2007 GAMECOCK SOFTBALL

2007 Outlook

Softball Gears up for the 2007 Season

The season of spring symbolizes new starts and no one knows that better than South Carolina head softball coach Joyce Compton and her Gamecock team. Despite coming off of a tumultuous 2006 campaign, and the loss of senior Chrissy Schoonmaker for the season due to a car accident, the Gamecocks are gearing up with new faces, solid talent and a fierce competitive drive.

The Gamecocks return senior McKenna Hughes (Lexington, S.C.) and five juniors: Jessica Josker (San Jacinto, Calif.), Becky Martinez (Weston, Fla.), Lisa Longo (Valley Stream, N.Y.), Whitney Wierzbicki (Beaufort, S.C.) and Kate Pouliot (Fountain Inn, S.C.). Hughes enters the season just three home runs shy of becoming South Carolina's all-time career home run leader, while Josker ranks among USC's top 10 in career batting averages.

McKenna Hughes

South Carolina also returns a strong sophomore class in Ashton Payne (Richmond, Va.) and Jacqueline Wetherbee (Acworth, Ga.). Payne led the team in stolen bases and had the second highest batting average for the season, while Wetherbee is the front-runner to serve as the Gamecocks' first baseman.

Seven newcomers will don the Garnet and Black for the first time this season, in hopes of establishing a very well rounded lineup for the 2007 season. Anna Johnson (Reynolds, Ga.) is expected to back up Hughes behind the plate, while Caitlin Marsh (Capistrano Beach, Calif.) could split time between the outfield and second base. Tori Martin (Katy, Texas) and Adele Voigt (Dacula, Ga.) are outfield prospects and Lindsay Walker (Fayetteville, Ga.) is expected to play shortstop.

"We look to work in the new players and get them the experience they need early in the season," said Compton. "I like how the team has worked this fall. We need to convert that into what we do in games."

Compton expects more out of her veteran players this year and wants to integrate the freshman very quickly into the lineup. For the returning players, she expects them to step up defensively and lead by example.

"We have a very solid incoming class this year and they will be called on immediately to play and contribute," said Compton. "They provide speed, new blood and excitement, depth and defense. Having so many freshmen that will be playing, we will need to work on consistency and getting better as the season progresses."

In the circle, the Gamecocks return Pouliot, who continues to pitch stronger each year. In 2006, Pouliot pitched 90.2 innings and recorded 85 strikeouts and three saves. She dropped her ERA by 2.6 runs per game in 24 appearances. USC will also rely on newcomers Krystle Robinson (Valdosta, Ga.) and junior college transfer Melissa Hendon (Ringgold, Ga.) to assist with pitching duties. Hendon comes from Chattanooga State where she compiled a 62-9 record and 553 strikeouts for a 0.16 ERA in two years.

"Kate looks better then ever and has a great approach to pitching this year," said Compton. "Krystle will be a very good college pitcher and she will get experience immediately."

As the Gamecocks continue to work towards an SEC and NCAA title, the focus is clear - it is a team effort. The 2007 schedule will be tough, especially in SEC action, but it is one that could strengthen the Gamecocks and lead to a successful season. USC will face six teams ranked in the NFCA/USA Today Coaches Preseason Poll, including No. 2 Tennessee, No. 7 Alabama, No. 9 LSU, No. 14 Georgia, No. 24 Auburn and No. 25 Florida State. Gamecock opponents receiving votes in the preseason poll include Florida, North Carolina, FAU, Kansas and Virginia Tech.

USC will begin action Feb. 9-11 in Boca Raton, Fla. at the FAU Tournament. USC's home opener will be Feb. 14 with a single game against Western Carolina. After a trip to Tallahassee, Fla. for the FSU Tournament Feb. 16-17, and a midweek doubleheader at the College of Charleston, the Garnet and Black will host the USC Tournament, Feb. 24-25. At the tournament, the Gamecocks will face Jacksonville State, East Tennessee and Radford.

The Gamecocks will also host Big East opponent, Pittsburgh and ACC foes Virginia Tech and North Carolina this year, while SEC play begins March 10. USC will open conference action by traveling to Fayetteville, Ark. to take on the Lady 'Backs and will return home to welcome the Alabama Crimson Tide on March 17 for its conference home opener.

The remainder of the SEC schedule has the Gamecocks traveling to Tennessee, Mississippi State, LSU and Auburn. USC will host Georgia, Kentucky, Florida and Ole Miss. The SEC Tournament will be held in Auburn, Ala., May 10-12, followed by NCAA Tournament action.

"I am excited about the upcoming season. I believe we will have a chance to win on a consistent basis," said Compton. "There is a lot of excitement on our team as well."

Excitement = Drive = Competitiveness. With that formula, the Gamecocks are determined to hold nothing back once the bats start swinging and the chants start roaring to play ball.
