EQUAL OPPORTUNITY STATEMENT

The University of South Carolina does not discriminate in educational or employment opportunities or decisions for qualified persons on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, disability, sexual orientation or veteran status.

NOTE TO THE MEDIA

The South Carolina athletics media relations office is ready to assist members of the media in their coverage of Gamecock athletics. Any questions concerning South Carolina women's soccer should be directed to Miquel Jacobs at (803) 777-1516. Interviews, statistics or general information concerning student-athletes or coach Shelley Smith and/or her staff should be handled through the media relations office. All accommodations will be made for members of the media planning to attend a home match with at least 24 hours advanced notice. Thank you for your interest in South Carolina women's soccer.

ON THE INTERNET

Members of the media can find updated statistics, box scores, game recaps and other news releases at www.GamecocksOnline.com, the online home of the University of South Carolina athletics department and its 20 varsity sports. Weekly game notes will be available prior to each soccer match. Live audio and video broadcasts are available for home matches as well as live scoring.

INTERVIEWS

Post-game interviews with Coach Smith or student-athletes will be conducted on the field after a 10-minute cooling off period. All post-game interview requests must be received and coordinated by Miquel Jacobs or another member of the South Carolina Media Relations department. Interviews are also available throughout the week at a time that does not conflict with the athletic or class schedule of student-athletes. The best time to contact Coach Smith is Monday-Thursday from 9am-noon. Coaches and student-athletes are also available immediately before or after practice (appx. 5 p.m.). To schedule an interview on a non-gameday, contact Miquel Jacobs in the South Carolina Media Relations Office.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Photographers may shoot from the sidelines at Stone Stadium, excluding the team bench areas. On the endlines, photographers are permitted only in the area between the sidelines and the edges of the penalty box.

VISITING RADIO

Visiting radio should notify South Carolina media relations at least 24 hours prior to the match so that accommodations can be made.

South Carolina head coach Shelley Smith talks to Steve Bell from the Fox Soccer Channel prior to a national television broadcast at Stone Stadium on Oct. 30, 2008 for the NSCAA Game of the Week.

THREE CONSECUTIVE NCAA APPEARANCES

GAMECOCKS ONLINE.COM

GamecocksOnline.com is the official home of South Carolina Athletics, providing updated statistics, rosters, schedules, feature stories, press releases and game recaps for the women's soccer program and South Carolina's 20 other varsity sports.

ARCHIVES

Archived press releases, game recaps and statistics are available from the 2001 soccer season to the present. Photo galleries can also be viewed at GamecocksOnline.com in addition to feature stories on student-athletes and specialty videos.

LIVE VIDEO BROADCASTS

For the second consecutive season, a live video broadcast will be available for all South Carolina home contests in 2009. Feature interviews with student-athletes and past games are also archived and can be viewed 24/7 with Gamecock All-Access. An audio broadcast will also be available live for select matches and archived for all home matches.

LIVE STATS

Fans can follow the action live with Gametracker, CBS Sports' online stat tracker that provides up-to-the-minute statistics, game details, and full play-by-play. Gametracker will be available for all home matches.

ONLINE STORE

Purchase your Gamecock apparel and accessories or participate in auctions at the official South Carolina store.

Updated game notes and stats will be posted prior to every match and can be viewed in their entirety using Adobe Acrobat Reader.

INTERNATIONAL SUCCESS

Current and former Gamecocks have enjoyed success in international competition after their careers at South Carolina, including the five that have played for their respective national teams during their careers.

GABRIELLE GILBERT

The Canadian national played for Canada's U16 and U18.

SAMANTHA GONZALEZ

Another incoming freshman, Samantha Gonzalez (#16), spent her prep career as a member of the U20 Mexico National Team before coming to Columbia.

LINDA GREENE

Forward Linda Greene was instrumental in building the South Carolina women's soccer program as a member of the first graduating class. A Dublin, Ireland native, Greene was a member of the Ireland Under-20 and Senior B national squads for four years. After USC, Greene won four national championships with the Shamrock Rovers, Ireland's most prestigious premier league team.

MIIA-MARIA HEINONEN

Forward Mii-Maria Heinonen was one of two Finnish players to join the Gamecocks for the 2000 season, coming to Carolina along with Jessica Julin. Heinonen brought national team experience as a member of the Finland Under-16 national team.

JESSICA JULIN

Midfielder Jessica Julin (#3), a 2001 and 2002 All-SEC selection, has competed on the senior national team of her native Finland for over 10 years. She served as team captain, a role that she has held the past four years.

DARCEL MOLLON

2007 graduate Darcel Mollon has been a member of the Trinidad and Tobago Under-17 and Under-20 national teams the past four years. A regular starter, Mollon has competed with the national teams during CONCACAF and Olympic Trial competitions.

MANDY PAVLOVITS

Defender Mandy Pavlovits was one of the most sought after defenders in the United States when she came to Carolina in 1996. A Parade All-American, Pavlovits was the first Gamecock to have US national team experience as a member of the Under-16 national team.

ACADEMIC ALL-AMERICANS

The Academic All-America® Teams program honors student-athletes annually who have succeeded at the highest level on the playing field and in the classroom. Individuals are selected through voting by CoSIDA, the College Sports Information Directors of America. To be eligible, a student-athlete must be a starter or key reserve, maintain a cumulative grade point average of 3.20 on a scale of 4.00, have reached sophomore athletic and academic standings and be nominated by his/her sports information director.

South Carolina is one of four Division I schools to have had a CoSIDA Academic All-America selection each of the past five seasons, joining Charlotte, North Carolina and Notre Dame as programs to hold that distinction. Blakely Mattern - Carolina's first First Team Academic All-America selection - joins Erin Sullivan (2007-third team), Annie Galloway (2006-second team), Kimmy Criss (2005-third team), Kanika McAlpine (2002-second team) and Jennie Ondo (1999-second team) as Gamecock women's soccer honorees since the program's inception. Carolina is tied for eighth all-time for the most women's soccer CoSIDA Academic All-America selections.

STONE STADIUM

Located in the heart of the South Carolina campus is the home field of the Gamecocks, Eugene E. Stone III Stadium, also known as "The Graveyard". South Carolina has won 26 of its last 30 matches at Stone Stadium, highlighted by a 15-match unbeaten streak that spanned from the 2006 to the 2007 season.

The stadium, which debuted in 1996, was made possible by the $1 million gift given by the late Eugene E. Stone III. Stone, who passed away in 1997, was a Carolina graduate and Chairman of Stone Manufacturing Co. Inc., the parent company of UMBRO International.

Stone Stadium's west side houses permanent stands that hold 4,000 fans. Total capacity reaches 5,700 with east side seating. It is equipped with a 70' by 8' press box with a camera deck on top. A state-of-the-art scoreboard was added to the facility before the start of the 2008, providing video capabilities in addition to fan-friendly features. The 2009 season will see the addition of a state-of-the-art drainage system.

The facility includes two team rooms, an officials' dressing room, a concession stand for the fans and restrooms for both men and women on each side of the stadium. Also nicknamed "The Graveyard" because of its close proximity to the House of Peace cemetery, the area has proven to be a "graveyard" for opponents over the years. The Gamecocks have posted an 83-40-11 overall record in their 13 seasons at home, including a 6-1 mark against opponents when playing in front of crowds of 1,000 fans or more.
