CONFERENCE USA

The South Carolina men's soccer team will begin a new era in 2005 as it begins play in Conference USA. The Gamecocks have joined the conference as one of three affiliate members for men's soccer. Carolina has been an independent in men's soccer for all but two years of the program's 27-year existence, but this season the Gamecocks will be back in a conference for the first time since 1994. USC played in the Metro Conference during the 1993 and 1994 seasons, winning the title in 1993.

Conference USA is a 10-team league in men's soccer. In addition to South Carolina Kentucky and Florida International were invited to play in C-USA as affiliate members in men's soccer. UAB, UCF, East Carolina, Memphis, Marshall, SMU and Tulsa are full members of Conference USA who compete in men's soccer.

Conference USA will feature a nine-match round robin schedule during the regular season. The Gamecocks will play five C-USA matches on the road and four in Columbia at Stone Stadium. USC travels to East Carolina, Memphis, UAB, Florida International and Central Florida, and hosts Kentucky, Marshall, Tulsa and SMU this season.
