out once for not touching second base. The 149 doubles established a team record.

The defense for the most part was overshadowed by the heavy hitting offense but the Gamecocks turned a school record 68 double plays sparked by the middle infield combo of transfers, Barns at shortstop and Riley Polk at second. Barns transferred from Baptist College (now Charleston Southern University) and Polk spent two years at Clemson.

Barns became the first Gamecock to have 100 hits in a season and batted .351 in 285 at-bats.

Mike Cook was the only pitcher with double digit wins but his 16-2 record represented the second most victories in a season behind Earl Bass' 17-1 record in 1975. Cook also tied the mark with 19 starts and the strikeout record with 168 in 141 innings. Glenn Jenkins had an 8-2 record and left-hander Brian Currie was 6-2. His only loss after April was to Oklahoma State at the College World Series.

Altogether the 1985 Gamecocks established 34 team records and 19 individual marks.

Catcher Jeff Churchich experienced the thrill of playing in the College World Series in his hometown of Omaha. He shared time behind the plate with Scott Lambert, who threw out 14 base runners attempting to steal, three of them in World Series games. Both also saw time as the designated hitter. Lambert batted .292 with seven homers. Churchich hit .294 and also had seven home runs.

Eddie Lendenski, a pinch hitting specialist, had five homers and a .274 average. Lendenski's most dramatic hit was a two-out ninth inning two-run homer that defeated Virginia Tech.

While the 1985 Gamecock lost both of their World Series decisions, the 1-0 loss to Arkansas was one of the greatest games in Rosenblatt Stadium history. The Razorbacks pushed across a run with two outs in the bottom of the 14th inning to end the second longest CWS game ever.

Cook started against Arkansas and pitched seven scoreless innings. Senior right-hander Bo Taylor, the sixth Carolina pitcher, worked the 14th inning, and was charged with the loss.

To earn the bid to the NCAA Tournament, South Carolina swept a six-game series with in-state rival Clemson, beat Metro Conference rival Virginia Tech five out of seven meetings and took two of three from Big Ten member Ohio State and frequent College World Series qualifier Maine.

Cook was a first team selection on the All-America teams selected by the coaches and by Baseball America. He was the first round draft selection by the California Angels and appeared in 41 major league games, 1986-93. Hollins, a freshman in 1985, was the other player from the '85 team to make it to the majors. In 12 years, 1990-2002, he played in 983 games and reached the MLB World Series in 1993 with the Philadelphia Phillies.

2002 (57-18) - 2nd at College World Series

South Carolina head coach Ray Tanner vowed he would never attend the College World Series until he took a team there. He and the Gamecocks made it to Omaha in 2002 for his first trip and the sixth Carolina trip to the CWS.

It began in February with a nine-game win streak and ended in late June before 24,089 fans on college baseball's biggest stage, the national championship game in Johnny Rosenblatt Stadium.

It had been 17 years since South Carolina had made it to the World Series and success came after two disappointments. South Carolina won regional tournaments in 2000 and 2001 but 3-2 one-run deciding game super regional losses to Louisiana-Lafayette and Stanford denied a trip to Nebraska.

Just a few of the highlights of 2002 included a school record 75 games, a record 57 victories, a Southeastern Conference championship, a third consecutive regional title, a super regional championship and a battle through the loser's bracket to the national championship game.

It might be said the Gamecocks did it the hard way. They trailed defending national champion Miami in the deciding super regional game before rallying for five ninth inning runs to win 6-4.

After being shut out 11-0 by Georgia Tech in the opening game of the World Series, the Gamecocks defeated home state favorite Nebraska, Georgia Tech in a rematch and Palmetto State rival Clemson twice to advance to center stage against Texas.

Along the way the Gamecocks broke or tied more than 50 team and individual records.

The Southeastern Conference championship was the second in three years for Carolina, which won nine of 10 conference series in compiling a 21-8 SEC record. The only series loss was to Arkansas and Carolina avenged that by defeating the Razorbacks twice in the Southeastern Conference tournament.

The season produced three All-America players, the SEC Player of the Year, four all-conference selections, three SEC all-tournament choices, five members of the all-regional team and the Scholar Athlete of the Year in the Southeastern Conference.

Senior Blake Taylor, who led the nation with 21 saves, first baseman Yaron Peters, who hit 29 home runs and drove in 95, were first team All-America and shortstop Drew Meyer made second team.

Peters batted .377 and was SEC Player of the Year. Peters, Taylor, Meyer and designated hitter Trey Dyson were named to the All-SEC team. Dyson won the H. Boyd McWhorter Award as the top male student-athlete in the SEC with a 3.74 grade point average in Business Administration.

The only pitcher with double digit wins was left-hander Gary Bell (10-3). Left-hander David Marchbanks was 9-4 and three others won seven games. Five regulars batted better than .300 and the team hit 122 home runs and 178 doubles.

In the regional, Carolina defeated Virginia Commonwealth and North Carolina twice with one loss to the Tar Heels, to advance to the super regional against defending champion Miami. Carolina won the first game 10-7, led by third baseman Brian Buscher's four hits that included his 14th home run. The Gamecocks lost the second game 5-2 to set up the dramatic ninth inning rally in the showdown game.

Miami was the home team and led 4-1 after eight innings but Peters doubled and Buscher singled to open the ninth. Pinch hitter Dyson doubled to score Peters with Buscher also scoring on the play off a Miami error and beating out a throw at home plate. Pinch hitter Garris Gonce doubled to tie the score with a bunt, wild pitch and passed ball scoring the final two runs. Carolina held off a Miami threat in the bottom of the ninth for a 6-4 victory.

A media poll nominated Carolina as most likely to be the first team eliminated in Omaha and it looked that way when sophomore Kyle Bakker shut the Gamecocks out 11-0 on six hits while Georgia Tech pounded five Gamecock pitchers for 19 hits.

Carolina had to face home state favorite Nebraska in the first elimination game. The Gamecocks trailed 4-0 after three innings but scored five runs in the fourth. The game went into the ninth inning tied 8-8. Meyer walked and Peters hit his 29th home run. Carolina prevailed 10-8 but faced a rematch with Georgia Tech. Freshman Aaron Rawl gave up 14 hits but pitched a complete game in a 9-5 win. Justin Harris and Steve Thomas homered for the Gamecocks.

Clemson won three of four regular season games with Carolina and the Tigers were 2-0 in the World Series when the Palmetto State entries squared off. Carolina ripped four Clemson pitchers for 15 hits including two home runs by Dyson and one each by Thomas and Landon Powell. Carolina won 12-4. Freshman left-hander Matt Campbell was the winner with 5.1 innings of two-hit shutout relief.

The Gamecocks faced Clemson again and Steven Bondurant pitched a complete game to eliminate the Tigers 10-2. Carolina had 13 hits, three by Kevin Melillo and Powell drove in three runs.

Texas advanced undefeated through three games with Carolina playing five to reach the finals. Carolina managed 10 hits but the pitching staff couldn't contain the Longhorn bats in a 12-6 loss for the title.

Carolina Gamecocks

2003 (45-22) - 5th at College World Series

The 2003 Gamecocks got off to a slow start in the South-eastern Conference race but swept their final nine conference games to win the Eastern Division for the fourth time in five years. Carolina advanced to the College World Series with five straight NCAA regional and super regional victories.

South Carolina advanced to the World Series for the second consecutive year and seventh time dating back to 1975. Prospects appeared dim after a 1-5 start in conference play but Carolina rallied to a 7-8 mark halfway through the conference season and went 12-3 the second half for a final SEC record of 19-11.

Carolina received its 19th bid to the NCAA Tournament but the Gamecocks didn't land a regional host site. Instead, the Gamecocks were shipped to Atlanta as the second seed to host Georgia Tech. Others in the four-team regional field were East Carolina and Stetson. Carolina had won eight of nine region-als played at Sarge Frye Field but in nine tries had never won a regional played away from home.

Atlanta in 2003 was destined to be a first. It began with a 4-0 shutout of East Carolina behind a five-hit complete game by right-hander Chris Hernandez. Stetson upset tournament favorite Georgia Tech.

A second consecutive complete game, this one by All-America left-hander David Marchbanks, produced a 7-2 win over Stetson. With one win left to clinch, left-hander Steven Bondurant pitched seven strong innings and Aaron Rawl contributed two hitless innings in a 9-3 win that sent Carolina to the super regional. Since number one seed Georgia Tech was eliminated in two games, South Carolina was awarded the host site for the super regional.

The North Carolina Tar Heels were the opponent in a rematch from 2002 when South Carolina went to Omaha by winning two of three over North Carolina. This time it was a Gamecock sweep, dispatching the Tar Heels 5-4 and 14-4.

The road to Omaha was paved by a host of heroes. Catcher Landon Powell homered four times in the regional and super regional with 10 runs batted in. He had 11 hits in 20 at bats. Third baseman Brian Buscher homered twice and drove in seven runs. Shortstop Justin Harris had 11 hits. Freshman right fielder Steven Tolleson batted .400, first baseman Bryan Triplett .391, second baseman Kevin Melillo .368, freshman left fielder Michael Campbell .333 and designated hitter Nick Gardiner .308 during the surge.

The Gamecocks managed one win in Omaha. After only two hits and being shut out by Stanford 8-0, Carolina remained alive by outscoring fellow Southeastern Conference member LSU 11-10 in an elimination game. The dream of a national championship ended with a second loss to Stanford, 13-6, who advanced to the finals but lost the title to Rice.

In the win over LSU, Carolina stormed ahead 6-0 before falling behind to the Tigers in the middle innings by scoring three times in the bottom of the eighth inning to eliminate the Bayou Bengals. LSU bunched all of its runs in the second, third, fourth and fifth innings before sophomore left-hander Matt Campbell silenced the Tiger bats. He allowed two hits in 5.1 innings. It was Campbell's second College World Series win. He had defeated Clemson in Omaha as a freshman.

A single by Buscher and an error scored two runs to tie the score in the eighth inning before Powell drove in the go ahead run with a double. Harris and Melillo had solo home runs.

Stanford's 17-hit attack in the second meeting sent the Gamecocks home. Buscher, Triplett and Tolleson homered in a losing cause.

Buscher won the Southeastern Conference batting title with a .393 average and was third team All-America. Marchbanks, with a 15-3 record and a 2.73 earned run average in 135.1 innings, was Southeastern Conference Pitcher of the Year and a first team All-America.

Marchbanks became the first South Carolina pitcher in 29 years to win two games in the same day when he defeated Mississippi State with three relief innings of a rain suspended game from the previous day and then worked 7.2 innings to down the Bulldogs 2-1. Matt Campbell was named SEC Pitcher of the Week three times and was selected to the USA Baseball National team coached by Ray Tanner.

Harris had a 17-game hitting streak. Buscher began the season with a 14-game streak and had another streak of 13 games. The team batting average was .306 and the .973 fielding average was just two percentage points below the school record of .975.

Melillo set a second base record when he had nine assists in an 8-5 win over LSU at Baton Rouge.

2003 also marked the year of the "Dirty Dozen," as first coined by local Columbia writer Ron Morris. With the season in the balance, 12 returning players from the previous season brought the entire team together for a team "bonfire". Surrounding a metal barrel at Sarge Frye Field, the Gamecocks started a fire with each player tossing a personal item of theirs, sacrificing for a showing of a team unity. The Dirty Dozen (Steven Bondurant, Rico Bravo, Brian Buscher, Jon Coutlangus, Justin Harris, Chris Hernandez, David Marchbanks, Kevin Melillo, Landon Powell, Matt Riddle, Tim Seaton and Demetric Smith).

SEASON IN REVIEW

HISTORY & RECORDS

2004 (53-17) - 3rd at College World Series

South Carolina opened the 2004 season with an 18-game win streak, struggled in the first half of the Southeastern Conference schedule, rallied to sweep its first SEC Tournament championship, the NCAA regional and super regional and earned a third consecutive trip to the College World Series.

The Gamecocks took a 10-game win streak to Omaha but for the third year in a row had to battle after a first-game loss. After being shut out 2-0 by eventual national champion Cal State Fullerton, the Gamecocks pounded fellow SEC member LSU 15-4 and Miami (Fla.) 15-11 and defeated Cal State Fullerton 5-3, the only team to claim a win over Fullerton in the 2004 World Series.

Fullerton won the third and rubber game meeting 4-0 to end the Gamecock season with a 53-17 final record and third place in the CWS.

The 18-game streak was the second longest in school history. While Carolina had won the SEC championship in 2000 and 2002, the Gamecocks had never won the conference tournament. A 7-6 10-inning win over Ole Miss, a 5-1 decision over Tennessee, a 3-2 victory vs. Arkansas and a 3-2 win over Vanderbilt resulted in a tournament sweep.

Ole Miss scored six runs in the eighth inning and Carolina trailed 6-2 when the Rebels brought ace left-hander Stephen Head in from the bullpen. During the regular season, Head pitched a six-hit complete game 6-1 win over the Gamecocks.

Kevin Melillo started the ninth with a hit but Steve Pearce struck out. Michael Campbell walked but Head then struck out Steven Reinhold. Pinch hitter Hank Parks drove in a run with a single. Then came the dramatics for Carolina as Steven Tolleson hit a three-run homer off the left field foul pole to send the game into extra innings. Carolina won it in the 10th inning when Brendan Winn and Melillo singled and Pearce drove in Winn with a double.

Singles by Melillo, Pearce, Michael Campbell and Davy

Gregg erased a 2-1 Vanderbilt lead and Carolina won 3-2 behind right-hander Zac McCamie to win its first SEC tournament title.

The Gamecocks came home to host the regional with North Carolina, Coastal Carolina and The Citadel also in the field. It was North Carolina's third consecutive post-season trip to Sarge Frye Field.

Carolina used home runs by Steve Pearce, Ryan Mahoney and Mark Stanley, each of which had three RBI, to down The Citadel 12-4. Stanley was in the game because center fielder Davy Gregg had been hit in the head by a pitch and Stanley wound up on the all-tournament team.

Carolina downed North Carolina 5-2 then and would face the Tar Heels again after they eliminated The Citadel. Melillo homered and Steve Pearce had three hits and two RBI as South Carolina moved on to the super regional with a 7-6 win.

Carolina advanced to the super regional for the fifth consecutive year and hosted the final stop before Omaha. East Carolina brought a gaudy 51-11 record to Columbia. Both games in the super regional were close but South Carolina prevailed and qualified for the World Series for the third consecutive year.

Matt Campbell and Jason Fletcher shut the Pirates out until the eighth inning when Fletcher allowed two runs. USC brought Chad Blackwell in to close the game out as he earned his 18th save. Carolina won 4-2 by bunching single runs in the fourth and fifth innings and two runs in the sixth. Michael Campbell was the only Gamecock with two hits and Pearce hit a solo home run.

McCamie improved his record to 7-0 with a relief win in the second game won by the Gamecocks 5-3. Blackwell earned his 19th save and the key hit was an eighth inning double by Tolleson.

The lineup in the World Series almost looked like the Southeastern Conference tournament revisited. Four of the eight teams came from the nation's premier college baseball conference. LSU joined Carolina in its bracket along with Miami (Fla.) and Cal State Fullerton. Georgia and Arkansas were in the other bracket with Arizona and Texas.

Carolina only managed three hits in a 2-0 shutout loss to Cal State Fullerton but came back to eliminate LSU for the second year in a row. A six-run sixth inning featured a 19-hit Gamecock attack. LSU had 16 hits. The only extra base hit among the 35 by both teams was a ninth inning double by Tolleson. Melillo and Pearce had four singles apiece.

Carolina came out swinging against Miami and led 12-0 after four innings but had to fend off a fierce Hurricane rally to win 15-11. Billy Buckner scattered seven hits over seven innings and led 15-4 to improve his record 7-2. Everyone in the Gamecock batting order had at least one hit.

In the 5-3 win over Fullerton, USC had 12 hits, three by Triplett, who homered and drove in three runs. Fletcher pitched six innings to finish his season with a 6-1 record. Blackwell pitched three perfect innings to earn his 20th save.

Fullerton shut the Gamecocks out for the second time to advance at the series. Carolina managed eight hits, three by Pearce, but couldn't get on the scoreboard
