Basketball Media Information

• • • This edition of the University of South Carolina men's basketball media guide is a source of information for the news media. Additional information is available upon request.

News releases, action and still photographs, video tapes and digital images are also available to accredited members of the news media.

Press Credentials

Credentials are limited to working daily print and electronic media and to others whose duties make necessary access to press row. Photo credentials are issued only to working photographers and cinematographers. Photographers are restricted to the baselines and may use natural light only. Flash units are not allowed.

All media requests should be directed to Michelle Schmitt at the following address:

Sports Information Office Rex Enright Athletic Center 1300 Rosewood Drive Columbia, SC 29208 (803) 777-7872

Again this year, USC will use the on-line credentialing system. Please contact Michelle Schmitt for more information.

Requests made less than one week prior to the game date will not be mailed, but will be left at the Press Pass Gate on the Gadsden Street side of The Colonial Center. A limited number of media parking spaces are available in the in the media lot located adjacent to The Colonial Center. Media parking credentials must be requested well in advance.

Interview Policies

In-Season Interview Policy: All interview requests must be made in advance to the sports information office. Beginning with the start of practice on September 27, all veteran players and coaches are available for interviews 45 minutes prior to the start of practice or team meeting, whichever is first. Anyone requesting interviews must call Michelle Schmitt in the Sports Information Office prior to noon the day of the interview. All interviews will be finished prior to the start of the scheduled practice.

If a telephone interview is desired, the player will be given the phone number of the media representative and will call that individual prior to the start of practice.

Post-Game Interview Policy: After each home game, Coach Odom will come to the press interview room (located adjacent to the media room) for interviews with the media. The visiting coach is asked to do likewise. After a brief cooling off period, South Carolina players are available for interviews to take place inside the Gamecock dressing room meeting area. Opponent lockerroom policies may vary amongst schools, so contact the opponent SID for information.

Road Interview Policy: Anyone desiring interviews with Coach Odom must make a request in advance, prior to the Gamecocks' departure from Columbia. Interviews with Coach Odom will take place prior to shootaround practice the day of the game. No player interviews are allowed until after the game once the team leaves Columbia.

Home Game Services

Press Room: The South Carolina basketball press room is located behind the visitor bench near the lockerroom cluster at The Colonial Center. This room is open only to accredited media with proper credentials.

Telephones and Fax Machines: The Sports Information Office furnishes eight telephones in the press room and computer data lines on press row and in the press room. Those phones and data lines are available on a first come, first served basis. Fax service is also furnished without charge, though media are encouraged to access the athletic web site (www.uscsports.com) for boxscores, play-by-plays and quotes after games.

Food Services: A buffet will be served in the press room prior to all games. Snacks and drinks will be served at halftime. Soft drinks and coffee may be taken to press row, but all food must be consumed in the press room area.

Statistical Services: Complete play-byplay, full halftime and final boxscores and postgame coaches' quotes are provided to the media. Computer monitors are on press row for broadcast and print media locations for immediate updates throughout the game.

Broadcasts

Announce positions for radio and television broadcasts are on press row at courtside. Under contracted reciprocal agreements, the official designated originating station or network of the visiting team is allowed to originate radio broadcasts without charge. All others will be charged an origination fee.

Stations must contact Liz McMillian of Gamecock Sports Properties at (803) 777–7895 for information.

SEC Media Information

The South Carolina program is fortunate to be a part of the Southeastern Conference, but the relationship goes farther than just from conference to school. The SEC has been a pioneer over the years in terms of media services, and again on tap this season are many things to make your job easier when covering the nation's premier conference.

Teleconference Call

The Southeastern Conference holds a coaches teleconference call, twice a week beginning with the league schedule in January. The call features all 12 head coaches as well as a selected women's head coach for seven-minute question and answer sessions.

Each coach will preview his club and then take questions on a broad-cast-quality feed. The call will be every Monday in December (Dec. 6-27) and January 3 - March 7 on every Monday and Thursday.

Contact the SEC office for the phone number to access the call. The schedule of coaches is below. All times listed are eastern:

| 10:00 a.m. | _ | Kevin Stallings (Vanderbilt)       |
|------------|---|------------------------------------|
| 10:07 a.m. | _ | Billy Donovan (Florida)            |

World Wide Web

Media can access the latest league information via the world wide web at www.secsports.com. Sports Information Directors of each school are required to file a full boxscore to the SEC by 9 a.m., following each game, and updated standings, team leaders and notes are made available to everyone via the web by noon that day.

Southeastern Conference information and updated releases also are available via a media-only web site. For that address, contact DeWayne Peevy at the SEC office at (205) 458-3010. Media can access the updated

SEC standings and releases via normal web formats as well as via Adobe Acrobat (.pdf) files on that site as well.

Also, the coaches teleconference can be listened to live on www.secsports.com and those who miss the call can hear the entire conference archived on the site.

SEC Releases

The weekly SEC basketball release, including standings, statistics, player of the week and team notes is distributed to the SEC's 12 sports information offices each Monday afternoon during the season. In addition, SEC standings and statistics will be updated each Wednesday and Thursday throughout the conference schedule (January-March). All information is also accessible via www.secsports.com and Media Team Link.

In addition, updated standings and statistics are provided on game day at all member institutions. The Associated Press wire will move the player of the week, standings and statistics on a weekly basis.

The release will not be mailed or faxed to media outlets. However, consideration will be given to those outlets with special needs.

SEC Player of the Week

The SEC will name a "Player of the Week" throughout the 2004-05 conference season (November through March) for Monday afternoon publication

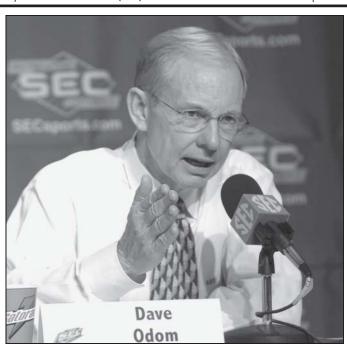

Nominations for the award are made by the SEC basketball sports information directors. The honorees are selected by a vote of the SEC Media Relations staff.

SEC Media Relations Contact

The Southeastern Conference Media Relations Men's Basketball Contact is DeWayne Peevy (Associate Director/Men's Basketball Contact). The SEC office can be contacted at the address below.

Gamecock Sports Properties, a partnership between the University of South Carolina Athletics Department and two of the country's leaders in the collegiate sports marketing industry, ISP Sports and Learfield Communications, Inc., is the originating medium for radio coverage of the 2004–05 Carolina basketball games.

Gamecock Sports Properties is responsible for the overall management of the athletic program's corporate partnership effort, which includes producing and selling and distributing the Gamecock Radio Network (live play-by-play and call-in shows) and television programming (pay per view opportunities and coaches shows), print advertising in various athletic department publications, and selected signage in university athletic facilities.

Mike Morgan enters his second year as the play-by-play announcer for the men's basketball team. It follows a tenure of performing play-by-play for women's basketball. In addition, Morgan has performed play-by-play duties for select Gamecock basketball games on CSS television. Morgan also served as a color commentator and studio host for the men's games for four years.

Morgan has been the voice of Gamecock baseball for the last five years, adding the team's three stints at the 2002, 2003 and 2004 College World Series - adding a runner-up finish in 2002. He also does play-by-play for Gamecock football games on television rebroadcasts. In addition, Morgan is the co-host for the post-game call-in show following Gamecock football games.

For the last eight years in the Columbia, he has hosted a daily sports call-in talk show, presently heard weekdays from 6-8 pm on 1320 WIS.

Before coming to Columbia, Morgan performed various play-by-play stints for football, basketball, and baseball. He also performed play-by-play for the single-A affiliate of the Cleveland Indians, the Columbus Redstixx, for two seasons.

Morgan, 31, a native of New York was a long-time resident of Boca Raton, Fla. He graduated from the University of Central Florida and Pope John Paul High School.

Morgan is joined at courtside by Casey Manning. Manning, a Gamecock Basketball letterman in the early 1970s, is in his 12th season behind the mike as color analyst for South Carolina basketball games.

Manning earned a varsity letter for the legendary coach Frank McGuire from 1971-73 (freshmen were not eligible to play varsity basketball) and attended USC from 1969-73. He won the Freshman Academic Award while playing in 62 career games, scoring 150 total points.

Manning is currently a Circuit Court Judge for the state of South Carolina, having served in that capacity since April 1994. He served as the Assistant Attorney General for the state of South Carolina for five years (1983–88), and was the Chief of Prosecutions from 1988–89. Manning is a member of the American Bar Association and is a past president of the South Carolina Athletic Hall of Fame.

Popular Columbia Attractions

- USC's new 18,000 seat arena, The Colonial Center, has received rave reviews since opening in November, 2002, and is the crown jewel of the Midlands.
- The South Carolina State Museum is the largest museum in the state. Exhibits represent the disciplines of history, art, natural history, science and technology.
- Five Points is a unique shopping district offering a fine array of restaurants, clothing stores, gift shops, bookstores and ice cream parlors.
- Congaree Vista offers dining and entertainment, unique retail shops, and galleries with local artists at work. This historic warehouse district is alive with excitement.
- Riverbanks Zoo and Gardens, with more than 2,000 animals, is considered one of the best zoos in the nation. The 70-acre Botanical Garden and the Aquarium/Reptile Complex are among the favorite attractions.
- The historic Horseshoe is located in the heart of the University of South Carolina campus. This area once served as a Union hospital during the Civil War. The Horseshoe includes the McKissick Museum (with various changing exhibits) and the Confederate Relic Room & Museum (containing a collection of relics of South Carolina dating back from the Colonial times).
- The present-day South Carolina State House was begun in 1855 and survived cannon hits scored by General Sherman in the Civil War. The beautiful grounds include historical monuments and statues commemorating Confederate War heroes.
- The Columbia Riverfront Park and Historic Canal has a pleasant walking trail along the canal which was built in the 1830s. The area also includes the city's original waterworks and hydroelectric plant.

The Colonial Center Capacity: 18,000

Directions to The Colonial Center

From Columbia Metropolitan Airport: follow Aviation Way to Highway 302. Take a left on 302 and continue four miles to Knox Abbott Drive. Merge left onto Knox Abbott and follow three miles, making the first left after the intersection of Huger Street. The Colonial Center is directly ahead, two blocks.

From I-20 and I-26 (east bound): take the Columbia exit, continuing onto Elmwood Avenue. Follow Elmwood for one-half mile and make a right onto Assembly Street (at the McDonald's). Follow Assembly approximately three miles. At the top of the hill, take a right hand turn on to Greene Street. The Colonial Center is directly ahead, two blocks.

From I-26 (west bound): take the Interstate 77 exit and continue for four miles. Take the Shop Road exit, follow past one traffic light and merge onto George Rogers Boulevard/Assembly Street. At the fourth traffic light (corner of Assembly and Greene), make a left on to Greene Street. The Colonial Center is directly ahead, two blocks.

Press Parking for games is located behind the arena on Gadsden Street and in the main lots. Complete parking details are to be announced. Press Will Call is at the press entrance on the Gadsden Street side of the arena.
